Winter Sports Open Saturday at Silver Valley

Eighty-one students from Redford High School and their chaperones will be here for the opening of the Silver Valley Winter Sports Area, according to a statement made Thursday by John Pinter, winter sports committee chairman.

Although the rain and warm weather of Tuesday and Wednesday had interfered with preparing the toboggan slides, Pinter felt that slides would be in readiness for the week-end winter sports. There is sufficient snow for skiing and the ski tow will be in operation, he said.

Seventeen girls are now entering in the popularity-contest, the winner of the contest will be crowned Miss Silver Valley and will be awarded an all expense paid trip to Mexico, the New Orleans Mardi Gras or Miami Beach, Florida. The entrants up to this time have been from Pinconning, Tawas City, Saginaw, Flint, East Tawas, Midland, Detroit, Hale and Mt. Pleasant, according to Mrs. Bertha Montgomery, Tawas Chamber of Commerce secretary.

Colorful Perchville, popular with the winter fishermen, will be open this week-end, states Del Collier, chairman. Chester Parker will be custodian at Perchville.

Pass Through Difficult Year With Polio

In 1954 Iosco County went through a very difficult year with polio, and so the March of Dimes Campaign should appeal to all of us as being of the utmost importance.

A year ago this part of the State of Michigan conducted a successful campaign and in the summer, when the demand for funds was so great, residents of the county again responded but not proportionate to many other counties. It has been the ill-fortune of Iosco County to be struck with attacks of polio far in excess of normal in this past year, so that the county has been forced to call on the National Foundation for much help.

The quota of Iosco County for 1954 was $3,650.00 and $3,706.40 was collected. Actually during the year there was expended much more than this and approximately $10,000.00 was received by the county committee from the foundation. Six serious cases, three of them iron lung patients, occurred in Iosco County and treatment is still being rendered them. This year our quota is somewhat higher and it is the sincere hope of the committee that Iosco County may again go over the top. However, success cannot be had unless we all recognize the seriousness of our situation and are willing to put forth extreme effort to reach our goal.

Michigan State Players to Appear at AuGres

"The Male Animal," a smash stage and movie hit by James Thurber, will be produced at AuGres-Sims High School on January 9 by the Michigan State College players. The school's student council is sponsoring the performance.

College acting teams are capable of excellent performances and with one of the most successful comedies ever written as a story, they should provide a fine evening of entertainment for those who attend.

Most people will remember "The Male Animal" from the movie which starred Henry Ford, Olivia deHavilland and Jack Carson.

Prices for the play are 75 cents for adults and 50 cents for students. The players bring everything with them needed at the production, including stage settings.

The new AuGres-Sims gymnasium can accommodate a very large crowd and the space should be needed for this performance. There will be no matinee with the performance at 8:15 p. m.

The action embraces more than 1,000 counties in 40 states. Many communities not effected by the ruling are asking why they were not included.

Methodists OK Church Hall Plans

Last Sunday evening the congregation of the Tawas City Methodist Church met to review and pass upon architectural plans for the proposed Memorial Hall addition to the church building. Judge H. Reid Smith, chairman of the building committee, used drawings to show the work of the trustees in connection with their decisions. The new plans have been passed by the board of trustees, the official board and now the congregation. A district board of location, composed of ministers and laymen of the area, will investigate them before they become official.

Mrs. Charles McLean, treasurer of the building fund, announced over $5,800 cash on hand has been designated for this building. An estimated $8,000 or one-half of the cost must be on hand before construction begins, possibly this spring.

The present church building is little changed from the original chapel erected over 30 years ago. The new addition will include a 24 by 39 social room to be used by the Sunday School, MYF, fellowship dinners and other social functions. A fine kitchen and large storage room will join the social hall. Plans include places for heating plant, coat racks and large vestibule.

The new 90 by 130 foot skating rink in the Tawas City Park, which was recently constructed by the department of public works, has proven to be a very popular spot for youngsters of the Tawas area.

The rain and mild weather early this week halted skating activities on the rink but the facilities should be in good condition this week-end if the predicted cold weather holds true.

Hundreds of youngsters during the recent holiday vacation included is a warming shelter and flood lights for skating at night. The construction of the rink was sponsored by the Tawas City Businessmen's Association, Reginald Bublitz, Tawas City superintendent of public works, is in charge of the rink.

Four Charged with Stealing Rock Lath

Four Arenac County men were arraigned in justice court this week on charges of grand larceny in connection with the recent theft of 496 bundles of gypsum lath taken from a truck owned by the Jefferson Trucking Company.

Arraigned in justice court in Arenac County were Kenneth M. Lutze, 21, of Omer; Robert Lutze Jr., 26, of Omer; Ernest Bourdeau, 48, of Standish, and John Baker, 49, of Standish.

The four men were charged with the theft of gypsum lath from a truck-trailer unit which skidded off the road on US-23, three miles north of Standish, on November 11.

Investigating officers said that the driver left the truck in the ditch when it became apparent that it would be impossible to move it due to slippery road conditions. The lath was stolen during the night.

Two of the men were apprehended while removing the lath from the truck by Arenac County law enforcement officers. Further investigation revealed that several other persons were connected with the theft.

Fire Prevention Day Set for January 18

Businessmen's Associations and city officials are backing Fire Prevention Day, which is scheduled for the Tawas area on January 18. Approximately 20 fire inspectors from various parts of the state will be here to assist in the project, the association reported.

The Michigan Fire Prevention Association conducts the inspections, visiting nine cities a year. Inspections are made only at the request of the cities.

Fire claims 11,000 lives in this country each year, and a fire breaks out every 36 seconds according to the board.

The range of causes for fires is almost infinite, but here are the five greatest causes:

1. Careless handling of cigarettes and matches.
2. Misuse of electrical equipment and defective wiring.
3. Defective heating equipment.
4. Defective or overheated chimneys and flues.
5. Careless handling of old clocks, papers, and magazines—in other words, bad housekeeping.

17-Year-Old Murder Case to be Aired in Alcona

A 36-year-old inmate of Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson, John Mioduszewski, will present arguments on a notice of leave to appeal before Judge Herbert Dehnke in the Alcona County Circuit Court this Friday morning. The appeal is in connection with a murder case which took place in that county 17 years ago.

Mioduszewski was convicted on June 1, 1938, of the first degree murder of his wife, Franz Mioduszewski and was sentenced to life imprisonment by Judge Dehnke. The prosecuting attorney of Alcona County at that time was William R. Barber, who is now prosecuting attorney of the county.

Cardinals Win 71-30 Game From Pinconning

Whittmore Cardinals easily beat a visiting Pinconning quintet by the lopsided score of 71-30. Coach Dudo's boys jumped off to an early 19-1 lead before their opponents scored their first field goal. With John Pavlik appearing on defense, Roger Hall and Frank Pagel led the scoring parade with 28 and 17 points. Coggins scored 13 points for Pinconning. Two Card regulars, Fuerst and Dunham, were out of the line-up with injuries, but their teammates with reserves playing much of the game, rolled to their fifth straight win.

The Card Reserve squad won the best game of the evening, when they squeezed out a 32-23 victory for their fourth against several times. With the score tied several times, the Pinconning Red Birds finally clinched it with a 14 point rally late in the fourth quarter. Harold Provoost led the scoring with 19 points; Poniaard scored 10 for the losers.

Unusual Weather Makes Roads Icy

You don't have to be weather expert to tell that northeastern Michigan experienced some very unusual weather this week. Auto drivers drove their vehicles at a snail's pace on Wednesday morning, due to very slippery road conditions.

An unseasonal thaw, caused by a warm front which bordered Michigan this week, turned the snow fall of a week ago into slush. These conditions, coupled with fog and rain, added to the difficulties of winter driving.

You will note that in the Looking Backward column of this newspaper, 40 years ago fishermen were catching lake trout through the ice beyond Tawas Point in Lake Huron. Not only have the lake trout disappeared during the intervening years but the bay is completely clear of ice.

Weather forecasters predict a return to the normal cold weather conditions this week-end. The Michigan State Highway Department urges all motorists to exercise extreme caution while traveling on highways.

Three Injured in Two-Car Accident

Three persons were injured in a two-car collision last Sunday south of the Saginaw-Midland pumping station on US-23 at Whittmore Point. All of the injured were treated at the Tawas hospital.

Arnold C. Eagling of Detroit, driver of one car involved, was treated for bruises. The other driver, Edwin D. Dates of Ionia, was treated for rib fractures. Ruby Yates, a passenger of the face and bruises.

Both drivers were questioned at the hospital by officers from the East Tawas post, Michigan State Police. Police said that Eagling had passed several cars in brackets when he struck the car approaching. The car skidded on the ice and the other vehicle, which was traveling south, struck the Eagling vehicle in the left rear.

Summons were issued for the injured parties to appear before Justice of the Peace for records.

Guests of Tawas Friends

Three members of the Detroit Spellbinders, featured over Bud Guest's "Guest House" on WJZ, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stoll of East Tawas last week.

The Detroit entertainers, Beverly Lavell, George Wilkins and Roland Sharette, according to Stoll, "were content in lying on a bear skin rug in front of our fire place after snowshoeing through the Shad Husk Swamp, skiing at the AuSable Ski Bowl and exploring Silver Valley and the shores of Tawas Bay."

Stoll, outdoor editor for Booth Newspapers, Incorporated, became acquainted with the Detroit group last fall when he toured United States military installations in the Far East with them.

TAWAS HERALD

ESTABLISHED 1884

Street Tawas City, Michigan

The Tawas City Postoffice July 12, 1884, as Second under Act of March 1, 1879.

HORNTON and SONS, PUBLISHERS

We begin the New Year, many of us have made the traditional resolutions for self-improvement and progress in the coming year. Would it not be a grand accomplishment if all the residents of the Tawas Area School District would resolve to renew their efforts and provide the necessary funds to finance the school building program so urgently needed by the children of the district? The year 1955 would be a memorable one, indeed, if their efforts were successful.

Why not apply this situation to that of the school system? Your child has not been feeling well and suddenly becomes acutely ill. Immediately you summon the aid of your physician. He prescribes medication to relieve the discomfort, but advises hospitalization for studies to confirm his diagnosis. Of course, you are eager to follow your physician's advice. Your child enters the hospital, the studies are made and evaluated by physicians who are specialists in their fields of medicine, and a report is returned to your family physician. The studies substantiated his original diagnosis and you, the child's parents, are faced with an important decision. You and your doctor confer and he explains in terminology you can understand just what he and the specialists found which indicated the need of a delicate operation. He tells you that surgery should eliminate a recurrence and the serious affect another attack might have on your child. He places the responsibility of the decision with you, the child's parents, and suggests that you consult a surgeon as soon as you have reached a decision. The names of several surgeons, all qualified men, are given to you with the recommendation that you consult the first man on the list whom your physician feels might be more capable from experience gained from previous successful operations similar to the one needed by your child. Is there any doubt in your mind as to your course of action?

The comparison with our ill school system is almost identical. The school system was not up to the standard the people of the area desired for their children so they went to the polls and voted for the re-organization of the district just as you consulted your physician regarding your child's illness. Studies were indicated in the case of the school's illness, also, and committees were formed to survey the needs of the district. The findings of the committees were evaluated and recommendations were made by architects and engineers, qualified to advise the board of education on the course of action to remedy the situation. This was done and the board of education passed the findings and recommendations of the committees, architects and engineers on to you. These findings and recommendations resulted in the holding of the first bonding election calling for the approval of a $775,000 bond issue which would permit construction of the proposed junior and senior high school on the Neumann-Reinke site.

Now we are at the stage where the decision is up to the parents of the ill child and the fate of the school is in the hands of the electors. There is little doubt as to your decision as parents—you followed the recommendations of your physician as substantiated by studies and the opinion of specialists.

That, however, was not the decision of the electors in the case of the ill school system. Naturally the margin for misunderstanding is greater in dealing with larger groups of individuals than with the child's parents. The issue was defeated and the school's troubles continued.

Realizing that misunderstanding and misinterpretation played an important part in defeating the issue, the proposals were re-submitted to the electorate of the district by the board of education. Again they were defeated in a close election.

Thirteen hundred ninety-six petitioners presented the board of education with a resolution which would authorize a $575,000 bond issue for the construction of a new school. This $200,000 saving could be accomplished by construction of the school on the property owned by the district in Tawas City and the utilization of the gymnasium and other facilities which are already on the premises. After receiving the approval of H. E. Beyster and Associates, architects, and the Michigan Department of Public Instruction, the board of education submitted this issue to the electorate of the district. It was defeated by less than 100 votes.

Two factors accounted for its defeat, special school tax levy and the site for construction of the school building. Taxes are high and it is everyone's desire to hold them as low as possible. But, is it not false economy to continue to spend thousands of tax dollars to maintain law enforcement officers, penal institutions, social agencies and workers to combat the nationwide rising tide of juvenile delinquency which many authorities feel could be remedied if a more healthy, happy, less crowded and interesting school program was available?

Loyalty to one's community is an admirable quality, but it must be remembered that the school district is composed of several communities and that the district was formed to unite the people's efforts to provide school facilities of a higher standard than could be achieved as separate districts. Since an anticipated drop in sales was one of the objections to constructing the school on the Neumann-Reinke site in Tawas Township, would it not be feasible to consider possible loss of the buying power of out-county residents if the Fairgrounds-Beal Nursery site, formerly owned by Isosco County, should be secured from the government by the school district for the school construction site? It is true that for many years this land has gone unused by the government for the purpose for which it was sold by the county. However, there may be individuals who feel that if the land is to be returned, because the government has no further use for it, it should be returned to the original owner, Isosco County, to use or dispose of at its own discretion.

Unfortunately, some of the electors of the district have not seen their way clear to act on the findings and recommendations of experts as did the parents of the ill child. Re-election figures announced by the board of education

Back to Work!

Shortest Day of Year Now Past History

The sun passed its winter solstice just before Christmas and the shortest day of the winter season, December 22, is now past history. Therefore, from now on, the days will be getting longer and longer until June, in which month the longest day of the year will arrive. Although the days will be getting longer from now until June, a long winter is just setting in. It might be wondered why—with the days getting longer and the sun shining an increasingly longer number of minutes and hours—the earth continues to grow cooler, and cold weather reaches its height. The answer lies, to a great extent, in the fact that the earth stores up much heat during the warm months, and the days of long periods of sunshine. This warmth carries over from summer, and the long days of spring and summer, well into fall and even into early winter. The shortest days of the year, which we have been experiencing recently, have their effect, however, and the earth has lost much of its heat and will only slowly regain it, as the longer days return. This explains why winter is just beginning even after the shortest day of the year has been reached.

A large delegation of young people from the Tawas City and East Tawas churches plans to attend.

State Police Expect Reports to Show Less Accidents

Although final reports will not be available for several weeks, the Michigan State Police are optimistically expecting that the figures will show a reduction in traffic deaths and injuries in 1954. In a year end-roundup of activities, the department reported that during the first 10 months of 1954 there were 1,418 persons killed and 45,054 injured in 147,474 accidents. Projecting these figures to the end of the year on the basis of past experience, it is estimated that deaths will total 1,750, a reduction of 146, or 7.7 percent under 1953, and injuries will total 55,000, a decrease of 3,054, or 4.9 percent. The accident total is expected to be about the same, 184,100. One heartening indication was that the reduction in casualties and holding the line on accidents were recorded despite more cars and trucks on the highways and an increase in miles traveled. Motor vehicle registrations went up 3.7 percent to 2,912,210, while total mileage traveled is estimated at more than 26 billion, an increase of 3.2 percent. There was a gain of 16 percent in the number of man hours on patrol, or 28,000 above 1,794,999 in 1953. Arrests, not including juveniles, numbered 110,000, an increase of 32,000, or 40 percent. Traffic arrests alone were up 48 percent.

The department showed an all around increase in activities. There was a gain of 16 percent in the number of man hours on patrol, or 28,000 above 1,794,999 in 1953. Arrests, not including juveniles, numbered 110,000, an increase of 32,000, or 40 percent. Traffic arrests alone were up 48 percent.

Our children's futures are pretty closely tied to the kind of education provided for them. Their futures, and the community, depend on your support.

Bible Comment:

Jesus Used True Power Of Prayer

It was to earnest, devoted disciples that Jesus said: "Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation."

Also, the warning was given in the Garden of Gethsemane during the closing hours of His earthly life. These disciples left all to follow Him. They had been with Him almost throughout His ministry, observing His example, listening to His teaching, sharing in His daily life and contacts as He "went about doing good."

If such disciples with such a strengthening experience needed to watch and pray, how much do we, in a world of increasing complexities and strains?

Yet even for those disciples, and for the strongest and foremost of the Twelve, how needful was that warning? Jesus had set Peter and James and John to watch, while He went apart to pray. But in that solemn hour, and with that sacred trust, they had fallen asleep.

Even more impressive is the fact that Jesus Himself should have felt the need of prayer. It is an evidence of the true humanity, the reality of the earthly, human life in which He revealed God as the One supremely divine being.

In the dark hour of Gethsemane, He had gone alone to pray. Also, on another occasion, when "brought upon Him and He was beset by His enemies, He had gone "out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God."

Prayer, then, in the life of the Christian who would in any way be like his Master, must be as deep and abiding discipline. The quality and power of our praying is in our daily living. There may be times and seasons of special need, but these only express more deeply the constant attitude of the soul toward God, and the quest of divine help and strength.

forgot than income items. For each $5 of expense missed by the tax paying farmer his payment goes up about $1.00.
2. For social security purposes. Most farmers will not be coming under the new social security law. Since income and expense is figured the same for income tax purposes it is doubly necessary to have the proper facts and information to report.
3. To increase farm earnings. Keep an account book, summarize it, study the figures. Compare the figures for your farm business with those of other farmers. I have a farm business report for your area available for the asking, which will help you do this. Maintaining the strong points of your farm business and improving the weak points is the best way to increase your farm earnings.
4. To secure sound credit. There are farmers who already have too much credit. There are more farmers who do not use enough credit and could obtain it if they had the facts and presented their needs and plans to a sound credit agency. The failure to use enough credit is just as serious a mistake as to use too much credit.
5. To develop better operating agreements. This is true whether the agreements are between landlord and tenant or father and son. Of course, if the agreement is between father and son it is even more important because the eventual result may be the transfer of the property itself. Accurate facts are not as important from the standpoint of settling a dispute as they are in preventing the disputes from ever happening.
The need for a farmer to keep a good accurate record book for the reasons listed and others will become even more important as farms get larger, more specialized, more commercialized and more competitive.
One of the better account books available today can be obtained free by asking the Peoples State Bank at East Tawas, National Farm Loan Credit Association officer for a copy, or a copy can be obtained in our office.

How are your 1955 resolutions? There are many resolutions that one might make, at the beginning of the new year. One of these that a lot of farmers might very profitably make is to start keeping a good farm account book. There are many reasons for this.
1. For income tax purposes. Most all farmers are now obligated to file an income tax report. It is generally conceded that the expense items on a farm are more easily missed or

The Tawas Herald

'Twas the day before Christmas

A deep snow had blanketed the streets of Ironwood. Indoors, families were making plans for the festive season. The telephone company, too, was making its preparations for the busiest night of the year.

That was when Mr. and Mrs. Norman H. Thomas, whose home is pictured above, found their telephone was "dead." They called the telephone company from a neighbor's house. As Mr. Thomas later wrote: "In spite of the fact that this was the day before Christmas, with the added obstacle of a fresh, deep snow, a repairman* arrived in twenty minutes. Within one hour from the time the trouble was reported, he had new lines up and the telephone working.

"If this earnest and sincere workman reflects the training policy of your company, then Michigan Bell Telephone Company certainly is doing a most remarkable job."

More reports from 4-H Club members. This time we hear from Phyllis Watts who completed a food preparation project called "breakfast." She says, "I learned the short names, the equals, the basic seven, to measure white and brown sugar and flour. I have improved my table manners, also my breakfasts."

"I have learned how to set a place correctly for breakfast, also the proper way to pass food or to wait on the table."

"I have learned that you should wear a hairnet if you have long hair or if you have short hair to keep it out of your face."

"Hands and fingernails should be clean at all times."

Donna Coates tells a story typical of the reports of all bird study project members. She says, "They learned that hawks and owls have useful habits as well as bad ones, they identified birds seen near the water, birds in the air and learned about birds found in the community all year around. In addition the members made two bird houses and had a bird study hike."

Faye Pregel says knitting gave her reason to make good use of her spare time—she knit eight pairs of mittens which she sold or gave away as gifts. She made, too, a pair of socks with separate cuffs which can be worn with the socks or in the winter bobby socks can be worn under them.

And here is another girl who taught her mother to knit and she made mittens under the direction of Mary Alice Waters. Mary Alice reminds us that she was in the judging contest at Standish and hopes to try again next year, now that she knows more about it.

Opportunities to learn more about many things—that's the reason for 4-H Clubs, isn't it? Let's resolve, in this brand new year of 1955, all of us, to take part in just as many 4-H Club activities as we possibly can so we can learn the very most that is possible from our 4-H Club membership.

"Our soil conservation group met at Taft for their regular project meeting on Wednesday night, December 15."

"Kenneth Robinson gave a demonstration on soil erosion."

"Some time was spent in planning the program for future meetings." Billy Redmond, reporter.

HDA NOTES

By DOROTHY SCOTT

Calendar—
Wednesday, January 12—View "Farmers and the Social Security Program," 1:00 p. m. on WNEM-TV, Channel 5.

Anyone doing farming will surely want to take advantage of this informative discussion of the new social security law which became effective January 1.

To start you thinking—one of the first questions we have heard about this new social security law is this: Do farmers have to participate?

The answer goes like this, "It is part of the federal law and all self-employed farmers and employers and farm workers whose earnings are such as to come within the provision of the law must report and pay social security taxes as specified in the law."

This "no-choice" provision is characteristic of most group insurance programs, so is not really surprising.

Plan to listen to the Wednesday, January 12, program. Then come to your Extension Service office, pick up a copy of the new folder, "Social Security for Farm Families," and talk with us about an account book to keep records suitable for use in determining the amount of tax to be paid and help you compute your income tax as well.

Boys and girls in their teens may act grown up one day and act like children the next, says the new children's bureau bulletin, "The Adolescent in Your Home." And that is natural behavior during these years, the pamphlet reminds us.

It goes into a lot of subjects such as dating and daydreaming, planning for a job and disagreeing with mom and pop.

Dr. Martha M. Eliot, chief of the children's bureau, makes statements pointing out that during the years from 12 to 17 there is more divergence among individuals than in their lives up to that time. There is no attempt to lay down in black and white rules of what is right and what is wrong, or what to do or not to do, either in terms of behavior or correction of behavior. The purpose of the bulletin is to help parents see their maturing children realistically, against the framework of the present day world, rather than through the nostalgic mist of their own past.

Copies of this bulletin are available from the government printing office at a small charge. If you would like to have one, why not ask us to order it for you? It is called, "The Adolescent in Your Family."

Discusses Juvenile Delinquency Over WNEM-TV

How Bay County is meeting the juvenile delinquency problem was discussed Tuesday evening in an interview by Frank Benesh, news commentator, with T. M. "Mike" Coyle, Bay County juvenile probation officer. The interview was broadcast by Station WNEM-TV. Coyle said that it was his opinion that the increase in thefts in Bay City was due to economic pressure caused by the increased lack of employment. He felt that a good trade school for the boys and channeling recreational programs of the community would help to minimize the juvenile delinquency problem. Coyle is the son of Mrs. John Coyle Sr. of this city.

This is the Time

Now that Christmas and New Year holidays have left us, most housewives are beginning to look ahead to spring and housecleaning. Those inside jobs that have been needing attention will have to be completed before we can get outside when the weather breaks.

Among the many tasks that come to mind now is the need for a new linoleum floor, perhaps tile for the bath, etc. Without thinking directly about it we don't realize that January—the traditional "White Sales" month is also the part of the year that floor covering bargains are to be found.

Visit Tawas Bay Floor Coverings and United Rent-Alls Store at 402 West Lake Street, Tawas City, or phone 747 for free estimates and quotations. Watch for our January and February ads—they will bring you welcome news.
