1954 Farm Census Reveals Increase in Number of Cattle on Iosco Farms

An increase in the number of cattle on Iosco County farms was revealed in the 1954 census of agriculture which was released this week by the United States Department of Commerce. This census compares figures with that of 1950 and is based on the tabulations of reports from all farms in the county.

In 1954 the number of cattle on Iosco farms was 10,954, an increase of 390 over the 10,564 reported in 1950.

County Agent Marvin Davenport said this week that the apparent drop in the number of farms in the county, the size of farms have increased from 155 acres per farm to over 171 acres. In 1950 there were 693 farms with 108,860 acres of land. In 1954 the number of farms dropped to 590 with 100,954 acres of farm land.

Along with the increase in size of the farms, the average value of land and buildings per farm also increased. In 1950 the average value was $8,225 while in 1954 the average value was $11,046.

The big news gained by the census report, however, is the increase in the number of cattle on Iosco County farms. In 1954 there were 14,000 head of cattle while in 1950 the total was 10,564.

This increase was noted particularly in the beef cattle herds. Beef cattle production has risen at an average of almost 500 head per year, whereas there is almost 9,000 head in the county.

An increase in the number of milk cows was also reported. In 1950 there were 3,886 head of milk cows while the 1954 figure reached 5,400 head.

Moreover, it was noted that whole milk production in 1954 reached 10,972,147 pounds while in 1949 the figure was 7,448,343 pounds. Butterfat sold in county dropped from 309,477 pounds in 1949 to 233,953 pounds in 1954.

Iosco Gun Board Approves 10 Applications Friday

The Iosco County Gun Board approved 10 applications at its regular meeting last Friday. The following were issued restricted permits valid only for hunting and target practice: Harry J. Rothballer, Robert W. Simmons, John H. Kopka, Charles T. Foy and Lennart F. Anderson, all of Oscoda; Herbert A. Schroeder of National City; Glenn F. Simpson of Tawas City; Norman R. Orland of Whittemore and E. G. Blood of Hale.

The applications of Thomas Scott and Clyde Hunter were held over until the next meeting pending completion of their applications.

WATER BOARD SETS NEW CONNECTION RATES

At a special meeting of the Tawas City Water Board Monday night, a rate of $150 per connection was established as the rate for property owners outside the city limits to connect with the new Harris Avenue sewer project.

This action was taken after the Tawas Area Board of Education requested that connection rates for the affected property be lowered. Representing the board of education at the meeting were Waldo J. Curry, Walter Niles and Supt. Reynold Mick, Randall Fox, president of the board of education, is also a member of the water board.

The board of education told water board members that several potential users had approached them requesting that the connection rate which had previously been set be reconsidered. This was in view of the fact that the school district is paying the cost of the new sewer line to the site of the Tawas Area Junior and Senior High School.

The contention of a property owner in that area was that the rate should be the same as connection charges within the city limits of Tawas City on the Harris Avenue project.

Property owners who anticipate building along the sewer project in the future or those who wish connections at present should request the connection immediately from the superintendent of public works, Reginald Bubblitz. After payment of the $150 connection charges, a hook-up will be granted.

Payment of sewer connections over and beyond the actual cost to the city for installation will be credited to the school district for payment of sewer line construction.

Water and sewer rates established by the Tawas City Water Department last September will remain in effect. A surcharge of 50 percent over sewer and water rates inside the city limits was established at that time.

Carl Babcock and William Borosch leave Sunday for a week of goose hunting at the Horshoer Reserve near Cairo, Illinois.

Jury Brings Out Guilty Verdict in Doran Case

Monday afternoon, before Judge Herman Dehnke in Iosco County Circuit Court, the jury brought out a verdict of guilty against Harold W. Doran of Bay City. Doran, with James LaFave of Oscoda, had been charged with robbery of the Huron Drug Store at Oscoda on August 14. The drug store is owned by Clarence Voll.

Doran will be sentenced by Judge Dehnke after an investigation has been made by the probation officer. LaFave will be tried at the December term of circuit court. Doran's bond was set at $5,000 and he was returned to the county jail.

Robbery of the drug store occurred early in the morning and shortly before daylight. Money totaling $301 was taken from the cash register and an attempt was being made to break open a safe in the back room. An inter-commission system between the store and the Voll residence was instrumental in the discovery of the robbery while it was in progress. Mrs. Voll was awakened by the unusual noise coming in on the system. Deputy Sheriff Vern Amley was called to the scene, and he with Mr. Voll approached the back window of the store. A case of pop bottles was accidentally tipped over and one of the men raised up so that Deputy Sheriff Amley had a view of his head and shoulders. The two returned to the house and while Deputy Sheriff Amley was putting in telephone calls to the state police and sheriff's department, the robbers hurriedly left the scene. About two hours later Doran and LaFave were arrested by state police and members of the sheriff's department and were identified with the crime.

Five men were arraigned Tuesday before Judge Dehnke and entered pleas of guilty to the charges which had been placed against them. The men were:

Stanley H. Oldham and James W. Birukoff, charged with theft of two automobiles and transporting them across a state line.

Clarence Stine and Bernard Harmon, charged with breaking and entering.

Morrison Emery, charged with grand larceny.

Pour Footings for New Tawas City Post Office

Footings for the new Tawas City Post Office building were poured this week by the Northern Construction Company. The new 30 by 60 foot building will be of cement block construction with a brick, stone and redwood front. It will be located just east of the Sully Shop on Lake Street.

Improvement in the health of William Hansen allowed the completion of the purchase of the property on which the building is being constructed, stated Donald Pringle, manager of Northern Construction. The ill health of Mr. Hansen, who owned the property on which the post office is being located, prevented the completion of its purchase.

Although there has been a delay due to Mr. Hansen's illness, Pringle predicted that construction would proceed according to schedule if no unusually bad weather prevailed.

Late in September the United States Post Office Department announced that the Northern Construction Company was the successful bidder for construction of the new post office building in Tawas City.

Leased on a 10-year basis from the company, the contract for construction of the new building calls for it to be ready for occupancy by February 1, 1956.

The new building will contain 1,800 square feet of floor space. At the time of the announcement of the successful bid, Postmaster Martin Kasischke said that the construction of Tawas City's new post office building would provide more efficient facilities for handling of the increased volume of mail here.

Hunters Asked to Cooperate in Survey

The Michigan Department of Conservation requests that rabbit and squirrel hunters send front feet and leg bones from rabbits and squirrels which they shoot this fall to its laboratory for examination and x-raying. In this manner the department can determine whether they came from old or young animals and so measure the success of the breeding season.

Special envelopes for mailing the front feet and leg bones may be obtained at The Tawas Herald office. No postage is necessary.

The special mailing envelopes are distributed locally by the Iosco Sportsmen's Club.

Christian Science

Man's true nature as a child of God will be set forth at Christian Science services this Sunday.

The lesson-sermon on the subject, "Adam and Fallen Man," will include the account of Christ Jesus' healing of the man "which had a spirit of an unclean devil" as recorded in Luke (4).

Among the correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is the following (259:6 The): "The divine nature was best expressed in Christ Jesus, who threw upon mortals the truer reflection of God and lifted their lives higher than their poor thought-models would allow,—thoughts which presented man as fallen, sick, sinning, and dying."

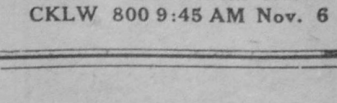

The Golden Text is from Ephesians (5:8): "Ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light."

Best Buick yet

When better automobiles are built Buick will build them

IT COMES upon the heels of the most successful Buick in history—and beats it on every score. In shimmering steel and solid snow, it's Buick for 1956—and there's never been anything like it for pure automobile. You get a good hint of what we mean when you take in its sweep-ahead styling—from the air-splitting prow of its V-front grille to the robust rake of its canted rear profile. You get an even better hint when you open the doors and see the dazzle there. But it's when you put this beauty to the city streets and the open highways that you learn the best of it. For here is performance without parallel. A new advance in Variable Pitch Dynaflo* goes airplanes one better—steps up your getaway in normal driving without flooring the pedal to switch the pitch. But when you do need that extra surge, it's there instantly—and in extra abundance. The might of big 322-cubic-inch V8 engines in every Series brings new record high power to all Buicks—ROADMASTER, SUPER, CENTURY, and the bedrock-priced SPECIAL. And to handle such dynamic driving power, the whole rear end has been endowed with extra bravn and left and solidity. We could spread before you an acre of blueprints on the engineering gems that spark the spectacular performance and ride and handling and roadability of these great Buicks for 1956. But you can get the full and magnificent story right now, at our showroom, in a face-to-face meeting with the best Buick yet—now on display, and setting a dazzling new pattern for 1956. *New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

1956 Chevrolet Cars Go on Display at McKay Sales Tomorrow (Friday)

Reminiscent of the sport coupe which Chevrolet introduced with such sensational success in 1950, a sport sedan makes its debut along with the company's other new models. Elimination of the center pillar in the window area adds smartness as well as unexcelled visibility. The hardtop sedan will be available in the Bel Air (above) and "Two-Ten," two of three price-graduated series of cars offered by Chevrolet for '56. Engine choices include two more powerful V8's and one 6. The "Super Turbo-Fire V8" develops 205 h.p.

Scheduled for its debut at McKay Sales Company in Tawas City Friday, November 4, is the new Chevrolet for 1956 which carries increased horsepower, a fleetier, more rugged appearance and is offered in the broadest array of bodies ever produced by the company.

"Continued emphasis on the superior performance and rakish lines that contributed importantly to record-breaking sales this year give Chevrolet for 1956 its most distinguished new passenger cars," today stated L. G. McKay Jr., owner of the local dealership.

New in the low-price field is a four-door hardtop sedan. This car has no obstructing center pillar in the window area and is fashioned with the same styling zest that made the Chevrolet sport coupe a sensation of the automobile market since 1950. Also introduced for the first time are nine-passenger station wagons, bringing the company's total number of 1956 bodies to 19.

Of prime interest to buyers who appreciate the security of ready acceleration is an increase in horsepower extending from the six-cylinder engine to the pace-setting V8. The new model sixes rate at 140 horsepower. The Super Turbo-Fire V8 which, in a recent performance test, set a new all-time record at Pikes Peak in September, develops 205 horsepower.

Among outstanding safety features in the 1956 Chevrolet line are the availability of seat belts and shoulder harness; improved precision-aimed headlights and crash-tested door locks to minimize the possibility of doors being sprung open by shock or collision.

Lively paint schemes are offered in accord with the increased color consciousness of car buyers. Choices range from black to a newly developed pigmentation in beige and red. Original two-toning gives each of three price-graduated series an exclusive pattern. Ten solids and 14 two-tone combinations are on the 1956 color chart.

Novel trim ideas, with particular attention to the low-price One-Fifty series, are evident in the interior as well as the exterior treatments. Charcoal shades are new. In a simplification of options, the company announces each series will have a "standard" interior two-tone trim. A wide range of other harmonizing interiors will be available on an optional basis.

In the 1956 Chevrolet completely new sheet metal complements a more massive grille in all models. The grille is a wider, lattice-work design and the effect of staunchness and beauty is aided by a heavier chromium header bar. Fender lines at the front and rear are higher and straighter. The hood plane is flatter and extends four inches further forward before dipping to meet the grille.

Chromium molding, applied for the first time on the One-Fifty series, sweeps along the sides of the 1956 bodies to increase the low, ground-gripping aspect of the cars. Headlamp visors are more pronounced. Parking lamps are square and set low over the reshaped bumpers. A novelty is the location of the gasoline filler, concealed by the hinged rear left tail lamp.

In addition to sixes, the 1956 Chevrolets may be powered by a variety of V8s, a type of engine which totaled almost a million in the company's 1955 model production. One develops 162 horsepower and is installed in cars with the standard shift. The second is designed for Powerglide and produces 170 horsepower. The Super Turbo-Fire with four barrel carburetor furnishes 205 horsepower. Fitted with a new head, the compression ratio of the Super is at an all-time Chevrolet high of 9.25 to one.

Calendar—November 9 and 11—Christmas gifts meetings.

Are you interested in some quickie exchange gift ideas for yourself or the children to use at the several Christmas parties which will no doubt be held in your community?

They will be ideas for inexpensive gifts, too, because most of these parties have a price you aren't supposed to exceed, such as 50 cents or a dollar.

Aprons are popular Christmas gift items. Last year we had a good many patterns.

In response to several requests, we shall plan to provide help in assembling aprons. Some of the patterns are a little difficult to explain on paper. If you have one you are uncertain about putting together, bring it to the workshop meeting and we will help you with it.

Books are always "best choice" gifts, especially for Christmas.

Our Christmas meeting this year will include help in choosing books as gifts for persons of different ages who are on your shopping list. Miss Leonora Hass, director of the Losco-Arenac Regional Library, is arranging this portion of the meetings.

And now the time, when and place where these Christmas gift meetings which are open to anyone who wishes to come. This is not a leader-training meeting. Each person interested can plan to attend one of the three meetings:

Wednesday, November 9—Federal Building, East Tawas, from 1:30 to 4:30 p. m.

Wednesday, November 9—Federal Building, East Tawas, from 7:30 to 9:00 p. m.

Friday, November 11—Reno Township Hall, from 1:30 to 4:30 p. m.

These will not be formal meetings. You may come at the time most convenient and remain as long as you wish to copy patterns, have help with apron making and learn about selecting books for gifts.

"Winter Bouquets" was a topic of lively interest even though the materials used to make them were dry and dead. Twenty women will be helping teach the group meetings in eight communities during November. Some of them have collected a great deal of wonderful materials to work with in planning arrangements to use for their lessons.

Every group member wants to be sure to take to the meeting of her group her collection of materials, containers and needle holders so she can try one herself.

All of us are so very pleased to have had the help of Mrs. Elmer Kunze in making this lesson topic possible for home demonstration groups. More members voted for this lesson than any other, so we expect to hear about many bouquets made and enjoyed all winter long.

That is one of the nice things about these dry arrangements, they last such a long time and because of this is the extra time it takes to complete an arrangement is really worth while.

Any of you who come to visit us at the Extension Service Office during the next few weeks will find us enjoying arrangements which were made up to use at the leader-training meetings. Why not drop in? We will be happy to visit with you.

At the two leaders meetings were Mrs. Marvin Davenport, Mrs. Harold Heine, Mrs. Forrest Holmes, Mrs. Martin Siegrist, Mrs. Harold Hammond, Mrs. Ronald Hackborn, Mrs. Donald MacDonald, Mrs. Roy Atkinson, Mrs. Ernest Ross, Mrs. Robert Dahne, Mrs. Sterling Cataline, Mrs. John Earhart, Mrs. James Mielock, Mrs. John Cobb, Mrs. Carl Libka, Mrs. Robert Boisford, Mrs. Norman Howarth, Mrs. Louis Rodman and Mrs. Hilda Howarth.

This year's "horn of plenty" is spilling out a variety of foods. Plentiful are pork and pork products, beef, turkeys, broilers, frays; potatoes, to bake, boil, scallop or fry; rice which can be boiled or baked, buttered or combined in chop suey; fruits boast of pears, grapes, raisins, dates, cranberries and avacados.

Eggs and cheese make fine combinations, both being concentrated bundles of high grade protein food. Cheese baked with macaroni is even more hearty when a slightly beaten egg is added to cheese sauce. Prices for eggs will be most advantageous to the consumer in November and December, although prices are not expected to reach the low levels of last year.

Wheat growers read and heed! Here is a new law the wheat growers had best remember after July 1, 1956.

Sanitary requirements on wheat for milling will be tightened next July 1. The change in standards was announced recently by the food and drug administration.

Purpose of the change is to increase the cleanliness of the country's food supply. Under the new requirements, wheat containing one percent or more of insect-damaged kernels will be declared contaminated. This means it is unfit for milling into flour. A contamination of one or more rodent pellets per pint of wheat will result in the same rejection.

The new requirements are being put into effect to coincide with the beginning of the 1956 crop year. They will continue until July 1957 and will be reviewed again at that time.

Heavier cows give more milk. Larry Johnson of the dairy department at Michigan State University, says that this is one of the facts brought to light by the new DHIA-IBM program. One of the new additions to DHIA records is the body weight of each cow tested. This weight is determined by use of a heart girth tape.

Johnson says that a definite relationship has been found between size of the animal and production. In Holsteins, for example, cows weighing between 900 and 1,000 pounds had an average butterfat production of 406 pounds. Cows scaling 1,000-1,100 pounds had an average production of 445 pounds, and 1,300 to 1,400 pound Holsteins hit an average 464. All butterfat figures are on a mature equivalent basis for Guernseys the story was much the same. Lighter weight produced correspondingly less butterfat.

Johnson says the explanation for this relationship is fairly simple. Bigger cows eat more feed. The production difference is the same as that between a small factory and a large one. A bigger cow can take in more raw materials. Therefore, she should be able to turn out more dairy products.

There is no difference in efficiency because of size. Small cows turn just as high a percentage of their feed into salable products as large cows. A more important factor in determining production is inheritance.

If dairy cattle are equally well bred, the larger cows of a breed tend to produce more milk than the smaller ones. However, the amount of milk a cow can produce depends more on her inherited ability than on her size. The most accurate method of comparing the real merit of an animal is to compare her on the basis of her efficiency in converting feed into milk.

With Our SERVICEMEN

Army Pvt. Duane C. Guest, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Guest, Hale, recently took part in a field training exercise held by the Fourth Infantry Division in Germany.

Training received by the "Ivy" division, part of the United States Seventh Army, includes intensive maneuvers and realistic field problems.

Private Guest, a survey specialist in Battery C of the 20th Field Artillery Battalion, entered the army in December 1954 and was last stationed at Camp Chaffee, Arkansas.

TRAPPED BY PENNY—
 Shortly after a passenger handed him five pennies for a tip, Lou Takacs, a taxi driver, was held up by a gunman and robbed of $10. Police arrested a suspect who protested his innocence. Takacs remembered that one of the pennies had been blackened and had a dent in it. Sure enough, that penny was in the suspect's pocket.

The thieves who broke into a menswear store in Baltimore, Maryland, recently were certainly men. They helped themselves to about a half dozen hats, a dozen neckties, six sport shirts, a handful of caps, an imported German trenchcoat and eight or 10 pieces of men's jewelry.

Heinrich Welsch, 67, president of the Saarland's State Insurance Offices, has been nominated to the position of acting president of the Saar to succeed Johannes Hoffman, who resigned after the overwhelming defeat of the statute designed to "Europeanize" the Saar. The two-to-one defeat of the measure has brought an emotional surge in West Germany and at the same time an effort to stave off a crisis in French-German relations.

Iosco Delegates Attend Women's Club Meeting

The 34th annual convention of the Northeastern District of the Michigan State Federation of Women's Clubs was held last week in Rogers City, with Iosco County women attending from the area as delegates and visitors to the meeting.

Mrs. August Miller of the Whittemore Women's Club, Mrs. T. M. O'Loughlin of the Ladies Literary Club, Mrs. Charles Van Horn of the Twentieth Century Club and Mrs. Mardis Turner of the Tawas Women's League reported for their clubs on the year's events. Mrs. O'Loughlin, district chairman of roadside signs, urged member clubs to purchase signs similar to other service clubs to erect at entrances to cities; and Mrs. R. J. Barnett, legislation chairman and Girlstown board member, along with Mrs. O'Loughlin, gave a detailed report. All departments of federation work were highlighted and ideas passed on to the delegates for use in their clubs.

The officers elected to serve the coming year were Mrs. Forrest Wright of Hillman, president; Mrs. D. E. Bowland, Coleman, first vice president; Mrs. H. E. White, Midland, second vice president; Mrs. Harold Mattice, Pigeonville, recording secretary; Mrs. Carl Richardson, Grayling, treasurer; Mrs. O'Loughlin, state nominating committee member; Mrs. Forrest Wright, Girlstown board member for two years; Mrs. Barnett remains on board for a second year.

Mrs. Ora Walker of Sturgis, president of the Michigan Federation, urged the women to attend the General Federation of Women's Clubs Convention in Kansas City in April, when Mrs. I. C. Prout is scheduled to succeed to the presidency of the federation, the first time Michigan has had a woman in that high office.

New Buicks Go on Display at Look's

The classic beauty of Buick styling for 1956 is exemplified in this photo showing the new front end with its V-shaped grille, the distinctive rear end design of the Roadmaster and the profile of the new four-door hardtop in the Super series. For 1956 Buick offers a four-door hardtop in every series, higher compression V-8 engines that develop 255 horsepower in the Roadmaster, Super and Century, and 220 horsepower in the Special, and a new variable pitch Dynaflo transmission that improves performance without sacrificing any of Buick's traditional smoothness of operation. Numerous changes also have been made in the chassis to improve ride and stability. Dynaflo is standard equipment on all but the Special.

The new Buick for 1956 will go on display locally at the William Look and Sons showroom at 200 Newman Street, East Tawas, Friday, November 4, 1955. Presenting its new line of cars for 1956, Buick features a four-door hardtop in every series, more powerful V-8 engines and fresh new styling in the bold design that has made Buick the third best seller in the nation for the last two years.

Horsepower has been increased to 255 in the Roadmaster, Super and Century series and to 220 in the Special. For the first time in 1956 the Special is equipped with the 322 cubic inch engine, the same power plant used in the other three series.

"We have made 88 major improvements in styling and engineering to give our customers the best possible value for their dollar," said Ivan L. Willes, general manager of Buick and vice president of General Motors. "The entire chassis has been re-engineered to improve ride and handling. The addition of the 322 cubic inch engine to the Special gives that series one of the biggest and most powerful engines of any car in its class."

The new variable pitch Dynaflo transmission has been improved for 1956 through the addition of a second stator which increases torque multiplication and boosts performance importantly in the 0 to 30 mile range. Dynaflo has been made standard equipment on the Super and Century and optional on the Special. Previously it was standard on the Roadmaster only.

Dual exhausts are standard on the Roadmaster and optional on the other three series. Style highlights include an all-new front end with a handsome new V-shaped grille, a refinement of the rear end design which proved so popular last year, exquisite new interiors and a colorful new instrument panel that features Redliner speedometer in each series.

Safety features include seat belts, available as dealer installed equipment on all models; door locks with an interlocking feature that prevents them from flying open in event of a collision; a foam rubber pad across the top of the instrument panel, and more effective brakes for faster stops.

Fall rear wheel cutouts, which lend a sports car look to the Buick line, are featured on all models in 1956. Previously only the two-door models had the rear wheels fully exposed. The new V-shaped grille has a wide screen which is chrome-plated and buffed to a high luster and is centered with a large medallion carrying the nameplate, year and series. Two trim wings extend across the grille.

From either side of the center medallion.

The new hood ornament is a replica of a sweptwing jet bomber. The flat surface of the hood ornament gives the appearance of a forward sloping hood, making it look longer, with a cleaner design. Headlamps also have been redesigned to give the front fender a longer look. A full flange, extending all the way around the lamp, was designed specifically to take full advantage of the new sealed beam headlight which minimizes the reflection of light upward in front of the car.

The rakish rear end design, introduced with such spectacular success last year, has been refined for 1956 to make the car look longer. All models feature exquisite new interiors in many combinations of nylon and corduroy and genuine leather. Also new for 1956 is the option of all-corduroy interiors in the two-door hardtops in the Century and Special series.

Whittemore Man Sentenced to Jail Following Accident

James Ferns, 21, of Whittemore was sentenced to serve 10 days in the Iosco County Jail and pay a $75 fine and $8 cost as the result of an auto accident one mile south of Whittemore.

According to witnesses Ferns was driving at a high rate of speed. Ferns had pulled out to pass a pickup truck driven by Henry Ott of Whittemore when an oncoming car forced him back in line. Due to the high rate of speed which Ferns was traveling he could not get back in his own lane and struck the Ott pickup in the left rear causing both vehicles to go out of control.

Ferns was treated at the Tawas Hospital for injuries and was released. Ott was taken to Au Gres hospital with an injured back.

A check on Ferns' drivers license at Lansing revealed that it had been revoked about a year ago as the result of another accident in Detroit. Ferns was arrested by Sheriff Ivan O'Farrell and Under Sheriff Leon Putnam and was arraigned before Justice Arthur Goulet of East Tawas.

She studied at the Grand Rapids Junior College and taught school at Otisville, Bay City and was principal and superintendent of East Tawas High School. She joined the Dominican order in 1917 and taught in Grand Rapids Catholic High Schools, St. Mary's High School in Saginaw and Marywood Academy, Grand Rapids. She attended Central Michigan College, held a master's degree from the University of Michigan and was working on her Ph. D. degree at St. Louis University and the University of Michigan.

Requiem high mass services were held Wednesday morning at Marywood and burial was made in Resurrection Cemetery, Grand Rapids.

Surviving are her mother, Mrs. George Stang; one brother, Frank, and one sister, Alice, all of East Tawas; and three sisters, Mrs. Grace Mielock of Bay City, Mrs. Anna Kiley of Standish and Sister Blendin of Grand Rapids. Mrs. Jessie Bennington of East Tawas is an aunt of Sister Marie Celeste and Mrs. Charles Miller of Detroit is a niece.

Iosco Sheriff's Department Has Busy Week

Margaret Powers, 46, Oscoda, was ordered to pay an $81.50 fine and costs or serve 45 days in the county jail when she appeared before Justice Arthur Goulet Sunday. Mrs. Powers was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Henry Hoppe Jr. at Oscoda for reckless driving. An employee of Mrs. Powers, Rupert Sanstrom, was assessed a $21.50 fine in charge of drunk and disorderly. Sanstrom was riding in the car of Mrs. Powers at the time of her arrest.

Leroy Jones, 23, Oscoda, was sentenced to serve five days in the county jail and was assessed $56.50 for driving with a revoked license. Jones was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Hoppe at Oscoda. The deputy stopped Jones for a minor traffic violation. When Jones could not show his driver's license a check was made and revealed that Jones' license had been revoked a year ago.

Calvin Rardin, 55, East Tawas, was sentenced to serve 10 days in jail when arraigned before Justice Goulet and pay cost of $7.25. Rardin was arrested by sheriff's officers for assault and battery on a complaint by Mrs. Stanley Alda, also of East Tawas.

Stanley Hall, 20, and Howard Alexander, 23, both of Oscoda, were arrested by Deputy Charles Kurtzrock on a complaint from Dornace Bellville, Burleigh Township farmer, for trespassing without permission. Each paid $18.00 when arraigned before Justice H. E. Friedman of Tawas City. Another member of the hunting party, Woodrow Lester of Detroit, will appear Saturday before Justice Friedman to answer to the same charge.

D., Kawkawlin, who resigned. L. Fernald Foster, M. D., secretary of the society revealed today. At the same time Dr. Stinson was named to the publication committee, one of the standing committees of the council, which is the executive body of the state society, Dr. Foster said.

Dr. Stinson, who resides at 4216 Ann Court, was born in 1901, graduated from the University of Michigan Medical School in 1929 and now specializes in obstetrics and gynecology. In the past he has been active in Michigan State Medical work as a delegate to the MSMS House of Delegates and is presently president of the Bay County Medical Society. His wife, Lynn, in 1953-54 was president of the Women's Auxiliary to the Michigan State Medical Society.

Dr. Foster said that the resignation of Dr. Drummond, who served with distinction since 1945, was accepted with regret. The 10th district, which Dr. Stinson will represent, covers the eastern part of the state from Bay to Presque Isle Counties west to Kalkaska. Dr. Drummond's current term, being completed by Dr. Stinson, expires in 1957. Dr. Foster indicated.

beef and dairy cattle production, sheep and wool production showed a definite increase during the past five years. In 1950, 83 farmers reported 2,278 sheep while in 1954, 70 farmers reported 3,359 sheep. Wool production increased from 11,282 pounds in 1949 to 16,823 pounds in 1954.

Poultry and poultry products showed an increase during the period. Although the sale of chickens has dropped since 1950, the number of chickens on farms increased from 19,899 in 1950 to 24,358 in 1954 and indicates an increase in egg production.

"The pressure is going to be on Northern Michigan for livestock raising," Mr. Davenport stated. "The records show that the trend has begun in earnest."

The county agent gave several reasons for this trend:

1. The squeeze has been on the farmer during the past two years. He has found himself in a position wherein he must increase livestock number, production and crop yields in order to keep up his gross income. To make the squeeze "squeeze," his costs of production (land, labor, machinery, etc.) have increased in price. A most recent development was the five to seven percent hike in farm machinery by many companies.

2. A noticeable development has been the necessity of the dairy farmer to increase the size of his herd to meet the increased cost of new equipment. His tank cooler costs $1,600 to $3,000 depending on the size. Increasing the size of the herd means more acres of feed to raise and harvest and consequently more binding space to store feed and house cattle. It is a chain reaction which is taking place in Northern Michigan's agriculture, including Iosco County.

3. Farmers south of this county are not able to compete with the dairy farmer for labor necessary to maintain a large herd of dairy cattle. The price of their land is such that they must farm it intensively, hence the beans, sugar beets, soybeans, etc.

Anyone who wishes a copy of this census for his own use may send 10 cents to the Bureau of the Census, United States Department of Commerce, Washington, D. C., or visit the county agent's office in the Federal Building, East Tawas.
