Starts Membership Campaign Friday

Friday (April) the 13th—a day which tradition and old wives tales has long established as unlucky—will prove to be a "lucky" day for Tawas. On this day the Tawas Chamber of Commerce starts its annual drive for membership.

The not-so-superstitious board of directors of the chamber of commerce will hold a kick-off breakfast at Ozzie's Restaurant Friday morning starting at 9:30 o'clock.

Immediately following the breakfast, membership salesmen will start a nine-day campaign to sign up every businessman or woman, industrialist, professional man and resort operator in the Tawas area as an active member.

Walter Champion, chamber president, in a pre-drive statement said, "When your membership salesman comes, be ready for him with your check. His time is valuable and he is giving it because he believes in the Tawas Chamber of Commerce and in the community in which we all live and work."

Promoting the Tawas area is the largest single job undertaken by the chamber of commerce and a total of $1,268.07 was expended for advertising in 1955. This included the printing of 15,000 folders and 5,000 smelt and perch run cards, besides advertisements in various publications.

In addition the chamber has a full-time office, continually promoting the area through news releases to 141 newspapers, radio (See Membership, page 8.)

NEW FIRE FIGHTING EQUIPMENT—This new International four-wheel drive truck and pumper went into service in Isoco County last week. Owned and manned by the Michigan Department of Conservation, the truck is equipped with a hydraulic lift plow for cutting fire lines. It is operated from the cab or rear of the truck. Shown inspecting the new equipment is Fire Officer Bert MacGregor and Conservation Officer Arthur Leitze.—Tawas Herald Photo.

1956 Forest Fire Season Here; Use Caution in Isoco Woodlands

Michigan's forest fire season is here. This fact became apparent last Thursday when the first grass fire of 1956 was reported in Tawas City. Although the blaze was brought under control in a few minutes, it might well serve as a notice to all residents in this area that the dangerous fire period is here again and extreme caution must be used when burning grass.

New equipment added by the Michigan Conservation Department will assist greatly in controlling fires in Isoco County this year. A new four-wheel drive truck equipped with a special plow for use in forest fires arrived last week. It is capable of carrying a 300-gallon water supply, with high pressure pump and 190 feet of hose.

The conservation department plans to build a new garage and fire station on M-55 in Tawas City this fall. Scheduled for completion in 1957, the new building will house all conservation department fire equipment and central office.

Fire permit is now necessary in order to burn when the ground is not covered with snow; to start or to have open fire, except for domestic purposes.

Fire permits may be obtained from Bert MacGregor, fire officer, N. O. Sibley at the male Fire Tower and Clifford B. Martin at Seven Mile Fire Tower; key men; Ernest Herzog, Hale Telephone Company, and R. C. Caton, Hale; Howard Hofacer, Osoda; William Fuerst, Whittemore; Conservation Officer Leitze, East Tawas; C. W. Carlson, ranger, and Assistant Ranger Harold Peterson, East Tawas, and United States Forest Service fire towers.

Permits may also be obtained through local fire chiefs or marshals. Fire Chief Fred Musolf is in charge of issuing permits in Tawas City and Chief Edward Lixey in East Tawas.

The conservation department warns that any person who willfully, negligently or carelessly sets a fire which injures or endangers the property of another, may, upon conviction, be assessed a fine of not more than $100 and costs of prosecution or imprisonment for 90 days or both such fine and imprisonment.

The conservation officer said that even if a permit is secured, the permittee shall be liable for all damage to property which may result from burning. Fires should not be set at a time when high winds are blowing and an adequate fire line must be made around the area to be burned. A force of men sufficient to control the fire must be on hand.

Isoco County was very fortunate last year when only 17 fires were handled by the conservation department. This figure does not include fires handled by the United States Forestry Department. However, city and township fire departments in this county were called on to control many unnecessary and costly grass fires which burned out of control.

"By observing state laws and by using good common sense when burning grass or setting camp fires, this record can be improved this year," stated Leitze.

NEW SHOVEL ASSEMBLED—Assembly of a new Bucyrus Erie 110-B electric shovel was completed last week by the United States Gypsum Company at Alabaster. Going into operation for the first time in the company's quarry Friday, the huge shovel can scoop up about seven tons, or about 4 1/2 cubic yards, of gypsum rock at a time. The company also has in operation at its Alabaster plant one other Bucyrus Erie 110-B shovel, a 100-B and a 200-B; three Marion draglines, a 7,400, 7,200 and 360; a Northwest back hoe and a Bay City back hoe. Rock is moved from the quarry by the company's railroad system, powered by four 45-ton diesel locomotives. Company workmen pictured beside the new shovel are Alfred McKiddie, Glenn Furst, K. Uiman, Gordon Redfield, Dick Richards, Nelson Bessey, Waldemar Bischoff and Vaino Gustafson.—Tawas Herald Photo.

Isoco Red Cross Drive Nears Quota Goal

"The 1956 Red Cross campaign has been very successful, thanks to the wonderful response from business, industry, clubs, churches and individual contributors who were contacted by our many legal workers," stated Mrs. Charles H. Hill, fund drive chairman, Monday.

With the few known additional contributions left to be included, especially that of the Wurtsmith Air Force Base which promised a substantial percentage of its United Chest drive to be conducted next month, the highest quota in Isoco County history will be met. A final figure cannot be determined until the air base drive is completed.

Direct mail response netted $674.86, the largest single contributor being the Anderson Coach Company of East Tawas.

Mrs. Hill said there were many places missed in the house-to-house canvass, in some cases several blocks, and in view of the recent Red Cross aid, it is urgently asked that all those inadvertently missed and still wishing to contribute, forward their money or checks to the drive chairman.

Checks should be made out to the American Red Cross. All such contributions will be acknowledged. Send contributions to Mrs. Charles H. Hill, fund drive chairman, 116 East Lincoln Street, East Tawas.

The following figures include funds collected during the house-to-house canvass and business places in each of the communities.

East Tawas	$1,132.27
Tawas City	777.03
Osoda	500.08
Hale	170.45
Whittemore	49.86
Indian Lake	10.00
Sand Lake	8.00
Tawas Township	54.00
Alabaster Township	99.50
Grant and Sherman Townships	148.50
Burling Township	42.00
Reno Township	41.00
Wilber and Baldwin Townships	not known at yet.

Isoco County can be justly proud of its support to the American Red Cross.

Pedestrian Injured; Three Cars Involved in Crash

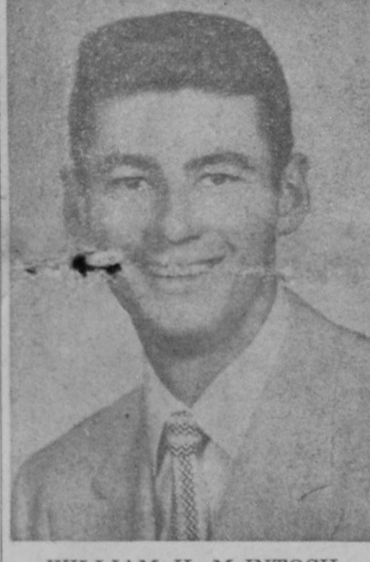

A 21-year-old Detroit, Cecilia Chapman, was treated for shock and taken to Standish hospital after being struck by a car driven by Leonard D. Grezesak, Route No. 1, West Branch.

The accident occurred last Saturday night about one-half mile south of Whittemore on M-65. Grezesak stopped his car in the traffic lane to offer assistance to the injured pedestrian.

Shortly after the accident a car driven by Robert D. Messler, Bay City, pulled up along side the Grezesak car. Ted Maday of Sterling, traveling south on M-65, who was apparently unaware of the accident, slammed into the rear of the Grezesak car, glanced off and struck the other car.

All drivers were ordered to report to the East Tawas state police post this week for further questioning.

JOIN THE TAWAS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

This Friday morning, April 13, marks the start of the annual Tawas Chamber of Commerce membership drive. All businessmen, industrialists, professional men and resort operators are urged to join and pay their dues in this worthwhile organization. Twelve months out of the year the chamber of commerce works for the betterment of these two communities, Tawas City and East Tawas, and only with the complete cooperation of everyone in the area can this organization operate to the full extent.

The chamber of commerce, comprised of businessmen from both communities, has done another outstanding job of promoting this area during the past year. The results of this organization's promotional work shows up directly in the pockets or coffers of every business place in Tawas, large or small.

Much can be said about the chamber's successful year of 1955, but the proof in the pudding is realized when one compares sales tax figures for Northeastern Michigan Huron Shore counties from 1950 to 1954. All other counties increased 26 percent. . . . Isosco County had an increase of 57 percent. The Tawas Chamber of Commerce was responsible for much of that increase in the Tawas area.

When you stop to evaluate all the reasons why the chamber of commerce needs and deserves your support, it boils down to one main point. The principal commodity "sold" by the chamber is promotion. . . . successful businessmen know the value of advertising. . . . so in order to have an aggressive, active chamber of commerce, the support of everyone is needed, both financially and physically.

Consideration with Air Rifles Asked by Chief George Ruth

An appeal to parents to properly instruct youngsters in the use of air rifles was made this week by George W. Ruth, Tawas City chief of police. Chief Ruth said that without the proper leadership and instruction, these guns can be dangerous.

During the past few days the police department has received several complaints regarding boys shooting song birds and other small wild life, apparently through willful and careless use of air rifles.

In several cases property has been damaged or destroyed to the extent that several hundred dollars will be spent for replacement and repair.

According to a report from Chief Ruth, parents are liable for civil damage caused by any minor under 18 years of age for malicious or willful destruction of property.

WALTER SCHUHMACHER

FRIDAY, APRIL 13, 1956, is a Lucky Day for every businessman or woman, industrialist, professional man or woman, resort operator, and, in fact, every citizen of the Tawas. On that day, the board of directors of the Tawas Chamber of Commerce is starting off its annual membership drive. During the next nine days they plan to contact every business place, every professional office, and every industrial firm in the area for the dues which make the chamber of commerce activities possible. When your membership salesman comes, be ready for him with your check. His time is valuable and he is giving it because he believes in the Tawas Chamber of Commerce and in the community in which we all live and work.

TAWAS CHAMBER of COMMERCE MEMBERSHIP DAY

C. of C. ACTIVITIES IN 1955

The success and growth of any community hinges upon the activities of its civic and community groups. The Tawas are extremely fortunate in having a chamber of commerce that is working the year around for the community—never missing a bet to promote the best interests of this growing resort and industrial area. With a full-time office, the Tawas Chamber of Commerce is continually working for everyone—and everyone should be working for and with the chamber of commerce. Below are listed some of the many and varied activities carried on during the past year by the Tawas Chamber of Commerce and the organizations within:

CHAMBER of COMMERCE

Operated booth at Detroit Sports and Boat Show; distributed 10,000 resort and area folders; distributed 5,000 Silver Valley folders; distributed 5,000 perch and smelt cards; erected directional signs to points of interest in the area; participated in the Fourth of July parade, regatta and fireworks; aided in promoting the National Class Great Lakes championship regatta, Michigan Short Wave Operator's annual meeting, and Michigan Sports Car Rally; participated with East Tawas and Tawas City in two-page advertisements in East Michigan Vacation Guide; wrote 49 letters of welcome and congratulations on business improvements; sent out 141 weekly releases to newspaper, radio and TV stations, plus last minute weather reports; handled average of 150 inquiries weekly during summer months; wrote 199 letters in answer to inquiries in 33 days; participated in promotion of Tawas Perchville (3,300 registered visiting fisherman in January and February) and telecast over Wide World program on NBC on New Year's Day.

BUSINESSMEN'S GROUPS

Tawas City and East Tawas both have active businessmen's groups, which are closely affiliated and work with the Tawas Chamber of Commerce. Each group functions on promotions within its own community, leaving the area and promotion work for the larger chamber of commerce.

SILVER VALLEY

Silver Valley Winter Sports Committee of the Tawas Chamber of Commerce reported the most successful season in history this year. The largest number of winter sports fans visited the area during the 10 weeks of operation. Improvements in the area included erection of a new chalet, clearing of new areas and erection of new tows. Income from toboggan rentals and ski tow rentals and concession paid all operating costs and much of the improvement cost this year. More improvements are planned during the coming summer for next season. Tenth annual East Detroit Lutheran Caravan brought more than 1,500 to the area one week-end. Queen program added to the finances of the winter sports program. Two groups of Detroit Explorer Scouts, six high schools and many other church and local groups took advantage of the added facilities at Silver Valley.

RESORT OWNERS

Reactivation of the resort owners group is being planned. This group will take care of problems peculiar to its own business, thus clearing the chamber of commerce for other activities, as is the case with the businessmen's groups.

MORE PERSONS HERE—MORE MONEY SPENT

In the five-year period, 1949 to 1954, the increase in population in the county was four percent—in the Tawas, the increase was eight percent. Camping permits in the East Tawas State Park increased 254 percent in a 10-year period, from 945 in 1945 to 3,349 in 1954—and still growing. Campers, picnickers and bathers using the park in 1954 totaled 381,945—increasing nearly 40 percent in 1955. Average increases in sales tax figure for Northeastern Michigan Huron Shore counties from 1950-1954 was 26 percent—the increase during the same period in Isosco County was 57 percent. Average of all other counties was 21 percent increase. Bank deposits in the Tawas increased from $622,000 in 1940 to $6,611,709 in 1955. WHAT GREATER PROOF IS THERE OF THE NEED OF AN ACTIVE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO HELP PROMOTE THE COMMUNITY AND ITS ACTIVITIES.

Christian Science Services Sunday

The scientific unity of God and man, as taught by Christ Jesus, will be set forth at Christian Science services Sunday.

Keynoting the lesson-sermon entitled "Doctrine of Atonement" is the Golden Text from John (3:17): "God sent not His Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through Him might be saved."

The following passage will be among those read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Atonement is the ex-emplication of man's unity with God, whereby man reflects divine Truth, Life, and Love, Jesus of Nazareth taught and demonstrated man's oneness with the Father, and for this we owe him endless homage (18:1-5).

Readings from the Bible will include the following (Luke 1:68): "Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for He hath visited and redeemed His people."

April 6, 1956.

The Tawas Herald, Tawas City, Michigan

Gentleman:

We would like to express our appreciation for the publicity which you recently gave Tawas Hospital in connection with a report from Dr. Albert E. Heustis, state health commissioner.

Sincerely,

Sister M. Rita Louise, Administrator.

George Argentin of Los Angeles, California, thought he had an oil gusher in his yard when black stuff bubbled up through his front lawn. After an estimated 300 barrels had spouted, it was found to be from a broken oil pipeline belonging to the Standard Oil Company. The "gusher" was pinched off by a company crew.

A preliminary survey, conducted by the American Automobile Association, showed that only 7,482 pedestrians died in 1955, 400 fewer than in the previous year. In 1937, 15,500 pedestrians were killed, an all-time record.

Late oat varieties did well last year in Isoco County, but that does not mean they will make a good crop again in 1956.

Last year was a particularly good oats year and most varieties did well. This year farmers would be wise to select oats that have proved best for Isoco County.

Jackson oats, well-suited to Isoco County, has been a top yielder in Central Michigan. There were 100-bushel yields last year.

A good supply of certified Jackson oats seed is available and it is good business to use certified seed. Certified seed is a pure variety, is free of weed seeds and has high germination.

Information about other oat varieties is included in the current issue of the Michigan Crop Improvement Association certified seed directory. I have a copy for you in the office. Let me know if you want one.

Like most youngsters, the first two weeks in the life of a baby chick is a critical time.

Close attention to chicks during this time will pay off in extra profits in the months ahead through more chicks saved and in better health.

These tips on baby chick care are from Harry Hathaway, extension poultry specialist at Michigan State University.

Prepare the brooder house well in advance of the arrival of the chicks. Brooders should be in operation at least a week ahead.

To get the chicks off to a good start, provide plenty of water and feeder space. Waterers and feeders should be close enough to the brooder so that chicks needing heat can get plenty to eat at the same time. It is a good idea to put a guard around the brooder to hold the chicks near heat, water and feed for seven days.

For the water supply use two or three one-gallon waterers for each 100 chicks for the first two or three weeks. After that, switch to automatic waterers, if possible.

The baby chicks should not have to look into a feeder right away so put feed on paper or cardboard for the first 24 hours. That makes it easy for them to eat. After that, provide one linear inch of feeding space for each chick.

Temperatures should be regulated to make the chicks comfortable. They should not be panting; neither should they be crowding to keep warm.

When you need help on your forestry program, you naturally want to be sure that you get the best possible advice. But how can you tell, without knowing the advisor personally?

Well, under Michigan's new Forestry Registration Act, you will be able to tell, according to T. D. Stevens of Michigan State's forestry department.

Under this act, which was just passed a year ago, qualified foresters will be able to register with a state board of registration, and then will be permitted to call themselves "registered foresters."

The requirements for this registration have been designed so that only men who have a thorough knowledge of forestry and its purposes will receive the board's permission to use the "registered" title.

To qualify, a man can use one of three methods. First, he can graduate from an approved four-year course in forestry, and then complete two years of actual work in the field that meets the board's standards.

Second, he can pass an examination designed to show that he has the knowledge to get in a four-year college course, and complete four years of actual experience.

Third, he can have at least 10 years of experience within the last 15 years.

The law also states that after five years from the date it goes into effect, only an approved four-year college course will qualify a man as a registered forester.

This law is designed to protect you against inexperienced and incompetent foresters. So look for the registered label when you have a forestry problem.

The very first ear of corn or tomato you pick from your garden tastes better than any of the others. Especially if your neighbor's crops are not ripe yet. If you sell some of your garden produce, those early crops bring a premium that make a little extra effort well worth it.

John Carey, extension horticulture specialist at Michigan State University, says there are some tricks of the trade that will give you a jump of several days over other gardeners.

One of the standard methods of getting plants off to an early start is to start them in greenhouses, or coldframes. This method is within the reach of many gardeners now because plastic can be used instead of glass, lowering the cost.

Most of us are familiar with the transplanting of tomatoes, cabbages, melons and similar plants. We do not realize, however, that sweet corn, snap beans, beets and many other vegetables can be transplanted if they are started in baskets or plant bands to protect their roots.

Another trick is to soak sweet corn, pea and bean seed for a day or two before planting. These seeds should be planted as soon as the tiny sprouts can be seen. Take care not to injure the sprouts.

Most early gardeners protect their plants from frost with hot-caps, hot-tents, or other coverings.

One more tip. Use early varieties in an operation of this type. Making early plantings of a naturally late variety is like putting high octane airplane gas in a Model T Ford and expecting high performance.

WHAT DO YOU MEAN, "JUST FACE LIFTING"?

EVERY NOW AND THEN, we run across someone who seems to think that 1956 cars do not offer anything really new—just a little face lifting from the year before.

We won't try to speak for the automobile industry. But we certainly can speak for Buick.

And let us announce in no uncertain terms—it's the newest thing on wheels.

The Styling is New

Sure, it looks like a Buick. But it has a new V-proved grille that says 1956 and no mistake. The hood's new—the fender ports are new—the sweepers are new—and it all adds up to a new sweep-ahead look that ends in a sassy new slant to the rear contours.

But that, friends, is only the beginning.

The 1956 Dynaflo* is New

It introduces what the engineers call "double regeneration"—which means a double-action take-off. It gives you new, split-second response in the first inch of pedal travel—plus the "switch the pitch" at full acceleration, which no one else has yet approached.

The Ride is New

To coil springs on all four wheels, a brawny X-braced frame, and torque-tube drive, the engineers have added deep-oil-shock absorbers to give new softness, new buoyancy, new comfort, and a brand-new "sense of direction" handling response.

The Power is New

All 1956 Buicks have new 322-cubic-inch V8's—with record highs in power and compression—with unique new double "Y" manifolding to step up efficiency—with new carburetor "deicing"

—and a host of other new features to make owning a Buick pure pleasure.

The Thrill is New

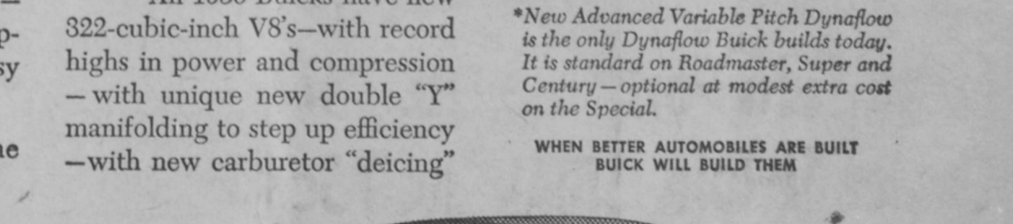

And the surest way for you to find out how right we are, is to sample a 1956 Buick yourself.

As we said before, this is the best Buick yet—by a wide measure—and when you learn the prices we're quoting, you'll know why this Buick is one of the three best sellers in today's market.

It takes a lot more than face lifting to produce such a winner as this.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick built today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Quoting from Harold Brennan's book, "Careers in the Crafts," "The growth of interest in the hand arts at the hobby level has been one of the most striking developments of recent times."

Because a number of Isoco County women have expressed the same thoughts as are reflected by Mr. Brennan...

It is our aim to help women develop a lasting interest in a craft which will give them a satisfying and worthwhile "hobby" and which may not develop into a home industry.

Very likely, Miss McSparran will tell about progress that is underway in several other Michigan counties...

Who will want to come? A special invitation is extended to anyone who has a recreational responsibility in an organization or group to which he belongs...

Bring, also, your husband or wife, as the case may be. Some activities will be for couples. Young people as well as adults can have a wonderful time together.

The Home Demonstration Hobby Night program has provided us with more information about the event.

The hobby theme is being divided in four classes. Each person will have to decide which one best fits the hobby or hobbies she plans to exhibit.

They are: Home industries, (basket weaving, braided rugs, decorated cakes, stools); recreation or relaxation, (photography, plants, stenciling, collections, such as dolls, cup and saucer); home decoration, (wallpapering, painting or mounting pictures for the home, hooked rugs, upholstering, making slip covers, lampshades); feeding and clothing the family, (beautiful darns, cake decorating).

No doubt you will think of many other possibilities either as a result of a home demonstration lesson or other learning experience.

It will help everyone to better understand your hobby if you write a short statement telling what it is and means to you, how you started and maybe what you hope to do further.

Mrs. Paul Koepke was hostess to seven friends and neighbors Thursday afternoon and following a lively discussion about organizing a home demonstration group in the community...

In the meantime other women in the community will be invited to help organize this new group with about 12 or 14 members.

Mrs. Leonard Bouchard, a long-time member of Laidlawville group, has been helping the women learn more about what home demonstration groups are, what they do and how it is done.

She will continue to help sponsor the development of a new group.

East Tawas Garden Club Studies Bird Life

What does doing a "craft" really mean to you? Are you interested in craft as a personal hobby, or perhaps as a source of additional income?

Exploring these possibilities is the reason for a "Craft Appreciation" discussion meeting planned for every Isoco County woman who has a desire to learn an interesting craft.

Miss Pauline McSparran, home industries specialist at Michigan State University, is coming to talk with us about this subject.

She will use displays to illustrate many points of her discussion.

Quoting from Harold Brennan's book, "Careers in the Crafts," "The growth of interest in the hand arts at the hobby level has been one of the most striking developments of recent times."

This movement has its roots in human need; it offers an outlet to the creative urge that all of us have.

Because a number of Isoco County women have expressed the same thoughts as are reflected by Mr. Brennan, this special meeting has been arranged to begin thinking about crafts, what they are, what they are not, and how we may go about developing and using them here in the county.

It is our aim to help women develop a lasting interest in a craft which will give them a satisfying and worthwhile "hobby" and which may not develop into a home industry.

Very likely, Miss McSparran will tell about progress that is underway in several other Michigan counties. Why not in Isoco County, too? It is up to us.

A time when we can be met Wednesday evening, April 18, at Tawas Township Hall. You are invited and urged to come and help do the "starting."

The recreation training school at Hale Friday evening, April 20, will be a time of fun as well as learning. The committee promises you a good time. There will be a variety of activities from which you will get ideas to use in the meetings which you attend in the months to come.

Who will want to come? A special invitation is extended to anyone who has a recreational responsibility in an organization or group to which he belongs—it may be your home demonstration group, 4-H Club, Farm Bureau, Grange, church, garden club, lodge or any of the others not included in this list.

Bring, also, your husband or wife, as the case may be. Some activities will be for couples. Young people as well as adults can have a wonderful time together. The committee is planning to have part of the time divided so the young folk can play together while the adults do likewise.

The Home Demonstration Hobby Night program has provided us with more information about the event.

The hobby theme is being divided in four classes. Each person will have to decide which one best fits the hobby or hobbies she plans to exhibit. They are: Home industries, (basket weaving, braided rugs, decorated cakes, stools); recreation or relaxation, (photography, plants, stenciling, collections, such as dolls, cup and saucer); home decoration, (wallpapering, painting or mounting pictures for the home, hooked rugs, upholstering, making slip covers, lampshades); feeding and clothing the family, (beautiful darns, cake decorating).

No doubt you will think of many other possibilities either as a result of a home demonstration lesson or other learning experience.

It will help everyone to better understand your hobby if you write a short statement telling what it is and means to you, how you started and maybe what you hope to do further.

Mrs. Paul Koepke was hostess to seven friends and neighbors Thursday afternoon and following a lively discussion about organizing a home demonstration group in the community...

In the meantime other women in the community will be invited to help organize this new group with about 12 or 14 members.

Mrs. Leonard Bouchard, a long-time member of Laidlawville group, has been helping the women learn more about what home demonstration groups are, what they do and how it is done.

She will continue to help sponsor the development of a new group.

Exchange Vows Saturday at Grace Lutheran Church

A pretty church wedding took place last Saturday afternoon, April 7, at Grace Lutheran Church when Miss Betty Ann Anderson, daughter of Mrs. Russell Anderson of East Tawas, became the bride of Airman First-Class Richard Kauer of Wurtsmith Air Force Base, Oscoda. The groom is a son of Henry Kauer of Maple Heights, Ohio. The double ring service was performed by the Rev. Robert Nelson before an altar banked with white flowers.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Leroy Anderson, wore a waltz length gown of white Chantilly lace with nylon tulle inserts. The skirt was of lace and white satin and the bodice was fashioned with a portrait neckline edged with pearls. The gown featured lace wrist point sleeves. Her veil of silk illusion was secured with a headress of seed beaded white and roses.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors for 75 guests. The bride's table was graced by a tiered wedding cake in white and pink, topped with miniature bride and groom. Miss Eldene Zahara, cousin of the bride, presided. On the punch table was a bride doll and tapers in silver and glass holders. Pale blue and white streamers decorated the gift table.

Community Council Met Last Monday Night The Tawas Community Council held its regular meeting Monday, April 9, at the East Tawas school.

WITH THE IOSCO—

4-H Clubs

By Dorothy Scott
County Agent

Saturday, April 14—Laidlawville 4-H Club open house (postponed from April 4).

Friday, April 20—Recreation Training School, Plainfield Township Rural Agricultural School, Hale, 8:00 p. m.

Monday, April 23—Friendship 4-H Club open house.

May 6—4-H Club Sunday.

4-H Club recreation and community 4-H Club leaders will have loads of fun at the Recreation Training School April 20. They will learn how to use these fun ideas in future meetings of their community 4-H Clubs.

Conducting the event will be the Iosco folk who attended the district recreation school a short time ago: Mrs. Pat Nardizzi, Mrs. Gordon Helmbold, Mrs. Ira Scofield, Mrs. Howard Mott, Mrs. James Mielock, Mrs. Arnold Pomerantz and Mrs. Steve Kolonich.

Do not miss out on a good time, chuck full of ideas. Be present April 20.

Claver Kiddies 4-H Club met April 2 at the Federal Building. Planning for a bake sale was an important project and took much of the club's meeting time. Committees are arranging for the place and date, also finding out what each member can bring to sell. Another idea for earning some money is to gather newspapers.

Reporter Karen Conklin says of their knitting project, "We have now started our knitting project under the supervision of Mrs. Herbert Wendt, who is substituting for Mrs. Elmina Applin while she is away. Mrs. Applin will meet with us beginning next Monday afternoon. We have learned how to cast on and start knitting a square.

"Four new members are Mary Kobs, Ruth Ellen McLean, Nancy Borosch and Sharon Meyers, bringing our membership to 10."

Friendship 4-H Club sewing project members are busy girls these days. Everyone has her material and patterns. Donna Coates did some sewing on her dress and Verna Wehrman is working on a duster. Phyllis Watts has cut out her garment.

Peter Bolen was host to the regular meeting of Alabaster-Whitney Rowers, March 22. One item for discussion was the contest, these boys are 11 to 15 years of age and have been learning safe gun handling practices under the guidance of Hamilton McNichol, Cecil Cabbie and Norman Sibley. Mr. McNichol arranged for us to meet to be held on the rifle range at the airbase, a real privilege for the boys who have been looking forward to this activity for weeks.

Shooting were Anthony Richardson, Leroy Heinz, John Gilbert, John LaPear, Hamilton McNichol Jr., Ronald Heinz, Curtis Cryer, James McNichol, William Cryer, Kenneth Robinson, Larry Wells, Lyle Adams, Douglas Harris, Herbert Galliker, Kenneth Davenport, Donald Cabbie, Fred Redlawsk, Allen Moore, Roy Moore, Robert Cabbie, Timothy Fox and Jack Jacques.

Top scorers among the juniors were Douglas Harris, Anthony Richardson, Hamilton McNichol Jr., Jack Jacques and Timothy Fox. Robert Cabbie did the honors in the senior group.

These boys have started the gun safety ball rolling. They have enjoyed their project and activities very much, just ask them about it. Would you like to join a gun safety project group? If so, tell the 4-H Club leader in your community or tell us here at the Cooperative Extension Service office. You can write or call. The address is Federal Building, East Tawas. The telephone number is FOrest 2-3751.

A tour from one member's home to the next to see dairy and beef calves preceded the meeting of Friendship 4-H Club members March 26.

Four members are going to try demonstrations. They are Kenneth Herriman, Lloyd Watts, Phyllis Watts and Verna Wehrman.

Most everyone has finished making a rope halter and calf blanket. Judging beef and dairy cattle was discussed. Reporter Verna Wehrman sent us this news.

Did you see one of them and the story about their gun safety project in the paper last week? Other pictures will be a part of their gun safety exhibit. Be sure to see it at the fair in July.

We have enjoyed very much receiving the reporter's news items the past week. They help so much to make our column interesting. Keep the news coming, let's share what we do with other 4-H Club members.

Criticism of governmental officials is not always to be condemned, but when one becomes a perpetual critic, no one should pay any attention to his grumblings.

A Resourceful Guy

A married fellow we know recently spent a quiet evening with friends, playing poker. When he got up to go home he was dismayed to see the sun shining brightly. What would he tell his wife?

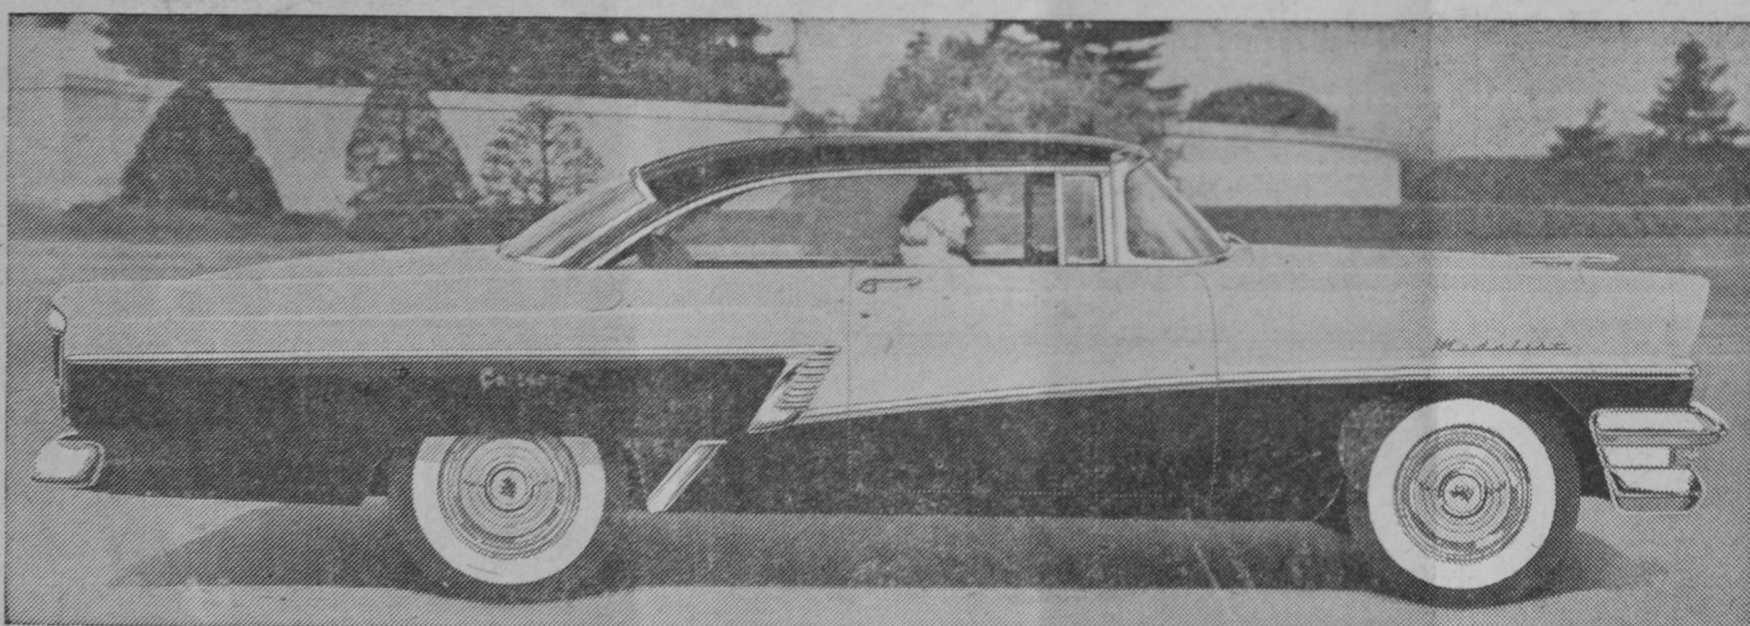

At last he hit on an idea. He stepped to the phone, dialed his home number and shouted hoarsely:

"It's all right, darling, they let me go. Don't pay the ransom."

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS
Regular meeting of the common council held March 19, 1956.

The meeting was called to order by Mayor George W. Myles.

Sgt. J. Jones of the United States Air Force spoke to the council regarding the organization of a ground observer corps for the area. Also suggested various locations for an observer tower. He suggested that East Tawas and Tawas City could construct and man a tower jointly. Carl Eckmund, county chairman, presented estimates for erecting a tower. This matter was discussed, thereupon it was moved by Davis and seconded by Evril that we cooperate with the Ground Observer Corps and participate in the cost of erecting and maintaining a tower on a 50-50 basis with the City of East Tawas.

Roll call. Yeas: Davis, Evril, Keiser, Schuhmacher, Tuttle and Wright. Nays: None. The motion carried.

The minutes of the board of review for the year 1956 were read by the clerk. There was an increase of $228,400 over last year's figures. The clerk also called to the council's attention that this year's assessment figures were double of those in 1950.

Regarding the payment of preparing tax rolls, assessing, etc. by the supervisors of this city. That in the case of an application for renewal has been filed with the commission by the local legislative body prior to April 1 of each year, the approval of the local legislative body shall not be required.

The chief of police advised the council that there were no violations during the past year effecting Tawas City liquor establishments.

This new procedure was discussed by the council, who felt that such action appears to be one more step toward the taking away of basic powers from local governments - and delegating them to the state or federal governments.

It was moved by Davis and seconded by Evril that a copy of the minutes be sent to the liquor control commission, the state senator and representative.

The motion carried.

A letter from Mayor George W. Myles addressed to the clerk requesting permission to survey, clear, ditch and grade the following streets at no cost to the city: Fifth Street from 10th Avenue to the west city limits; 11th Avenue from Lot 10, Block 55 to Lot 14, Block 54; 12th Avenue from Lot 5, Block 57 to Lot 9, Block 56, all in the original plat of City of Tawas City.

MAYOR HOPES TO CUT TRAVEL TIME IN EXCHANGE

If everything works out as planned, Mayor George W. Myles of Tawas City will shave off quite a few miles from his trip in the annual exchange of mayors during Michigan Week in May.

Efforts are being made to exchange with Flushing, west of Flint, instead of Stephenson in the Upper Peninsula, as originally planned two weeks ago.

Such a trip to the City of Stephenson would require more than one day's travel.

A new innovation is scheduled this year for the mayor's exchange. Both Mayor Myles and Mayor Elmer Werth of East Tawas will take a high school student along with them on the trip. The student will visit schools in the city or town and will report back to the Tawas Kiwanis Club, originator of the idea.

The student will be picked by the school faculty. Edward Rima, school band director, is chairman of the Kiwanis Club's boys and girls committee.

Misses Eldene Zaharias and Rosalie Lambert returned to their studies at Central Michigan College, Mt. Pleasant, after spending the week-end with their parents.
