Labor Day Traditional End of Summer Vacations

Labor Day week-end, traditional end of the summer vacation season, will be highlighted in this area by the ninth annual running of the Michigan Canoe Championship, second annual water show at East Tawas, sailboat racing on Tawas Bay, the annual old-timer's baseball game at Tawas City and a band concert at the East Tawas State Park.

More than 450 Michigan National Guardsmen, ordered out by Governor G. Mennen Williams, will team up with state police and sheriff to patrol what is expected to be the heaviest traffic in history on Michigan's highways over the week-end.

A special warning to drivers to be unusually alert and cautious was issued by state police commissioner, Joseph A. Childs. He said, "To be safe just use common sense and courtesy. And don't be in such a hurry. Slow down and live."

The main highlight of the three-day festivities is the AuSable canoe marathon which will be held September 3 and 4. Starting at Grayling, some of the nation's top-notch canoeists will compete for more than $2,000 in prize money to be awarded to winners at Oscoda, the end of the 240-mile course.

Participating in the awarding of prizes are Fred A. Huber Jr., publicity director of the Detroit Red Wing Hockey Club, and Chuck Davey, Michigan boxer, who makes his home at Oscoda.

The winding course along the AuSable begins at Grayling and ends at Oscoda. Spectators of the grueling race will find vantage points at dozens of places along the well-nested course.

The Second Annual Junior Canoe Race for youngsters, 12-15 years old, will start at Foote Dam Pond at 11:00 a. m. Sunday, running 23 miles down the AuSable to Oscoda.

Second Annual Water Show

The second annual water show will be staged at the East Tawas dock Sunday, September 4, under the supervision of Miss Waneta Pietraszek, Red Cross lifeguard at East Tawas.

Young swimmers from East Tawas, Tawas City and Oscoda are eligible to participate in the show. Prizes will be donated by businessmen.

Prizes will be awarded to winners of several scheduled races. Youngsters between the ages of five and 16 years of age are eligible to enter the contest.

The program will get underway at 12 o'clock noon.

Old Timer's Baseball Game

The annual old-timer's baseball game at Tawas City will find former Tawas players of the past 10 years playing against the 1955 version of the Tawas City Indies. The game is scheduled to get underway at 2:30 at the Tawas City diamond.

Harold Wegner, who is in charge of the event, sends an invitation to all former Tawas ballplayers who would like to participate in the event. He is assisted by Edward Anschuetz in making arrangements for the game.

bring the Tawas Bay Yacht Club's sailboat racing to a close and the club will celebrate with a program at the club house on Coast Guard Road.

New Barnes Hotel Dining Room and Cocktail Lounge to Open This Friday

Announcement of the opening of the new Barnes Hotel in Tawas City on Friday, September 2, was made this week by Anthony and Irene DeFilippi, owners.

The owners of the completely new hotel, one of the finest in Northern Michigan, will be hosts to their many friends and patrons at a special opening event Friday evening starting at 5:00 p. m. Music will be furnished by the Romi Mentwig Trio.

Full credit for completing the building in a little more than 18 weeks was given to his crew of workmen by Mr. DeFilippi. The old hotel was completely destroyed by a $125,000 fire on April 1 and within a few weeks construction was started on the new building.

The hotel's first floor will be opened to the public this week-end, including the beautiful Griffin Room, an air-conditioned dining room; the Mach Room, an air-conditioned cocktail lounge, and a large dance floor adjoining the cocktail lounge.

The 40 by 48 foot dining room, trimmed in primavera paneling with green carpeting and brown drapes, faces US-23. Large picture windows afford a beautiful view of Tawas Bay.

The cocktail lounge is finished in walnut paneling. A new 40-foot charcoal-formica finished bar is being installed this week by Barcraft Products, Bay City.

The unusual names of the dining room and cocktail lounge were selected by Mr. and Mrs. DeFilippi. The Griffin Room was named after a ship which historians say capsized and sunk in Lake Solitude in the eighteenth century. "Mach" is a term used to describe an aircraft breaking through the sound barrier, suggested by air force personnel from Wurtsmith.

The all new 79-foot by 102-foot hotel is faced with Briar Hill rubble, matching the adjacent Iosco County Building and Jail. An eight-foot recess on the second floor of the building, trimmed with wrought iron railing, overlooks the Tawas City Park and Tawas Bay.

Mr. DeFilippi said Wednesday that he expects to have the second floor of the building completed within 60 days. There will be 30 (See New Barnes, page eight.)

Three Minor Accidents

Reported in County

Three minor traffic accidents were reported by the Michigan State Police Post at East Tawas this week. Sgt. Joseph Chaput, commander, reminds all drivers that the Labor Day week-end is expected to be one of the most dangerous holidays for driving this year. He urges everyone to be alert at all times during the traffic rush.

Richard Bailey of 905 Rankin, Flint, hit a deer near Sims Ranch on US-23 last Thursday. The vehicle left the scene of the accident under its own power.

One person was injured in an accident near the Iosco-Arenac County line on US-23 last Thursday. Freida Ohlrich of Allen Park suffered a fractured left arm and was taken to the Tawas Hospital by the Jacques ambulance. The driver of the vehicle, Jerry D. Ohlrich, told officers that as he was about to pass traffic ahead of him, the car directly in front of him pulled out forcing him to the shoulder of the road. The Ohlrich vehicle overturned.

Frederick C. Eminger of Wayne, Michigan, was issued a summons for failure to yield the right of way Sunday, which was the result of a two car collision at the corner of Washington and Sawyer Streets in East Tawas.

Police officers said that Eminger was headed north on Sawyer and failed to yield the right of way to a car driven by William Wainwright of East Tawas and the other car struck Eminger's vehicle in the right side.

Post Commander James Dillon said Monday that the members of his organization were giving full support to the city's park program. He said that he was very pleased to know that the members were willing to take an active part in raising the money.

Purchase of the playground equipment was approved by the city board of directors due to the condition of the park it was not ordered until this year. Included is a 16-foot slide and four swings sets.

When the equipment arrives it will be set up immediately for use during the fall season. It will be placed at the directions of the park board.

During the past summer the base has been open to the public each Wednesday afternoon and an estimated 3,000 people have visited the base during that time.

Proulx Homers Twice to Give Sterling Win

Two lusty home runs blows by Bob Proulx last Sunday provided the only edge for Sterling's 7-5 win over the Tawas City Indies. The Indies staged a four-run rally in the sixth inning to take a short-lived lead, but the winners scored three runs in the eighth inning to settle the issue.

Winning pitcher for Sterling was Grant Mousseau, who relieved DeStrut in the seventh inning. Don Grady was charged with the loss for Tawas City.

Sterling took an early lead in the first inning when Converse singled and Proulx followed up with a long home run over the right field fence. Proulx scored Sterling's third run in the third inning when he scored on Koelsch's double.

Tawas City came to life in the sixth inning when Humphrey led off with a single. Wegner was safe on an error by the shortstop. R. Anschuetz pushed a bunt single between the pitcher and first baseman loading the bases. Grady singled Humphrey and Wegner home with the first Tawas City runs. Cavell popped to the second baseman. B. Lorenz struck out. Manager Olen Herriman batted for A. Anschuetz and was safe at first when the first baseman failed to field his (See Homers, page eight.)

Man's real spiritual status as a son of God, not subject to sin and disease, will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday in the lesson-sermon entitled "Man."

The account will be read from the King James Version of the Bible of Christ Jesus' healing of the man "which had the withered hand," including the following passage (Luke 6:10): "And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so; and his hand was restored whole as the other."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following selection will be among those read (9:17-20): "The understanding of his spiritual individuality makes man more real, more formidable in truth, and enables him to conquer sin, disease, and death."

The Golden Text is from Romans (8:14): "As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God."

Hot, humid summer days create just the right conditions for the growth of mildew. Then the question of how to remove the stain arises.

Speed is essential in removing mildew spots from furniture and other household items. Information from the United States Department of Agriculture tells us that under certain conditions mildew molds may produce permanent stains within a few hours and in time materials may rot to pieces.

What is mildew? It is a fungus that grows from spores which are in the atmosphere at all times. They grow when conditions are favorable—warm and humid weather. If you were to see mildew under a microscope it would appear as a vegetable-like structure growing within a fabric, interlacing among the yarns, sometimes like the growth of Spanish moss in trees.

Mildew thrives on dampness so it is easy to see why sun and air are two valuable aids for destroying it. It is a good idea to remove mildew upholstered articles, rugs and mattresses outdoors for cleaning. Brush them with a whiskbroom and use a vacuum cleaner. If spots remain, sponge the article lightly with thick soapsuds, wetting the fabric as little as possible. Wipe with a clean dry cloth or with a cloth wrung out of dilute alcohol (use one cup water and one cup denatured alcohol) and dry well.

Mildew on painted surfaces calls for removal with a commercial paint cleaner after which a mildew-resistant paint is applied.

Miss Deloris Abbott, who is employed at Tawas Point, visited at her home here on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Alda were in Traverse City one day last week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Alden Phelps entertained the Farm Bureau at its regular meeting last Saturday evening.

enough. A survey completed by one of Michigan State University's poultry marketing researchers indicates that the average egg holding room has a temperature of 73 degrees Fahrenheit.

And that is 13 degrees too high, says the researcher. He is working on a method for making a storage unit that will maintain constant temperature and humidity.

Right now the important thing any of you can learn is that your eggs will be of better quality longer if kept at a temperature of less than 60 degrees.

It is estimated that one out of every seven Michigan employees owes his livelihood to foreign business.

Food is a better bargain today, whether or not you believe it. Let's examine the facts.

It takes less time to earn a food dollar than it used to. For example, in 1939 it took 11 minutes to earn a quart of milk which today can be earned in eight minutes. To earn a loaf of bread, eight minutes were needed in 1939 as compared to six minutes today.

Income and wage rates have climbed more rapidly than food prices. In June of 1950 it took 53 hours pay of the average manufacturing wage earner to buy the average family food basket. In June of 1953 it took 47 hours pay.

With the Iosco 4-H Clubs

By DOROTHY SCOTT

Calendar—
 August 30-September 2—State 4-H Club Show, Michigan State University.
 Thursday, September 8—Co-operative Extension Advisory Board, 8:00 p. m., Grant Township Hall.
 Monday, September 12—4-H Club Leaders Council meeting, 8:00 p. m., Grant Township Hall.
 It's almost like a fair at Michigan State University when the state 4-H Club show rolls around every year. There will be a number of Iosco County 4-H Club members, leaders and families visit the show.

 Going for the four days are William Laidlaw, who will compete in the dairy judging contest representing the seven-county Standish District, and the home demonstration agent, whose special activity this year is to assist with clothing demonstration judging.
 Over night trip delegates include county winners in demonstration and judging contests, also exhibitors. In this group are Jerry Brown, Ronald McCormick, Andrea Duquette, Pauline DeGesie, Robert Waters, Janet Nelkie and Joyce Welna. Accompanying the 4-H Club members will be Marvin Davenport, Mrs. Walter Laidlaw and Mrs. Thomas Nelkie.
 Franklin Bischoff plans to go down for the day on Thursday taking with him Wayne, Howard, Donald, Arlene and Mrs. W. Bischoff.

This year—largest purse going to members of the Reno Topnotchers 4-H Club, Janice Sturtevant exhibited five projects and received awards that brought her a check for $22.50. Looks like these folks really are living up to that new name!
 Twenty-five of the 80 exhibitors earned $10 or more.
 Honors for completing the largest number of projects this year, six of them, go to Louella Goedecke, age 12, a second year 4-H Club member. Her six projects include: Handicraft, knitting, electrical clothing, dairy and 4-H Club Girl.
 Louella is a member of Laidlawville 4-H Club. This is the club having the largest number of members making exhibits at the fair, 22 in all.
 Bet all of you are looking forward to the first day of school. That is the day you will see many of your friends for the first time all summer.
 In your rush to get off to school, don't overlook having a good lunch, one that will furnish about one-third your daily food needs. These needs are: Fruit, vegetables, meat, fish and eggs, milk, bread and fats. A "good" lunch will include one-half pint of milk; a vegetable or fruit, or both; a main dish, such as sandwiches, stew, chili or soup, and bread and butter.

Gordon Hatch, soil conservationist, just reported he has 15,000 trees ordered for this fall planting from Iosco County farmers and land owners. The Iosco County Soil Conservation District Board of Directors is anxious to help any of our Iosco County folks with their program of putting land to its best use. Many Iosco County acres planted to trees are producing their "top valued" crop. For this purpose the soil conservation district board of directors has purchased a tree planter that will plant your trees at a nominal cost. Lyle Long is in charge of the planter and by contacting him, Lyle Bielby, Harry Krueger, James Mielock or Gerald Ballen you can get the cost of planting.
 Anyone wishing to order some red pine seedlings (two or three-year-old stock) may get an order blank from Gordon Hatch, Dale Rosenquist or myself. A postcard, please, or a check for $2.00 will get you a blank, but act at once because the supply is limited. The red pine seedlings will cost you $9 per thousand plus a $2 per thousand transportation and handling charge.

FARM EVENTS

By MARVIN DAVENPORT County Agricultural Agent

Calendar—
 Tuesday, September 6—Sheep tour and sheep raisers meeting at Reno Township Hall at 8:00 p. m. Tour will start at 2:00 p. m.
 Wednesday, September 7—Hessian fly free date. Iosco County wheat growers plant after that date.
 Thursday, September 8—Advisory Board, discuss plat book project.
 Friday, September 9—Soil sampling demonstration on the Donald Daniels farm on Prescott Road from 10:00 a. m. until 11:00 a. m.; Edward Burgess farm, Baldwin Township, from 2:00 p. m. until 3:00 p. m.
 Thursday, September 15—Northeastern Hereford Calf Association yearling sale at West Branch.
 Tuesday, October 4—Sheep day at yards in West Branch. Ram trucks and breeding ewes available, as well as lamb pool.
 Thursday, October 20—Northeastern Michigan Hereford Calf Association at West Branch.

We haven't had any reports of cattle being poisoned by plants. We hope we don't. Grazing animals are more apt to become victims of plant poisoning now than at most times of the year. Dr. C. R. Reel of the animal pathology department at Michigan State says that with many pastures short and drying up, livestock are forced to eat plants that they would find unpalatable if plenty of pasture grass was available.
 Symptoms of plant poisoning include depression, weakness, nausea, "trembles," stiffness, frothing at the mouth and violent convulsions. When you notice any of these symptoms, call your veterinarian at once, because some kinds of plant poisoning are fatal to the animal unless prompt treatment is given.
 Iosco County dairymen have two choices of plans to rid their herds of brucellosis. One plan calls for immediate removal of reactors from the herd while the other allows the owner to sell reactors as soon as vaccinated replacements become available.
 If reactors are found in the herd, the owner may choose to follow the first of the Wilton Finley, animal husbandry specialist at Michigan State University, says the owner would then take these steps:
 1. Sell all the reactors for slaughter and collect an indemnity.
 2. Isolate all suspects and retest them in 30 days.
 If immediate removal of reactors for slaughter is too costly, the owner then might choose to follow the second plan:
 1. Sell those reactors which are now unprofitable producers.
 2. Continue rigid culling as vaccinated replacements become available.
 3. Limit chances of exposing other cows by isolating them at freshening time and at heat periods if possible. If an abortion is suspected, isolate the animal immediately.
 These additional steps in controlling and eradicating brucellosis should be taken by farmers following either the first or second plan:
 Vaccinate calves at six to eight months of age; bleed test the herd every 12 months or oftener; make sure that replacements were vaccinated by eight months of age and are now disease-free.
 Herd owners practice of good herd management and strict sanitation at all times is the cheapest way to control the spread of disease.

Farmers' Credit Needs Met Chiefly by Banks Says Bradley

Michigan farmers met their credit needs during 1954 chiefly by loans from their local banks, according to Dale M. Bradley, vice president and cashier of the Farmers and Merchants State Bank of Hale. Michigan banks remain the largest lenders to the state's farmers during the year, providing far more financial aid to farmers than any other lending agency, he quoted.
 Quoting from the 14th annual farm lending survey of the Agricultural Commission of the American Bankers Association, Mr. Bradley stated that on January 1, 1955, Michigan banks had loans outstanding to farmers totaling $113,213,000 including both production and mortgage loans. This compares with a total of $38,770,000 held by the federal land banks, the second largest lender to Michigan farmers. In addition, Michigan banks held $13,851,000 in C. C. C. loans under the government's price-support program not included in the above figures.
 "Despite reduced net income and continued high production expenses on farms," Mr. Bradley said, "repayment of loans is rapid, and farm assets are at near-record levels, indicating that these factors have not weakened the financial soundness of agriculture. Bank loans play an important part in maintaining this strong financial position by permitting our farmers to make use of the latest equipment and modern production and marketing methods, resulting in greater efficiency. The majority of farm loans held by Michigan banks are for these production and operating expenses."
 Bearing out Mr. Bradley's statement regarding the use of bank loans to farmers is the fact that of the total farm debt out-

the Snapshot Guild

Rainy day pictures such as this make an interesting addition to any family's snapshot record.

Shooting in the Rain

A little while ago we found ourselves whistling the tune of "Sing in the Rain"—and that gave us an idea. Why not talk about "shooting in the rain"? To be sure, a summer shower can be inconvenient, but have you ever thought of taking a picture of one? Not only the rain itself but many other subjects can be photographed to good effect on a rainy day.
 If possible, choose a fairly bright rainy day for your picture taking. Then load your simple camera with some extra fast film and you can take bad weather in your stride. (There's a new one on the market this year. Your photo dealer will be glad to advise you on using it.) But be sure to do your shooting from a sheltered spot—a doorway or window will do nicely.
 Just remember to keep your camera dry—because raindrops on the lens interfere with its vision as much as they do with yours when they land in your eyes or on your glasses.
 Naturally, your rainy-day picture won't be a sharply contrasted black-and-white—it'll have a grayish tone with a great deal of atmospheric quality. However, it will be a snapshot that you'll be glad to have in your album—one whose tone and mood give you an imagination something to work on!

The Rev. Fr. Joseph Castanier officiated at the Requiem High Mass at 9 o'clock.
