National Gypsum Plans $6 Million Program Here

Board Votes Stock Issue to Finance Project

National Gypsum Company directors today voted approval of an estimated $20,000,000 stock issue to provide new capital to finance an expansion of the company's facilities.

Chairman Melvin H. Baker said, "The company expects to use the net proceeds for development of a gypsum deposit in Northern Michigan near Saginaw Bay on Lake Huron, estimated to contain about 60 million tons from which it may ship gypsum rock by water to plants to be located in the United States markets in the Great Lakes region."

In March of this year, National Gypsum Company announced its operations in this county would be expanded to include a new quarry, located slightly south and west of Tawas City. Plans called for construction of an aerial tramway extending more than a mile into Saginaw Bay for loading lake carriers.

"It is estimated," Mr. Baker added, "that $6,000,000 of funds will be used for development of the new deposit and $13,000,000 will be used to acquire plant sites and construct two plants for the manufacture of wall-board, lath, plaster and other gypsum products."

He said, "Remaining funds would be used to provide working capital in the operation of these new facilities."

He revealed that the new issue will consist of 417,403 shares. Holders of the company's common stock will be offered the right to subscribe to additional common stock on the basis of one new share for each eight held.

Chairman Baker noted, "The price at which these additional shares will be offered will be determined shortly before the offer is made. The stockholders will have the opportunity of subscribing the additional shares between June 11 and June 25."

A group of underwriters managed by W. E. Hutton and Company and Blyth and Company has agreed to purchase any unsubscribed shares for the company, he added.

Chairman Baker noted that about $21,000,000 will be required to complete new plants and additions now under construction. "Funds for this purpose have been provided previously and are sufficient to complete the facilities as expected during the summer and fall months."

Sewer Service Rates to be Increased This Year

Sanitary sewer service rates in Tawas City will be increased this year following action taken by the city water board Monday night. At the same time, water rates will remain the same as last year.

The hike for both commercial and residential rates will become effective July 1. As a minimum residential charge, rates were set at $1 per month or $12 per year. Rates for commercial buildings, including motels and cabin courts, will be increased proportionately.

At present the minimum rate for a dwelling is $2 per quarter or $8 per year.

Water board members reasoned that an increase in rates has been warranted for several years due to higher maintenance and

The Rev. Robert Nelson, pastor of Grace Church, gave remarks. The service closed with Mrs. Kochenderfer playing the postlude, "Finlandia," which was very impressive.

Tawas Meets Defeat in First Home Game

One big four-run inning by Black River turned the Tawas City Indians' first home game of the season into defeat last Sunday, 5-3. Tawas City's starting pitcher, Herb Look, who was relieved by Clare Herriman in the third inning, was bested by Bromund, southpaw of Black River. Bromund not only pitched his team to victory but led his mates with three hits in four trips to the plate.

Until the winner's big rally in the third inning, Look was in trouble only in the second inning. He pitched himself out of a tight spot when the visitors loaded the sacks with two men out.

Both teams fared about the same at the plate, Black River collecting six hits, two of which were doubles, and Tawas had six hits, one a double by Warner. Tawas pitchers walked six Black River batters and Bromund allowed an equal number to the losers.

Only Tawas City batter who collected more than one hit was Manager Olen Herriman with two singles.

Tawas took an early lead when in the first inning both Don Westcott and Clare Herriman walked. Russ Anschuetz was safe on a fielder's choice to load the bases. With one out Gary Humphrey's attempted squeeze play built forced Westcott at the plate. B. Lorenz was safe at first base when a play was made on Herriman at the plate, scoring the first run. D. Youngs ended the inning by grounding out third to first.

In other games played this week in the Huron Shore Baseball League, Hale and Wurtsmith Air Force Base went into a tie for first place, each team registering its second win of the season. Under the two-hit pitching of Grant Mousseau, Hale dropped Harrisville, 6-1. Clement led the winners with two hits, Wurtsmith Air Force Base kept pace with the western Isoco County team by defeating Minkado, 13-9. Oscoda defeated Lincoln, 14-9, in the other league hit.

In the third inning, Stepaniak walked for Black River. Adrian doubled, sending the runner to third. LeClair walked to load the bases. Bromund singled to score Stepaniak. At this point Herriman took over the mound duties for Tawas. Malulak walked to force in a run. Deroher was safe on a fielder's choice.

High Winds Memorial Day Hits Eastern Isco

High velocity winds struck the eastern half of Isco County Wednesday afternoon, the aftermath of severe electrical storms earlier in the day, dampening the spirits of Memorial Day fun seekers who crowded the area.

The area bordering the Monument Road appeared to have taken the brunt of the storm, although other areas in the county reported some damage.

A barn owned by George Zaharias, located at his farm about four miles from Tawas on the Monument Road, was completely destroyed. Police said the barn was comparatively new. A house trailer owned by Donald Mosko, also on the Monument Road, was overturned by the high winds. No one was in the trailer at the time.

Michigan State Police reported late Wednesday night that there were no serious traffic accidents on Isco County highways on Memorial Day. The traffic toll in the state is much lower than anticipated. All law enforcement agencies in the state were mobilized to patrol highways during the holiday rush. Included were several hundred national guardsmen.

According to a report from Michigan State Police, signs were blown over and trees uprooted in the Cedar Lake area, six miles north of Oscoda. The community of Oscoda also experienced high winds. The flag pole at the township hall was blown down and blocked US-23 for a short time. Signs and trees were damaged.

Deputy Sheriff Leon Putnam said Wednesday night that many trees had been uprooted in the Sand Lake area, along with telephone poles. The Sand Lake area also had a severe hail storm.

Putnam said that the western part of the county missed the storm.

STATES ENGAGED IN EXHAUSTIVE TAX STUDIES

The Tax Foundation recently discovered during a survey of state revenue sources, that more than half the 48 states are engaged in exhaustive tax studies in an effort to determine whether present taxes will be adequate to meet the rising expenditure trend.

This trend, which has been evident for some time, is a real one and has posed many states with a serious question in the effort to balance the budget.

With this thought in mind, the proposed Federal cut can be viewed in a more balanced perspective. In fact, as state taxes are increased, in some of our states, this alone will help to check the threat of inflation, which is the present bar to Administration approval of lower Federal tax rates.

In brief, the latest Tax Foundation study shows that state taxes are entering a rising trend.

FCDA Trains Rescue Corps

Twenty miles from downtown Washington is the world's greatest "theater"—a gigantic stage setting without a stage, professional actors or scenario. Amidst a backdrop of "bombed-out" building ruins, volunteer "actors" and "actresses" periodically put behind the day's workaday world to become "victims" at the Federal Civil Defense Administration's Olney, Md., Rescue School.

WHILE BURNING OIL is played on stairways and other key spots in the ruins by a remote control panel, students at the national rescue school enter the flaming structures and actually rescue the volunteer "victims."

Some "victims" pretend unconsciousness. Others simulate situations the rescue workers would meet in an actual civil defense disaster by becoming "hysterical," and even by kicking and fighting their would-be "rescuers."

Seldom, however, do professional rescue instructors standing by actually have to enter the ruins to help out their students during the "final exam" of the two-week course. And never are the volunteer victims actually in danger, for they have been placed in areas known to be safe from the hidden flaming oil jets.

THE "FINAL EXAM" of the two-week heavy-duty rescue course at the Federal Civil Defense Administration's Olney, Md., rescue school comes complete with flames, smoke, human "victims" and fire equipment from adjoining areas in Maryland and Virginia. (FCDA Photo)

Awarded '100 Percent Club' Medallion

John E. Hosbach, assistant cashier, Peoples State Bank, East Tawas, and Iosco County Savings Bond Committee chairman, has been awarded a treasury citation for outstanding patriotic service to the savings bond program.

The "100% Club" medallion was presented to Mr. Hosbach in recognition of the fact that, under his leadership, Iosco County achieved its 1955 savings bonds sales goal of $251,360. County sales for the year totaled $279,351 in Series E and H Bonds, which compared with $215,793 in 1954. The county's 1956 quota is $258,605.

The award was presented by Noble D. Travis, Michigan State Savings Bond Committee chairman, at the spring meeting of group five of the Michigan Bankers Association, held in Bay City the evening of May 9. He praised the efforts of Mr. Hosbach and other volunteers who helped make the 1955 county achievement possible.

"The people of Iosco County are to be congratulated," Travis said, "for their joint contribution to personal thrift and to a sound national economy. It has been my observation that any area in which the people have good thrift habits is a progressive area with a sound economy."

Mr. Hosbach, appointed county savings bond committee chairman in January 1955, has been active in the bond program since 1950. He has been associated with the Peoples State Bank since 1941.

He is a member of the Knight of Columbus, Tawas Council No. 3709, and held the position of financial secretary with that organization from 1943 to 1946.

The silver medal, slightly smaller than a silver dollar, was designed by a master engraver and struck at the government's Philadelphia Mint. The face bears the figure of the minute man, the treasury seal and the wording, "United States Treasury Award." The reverse side carries the inscription "For Patriotic Service—United States Savings Bonds Program." Mr. Hosbach's name and the year.

The medallion is mounted in a translucent stand which holds the disc in an upright position.

346 Births in Iosco County in 1956 Reports Clerk

There were 346 births in Iosco county during the past year, according to a statement from County Clerk George Prescott. The report is for the year extending from April 1, 1955, to March 31, 1956.

During the same period there were 140 deaths and 114 marriages, according to County Clerk Prescott.

TAWAS AREA SCHOOL ELECTION SET FOR JULY 9

Monday, July 9, is the date for the annual school election of Tawas Area Schools. The term of only one board member, Walter H. Niles, expires this year.

To have the name of a candidate for trustee placed on the ballot, nomination petitions signed by not less than 50 registered school electors must be filed with the secretary of the board of education not later than 4:00 p. m. on the 30th day prior to the election.

Petition forms may be secured from the superintendent's office or from the secretary of the board of education.

Qualified school electors who have not registered to vote in their township or city elections must register with their township or city clerks prior to 5:00 p. m., Friday, June 29, if they wish to vote in the July 9 election.

French "birdman" Leo Valentin, 37, tried to fly with wooden wings. A holiday crowd at Liverpool, England, of 100,000 watched in horror as the 37-year-old French Army parachutist plunged to the ground after one of his artificial wings was broken and both of his emergency chutes failed to open.

The politicians have convinced us that some of them have to be liars.

CALENDAR—

Farmers wishing to claim their refund of federal tax on gasoline used in the farm business can get forms from our office. Form No. 2240 allows farmers to claim two cents per gallon of gasoline (federal tax) used in their farm business from January 1, 1956, to June 30, 1956, inclusive. The claim must be filed between June 30 and October 1, 1956. Do not file before June 30.

Everett Elwood, agricultural economist, says no invoices, bills or statements are to be sent in with Form 2240.

Internal Revenue warns all farmers making their claims had better have an accurate farm account record.

Do you need a farm account book? Stop in at the Peoples State Bank, East Tawas, or the Farmers and Merchants Bank, Hale, and get one.

Here is that all-purpose, all season fruit tree spray again for our one, two and three fruit tree orchardists. Three level teaspoons of methoxychlor, three of captan and two of malathion in each gallon of water. Mix it thoroughly and apply each week. (The sign of the moon is right for this between February and November.)

This wet weather we have had is most helpful in predicting a heavy infestation of apple scab. Sulfur, ferbam or captan at half strength combined with one-fourth pound of Phygon will aid in the control of apple scab. Phygon should not be used later than petal fall because of possible fruit russeting. Follow the manufacturers' directions in all cases.

It was a real nice farm visit I had last week with Karl and Henry Luitj of the Plainfield, Guernsey farm. We talked and walked pasture and legume mixtures and made plans for a county 4-H Club judging in June. There is no doubt in my mind that Karl and Henry have one of the top Guernsey herds in the United States.

The practice of "trading" livestock among farmers is an open invitation to introduce serious disease hazards into an otherwise healthy herd.

Dr. Glen Reed, extension veterinarian at Michigan State University, says that some of the diseases which may easily be transported from one herd to another by this "trading" process are hog cholera, cattle and swine Brucellosis and leptospirosis. Some other diseases which may "trade" for include infectious pneumonia, vibriosis and erysipelas.

Parasites may also be brought onto your farm in the same way. Dr. Reed suggests these two steps to avoid bringing disease onto your farm. First, all traded animals should be examined by a veterinarian before being brought to the farm. Second, such animals should be segregated from the home herd for at least a month. Then, if disease should develop, your herd will not have been exposed.

Michigan's Brucellosis program includes two methods of rehabilitating dairy herds with reactors. Farmers may choose either of the two plans.

Plan A demands immediate slaughter of all reactor cattle. Then, a dairyman must retest at 30-60 day intervals until all animals test negatively at least twice.

Plan A provides for indemnity of up to $25 on grade cattle and $50 on registered stock if the animals are sold to an approved slaughterer within 15 days after branding.

Under Plan B, a farmer must dispose of reactors within three years. Retests will be conducted as soon as the reactors are disposed of.

A farmer should retain reactors only if obligations force him to do so. To avoid contracting undulant fever, or human Brucellosis, he should wear gloves when working in the stable or handling infected animals.

Office callers this week were: The Rev. Charles Mercer, Gordon Hatch, Mrs. Milton Kotcher, Mrs. Merle Walker, Ethel Schramm, Martin Fahselt, Alva Wood, James Schultz, Charles Kobs, Howard Sherman, Joseph Ritzheim, Leon Putnam, Carl Schmalz.

Possibly the youngest stowaway ever to arrive in the United States, Giuseppe Fabozzi, 27-day-old, takes it all in stride while posing with his parents, Saverio and Antonia Fabozzi. Giuseppe was discovered on the liner, Independence, when a purser counted noses. He was born after his parents received their visas—but before the ship sailed. They did not want to give up their chance to come to America, so they sneaked him aboard. Immigration authorities said his entrance was legal since Mrs. Fabozzi had a visa but the steamship lines reasoned that Giuseppe owed $10 for a ticket. Tailor Fabozzi paid up.

Think of this next time you're in heavy traffic —

No other transmission is so smooth as Dynaflo®

You know how it is. Anyone who drives a car these days must sometimes drive in crawling, slow-moving traffic where it's stop-and-go or sputter-and-slow.

And if you're used to a car that handles such traffic with a continuous series of upshifts and downshifts—even automatically—then maybe you think that's the best you can have.

But it isn't. You can have Dynaflo smoothness in a new Buick—and you won't believe the difference until you try stop-and-go traffic.

For here you have absolute smoothness when you accelerate.

Here you have absolute smoothness when you decelerate.

Here you have absolute smoothness under every road condition and traffic pace—with no lags or bumps to mark upshifts and downshifts—because no gears ever shift in Dynaflo.

It's the only transmission on the American scene today where flowing oil does the work of gears every step of the way—and where smoothness is constant, absolute and infinite.

So you ought to sample a new Buick with Variable Pitch Dynaflo—and try the new thrills that go with this smoothness—

The flash-fast new getaway response—and new stepped up gas mileage—when you barely press the pedal.

The instant new full-power acceleration when you floor the pedal and switch the pitch for a needed safety-surge—

The wallowing new might of the big new 322-cubic inch V8 engine that puts the ginger to it all—

And the new ride, the new handling ease, the new interiors, the new bold look of racy sweep-ahead styling.

Drop in on us this week—today if you can—and see for yourself what straightforward truth we tell you here and what great-buy prices are keeping Buick moving firmly than ever in the top 3 of America's best sellers.

AUTO PRODUCTION—

Harlow M. Curtice, General Motors president, whose predictions in former years have usually been borne out, has recently lowered his sights on 1956 auto production. In January, he predicted the industry would turn out 6,500,000 cars this year, compared with the almost 7,500,000 produced last year. Now he has pared his prediction by 11 percent to 5,700,000 cars. If this proves correct, production this year will be 32 percent lower than last year.

"TIGHT MONEY"—The "tight money" policy of the Federal Reserve Board is coming in for some real criticism from the nation's industrialists. Some forecast a possible slight business downturn in the July-September quarter, saying rising interest rates might discourage companies from borrowing heavily for new record plant and equipment expansion now scheduled.

The 1956 graduate is now ready to take this mummified world apart at the seams.

Wilber News

The following article was taken from an old Losco County Gazette, dated December 26, 1940:

"Arthur Dawes, who last June passed his 69th birthday, came to the county when a very small boy. The family took up a homestead on what is now known as the plains. When the father, George Dawes, learned that crops could not be grown on the sandy soil, they moved to a farm in Section 19, Wilber Township. Here the boy grew to manhood, following his father's occupation, that of farming, and has now lived on the same farm, doing the same daily chores for a period of more than 60 years."

Mr. Dawes still lives on the same farm with his son, George, and family. He will be 85 years old in June and is enjoying comparatively good health.

Incidentally, Mr. Dawes is the oldest person living in the community.

ORDER FOR PUBLICATION

APPOINTMENT OF ADMINISTRATOR

At a session of said Court, held at the Probate Office in the City of Tawas City, in said County, on the 16th day of May, 1956.

Present: H. Read Smith, Judge of Probate.

Bertha Ropert having filed in said Court her petition praying that the administration of said estate be granted to herself or some other suitable person and also that the Court adjudicate and determine who were, at the time of his death, the legal heirs of said deceased and entitled to inherit the real estate of which said deceased died seized;

It is Ordered, That the 11th day of June, 1956, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon at said Probate Office, be and is hereby appointed for hearing said petition.

It is Further Ordered, That notice thereof be given by publication of a copy hereof for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing, in The Tawas Herald, a newspaper printed and circulated in said County, and that the petitioner shall, at least ten (10) days prior to such hearing, cause a copy of this notice to be mailed to each party in interest in this estate at his last known address by registered mail, return receipt demanded.

H. READ SMITH, Judge of Probate. 21-3b

The business level, as of the second quarter, is fairly stable. There are some weak spots and some strong ones. But the idea that brakes are needed to head off a rising inflationary spiral is rapidly dissipating. In fact, there are those—including Treasurer Hubert Humphrey—who feel federal reserve money was unnecessary. The weak spots, some appliances, farm equipment and automobiles, are expected to firm up before year's end. But there will be no boom-back, just a gradual strengthening of demand, which might not start until late this year. At least, this is the general estimate.

Needlecraft News

by Nancy Baxter

Appreciation for fine needlework is generally learned at a tender age. A young girl who is introduced to crocheting, knitting and sewing, either by doing it themselves or watching mother make beautiful things, develop a love for handwork that grows with them.

BETWEEN MOTHER AND DAUGHTER

Mother is the one most likely to help daughter cultivate a taste for good needlework. It is up to the distaff side of the family to teach her youngster the value of each stitch and the materials that go into it. As a girl's most influential companion, mother should acquaint her daughter with the best needlework methods. A youngster needs to be shown that neat finishings, careful washing and blocking are important to each knitted or crocheted article. The knowledge and appreciation for good needlework which mother has given her will be with her for a lifetime. Evidence of this was seen in one family whose daughter was influenced so greatly by the mother's fine crocheting, that she insisted her mother crochet her wedding dress. The mother must have been doubly proud to have been able to make the dress and to know that she had helped develop the love for needlework that her daughter will possess forever.

KNITTED FASHION FOR THE YOUNGER SET

In the sub- and early teens, when a girl is most receptive to style and the wonders of needlework, mother couldn't do better than to make a sweater for her blossoming miss. Here's an Italian-inspired design that will capture the eye of every fashion-conscious daughter. The tri-colored striped sweater features the long-awaited look that is a favorite of school girls from kindergarten to college. The convertible hood can be worn up on chilly, windy days and down, in a cowl effect, in warmer, calmer weather. The knitting directions are given in sizes 8-14, and may be obtained through the Needlework Dept. of this paper. For your copy of the ITALIAN-LOOK CONVERTIBLE SWEATER, simply enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and ask for Leaflet No. C-301.

GOVERNMENT SAVES BY 'LOOKING' FOR WAREHOUSES

The Federal Civil Defense Administration is expected to save the government "hundreds of thousands of dollars a year by looking a little harder" for unused government warehouse space, according to Senator Jackson (D) who said the new approach already had brought about a $100,000 savings. This resulted, he said, when the agency dropped plans to rent 200,000 square feet of commercial warehouse in three towns in that state.

For more than 10 years tenants in an apartment house at Somerset, Kentucky, have been living over a deadly hand grenade, its firing pin tripped and all set to explode. A bit of rust had prevented it from exploding.

ODD FELLOW BIRTHDAY OBSERVED BY LODGE

On Monday evening members of Baldwin Lodge, IOOF and their wives and Irene Rebekah Lodge members and husbands met at the Odd Fellow Temple to celebrate the Odd Fellows anniversary.

Members of Irene Rebekah Lodge had charge of the potluck dinner. A program followed the dinner with Russell McKenzie acting as toastmaster. There was group singing of Rebekah and Odd Fellow songs set to familiar tunes with Mrs. Nyda Bronson at the piano.

Mr. McKenzie gave the opening remarks and welcome. He introduced Judge Herman Dehnke, speaker of the evening; James Boomer, district deputy; Carl Woolhiser, noble grand; Donald A. Evans, vice grand; Muriel Davidson, noble grand of Rebekahs, and Lydia Nelkie, vice grand.

He also introduced Nyda Bronson, state committee member of the camp board, and Mrs. Davidson, district treasurer.

Judge Dehnke gave a stirring address on Odd Fellowship. He emphasized the importance and value of old traditions. He gave a tribute to older members who have handed down these traditions. "With the passing of the times, we must have new ways of appealing and perpetuating old principles," He stated that progress takes place over a period of many years, the realization of which should overcome discouragement.

Mr. McKenzie also talked on the United Nations program and thanked all organizations who have been so generous in helping to send students to New York. He said the lodge lacked some funds in order to send both a boy and girl but was pretty certain this would be forthcoming.

In closing the program, Mrs. Laura McKenzie sang the official Rebekah song, "I'm Glad that I'm a Rebekah," and the group sang "When We All Get Together."
