inexhaustible goodness enables man to meet everyday needs will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday in the lesson-sermon on "Love." Scriptual selections will include the following from Ezekiel (34:11, 14): "For thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I, even I, will both search my sheep, and seek them out. I will feed them in a good pasture, and upon the high mountains of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie in a good fold, and in a fat pasture shall they feed upon the mountains of Israel."

Correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (494:10): "Divine Love always has met and always will meet every human need. "Disability Freeze" Protects Social Security Earnings

Paul M. Ellifritz, district manager of the Bay City Social Security office declared today that a long-disabled worker now has until the beginning of July 1958 to file an application for the "disability freeze" and still have his social security earnings record protected as of the date he actually became disabled. He said also that the law now permits a veteran to receive compensation from the Veterans Administration for service-connected disability without any reduction in the amount of his disability insurance benefits under social security. These changes, significant to persons who have been disabled for some years and to those with service-connected disability, became effective when President Eisenhower signed P. L. 109.

Dication for the freeze, unless the application was made before the end of June 1957. For this reason, a disabled person who failed to make his claim before the end of June, and who had become disabled before January 1, 1955, would have lost his right to have his social security record frozen because he could not possibly meet the work requirements. Moreover, without the "freeze" he might have lost future rights to any social security benefits for himself or his family, because at the time he dies or becomes 65 he may not have the required work credit. The law as now work credit. The law as now amended, gives those who were disabled before January 1, 1955, until June 30, 1958, to file an application for the disability freeze to protect their rights to old-age, survivors or disability insurance.
