Wood Treating Plant Coming to Tawas City

Osmose Wood Preserving Company of America, Buffalo, New York, has announced plans to build a low pressure retort wood preserving plant in Tawas City. The plant will treat ties for the Detroit and Mackinac Railway and will be in operation by May.

The tie cutting and treating operation represents a new use of oak in the territory. According to John Storer, Madison, Wisconsin, regional manager and forester for the Osmose Company, the wood treating plant will be expanded to preserve a variety of wood products including highway guard rails and posts.

Initial employment will be four to five in the plant and 20 to 40 cutters in the forests. Members of the AuSable Forest Products Co-op, East Tawas, have guaranteed a supply of timber to provide a minimum of 20,000 ties a year to the railroad.

The Osmose Company has developed a natural pressure method of treating lumber with preservatives. The preservative salts are absorbed into the wood fibers by the process of osmosis thereby avoiding the use of high pressure hydraulic equipment and tanks. The process permits the treatment of timber in the "green" stage.

The recent approval of the Osmose method of treating highway guard rails by the American Association of State Highway Officials opens new markets for the company's products which may be processed in the Michigan plant.

The industry was introduced to Michigan as the result of a conversation between David Poisson, industrial agent for the Michigan Economic Development Department, and William G. Stump, extension specialist in forest products, Michigan State College. The contact with the Osmose Company followed an unsuccessful attempt on the part of the two to interest another company in establishing a wood preserving plant in Michigan.

Mr. Storer was introduced by Stump to the officers of the Detroit and Mackinac Railway and AuSable Forest Products Co-op. Both took an immediate interest in the project. The railroad uses 50,000 ties a year—over 2,000 board feet of low grade oak which it obtains from southern states. In addition to obtaining a better tie, according to the railroad, the initial order for 20,000 ties for 1955 will result in savings to the railroad in freight costs from the south.

The co-op group has been searching for a more profitable market for low grade timber which it has been cutting and shipping as pulpwood. Stump also provided the market research data proving that a wood treating operation would be profitable in Michigan. According to his figures one farm organization last year sold 100,000 treated fence posts in Michigan that had been purchased in southern states. The freight rate per post averaged 30 cents. Savings on this expense, according to Stump, justified a local operation.

The establishment of a treating plant in northeastern Michigan opens up new opportunities for income from Michigan's forests. Mr. Pinkerton, president of the Detroit and Mackinac Railway, in placing the order for ties, said, "Once the tie operation is underway, local saw mills will start cutting timber for treated utility poles, fence posts, bridge members and lumber for various types of construction. This initial order for ties is but a small part of the new market that now is available in the forest products industry in northeast Michigan."

Fire Inspectors Here Tuesday

January 18 is the day—approximately 20-25 fire inspectors and special agents from capital stock insurance companies plan to comb Tawas City and East Tawas throughout the day for fire hazards in business places and public buildings.

The super-inspection is set to get underway at 9 o'clock.

A luncheon will be held at noon in the Holland Hotel. Fire chiefs from the two towns and the men conducting the inspection will be guests at the luncheon.

Reservations for 100 persons have been made for the affair. George K. Simpson, state agent, will be the guest speaker. Mayor George W. Myles and Mayor Elmer Werth issued a proclamation today, officially designating January 18 as Fire Prevention Day.

The school children have been working on projects during the past week emphasizing fire safety and have been furnished home inspection blanks.

1,200 Inspect Bookmobile

Last week more than 1,200 interested visitors inspected the new $6,800 Bookmobile which was recently put in operation in the Isoco-Arenac Regional Library project.

On loan from the State of Michigan as a portion of the state aid grant to new libraries, the new Chevrolet van, popularly known as "Big George," is equipped with skylights, an all-steel body, thermostatically-controlled heat and dual wheels. The Bookmobile has a capacity of one and one-half tons and carries more than 1,800 books. The new equipment will become the property of the library project if the regional library is voted on favorably.

Bookmobile service was started locally in 1943, and the first Bookmobile to operate in this area was a panel truck. Books were stored in shelves which would swing across the open doors in the back of the truck. Children would climb steps placed outside to select their books.

A second Bookmobile was purchased in 1948. Since that time, regular school and summer stops have been made and an increase in circulation has resulted.

In 1954, 5,716 books were circulated at Isoco County adult stops and 42,933 books were loaned to schools.

Regular trips are made to the Omer Hospital. Here, patients are given the opportunity of selecting the types of books which they would enjoy.

Will Give Information on Social Security

A representative from the Bay City Social Security Office will be in the Federal Building at East Tawas on Wednesday, January 19, from 12:00 noon to 1:00 p. m. Anyone wanting to apply for social security payments or needing information about social security should see him. Beginning this year a representative will be in East Tawas monthly instead of bi-monthly, in order to handle the increased work.

According to Paul M. Ellifritz, manager of the Bay City office, a number of people possibly entitled to payments, have not asked about them. They are the survivors of workers who died between January 1, 1940, and September 1, 1950, and had at least 1 1/2 years of work under social security. This is a provision of the 1954 law and became effective in September 1954. Following are the survivors affected:

Sportsmen's Club Elects Officers

A new vice president and three new members of the board of directors were elected at the January 6 meeting of the Isoco Sportsmen's Club. The new officers were elected for three-year terms.

Elected were: Wayne Vaughn, vice president; Donald Hogaboom, William DeGrow and Walter Deering, as members of the board of directors.

Hold-overs from last year include Dr. E. B. Cavell, president; Joseph Woolhiser, Elmer Stensrud, Ted Kyser, Clifford Guyette, Russell Rollin and Donald Phillips, member of the board of directors, and Val Fallu, secretary-treasurer.

By unanimous vote the club by-laws were amended increasing the yearly dues to $2.00 instead of the previous dues of $1.50.

John Byleck, district game manager, and H. Peterson, conservation department fish division manager, are to be invited to the next meeting. Mr. Byleck will report on the progress made on the Tuttle Marsh burning project and Peterson will answer some trout problems for the fish committee.

Arthur Leitz, local conservation department officer, was voted an immediate $20.00 for feeding pheasants in the farming areas. Leitz will buy corn which will be distributed where it is most needed.

Committee chairman appointments named at the meeting last week include: Frank Wilkusi, club programs; Val Fallu, advertising in MQOD; Wayne Vaughn, fish and game; Walter Deering, wild life; A. Don Anderson, legislative; Earl Wight, auditing; Arthur Leitz, rifle range; Russell Rollin, conservation education, and Nelson Thornton, publicity.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Crocker left Tuesday afternoon for North Carolina where they will spend the winter.

Would Add 2 Members to Road Board

The Isoco County Board of Supervisors at the January meeting which ended Wednesday afternoon adopted a resolution recommending that the legislature change the law so that county road commissioners would serve three years instead of six and increase the size of the board from three members to five. The board concurred with Gogebic and other counties of the state in adopting this resolution.

The annual reports of the county clerk, county treasurer, library, register of deeds, county agricultural agent and welfare department were received at this meeting. In previous years these reports have been made at the April meeting of the board.

A large amount of time was spent by the board in studying the problem caused by the recent decision of the supreme court relative to spreading tax on the state equalization figures rather than the assessed valuations as set up by the supervisors.

The board voted to adopt a resolution concurrent with Gratiot County recommending that the legislature change the law which now requires at least a school tax levy of five mills to participate in school state aid to 3 1/2 mills. This would help reconcile the state equalization figures with those of the county and place school taxation again on a realistic basis.

The board voted to have the jail doors electronically equipped in the new building now under construction. The cost of installation will be $830.00.

An appropriation of $175.00 was made for apiary-inspection in the county.

Because of resignations there were four new members at the January meeting of the board of supervisors. Harry Cater and Edward Seifert succeeded Roy Hickey and T. W. O'Loughlin of East Tawas. Henry Oates replaced Victor J. Anderson of Alabaster Township and Clement J. Stephan of Tawas City. Stephan served during the October meeting.

Anderson, who had recently resigned, was a veteran member, having represented Alabaster Township on the board for the past 16 years. During that time he had continuously served on many of the important committees.

Isoco Polio Fund Quota $3,750.00

Isoco County's quota in the 1955 March of Dimes campaign is $3,750, according to an announcement made this week by John R. Watkins, chairman. The co-chairmen are Nathan Barkman and E. D. Jacques.

In the campaign all industries will be contacted, letters will be mailed to residents throughout the county and canisters placed in business places. Wurtsmith Air Force Base will also cooperate as in past campaigns.

Watkins said that remittance may be made to either Co-Chairman Jacques or Co-Chairman Barkman. Last year many organizations contributed through their funds and in campaigns within their own groups. The county organization will again welcome all volunteer help of this nature, he said.

"Your whole-hearted support and contributions in this March of Dimes campaign will be appreciated. Let us do all we can to assist in helping combat this crippling disease."

During the past year there have been six serious polio cases in the county, including three iron lung cases. The National Foundation has furnished $10,000 to the county organization to help care for these cases. This is nearly three times the amount raised in the 1954 March of Dimes campaign here.

Mrs. Hanson Hostess to Methodist WSCS

Mrs. Eugene Hanson was hostess at a meeting of the Hope Circle of the East Tawas Methodist WSCS at her home Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Edna Cozzad had charge of the program which was a Bible study on "The Sermon on the Mount."

Refreshments were served after the meeting by the following committee: Mrs. Clarence McKenzie, Mrs. Edgar Jones and Mrs. Nina May.

The business session was in charge of the president, Mrs. Glenn Hughes, and devotionals by Mrs. Polly Stevens.

Jail Population Decreased in 1954

A decrease in the number of persons confined during the past year at the Isoco County Jail, compared with figures of 1953, was reported this week by Sheriff Ivan L. O'Farrell. Sheriff O'Farrell stated that 411 persons were confined in the jail during 1954, a decrease of 44 from 1953.

Of that figure, 211 persons were confined for misdemeanors, 73 persons for felonies of various nature, 38 drunk drivers, and 28 were jailed for reckless driving.

Twenty-nine minors were confined in the jail on various charges and 19 persons were jailed for contributing to the delinquency of minors. Sheriff O'Farrell reports.

The jail served a total of 6,293 inmate meals during the year.

The arrests of these persons were made by the sheriff's department, Michigan State Police and city law enforcement officers from the various townships.

In addition to these totals, eight mental patients were taken to state hospitals by the department. One fatal auto accident and one drowning was handled by the department.

According to the year-end tabulations of activities, a total of 1,359 complaints of all types were handled during 1954.

The department issued 93 traffic summons and issued approximately 1,200 traffic warnings. They also issued 2,946 drivers' licenses and registered 148 concealed weapons.

From the numerous dog complaints received during the year the department disposed of 505 dogs.

A total of 128 vouchers for the bounty on fox and predatory animals were issued.

Members of the Isoco County Sheriff's Department include: Sheriff O'Farrell, Leon Putnam, under sheriff; Charles C. Kurtz, chief deputy; Doris O'Farrell, matron; along with Deputies Kennedy and Amley at Oscoda, H. Lecaroux at AuSable, Dennis Chivria at Hale and Roy Charters at Foote Site.

"During the year 1954 this department has enjoyed excellent cooperation from the Michigan State Police, Michigan Department of Conservation, City Prosecutor's office," said Sheriff O'Farrell.

The Rev. and Mrs. Richard Jennings of Christ Episcopal Church were in Detroit last week and brought home with them on Friday a little son whom they have adopted. He is four months old, weighs 17 pounds and is named David Gill Jennings. Mr. Jennings introduced him to his congregation from the pulpit last Sunday morning.

The proposal by the fair-ground supporters would set the bond issue for the new Tawas Area junior and senior high school at $775,000.

This is the same proposition which the board of education offered to voters of the district in two earlier elections last year on the Neumann-Reinke property in Tawas Township. Both propositions were turned down by a small majority.

Last month the board offered a third bonding proposition to the voters of the district but was defeated by less than 100 votes. This was a $550,000 proposition which would have utilized available facilities in Tawas City.

Announcement

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brunet of East Tawas have announced the engagement of their daughter, Jeanne E., to Delbert A. Curley of Oscoda, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Curley. No definite wedding date has been set.

School Problems Will be Discussed by P-TA

Two cents from every parent in the Tawas Area School District—everyone likes to put his two cents into a discussion and here is your opportunity.

Seriously, when the P-TA meets on Monday evening, January 17, at 8:00 p. m. in the Tawas City gymnasium, Ronald Butterfield, the high school principal, will be in charge of the program at which time there will be discussions on many school problems that come up every year, problems in which you are vitally interested.

One of them is the senior trip. Do you have any opinions, feelings or information about this? The graduating classes are approaching the 100 mark. Can the $8,000 needed for a senior trip be raised each year?

Another topic to be considered is "Extra Curricular Activities." Do we have enough? Too many? Should these activities take place during school hours so that everyone can participate? Present your ideas about the what, why, who, how and when of it.

Also, there will be a talk about "Attendance Problems and Practices." Why is attendance of the senior class less than 90 percent?

The publicity committee says, "We want every parent there, armed with his own personal view points. Also we invite students of junior and senior high school to participate. Here is your opportunity to say what you think, express your concern. If you are interested at all, be at the P-TA meeting on Monday, January 17, Tawas City gymnasium, 8:00 p. m."

Fair Grounds Site Data to be Up for Study

A special meeting of the Tawas Area Board of Education will be held at the chamber of commerce office next Tuesday night for the purpose of further discussion on acquiring the fair-ground property in the state-mated school site controversy.

The board authorized Superintendent Reynolds Mick to gather additional data on the property for presentation at the next meeting.

Information such as the availability and cost of the property in an exchange with the forestry department and the cost of additional property bordering the fairgrounds will be presented. Superintendent Mick will work with the forestry department to determine if a suitable program could be reached on this property.

This action was taken as a result of discussions at the Tuesday night meeting between the board of education and citizens interested in the fairgrounds property who were present.

During an open discussion the board was urged to take action for the acquisition of the property as the site for the new school by Carl Babcock of Tawas City.

Babcock stated that he had been approached by several groups who urged such action.

He pointed out that the communities had been at "loggerheads" for two years over the controversial school site question, and that "someone would have to give in a little to come to an agreement." The community is suffering due to our school program," Babcock stated.

"Industry is being held up and home expansion is at a standstill as a result," Babcock continued. He urged that the board acquire the fairgrounds on an exchange basis with the forestry department, as well as investigating the acquisition of additional land.

1. Develop a plan to set up a school program on the fair-grounds site as soon as possible after the board has received all the data pertaining to the property and has the approval of the department of public instruction for such a plan.

2. To further explore the matter of property exchange with the forestry department, as well as investigating the acquisition of additional land.

3. Put forth a proposition and have a bond issue on the fair-grounds site as soon as possible after the board has received all the data pertaining to the property and has the approval of the department of public instruction for such a plan.

The proposal by the fair-ground supporters would set the bond issue for the new Tawas Area junior and senior high school at $775,000.

This is the same proposition which the board of education offered to voters of the district in two earlier elections last year on the Neumann-Reinke property in Tawas Township. Both propositions were turned down by a small majority.

Last month the board offered a third bonding proposition to the voters of the district but was defeated by less than 100 votes. This was a $550,000 proposition which would have utilized available facilities in Tawas City.

Man Injured in Gun Accident

A 46-year-old resident of Route One, Tawas City, shot himself through his left palm last Friday when his .22 caliber rifle discharged accidentally.

John Lake, who received treatment at the Tawas Hospital by Dr. J. J. Austin, told investigating officers that he could not remember exactly what had happened to cause the rifle to discharge.

The injured man was found by his wife, Sarah, when she returned from a movie with their children.

Investigating Michigan State Police officers, Max Waterbury and George Burnette, said that the bullet entered the left palm and went out through the back of Lake's hand. No bones were broken.

The City Bowling Tournament will start this Sunday, January 11, and will continue through the 23rd. Team events will kick-off at the East Tawas Recreation at 2:00 p. m. Doubles and singles will be rolled at the Tawas City Recreation. Arvid Carlson, secretary, urges bowlers to get entries in before Saturday night.

Red Tag Specials

"Your dollar buys more in the Tawas during Red Tag Days, January 13, 14 and 15," is the reminder voiced by community merchants today as they prepared their bargain lists for thrifty shoppers of the Tawas area.

In this week's issue of the Tawas Herald many money-saving specials are advertised by local merchants. Watch for the red tags denoting these items during the big sale.

The March of Dimes

Although great progress in the fight against polio has been made in recent years, and even more gratifying progress is promised, your contribution to the March of Dimes is still needed.

The 1955 March of Dimes Drive is now underway and even though a vaccine appears to be almost ready for widespread use—a vaccine which will immunize children against polio—much money is still needed by the National Foundation. This is readily understandable when one realizes the vast problem involved in immunizing the nation's children.

In a country of 160,000,000 citizens it is very obvious that the cost of supplying a vaccine to all those who cannot afford it will run into very high figures, and involve millions of children. It is to help in financing the production and distribution of the new vaccines that much of the 1955 March of Dimes donations will be used.

There is no lessening of need, therefore, in 1955 for your contribution to the March of Dimes. Give as generously as possible, with the knowledge that your contribution will help finance the production and distribution of polio preventive.

A New Industry

Listed by the Michigan Department of Economic Development with a number of large and small industries coming into the state, and expansion of industries now here, is the plant of the Osmose Wood Preserving Company of America coming from Buffalo, New York, to Tawas City. The announcement was made by H. K. Miller, chief of the agency's information division.

Among the changes listed were the multimillion dollar expansion programs of Chrysler Corporation, General Motors and Ford Motor Company, and the moving into the state of the Bridgeport Brass Company, Beechnut Packing Company and others. But Miller emphasized the importance of the many new small industries, like the Osmose Wood Preserving Company moving into the state. He said, "Some of these new firms are small, but taken together they have a tremendous effect on our economy, particularly in small towns."

DUAL EXHAUST makes more of Mercury's power available to you for everyday driving. You have two separate exhaust systems for lower engine temperatures—resulting in greater efficiency and economy. Only Mercury Monterey and Montclair in their price class offer dual exhaust as standard equipment at no extra cost.

4-BARREL CARBURETOR gives you two-barrel economy for normal driving. But when an extra spurt of speed or hill-climbing power is needed, the extra 2 barrels cut in instantly, vacuumatically. Only Mercury in its field offers a 4-barrel carburetor as standard equipment on every model.

HIGH-COMPRESSION SPARK PLUGS—revolutionary new anti-fouling spark plugs designed for super high-compression engines—give peak performance at all speeds. No other spark plugs available as standard equipment can match this performance, and no other car in Mercury's field has them.

LONGER EXPERIENCE. Only Mercury among all cars has an exclusively V-8 history. New 188- and 198-hp SUPER-TORQUE V-8 engines are the latest and greatest Mercury developments. And Mercury has put over 2,000,000 proven V-8 engines on the road—more V-8's than any other car in its price class.

NEW 1955 MERCURYS offer high horsepower (188 and 198)—new SUPER-TORQUE V-8 design—for super-pickup in every speed range.

Bible Comment:
Christ Was Paul's True World

THE mortal world of St. Paul was a Roman world. As Paul was a free-born Roman citizen, the fact of Paul's world being under the power of Rome gave him a great opportunity for his missionary enterprise.

It was not as it is in the world today. A missionary or an ordinary traveler is hampered by boundaries, Iron Curtains, exclusive laws and innumerable handicaps.

Paul's difficulties and obstacles came not so much from Rome and Roman officials as from the persecuting zeal of his religious enemies. When Romans interfered it was usually at the instigation of these religious enemies who had stirred up riot and strife.

But Paul's world was a Roman world only in an external and physical sense. In his outlook it was a very different world from that which most Romans knew. It was also a very different world in its inner aspect and outlook from the world that many people, professing high intelligence, live in today.

When Paul uses the phrase, "in Christ," it is as if he spoke of the place in which one lived. Christ, indeed, was his environment, and that made all the difference from that outward Roman world.

It is difficult for us to grasp the full glory and significance of a free-born Roman citizen, living in a world that was largely slave-bound and marked by racial and sectional prejudices more widespread and deeper than those of today, yet who was entirely free from all prejudice.

In that world of the Gospel creation, the world of "the new man"—renewed in knowledge after the image of Him that created him—there was "neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free, but Christ is all and in all."

Michigan Out-of-Doors Carries Trout Report

The January number of Michigan Out-of-Doors carries a story of some amazing results from supplemental feeding of trout reported by "Eddie" Parker at the December meeting of the Conservation Commission. Parker, who is manager of More Trout, Incorporated, on the AuGres River, has been doing some research work in supplemental feeding of trout during the past two years. One trout exhibited by Parker, which weighed five ounces when tagged, had grown to one pound and six ounces in four months time. His research, Parker feels, indicates that a program of supplemental feeding would make the lakes and streams of Michigan produce many times their present yield of fish.

Friday, January 28—Michigan Livestock Exchange regional meeting at Reno Township Hall, 2:00 p. m.

Monday Through Friday, February 7-11—Farmers' Week at Michigan State College.

There were 53 Iosco County dairy farmers (of our reported 538) who learned about detecting, controlling and preventing mastitis. Our dairy clinic, conducted under the direction of Donald Murray, Michigan State College dairy specialist, gave the farmers a complete story on mastitis as well as proper care and best use of the milking machine.

With Dr. Albert Drury and James Hays of Michigan State College contributing, the problem of mastitis was completely covered. Mr. Murray had five milking machines represented. Each had a demonstration machine to show the farmers how they should be operated and to answer operation questions. The companies represented were DeLaval, Conde, Universal, Rileway and Surge. Included in the program was Murray's demonstration on producing quality milk. He explained the use of the newly developed scheme of giving milking machines rubber parts a week-long soaking in lye to make them last longer and improve milk quality.

According to Mr. Murray some farmers have more than doubled the life of their milker rubber by having two sets and resting one in lye water every other week.

He suggested these directions: Make a solution of cold water and lye, using one can per gallon of water. Make enough to cover all rubber parts in a steel or granite kettle.

When you have two new sets of rubber, you can change at the end of the week. The lye solution will dissolve the fat and let the rubber of the other set return to normal shape.

Don't throw away that lye solution because it can be used repeatedly for months. The parts should be washed and rinsed after they are taken out of the lye.

Some farmers prefer hot lye solutions but most believe the cold lye is simpler to use. The results are the same—better quality milk and longer life from milker parts.

We were most grateful to the 4-H Club Leaders' Council for the noon luncheon. Franklin Bischoff, Mrs. Ona Lee Kindell, Mrs. Alton Durant, Mrs. Geraldine Avram, Mrs. Walter Laidlaw, Mrs. Harold Goedecke and 4-H'ers, James Laidlaw, Larry Frank, Gale and Dewayne Durant, Wayne and Howard Bischoff for their extra help for the meal. 4-H families furnished pies that topped off a fine luncheon.

There is nothing magic about a good farm account book but it sure helps to take the hokuspocus out of filing federal income tax returns.

Iosco Chapter Meets With Mrs. McCall

The regular meeting of Iosco Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, was held with Mrs. Emma McCall presiding. New song books were introduced. A donation was made to the Betty Dresden fund. Admitted to membership were Mrs. Marion Rose from Rose City Chapter and Mrs. Jean Hill from Queen City Chapter, Lorain, Ohio. Grand Committee Woman Annabelle Chambers of Rose City will be the speaker at the February meeting. Refreshments were served after the meeting by the following hostesses: Marie Hennigar, Ellen West, Dorothy Harmon and Helen Applin. Guests of the chapter were from Jackson and Tawas City Chapters.

Farmers are learning that the income tax computations are also used for reporting social security taxes due the government. Thus, the same books solves two perplexing problems to the farmer with the same stroke of the pencil.

The response to this educational service is growing and I would suggest that farmers contact our office for more information, as soon as you can.

Young People Hear Detroit Speaker

The Methodist young people from 11 churches of this sub-district gathered over 200 strong last Sunday at Standish to hear Dr. Glenn Frye of Detroit speak on Christian vocations and to make plans for their future meetings. Jo Ann Dufoe of Whittemore, president of the youth group, acted as general chairman for the meeting.

The next rally will be held in Rose City on March 13 when the group will present the 70-minute John Wesley color film giving the complete authentic history of the Methodist Church. On May 8, these youth will present Bishop Marshall R. Reed of Detroit as their speaker.

Dates were approved for the next four roller skating parties sponsored by this group each month at East Tawas. These recreational meetings have proved very popular for over two years. Plans were made to attend the District Mid-Winter Institute at Alpena on February 11 and 12.

Dr. Frye's message was very well received at the afternoon session starting at 4:00 p. m. During "free" time before the supper hour, the adult counselors and youth leaders had a chance to meet informally for planning.

The evening worship service was led by officers of the sub-district with special music from the Standish youth group. The film, "Missionary at Walker's Garage," rounded out the Christian vocation theme for the day.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

Baby makes an ideal center of attention for the adults in four-generation group pictures.

Don't Put Family Snapshots Off Until Tomorrow

TOMORROW is definitely too late for picturing people as they are today. There are some varieties of family snapshots that you definitely shouldn't put off taking.

Among these are the family groups, the four generation snapshots. Sometimes in our concentration on picturing the small fry and how they grow, we tend to forget about the grown-ups in the family. They belong in the family picture record, too.

Picturing the oldsters and the youngsters together is something that can be fun, and at the same time produce snapshots that will become family treasures.

Of course, when it comes to picturing a family group, it is always important to have a center of interest—something that all of your subjects can focus their attention on and not look at the camera.

In taking the three or four generation pictures that should be a part of every family record, the representative of the youngest generation makes an excellent center of interest.

Group the adults in a comfortable manner and let them be admiring the baby. Nothing could be more natural—and because of that it ought to be a sure-fire means of getting good expressions on the faces.

When you have a group like that together, don't take just one picture—the subject is too important to take any chances. Shoot several and you are bound to have at least one exceptionally good picture, and you'll probably have a whole series.

Calendar—
Wednesday, January 19—See the program, "Bulk Handling of Miles," on Channel 5, Bay City, 1:00 p. m.

Income tax returns, home and farm account books to close and start anew for 1955, and now social security figuring, too.

It's our guess that most of you homemakers are given full reign over the somewhat questionable privilege of "pushing the pencil" when it comes to keeping the record books, just as it is generally true that womanfolk are the "corresponding secretaries."

That being the case, we have some bits of information you may find especially helpful in the next few days or weeks.

First, social security. It is new beginning in 1955. Before you conclude that you wish you did not have to participate, do a little research on the subject. The very best and simplest explanation we have yet come across is contained in a 10-page folder from Michigan State College. The 26 most common questions answered in it will tell you most everything you want and need to know.

Within another week it is our plan to mail one of these folders to all families whose names are on our general, home demonstration and 4-H Club family mailing lists. If you do not receive one this way, you may write, phone or stop in at the office to request your copy. There is no charge.

Application blanks for a social security number are available from us and from the post office.

Account keeping record books—what kind do you use or need? We have several. One is the regular farm account book, another the farm income tax record, a third the home account book, and yet a fourth is the tourist and resort account book. Come in and get yours soon so your bills don't accumulate or become lost before the book-keeping gets done.

We have several suggestions for you on making out the income tax report. You may receive the necessary blanks in the mail. If not, we can supply you with almost any combination you need. And do make them in duplicate, keeping one for yourself.

"Farmers 1954 Income Tax" is the helpful Michigan State College bulletin just received to guide you in completing your records.

Some changes you need to consider are these: Children under 19 can earn more than $600 and still be claimed as dependents if their parents provide more than half their support. This holds true if children are over 19 and full-time students for at least five months of the year.

Medical and dental expenses over three percent of the adjusted gross income can be deducted, if listed.

Income from livestock sold, exchanged or destroyed because of disease need not be listed for payment of tax, if the amount is reinvested in similar livestock within a year. Example, indemnities under a TB program.

You have one month more to prepare your final statement. The deadline this year is April 15 instead of March 15. And, you will have to pay about 10 percent less tax this year.

Plan now to be among those present for the meeting at Whittemore on the evening of January 25. Income taxes, social security and related subjects will be under discussion.

Have Until April 15 to File Tax Returns

There is some confusion about tax deadlines because of the fact that a major wire service reported erroneously on the deadlines recently, and because of the fact that this year citizens will have until April 15 to file their final tax returns, rather than March 15.

The deadline for persons who should have filed quarterly estimates in 1954 is still January 15 and farmers who should have filed such estimates face a deadline of January 31. Although the tax law adopted in 1954 changed these deadlines, to January 31 and February 15, respectively, these changes do not take effect until payments are made in 1956.

The final classic effort for the bedraggled taxpayer, however, is changed this year. This last-gasp desperation push—which it is to so many millions—will not be necessary until midnight of April 15, 1955. In other words, the average citizen is getting a 13 month spread this time, having completed his final returns by March 15, 1954, and having another month before such action is necessary this year.

With the losco 4-H Clubs

By DOROTHY SCOTT

Even 4-H Club projects took a vacation over the holidays. We heard it from some leaders the other day, and even if we had not we would have guessed it because of the lack of project meeting reports.

We wonder if there are going to be many sorry 4-H'ers very soon now, when they suddenly discover that their 4-H Club openhouse meeting is the very next one?

Why? Well, because at the openhouse meetings we expect to find the projects now in progress all completed, done, finished. And the reports, too, will have reached our office in time to be checked so that certificates of completion can be prepared.

4-H Club leaders and members were on hand at the milking clinic in Hale last Thursday. They were there to serve lunches and earn money for the 4-H Club Leaders' Council fund. Next week we hope to have the names of those who worked on this activity.

Recently we had a letter from Carol Hula's mother, Carol. She is a 4-H Club member in Hale last year until the family moved to Chicago. But she left her knitting to be exhibited and mailed cookies so that she could complete her two projects and receive her certificate and pin.

We learn that she has been helping several of her new friends to learn to knit and has made six pair of mittens herself this year.

Phyllis Herriman says that the livestock members toured the community to see and measure the calves belonging to the members. At their next meeting they will make calf blankets.

Ricky Laidlaw and community leader, Mrs. Laidlaw, have been telling us about the wonderful old-fashioned Christmas program staged by Laidlawville 4-H Club. Franklin Bischoff, a project leader, assisted the young people plan and carry out the program enjoyed by parents and a large crowd.

1955 Automobile Models Increase Sales in December

The early introduction of 1955 automobile models has apparently paid dividends. Officials of each of the Big Three automobile companies have recently revealed that sales have picked up considerably in recent weeks.

Harlowe H. Curtice, president of General Motors, said recently that sales in the first 10 days of December were exceptionally high, and indicated a good acceptance of the five General Motors' cars by the public.

An official for Chrysler Corporation said his company had received approximately 448,000 orders from the dealers by December 13. This indicates Chrysler sales will be up over totals for 1954 models.

The other member of the Big Three—Ford—has not announced any sales figures yet, but it is known that Ford has been producing near-record, or record, numbers of Fords at its plants. It is thought that Ford is also experiencing lively sales.

Only three 1955 cars are not yet on the market. They are Nash, Packard and Hudson. All are expected to introduce their new models in January—the first being Nash, whose new models were scheduled to be shown the public on January 4.

Because of 1955 models are featuring many changes, both in body and engine design, the public is showing more interest than in recent years, and sales figures are apparently reflecting, on gamblers.

This healthy condition. The first three months of the 1955 sales drive will probably tell the story for the current year in the automotive business.

Although it is too early to predict a bright year, sales results in the first month seem highly encouraging. They are above sales for a comparable period, with the 1954 models, by a wide margin. Thus, it appears that the worst might be over in the automotive trade—a trade in which retail dealers in the last 15 to 18 months have suffered rather serious setbacks.

The conservative business man is often one who made his pile figures are apparently reflecting,

Braves Lose To Oscoda Owls

Resuming the basketball war after a two-week layoff due to the Christmas vacation, the Tawas Area Braves lost to a powerful Oscoda Owls team last Friday night 64-42. Oscoda swept both ends of a double-header scheduled on its home court with the junior varsity winning 49-45.

The Owls, led by a 21-point scoring spree by Buchner, jumped to a 17-9 lead in the first quarter and were never headed during the rest of the game. The winners added 17 points each in the second and third quarters and then totaled 13 in the final stanza. Tawas Area scored 11 points in the second quarter, nine in the third and tied Oscoda in the fourth quarter scoring 13.

Along with Buchner, Oscoda's high-scoring guard, the winners had two other players who reached double figures in the scoring column. Miller, center, meshed 11 points to take second place in individual scoring honors. Topping the Tawas scoring attack was Morley and Lepard with 10 points each. Featheringill followed with nine points.

CURE FOR THE "BIG-HEAD"

A recent series of articles in Life magazine gave an excellent and thought-provoking insight into the mysteries of the universe. In a recent article, it was explained, by pictures and words, how infinitesimal this world is and how infinite the vast areas of the universe are.

One of the best cures for the well-known big head, and one of the most sobering reflections man can make, is a study of the universe and the vastness of space and material which surrounds this tiny earth. We are but a speck, flying around the sun, and we are only a very minor body in our group of stars and planets.

Mrs. Esther S. Doerr

Mrs. Esther Sofie Doerr of East Tawas died at Tawas Hospital last Sunday, a few hours after being taken there due to a heart ailment. She had been residing with her husband the past five years on North US-23. The family came here from Detroit.

The body was taken to the Moffatt Funeral Home and moved to Detroit on Monday. Funeral services will be held in Detroit on Thursday at the Joseph Sarnowski Funeral Home and burial will be in Detroit.

Esther Sofie Doerr was born in Detroit September 17, 1902. She married William Doerr October 22, 1921, in Detroit. Mrs. Doerr was a member of the Messiah Lutheran Church of Detroit.

Ellsworth Wogaman

Ellsworth Wogaman of Tawas Township died Monday afternoon at Tawas Hospital after a three-day illness. A heart ailment was the cause of death. He was born March 30, 1880, in Darvon County, Ohio. On September 28, 1903, he married Ella Pearl Martin who preceded him in death. He came to Isosco County 45 years ago and had been an employee of the United States Gypsum Company 41 years. He had been making his home with his daughter, Mrs. Ethel Wernert of Tawas City.

Surviving are five daughters: Mrs. Stella Proper of Dearborn, Mrs. Ethel Wernert of Tawas City, Mrs. Hazel Posh of Bay City, Mrs. Lucille Klinefischer of Pontiac, and Mrs. Pearl Bessey of the Townline; a son, Edgar Wogaman of Alabaster; three brothers, Claude and Ross of Lima, Ohio, Roy of Muncie, Indiana; a sister, Mrs. Lillie Harrod of Wilber Township; two grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon from the Jacques Funeral Home. The Rev. Robert Nelson officiated. Interment was in Tawas City Cemetery.

Shows Hawaiian Films At Kiwanis Luncheon

Color slides taken during a recent trip to Hawaii, shown by George W. Myles of Tawas City, featured the Tuesday noon luncheon program of the Tawas Kiwanis Club.

The color slides were snapped by Mr. Myles last month when he and his family flew to Hawaii to visit with his son, Pfc. Delano Myles, who recently was assigned there after serving with the 25th Infantry Division in Korea.

Kiwanis president, John Watkins, conducted the business meeting and reported on the state convention held at Jackson on January 8 and 9. Various committee appointments were announced at the meeting.

The boy who learns to play a game fairly and squarely will seldom develop into a crooked business man.

Cardinals Win From Hale Teams

The Whittemore Cardinals won two games from Hale Friday night. The Cards won their sixth straight victory over a previously unbeaten Hale team on the Hale floor. It was a tight battle until the third quarter when Coach Dudo's Red Birds began to click. Hale started off the game with a one point lead, which was soon erased, but came back in the second quarter to again lead by one point. The Cards held a lead of three points at the half and started building up a winning margin in the third quarter.

Hale was unable to match the height of Hall and Pagel and lost a hard fought game. Whittemore's squad was not at full strength for the contest. Dunham and Fuerst were still hampered by injuries and were able to play only part of the game. Roger Hall scored 19 points on eight and three for the winners. Shellenbarger had 11 on five and one for Hale.

The Card Reserves came from behind to win their fifth game against one loss 22-13. Hale held an eight point lead in the first quarter but lost it in the second quarter. The Red Birds took command of the game and brought home a well deserved victory when the Hale squad ran out of gas in the last half. Jerry Dorcay led the scoring with eight points; Malcho scored five for the losers.

To Sponsor Doll Show by School Children

A meeting of the Audie Johnson Unit, American Legion Auxiliary, was held last week at the Legion Hall with Evelyn Price, president, in charge.

Mrs. Eleanor Myers, chairman of Pan American work, reported that a project would soon be underway in a doll display by school children. Mrs. Dorothy Harmon reported on the Poppy Sale.

A donation was made to the March of Dimes campaign. Gifts had been presented to all Gold Star Mothers and roses to the ill and shut-ins at Christmas.

It was voted to send a girl to Girls State again this year. Mrs. Irene Ludwig was elected to membership. The auxiliary now has 63 members and has gone over its quota.

After the meeting refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Evelyn Price. Assistant hostess was Mrs. Adda Deckett.

A 10th District meeting of the post and auxiliary will be held Sunday, January 16, at Big Rapids.

 "YOU ARE THERE"—CBS television—witness history's great events

Mrs. Edythe Sheppard, mother of convicted wife slayer Dr. Samuel M. Sheppard, shot herself to death in a locked bedroom. Her body was found sprawled fully clothed across a bed by another son, Dr. Stephen Sheppard, with whom she had been staying. A penciled note lay nearby. It said: "Dear Steve: I can't manage alone without father.—Mother."
