Tawas Area School Bond Proposal to Again go to Voters December 22

At its regular meeting Tuesday night, the Tawas Area Board of Education formally voted to hold a bonding election on Wednesday, December 22, for the purpose of constructing the proposed new Tawas Area junior and senior high school.

Voting "Yes" on the proposal were Randall M. Fox, board of education president, Niles and Curry. The two dissenting votes were cast by Trustees William Look and Stuart White.

This is the third bonding election to be held for the purpose of constructing the proposed new school during the past 10 months. In February of this year the proposal was defeated by a very narrow margin. The proposal was placed before the electors in June for the second time and was again defeated.

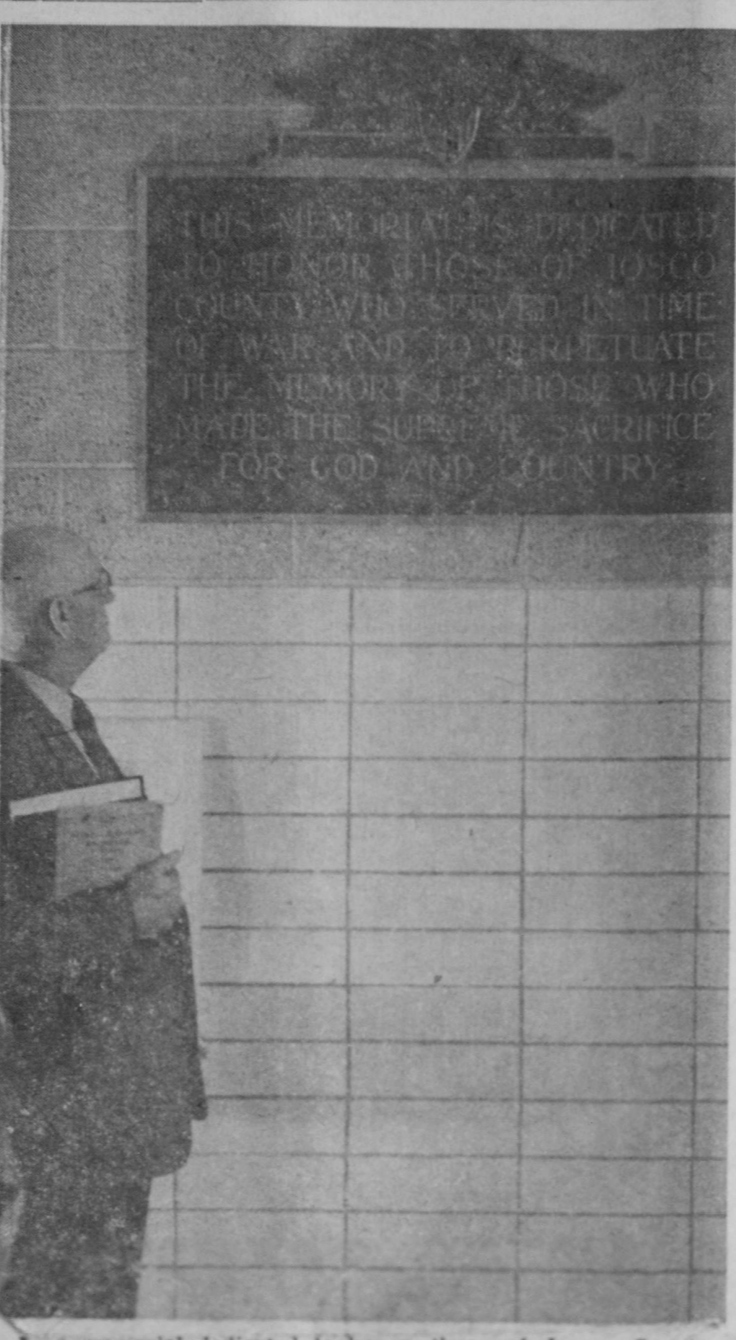

(At a meeting sponsored by the East Tawas Retail Merchants Association and Citizen's Committee for Better Schools Monday night, 100 persons voted to take action to withdraw from the Tawas Area School district. It was reported that only three persons cast dissenting votes.

(Withdrawal machinery was set up and a committee named to petition the state superintendent of public instruction to review the school board's action of selecting the Tawas City site for a new school.

The school board's original plan was to construct the proposed new school on the Neumann-Reinke site in Tawas Township, but after two elections on that site had failed the board decided that the site now occupied by the Tawas Area Schools in Tawas City would be a suitable one and would result in a savings of about $200,000 to the taxpayers.

The reduction of construction costs on the Tawas City site was first pointed out to the school board by a group of interested taxpayer-citizens in the district several weeks ago. This group presented petitions signed by 1,396 taxpayers to the board at a special meeting last week which requested the board to place before the electors a bond issue which would authorize the construction of the new school on the site in Tawas City.

These citizens said that by utilizing the property already owned by the district, along with the facilities available on the site and adjoining property which the City of Tawas City recently voted to turn over to the school district free of charge, the new school could be constructed at a considerable savings to the individual taxpayer.

As a memorial dedicated to honor those of Iosco County who served in time of war, and to perpetuate the memory of those who made the supreme sacrifice for God and country, the Iosco County Board of Supervisors recently erected this bronze plaque in the new courthouse. Injured in Auto Accident Near Mio

Charles Hill, superintendent of the National Gypsum Company plant at National City, was injured late Sunday afternoon in an automobile accident on Highway M-72 near Mio. He was taken to the Tolfree Memorial Hospital at West Branch.

Hill was driving alone. The car left the pavement while making a curve in the highway and crashed into two power line poles, sustaining chest injuries and facial lacerations, according to West Branch State Police who investigated the accident.

Two Injured in Traffic Accidents

Two personal injury traffic accidents were reported by Michigan State Police during the past week. Four persons were injured.

On Sunday, November 21, a car driven by LeRoy Anderson, 31, Route One, Tawas City, went off the roadway striking a bridge on the Kobs Road north on the Townline.

Anderson received lacerations to the lip. A passenger, James Prescott, 29, of the Michigan State Forestry Department, Mio, and a former Tawas City resident, suffered lacerations to the face and nose. Both men were treated at the Tawas Hospital.

A Saginaw youth suffered possible back and neck injuries in an accident three miles north of AuGres on US-23 last Sunday.

Barbara Ann Swartz, 18, Saginaw, the driver of the car, and John Canell, 19, Saginaw, were treated for injuries at the AuGres hospital after their vehicle swerved off the road and crashed.

A witness to the accident, E. F. Anderson, Saginaw, told investigating officers that the youths overlooked and passed his car and apparently went off the road on the left side. The car skidded and rolled over when the driver attempted to bring it back on the road.

Two Hunters Injured in Gun Accidents

Two Michigan deer hunters were accidental gunshot victims in this area during the first week-end of the 1954 season, reported the Michigan State Police at East Tawas.

Last Friday morning Kenneth Auten, age 26, of Milan was shot on the inside of the left arm about one inch below the elbow. The bullet entered the front of the arm and passed through without striking a bone.

Hunting with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lange and Margaret Lange of Saline, Michigan, Auten told investigating officers that while hunting in Oscoda Township, in a swamp at the end of the Huron Road, he heard a shot and felt a bullet strike his arm. The bullet was fired by Donald E. Harris, 22, of Belleville.

The wounded hunter immediately called for aid and was heard by Harris. Auten was given first aid by Harris and then taken to the Tawas Hospital.

Harris later told investigating officers that after he had shot at a buck he heard Auten's call for help and went to his assistance. He had been staying at a cabin near East Tawas during the hunting season.

The second accidental gunshot victim was Raymond H. Page, 29, of Sterling. He was shot in the right thigh regions with buckshot while hunting last Sunday in Clayton Township, Arenac County.

Hunting with two Flint men, John Sopko and Walter Hall, Page and the other two men entered the woods and were in the process of making a drive when Sopko spotted a buck and fired at it with a 16-gauge shotgun loaded with buckshot.

Investigating officers said that the club members were out on view by Sopko by a thicket, yelled to the other men that he had been shot. He was taken to the AuGres hospital for treatment.

Nativity Scenes to be Depicted in Christmas Parade

The churches of the Tawas community are rapidly completing plans for the Annual Christmas Parade which will be held Saturday afternoon, December 11, starting at 1:30 p. m., according to a statement made Wednesday by Mrs. W. A. Evans, general chairman.

Members of the community are asked to help in any capacity to make this one of the fine events of the year. It is a part of a movement in cities throughout the United States to put more of the spirit of Christmas into this year's holidays festivities.

Parents are urged to have their children take part in the parade and carol singing. Each church participating will see that refreshments are served to its group after the parade.

The services of Police Chiefs George Ruth and Harry Pelton and the state police have been secured to supervise traffic arrangements.

The revised line-up of floats is as follows: 1. "The Bible," Tawas City Baptist Church. 2. "No Room in the Inn," Christ Episcopal Church.

Guest speaker was the Rev. Benjamin Whaley, who spoke on the workings of the United Nations and how much had been accomplished by it. Mr. Whaley visited sessions of the United Nations last summer for several days and gave many interesting facts in connection with the building and its arrangement.

Mayor's Proclamation

Whereas Christmas Seals provide the "sinews of war" for what must be an unrelenting fight against tuberculosis, and

Whereas experience demonstrates that even a modest investment in Christmas Seals of a single purchaser pays off in happier lives and sounder health for young and old, and

Whereas tuberculosis remains today as the greatest public health problem in Iosco County, threatening the health of many men, women and children, and

Whereas our Christmas Seal purchases will help salvage lives and reduce the ravages and high costs of this infectious disease, as Mayor of the City of Tawas City, I do officially PROCLAIM this period through Christmas Day as the annual Christmas Seal Sale, during which time every Tawas City family is urged to make a generous contribution toward the work of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association.

General Motors Dealers Here Stage Motor Parade

The 50 millionth automobile produced in this country by General Motors rolled off the assembly line of its Chevrolet Motor division on Tuesday, November 23.

To celebrate the occasion General Motors manufacturing plants and the more than 18,000 dealers throughout the nation staged a gigantic industry-wide observance of the event.

Here in Tawas, GM dealers staged a motor cavalcade through the business districts of Tawas City and East Tawas. The parade was headed by a copy of the 50 millionth car turned out by the vast industry, a golden Bel Air Chevrolet.

Included in the parade were five 1955 Chevrolets, three 1955 Buicks, three 1955 Pontiacs, two 1955 Oldsmobiles and a 1955 Cadillac. Two other automobiles in the procession gave a good illustration of style changes which have occurred in the automobile industry, one car being a 1920 Chevrolet and other a 1927 Pontiac.

Local General Motors dealers who cooperated were William Look and Sons, McKay Sales Company and Soss Motor Sales. "It took 32 years for General Motors to build 25 million cars (1908-1940), but in the next 14 years, including the intervening war years, General Motors completed building its 50 millionth car," stated William Look, chairman of General Motors community relations, East Tawas.

A General Motors brochure distributed locally this week, commemorating a milestone unique in America's industrial history, revealed many interesting facts about the automobile industry.

The publication said that if you had a factory capable of turning out one car a minute and you operated it eight hours a day, 40 hours a week, it would take more than 400 years to produce 50 million cars.

"If all automobiles that General Motors has produced since 1908 were lined up bumper to bumper, they would completely fill a six-lane highway encircling the earth at the equator. "Stretched out in a straight line, they would reach two-thirds of the entire distance to the moon."

Nowhere on earth, except in the United States do you find a free market large enough to absorb 50 million cars. Only in America do you find the freedom to compete, the incentives to seek new ways of making better products at lower costs that are so important to the mass production process.

The "Golden Bel Air" was purchased by Clarence Schneider of Tawas City.

Dr. Schuele Hurt in Auto Crash

Dr. James M. Schuele of AuGres and Whittemore was injured last week Wednesday in an automobile accident near Newberry. He was taken to Mercy Hospital, Bay City.

Doctor Schuele was enroute to a camp near Ishpeming for a few days of deer hunting when the accident occurred. The car crashed into the abutment of a bridge. He suffered fractures of both legs, and severe bruises and lacerations about the face and body. Shortly after he had been removed from the wreckage the car caught fire and burned.

Why is Deer Kill Down? Hunters Ask

One question remains on the minds of many Michigan deer hunters this week—why is the deer kill down in the Lower Peninsula? And still another question is raised by many businessmen in this area—what happened to the usual influx of deer hunters this season?

The answer to the last question is perhaps the simplest to answer, at least the following is the opinion of many of the Tawas businessmen.

One factor which contributed greatly to the absence of deer hunters, state these businessmen, was the model changeover in down-state automobile manufacturing plants. This year all of the new models went into production prior to the deer season and the workers, who in normal years take a few days off during the season, could not afford to do that this year. The result is a scarcity of hunters.

Still others thought that pre-season adverse publicity in down-state newspapers and on television had a great deal to do with the absence of hunters this year.

But the answer to the scarcity of deer looms as quite a controversy throughout Michigan—the hunters say the deer herd is way down this year compared to last year, while the conservation department men say it is too early to tell.

It seems quite evident that the deer kill is way down in this area at least. Most hunters emphatically agree that they have seen less deer in their usual hunting territory this year. They point out that in the same particular area last year they had personally counted upwards of 30 or 40 deer or more.

Several sportsmen's clubs appealed directly to Governor Williams early this week over a Cadillac television station to put an end to the special one-day season. Many cards, letters and telegrams were received this week by the governor calling for cancellation of the special one-day "any deer" season December 1.

Recently the Michigan Department of Conservation published a pamphlet titled "Are We Shooting Too Many Deer?" The conservation men listed seven reasons which gave a negative answer to this question:

1. "Winter range has gone downhill to an extent that it will not support as many deer as before.

2. "Fewer deer give the little trees a chance to survive and produce food.

3. "Adequate herd control improves the physical condition. This means more fawns and heavier deer.

4. "Removal of 100,000 extra deer (1952) in the Northern Lower Peninsula did not lower the buck kill in 1953.

5. "Starvation losses are high when there are too many deer. Many thousands of deer starved in 1951.

6. "Under a buck law about two out of every 10 deer are wasted. They might as well be harvested.

7. "Experience in most other states has shown the value of an 'any deer' season."

But many hunters in this section of Michigan are inclined to disagree with the opinion of the conservation department. They say that the deer starvation of a few years ago was exaggerated. The hunters also point out that too many small deer were killed during the "any-deer" season last year. Many hunters feel that each county should exercise control over the deer herd, pointing out that what is good for one area is not necessarily suitable for another.

A definite battle is looming over the controlling of the deer herd and especially the one day "any-deer" season.

Business Upturn Widely Predicted

The latest survey, conducted by Dun and Bradstreet, Incorporated, shows that a majority of business executives expect an increase in the first quarter of 1955. Over 50 percent of the executives queried expected higher sales in the forthcoming quarter and over 40 percent expected larger net profits.

Lower sales were expected by only about 13 percent of those polled. Another significant result of the survey is the expectation—by a majority of the business executives queried—for larger inventories in the next quarter.

The reduction in inventories by businesses has been one of the contributing factors to the recessionary period of the last 12 months. It is only fair to report here, however, that a larger number of replies expected no appreciable change in inventories than the number expressing the belief that inventories would increase.

An encouraging result of the inquiry is the statement of many businessmen that they will add to their work forces next year, while a lesser percentage say they will reduce employment. Altogether then, this survey of business executives forecasts better business conditions in the first quarter of 1955.

In view of the fact that over 1,000 executives participated in this survey, the views expressed are of considerable significance and are reason for an optimistic outlook for business in 1955.

Christian Science Services—

The vital importance of detecting the false suggestion of evil and correcting them with the spiritual truth concerning God's unflinching goodness and all-power will be stressed at Christian Science services Sunday.

In the lesson-sermon entitled "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced," the following passage will be read from the Bible (Isaiah 5:20): "Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!"

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy the following passage will be read (469:13): "Mind is God. The exterminator of error is the great truth that God, good, is the only Mind, and that the supposititious opposite of infinite Mind—called devil or evil—is not Mind, is not Truth, but error, without intelligence or reality."

The Golden Text is from Romans (8:31): "If God be for us, who can be against us?"

The population of the world now totals 2,500,000,000 and is still increasing, according to a report of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization. Statisticians of the organization estimate that the world's population will increase by 1,500,000,000 in the next 25 years.

THANKSGIVING DAY

Down East, the woods are still aglow
With Autumn's blaze, though early snow
Has frosted every field and hedge
And new ice rims the river's edge.
But homes and hearts are warm and gay
As families gather close to pray
And watch the fragrant incense rise
From roasting turkey and mince pies!

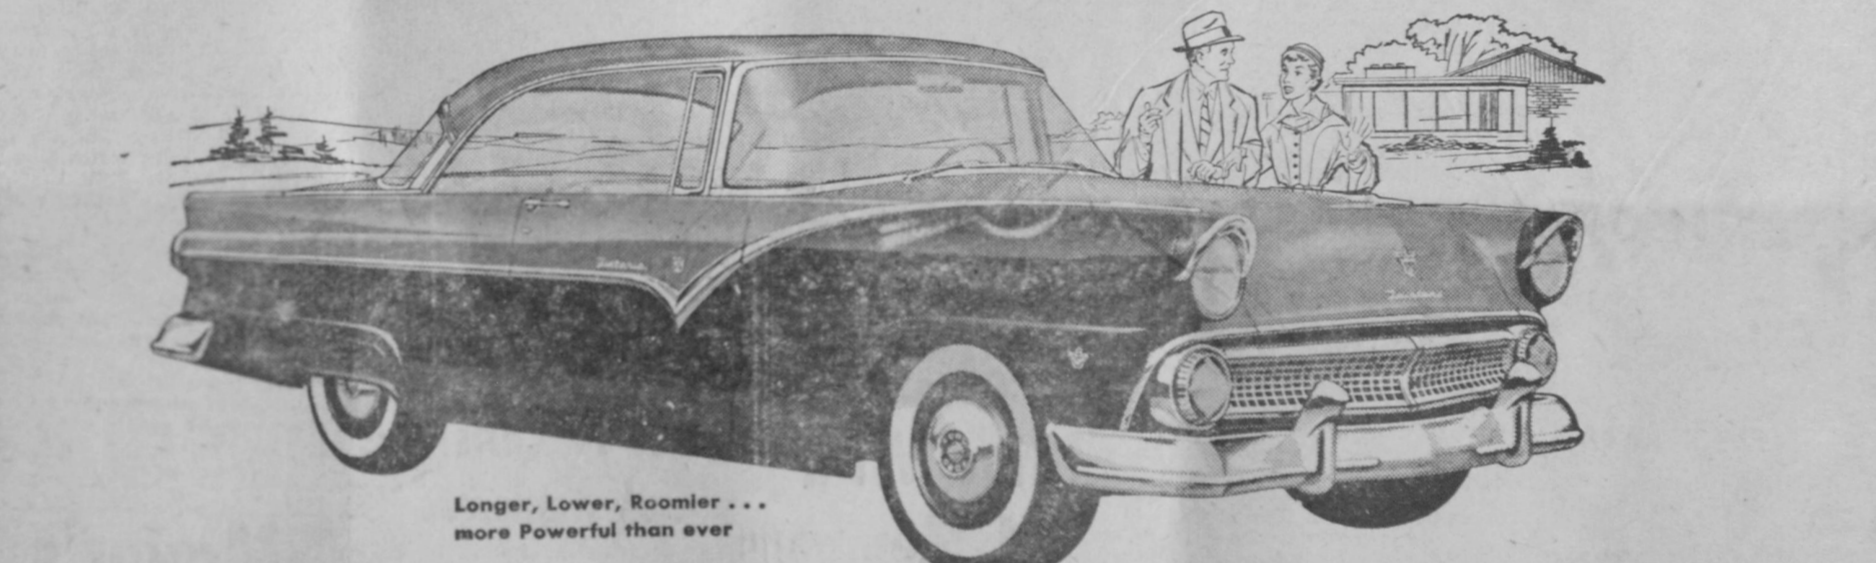

Far to the South, the day is fair
And lazy blows the scented air.
The cotton's baled, cane-cutting's done—
Now comes the time for rest and fun.
With joy and pride the feast is spread
And reverently bows each head.
From full and grateful hearts they raise
Their thankful prayers and hymns of praise.

Through our America this day
Is kept in many a different way,
Yet are we joined in thankfulness
That still these things our country bless:
The right to live, and work and earn;
To walk abroad, to think, and learn,
And, most important of all these—
To praise and worship as we please!

Know Your Library . . .

As third in a series of articles this "Know Your Library" month, we offer brief histories of our branches and booklets.

The East Tawas, Tawas City and Whittemore branches all began with WPA projects in the late 30s, and when the Isosco County Library was organized they became branches of the county library.

The old Jackson Building provided location of the original East Tawas county library with Mrs. Pauline Cowan Peterson as librarian. Even though the book collection was very small, this period saw the greatest growth in both service and circulation that it has been possible to build up since. This usage has declined in spite of the fact that the book stock, reference collection and services have enlarged annually.

The old Jackson Building provided many attractive features to assist in building the library. First, there were large windows where interesting exhibits could be placed to attract the eyes of passers-by, many patrons used the library for service perhaps would not have thought of it had they not seen an interesting book or exhibit in the window. Within the library, there was an inviting atmosphere enhanced by interesting arrangement of furniture and exhibits of timely materials.

The East Tawas branch is now housed in the Ladies Literary Club rooms. This building does not have the facilities for "from-the-street" attraction as there are no windows for display. Operation is further handicapped as inside displays and arrangements must be of a temporary and mobile nature since they must all be picked up and put away when other meetings are held in the club rooms.

Even with the cooperation of all organizations using this location, with these drawbacks, library circulation and service has not grown in recent years as it should have done and would under other circumstances. Circulation today is not as great as in the old Jackson Building. Last month, the circulation was 1,151.

East Tawas branch library is open 24 1/2 hours a week as follows:

Monday, 1:00 to 5:30 p. m.; Tuesday, 1:00 to 5:30 p. m., 7:00 to 9:00 p. m.; Thursday, 1:00 to 5:30 p. m.; Friday, 1:00 to 5:30 p. m.; Saturday, 9:00 to 1:30 p. m.

On Saturday mornings, there is a story hour for children at 10:00.

Mrs. Stewart White is librarian at this branch. Mrs. White is a graduate librarian with experience in both Bay City and Detroit Public Libraries. She is doing excellent work with boys and girls and could do exceptional work with adults if they could be persuaded to step into the library and give her this opportunity. Book collection here has grown from a few hundred copies to over 5,000.

In Tawas City, the original location of the branch library was the old Davidson Building, where Myles Insurance Agency is now located. About nine years ago, the library was moved to the city hall. Here circulation has grown from about 500 per month to around 1,500 per month. The book collection has grown from a few hundred to around 5,000.

Know Your Library . . .

The first librarian at this branch was Mrs. Mae McMurray. For the past eight years, this position has been filled by Miss Arlene Leslie. In addition to enthusiastically serving the Tawas City patrons, she has also served as assistant county librarian for the past six years.

Tawas City branch is open from 1:00 until 5:30 Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday. Miss Leslie conducts a story hour for boys and girls on Saturdays at 1:00.

In Whittemore, our first branch librarian was Mrs. Emma McKenzie and the library was located in her home. In December 1953, the library was moved to a downtown location. In this short time, circulation has grown from 300 per month to about 1,200 per month, proving the downtown location was the best place for this library.

Mrs. Robert Curtis was appointed librarian when Mrs. McKenzie retired in September 1953 and she has given to the library her enthusiasm and energy. This branch is open Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 3:00 until 5:00, Monday and Friday 12:00 to 1:00 p. m. and from 7:00 to 9:00 p. m. on Saturday. Mrs. Curtis has combined her story hours with the bi-weekly visits of the classes from school. Being a natural artist, her patrons are charmed by her chalk talks, charcoal drawings and other uses she makes of her talent in illustrating and telling stories as well as giving book reviews.

At Whittemore, the school is participating actively in the library program as the school library is small and students depend almost entirely upon their branch library for service. This collection numbers about 4,000 volumes.

Lloyd Newvine's store in McIvor houses our first county bookteria which was opened in the summer of 1953. This collection boasts about 200 volumes. These titles are being changed constantly, and we would like to urge patrons in the McIvor area to borrow books from this source. Every effort is made to provide titles that seem the most popular.

Every year, the county library purchases about 2,000 new books which are distributed to the above sources.

The Bookmobile schedule for next week is as follows:

Monday - November 29 - Moores Junction School, Alger School, Moffatt School.

Tuesday, November 30 - Omer School, Omer downtown.

Wednesday, December 1 - Oscoda School.

Thursday, December 2 - Sterling School, Sterling downtown.

Friday, December 3 - Arenac Eastern School, Twining downtown.

Group Pictures Needn't Be Dull

With holidays drawing near Christmas-plans for family gatherings and other group activities are very much in the limelight. So today we want to talk about your throwing the light from your flash attachment on these groups to take some pictures that will make many people happy—not just for now, but in the years to come.

With amateur equipment, you shouldn't try to picture a large group—five or six people is about as many as you should put in one shot. If the group is larger, take two pictures. The family group pictures of Victorian days were stiff as could be, with everyone staring straight into the camera, looking a bit as though they were facing a firing squad. That, of course, is something you want to avoid. And here's the easiest way to do it.

Be sure your group has a center of interest. Chances are good that in these family gatherings your pictures will practically set themselves up with little or no effort on your part. The conversational

Suddenly Last Sunday

Born in Lapeer County, December 25, 1878, he was the son of the late Joseph and Alice Colvin.

He came to Burlleigh Township when he was six years old. He remained here for his entire life.

Farm NEWS

By MARVIN DAVENPORT

Thursday, December 2—What can we do about marketing eggs and poultry. Mac Moore and Henry Larzelere are coming to Iosco County on Thursday, December 2, at 7:30 p. m.

Mr. Moore is anxious to answer any of the feed problems the elevator or feed men have as well as management problems of the farmers.

The day I wrote this news article it was rainy and foggy. The mild temperature reminded me that maybe now was a good time for our poultry raisers to clean out their brooder houses.

If you are going to order your chicks early, in November, December or January, to get the best profits, now is the time to get your brooder house ready.

You will be able to do a more thorough job of cleaning now than in midwinter. Cleaning is a hard job when cleaning water may freeze.

Dr. S. C. Schmittle, extension poultry pathologist at Michigan State College, says doing a good cleaning job in the brooder house is more important than the disinfectant you may use.

He suggests a thorough sweeping out, then the entire inside of the brooder house can be wet down with a garden hose. The house should then be scrubbed with lye water, one can of lye per 15 gallons of hot water.

After the area is dry, the disinfectant can be used.

This also is a good time to clean and disinfect the brooder house equipment.

Cadillac Prices for 1955 Models Revealed by Manager
Prices on Cadillac's 1955 models were revealed today by J. M. Roche, general sales manager of the Cadillac Motor Car Division. All prices include a new General Motors freight and price adjustment recently announced.

"This adjustment will result in a marked savings to Cadillac buyers in west coast and gulf state areas as the maximum charge for freight in areas 1,200 miles or more from Detroit will average about $200," Mr. Roche stated.

Cadillac list prices on all volume lines are identical with last year's prices except for the addition of $43 covering the new General Motors freight and price adjustment.

The stern of the tanker Lake Charles is high in the air as the vessel rests against the seawall of the East River in New York. The tanker and the Japanese freighter Armisan Maru collided beneath the Williamsburg Bridge. Harbor tugs pushed the ship to the seawall and shallower water to prevent the possibility of sinking. One crewman aboard the tanker was injured, however, the extent of the damage was not immediately determined.

By way of the grapevine we hear that the Friendship 4-H Club's gun safety project has already had four meetings with the leader, Edward Parker. What happened to the project reporter? We haven't heard a word from him. Let's hear about what is going on at the project meetings, we are interested.

A gypsy basket and bazaar will be featured at the March 4-H Club open house meeting of Alabaster-Whitney Rovers. This was decided by club members at their November 12 meeting held at the home of Andrea Duquette. Games were played and refreshments were served by our hostess, Mrs. Albert Duquette. Monday, November 29—Christmas gifts at the home of Mrs. William Wickert, Tawas City, 8:00 p. m.
Monday, November 29—Christmas greens, Mrs. Leo Sylvester, Whittemore.
Tuesday, November 30—Christmas greens workshop, Reno Township Hall, afternoon.
Monday, December 6—Home Demonstration Council meeting at home of Mrs. Donald MacDonald, Laidlawville.

The holiday season is being initiated this year by Christmas gift and greens making lessons in the home demonstration groups. Certainly anyone looking for gift or decoration ideas can help themselves to information and know-how by attending meetings of the local home demonstration groups around the county. Dates of those now known to us are listed for your convenience.

The home demonstration council meeting in December will be held in accordance with the revised constitution. Have you read it? Then, attention has been called, again, to the fact that there are now two delegates from each group, the chairman and the elected council member. Both will be attending the December meeting at Mrs. MacDonald's home.

We have started the office display idea. Alabaster 4-H Club started the series with one on gun safety. Tawas City Home Demonstration Group followed with an exhibit of garments made using dress finish ideas learned in lessons. Right now there are being shown Christmas gift ideas, including a number of items loaned by the Hale group. December 1-15 will be planned by Friendship 4-H Club, while Laidlawville Home Demonstration Group is to arrange one for the latter part of December.

Plan to stop in and see what is being shown.

Mrs. Charles Attwell, Hale group, suggested that we give the recipe for "Apricot Sticks" (the most yummy cookie bar you have ever tasted, so that everyone could clip it. Here it is:

Cook together until paste is formed—1/2 pound dried apricots, 1/2 cup sugar, 3/4 cup water. Prepare the following: 1/2 cup butter, 1 1/4 cups flour, 1 1/4 cups oatmeal, 1 cup brown sugar, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon soda.

Combine these ingredients as follows: Melt butter, add to brown sugar. Sift flour, soda, salt and add. Blend mixture with oatmeal. Line a square pan with waxed paper; grease. Place one-half mixture into pan and spread flat. Spread with apricot filling. Top with remaining oatmeal mixture, bake at 275 to 300 degrees Fahrenheit for about 30 minutes. These are good keepers.

Commenting from personal experience, if you find these crumble too much you can control it by using a little more butter than is called for.

When asked whether or not the proposed school could be constructed for $550,000, Mr. Habercorn said that he could not give a figure right down to the last penny but thought that the school could be constructed for approximately $575,000. He stated they would have to evaluate some conditions.

The Michigan Department of Public Instruction has given tentative approval to the new site, subject to the approval of the architect, which was received Tuesday night. The final plans for the new school will be sent to the department when they are completed.

Serve These Nut-Filled Cakes During Coming Holidays

BY DOROTHY MADDOX

WE have just baked two unusually good cakes, festive and surprisingly easy to make. Each uses jumbo Brazil nuts.

The fruitcake can be made in about 11 minutes. In addition to the nuts, the recipe calls for dates and maraschino cherries. This holiday loaf can be eaten immediately or kept for months.

The nut chocolate cake has delicate crumb texture and is rich in color and flavor. It's the kind of cake everyone in the family will enjoy.

Nut Tropical Cake (Yield: One 3-pound cake)

Three cups Brazil nuts (2 pounds unshelled, 1 pound shelled), 1 pound pitted dates, 1 cup (one 8-ounce jar) drained maraschino cherries, 3/4 cup sifted all-purpose flour, 3/4 cup sugar, 1/2 teaspoon baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 3 eggs, 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Put Brazil nuts, dates and cherries into large bowl. Sift flour, sugar, baking powder and salt over nuts and fruit; mix with hands until nuts and fruits are coated. Beat eggs until foamy; add vanilla. Stir into nut-fruit mixture until well mixed.

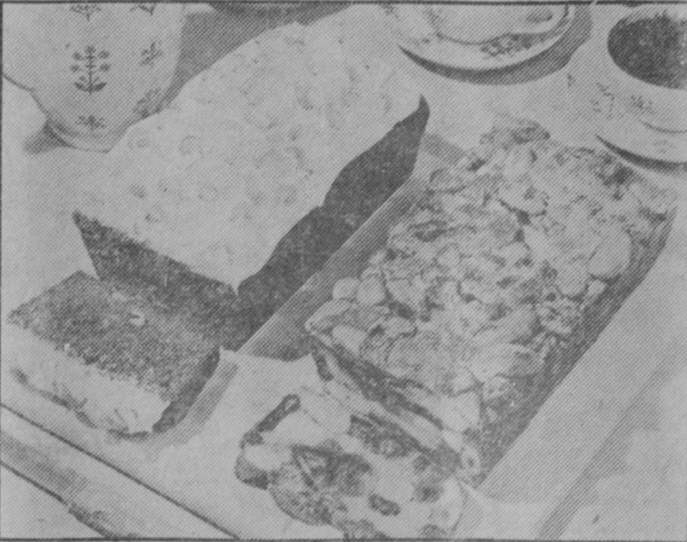

Turn into greased and waxed paper-lined pan 9 1/4 x 5 1/4 x 2 1/2 inches. Spread evenly in pan. Bake in a slow oven (300 degrees F.) 1 hour and 45 minutes. Cake must be cooled before slicing.

Nut Chocolate Loaf Cake (Yield: One loaf)

One third cup shortening, 1 1/2 cups firmly packed brown sugar, 1 whole egg, 1 egg yolk, 3 squares (3 squares) unsweetened chocolate (melted), 1 1/2 cups sifted cake flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon soda, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup chopped Brazil nuts, 3/4 cup milk, 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Cream shortening. Add sugar gradually and cream thoroughly. Add whole egg and egg yolk; beat until light and fluffy. (Reserve egg white for frosting.) Add melted chocolate and beat well. Sift together flour, baking powder, soda and salt; add Brazil nuts. Add flour mixture alternately with milk to batter, mixing after each addition until blended. Add vanilla.

Turn into a greased and waxed paper lined pan, 9 1/4 x 5 1/4 x 2 1/2 inches. Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 1 hour and 15 minutes.

Nut Chocolate Loaf is an anytime delicacy; Nut Tropical Cake, right, keeps for months, is easy to make.

Let stand 5 minutes, then remove from pan. When cool, cover top with seven-minute frosting, using reserved egg white. Garnish with Brazil nut curls.

Brazil Nut Curis

Cover whole Brazil nuts with cold water. Bring slowly to a boil. Simmer 2 to 3 minutes; drain. Slice paper-thin with vegetable peeler or paring knife.

Attends Conference at Michigan State College

It was more than an informal visit when local school officials and their former students conferred Saturday, November 20, at the annual Principal-Freshman Conference at Michigan State College.

To be certain, there was talk of high school football games, school elections and other hometown events, but the freshmen also were able to make suggestions to help the current crop of high school seniors. The conference is aimed at helping the high schools to improve their activities and operations to better prepare the seniors for college.

The local high school was represented by Principal R. W. Butterfield at the two-day conference.

Friday night was devoted to discussion groups for the principals. On Saturday, the principals spent the morning visiting with their former graduates. The event closed with a noon banquet and attendance at the Michigan State-Marquette football game, as guests of the college.

Former students now registered at Michigan State College as freshmen are: Clyde Collier, Richard Hertzler, Gerald McKenzie, Roland Hughes, David Moching, Thomas Morley and Herbert Wendt.

WCS Will Have Special Musical Program

A Christmas program with special music is to be presented by Mrs. George Leslie when the Tawas City Women's Society of Christian Service meets December 2.

The meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. A. E. Giddings with Mrs. Paul Koepke and Mrs. Reynolds Mick assisting. Devotions will be led by Mrs. James F. Mark.

THEY'RE WALKING ON DIMES—Mary Kosloski, 5, March of Dimes Poster Girl for 1955, and Randy Kerr, 8, who was the first of 651,000 children to receive the Salk polio vaccine in field trials which took place last spring, meet in New York City. Mary, who lives in Collinsville, Penn., was stricken with polio at the age of five months. She is able to walk with March-of-Dimes-supplied crutches and braces only because of excellent medical-and-home care. Randy, who proudly wears the badge of "No 1 Polio Pioneer," hails from Falls Church, Va. He may prove to be the leader of a parade of youth into a polio-free childhood, if the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis-sponsored Salk vaccine tests prove successful.
