It was the Braves all the way, with Coach Mark Defibaugh's boys taking a 16-9 lead at the quarter and holding a big 38-16 lead at the half. Pinconning players saw shots going through the hoop from all angles of the floor, with the Tawas shooting fairly well split up.

Student Survey Shows Need for Ag Classes

70 Boys Enrolled in Tawas Area Schools Have Farm Background

The agricultural committee of the Tawas Area School District has made a survey and found there are 70 male students in the school who have a farm background. The committee, and board of education feel that the number furnishes a basis for the establishment of a vocational agricultural class as soon as possible.

Member of the agricultural committee are: Richard Stock, Leo Fry, Gordon Hatch, Harold Hammond, Charles Kobs, Ronald Butterfield, Lyle Long, Julius Anderson, Allen Herriman, Charles Timreck, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pfahl, Reynold Mick and Harold Clark.

The committee made a study of neighboring schools and found that from 60 to 80 percent of the students with a farm background enroll in agricultural classes. On the basis of these percentages, Tawas Area School would have from 42 to 56 boys enrolled in such classes. If conservation and forestry classes are added, this should increase the number participating in the classes.

The first year only one class would be offered. In the second year two classes would be offered; one to freshmen and a (See Agriculture, back page.)

His remark was, 'Too bad you have to live over a hundred years to be treated like this.'"

The item was in a column of news dispatches which were used by the Star and Stripes and other servicemen's newspapers published in the Far East.

Tawas Honor Students Named

LEONARD WILKUSKI

Bringing from St. Joseph high school, he has continued to excel at the Tawas Area High School. Tawas Churches Unite in 'World Day of Prayer' at Drop of Hammer

On Friday afternoon, March 5, at 2:00 p. m., the churches of Tawas City and East Tawas are uniting in a World Day of Prayer Service. This will be held in the First Baptist Church, Tawas City.

Special music will be presented by the women of the various churches. There will be a nursery for babies and small children whose mothers would like to attend the prayer service.

The observance of World Day of Prayer began in 1887 when Presbyterian women designated a day for prayer for home missions. Since 1941 the General Department of United States Women has produced the service and promoted the observance in the United States. The Division of Foreign Missions of the National Council of Churches has promoted it overseas.

Each year the national World Day of Prayer committee asks a woman or a group of women from one of the countries observing World Day of Prayer to write the service. In this way we unite in spirit and worship with various Christian groups around the world.

Sarah Chakko, president of Isabella Thoburn College, located at Lucknow, India, has written the Bible aloud daily, and her father was a Jewish churchman, who conducted a family court of justice with his 10 children.

Would Amend Lake Level Control Law

Amendment Provides for Maintenance of Water Level Control Dams

An amendment was reported out of committee Tuesday in the Michigan State Legislature that if passed would provide for the continuous maintenance of dams built to control water levels in Michigan inland lakes. It was introduced by Representative Gerald Graves and is ready for action on the floor of the legislature next week.

While of benefit in the maintenance of such projects throughout Michigan, the amendment was prepared to meet problems arising in the VanEtan Lake dam. Built in 1947 for the control of water levels of VanEtan Lake, the cost of construction was levied on a special assessment district of property owners who are benefited by the dam. The levy was for $54,000 and was spread as a tax over a period of three years. The property owners have paid all taxes levied for the dam, and under the present law, the special assessment district ceases to exist.

Van Etan Lake dam and similar dams require continuous care, maintenance and repairs during their existence. The amendment which will be considered by the legislature next week will provide for this by making the existence of a special assessment district created under Act 194, Public Acts 1931, continuous during the usefulness of the dam.

Robert Klump writes

Robert Klump, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Klump, who resided in East Tawas for many years, has been honored with an important part in the Frat Frolic Show to be given by Central State College in Mt. Pleasant March 4 and 5. Robert has charge of the music and the show was written by him and a fellow student, Jan Stobbart.

This play is a review of college days in the gay nineties, and also depicts the roaring 20's and modern times. There is a 25-voice chorus and several dance choruses. The opening chorus, "This is College," was also composed by Robert.

He is a senior at Michigan Central College. He began his schooling in East Tawas and graduated from Saginaw High School after moving from East Tawas.

'Free Cabin for Week' Gifts Proposed for Vistors at Detroit Sports Show

The 13th annual Detroit Sports, Boat and Travel Show is a program being promoted by Fallu and his committee.

Drawings will be held at the Coliseum boxoffice from entrance ticket stubs. Each day's winner during the nine days would receive a certificate entitling him to "free cabin or cottage for one week." The Detroit News would conduct the drawings. Fallu would cooperate with eight other resort owners in furnishing the cabins for use during September or October.

He urges resort owners to participate with him in this plan and asks them to phone him at once.

The results of the drawings will be carried in The Detroit News each day. Many times each day the winners will be announced over the public address system at the Coliseum during the show. Drawings have a special human interest appeal, and with the thousands of visitors at the show, this program should have a tremendous publicity value for this area.

National 4-H Club Week--March 6-14

March 6-14 is National 4-H Club Week. The time when the entire nation is given an opportunity to see and hear just what is being done for the youth of America through the 4-H Club program.

In Michigan, alone, there are 60,000 girls and boys enrolled in this organization to which its members pledge themselves to the responsibilities and moral principles set forth in the Club Pledge by pledging: "Their heads to clearer thinking; hearts to greater loyalty; hands to larger service and health to better living for their Club, Community and Country."

During National 4-H Club Week, the club members rededicate themselves to their pledge. Their accomplishments are shown in many ways, window displays, open house meetings, radio, news items and editorials, county-wide tours, church and chapel programs.

Since the official birth of 4-H Club work when congress passed the Smith-Lever act in 1914, the enrollment has steadily grown until there are currently over two million 4-H members in over nine thousand local 4-H groups. And there are more than sixteen million former 4-H club members who have become young and capable citizens of their home communities.

Iosco County can feel justly proud of having an active part in this great program. 4-H Club work in the county could probably be traced back to about 1923 when Romanzo B. Hall organized a 4-H handicraft club in the Hawks school, south of Whittemore. Since that time many Iosco boys and girls have been active members of the county's 4-H clubs and have later become important citizens of their communities, the responsibilities for which 4-H club work helped to better prepare them.

Still there are many boys and girls between the ages of 10 and 21 in Iosco County not enrolled in 4-H Clubs. The 1954 National 4-H Club week of March 6-14 is a period during which all the citizens and young people of Iosco County can take a moment to think and consider, whether there is not some way they can dedicate themselves or some of their time or effort to our county's 4-H club program.

Bible Comment: Integrity Part of Christian Outlook On Unemployment

SAINT PAUL was very specific on the matter of earning the right to live. He reminded the Christians that they were members one of another. He said that the strong should serve the weak, and that all Christians should by love serve one another. But when he saw unworthy individuals taking advantage of the good will of others, using these fine Christian principles of brotherly love to infringe upon the work of others--he was blunt and decisive. If a man did not work, he said, neither should he eat. In the Christian economy everyone should help his brother. There was no place for loafers. That was a sound principle, but what Paul did not foresee was the situation in a modern, complex society when, in periods of deep depression, many who ask only for work and self-help, are unable to find it. What would Paul have had to say about this? We do not know, but we do know that all the problems associated with work, unemployment and living are moral and spiritual problems with which Christian teachings and principles have much to do. Those who, for various reasons, find themselves dependent upon relief are not necessarily unworthy dishonest or indigent. A few are, and they bring unjust criticism to the many who are not. At the foundation of all welfare, individual and social, is character. The very conditions of life today are character-testing, and the only character that stands the test is the one built upon the ancient Judaic and Christian standards of integrity and regard for others. These things need emphasis in every community and in our national life.

Methodist Churches Join in Special Lenten Services

Members and friends of the Whittemore, Hale and Turner Methodist congregations will participate in a series of special Lenten Services starting this week. A Christian sound film will be used each week to help the congregation study the Christian life and what Jesus expected of His disciples in the Christian Church. "These special services will emphasize a teaching ministry," the Rev. Wesley Dafoe stated. The following films will be shown, one each week, in each of the three churches beginning Ash Wednesday, "The Calling of Matthew," "Dedicated Man," "Thy Will Be Done," "Rim of the Wheel," "Family Next Door" and "Jairus' Daughter." During Holy Week, each congregation will participate in the Service of Holy Communion. Each Tuesday the Lenten Service will be held at the Turner Methodist Church. Each Wednesday evening the service will be conducted at the Hale Methodist Church. Each Thursday night there will be duplicate services held at the Whittemore Parish House.

I.H.M. Parish to Hold Special Lenten Services

The Rev. Fr. Henry DuRussel of Sacred Heart Parish, Oscoda, will preach a Lenten series at the Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish, Tawas City. Sermons will be given every Monday night at 7:30 in conjunction with the Novena Devotions and Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. Most people forget governmental theories when they decide that some of the taxpayers' money ought to be spent for their benefit.

SOUTH AMERICAN REPORT

Our recent trip to Chile probing rumors of "fabulous" trout fishing in that country brought forth some startling facts about rainbows—actual descendants of Michigan rainbow trout planted there some 20 years ago. Chile—at least the central portion of that elongated republic—is in the same south latitude as Michigan is north. Theoretically the climate might well be the same (except that summers and winters are reversed on the calendar), and trout might be expected to prosper equally well in both Michigan and Chile.

If such were the fortunate case Michigan anglers would be catching 15 pound trout only 4 years old! That's how fast they grow in South America! Protected by the towering Andes on the east, and warmed by the Pacific Ocean on the west, Chile enjoys mild temperatures the year 'round. Rainbows apparently feed voraciously in both lakes and streams for the entire 12 months of the year.

FREE WORLD RECORD

The free peoples of the world were better fed and better clothed during 1953 than in any previous year, as a result of the fact that these nations had the greatest gross production of goods and services in their history last year, according to Harold E. National Gypsum Report Shows 1953 Increase

National Gypsum Company sales for 1953 totalled $116,671,438, an 18 percent increase over 1952, Chairman of the Board Melvin H. Baker, announced today. Earnings for the year were $7,821,323 or $2.71 per share of common stock while deduction for income taxes amounted to $1,762,526 or $4.09 per share. This included $2,030,000 for Excess Profits Taxes.

The 1952 earnings were $7,249,480 or $2.84 per share, computed on the smaller number of common shares outstanding last year.

Commenting on the year's results, Mr. Baker stated, "The substantial increase in sales was due largely to the new facilities that were acquired during the year. The three asbestos plants which the company purchased early in 1953 greatly strengthened the company's position and boosted sales. Also 1953 was the first full year of operation of the Wesco paint plants under National Gypsum management."

Mr. Baker summarized the highlights of 1953 for National Gypsum as the successful organization and operation of a sales training program to prepare for more competitive conditions, the acquisition of two extensive gypsum deposits, and the completion of the company's million dollar research laboratory. He also considered the introduction of new products, including Spun Wool Insulation, the perfection of a new method of calcining gypsum, and an addition to the administrative office noteworthy signs of progress.

"In estimating capital needs for the next several years," Mr. Baker said, "it now appears we will be spending an average of about eight million dollars in each of the next four years to benefit from sound prospects that offer good opportunities to improve income."

Reporting on the results of the first six months of operation of the Employee Stock Purchase Plan, Mr. Baker said that 20 percent of the company's employees are participating through payroll deductions. During the period employees purchased over 10,000 shares of National Gypsum common stock. The number enrolled for the coming six months includes a sizeable number of new members and 10 percent of those already in the plan have increased their deductions. "It is interesting to note," Mr. Baker said, "that both salaried and hourly employees are taking advantage of this opportunity."

Looking ahead, Mr. Baker was optimistic. "Sales for January and February were slightly under the levels of the same period last year. However, our experience so far in 1954 is better than we anticipated in our budget. The current high activity in building construction indicates a continued high level of sales."

Rules Set for AuSable River Race

The Eighth Annual Michigan Canoe Championship Race down the AuSable river from Grayling to Oscoda will be held September 4 and 5.

The race was set by the race committee at a meeting held last week at Standish. Rules for the race will be the same as last year, with the exception of two new rules. Prize money will also remain the same.

The race is scheduled to start at 10 o'clock Saturday evening at Grayling and will end Sunday morning in Oscoda. The starting time was set ahead two hours of last year's starting time.

The worst dust storm since the Dust Bowl days of the 1930's recently hit the southwest in a broad sweep from Nebraska to the Mexican border, scooping up thousands of tons of top soil from once-rich farmland. Those cities particularly hard hit by the storm are indicated on above Newsmap in white letters on a black background.

EUROPEAN RECOVERY

According to information recently received, United States aid as an issue in Europe has been killed by the very impressive gains made during 1953, in both financial and agricultural fields.

The quantities of drugs weighed and measured in our prescription laboratory are often as minute as a grain—and a grain is 1-7000th part of a pound. In order to compound medicine requiring such fractional quantities, our pharmacists apply their professional skill with painstaking care to the measuring of these—and all quantities of drugs specified by the physician. However tiny the weight may be, you can be sure that it will measure precisely with your doctor's specifications. This application of professional care is your assurance that tiny fractions add up to perfect medicine when you bring your prescriptions to us.

200-Horsepower Performance and priced far below it

Illustrated in the rakish Buick Century Riviera "hardtop" model.

Come drive the CENTURY biggest horsepower bargain of 1954!

THE invitation you see headlined There calls for action — and comparison. For you have to see and drive the 200-horsepower CENTURY—and check its local delivered price—to know how it puts other automobiles in this Buick's dollar class on the spot. Look for yourself—and you'll see what we mean.

Look at styling, new-day features, visibility, interior modernity, ride comfort, handling ease—we believe you will find nothing on the automotive horizon to equal the CENTURY on all counts.

But what will prove to be the most eye-opening news of all is the power buy you make in this spectacular Buick.

When you compare—when you check the facts—you find that you are buying more horsepower per dollar in a CENTURY than you get in any other standard-production American automobile, bar none. And it is horsepower that gives you brilliant performance, greater economy, new safety—for here you get the highest power-to-weight ratio in all Buick history.

Why not come in and see the whole story come alive when you take the wheel of a Buick CENTURY?

We know of no better way to prove to you that this gorgeous, glamorous sweep of automobile is the power buy of the year—by far.

Now you can buy the famed Buick Estate Wagon at new low prices—for this all-new, all-steel beauty is now available in Buick's lowest-priced SPECIAL Series, and in the sensationally powered CENTURY Series.

This area will be represented among the 215 men and women graduating at 2:00 p. m. Friday, March 5, from Short Courses at Michigan State College.

Our local graduate is Ross Williams of Whittemore. Ross is completing his second term in general agriculture on a scholarship provided by the Henry L. Caulkins Foundation. During the fall term, Ross attended short courses with the help of a bank scholarship provided by People's State Bank of East Tawas.

Right now is none too early to order fertilizer. If you took soil samples last fall and have had them tested as basis for your fertilizer practices this year, you may have saved yourself some money. You may still have time to have a soil test made on samples collected as early this spring as possible, he suggests.

Edward D. Longnecker, Michigan State College soil scientist, advises: Where soil tests have been made or are yet possible apply the amount and kind of fertilizer recommended by your county agricultural agent on the basis of those tests. Otherwise, the following recommendations will apply for northern Michigan areas:

Legume-grass meadows where the legume predominates, sandy soils, tondress with 300 pounds of 0-20-20 or 0-10-20 fertilizer per acre; heavy soils, 300 pounds of 0-20-10 per acre.

Grass meadows and pastures: Dry sites, 400 pounds of 10-10-10 or 125 pounds of ammonium nitrate to the acre in early spring; moist sites, 400 to 500 pounds of 0-20-0 or 0-20-20 per acre.

Potatoes, 60 pounds of 4-16-16 plus extra nitrogen as sidedressing if tissue test or growth characteristics indicate the need. If irrigation is possible, use 300 pounds of 4-16-16 per acre.

Oats, barley-heavy soils, no legumes seeded, 200 pounds of 4-24-12 per acre; heavy soils, legume seeded, 350 pounds of 4-24-12, sandy soils, no legume seeded, 250 pounds of 3-12-12 to the acre; sandy soils, legume seeded, 500 pounds of 3-12-12 per acre.

Corn-heavy soils, 200 pounds of 4-16-8 per acre; sandy soils, 200 pounds of 3-12-12 per acre. Apply 40 pounds of actual nitrogen per acre as a sidedressing in late June or early July if rate of growth, tissue test, or appearance of leaves indicates the need.

Discuss Blue Cross at Farm Bureau Meet

Thirty-five Farm Bureau members met at the Latter Day Saint Church for a luncheon and meeting Wednesday where Mr. Dacy of the Michigan Blue Cross was the speaker. Donald Kirkpatrick, Farm Bureau regional director, was also there. This was a preparation meeting to instruct all group Blue Cross secretaries on the resolution program for all Farm Bureau members. Edward Krumm was program chairman.

The period from March 1 to March 15 is the only time until next year to enroll in Blue Cross Blue Shield group coverage at the regular group rate. It is also the period during which presently enrolled Farm Bureau members can make changes in their coverage, for example, adding services or changing the type of accommodation from ward to semi-private or vice-versa.

Your community group Blue Cross secretary has all the information which explains the Blue Cross-Blue Shield group benefits and rates.

All Farm Bureau members are urged to take advantage of this opportunity to have hospitalization through your Farm Bureau Community Group. As an important reminder, the period from March 1 to March 15 is the only chance you have this year to enroll. Benefits become effective May 1, 1954. Don't put it off until the last minute, enroll early.

Spring-Lamb Pie Makes a Delicious Meal

BY DOROTHY MADDOX

WITH lamb prices down a little, it's a good time for spring-lamb pie. Combined with well-seasoned mashed potatoes, small white onions, green peas and egg yolks, economy should lamb produces a delicious one-dish meal.

Spring-Lamb Pie (4 servings)

Three pounds shoulder lamb, bone in; 2 cups water, 1/4 cup fat, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1/4 cup flour, 3 cups lamb broth, 1 teaspoon kitchen bouquet, 2 cups cooked green peas, 1 cup cooked small white onions, 2 to 3 cups well-seasoned mashed potatoes, 2 egg yolks, beaten.

Place lamb on rack in Dutch oven. Add water and cook over moderate heat until tender, about 1 1/2 hours. Or cook in pressure saucepan for 20 minutes at 15 pounds pressure. Cool meat slightly in broth.

Remove meat from bones, cutting in 1-inch cubes. Melt fat in saucepan, add salt, pepper and flour. Pour fat from lamb broth. Add water to lamb broth, to make 3 cups. Stir into fat-flour mixture.

Cook over moderate heat, stirring constantly, until gravy thickens. Add kitchen bouquet. Combine lamb, peas and onions in gravy. Place in shallow, greased, 1 1/2-quart baking dish. Whip mashed potatoes and beaten egg yolks together.

Make border of mashed potatoes around edge of baking dish with pastry bag or cookie press. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) until potato is lightly browned and pie is beginning to bubble. Serve immediately with tossed salad of spring greens.

For the bridge or canasta party, this de luxe chicken and mushroom salad is just right. Served with wedges of canned cranberry jelly, it makes a beautiful dish.

Chicken and Mushroom Salad (4 servings)

One cup cooked rice, 2 cups diced cooked chicken, 3-ounce can broiled mushrooms, 1/4 cup well-seasoned French dressing, 1/4 cup mayonnaise, 1/2 teaspoon grated onion, 1/2 teaspoon curry powder, 1 cup diced celery, 6-ounce can cranberry jelly, chilled.

Place rice and chicken in a suitable container. Drain mushrooms, reserving broth for other use. Reserve four whole mushroom crowns for garnish and quarter the remaining mushrooms.

Add quartered mushrooms to rice and chicken. Add French dressing and toss lightly to coat evenly. Place the four whole crowns in the container and let all marinate in cold place for at least 2 hours.

When ready to serve, drain off any excess French dressing. Remove the whole crowns. Blend together and add the mayonnaise, onion and curry powder to the rice mixture. Add the celery. Toss lightly together to mix well.

File salad on individual salad plates. Cut chilled cranberry jelly in 6 slices and halve each slice. Arrange 3 half slices of jelly around each portion of salad. Top each salad with whole mushroom crown and garnish with crisp, green watercress. Serve immediately with hot biscuits for lunch.

Needlecraft News By Nancy Baxter

Running, jumping, skipping, hopping, climbing boys and girls need clothes that will move with them, clothes that will "give," and take even more. Mothers: Put these children in sweaters. The elasticity, the strength, the durability of a woolen sweater answers every child's play-time, school-time needs.

WONDERFUL WOOL
What other reasons do I have for saying that woolen sweaters are the perfect pals of mother and her energetic youngsters? Wool is absorbent. Without feeling "clammy," wool is capable of holding as much as 30 per cent of its own weight in moisture. Wool is most elastic. It maintains a more even temperature than any other fiber, which makes it an important health asset. It gives your child protection against sudden changes in temperature. Mighty but light in weight, wool is excellent for clothes that get hard wear, yet is light enough for comfort. In addition to all these amazing qualities, the popular hand-knitting yarns are easy to work with and make up into attractive garments.

GAUGE YOUR KNITTING
When you knit you must realize that you are making a fabric and a garment at the same time. You may be able to shrink it or stretch it a little, but you cannot cut it, so be mindful of the gauge before you start knitting. A good way to test yourself is to knit a small piece about four inches square in the stitch used in the body of the garment, using the wool and needles specified in the knitting instructions. In making the sweaters shown here, 7 1/2 stitches make one inch; 9 rows make one inch. If your trial swatch does not comply with these measurements although you are using the proper materials, you will have to alter your tension to attain a perfect fit.

THE TAWAS HERALD

WITH Iosco 4-H Clubs

Calendar:

March 8, Monday—4-H Club Leaders Council meets at Grant Township Hall, 8:00 p. m.
 March 10, Wednesday—Burleigh Wizards 4-H Club Open House at Grange Hall.
 March 11, Thursday—West Hale Husky Hustlers 4-H Club Open House.
 Next week Iosco county 4-H Club members will be joining more than 15 million boys and girls across the nation in observing National 4-H Club Week, March 6-14.

In Michigan nearly 60,000 4-H Club members between the ages of 10 and 21 will pause to review their accomplishments in ways that tell other boys and girls, mothers and fathers, about the benefits of the 4-H Club program.

Iosco county 4-H Clubs are planning exhibits in local stores which will help tell others about their activities in our communities right here at home.

It is possible you will discover some other activities in addition to exhibits next week. One we've heard about is a 4-H Club bake sale to be arranged by Grant Friendship 4-H Club. Be watching for information about the date, place and time.

The 4-H Club dairy project members with a cow in production are learning to "clip 'em to keep 'em clean."

The main advantage in clipping is to reduce the time of rearing the cow for milking. It helps reduce sediment and bacteria count and improves milk quality. Better quality means better income.

A few clean sweeps with the clippers on the sides of the tail, starting about four inches above the end of the tail bone, makes an animal appear neater.

A good job was done by Richard Pfahl, acting as 4-H Club president, at their open house meeting. Exhibits were made by members of dairy, conservation, clothing and electrical projects to show the progress being made this far this year. This 4-H Club has more projects farther along than any we have visited thus far.

Rope halters and blankets for calves are finished; towels, aprons and dresses in various stages of construction; bird houses being readied for occupancy. Electrical cords and lamps have the keen interest of the boys. They were given tips by Harold Hammond, Consumers Power Company farm service advisor. Other projects were also discussed with the young people.

Demonstrations were presented on the program by the young people.

A Valentine party made different the clothing project meeting of Friendship 4-H Club. That's the report from Phyllis Watts, who says the next meeting will be at her home.

Food preparation and knitting projects were displayed at the Tawas City 4-H Club Open House recently. Both are nearly completed and pointers were given about judging articles when on display at the fair.

4-H Club vegetable gardeners who plot their garden on paper first are wisest. Even a small patch of garden can save many dollars on the grocery bill. To get the best in vegetables, 4-H'ers check recommended varieties with recommendations made by the Michigan State College horticulture department.

Turn now to the agricultural column for news of one of our Iosco 4-H'ers, Ross Williams, who has been attending Short Course at Michigan State College.

HDA NOTES

We really don't expect many people in this area to get the new Michigan State College television station, Channel 60, but the other day I heard about a family as far north as Gaylord who have had it come in, so maybe some of you will get it now and then.

Programs for homemakers may be seen and heard from 3:00-3:30 p. m. on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Should any of you find that you are particularly interested in the program of things to come, let us know and your name can be put on the mailing list to receive it.

Humpty Dumpties are not tumbling off walls in 1954, but they are tumbling into the everyday meals of every American family that understands the food values and budget saving possibilities of eggs. Particularly during the Lenten season this will be true.

Consider the many jobs eggs do for us in cookery. They thicken custards and puddings, leaven by beating to incorporate air as in cakes, add color, richness and flavor to individual dishes, serve as a coating in breaded meats and poultry, bind together meatloaves and croquettes, emulsify salad dressings and cream puffs, clarify consommé or boiled coffee, garnish salads, soups, canapes.

An often asked question is what causes the dark ring that appears between the yolk and the white of a hard-cooked egg? This happens when an egg is cooked at too high a temperature or cooled too long. The iron in the yolk combines with the sulphur in the white to form a ferrous sulphide which shows up as a dark layer where the white and yolk make contact.

Prevention is accomplished by cooking eggs at a simmering temperature, never boiling, and not cooking for too long a time.

Cover eggs completely with cold water, bring the water to a simmering temperature for 25 to 30 minutes. Running cold water over the egg for a short time will halt the cooking, yet leave it hot enough to serve. Or, if they are to be served cold, chill them promptly in cold water. Whites of eggs are more tender cooked this way.

Eggs are an economical food. A dozen large eggs weigh one and one-half pounds. At 60 cents a dozen, eggs cost only 40 cents a pound. Have you ever thought of that?

If you are interested in egg bargains you will enjoy using the egg buyers' chart available at our office. With proper manipulation it will tell you comparative costs of eggs by size and per pound.

County-Line Home Demonstration Group members have been busy this winter with several special activities. One of them have been the making of bed pads, 24 of them in all, for use of the Hale Health Council.

Spring fashions will soon capture our interest. Whether you buy a new hat, or make last year's look sharp, the news is the back and side trim. The accent is on the back or on the sides of small pillboxes and crisp sailors. Trims include clusters of flowers, butterfly wings, wispy quills or glitter-trimmed feathers. Crisp veils remain smart.

Belts are narrower, no more than two and one-half inches wide. Notice how they are narrowed at the sides for greater comfort. New plastics look like linen or straw.

Ultra-short will be the gloves to show off the heavy bracelets. White leads in favor with pastels holding their own. Black and white combination gloves may give the right accent to your ensemble.

EARTH'S AGE
 Applying a atomic measurement to time, four scientists have pushed the origin of the earth back to at least four and one-half million years ago. The study, made on the University of Chicago's mass spectrometers, was based on two slightly different kinds of lead found in meteorites. The lead was once uranium.

The Weight of Public Opinion is Against the Excise Tax on Telephone Service

"Which Federal excise tax do you personally object to most?"

That question was asked recently in a public poll conducted by Opinion Research Corporation. They wanted to learn how people personally felt about Federal excise taxes. These were their findings: THE EXCISE TAX THAT INCURRED THE MOST RESENTMENT AND IRRITATION WAS THE TAX ON TELEPHONE SERVICE.

Of the people interviewed, 59% objected most to this tax. It was more objectionable than the Federal excise taxes on gasoline, automobiles, tires, railroad tickets, cigarettes, movie tickets, and many other things.

This high percentage of objection to telephone excise taxes is understandable. Each month they add 15% to your telephone bill for local service, and 25% to your bill for long distance calls costing 25 cents or more. For excise tax purposes, it's as though your telephone were a luxury, like jewelry or furs.

We recognize the Government's need for adequate income and for balancing the budget. But if Congress is to consider any excise tax reductions, we believe the excise taxes on telephone service should be among the first to get attention.

All the savings from a reduction or repeal of these taxes would go to telephone users—not to the telephone company.

Miss Chakko has also served as chairman of the committee which organized the Delhi School of Social Work.

Miss Chakko is a member of the 1,600 year old Orthodox Syrian Church of Malabar. The theme she has chosen for the service is also the aim of Isabella Thoburn, which seeks to find the potential strength of each student and then provide direction and opportunity which will develop that which is God-given. She seeks to encourage a self-discipline that would strengthen the student's usefulness to herself and to society and to send her forth to pour out for the good of mankind the abundant life she has discovered.

Agriculture

(Continued from front page.) second to sophomores. In the third year three classes would be offered, namely to freshmen, sophomores and juniors. Students in grades 11 and 12 would combine during the fourth year. A course in adult education is usually a part of this program. This combined with a farm machinery repair class for high school students and the conservation and forestry courses would constitute a full agricultural program for the vocational agriculture teacher.

A vocational agricultural program is reimbursed by the Smith-Hughes funds from the state and national government. Last year the reimbursement rate was 41 percent for the day school program and 50 percent for the adult program.

The Department of Vocational Education has been contacted and it is weighing the possibilities of a program. If they give permission, and a suitable instructor can be obtained, there is the possibility of the vocational agricultural program being instituted next year.

The facilities now available are inadequate for the program, and would only be accepted on a temporary basis to allow building the ground work of a program which would utilize a part of the proposed junior and senior high school building.

AIR FORCE "PUNY"

Testifying before a Senate Interior and Insular Affairs Subcommittee, Alexander P. De Servesky, pioneer aircraft designer, declared that a future world war would be decided entirely by air power and the decisive blows would be struck in the opening days. Therefore, he thought the long range bombing force of the United States was "puny" and so small they would be overwhelmed and defeated in their first attempt.

A sit-down strike just makes it official as far as some workers are concerned.

Patronage squabbles have developed. Sen. William Langer of N. Dakota announced he would block appointments of four postmasters to his state because he was not consulted.
