Braves Open Friday Night at Gaylord

With 18 lettermen forming a nucleus around which to build his football squad, Coach Fred Hickman has been hard at work during the past two weeks shaping up his Tawas Area Braves for the season opener at Gaylord this Friday night, September 16.

Some 64 candidates have turned out for the 1955 squad and with two weeks of intensive conditioning exercises and scrimmage play behind them, all indications point to an improved record in the won and lost column for the Braves this year.

Assisted by Thomas Pitkowsky, Hickman has been putting his charges through body contact work during the past week with blocking and tackling maneuvers being stressed.

The coaches said that excepting for the usual number of bumps and bruises which come with early season practice sessions, the Braves are in good physical condition.

September 16—Gaylord, there.
September 24—Catholic Central, there.

October 14—Rogers City, there.
October 21—Oscoda, here.
October 27—Alpena High Reserves, there.

November 4—West Branch, here.

With seven lads receiving backfield assignments, Justus Austin has been doing most of the signal calling during practice sessions and probably will get the nod at quarterback in the opening game.

Other likely backfield starters are returning lettermen John LeClair, fullback, Jack Cuny, Roger Guthrie, Gary Stephan, Ricky Morat and Dennis Weber, who are all battling for starting positions at halfback.

The Braves line will be beefed up by Darwood Leppard and Bill DeLosh at the end or tackle, along with Ray Beaubien, Darryl Bradlock, Ken Gordon or Fred Reiger at guard, Bob Jones and Allen Prescott at tackle, Donald Phillips or Roxey Roach at center and Don Ledsworth and Richard Ashmore at the end positions.

Other players who will see action in the opener are Bill Sutton, Carl Nemeth and Randy Fox at guard, Paul Simmons at half and William Freel at tackle.

Rounding out the players listed on the 1955 roster of the Braves, including freshmen, are Jerry Alma, Carl Babcock, James Birkenbach, Gary Brackenburg, Richard Busha, Robert Cabbie, Gene Champagne, Herbert Cholger, Andy Cremer, Ronald Colburn, James Curry.

Cederberg Guest Speaker at Kiwanis Club

"Our national economy is at a point where it has never been before and our defense is equally as strong," commented Congressman Elford A. Cederberg speaking at the Tuesday noon meeting of the Tawas Kiwanis Club.

Congressman Cederberg is at present on a tour of the 14 counties comprising the 10th Congressional District which he represents. During his visits he discusses problems which any of his constituents may have about national government.

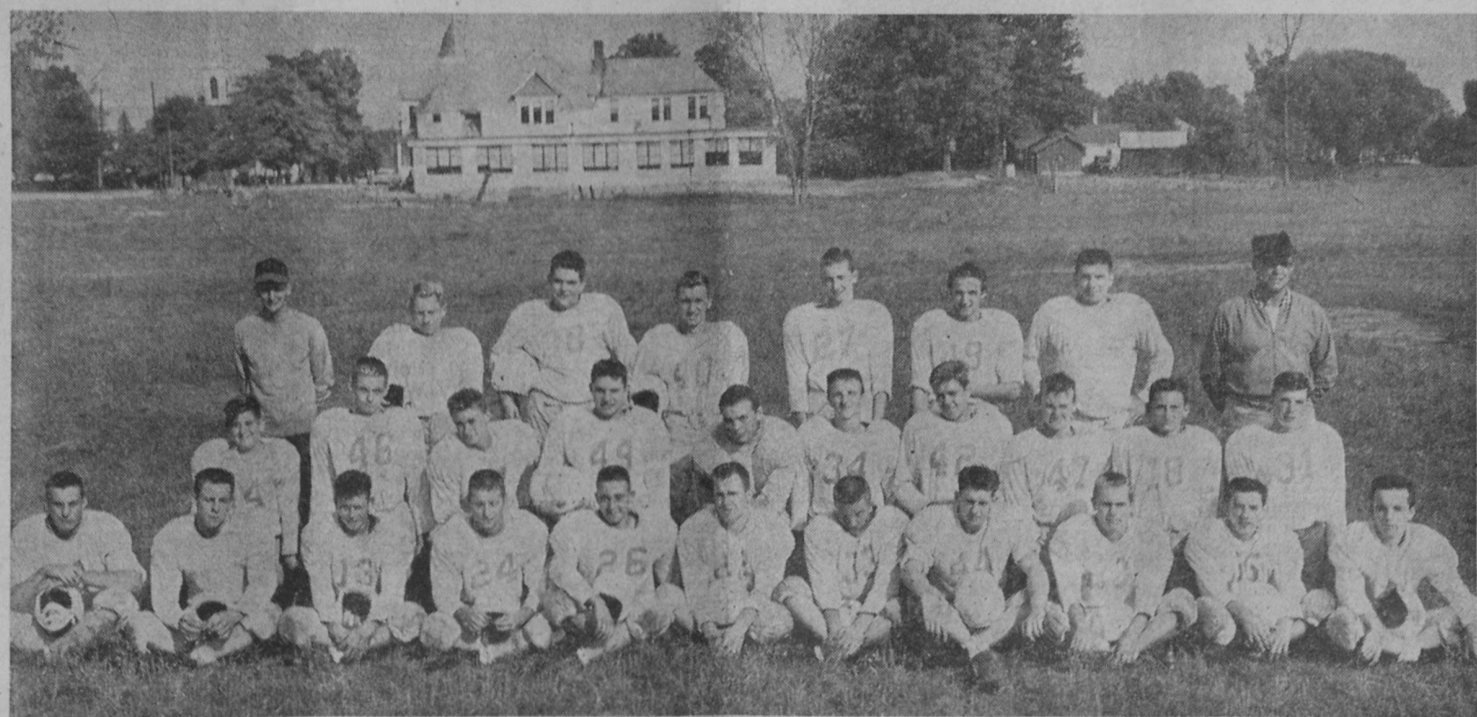

Speaking before local Kiwanians, Congressman Cederberg discussed happenings in the 84th Congress which included taxation, social security, highway program and the new military reserve bill.

Since his visit here last fall, Congressman Cederberg has visited four European countries as a member of a house subcommittee inspecting defenses in England, France, Germany and Spain. He said that any country attacking in that direction would get a "rugged reception."

He predicted that in next year's session a highway program would be passed. He said that this program probably would be a combination of the proposed bonding system and tax set-up as a sensible and reasonable compromise.

Later in the afternoon the congressman met with Iosco County citizens at the county building.

Mr. and Mrs. George Burnette and family of Ypsilanti spent the week-end here visiting relatives.

Sign $775,000 Issue of Tawas School Bonds

Two members of the Tawas Area Board of Education, Randall M. Fox, president, and Walter Niles, secretary, left Wednesday for Chicago where they will sign bonds for financing of the new Tawas Area Junior and Senior High School.

The bonds, amounting to $775,000, were recently purchased by Halsey-Stuart and Company of Chicago, the successful bidders. The sale followed the successful school bonding election of last May, when Tawas Area school electors voted in favor of construction of the new $835,000 junior and senior high school.

During the past several months initial preparations for construction have been underway at the site of the new school. This included brushing and clearing the site and preparations for the construction of sewer and water facilities by the City of Tawas.

At Tuesday night's regular meeting of the board, members learned that the increased enrollment forecast two weeks ago was now a fact. According to Superintendent Mick, high school enrollment this year is 402 students, an increase of 16 over last year.

A breakdown of the enrollment figures is as follows: Ninth grade 122 students, increase of 10; 10th grade 97, decrease of 16; 11th grade 97, increase of five; and 12th grade 86, an increase of 15.

An increase in enrollment has also resulted in the elementary grades. Total enrollments this year reached 823 pupils, while last year there were 609 pupils. A slight decrease was noted in junior high with 156 pupils. Last year there were 164 enrolled.

At Tuesday night's meeting the board authorized the purchase of five flutes, five clarinets, four cornets and four trombones so that the necessary instruments might be developed in the fifth and sixth grades for future band.

The board authorized Edward Rima, band instructor, to offer these instruments to students at school cost where students were interested in purchasing them in a trial period.

The board authorized the purchase of an eight-band Victor adding machine and calculator. This machine will be available for work experience with students in the office practice class as well as being used in the office of the superintendent.

The purchase of a Bell and Howell movie projector to replace the one at the Alabaster unit was deferred for future checking of prices.

The bid of Num Hardware for material for high school physical education and grade school physical education classes was accepted.

Fire fighting demonstrations, static displays of aircraft, and a F-89D flyover are planned for the morning event.

The Kids' Day program is a nationwide affair sponsored by Kiwanis International. Local Kiwanis groups in cooperation with the air force installations conduct the affair.

Kiwanis clubs of Oscoda, Tawas, Alpena and Bay City are working in close coordination with base officers in setting up the program.

Last year, more than 1,300,000 children were entertained throughout the United States on Kids' Day.

Water Board Sets New Rates Monday

The Tawas City Water Board established water and sewer connection rates for property owners who wish to connect into the new Harris Avenue sewer project outside of the city limits at its meeting Tuesday night. At present the department of public works has completed the sewer as far as the city limits and is now waiting for engineering plans before proceeding beyond that point.

The water board established $225 as the rate for sewer connections on this project outside the city limits. The city's share of this figure would be $75 to cover the cost of the installation of the connection and the Tawas Area School District would retain $150 as its share for construction of the main.

The water board established a 50 percent surcharge over within city limits connecting charge as (See Rates, page eight.)

Services for Mrs. Shattuck Held Saturday

Mrs. Helen Shattuck, wife of Grant N. Shattuck, vice president and cashier of the Peoples State Bank, passed away at her home Wednesday evening. Mrs. Shattuck was well known for her activity in church and religious educational work.

The many persons in Iosco County and elsewhere who know and loved her were shocked and grieved at her sudden death. Mrs. Shattuck's state of health of late had not caused her friends undue alarm, and if she, herself, had cause for concern, she kept her fears well hidden from those closest to her.

Helen Nichols, who was born at Lambertville, Michigan, May 15, 1892. Her father died when she was a baby. In her early girlhood her step-father and mother, the late Mr. and Mrs. Elmon Bills, moved to a farm near Hale. Here she attended school and subsequently finished her high school studies at Plymouth. After training for the teaching profession, she was a successful teacher in the Plymouth schools for a number of years.

Returning to Hale, she married Grant N. Shattuck on June 4, 1919. They resided in that community until about 30 years ago when they came to East Tawas where Mr. Shattuck became cashier of the Peoples State Bank.

Mrs. Shattuck interested herself in the welfare of children at an early period in her life. She served on the board of education, but her deeper interest was in religious instruction. As a consecrated Christian, she worked faithfully in the interests of the community.

The success of the daily Bible schools in the area was due quite largely to Mrs. Shattuck's efforts and planning. The weekly Bible school, wherein children were instructed in the public school for one hour during the week to receive religious instruction in the church of their parents' choice was inaugurated by Mrs. Shattuck. This plan was unique in Michigan for many years and served as a pattern for others to follow.

When World War II took away so many young men and women, Mrs. Shattuck stepped in as the letter writer with a voluminous correspondence. In later years Mrs. Shattuck's service found expression in overseas relief. She secured the names of church pastors in several European countries whose people were in dire need and no one can estimate how many people were recipients of the benefit of her care and work. She enlisted the support (See Obituary, page eight.)

Werth Named Iosco County GOP Chairman

Mayor Elmer Werth of East Tawas was named chairman of the Iosco County Republican Committee at a meeting of county officers and committee members held Monday evening at the county building. Werth has been active in civic affairs for a number of years.

Werth succeeds George Beard of Oscoda who tendered his resignation Monday evening. Beard stated that the reason for his resignation was that he planned to be away during the coming winter. He said that with this early rapidly accelerating activity in the coming political campaign he felt that the committee chairman should be here to take care of the work.

The committee members emphasized approval of the proposed drafting of a Republican candidate for governor and the endorsement of his candidacy before the primary election.

This proposal originated in Wayne County with the idea of preventing more than one candidate on the Republican primary ticket and that candidate be hand picked.

The members of the committee were emphatic in expressing their opinion that all of the Republican electors in the state should have a voice in selecting their candidate for governor.

Christian Science--

The fact that understanding the allness of God, Spirit, frees man from the idolatry of materialism will be set forth at Christian Science services this Sunday.

Keynoting the lesson-sermon entitled "Matter" is the Golden Text from I Corinthians (10:14): "My dearly beloved, flee from idolatry."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following passage will be read (475:3): "To infinite Spirit there is no matter, all is Spirit, divine Principle and its idea."

Scriptural selections will include the following from Isaiah (42:5, 8): "Thus saith the Lord, he that created the heavens, and stretched them out; he that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein: I am the Lord: that is my name; and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images."

ABOUT TOWN ---

A youthful driver appeared before Justice Arthur Goulet recently charged with reckless driving. On the traffic ticket officers placed check marks on other offenses which could have been applicable. When asked how he was going to plead to the charges, the youth answered, "Judge, I plead guilty to the reckless driving charges, but not to those little check marks on the ticket."

Troopers Max Waterbury and Thomas Hebert of the Michigan State Police Post at East Tawas discovered recently that an automobile is not the place to carry a liquid acid-soda type fire extinguisher.

The troopers were called out recently to handle an auto accident. First reports said that a station wagon was burning following a collision and the men took a "Foamite" extinguisher along with them in case it was needed. On their return to Tawas the officers received a call to proceed at once to Oscoda where a breaking and entering had just taken place.

About this time the extinguisher rolled off the back seat, starting the chemical reaction inside the metal cylinder. Within a few seconds the interior of the police car and the troopers were covered with a white, foamy liquid from the extinguisher. Stopping momentarily at the post, the officers dumped the still foaming extinguisher on the front lawn and proceeded to Oscoda, "looking like snowmen," as the desk man put it.

The Rev. and Mrs. Ernest Ross of Tawas City were proud grandparents this week. Their 20th grandchild was born September 10 to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Morin (nee Eunice Ross). She has been named Cheryl Ann. Of the Ross grandchildren, 14 are boys and six, girls.

Have you ever seen an oblong tomato? Just such a tomato, grown on the Sherman Farm in Wilber Township, was brought into The Tawas Herald office this week. The tomato measured 7 1/4 inches long and 4 1/2 inches wide.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Moeller and Mrs. Ernest Moeller attended the funeral of a relative in Midland on Saturday. They also visited relatives in Bay City on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Musolf of Bay City spent Thursday and Friday with Julius Musolf Sr. and other relatives.

Mrs. Lewis Braden was in Bay City and Midland on Friday for medical attention. Her son, Howard Braden, brought her home on Sunday.

Do you want to be well dressed? Are your clothes becoming shabby and fashion-right or do you have a closet full of clothes, but never just the right thing at the right time? Home demonstration groups will consider the matter of "Good Taste in Dress" in their first fall lesson in October.

Anyone planning to join a home demonstration group this year should be sure to get her plans and arrangements made in September so she will not miss out on this first lesson that promises to be most helpful.

New groups are being organized in several communities, just call the Cooperative Extension Service office, FO 2-3751, and we will help you find the group closest to you. Do it today.

Do you do home sewing—for yourself or for your children? Requests were received for instruction in making clothes for children from garments no longer useful to grown ups. A class is being organized to teach the subject of make-overs for children and we call it, "Togs for Tots."

You may ask to take part in this workshop whether or not you belong to a home demonstration group.

This class organization meeting will be in very early October followed by three days of construction with guidance of an instructor from Michigan State University. There is no charge. All you need do is let us know you want to come and bring your sewing equipment and garments to be made over. Let us know right away.

How are your collections for making winter bouquets or arrangements coming along? Please do not neglect collecting materials with which to work. A list of suggestions was sent to group members, but if you need one now, please ask and it will be sent to you.

The lesson on arrangements from dry materials will be the second one presented this year.

Attending council meeting on September 6 were Mrs. Ben Gahler, Mrs. Donald MacDonald, Mrs. Harold Hammond, Mrs. Herman Drengberg, Mrs. Charles Atwell, Mrs. John Hattois, Mrs. William Sheffer, Mrs. Glenn Peters and Mrs. Marvin Davenport.

It was definitely decided to have two training bouquets, one from 11 to 3 o'clock in the daytime and another in the evening. In this way we hope to make it possible for any group of women to participate in the program if they wish to do so.

The council members asked for more time to discuss the plot book project with group members, inasmuch as many groups have not met this fall.

Next meeting will be December 5 at 1:00 p. m., at Grant Township Hall.

Program booklets are now available for members at the Cooperative Extension Service office. This year each person will purchase her own booklet for the reason that council funds will not cover their cost.

Squash—good to eat, and good for you. One-half cup of deep orange squash will provide the vitamin A needed for a whole day. Other nutrients are vitamin B1, riboflavin, niacin, vitamin C, calcium, phosphorus and a little iron.

Many persons like the acorn shaped squash with deep ridges in the skin because each one makes two servings. When these squash are good, they are really good, but often times they are stringy. Two others, butternut and buttercup, are less likely to give that trouble and are of excellent quality. Butternut has a very small seed cavity, is bright orange, dry and smooth. Buttercup is dark orange color and thick and dry when cooked. Baked or cooked, these squash are wonderfully tasty mashed with milk and melted butter added.

Gross National Product
The gross national product (the value of goods and services produced by the nation) ran at an annual rate of $385,000,000 in the second quarter of this year.

"Hot Flashes Stopped" or strikingly relieved

In 63-80%* of cases in doctors' tests

If you're miserable from the "hot flashes," and accompanying irritable, restless feelings of "change of life"—you may be suffering unnecessarily!

For... in tests by doctors... Lydia Pinkham's Compound and Tablets brought relief from such functionally-caused suffering to 63% and 80% (respectively) of the women tested! Complete or striking relief!

Yes! Research has proved these medicines thoroughly modern in action... has shown you where to look for relief from those distressing, nervous, "out of sorts" feelings of mid-life "change"!

So... get Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—or new, improved Tablets with added iron! (Wonderful, too, for the functional pains of menstrual periods.)

It acts through a woman's sympathetic nervous system to relieve distress of those awful "heat waves"!

Regional Library Source of Material for Club Programs

Iosco-Arenac Regional Library is now ready to serve the many clubs and organizations throughout the two counties with numerous interesting materials for programs.

This year, in addition to books, periodicals, film strips and records, the library is participating in a film service with 13 other libraries of Michigan.

Through the cooperation of the libraries and the Michigan State University, Iosco-Arenac Regional Library will have available four films each month.

The following films will be available from September 16 through October 14:

Morning Star, color, 35 minutes—The Southwest. Pictures a 52-day journey of sheep herders in Arizona from winter to summer pastures.

Atomic Alert, black and white, 10 minutes—Shows basement survival shelter and children at school during atomic attack.

On October 14 through October 21, the library will have:

News Magazine of the Screen, black and white, 20 minutes.

On October 21 until November 18, the following will be available:

Man and his Culture, black and white, 17 minutes—How cultures are studied, their similarities and differences, how they are handed down and how they are changed.

South Africa—Riches of the Veldt, black and white, 20 minutes—Life and industries in the Union of South Africa today.

Families First, black and white, 15 minutes—Presents simply and powerfully the effects of good and mediocre family life on growing boys and girls.

Hunting the Alaskan Brown Bear, color, 46 minutes—A spring hunting trip for the largest carnivorous animals in the world.

Films will be loaned on a 24-hour basis. A 16 millimeter projector will be available after the middle of October.

Complete programs for the year are being sent to all organization chairmen this week. It is hoped the program committees will make good use of this service. Program chairmen wishing to use films should write or call the Iosco-Arenac Regional Library Office, County Building, Tawas City.

NOW AN ALL-GLASS LIVING ROOM

Adding another room to your home, and a novel, useful, and an inexpensive one at that, can be easy according to a leading greenhouse manufacturer. If you'd like to have a play place, game room, recreation, sun and utility room at a cost that is considerably less than that of conventional construction, "Do it with glass and save."

To back up their ideas that you do not have to be a millionaire to meet today's needs for more living space, a new line of glass enclosures has been designed especially for diversified home use.

Featured will be the "living" room, an all glass and aluminum structure built in "lean-to" style. It is simply erected against the side of your home or any other existing building to form a convenient adjunct for immediate or future expansion. The "living" room is furnished completely prefabricated of specially alloyed rust and corrosion resistant aluminum. There will also be models of clear heart California redwood.

Although designed for "do it yourself" erection, those who are tired of doing it themselves would be advised to turn the job over to a handyman, or anyone who can use a screw driver and open end wrench. Those who know aluminum will be interested in the fact that the design of the special aluminum extrusions used in the structure were developed over a period of years.

The glass "living" room, while resembling the greenhouse, will embody many new features deemed desirable for structures housing humans. These will include jalousies for extra ventilation, special roof panes for admitting ultra-violet, automatic heat and ventilation, and a system of shading. Screens will be available for all ventilator and door openings.

When compared to building of conventional construction, the cost of a unit is surprisingly low. An all aluminum and glass enclosure enveloping approximately 150 square feet of living area would average less than $800 completely erected or under $65 per square foot of ground covered. Estimates on low cost homes in many localities average more than $12 per square foot. Then there are many advantages that a completely glassed in structure has over one of standard construction.

As a sun, recreation and game room there is no limit on the many uses. Ample space is provided for lounging chairs, serving tables, ping pong and other game equipment. There is always a handy corner for the television set, too.

It is a spot where the kids can play safely in the health-giving sun rays, even on the coldest winter day. Better yet, it can well be a place of mutual interest and enjoyment that will bring the family closer together.

Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin (left) welcomes West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer to Moscow for five days of talks aimed at establishing diplomatic relations. Adenauer flew in to discuss unification of Germany and the release of 200,000 German prisoners as part of his terms for dealing with Russia. The question of the POWs led to a bitter exchange of words between the two countries' leaders as Nazi troop atrocities in Russia during World War II were discussed.

Earl-Wright

In a double ring ceremony at the Alabaster Community Church Saturday evening, Miss Jo Ann Wright became the bride of Read C. Earl.

The 7 o'clock candlelight ceremony was read by the Rev. C. W. Symons in the presence of 150 guests. Parents of the bridal couple are Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Earl of Tawas City.

A ballerina length gown of tiered net and Chantilly lace tulle over white satin was worn by the bride. Her fingertip veil, edged with Chantilly lace, was adorned with seed pearls and beads. She carried a bridal bouquet of red roses and was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Ila Mae Armistead of Whittemore was maid of honor. She wore a pale blue nylon ballerina length gown and carried yellow daisy chrysanthemums.

Miss Bula Mae Earl of Detroit, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid and chose a coral nylon net over taffeta gown, ballerina length. She carried lime tinted chrysanthemums.

Duane Wright, brother of the bride, was best man, assisted by James McCulloch of Detroit.

Kay and Constance Earl, nieces of the groom, dressed in white net gowns over taffeta, were flower girls.

Gary Wright, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Ushers were James Wright, brother of the bride, and Clare and Roger Earl, brothers of the groom.

Keith Laidler of Owosso sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." Accompanist was Mrs. George Leslie.

The mother of the bride wore a gray suit and a pink carnation corsage. Her grandmother, Mrs. Lena Rouiller, wore a navy blue print dress and had a corsage of white carnations.

The groom's mother wore an aqua nylon dress with a pink carnation corsage.

A reception followed in the church parlors.

Out of town relatives were present from Detroit, Pontiac, Lincoln Park, Flint, Owosso, Grayling, Whittemore and Ohio.

On their return from a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and other points in New York and Canada, they will make their home in Tawas City.

Home Demonstration Council Met Tuesday Night

Isoco Home Demonstration Council held its program planning meeting at Grant Township Hall Tuesday evening with 10 women present. The meeting opened with a report from the chairman, Mrs. Marvin Davenport, on the Homemakers Conference which she attended. She stated that if each HDA member donated a dime toward the fund to pay a delegate's way, it would more than help defray expenses.

There was a report on the district camp that was held this summer at Hardwood Lake and was very successful.

A discussion was held about the feasibility of having a pict book printed for Isoco County. Members were told that the last one was printed 20 years ago. The HDA, 4-H and agricultural groups would share in this project.

Rally day will be held October 19 in Ogemaw County, the exact place will be announced later. Isoco County HDA groups will be asked to make identification tags. Mrs. Donald MacDonald and Mrs. Davenport were appointed to this committee.

The meeting was then turned over to Miss Dorothy Scott. Lesson sheets were passed out and future dates were checked. Miss Scott stated that Isoco County will be a trial county in the Home Industries program. Rural women will learn industries that will enable them to help defray household expenses.

It was decided to hold daytime leaders classes starting at 11:00 and end at 3:00 p. m. with a box lunch at noon.

Those present were Mrs. Ben Gabler, Mrs. Donald MacDonald of Laidlawville; Mrs. C. Attwell and Mrs. H. Drengberg of Hale; Mrs. Marvin Davenport and Mrs. Betty Hammond of Tawas City; Mrs. William Sheffer, Mrs. John Hattois and Mrs. Naureen Peters of South Mills, and Miss Dorothy Scott, home demonstration agent, of East Tawas.

Mackinac Mac Serves the Huron Region In More Ways than One...

Besides providing dependable, year 'round freight service, Mackinac Mac is helping to build and develop our Northeastern area. He has located seven new industries along the Huron Route during the past several months... and he's working on additional prospects all the time.

Sure, he's helping himself but he is helping you too by doing something constructive about boosting the economy of Northeastern Michigan. Also, don't forget that he pays a lot of Federal, State and local taxes—taxes on his operations and roadway. Some of this tax money helps support area schools, and ironically, helps subsidize Mackinac Mac's competition.

County Agricultural Agent

Thursday, September 22—Northeastern Hereford Calf Association yearling sale at West Branch.

Tuesday, October 4—Sheep day at yards in West Branch. Ram truck and breeding ewes available, as well as lamb pool.

Thursday, October 20—Northeastern Michigan Hereford Calf Association at West Branch.

"What's that lamb over there? How would you grade him?" asked Ernest Bellen of Burleigh Township. "It's a cull!" I said and he agreed. That was the extent of our grading his flock until John Harrington paid Ernie and Gerald a visit last week on a grading demonstration. It was then we learned the finer points that spells $1 and $2 difference between a prime or choice or good market lamb. The sheep raisers present all agreed that just looking is not an accurate way to grade lambs for market. The amount of finish or fleshing over the ribs, backbone and loin must be felt to distinguish between a prime or choice or good market lamb.

Many of our sheep raisers rely on weight of the lamb as to whether or not a lamb is ready for market. That is erroneous. A prime lamb can weigh from 60 pounds to 120 pounds depending on the amount of fleshing again. Normally, a lamb weighing over 105 pounds is penalized sometimes as much as 10 cents per pound. The reason? John Harrington, the grader from Michigan Livestock, explained that the loins, legs of lamb, chops, etc., are much too large for their purposes.

An evening program at Reno Township Hall had 13 of Isosco County's sheep raisers in attendance to hear the lamb pool discussed. The new set-up at the railroad yards in West Branch has proven to be an efficient operation. The cost for grading, weighing, feeding and shipping by direct rail to New York is 45 cents per head. That is the total cost to the farmer. Two cents of that is returned to the sheep and lamb raiser for its expenses of advertising, etc.

Another piece of business our lamb raisers attended to was the election of Isosco County members to the marketing association board of directors. Each of the seven counties involved has four members on the board of directors, two for two years and two for one year. Following this pattern allows for only one-half of the board of directors being elected each year and thus provides some continuity and experience on the board from year to year. Isosco County's two year members as the result of the elections were Martin Siegrist and George Lake. George was also elected our representative on the extension committee of the association. The one year members elected were John Cobb of Reno Township and Edward Robinson of Reno Township.

Recommendations made by the sheep raisers to the county agricultural agent as to their educational program for 1956 included a combination all-day tour. These suggestions will be presented to the advisory board at its September program planning meeting.

Members present on the tour and at the meeting included: Ernest Bellen, Gerald Bellen, Jacob Dodder, Nelson Ostrander, Mr. and Mrs. John Cobb, Lyle Robinson, Martin Mrook, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Black, Andy Matthews, Gwynn Clary, Glen Miller, Mr. and Mrs. George Lake and Gordon French.

At this time your agent is meeting with county agricultural agents from all over the United States on the campus of Michigan State University. One of the topics that will be given considerable thought and discussion is "how your Cooperative Extension Service can help the small farm operator." It is with genuine pleasure that your agricultural agent looks forward to the chance of discussing mutual problems with fellow agents.

Calendar—Thursday, September 22—District Leaders Training School at Standish.

"I've lost my check." This word came from Rose Nardizzi, 4-H Club member at Hale. So we stopped payment at the bank and time passed. One morning a phone call from the bank revealed that a Mrs. Smith from Detroit had sent a check to them, 21 cents in change, and an insured parcel receipt hoping they would be able to locate the owner. Explanation said she had found these items in a change purse while on her vacation.

There are some very fine people in the world, aren't there? By now Rose has her check and will surely get it cashed before the 30 days are up.

Six girls, members of Friendship 4-H Club, with Mrs. Phillip Waits as project leader, will be canning right away. Tomatoes, pears, peaches, plums and apples are now in season and the girls can easily complete a first project of 20 or more quarts this fall.

We think this is the first project to be started this fall. If there are others, how about letting us have news about what you are doing? This column has plenty of room for news of your doings.

In addition to a canning project, Friendship 4-H Club members will do clothing, electrical and livestock projects this coming year. Leaders include Mrs. Watts, Mrs. Alton Durant, Mrs. Eugene Coates and the young people hope that Olen Herriman will continue as livestock project leader. How about it, Olen?

Laidlawville 4-H Club met this week and we hear Franklin Bischoff has accepted community leadership. By next week the reporter should have sent us information about projects to be carried, leaders and a list of the officers-to-be in 1956. We will share the news with you.

We watch the mailbag for news from Hale Happy Hustlers, Reno Topnotchers, Burleigh Wizards and Alabaster-Whitney 4-H Clubs, too. Remember, an officer's training school is planned for this month. Who is to come?

September 22 is the date for our district leaders training meeting. Will anyone who can and would like to attend this school please let us know. Transportation will be planned accordingly.

of all creeds and nationalities in her efforts. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon from the home. The Rev. Samuel A. the rate for water connections on this project. At present the city charges water patrons a $50 connection fee, plus material. The school district would be reimbursed the surcharge.

At the same time the water board established a 50 percent surcharge as sewer and water rates for users outside of the city limits.

When completed this project will extend to the site of the new Tawas Area Junior and Senior High School. Reginald Bublitz, superintendent of public works, said that Harris Avenue would be opened to a limited amount of traffic until work again gets underway.

Members of the water board expressed the opinion that surcharges for outside of the city users were necessary due to the fact that Tawas City taxpayers were paying for the capital investment of the disposal plant and municipal water system.

In other business taken up at the meeting Monday night, the board passed the following resolution: On existing sewers in Tawas City where frontage is still unpaid by October 1, 1955, a current connection charge will be added to the cost when the connection is paid.

The board recommended that the city council start legal action to get the proposed new addition to the water system underway.

This pen and ink sketch by John Myers of Detroit shows a skin diver exploring the sunken hull of the "Sea Gull" on the bottom of Tawas Bay.

SKIN DIVERS EXPLORE LAKE BOTTOMS HERE

Exploration of the bottom of Tawas Bay by two amateur skin divers has revealed the sunken hull of a steam barge which burned and sunk many years ago.

During the past two years, William Elder Jr. of Iosco Beach and John Myers of Detroit have been exploring the bottom of the bay with the use of skin diving equipment. Last year the pair found the hull of the steam barge, "Sea Gull," which is reported to have sunk before the turn of the century.

On investigating the cause of the ship wreck, the youths learned from neighbors and magazine articles that the steam barge caught fire at a dock and was cast drift, floating down to a point near Jerry's Fishing Resort.

Apparently the bottom of the hull dropped out and sank, with the super structure floating a short distance away. Now resting on the lake bottom in about 6 1/2 feet of water, the skin divers said that part of the hull, steel plating and ballast stones were all that remained.

Two weeks ago Elder and Myers went to Alpena where they launched their 14-foot outboard boat and crossed Misery Bay, stopping at Gull Island. There they explored the lake bottom and found the wooden hull of a freighter which had gone down in approximately 25 feet of water.

Spending the night at Sugar Island and later at Thunder Bay Island, the pair found carvings on stone outcroppings. Included were the names of a ship captain and his crew, dated 1879. Other carvings were as recent as 1937.

The two amateur explorers are both college students, Elder attends Pratt Institute at Brooklyn, New York, while Myers is a student at Albion College.

They said their explorations were strictly for their own personal enjoyment.
