Iosco's Retail Sales Increase 57 Percent

"During the past four years retail business has increased at a greater rate in Iosco County than in any other county in the state. While the increase in all other counties averaged 21 percent, the increase in Iosco County was 57 percent."

This significant statement by President Elwood Bronson featured the start of the Tawas Chamber of Commerce membership drive Monday when the membership committee met at a kick-off luncheon at Ossie's Lakeview Grill.

The committee was briefed with statistical analyses showing graphically the ever-increasing numbers of tourists attracted to the area in recent years, and the resultant growth of business as reflected in sales tax figures and local bank deposits. New materials and services to be given to members were also presented.

Michigan Bell Telephone Company operators at the switchboard in East Tawas handling some of the final calls coming through the manual telephone system. When the new dial system begins to serve East Tawas and Tawas City early Sunday morning, the regular staff of operators will remain to give faster long distance service and handle other assistance calls.

Dial Service Goes in Operation This Sunday

The Michigan Bell Telephone Company announced today that it had everything in readiness for the opening of dial telephone service in East Tawas and Tawas City early Sunday morning.

At 2:01 a. m. the traditional "number please" in the operator's voice will bow out and gracefully retreat into the pages of local telephone history to make way for a new area in communications.

When the signal is given at the early Sunday hour, Michigan Bell technicians in the new telephone building in East Tawas will activate the banks of intricate apparatus by a simultaneous operation. Automatic switching equipment will then take over the handling of local telephone calls under a telephone system that is one of the most modern in operation.

T. C. Maher, area manager here for Michigan Bell, recalled that it is almost exactly 15 years ago that the Tawas communities marked another step in telephone progress when crank-type instruments were replaced by the more convenient lift-the-receiver telephones in the manually operated exchange.

The company said that although local calls will be handled automatically by the new system, the staff of regular operators would remain in East Tawas to handle long distance calls, assistance on calls, information and other services. The same number of positions at the switchboard will be maintained to give customers faster long distance service, Maher said.

Mrs. Clarabelle Eckman, Michigan Bell's chief operator here, said, the present manual switchboard handles about 8,000 local calls a day and 1,000 long distance messages.

Including the various facilities for the improvement of long distance service, the new Tawas system was installed at a cost of almost a half million dollars. Though it is the most modern and designed to give fast, convenient service, Maher reminds users they can add to the system's efficiency by first making sure of the number they want before dialing by checking in the new East Tawas-Tawas City-Oscola directory.

Under the metropolitan-type numbering plan, the name of the central office serving East Tawas and Tawas City will be Forest. Telephones in both communities (See Dial, Back Page.)

MORE TROUT PROJECT TURNED DOWN

At a meeting of the Michigan Conservation Commission last week at East Tawas, the commission turned down a request by More Trout, Incorporated, for help in maintaining its impoundment on the AuGres River.

Refusal of the request was based on a report from Fred Westerman, chief of the fish division, who said that the fishing seasons in spring and fall now provided an orderly and inexpensive way of exploiting lake-run rainbows.

Westerman said that if More Trout was given financial assistance, similar projects that might be established elsewhere could also claim state help, thus dissipating the state's fishing fund.

The commission's decision on Friday was preceded by a visit Thursday afternoon to the dam, and a plea from More Trout President, Edward Parker, pond manager-operator at More Trout, said that it would now be possible for that organization to go to any private agency for help on the trout fishing project.

He said that "the only difference now is the fact that the commission's refusal to aid releases More Trout from any obligations to the conservation commission."

According to Parker, directors of More Trout, Incorporated, will hold a meeting next Tuesday at Saginaw to discuss the recent turn of events.

Parker, who has perfected a special feed for trout which has been in use at the AuGres impoundment for several months, said Tuesday night that he had positive proof where trout have gained as much as five ounces in weight during a one-month period on his special food preparation.

Fuelgas Inc., Holds Store-Wide Sale

Fuelgas Company is holding a store-wide sale of merchandise in its salesroom in East Tawas. A full-page advertisement in this issue of The Tawas Herald lists many of the slashed prices.

The company is preparing to construct a new salesroom near its plant in Tawas City and the lease expiration on its store in East Tawas necessitated the selling of all merchandise.

Work on Park Making Rapid Progress

Work on the Tawas City Park dock has been progressing at a rapid rate the past two weeks in preparation for the arrival of the SS Overmiller, Michigan's first flotel. Crews of city workmen and employees of the SS Overmiller, Incorporated, now have the piling covered, cabled and are filling the enclosure with fill. Operators of the dredge, which is digging out a sand bar to permit the ship's entrance and getting its berth in readiness, have nearly completed their work.

The SS Overmiller, according to Charles Bleiber, owner-manager, is expected to leave Detroit for its new Tawas home shortly.

During the past year and a half, many improvements have been made with the limited funds available for use in the city park. Among these are: Park level raised two feet, purchased picnic tables, leveled park, widened shoulders 14 feet along US-23 for additional parking, installed larger transformer, constructed skating rink.

The city has allocated one-half mill a year to the park fund. This amounts to approximately $700 annually. The rest of the money has been raised by other sources. Three thousand dollars for the first year dock rental has been received from the SS Overmiller, Incorporated; $3,000 in donations from the city's businessmen, civic minded residents and proceeds of the centennial celebration last year; penal fines; $500 and 20 feet of lake frontage on an exchange of land agreement with Arnold Oberler, who purchased the Goldsmith property adjoining the city park.

Additional revenue to aid in carrying out future plans for the improvement of the park will come from the five-year lease of the SS Overmiller, Incorporated, totaling $7,000 in dock rental, and the 10-year lease of William Borosch and Gordon Clute of the Tawas Boat Company, high bidders on the party fishing boat and bait house concession in the city park. Under terms of this lease, the Tawas Boat Company, in addition to construction of a fireproof 480 square foot building which becomes the property of the City of Tawas City at the expiration of the lease, agreed to pay rental to the city as follows: Bonus to be paid on execution of this lease $100 per year, and percentage of gross receipts as follows: 10 percent of all gross receipts up to $7,500 annually, 12 1/2 percent from $7,500 up annually.

Plans for future park improvements include the completion of the dock, parking area, development of playground area, improve beach facilities, hiring of life guard and swimming instructor in cooperation with Red Cross and the construction of rest rooms.

Members of the Tawas City Park Board now serving their second year following re-appointment by Mayor George W. Myles are: Chairman Clarence Everett, George Tuttle, John N. Brugger, E. D. Jacques and Nelson Thornton.

Two of the three candidates will be selected by electors from the district at large on July 12 to fill the two vacancies created by the completion of terms.

CANOE RACE TO BE HELD THIS SUNDAY

The second annual Tawas River canoe race will be held this Sunday afternoon. Entry blanks are available at the Tawas Chamber of Commerce office.

The six-mile race, from Cliff's Landing at Tawas Lake to the US-23 bridge in Tawas City, is sponsored by the Tawas City Businessmen's Association.

Cash prizes of $30, $10 and $6 will be awarded to the first three place winners. Trophies and merchandise prizes will also be awarded to winners.

Starting at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, the race is limited to stock model canoes, either wood or metal.

Awards Made at Central Michigan

A total of 534 degrees and certificates were awarded at the June graduates representing 153 Michigan communities and the state of Illinois, Indiana, Massachusetts, Oregon, Pennsylvania and South Dakota at Central Michigan College's 60th commencement.

Dr. John Hannah, president of Michigan State College, delivered the commencement address. The invocation and benediction were offered by the Rev. F. Coellner of the Mt. Pleasant Zion Lutheran Church.

Graduating from Iosco County were:

Tawas City: Wilbert C. Mueller, A. B. elementary, English; William G. Murray, secondary permanent certificate.

East Tawas: Edwin Rictor Anderson, A. B. secondary, social science.

Whittemore: Jeanette Bellville Bronson, state limited.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Schaaf, Mrs. Marvin Davenport, Mrs. Ira Horton and Mrs. J. F. Mark attended the 50th anniversary party of Alpena Chapter, OES, in Alpena last Saturday evening. A fine time was reported. The Besser Chorus gave several numbers as part of the program.

Action in Park Concession Outlined

Because of criticism toward the high concession prices over the construction of the bait house building, located in the Tawas City Park, a Tawas City Council spokesman stated that plans for the boat and bait house were made early last fall and bids were let in December when the Tawas Boat Company was the high bidder. The only other bid received was that of Melvin Brown of Arenac County.

At the regular meeting of the Tawas City Council on October 18, 1954, Peter Beckett presented an application for a building permit for the construction of a motel and bait house to be erected behind the Babcock-Hertzel building. Following a discussion by councilmen, the application was denied because there was no access to the property.

Mr. Beckett submitted new plans at a special meeting of the council on October 25, 1954, which allowed for a 10-foot roadway from US-23 to the back of the Babcock-Hertzel building.

After clearly outlining the plans of the city park board for the construction of a concession building in the park, the council approved the application of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Arnold, the new owners of the property, who were present at the meeting. Mr. Arnold proceeded with his plans, breaking ground immediately for a utility building. After completing the cement block structure, he has not continued with his motel construction.

Must Comply With City Ordinances

"Boat operators must comply with city ordinances governing the operation of motor boats on the Tawas River or face prosecution," was the warning of Tawas City Police Chief George Ruth this week.

According to Chief Ruth, his department has received several complaints about speeding and the reckless operation of boats on the river and its tributaries during the past week.

He points out that such offenders may be prosecuted under Tawas City Ordinance No. 133 which specifically states that it is unlawful for any person to operate any boat in a reckless manner, or at any excessive speed so as to endanger, or be likely to endanger, the life or property of any person. The speed limit on the river is four miles per hour.

He added that the ordinance provides that it is unlawful to operate any boat on the Tawas River while under the influence of intoxicating beverages.

Chief Ruth said that the ordinance would be enforced. He cited several recent incidents where boat operators did not observe the speed limits and were operating boats in a reckless manner near the mouth of the river.

Announces Dial Numbers for Fire Calls

"The new change in Michigan Bell's telephone system in the Tawas will result in a change of numbers to call in case of fire. The dial system goes into use Sunday morning," stated Fred Musolf, Tawas City fire chief, this week.

Effective Sunday morning when reporting a fire in Tawas City or Tawas Township you must dial Forest 2-2338. At present this is a special phone which will only receive incoming calls located at the Iosco Hotel and the Tawas City Hall.

The fire department emphasizes the fact that when dialing this number the person should not hang up until the phone is answered. As usual, the department asks that complete information as to the exact location of the fire be given to the person answering the phone. "Do not hang up until you are sure that you have reported the fire," a fire department spokesman said.

In East Tawas the new number to call in case of fire is Forest 2-3537. This special phone will be located at the Holland Hotel.

Telephone numbers to call in case of fire or other emergencies are listed in the new Michigan Bell directory, distributed to telephone subscribers throughout the area this week.

Operation Alert-55 Held Wednesday

"Operation Alert-55," a hypothetical atom bomb attack on 50 critical targets in the nation, including Michigan's industrial cities, took place late Wednesday morning and afternoon (yesterday).

Fire sirens and air raid warnings in many Michigan cities and industrial plants signaled the start of the mock air attack. Prime target for "enemy bombers" in Michigan was the city of Flint, with Detroit, Grand Rapids and Dearborn following in that order.

The first warning was given at 11:03 a. m. This primary alert was called "lemon juice." At 1:04 p. m. the main alert was given by air raid signals. This signal was called "apple juice."

Actually, the defense measures and evacuation of cities was all on paper. No heavy equipment was moved due to a possible traffic tie-up. However, the civilian defense communications network went into action during the operation.

Iosco County's mission in Operation Alert was on a stand-by basis to handle and feed "evacuees" from the larger cities," stated Charles Kurtzrock, deputy civilian defense director for the county. "Our civilian defense communications network in the county tied in with the Michigan CD communications system."

Fire sirens at the Tawas City and East Tawas city halls signaled the start of the alert at 1:04 o'clock, as well as sirens on the National Gypsum Company plant at National City and United States Gypsum Company plant at Alabaster.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Applin left Wednesday afternoon for Detroit to attend the graduation of their son, John, from Wayne University. He received the B. A. degree.

Mrs. Orville McDonald entered Tawas Hospital last Wednesday.

Sure, if it's green and growing and a regular crop you can cut it for silage, but some plants will spoil, some won't taste good and some would be better if left for grazing.

If you don't know which crop to use for summer or winter silage, or which ones to let cattle graze, follow these tips from Leyton Nelson, Michigan State College farm crops extension specialist:

The best all around crop is high-quality, well-fertilized legumes or legume-grass combinations. They'll do for hay or pasture. Red and sweet clover and oats and peas make top-notch silage. Even Reed Canary grass keeps well in the silo, but is lower in quality. Rye silage is less palatable, but otherwise similar to Reed.

Sudan can be made into good silage, but often doesn't work out so well. Pastured first and then cut when growth gets ahead of the livestock, sudan silage usually has few leaves and doesn't pack too well.

If you use soybeans for silage, you should add about 80 pounds of molasses each ton of the green crop. Even growth from weedy hay fields is good for silage. Spread of weed seed can be stopped by cutting early and putting crops into the silo "weeds and all."

For summer silo feeding, it is not necessary to use preservatives or watch moisture content, but for winter silage, moisture should be 65-70 percent.

Although it isn't necessary to use preservatives for silage, even for winter feed, it is a good idea to use molasses, ground grain, sodium metabisulfate or other preservatives when soybeans or pure alfalfa are ensiled. Preservatives help only when silage is too wet. At the proper 65-70 percent moisture level no preservative is needed.

It won't be too long now before most of us will be into grass silage making or haying. I visited last week with Herbert Oates who already has made plans for haying. The first few alfalfa blossoms are evident and he and I were looking over the results of his lindane spraying to control spittlebug. He sprayed one field when the alfalfa was about four to six inches high and another field (after the rains permitted) about two weeks later. You can see the difference. The earlier spraying and application of one-half pound of 25 percent lindane per acre (in water) certainly will do the job. He left a strip on one headland unsprayed and the spittlebugs are enjoying their bubble-baths there.

Throughout my visits all over the county I have seen more evidence of spittlebug than I ever have before. We sure hope another year our farmers will use lindane to cut the damage to their fields done by spittlebugs.

I have set some weed and brush control demonstrations throughout the county in order to give you folks a "look-see" at what can be done with chemicals to control weeds and brush. The following demonstrations have been worked out: Controlling weeds in strawberries, Carl Schaaf, Tawas City; weeds and grasses in grapes, Theodore Bellville, Whittemore; weeds in corn, Lawrence Bell, Grant Township; weeds in corn, Robert Ruckle and John Dooley, Plainfield Township; Burdock in orchard, William White, Reno Township; weeds and brush in a cemetery, Alabaster Township, Henry Oates; weeds and brush along roadside, Lloyd Little, Grant Township; Yellow Rocket and mustard, Charles Timreck, Tawas Township; quack grass control, Carl Libka, Tawas City.

Signs are being placed at each of these locations to tell you what has been used and how to use it. If you have any questions, let me hear from you.

DISARMAMENT—

Harold E. Stassen, newly appointed presidential advisor on disarmament, recently warned against "one-sided disarmament," as he noted indications that the "hense state of the 'cold war' is drawing to an end."

Play Safe when Swimming Boating or Fishing

Water enthusiasts in a water wonderland were today urged to "play it safe when swimming, fishing or boating." The Michigan Department of Health says, "to guard your life, be your own life-guard—it's the best way to hold down accidental drownings which claimed 312 Michigan lives last year."

Among the health department recommendations: Fishermen should stay ashore rather than accept a seat in an overcrowded boat; swimmers should check the depth of water before diving; parties "just out for the ride" should agree that no-one stands up in a boat.

"Even if you swim like a fish," the health department counseled, "respect your limitations. Even the best swimmers can get cramps."

Swimmers were advised to "come out of the water" before you're all in, to swim only in daylight hours, if possible at guarded beaches, and always with a companion.

"If you are a swimming, boating or sailing enthusiast, the health department warns, 'Keep your feet on the ground when storm warnings are out.'"

"And whenever children are around water make sure they are constantly in sight, and within easy reach by a person to whom you would entrust your own life in an emergency."

While water sports are good medicine both for your mind and your body, the health department said: "Even the best medicine should be taken in the proper doses. And safety is part of the prescription."

Plainfield Guernsey
Completes Advance Record

A registered Guernsey cow, Thum Gold Dinah, owned by Muriel Graves and Henry and Karl Luitze, Hale, has completed an official advanced registry record of 10,686 pounds of milk and 523 pounds of fat on two times daily milking for 365 days.

She started her record as a junior four-year-old. This production represents approximately 5,117 quarts of high-quality milk.

"Dinah" is the daughter of the registered Guernsey sire, Sam-ander of Royalton, that has one son and seven tested daughters in the Performance Register of the American Guernsey Cattle Club.

This record was supervised by Michigan State College and was reported to the American Guernsey Cattle Club for approval and publication.

Oil research this year will cost about $1,000,000,000.

THE TAWASES BIGGEST BOOSTER

The annual membership drive of the Tawas Chamber of Commerce is now underway. A representative of the chamber will contact each businessman and interested individuals in the Tawas and surrounding area in the near future.

The chamber's purpose is to encourage, promote and foster civic, economic and social activities among its members and citizens of the Tawas and vicinity in connection with community improvements, expansion, public safety, morals and general welfare, and continued efforts toward sound economics and representative forms of government.

A non-profit organization, the chamber of commerce is your area's goodwill ambassador. It extends a welcoming hand to many vacationers by sending out perch and smelt cards and news releases to radio and TV stations and downstate newspapers. The chamber of commerce office is an information bureau, supplying helpful data on tourist accommodations, housing, activities and numerous other questions asked by the tourist, newcomer or permanent resident.

The chamber of commerce consists of the Tawas City Businessmen's Association, East Tawas Retail Merchants Association and Resort Owners Division. Funds to carry out its program for the betterment of the Tawas area come mainly from membership dues and proceeds from Silver Valley Winter Sports activities.

This year, as in the past, your generous contribution will voice your approval of the chamber's program, designed to benefit all.

"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" is the subject of the lesson-sermon to be read at Christian Science services this Sunday.

Scriptural selections from the King James Version of the Bible stress the supremacy of spiritual power and include the account of Christ Jesus feeding the multitude as recorded by Matthew (14:14-20) and John's account (6:16-21) of Jesus walking on the sea.

Among the correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be the following (273:21-26): "God never ordained a material law to annul the spiritual law. If there were such material law, it would oppose the supremacy of Spirit, God, and impugn the wisdom of the creator. Jesus walked on the waves, fed the multitude, healed the sick, and raised the dead in direct opposition to material laws."

Library Board Holds First Meeting

The first Iosco-Arenac Regional Library board meeting was held Monday evening, June 8, in the Iosco County Building in Tawas City. Mrs. Loleta Fyan, state librarian, and two members of her staff, Miss Louise Rees and Miss Muriel Fuller, also came to assist in organizing the first regional library board in Michigan.

This board consists of four members from each county. Mrs. Elmer Kunze, Mrs. Edward Pier-son, Fred Brabant and Harold Adams represent Iosco County; Arenac County is represented by Mrs. Orville McCormick, Julius Anderson, Mrs. Edward Perlberg and C. R. Brown.

The group chose Mrs. Kunze as chairman, Mr. Brown as vice chairman, Mr. Brabant, treasurer, and designated the director, Miss Leonora Hass, as secretary.

The second Tuesday in each month was set as board meeting night. Meetings will be held at 7:30 with place determined at each meeting.

The following committees were appointed: Mrs. Pierson, Mrs. McCormick and Mrs. Perlberg will serve on the by-laws committee. Mr. Brabant and Mr. Anderson will work on the contract to be made with the state library. Mr. Adams and Mr. Brown are to gather information on second vehicle for the regional library.

The NEW LOOK in telephone numbers!

is coming Sunday to
East Tawas and Tawas City

You'll dial the letters F, O, and figure 2
plus four other figures

New, metropolitan-type, dial telephone numbers—beginning with FOREST 2—will go into service at East Tawas and Tawas City at 2:01 a. m. Sunday.

To make sure your calls go through fast:

- Look up the number in your new directory and jot it down so you'll have it before you as you dial
- Dial carefully F O 2 (the first two letters and figure of the telephone office name FOREST 2)
- Dial in the proper order the other four figures that make up the rest of the telephone number.

For example, to call FOREST 2-4982, just dial F O 2 . . 49 . . 82. That's all there will be to it. Your call will go right through.

The new numbers fit a nationwide pattern of telephone numbers so that eventually you'll be able to dial direct to people as far away as New York or San Francisco just as easily and quickly as you'll dial calls across the street.

Dial telephones are easy-to-use, fast, and dependable. You can depend on them to get the number you dial. So always be sure you have the right number before you call. You'll want to make sure everyone in your home understands the difference between the letter O and the figure 0 (zero) on your telephone dial. You'll dial the letters F O and figure 2 plus four other figures on every call you make to the new FOREST 2 numbers at East Tawas and Tawas City.

UNWRITTEN LAWS

Passing at night against oncoming traffic is modern driving's most difficult maneuver. With perfect eyesight you can't tell whether headlights are approaching at 50 or 70 miles per hour. It may be the difference between life and death.

When deciding to pass a car at night remember the old adage, "Look before you leap". And when, with even the best look, you can't be sure—then take time to be sure. When in doubt don't do it.

It helps to take a first look to estimate the distance and the speed of the oncoming car—and then a second look before making up your mind. Always keep in mind the slogan, "SLOW DOWN AND LIVE".

By DOROTHY SCOTT

June is dairy month and if we have said this before we are not asking your pardon for the repetition because there is so very much that is good to be said about fresh, sweet milk and all the products which we enjoy made from milk.

Let's begin by reminding ourselves that milk has top flavor when it is kept cool, clean and covered. Milk belongs in the refrigerator not only to keep it fresh, but to keep it out of sunlight—robber of healthful riboflavin from milk.

And what does milk offer as a food? High quality proteins, body building calcium and phosphorus. People of every age need a steady replacement of these food nutrients, they are not stored in the body. So, it's milk every day for everybody—two to three cups for adults and two cups for children. Warm weather milk drinks are one way to assure enough for every member of your family.

If you are a calorie worrier, take note. A pint (two cups) has 355 calories, only a small portion of the calories needed by a moderately active adult. Skim milk for the dieter means one-half the calories of whole milk.

Milk is one of the most economical of all foods. One glass costs about four cents. For four cents you get the same amount of calcium as in 50 cents worth of oranges, 43 cents worth of eggs and 18 cents worth of carrots.

How about making an egg-milk shake right now? To make a quart beat together four eggs and one-third cup sugar; add two tablespoons of vanilla and three cups of milk. Mix well. Serve chilled with a dash of nutmeg on top. Delicious drinking.

Cheese with fresh fruit makes an elegant dessert. It comes to the rescue for an easy-to-do evening snack tray. It blends with many foods to add flavor appeal.

Cheese is rich in bone-building calcium and phosphorus, plus vitamins A and B-2 for healthy skin and nerves. Rich in protein, cheese is also an important body building and repairing food. Its fat content adds appetite satisfaction.

Store cheese in the refrigerator, tightly wrapped. When cooking cheese use a low heat for as short a time as possible to assure perfect texture.

For extra nourishment, try adding milk to milk. This isn't double talk. Dry milk can be added to fluid milk so easily now that we have the new, very finely powdered, instant dry skim milk.

Four tablespoons of dry milk mixed with one cup of fluid makes it nearly double the original food value.

Use double milk for beverages, soups, gravies, custards and milk pudding.

Dry skim milk is one of the cheaper forms of milk, so double milk is real "economy" food.

Are you an "outside eating" fan? Closed barbecue pits are a great favorite with many connoisseurs of good meat. For a crowd, there is no better way to cook meat out in the open.

Chuck roasts are penny-saving choices. Choose chunks of chuck weighing 10 to 12 pounds. Cook them in a closed pit for 10 to 12 hours.

If you plan to preserve foods, fruits and vegetables, at their very best, better be checking up on your canning and freezing equipment. Check the jars and lids. Are they in good condition? Do you have enough? Are they paired off so you have a lid for every jar? Be sure you have enough freezing containers, plastic bags, rubber bands and so on.

It's the small details that make home-sewed dresses look better and wear longer. In making darts for instance, stitching should be from the wide part to the point. Do not retrace stitching. Tie the threads at the point, using a square knot and leave about an inch of thread to prevent the knot from untying.

With the Iosco 4-H Clubs

Thursday, June 16—Friendship 4-H Club Tour.

Wednesday, June 22—4-H Club Camp Clean Up.

Thursday, June 23—Reno Topnotchers 4-H Club Tour.

How much work does a garden take? 4-H garden project members in Burleigh Wizards 4-H Club will have some answers based on records they are keeping this summer. The records tell the number of hours worked, cost of seeds, cultivation, fertilizing, spraying and harvesting.

Mrs. Gerald Bellen has met with the members twice, with a third meeting planned for June 15, reports Gloria Jean Runyan. At the second meeting the members visited the Siegrist garden which was very well weeded and growing nicely.

Don't wait, livestock 4-H Club members, to let us know whether or not you will need to have the veterinarian test your animal so it can be shown at the fair. A couple of weeks ago we outlined for you a way to tell if you need to test.

July 5 is the deadline date to make request for a test, but don't wait until July 4 to think about it, that is a holiday.

Here is a hint from Dr. Glen Reed, Michigan State College veterinarian, who says it is wise to isolate animals which have been at the fair from the home animals for at least 30 days. If show animals are healthy at the end of this period, they can be put back into the herd.

Girls in food projects may find these explanations of cooking terms helpful. To beat something is to make the mixture light and fluffy by beating air into it. You can't feel lazy when you beat unless you are using an electric food mixer. You can also beat with a large spoon or a whisk egg beater.

To baste is to moisten food while it is cooking. This usually applies to meat where pan drippings, water or special sauces may be used. Use a large spoon to dribble the liquid over the food.

To cream means to make soft, smooth and velvety mixture. Creaming is often done with the back of a large spoon. Sugar and shortening are creamed in cake making.

To fold is to combine the ingredients by cutting down through the mixture with a spoon or whisk egg beater, then turn it across the bottom of the bowl, and up over the top close to the surface. Never raise it completely out of the batter.

The senate passed the administration's $3,530,000,000 foreign aid program after rejecting a series of restrictive amendments.

Retire From State Police Service

Captain Earl E. Seicist, commanding officer of the Michigan State Police third district with headquarters at Bay City, and Detective Sergeant Harry W. Biggs of third district headquarters are retiring from the department having completed at least 25 years of service.

Seicist is retiring on a disability pension July 11. He was critically injured November 18, 1952, when his automobile crashed into a tree at the end of South Harrison Road, East Lansing, while he was responding to a mobilization call at Jackson prison, where trouble was threatening.

He was in the hospital for many weeks with internal injuries and fractures which have left permanent disabling effects.

Seicist joined the state police on May 13, 1927. After serving at various posts and at second district headquarters in Detroit, he was promoted to captain and given command of the third district on May 15, 1949.

Seicist holds one citation for bravery and one meritorious service award. He is married and the father of two boys. The family plans to move to Nevada and will settle near Las Vegas.

Detective Sergeant Biggs will leave the department June 16. He was promoted to district detective at Bay City on November 1, 1937, and to detective sergeant on January 16, 1941.

Biggs holds seven meritorious service awards and one citation for bravery. He is married and has a son and daughter.

'BIGGEST' CRUSADE—

The six-week Scottish crusade by Evangelist Billy Graham was described as the largest evangelistic event in history. Television and telephonic hookups swelled the total audience to 2,547,365. At the last meeting, held at Hampden Park Stadium, Glasgow, more than 100,000 persons were present. A total of 52,253 persons made "decisions for Christ," during the campaign, it is reported.

TEETH IN WASTE BASKET—

Seeing a pupil struggling with a piece of candy, Mrs. Loretta Bonner, a teacher at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, told the boy to either swallow the candy or toss it in the wastepaper basket. The boy told her the candy was stuck in his teeth. Jokingly, Mrs. Bonner told the youngster to "toss your teeth in the basket with the candy." The boy complied, to her surprise, throwing candy and teeth into the trash basket—he had a full upper plate.

Only new Chevrolet Task-Force Trucks bring you the shortest stroke V8's in any leading truck and today's most advanced sixes—plus all these truly modern features!

They're the marks of a modern truck, and they out-date any make without them!

Beginning with Work-Styling, an entirely new development in truck design. For the first time in any line of trucks, Chevrolet brings you two styling treatments—one for light- and medium-duty models, another for heavy-duty jobs! Styling that's matched to the model and the job.

volt electrical system—double the voltage for quicker, surer starting and more efficient spark plug firing.

Tubeless tires standard on 1/2-ton models. Here's greater protection against blowouts.

Every Power Helper in the book. Power Brakes are standard equipment on 2-ton models, an extra-cost option on others. The new handling ease of Power Steering, another extra-cost option, cuts turning effort up to 80%.

There's new gas-saving Overdrive, an extra-cost option on 1/2-ton models... and truck Hydra-Matic on 1/2-, 3/4- and 1-ton jobs.
