Gypsum Plant Employees Go Back to Work

New Contract Adopted By Gypsum Company And Workers Union

Employees at the Alabaster plant of the United States Gypsum Company went back to work last Monday morning following a contract agreement reached Sunday. The agreement was ratified at a general meeting of Local 371, United Gas, Coke and Chemical Workers, CIO.

The six weeks old strike involved seniority problems, an increase in hourly wage and shift differentials. The strike came at the start of the spring season's operation which followed the winter layoff.

A "back to work" call was issued for all shifts Monday.

"As you know, negotiations have been completed between the company and the union," Maynard VanOrnum, works manager at the Alabaster plant, stated Tuesday in a communication to employees of the company. "Copies of the new contract are on the bulletin board."

"The settlement included the substantial improvements offered before the strike, and an additional two cent per hour increase, making a total wage rate increase of eight cents per hour. The four and six cent shift differentials in our original offer were also part of the final contract. The present three cent marine bonus was continued."

"All of you will share with me the relief that this strike has ended, and particularly that it has ended with good feeling among all of us."

"We will all work together to put the plant back into full operation efficiently and quickly."

Immediate Enlargement of Plant Announced by Timco

C. Warren Wagner, vice-president and general manager of Timco Corporation of this city, announced Wednesday, immediate enlargement of their plant facilities on Oak Street by 50 percent.

The plant produces stampings and sheet metal fabrications. It was established here in July of 1952.

The enlargement program will include two new buildings, 40 x 100 and 40 x 40 in size, added to the existing structure. Approximately 7,000 square feet of concrete will be poured for floors and foundation. There will be a five-ton monorail system for handling steel directly from cars to plant.

"Production schedules will be stepped up shortly to move them double those of last year and the first of this year," stated Mr. Wagner. "In spite of the fact that the business itself is seasonal, Timco's level of employment has remained nearly constant since last fall. With plant expansion, there will be an increase in employment."

"Current plan is the hiring of approximately 15 more men during the next 90 days. These openings will include spot welding, assembly, welding and truck driving."

"All full time employees now are residents of the Tawas area. Timco shop employees enjoy a plantwide bonus and this has averaged between 25 and 30 percent of the payroll since the plan was adopted last fall."

Police Chief Praises Boys for Good Work

George Ruth, Tawas City chief of police, in an interview Wednesday, commended students of the schools in the city for their excellent cooperation with his department and the fire department. He pointed out two instances in which this was especially noteworthy.

April 21, after a ball game with Harrisville High School, they heard that a fire was out of control at the Tawas City dump in Wilber township. They immediately went to the scene and assisted the Tawas City Fire Department and the Conservation and Forest Service Fire Department in putting out the fire.

April 23, at about 11:10 a. m. while playing ball at St. Joseph School the boys noticed a large grass fire across the railroad tracks from Orville Leslie and Sons Garage. They immediately turned in an alarm to the fire department and then fought the fire having it under control when the fire department arrived.

ABOUT YOUR HOME

By Frances Dell

Choosing the right insulation for your home is a complex matter. Most of the time it depends on a number of factors such as the coldness of your climate, or how hot the sun exposure is in the summer.

In either extreme, very hot or very cold, more insulation is necessary. Consider how much fuel costs locally. If fuel is expensive, it pays to use the most effective insulation available.

Good insulation not only reduces heat losses, but will reduce the size of the boiler or furnace needed. It is a mistake to use an over-sized heating plant because no plant can use fuel efficiently except at its rated capacity.

Insulation itself is not enough. Be sure to stop drafts in your home by weather-stripping all windows and doors. Good weather-stripping will stop 90 percent of the cold air leakage.

Window glass in a single thickness lets heat escape from five to six times faster than an ordinary frame wall without insulation.

Insulation makes vapor barriers necessary and you must

Don't think that because you live in an area where winter cold is not a problem, you can build a comfortable home with no thought of insulation. Stopping the sun's heat is important to your comfort. Complete insulation can change a house from an impossible hot box to a place of comfort. Insulation is a must if you are considering air-conditioning your home.

End Of The World

Lesson for May 17, 1953

THE first part of the New Testament to be put into writing was not any one of the gospels; it was an epistle. Which one, is not absolutely certain; but it may very well have been the pair of letters Paul wrote to the Thessalonians. There is much too much in them for all of it to be put into one Sunday school lesson. One thing certainly seems very modern: the Thessalonians, and perhaps Paul too, were under the impression that their times were the last times. The end of the world seemed to be right around the corner. That was nearly 2,000 years ago. But what with the A-bomb and now the H-bomb, it looks as if this ancient fear might not be off-center at all nowadays. It is worth while to think—What if this year 1953 really is the last chapter in history?

God Has His Plans

One thing does seem clear from the Bible, whatever else people may quarrel about: The end of the world will be brought about by God, not man. It is quite possible, as the most distinguished scientists tell us, that any one H-bomb will totally and instantly destroy life in a circle of 300 square miles. But this earth is a large one, and there aren't enough H-bombs to carpet the whole place. The civilized nations, so-called, may blow each other off the map; but there will be a lot of uncivilized ones left that don't have money for H-bombs and couldn't even spell the word. "Civilization" as we know it can be destroyed by man; but not the heavens and the earth. This is not to call the H-bomb a trifle; its use would be the most colossal evil ever devised at one stroke by mankind. But while the use of it might well be the last chapter for all readers of this paper, there are people who can't read (in Patagonia for instance) who would scarcely know the thing had been dropped. When God is ready to bring the whole story of man to an end, he will do it. Men will not.

Suppose This Is It?

St. Francis of Assisi, such a universal Christian that both the Roman Catholic church and the Salvation Army have claimed him for their own, was once asked, while he was hoeing in the garden, "What would you do if you knew the world was coming to an end this afternoon?" His answer was: "I would go on and finish this hoeing." Paul had to deal with this problem in the Thessalonian church. His first letter to them got them to thinking the end of all things must be right around the corner. So a good many of them decided there wasn't any use in working any more. They quit their jobs, they sat around or visited one another's homes and all they talked about was, "When will it be?" Paul's advice (besides telling them the end was not as near as they thought) was to get jobs and stay on them. It was to these people that he made his famous remark, "If any one will not work, let him not eat." (II Thess. 3:10.) Suppose the end of all things is really near? Suppose Christ came in glory to your town before Sunday? Which would be better to be found just sitting around, or steadily doing whatever duty might be yours at the time?

The End of the World

After all, what does the "end of the world" mean, practically? It means that you and the world part company; it vanishes before your eyes. Whatever world you exist in from that moment on, it will not be this one. Now it makes small difference whether the world folds up and leaves you, or whether you fold up and leave the world. One thing is sure: whichever way it is, you and this world, this world of day and night, of sin and suffering and saintliness, this world of animals, vegetables and minerals—you and this world are going to part company, and you are going to live long enough to see that day. The big question is not the nearness or the farness of that day. The question is: What are you going to put into the time between now and then? If you will look around you, you will see many evidences that those who went before you made wise plans and did good deeds not only for their own time but for yours as well.

No doubt about it... Chevrolet trucks must be the best buy! This year—for the 12th straight production year—truck users are buying more Chevrolet trucks than any other make. That couldn't be true unless Chevrolet trucks offered more of what you want. Already, 1953's official sales figures tell a remarkable story of clear-cut and decisive preference for Chevrolet trucks. But, this is not surprising, for truck users everywhere are discovering how far ahead of all others Chevrolet trucks really are. They are discovering things like the tremendous new power in advanced Loadmaster engines in heavy-duty models... the remarkable gasoline economy... the extra ruggedness and strength of heavier, more rigid frame construction. And, in addition to all these advantages, the Chevrolet line lists for less than any other trucks of comparable size and capacity. So, before you buy any truck, stop in and see us. McKAY SALES CO. Needlecraft News by Nancy Baxter

Everybody enjoys a contest as you can see by the popularity of a friendly competition at carnivals and fairs, circuses and sports events. With the coming of Spring, state, county and local fairs are being put in readiness for their annual competitive exhibitions of arts and crafts and farm products. To needleworkers, for example, these are exciting times. In anticipation of the 1953 Nationwide Crochet Contest and its $2600 in cash prizes, crocheters of all ages are busily preparing their entries in hope of attaining prizes and recognition. They will enter their pieces at participating state, county or local fairs for the preliminary judgments. The articles winning the special blue ribbons at these judgments will be eligible for the national judging in New York.

CHAMPIONS OF CROCHET

In addition to the many cash prizes offered in the Nationwide Crochet Contest, three crocheters will be chosen as the Crochet Champions of the nation—Grand National Champion, who will be the crocheter of the best piece entered in the Contest, the Men's Champion and the Teen-Age Champion. Each will receive cash prizes and free trips to New York City. Also, all trip expenses will be paid for the parent or guardian accompanying the Teen-Age Champion. As celebrities of crochet, the Champions will be seen on television and heard on the radio. They will have their pictures taken for newspapers and newsreels and have a glorious tour of New York City.

WHAT WILL YOUR ENTRY BE?

You may enter as many pieces as you wish in the Nationwide Crochet Contest, providing each one fulfills the entry requirements. Perhaps you would like to enter an article in the Centerpiece category—The lace plaque shown here, measuring 27 inches in diameter, would be a good selection. Or make it in the 18 inch size for the Luncheon Set classification. At 11 inches, it would classify for the Daily division. If you would like the instructions for crocheting this LACE PLAQUE and the complete contest rules and list of prizes offered, send a stamped, for Ranger Lake, Northern Canada, on a ten day fishing trip.

Starting for the first time in 1951-52 with one Adult Education Class enrolling 22 students for a total of 131 attendance hours of instruction, the program expanded in 1952-53 to two classes enrolling 30 students for a total of 637 attendance hours of instruction.

The course offered in 1951-52 was commercial skills, and the courses offered in 1952-53 were personal and business typing and heirloom rug hooking. Comments from the adults taking the courses have been very favorable. Many requests have been received by the teachers and the school office for continuation and expansion of the Adult Education program.

Adults interested in having classes during the 1953-54 school year are asked to help the school decide what courses to offer by letting the superintendent know what subjects they would like to study.

scale, admits Boyd R. Churchill, M. S. C. weed control specialist in the farm crops department. He points to the best known as 2,4-D in one of three forms—ester, amine salt or sodium salt.

Widest use of 2,4-D is in small grains and corn, notes Churchill, but it will injure legume seedlings, especially sweet clover and alfalfa, seeded in grain. Red and ladino clover are more tolerant but are injured by strong spray. The grain also can be damaged by spraying at the wrong time or with too strong a spray.

The best time to spray small grain is when it is six to 10 inches high, notes Churchill; There's less damage and weeds are just right to kill. Not more than a half pound of 2,4-D acid equivalent should be used per acre, he cautions, but this will kill ragweed, wild mustard and lambsquarter, the three most common weeds in small grains.

In alfalfa, a dinitro compound is safer than 2,4-D. It will kill ragweed, wild mustard and lambsquarter also, but more water is needed. Either dinitro or 2,4-D will severely damage sweet clover, he warns.

Don't Use Weed Control Chemicals as "Cure-Alls"

Farmers should not use weed-control chemicals as "cure-alls" but to supplement tried-and-true clean cultivation and clean seed, advises a Michigan State College weed control specialist.

Many chemicals show promise in experiments, and a few are proving their value on a large

4-H CLUB NOTES

By MARVIN DAVENPORT
District Agent
We have some 4-H Club members graduating from high schools throughout Iosco county, and we also have a scholarship waiting for one of them who is interested in entering Michigan State College this fall. The scholarship, awarded by the State Board of Agriculture, will pay all tuition through four years at Michigan State College provided the member maintains a 2.6 (C) average. If any of our graduating seniors are former 4-H Club members, may we remind you that a two-cent postcard can bring an application to you. All applications must be in the Cooperative Extension Service office by Tuesday, May 19.

I heard a comment not too long ago that I would like to pass on to our 4-H Club families and friends. It centers around one of the most common ailments of a 4-H Club program.
Our leaders and extension agents are forever asking for parent support and participation in the community's 4-H Club work. When parents and adults do help, a successful community club usually results. Yet now many of our leaders are faced with the youngsters trying to learn the same thing two ways. The 4-H Club leader is given bulletins, instructions at leader training schools and his or her own experiences to assist with the job of being a project or a community leader. Our interested parents learn what Johnny or Susie are doing at their 4-H Club meeting, but they know a better way. Johnny or Susie find themselves in a state of confusion. Let's we parents and adults do all we can to "let the leader lead." Your interest as a parent or an adult can give the 4-H'er a chance to tell you what they are doing. Don't forget if they can tell you, they know it.

Dates to Remember:
Saturday, May 16—Burleigh Wizards 4-H Club are having a quilt raffle, Grants Hall 2 miles west of Whittemore from the school.
Tuesday, May 19—Iosco 4-H Club Council, Grant Townhall, 8:00 p. m.
Wednesday, June 10—8:00 p. m. Iosco County Dress Revue and Talent Festival. Place announced later.
Friday, June 19—Sunday, June 21—Sr. 4-H Club Camp, members 13 and older.
Monday, June 22—Wednesday, June 24—Jr. 4-H Club members 10-13 years old.

The college graduate of 1953 will soon learn that earning a living and getting an education are two different worlds.

• If you're miserable from the "hot flashes," and accompanying irritable, restless feelings of "change of life" — you may be suffering unnecessarily!

* For... in tests by doctors... Lydia Pinkham's Compound and Tablets brought relief from such functionally-caused suffering to 83% and 80% (respectively) of the women tested! Complete or striking relief!

Yes! Research has proved these medicines thoroughly modern in action... has shown you where to look for relief from those distressing, nervous, "out of sorts" feelings of mid-life "change!"

So... get Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—or new, improved Tablets with added iron! (Wonderful, too, for the functional pains of menstrual periods.)

It acts through a woman's sympathetic nervous system to relieve distress of those awful "heat waves!"

Respectfully submitted: Lewis Rodman, George Webb, Ed. Burgess, M. Jordan, Victor J. Anderson.

Moved by Rodman supported by Jordan that the mileage and per diem report be accepted and adopted. Motion carried upon the following roll call. The Cooperative Extension Service has played an important part in the progress of agriculture in Iosco County in the last seventeen years. In that period the yields of corn have been raised 15 bushels of grain per acre and three tons of silage per acre. The value of the increase was worth over $96,000.00 to Iosco farmers.

The money spent for research and education have proven to be an investment which gives excellent returns. These results have been beneficial to both the producer and consumer and has played an important part in our national security.

The salary of the secretary, the travel expenses of the County Agent and the office expenses are paid out of the annual appropriation provided by the Iosco County Board of Supervisors.

The salary of the secretary, the travel expenses of the County Agent and the office expenses are paid out of the annual appropriation provided by the Iosco County Board of Supervisors.

Miscellaneous Group Accomplishments: Contribution to Michigan Home Demonstration Council projects, Contributed to March of Dimes and Cancer Fund, Improvements at Reno Township (cooperated with township board), Assisted at USO in Oscoda, Gave flood relief assistance, Christmas baskets for County Home and needy families.

Further acceptance and development of this part of the Extension Service program will result in a more learned and prosperous county. In last year's report we indicated an increased interest in 4-H Club work by our young folks. In 1952 Alabaster, East Tawas and Tawas City have developed Community 4-H Clubs.

Mr. Burgess reporting for the Finance and Apportionment Committee asked that the suggestion of Mr. Werth which called for placing the monthly rental check in the amount of $89.48 which will come from Michigan Department of Social Welfare as rent for the next seventeen years (17) into a special account towards construction of a new jail, be tabled until the June Session.

Mr. Black read the following report of the Welfare Committee. Tawas City, Michigan, April 17, 1953. To the Honorable Board of Supervisors of Isoco County, Gentlemen:

We, your Welfare Committee had under consideration the report of the Welfare Board and beg leave to report as follows: That said report be approved as read. We further recommend that we transfer the sum of two thousand three hundred and no dollars from the Social Welfare Fund to the Direct Relief Fund until funds are available to transfer back to the said Social Welfare Fund.

Annual Report Isoco County Department of Social Welfare - Isoco County Infirmary Isoco County Farm Year ending December 31, 1952. Tawas City, Michigan, April 1, 1953. To the Honorable Board of Supervisors of Isoco County, Michigan, Gentlemen:

The Isoco County Department of Social Welfare submits herewith a report of its activities covering the fiscal year January 1, 1952 to December 31, 1952. It has been our policy to precede our financial report with a brief outline of the principal changes and ruling effecting the welfare program.

erage of eight (8) cases in November, 1951 to twelve (12) cases in November, 1952. However, of the 12 cases carried on the Direct Relief rolls during those months, several had legal settlement in other counties and all relief extended was repaid. Several weeks ago, our department received a letter from the State Department of Social Welfare outlining a movement being made regarding abolishing legal settlement and requesting our County Board to express an opinion in the matter. Our Board went on record as being in favor of abolishing legal settlement. Most of the counties were in favor of this movement regarding abolishment of legal settlement, but no further work regarding final action has been received as yet from the State Department.

Mr. William Barber, attorney, continues to handle collection of old hospital accounts for us. Many old accounts have been paid and monthly payment plans made through Mr. Barber's assistance. Crippled & Afflicted Childrens Commission: Children under 21 years of age are hospitalized under the Crippled and Afflicted Children's program whenever possible. This program is under the jurisdiction of the Probate Court. This department makes referrals and assists the Probate Court by making the financial investigation.

During 1952 the Afflicted Children's Fund was exhausted until the first of the year. In the meantime your Board set up a fund through the Probate Judge's office to take care of emergency hospitalization for Afflicted Children, so that this obligation need not be assumed by the local Welfare Department. Vocational Rehabilitation Service: The Vocational Rehabilitation program is another State service which we have used on many occasions to benefit our clients. This program is a public service set up to preserve or restore the ability of our people to work for pay. It is primarily for people who have physical or mental impairments. Services provided are: Medical examinations, counseling, occupational tools, equipment and licenses necessary to give the disabled person a fair start. A representative visits our office each month to interview any person whom we may wish to refer for assistance.
