Winter Sports Contest Starts; Who Will be Carnival Queen?

Who will be winter sports queen of Silver Valley for 1957? The answer to this question will not be known until February 2, or a little more than a month from now, but, in the meantime, the winter sports committee is making plans to entertain "her royal highness" and her court in regal fashion.

Some 79 applications have already been received in the contest to select the queen, announced Elwood Bronson, chairman of the queen's contest committee. Although the contest started Wednesday of this week, anyone interested may enter at any time.

Of this number, the field will be narrowed to about 25 candidates, who will then begin selling tickets in a popularity-personality contest. The candidate who sells the greatest number of tickets will be declared winner.

Bronson reports that Detroit is leading the field in entries so far in the contest with 33. Next is suburban Detroit with 16, two each from Monroe, Saginaw, Flint and Caro, and one each from Bay City, Omer, Coleman, Cadillac and Midland. Entries from two East Tawas contestants have been received and the 15 entries received Wednesday are from various Michigan cities.

Prior to actual entry, all contestants will be interviewed by Chairman Bronson and his committee.

Awaiting the queen as grand prize is a 10-day trip to Mexico City and Acapulco. This year's trip is through arrangements made with Thomas Cook and Son Travel Agency, Detroit, and includes, without a doubt, the finest itinerary ever scheduled in the three-year history of the contest trip award.

On Friday, February 15, the queen will leave Windsor Airport at 11:30 p. m. via Guest Airlines for Mexico City. Arriving there Saturday morning, she will transfer to one of the Mexican capital's leading hotels.

On Saturday, Sunday and Monday, she will have time to go sight-seeing, visit ancient Aztec ruins, the University of Mexico, explore Archduke Maximilian's castle, now converted into a museum. She will also visit the floating gardens of Xochimilco and the Guadalupe Shrine, plus exploring the mysterious Pyramids of the Sun and Moon, which rival those of Egypt not only in sheer size, but in history as well.

The queen will leave Mexico City by plane Tuesday, February 19, for Acapulco, one of the world's favorite ocean resorts. She will be there Wednesday and Thursday and will return to Mexico City Friday 21.

On Friday, February 22, the Silver Valley queen will leave Mexico City for Cuernavaca, a semi-tropical resort city of beautiful homes, which boasts the best climate in the world. Here, Cortez (See SILVER VALLEY, page 12.)

A DETROIT ENTRY in the Silver Valley Winter Sports queen contest is shown being interviewed by Ross Mulholland of WWJ-Detroit. The Detroit radio announcer will crown the queen in February.

To Explore Plan Further Next Week

First steps were taken Tuesday night to study a plan whereby Tawas City may purchase water from East Tawas as soon as the latter city's new water filtration plant is constructed. A special meeting of civic officials of both cities was held at the East Tawas city hall.

As a result of this initial conference, the proposition will be explored further at a joint meeting next Wednesday. Attending will be department heads of water boards of the two communities, city attorneys and Clifford Spicer of Saginaw, who represents both municipalities as consulting engineer.

At this second meeting plans will be drawn up to determine a basis for dividing annual operating and fixed costs between East Tawas and Tawas City. The group will report its findings and make recommendations later at a joint meeting similar to the one held this week. It would be determined at this latter meeting, or in subsequent sessions, whether or not the proposition would be equitable to both communities.

Recently the East Tawas Council and water board voted to sell $300,000 worth of revenue bonds to finance construction of a new water filtration plant. Bids have been received on constructing the project and negotiations are now underway to sell the bonds.

General contract for the construction of the filtration plant was awarded to Peterson and Westberg, Cadillac, for $269,105, by the East Tawas Council November 5. The plant will be located in front of an adjacent to the present water pumping station.

The council has been considering construction of a $30,000 addition to its present municipal water system for the past two years. Approval was given recently to go ahead with completion of plans for an additional 250-gallon-per-minute well, plus a water softening system. Several weeks ago Engineer Spicer indicated at a joint meeting of the council and water board that this may not be the best possible solution, inasmuch as there was no guarantee of an adequate water supply from wells in future years.

The initial step in the negotiations was taken by Mayor Elmer Werth of East Tawas, who suggested that perhaps Tawas City would be interested in purchasing water from East Tawas, after that city voted to go ahead with its project. Spicer said the East Tawas filtration plant, which uses water from Tawas Bay, would be large enough to serve both communities.

According to the preliminary plans as presented by Spicer Monday night, Tawas City could purchase water from East Tawas at about the same price to consumers, or slightly higher, as what was anticipated as the cost of the increase necessary to produce water in the proposed new deep well and softening facilities.

Tawas City, under the new plan, would not be required to sell bonds to participate in the project. It would purchase water from East Tawas, sharing in the annual fixed cost (average annual interest on the 30-year bond issue and average principal payment) plus a share of the operating cost of the plant. Each city would pay its own distribution cost.

Under present water rates, Tawas City customers pay a $6.25 minimum charge. According to Spicer's outline Tuesday night, the quarterly rate under the purchase plan from East Tawas would be $10.50.

It was emphasized at the meeting that through the purchase plan from East Tawas, it would guarantee Tawas City a more than adequate supply of filtered water which would not require softening. At the same time it would give East Tawas a big water customer, which would, in effect, be beneficial to that community in financing the proposed water filtration plant.

At next week's meeting a water purchase contract between Tawas City and East Tawas will be discussed. This probably would be for 30 years, the time required to retire the revenue bonds. Details of the contract, including method of selling the water, a basis for determining the cost, Tawas City's share in any necessary capital improvement to the system in future years, etc., will be discussed.

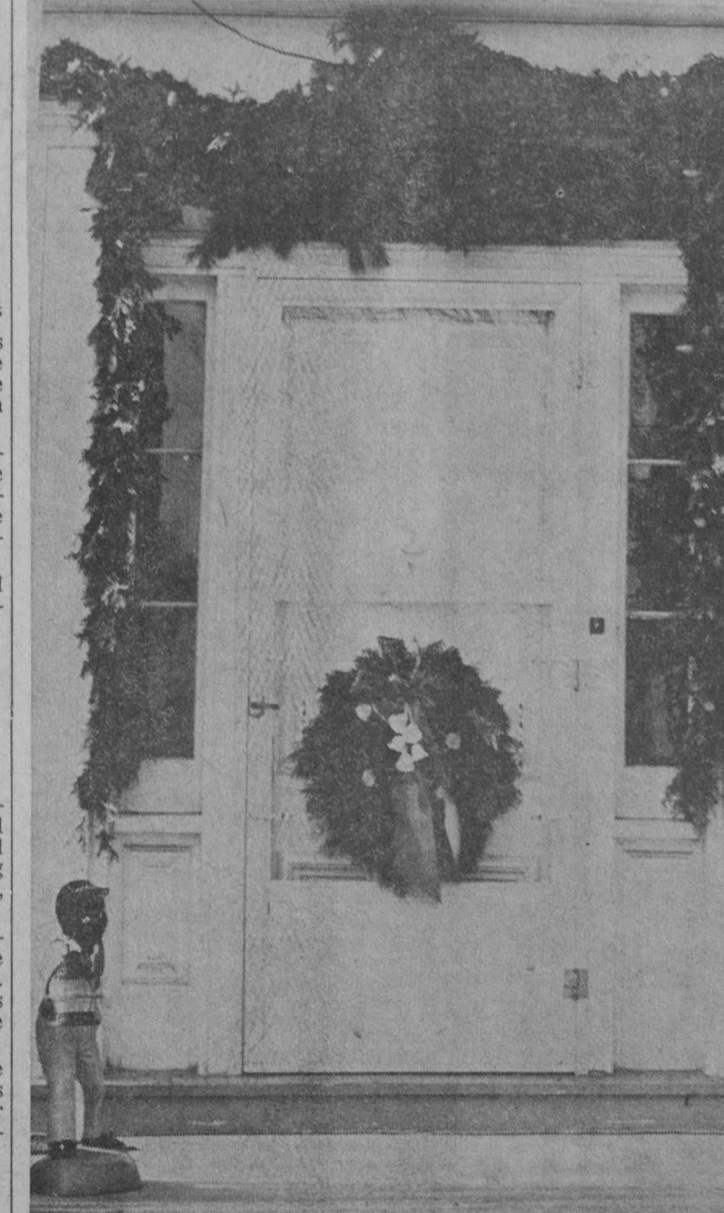

Those who attended the meeting Tuesday night were Blaine Christenson, Edward Seifert and Frank Wilkiski of the East Tawas Council; Hugo Keiser and Earl Davis of the Tawas City Council; Harry Pelton and William DeGow of the East Tawas board of public works; H. Read Smith, city attorney of Tawas City; Richard Newman, city attorney of East Tawas, and Mayors George W. Myles of Tawas City and Elmer Werth of East Tawas.

Monday, January 7—ABA annual meeting, 8:00 p. m.

"Bones" Jones and "Skinny" Smith did not get all their questions answered at our recent Barnyard Economics meeting. Charles Beers, agricultural economist from Michigan State University, and Joseph Ritzheim from the Social Security Administration did answer the questions put to them by the folks present. Following the regular meeting, Dale Bradley, president of the Farmers and Merchants Bank of Hale, hosted the entire group to coffee and doughnuts. Lu Hatfield, vocational agriculture instructor, and his committee served the refreshments.

Mr. Beer gave us a "look-see" at 1957 price expectations. He indicated that fluid milk can expect to reach a high of $4.45 and the seasonal July low of approximately $4.

He predicted corn to rise to about $1.25 per bushel and remain there until July. The recent corn growers referendum may effect this somewhat. Wheat high should be about $2.18 a bushel until July 1957.

Egg prices will remain low until June of 1957. They will rise until September and start their seasonal drop. Yet, it is expected that the drop after September will not be as sharp as this last fall and the decline in egg prices will not be as low.

Hay raisers will be happy to hear that $20 "choice" slaughter hogs are expected in June and July of 1957. The whole story in a nutshell is higher prices for what you buy. The expected results—the same net farm income, the same or a little bit better than 1956.

Christmas trees are in every home. So is a dangerous fire hazard. Homes, property and precious lives will be lost just because someone who may be reading this article will believe "it can't happen to me."

Ingredient: Sodium silicate (water glass) water, containing a wetting agent (Dreft, Tide, etc.) about one teaspoon per quart. Parts by volume, nine.

It must be remembered that a heavy coating is necessary in order to reduce the fire hazard. Two coats are more effective than one.

"We are sub-dividing ourselves right out of food producing land," according to Louis A. Wolfanger.

He is soil science resource/development researcher at Michigan State University, East Lansing.

According to Wolfanger our sub-dividing is going so fast that we gobble up more than one million acres each year in the United States.

A million acres—good food producing acres—are being converted to gas and water pipelines, septic tanks, homes, highways and factories.

All this adds up to one of our most unregulated growing pains of today—suburbanization.

Narcotic-like, the craving to fight traffic two times a day, getting home in time to go to bed, has stirred this country into a mass countryward movement.

It is flat, fertile, and it is limited, he said.

To seldom do we sub-divide hilly, wooded, rocky land that makes even more interesting home sites.

If this trend continues, we are likely to sub-divide ourselves right into higher food prices.

He cites two California communities that saw the threat to their future food supply and did something about it.

They zoned their county land. And in those counties, agricultural land is restricted to growing food—breakfast food, bacon and eggs.

And, by zoning land according to use, it kept roadways, factories and home sites restricted to areas of low producing value—the type we have most of in our country.

But, Wolfanger doubts our communities will become fully aware of this growing suburbanization demand for converting good food land to home sites.

Not, at least, until our communities realize how limited is our good food land.

"I hope it is before we feel the pinch of hunger," he said.

Saint Nicholas Prospered After Coming to America

Just like most everyone else, Saint Nick prospered after he came to America.

In Europe, before he reached these shores, Saint Nick was a tall, angular man who rode a bony gray mare.

He hadn't been in America long, however, before he had a new name, a new face, figure and a new and better mode of transportation.

The early English settlers in this country started Santa's "new look" process.

They adopted the legendary figure from the Dutch but could not pronounce "Saint Nickolous." The best they could do was "Santa Kalouf," which was corrupted to "Santa Claus."

In 1809, Washington Irving in his "Knickerbocker's History of York" changed Santa's physical appearance by describing him as a jolly fellow with a broad-rimmed hat and huge britches.

He also taught St. Nick to smoke a pipe and traded his hay burner for a wagon.

Clement Moore in his famous poem, "The Visit from Saint Nicholas," went even further. He gave Saint Nick a sleigh, twinkling eyes, cheeks like roses, nose like a cherry and a round little belly.

Future writers may try to trade Prancer and Dancer off for a jet ship and trim down Santa's waist line.

It will be a tough job, too, for, though he isn't streamlined, Santa pleases the young folks and that

The National Science Foundation has announced plans for a radio telescope 140 feet in diameter.

LET US KEEP CHRIST IN CHRISTMAS

Nineteen hundred fifty-six years ago, Wise Men of the Orient brought gold to the Infant King of Kings on His birthday.

In present times, bankers, the custodians of wealth, must do likewise, for bankers have an interest in keeping Christ in Christmas.

What is this interest?

Banks function for the benefit of society. They are storehouses of wealth which, when properly administered, vitalize the affairs of individuals, of business firms, of cities, states and nations. Banks are guardians of deposited funds; money to be invested wisely and well for the common good.

Therefore, banks must be wise and just administrators, operating according to Christian ethics, for society needs them and their resources to help defend our way of life.

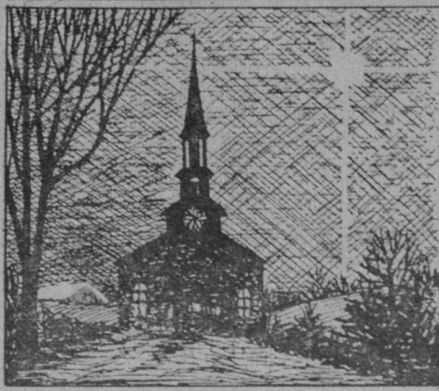

Banks can discharge their proper functions only if Christian principles are the basis for their dealings; and Christian principles can motivate banks only if bankers fulfill their duties to the King of Kings.

If banks do this, then will echo with meaning for them from the crib at Bethlehem the words of Christ directed to the good administrator: "Because thou hast been faithful over a few things I will set thee over many." (Matt. 25: 21)

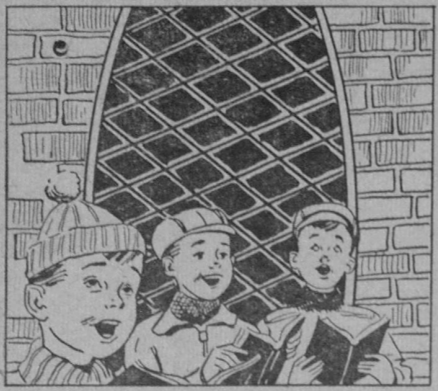

With best wishes for a happy and holy Christmas.

MERRY CHRISTMAS to One and All and Peace On Earth To Men of Good Will.

In the distance there was a star, a bright and shining emerald in the sky, a guiding beacon for all those who would come forth in humble reverence to recognize the King of Kings.

And in the night were the voices of angels singing His praises and announcing His wonderful birth, their voices loud and clear, "Come forth and adore."

And so they came, the Wise Men and the shepherds, the rich and the poor, humanity united through One Great Love, sharing together the realization of man's great hope for eternal salvation.

There in the manger they found the Christ Child, the silence of Heaven gathered about Him and they lifted up their voices with prayer and each heart filled with love and courage and hope.

IMMUNIZATION OF CHILDREN URGED

Arch Walls, M. D., president of the Michigan State Medical Society, today signalled the start of an intensive campaign by Michigan doctors of medicine to urge that all parents have their children immunized against polio and diphtheria during the Christmas school recess.

"Operation Armor" is the keynote for the doctors' two-week drive to overcome public apathy toward protection from these two dread diseases," Dr. Walls said. "Only if every Michigan family will avail itself of the ready supply of vaccine during this school recess time will any progress be made against the crippling and killing effects of these two viruses. Although school children constitute the most susceptible age group, immunization of every citizen regardless of age is the ultimate goal if these diseases are to be completely stamped out—and they can be," he added.

The leading quints in the Northeastern Michigan Conference were cut from three to two last Friday night when Tawas eased Roscommon down the ladder, 50-46; Houghton Lake remained in a tie with the Tawas team by trouncing Sterling, 61-40; Standish dropped winless Pinconning, 52-43; West Branch ran rough shod over Gladwin, 72-52; and Eastern remained on the tail of the leaders with a 58-37 conquest over Beaverton.

The former had a seven and six count for his total and the latter a nine and two tally for his stint. Houghton Lake maintained the pace along with Tawas at the top of the heap by using big second and third quarters to crush Sterling. The Lakers held a slim one point margin at the end of the first quarter, 14-13, but an 18-4 tally in the second period almost doubled the score on the Hawks.

A 19-10 count after the intermission, put the game on ice for the Bobcats, although the home club came up with a 13-10 bulge in the final stanza.

Tawas Wins Over Taller Quint Friday

By making good on 42.5 percent of their field goal attempts from the floor and a 52 percent average from the free throw line, the Tawas Area Braves defeated the Roscommon Bucks, 50-46, for the local high school team's third victory in succession without a loss. The game was played on the Braves home floor.

Cards Win from AuGres to Run Streak to Three

The Whittemore Cards racked up their third straight victory Friday night when they downed the previously unbeaten AuGres Wolverines on the Whittemore court. Standish rebounded from its overtime loss to Roscommon a week ago to hand Pinconning its third setback of the year. The losers started strong, holding a 14-13 edge at the end of the first quarter, but the Golden Arrows came back in the second canto to take a six point bulge at the intermission, 27-21. The winners added six more to their margin in the third period and held out in the final stanza to win by nine points.

O'Keefe had the top point total of the contest, followed by Kent Guske, loser's guard, who had 16 on four from the court and eight gift shots. Dean Converse, Standish's junior pivot man, held down third place with 12.

Standish also won the preliminary contest, 37-31, on its first two quarters of play, as Pinny had the edge in the third period and played the fourth to a stalemate. Jan Noffsinger, center, had 15 for the winners, while Pete Wheeler had 11 for the losers.

West Branch broke the game wide in the second half to win going away. The Orioles took command in the first period with a 14-10 nod, but a 14-14 second quarter held the winners to a 28-24 lead at half time. A 21-12 third stanza and a 24-16 final canto score brought West Branch its second win of the season.

Turner and Hughey led their respective squads with 22 and 20. In runner-up spot for the Orioles was Robert Leslie, a guard, with 14 while holding the same place for the losers was Larry Boylen, also a guard, with 11. West Branch also won the JV contest, 48-35.

Eastern and Beaverton began their game at a slow pace with the Eagles holding a 6-3 margin at the end of the first period. The winners increased the tempo in the next three quarters by taking a four point spread in the second quarter with a 15-11 count; a seven point edge in the third period with an 18-11 and a nine point margin in the final stanza with a 19-10 count.

The Eagles had three men in the double figures with Wally DeWald hitting a five and eight tally for 18 points from his forward post; Bill McCormick, center, getting 15 on two and 11, and Dave Steward, also a forward, racking up 14 on five and four. Top man for the losers was Bob Fassett, forward, with 15 points on six from the court and three from the 15-foot line.

Dave Fassett led the Beaverton JV five to a 32-22 win over Eastern by getting 12 points as his share of the victory. The win kept Beaverton's slate clean in reserve ball, along with Standish and Houghton Lake.

Meat, Roscommon center, was high for both squads with 22, while Ray Guyette, Tawas's excellent forward, was runner-up with 16 on six and four. Keith Hanna, Buck forward, and Dave Featheringill, winner's guard, were next in line with 15 each.

In the preliminary game, Howard Adam's charges snowed under the Roscommon JV quint, 67-22, getting 28 points in a big third quarter. Bob Watts, winners' forward, was high for the reserve contest with 18 points.

Christkindli Visits Kids in Switzerland
In Switzerland, it is not Santa Claus, but Christkindli, the Christ Child, who makes the rounds of Swiss homes on Christmas Eve. The radiant angel is said to come from the North, traveling on a fairy-like sleigh, pulled by reindeer much like our Santa. Christkindli brings good Swiss children a beautiful tree, and many gifts. Like Santa, he insists that little children be good at all times, and he admonishes naughty youngsters.

the Snapshot Guild advertisement featuring a photograph of a family and text about natural backgrounds.

Good Backgrounds Are Natural or Neutral. Of course, your subject is the most important part of a picture—but you can easily ruin the best of subjects by failing to look "behind" them in your viewfinder. The eye can easily skip over a couple of garbage cans and a patterned fence to concentrate on a cute child, but the camera isn't so selective. It will record anything within its field of vision. So, a good background is important. To give you a quick idea of what we mean by "good" backgrounds, let's just roughly divide them into two broad classifications: natural and natural. A neutral background is one that makes the subject stand out merely because it itself is completely inconspicuous, adding nothing to the story the picture tells. Plain walls, the sky, a grassy lawn, the sweep of wide open spaces—these are the most common neutral backgrounds. If you want to take a snapshot that will tell more of a story, try placing the subject against what we call a natural background—one that serves as a stage setting for the action being performed by the person in your picture. A proud fisherman would probably look best against the wooded bank of his favorite stream, the professor at his desk in his book-lined study. The garden would be a natural setting for the attractive young girl carrying a basket of flowers, the home workshop for the "do-it-yourself" weekend carpenter. Whichever type of background you choose, however, remember that color contrast is important for the best results. Be sure to pose light subjects against rather dark backgrounds, and vice versa. You can readily see that a dark green hedge would be a poor background choice for a dark-haired girl in a black dress—but she would certainly be a stand-out against a white garden-gate or a cream-colored convertible! —John Van Gulder

The league is very grateful to all who made their basketball game a success. A short Christmas program was given and exchange of gifts which were aprons they had made. Mrs. Leola Hess and Mrs. Delphine O'Farrell were assisting hostesses.

Christmas Caroling Is Custom Which Began Centuries Ago

Christmas caroling, so much a part of our present-day observance of Christmas, is said to have begun about the 16th century.

The first real Christmas carol is attributed to St. Francis of Assisi, who made a model of the Bethlehem manger to help him tell his people the Christmas story.

Christmas carols were then supposedly taken from Italy to England by the traveling clergy. The idea of caroling fitted into the English conception of Christmas as a combination of religious celebration and a day of good will, so it flourished in that country.

Little bands and groups of singers which sprang up in the towns and villages were called "waits." A natural explanation of the name seems to be that it refers to watching and waiting, for Christmas Eve is called the Vigil of Christmas.

As early as December 21, which is the day dedicated to St. Thomas, mummings and carolers would begin going from door to door, announcing the great feast at hand. It was natural for householders to offer hospitality to these troubadours, and gradually in many places the custom of giving and receiving presents of various kinds was established.

The Whittemore Chamber of Commerce has again made Main Street very pretty with colored lights and a beautiful lighted tree. Many homes have their yards very pretty with lighted trees and decorations in keeping with the Christmas season. Miss Dorothy Barrington of Saginaw spent the week-end here at her home. Mr. and Mrs. Ora Hockersmith spent Sunday in Flint with their son and family. Mrs. Emma Smith is quite ill at this time. Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lomason that they had arrived safely in Tampa, Florida, where they will spend the winter.

The Minor League team decisively defeated the Commercial League team, so there will be a return match later in the season to try to even the series.

Health to You

In the days of the Saxons, "was hall" was a popular greeting meaning "health to you." It later became a Yuletide drinking toast, and cups of hot wassal were given to visiting Christmas carolers.

Here is the recipe for a cherry bowl which will help extend a hearty welcome to your Christmas guests.

CHRISTMAS WASSAL
2 quarts sweet cider
6 whole cloves
1 three-inch stick of cinnamon
6 whole allspice
1/2 cup light brown sugar
juice of 6 oranges
(16 to 20 punch cups)
Simmer the cider, spices and sugar for 15 minutes. Let stand for 12 hours. Then add orange juice. Strain, reheat and serve.

Serve wassal hot from a large bowl and green cherries, orange slices or small baked apples floating in it. Place the bowl on a holly-trimmed tray.

From its starting point, the New Year moves westerly at the speed of 1,000 miles per hour.

False Pretenses—A Kansas City man received a severe scolding from a pair of bandits who found only 50 cents on him when they held him up. He was released with a warning to carry more money hereafter.—Kansas City Star.

Include Safety in Holiday Planning

Homes, churches, schools and places of business planning holiday parties should make fire safety as much a part of those plans as the decorations or refreshments.

Holiday parties often center around a Christmas tree—and because trees are extremely combustible, these safety rules are suggested:

1. Don't set the tree up near any stairway or elevator shaft which would provide a draft.
  2. The tree should not block door or any exits.
  3. Someone in authority should inspect the tree every day to determine whether it should be left up for a longer time.
  4. Be sure plenty of ashtrays are provided for smokers. Don't allow smoking near the tree.
  5. See that all decorations in the room have been flameproofed.
- An added fire hazard exists in dresses, costumes or children's clothes made of net or gauze-like fabrics are worn. If it is impossible to avoid wearing them, they should be made flame-resistant with the following solution: Mix 2 ounces of borax and 4 ounces of boric acid in a gallon of water. Michigan 1956 Christmas Seal children, Willard and Peggy Ann Farrell of Ionia, blow out the candles on the seal's 50th birthday cake. The children, whose mother and a younger brother are tuberculosis patients at the Ingham County Chest Hospital, represent the boy and girl pictured on the 1956 Christmas Seal.

Christmas Seals Begin 50th Year During December

Christmas Seals began their 50th year of service this month. The sale of the seals to fight tuberculosis began in Wilmington, Delaware, on December 7, 1907.

The seals reached Philadelphia on December 16 of that year. A newspaper man, Leigh Mitchell Hodges, reported on the first Christmas Seal sale there in his column in the old Philadelphia North American on December 17, 1907.

Below is a part of the story he told: "Good morning, have you thrown a Sunshine Boomerang by sending a Christmas stamp?"

These fine little "Merry Christmas" stickers, which began selling like hotcakes the minute they were put on sale in the North American publication office at 7 o'clock yesterday morning, are the best Sunshine Boomerangs ever heard of.

You send them out as a glad greeting and they come back to you in ruddy cheeks, once pale and sunken; in strong hands once drawn and shaky; in hope where there was only despair.

Among the great army of those suffering from tuberculosis.

"One of the first who came to buy was a boy so small that he could just see over the counter."

"Gimmie a stamp," he said, as he tossed a copper on the marble top. "A Christmas stamp?" asked the clerk.

"Sure," answered the kid. "Me mother was took with the cough, and me sister's got it now, an' th' fellers says this'll cure her."

He got his stamp, laid it away as carefully as if it had been a hundred dollar note, felt of his pocket to make sure the newspaper pad in which he had put it had not gone on through and marched away.

Homogrammed napkins, matches or coasters are good gift suggestions for that person on your shopping list who has everything.

Christmas is the time of toys for children, that is, select them carefully. One important consideration is adaptability to various uses.

Ever watch a three-year-old play with a pile of pebbles? They might not even catch your attention, but the little tot finds infinite uses for pebbles—he carries them in another place, pockets them, clenches them, fills a bucket, drops them, throws them against something to make a noise, or forms them into a nest-like shape.

Take a tip from the pebbles—choose a toy or something which is closer to a raw material than a finished product. First, it will hold his interest longer because he can experiment with many ideas for using it. Second, it leaves something to his imagination and thinking powers. Children are not limited by what they have seen done before. Give them opportunity to use their ideas using toys or materials you select for them.

der, nuts, cheese (selection or special kind). From your kitchen: Jams, jellies or preserves, home canned foods, home baked goods, popcorn balls, snacks (cheese dip of your own with crackers), cereal nut snacks, home made candy. Any of these items packaged with a bit of imagination in wrapping will be welcomed gifts.

Just a whole lot of interesting recipes for Christmas foods have come our way this year. Wish we might share all of them with all of you but it takes too much space. If there is a particular recipe you would like, though, ask if we have it among our collection. We will be glad to look for it.

A few that are different can be mentioned by name. Snax (cereal base), chocolate cream popcorn, deviled dip, hot mulled cider, holiday eggnog.

Story telling is one of the oldest arts in the world. It is a way of explaining the holiday season to children and adults. And few are the satisfactions as complete as the breathless interest with which children hang onto the words of a good story teller.

First, be sure you know your story. Being vague or undecided on any point in the story will destroy the suspense. Speak in short but complete sentences. Avoid stringing ideas together with "and," "or" and so on. Use words which the audience will understand. Very small children like stories with repetitions of the same words. They enjoy hearing the familiar sounds over and over. The teller should give his entire attention to the plot and characters in the story. Children love repetition if it is well done, so do not be afraid to tell the same story over and over.

A visit with Mrs. John Morrison and Mrs. Nunn at Esmond Road home demonstration group meeting the other day discovered how much fun they have been having with making hobby horses. Mrs. Morrison was finishing a most attractive one using felt strips instead of cotton rug yarn. The name stood up perky as can be. Mrs. Nunn has completed seven, with two more to go, for grandchildren and great grandchildren.

SANTA CLAUS TOWN Santa Claus, Indiana, the town with a famous postmark, is always bustling for months before Christmas rolls around. Santa can be found here, busy in his workshop of playing host to thousands of boys and girls from all over the country.

Stepped-Up Traffic Enforcement Set for Christmas Holiday

Michigan State Police will go on longer hours and be assisted by the National Guard in a stepped-up traffic law enforcement program over the Christmas and New Year holidays.

National Guardsmen also will be assigned to help sheriffs. In a report to Governor G. Mennen Williams, Commissioner Joseph A. Childs said that the state police will re-schedule its personnel to provide for 10-hour patrol duty from Friday, December 21, through Tuesday, December 25, and again from Friday, December 28, through Tuesday, January 1.

They will have the assistance of 121 National Guardsmen from 1:00 p. m. December 21 to 9:00 p. m. December 24, and again from 1:00 p. m. December 28 until 12 midnight December 31. Sheriffs will have 81 guardsmen assigned to them for the same length of time.

State police detectives will be on desk duty to relieve more officers for patrol and their unmarked cars also will be used for patrol. Ten electronic speed measuring devices will be located on high accident sections in the southern half of the Lower Peninsula.

"We are going to make every effort to hold down accidents and hope that drivers will cooperate so that we can conclude 1956 with a very substantial saving in lives for the year," Childs said. "We are well on the way to that goal and if drivers just do what they should we will reach it. Besides, it's much better to start the new year alive."

There were 48 persons killed during the 78-hour Christmas holiday period last year and 10 over the same period New Year's.

Save your thumbs when cracking those large Brazil nuts. Best way to remove the shells is to cover uncracked nuts with cold water, bring it to a boil and boil three minutes. Dry the nuts and the shells crack easily.

Poultry shoppers can use this guide. Chicken to broil—one-quarter to one-half bird per serving; to fry or roast—three-quarter to one pound per serving; stewing—one-quarter to one pound (depends upon whether meat is to be combined with other foods or served alone). Figure one-half to one pound of turkey per serving and three-quarter to one pound of duck or goose.

Wise is the cook who plans to have her turkey out of the oven 15 to 30 minutes before serving time so that meat juices can be absorbed and the carving job easier.

A good carving set or a two-tined fork, a knife with a long flexible, sharp blade and a spoon are needed equipment for the server.

Begin carving with the turkey tipped on its side, breast toward table.

Remove wing, then drumstick which can be sliced parallel with the bone. White meat is sliced beginning at the front end of the turkey and slicing toward the breastbone.

Stuffing is removed from the hole cut into the cavity under the thigh. Slit the thin tissue on the thigh region with tip of knife, make an opening large enough for a serving spoon.

More complete information about turkey cookery and serving is available in a small folder which is available to you, free, upon request. Contact your Cooperative Extension Service Office, Federal Building, East Tawas.

Hot Christmas muffins are made by adding whole or ground or raw cranberries to any good plain, whole wheat or bran muffin recipe you use. Add one cup of berries to two cups of flour.

One insurance against food poisoning is to stuff your turkey just before popping it into the oven. If you must stuff it earlier, be sure both the turkey and dressing are ice cold.

Tips for storing cookies. Soft cookies: Place in container with tight fitting cover. Bar type can be stored in a pan tightly covered. If cookies tend to dry out, add pieces of apple, orange or bread, replacing it frequently.

Crisp cookies: Place in a container with loose-fitting cover. If they soften in humid weather, place in 300 degree Fahrenheit oven five minutes before serving.

A gift need not be expensive to express friendliness and neighborliness.

From the farm: Bags of apples, dozen eggs, a roasting hen, bag of uniform baking potatoes, package of homegrown dried herbs. From retail store: Selection of dried herbs or spices, old fashioned wire popper and corn, boxed mixes for a busy homemaker (who isn't?), fruits for the fruitbowl, jug of ci-

Needlecraft News by Nancy Baxter

The new trend in table styles and settings is the circular look. Round tables draped with round, fringed tablecloths, practically non-existent in fashionable residences a decade ago, are the household styles of today. New? No, not really. During the galslight era, everyone who could, had a round table somewhere in her home. It was most often covered with a circular cloth edged with deep fringe. This appealing style we have borrowed from yesterday is meant to add a decorative flourish to the stark simplicity of our contemporary interiors.

ROUND TABLE DISCUSSION As soon as a new, attractive style enters the scene, fashion-minded, budget-conscious needleworkers ask themselves if they can make one like it. The answer is yes where the circular, fringed tablecloth is concerned. Lustrous, mercerized crochet cotton, so easy to launder, makes perfect fringe and trimmings for a round cloth. Most stores are now selling a colorful selection of plain, round tablecloths, 72 inches in diameter, to which you can add your own special adornments. To be doubly economical, you could make your own cloth from a twin-size bed sheet. These sheets, usually 72 x 108 inches, will allow you extra fabric for napkins after you cut out the circular piece for your tablecloth. A nice trick would be to make a narrow edging of hairpin lace for each napkin, using a 1/4-inch staple, to match the trimming on the dinner cloth.

ELEGANT TABLE MANNER Dainty hairpin lace edgings are always found in and on the best circles. Here, hairpin lace reveals the finest in table manners as an insertion and edging for a circular dinner cloth. Deep, flowing fringe adds further elegance to the table setting. Decorate your own round table in this pretty way by doing the trimmings yourself. Full instructions for making the hairpin lace, with illustrations, and the fringe, may be obtained by writing to the Needlework Department of this paper. Simply send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for CARNIVAL TABLE-

Watts School Fourth-Fifth Grade Students Publish Newspaper

Iosco-Arenac Regional Library was happy to receive a copy of "The Watts Warbler," a new school newspaper, written and printed by the fourth and fifth grades of Watts school under the supervision of their teacher, Mrs. Ellen McGuire. Neil Katterman and Barbara Binder are the editors and Linda Curry and Dale Bessey have done the illustrations for the first issue.

Darwin Biggs, one of the junior librarians of Watts school, wrote a fine article about the junior librarian's day of classes in library science which he attended last month at regional library headquarters.

The library has received two thank you letters from schools which participated in this workshop.

The bookmobile visits the schools of Iosco and Arenac Counties every six weeks, and each boy and girl selects two books. This forms the collection for the room and is the responsibility of the junior librarians who charge them out to student borrowers and make the circulation report for the loan period. These junior librarians are doing an excellent job and the regional library is gratified to have had such a successful training program.

Students are enjoying the new Cathedral records and film strips of Christmas stories in the form of nature parables. These are also being used in the Sunday Schools of some of the churches because of their religious themes.

Many requests are filled each month from the regional library's audio-visual department. Film strips, recordings, pictures, view-master reels and books open new horizons through these special services.
