Many One-Time Residents Join in Celebration

3-Mile Parade Depicts Days of Pioneers

Time rolled back 100 years last week, during the Centennial celebration which observed the founding of Tawas City by Olin Whittemore in 1854.

The Centennial celebration is over, but it will be long remembered by local residents and thousands of visitors who thronged the area for one of the most successful events ever staged in this section of Michigan.

The big highlight of the celebration was the three-mile long Centennial parade Saturday afternoon through the business district of the Tawasites. A crowd estimated at more than 5,000 persons, jammed the streets along the line of march.

More than 36 organizations and businesses sponsored historical floats in the parade, along with the Tawas Area Band, Auburn Marching Band and the American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps of the Audie Johnson Post, East Tawas.

The parade featured a replica of one of the old-fashioned narrow-gauge steam locomotives which were used in the lumbering days. The "engine" was constructed by Walter Champion of Tawas City. It was patterned from an old photograph of a steam locomotive at the Prescott Mill dock.

Other floats included several horse-drawn wagons, with "lumber jacks" perched on top of logs, freshly-painted buggies, drawn by fast stepping horses, with the drivers and riders in dress of the last century.

There were covered wagons and many other interesting floats sponsored by local business places and organizations, which contrasted life in the early days with that of the present.

Several of the local auto agencies sponsored early vintage autos in the parade which made a striking contrast with the new 1954 models on display.

Along the line of march in Tawas City, hundreds of local residents, dressed in clothing styles of the 1890's, turned out to view the parade.

There were men dressed in long, swallow-tail coats and derby's, with flowing beards, and women dressed in colorful Centennial dresses and bonnets.

Despite foggy weather which threatened to put a damper on activities Saturday, the weather cleared just as the parade began down US-23 and the sun warmed the spirits of the watchers. Not to mention those of the members of the Centennial Committee.

Credit for the success of the parade goes to the organizations and business who sponsored floats and to the parade committee, headed by James Dillon, along with his corps of supervisors.

A rain storm curtailed events scheduled for last Friday afternoon, but during a lull between lightning flashes, James McLean of East Tawas walked away with top honors in the beard judging contest. McLean is quite well known for his beard-growing abilities, having won a similar contest during the Oscoda celebration several years ago.

Park Fund Gets Boost From Lee Show Returns

The Tawas City Park Fund received a total of $476.07 during the past few weeks, which represents the return from concession fees charged to Lee Shows for the operation of rides in the city park.

This latest boost to the park fund was announced during the weekly meeting of the Tawas City Businessmen's Association Thursday noon.

Returns from the sales of The Tawas Herald Centennial editions, which were sold by members of the Tawas City Fire Department and Mrs. Jack Dodson and daughter, Kathy, during the parade Saturday, will be tabulated this week-end. It is expected that the park fund will receive more than $200 from the newspaper sales.

Seek Union Recognition at Anderson Plant

Workers Set Up Picket Lines at Coach Company Works

Workmen walked out at the Anderson Coach Company Monday night. They are seeking recognition of the Carpenters Union, American Federation of Labor, as collective bargaining agent. Picket lines were set up at the company's plants.

One hundred thirty-four employees are involved in the walkout. A spokesman for the men said that the goal sought was an early action on union recognition. The walkout followed an all-day hearing Monday before a representative of the National Labor Relations Board at Bay City on a collective bargaining and union selection election. A determination by the NLRB will be made in due course of the procedure, but the workmen's group felt that a walkout would bring more immediate action, as one of the things sought is a working contract.

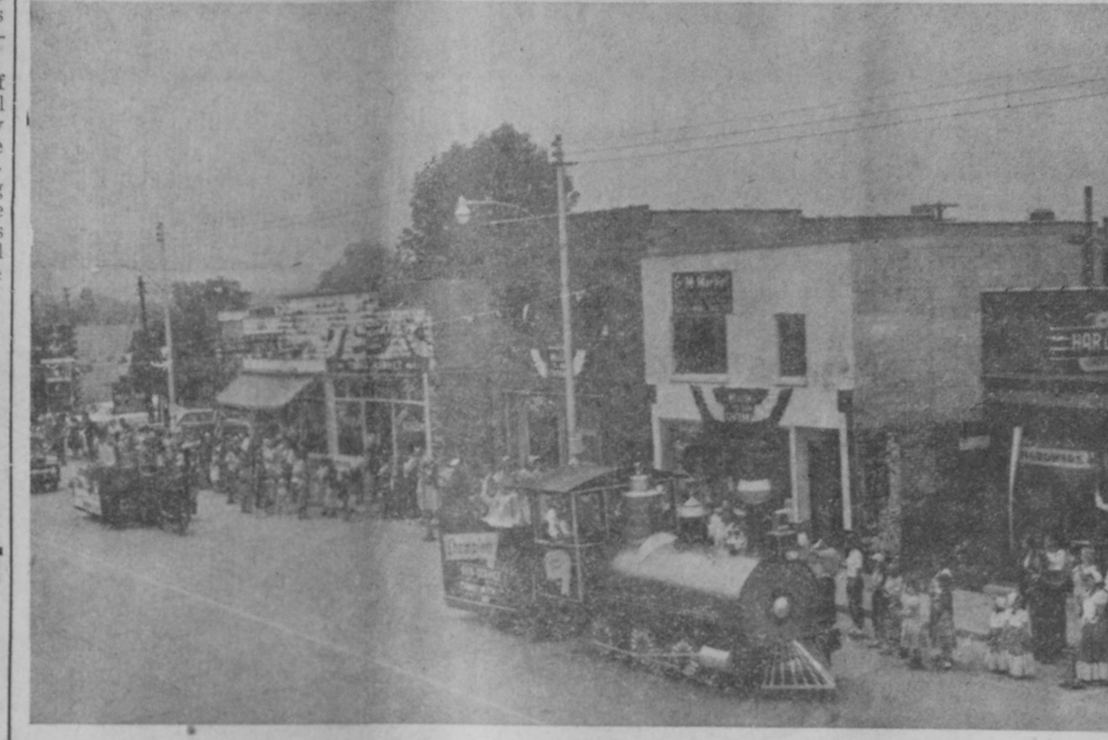

Theodore Olson, Ben Tarnowski and Fred Landon represented the workmen's group at the NLRB hearing Monday at Bay City. The company was represented by J. E. Jensen, president and general manager; Charles McCormick, vice president, and James Guest, treasurer.

Since the picket lines have been set up only company officials and supervisory employees are being allowed to cross the lines. All trucks and trailers are being stopped from entering or leaving the plant.

A company official said that the determination of which employees would be permitted to participate in an election and the matter of holding an election on whether a union is to be recognized was in the hands of the National Labor Relations Board and a determination of these matters would be made in due course.

The highlight of the Centennial festivities Saturday night was the Founder's Day banquet at the Barnes Hotel. More than 191 persons were in attendance. The guest of honor during the affair was Harlow O. Whittemore, great grandson of the founder of Tawas City. From left to right are: Hugo Keiser, Jr., secretary of the Centennial Committee; Mr. and Mrs. Harlow O. Whittemore, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. McLean. Mr. McLean was the chairman of the Centennial Committee.—Herald Photo.

Completing Program Details for Iosco Fair

Officers, department superintendents and committees of the Iosco County Agricultural Society are busy preparing for the Iosco County Fair which will be held Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, July 28, 29, 30 and 31, at Hale.

Departments will be devoted to livestock, poultry, farm produce, home economics, horticulture, art and antiques and 4-H Club projects.

Among the featured attractions are harness racing, athletic games, big midway, band concerts and vaudeville acts.

More than 8,000 people attended last year's Iosco County Fair, and was said to have been one of the best attended fairs ever held in the county. The program included many enjoyable and worthwhile features.

People are urged to plan their exhibits now. Liberal cash awards are offered in all departments.

The Iosco County Fair is giving all county crocheters an opportunity to compete in the big-sized needlework contest of the year—the Nationwide Crochet Contest. This competition is open to all crocheters—men, women and teen-agers—who like the fun of competing with fellow needleworkers. It's a contest that's truly fun and profitable to enter. No jingles to write, no box tops to save—just do what you most enjoy doing—crochet.

National cash awards in the Nationwide Crochet Contest amount to over $2,500, including $500 for the Grand National Champion, the contestant whose piece is judged superior to all others. In addition to cash awards, the Grand National Champion, the top winner in the Men Only group and the Teen-Age Girl champion will receive all-expense trips to New York City.

Rules for the contest are simple. To be eligible, a piece must be crocheted of mercerized cotton in any size thread up to and including size 100, and must have been completed since January 1, 1954, though not necessarily started this year.

Many Strange Faces Here

Many male residents of Tawas City are becoming acquainted with their respective families again this week, after shaving off several months' growth of whiskers which were carefully cultured for the Centennial celebration.

In fact, many people had forgotten what their nearest neighbor looked like, due to the "brush pile" adorning his face. No doubt the barber shops in the Tawasites have done a booming business since the end of Centennial Week last Sunday.

Regatta, Band Concert and Fireworks Feature July 4th Week-end

Chicken Barbeque Feature of Festival

The annual Tawas Bay Regatta, sponsored by the Tawas Bay Yacht Club, will be held this week-end from Saturday through Monday. The regatta will be included in the Fourth of July celebration which will be staged in the Tawasites.

The races will be run on the usual three-mile course with the starting line at the State Park Dock. It is anticipated that some 31 sailboats, plus many power boat entries, will be on hand for the event.

Trophies which will be awarded to winners of the events are: Class A, Tawas Bay Merchants; Class B, John North, Jr. Memorial; Class C, Mary I. Wright Memorial; Nationals, Merchant's Trophy; Lightning, Hal Richardson Memorial.

Would Continue Tawas Area Building Fund 5-Mill Tax

The Board of Education of Tawas Rural Agricultural School District at a special meeting, Friday, June 25, unanimously passed a resolution to place a five-mill tax for the sinking fund before the electorate at the annual school election on Monday, July 12. This levy will be for one year only, 1954. If approved this five mills will raise about forty thousand dollars for the building fund when it is added to the present amount now in the sinking fund, making approximately $105,000 available when a building is started.

This will enable the funds necessary under a bonding proposition to be decreased by $40,000 and will be a saving to the school district of about $14,000 in interest when these bonds are sold to construct a building.

This will be no increase in taxation over the 1953 tax as five mills were levied in 1953 for the sinking fund.

To carry this resolution into effect the voters at the annual election will have to vote upon two propositions.

Proposition No. 1—
Shall there be limitation on the total amount of taxes which may be assessed against property in Tawas Rural Agricultural School District, No. 1, Frl. Iosco and Arenac Counties, Michigan, for all purposes be increased by five-tenths of one percent (0.5%) of the assessed valuation as equalized, of all property in the school district, for the year 1954?
Each person voting on the proposition to increase the tax limitation must be a citizen of the United States, above the age of 21 years, and have resided in the State of Michigan six

Chicken Barbeque Feature of Festival

Plans for the annual Immaculate Heart of Mary Church Fourth of July Festival are building to a wonderful climax in Tawas City. The famous fish dinner is set for July 2, while chicken barbeque is the "piece de resistance" for July 3 and 4. There will be rides for the kiddies, games for all with wonderful prizes. The festival is to swell the building fund for the new church to be built on US-23 between the Tawasites.

Aged East Tawas Pioneer Resident Dies

Funeral Services for Mrs. Caroline Anschutz Held Thursday

Mrs. Caroline Anschutz, 99 years of age, passed away at the family residence Tuesday morning, June 29, at 4:30 after a three weeks illness. The body was taken to the Moffatt Funeral Home and funeral services were held at the Zion Lutheran Church in Tawas City Thursday afternoon, July 1, at 2:30. The Rev. E. E. Bickel officiated and interment was in the Zion Lutheran Cemetery, Tawas City.

Caroline Klein was born in Schweigendorf, Germany, on December 7, 1854. She came to East Tawas direct from Germany in a sailboat landing in May 1870. She was married to John Anschutz in the Lutheran Church, East Tawas, then located on the corner of Lincoln and Church Streets, on May 19, 1873. Mr. and Mrs. Anschutz were the first couple married in the church. Mr. Anschutz passed away February 21, 1922.

Ten children were born to this union, six of whom are living, Mrs. Martha Flint at home, Mrs. Waldo Curry, Sr., of Tawas City, A. L. (Tony) Anschutz, Mrs. Edward Moeller of East Tawas and Mrs. Iva Mallon at home. Four daughters, Minna Musolf, Rose Kuebitz, Emma Sink and Emma Mallon, and one son, John, preceded their mother in death.

Mrs. Anschutz also leaves 27 grandchildren, 65 great grandchildren and 14 great great grandchildren, making 111 direct descendants living.

She was a charter member of the Zion Lutheran Church.

Would Continue Tawas Area Building Fund 5-Mill Tax

months, and in the school district 30 days next preceding the election. (All registered electors are eligible to vote upon this proposition.)
Proposition No. 2—
Shall Tawas Rural Agricultural School District, No. 1, Frl. Iosco and Arenac Counties, Michigan, levy (5) five mills in 1954 to create a sinking fund for the purpose of constructing school buildings?
Each person voting on the proposition of levying five mills and creating a sinking fund therefor, must be a citizen of the United States, of Michigan six months, and in the school district 30 days next preceding the election, and have property assessed for taxes within the school district or be the lawful husband or wife of a qualified voter of the district having property so assessed.

The County Board of Supervisors will set final taxation figures in the meeting early in October.

It is improbable that a bonding election could be accomplished early enough to allow levying of taxes this year. The board of education is giving this opportunity to the electors to raise money to add to the building fund which we all know we must have. If this proposition receives the approval of the voters it will save the taxpayers a substantial sum at a later date.

According to information received from the Department of Public Instruction and the school district attorney, the five mill levy will be based upon county equalized valuation and not state equalized valuation for this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Girard and two children of Flint spent the week-end at the Hattons.

Rededication On the Fourth

The Declaration of Independence was passed by the Continental Congress on July 4th, 1776, but the historic document was not actually signed until later.

Now, after many years, the people of the United States appreciate the significance of the action taken many years ago, when the delegates of the colonies went on record in favor of the proposition that all men "are endowed with certain inalienable rights" and that "among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

The rights of the individual, so long accepted by the world, are now under challenge from those who do not agree with our famous declaration that government derive "their just powers from the consent of the governed."

The world of 1954 is far removed from that of 1776 but, in one respect, there is little difference. Again the liberty of men requires courageous action on the part of liberty-loving people. Our rights as free men are not now being questioned by planes, guns and motorized equipment, but there is still lacking an adequate assurance that the issue will not soon be joined.

In this editorial, the writer urges all readers to take time enough to read carefully the Declaration of Independence. July 4th, the anniversary of its passage, is a good day to rededicate to this ceremony. Afterwards inspired to support the ideals of freedom, may we not, as Americans, "pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor."

July 4th Traffic May Break All Records, Say Michigan State Police

With the heaviest Fourth of July traffic in history expected this week-end, State Police operations have been geared to concentrate patrol coverage in the areas of congestion and high accident rates and pass days of all officers have been canceled to provide maximum enforcement strength.

"But even with the best efforts of every enforcement agency, we can still expect a heavy accident toll unless drivers cooperate by doing the very best job they know how at the wheel," said Commissioner Joseph A. Childs. "Traffic will be heavy and driving much more hazardous."

Childs pointed out that 30 persons lost their lives in highway accidents over the three-day Fourth of July week-end last year as compared to 20 during the four-day Memorial holiday week-end this year. The average for each summer week-end last year was 22.5 deaths.

"Our Memorial holiday record indicated improvement and showed that when they wanted to drivers can do better," Childs stated. "It is our hope they make an even greater effort this week-end to stay alive."

Childs urged drivers to plan their trips so that they do not have to rush, use extreme care in passing and "watch out for the other driver, because he can cause an accident, too."

"The only way to avoid an accident," he said, "is by driving as if your life depended upon it, because it does."

All State Police enlisted personnel, including detectives and others on special assignment, will be on duty, which will mean a 20 percent increase in patrol strength over the week-end.

Sheep Marketing Program Organized at Hale Meet

By Marvin Davenport
Last week representatives of seven northeastern Michigan counties met at the Hale high school to organize a sheep improvement and marketing program. Representatives present were brought up to date on the purpose of producers pooling their lambs, having the lambs graded, weighed and shipped in carload lots.

Ben Patterson of the Michigan Farm Bureau was on hand to encourage the development of this organization as a long felt need for Michigan farmers. Each of the seven participating counties are returning to their communities to plan a county meeting of its sheep raisers. At that meeting further explanation of the program will be discussed and the farmers questions answered as best we can. Losco county will have such a meeting within the next three weeks.

George Lake, Plainfield township farmer, acted as chairman of the meeting, while Lyle Bielby, veterans instructor, was acting secretary. Others who attended the meeting were: Lowell F. Schaeffer of Sterling, Leland Reid of Twining, Glenn Miller of Hale, Lyle Robinson of Whittemore, Ralph Coulter, Ogemaw county agent; Clarence Lennow of Gladwin, Gordon French of Hale, Bill Engle of Harrisville, Gordon McDougall of Glennie, Ronald Lombard of Glennie, Frank S. Nash of Gladwin, Jess Huggert, Gladwin county agent; Andrew Matthews of Hale and Paul Pennock, Arenac county agent.

Losco County 4-H Clubs

By Dorothy Scott
Calendar:
July 9-11—Senior 4-H Club Camp, Hardwood Lake.
July 11-14—Junior 4-H Club Camp, Hardwood Lake.
July 28-31—Losco County Fair.
August 3—District Round-Up, Standish.

Vine 4-H Club members are all ready for the fair exhibit. Last week they had their 4-H Open House for parents and friends at the Vine school. The handicraft and electrical exhibits were attractively arranged on a decorated table—decorations they can use with exhibits at the fair.

Completing projects are Dennis Bennington, Arthur Abbott, Jack Abbott, James Curry, Kirk Wendt, Mike Blust, Robert Curry and Howard Blust. Among articles shown were extension cords, bird houses, bird feeders, bread boards, window supports, weather vane, feed scoops, knife rack, swing arm lights, potato crate, book shelf, garden trellis, sanding blocks, soap rack, vegetable markers, water station for birds, broom holder and towel rack. Howard has the slickest idea for display—using extension cord compactly and attractively.

Clifford Bennington, as leader, has done an excellent job in providing the guidance these boys needed to complete their 4-H Club program in this, their first year as a 4-H Club.

4-H Club members, please take note of the fair dates mentioned in this week's calendar. If you have some project work not yet entirely completed, let's get it finished as soon as possible. Don't for goodness sake, wait until two days before the fair and have to do many things all at once.

HDA NOTES

By Dorothy Scott

Calendar:
July 20-23—Homemakers' Conference at Michigan State College.
There's nothing like strawberries for eye and taste appeal on warm summer days and they never taste better than when fresh from the garden. Many like them as a fruit for breakfast (and they are one of our very best vitamin C fruits). Other favorites are strawberry shortcake and ice cream sundaes.

Michigan strawberries are coming into their peak season, but will likely remain a luxury item because the crop is one-fourth smaller this year. Those who have their own strawberry patch will likely give thought to freezing some for a winter treat. We would like to mention three reminders for successful frozen strawberries. Pick them in the cool of morning at the height of maturity and prepare them for freezing at once. Place no more than a quart of berries in a colander and wash them under cold running water, or with a gentle spray, for not more than one minute. Wash them before they are stemmed to keep the stem end from softening. Spread the washed fruit on a tray, covered with several thicknesses of clean absorbent toweling, to drain. Placing the tray in the refrigerator for an hour will cool and firm the fruit for safer handling.

A revised bulletin on preparing frozen foods is due to come from the printers at Michigan State College most any day now. If you wish to have a copy of it, let me know right away.

Many good things come in a small package, of course. Cheese contributes generous amounts of calcium, riboflavin and protein. All these are needed in our diets.

Did you notice the event listed on the calendar, this week? Yes, indeed, it is time to consider whether this is the year you can attend the annual Homemakers' Conference event at Michigan State College, July 20-23.

This will be the 27th year for this annual event. Any Losco county women is invited to attend. The folks at college will appreciate knowing of your plan to come, though, so there will be plenty of everything for everybody. They would like to have you express your intent by the first of July, if at all possible.

Reno Extension Group Discuss Fair Preparations

The regular monthly meeting of the Reno Extension Group was held at the Reno Township Hall on June 16. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Mielock in the absence of Mrs. Walters, who was ill.

Mrs. Black reported on the council meeting which was held recently at Miss Scott's home. Election of officers will take place in September and the new officers will take their offices in December.

The Reno group has been asked to have a demonstration of cake decorating during the fair which will be held in July.

The lessons for next year include: Sewing machine attachments, quick meals, two lessons on accessories for home, flower gardening, Christmas greens, Christmas gifts and an open meeting on the understanding of young people.

A game of questions and answers was enjoyed by all. After the meeting, cake, cookies and Mrs. Jello were served by the hostess, Mrs. Cobb.

Country Gentlemen; Frances Scudder, director of the home economics extension service program in Washington, and Mildred Buchanan Flagg, author-lecturer of Boston.

WELL-STACKED—Paint is the last thing on the minds of at least two of the members of the ship's crew as the S.S. Gripsholm arrives in New York from Germany. They're eyeing the sleek lines of Mrs. Louise Ponella, of Ozone Park, N. Y., who is returning from a visit to her husband, a corporal stationed with the U. S. Army in Germany.

Miss Maxine Weaver of Flint became the bride of Dale Landon of this city on Saturday, June 19. The rites were read by Dr. David Molyneux of the First Baptist Church of Flint. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold T. Weaver of Flint, chose a gown of lace over satin for the ceremony with a chapel-length train and veil which was caught by a seed pearl crown. She carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis and feathered carnations centered with orchids. The bride's sister, Miss Arlene Weaver, was maid of honor and she wore a gown of Nile green with bolero jacket. She carried an arrangement of pink carnations and pink gladioli bouquets. The bridesmaids, Janine Weaver, another of this city, and Normajean Hilliker of Grand Blanc, wore identical costumes in a mauve shade. Charles Landon of Tawas City was best man and ushers were Harold Burtzloff and John Rollin, both of this city, and Roland Foster and Ray Morton of Lansing. A reception for 300 guests was held at the Armory following the ceremony. The young couple will reside in East Lansing where Dale is a student at Michigan State College.

League Leaders Win from Tawas City 8-1 Last Sunday

A five-run spurge in the third inning was all that the league-leading Sterling nine needed last Sunday to take the Tawas City Indians, with the final score reading 8-1. The game had been scheduled as part of the Tawas City Centennial celebration, but was played at Sterling due to wet grounds here. This loss marked the third game in succession in which the Indians have matched the opposition with an equal number of hits, only to lose by a large margin. Tawas City's record now stands at two wins and four losses. With Gordon Tate starting on the hill for Tawas City Sunday, Sterling runners crossed the plate five times in the third frame. Here is how the winners scored in the big inning: The first batter up, Koch, led off with a double. Poverse followed with a walk. Doyle struck out and John Erickson walked to fill the bases. The next man up was Sterling's hard-hitting catcher, Bob Proulx, who promptly belted a two-run homer. Orville Revord replaced Tate on the mound for Tawas City. A long, three-run homer by Kenny Koelsch greeted Revord and provided a soft cushion for Shepard, the winning pitcher for Sterling, who rested on throughout the remainder of the game. The locals were unable to push a run across the plate until the ninth inning, when they coupled one hit, a single by Clare Herriman, with three fielding miscues by Sterling for one run. The locals hit two very good scoring opportunities, once in the first inning and again in the seventh, but in both cases two men were out when they had two runners on base. In suffering the loss for Tawas City, Tate pitched two and one third innings. During the time, he struck out three men, walked four, allowed two hits and four runs scored. Revord finished the game, allowing four hits, three walks, struck out five batters and was charged with four runs. The third and fourth place slots in the batting line-up proved to be the leaders in the hitting department for both teams. Mern Warner and Clare Herriman led Tawas City with two hits each, while Proulx and Koelsch collected two apiece for the winners. This Sunday afternoon Tawas City will play at Pinconning in a game that was postponed earlier in the season due to rain.

Centennial

In other activities Saturday afternoon, Larry Kindell and Steve Kolonich of Tawas City, racing out of Mio, won the Centennial canoe race. Starting at 3 o'clock at Cliff's Landing on Tawas Lake, Kindell and Kolonich completed the five-mile course down the Tawas river in 38 minutes and 45 seconds. They were followed by Ralph Sawyer and Eugene Roy of Oscoda, and Frank Smutek and Tom Gildersleve of Oscoda, in that order. The only accident in the race occurred when the team of Charles Landon and Gary Humphrey of Tawas City turned over shortly after reaching the river in Tawas Lake. The Founder's Day banquet at the Barnes Hotel highlighted the activities Saturday evening, with 190 persons in attendance. Dwight Wood, economic planning advisor for the Detroit and Mackinac Railway, served as master of ceremonies. The guest speaker of the evening was Harlow O. Whittemore, University of Michigan professor, and the great grandson of the founder of Tawas City. Mr. Whittemore gave an interesting talk on the life of Gideon O. Whittemore, who founded Tawas City in 1854. He told several humorous stories about happenings in Tawas City in the bonnet with seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book topped with an orchid and gardenia bouquet with streamers. The maid of honor, Helen Butts, wore a pale blue nylon dress with bolero and flowered headpiece to match. The bridesmaid, Mary DeLage, was similarly attired in yellow nylon, both carried yellow carnation bouquets. Little Terry Jo Wainwright served as flower girl and wore a white nylon gown with a pink carnation headpiece and bouquet. William Rapp was his brother's best man, and Kenneth Rapp, an attendant. Ushers were Joseph Wainwright and Richard Kilpatrick. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Willard Wright and the groom, the son of Mrs. Hattie Rapp, both of this city. The wedding breakfast was served at the home of the groom's mother. A reception for 175 guests was held in the evening at the Eagles Hall. The young couple will make their home in Flint, when they return from a week's wedding trip through Northern Michigan.
