Radar Observer Dies In Florida Crash

A Wurtsmith F-89 on a routine navigational training flight crashed last Tuesday afternoon near Jacksonville, Florida, Wurtsmith officials announced March 11.

The craft's radar observer, First Lt. Melvin V. Clark, 27, was declared dead Saturday after a five-day search for the flyer. Pilot of the plane, First Lt. Bernard Rivkind, 25, parachuted to safety in the marshy area, suffering minor injuries.

Rivkind notified Clark to bail out then jumped himself at 400 feet. That Rivkind's chute opened at the low bailout point is con-

Wurtsmith Wins 'A' Award From Air Defense Command

An "A" award, the second to be given in the Eastern Air Defense force, went to Wurtsmith's 445th FIS and the 754th AC and W site, Port Austin, this week.

Only previous EADF winner was the 444th FIS, Charleston Air Force Base, South Carolina.

The award is presented by the air defense command to deserving fighter squadron AC and W teams after passing a stringent tactical evaluation test.

Such a test was conducted here in December by EADF's tactical evaluation team with gratifying results to the testers and the tested.

Said Major Donald Miller, who was the team chief of the EADF evaluators and recommended to ADC that the 445th-754th receive the award, "I considered the rocketry firing passes of the 445th aircrews outstanding."

It means pennants, decals and certificates for the fighter and AC and W squadrons.

Lt. Colonel Weston Lennox, 445th commander, already has received a letter of praise from ADC commander, Lt. General Joseph Atkinson, and the pennants, decals and certificates should arrive next week.

Atkinson's letter stated, "Please convey my congratulations and appreciation to the 445th FIS and the 754th AC and W Site for a fine record and your demonstration of outstanding effectiveness."

This high praise was echoed by EADF vice commander, Brigadier General J. W. McCauley; Brigadier General Benjamin Webster, 30th Air Division commander, and Group Commander Col. Thomas N. Wilson.

The decals will be displayed on 445th aircraft for a year while the pennant can be displayed below the colors on the group headquarters flagpole and the flagpole at Port Austin. A certificate goes to the 445th and the AC and W site.

Three pilots and six radar observers are now eligible for upgrading from the "qualified" to "skilled" level of proficiency as a result of the evaluation.

Aircrew members are rated upward from "qualified" to "skilled," to "expert."

In explaining the "A" award, Captain A. J. Miller, 445th radar observer boss, pointed out that the team effort is of prime consideration.

It can be broken into two areas of evaluation. (1) The evaluation of effectiveness on intercepts. Evaluation team pilots from EADF flew T-33's towing targets

Tawas Area Downed by Orioles in District Finals

West Branch High School's basketball team was crowned champion in class B district finals at Pinconning Saturday night, but only after staving off a determined Tawas Area five, 53-48, in one of the season's most exciting contests.

With Tawas Area holding a slight 48-47 margin and only about four minutes to go in the fourth quarter, the Orioles came through with a field goal to take a lead which they never relinquished during the remainder of the game.

The winners, who staged brilliant stalling tactics with good ball control during the last few minutes of the game, added to their lead via the free throw lane when Tawas Area was forced to foul in order to stop the clock.

This move backfired, however, as the Orioles were successful on five free throws and the game ended with Gelinis and Leslie, clever ball handlers for the Orioles at their guard positions, controlling the ball in back court as the time ran out.

Tawas Area was outscored in all but one quarter, holding its own in two and outscored the Orioles in the second frame by 11 points.

The Orioles rang up a healthy 15-8 lead in the first quarter in what must have been sweet revenge for the 54-52 loss which the Braves administered to them in conference play two weeks ago.

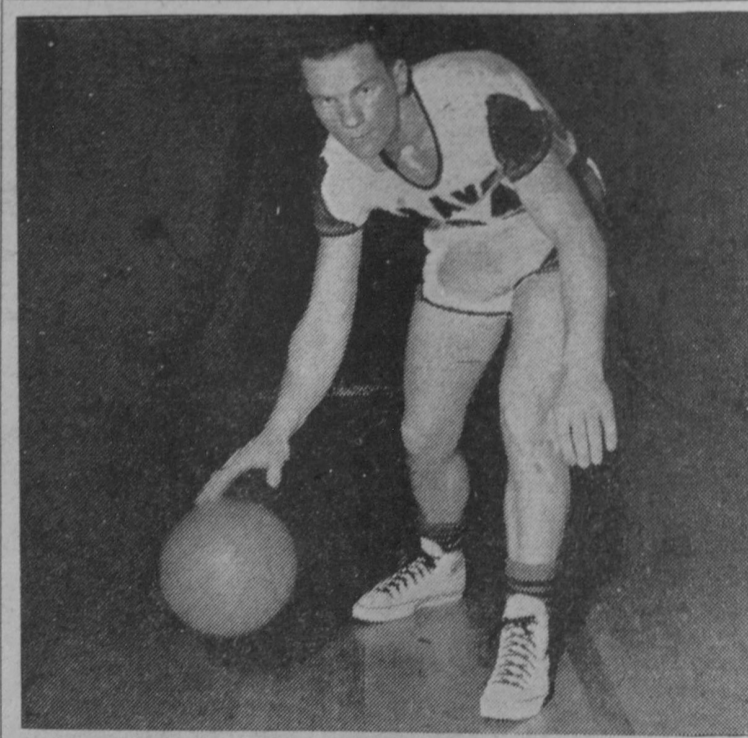

Play in the second quarter found the Braves catching fire and by intermission held a 25-21 bulge. The Orioles quickly recovered from their second quarter doldrums and scored 18 points in the next quarter to hold a 39-38 lead.

West Branch came through with a 14-10 margin in the final canto to win the championship toga.

Top scoring in the contest was shared by the two West Branch forwards, Reiger and Hughey, who each garnered 16 points. Gelinis, sparkplug of Janish's quint, added 10 markers.

Setting the pace for Tawas Area was Ray Moore with 14 points.

Receives Honorable Mention in All-State Selections

Honored by Detroit Free Press

Dave Featheringill, stalwart guard of the Tawas Area Braves, received honorable mention in The Detroit Free Press' class B all-state high school basketball selections announced last Sunday.

A senior, he was honored again this week when he was selected as one of the three outstanding players in the Northeastern Michigan Conference by basketball coaches of the loop.

Other selections on the mythical all-conference team were Lyle Mead, Roscommon; Bill McCormick, Arenac Eastern; Dave Lee, Houghton Lake; Dennis O'Keefe, Standish.

Featheringill, a standout in basketball, football and tennis during his entire career at Tawas Area School, was voted most valuable player and honorary captain of the basketball team by his teammates. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Featheringill of Tawas City.

Ray Guyette of the Braves received honorable mention in the all-conference selections.

Buck Fawn Rides Diesel---

Workers at the United States Gypsum Company plant, Alabaster, discovered a small buck fawn in the quarry Tuesday morning, apparently driven there for refuge by dogs.

Arthur Ziehl of Tawas City said the fawn stayed in the quarry most of the day where the men were working and when it came time to quit work it was taken out of the pit aboard one of the diesel locomotives. It was released later.

Cities Paired in Michigan Week Event

Mayors and village presidents of Michigan communities learned Monday where they will preside as honorary chief executives on Monday, May 20, in what has become one of the outstanding events of Michigan Week.

Exchange communities were paired at the annual drawing for "Exchange of Mayors Day" held in Lansing Monday. Presiding at the session was Mayor Anthony Balice of Ionia, chairman of the state Exchange of Mayors Committee.

In the drawing Monday, Tawas City was paired with Owosso, East Tawas with Tekonsha and Whittemore with Allen.

Immediately after the drawing, the exchange chairman, Mayor Balice, and the Michigan Week general chairman, K. T. Keller, joined in urging municipal officials to start working with their county and community Michigan Week chairmen without delay on plans for Monday, May 20.

Pairings made Monday were entirely by chance in the drawing. No effort was made to match cities of equal size or of close geographic location. In many instances the mayor or village president of a tiny village changes places with the chief executive of one of the state's largest cities.

You Must Have Permit Before Burning Grass

Fire chiefs from all sections of Iosco County, conservation department officers and United States Forestry Department rangers warned residents this week that permits must be obtained before setting fire to grass land, regardless of whether it is inside city limits or in rural areas.

Conservation Officer Arthur Leitz reminded residents that the law requires a permit to burn when the ground is not snow covered, to start or have an open fire, except for domestic purposes.

A mixed rain and snowfall dampened Iosco County's tinder dry grass and woodlands early this week, promising temporary relief to busy firemen, but with warm, windy weather again Tuesday, the area may be in a dangerous condition this week-end.

As an example of last week's dry condition, the Tawas City Fire Department answered six grass fire calls on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, four inside city limits and two in Tawas Township. All resulted from uncontrolled burning of grass lands or back lots.

Fire, which raged out of control Sunday afternoon, destroyed a large frame house and barn owned by Evelyn and Arme Brabant in Sherman Township. It was the late Thomas Woods ranch and was not occupied.

Officer Leitz said Tuesday that it has not been determined how the fire started, but is believed to have resulted through careless grass burning.

Leitz said that between 75 and 100 volunteers battled the flames several hours before it finally was brought under control. The fire burned more than 100 acres of grass land. Fire fighting equipment, including plows and bulldozers, was useless because of frost in the ground.

Fire permits may be obtained from the department of conservation, Fire Officer Bert MacGregor, telephone FO

2-2313; the Hale Fire Tower, N. O. Sibley, Hale; Seven Mile Hill Fire Tower, SE 9-7874, or state fire towers.

Key men are Ernest Herzog, Hale Telephone Company, and R. Caton at Hale; Howard Ho-facer, Oscoda; William Fuerst, Whittemore; Officer Leitz, telephone FO 2-3996; Jack LaFear, Oscoda, telephone SE 9-5371; United States Forest Service, District Ranger C. W. Carlson and Assistant Ranger H. Peterson, telephone FO 2-3941, East Tawas, and United States Forest Service fire towers.

Fire permits to burn in the cities and towns will be issued by fire chiefs and marshals.

Even though a permit is granted, the permittee is liable for all damage to property which may result from burning.

Fire Chief Fred Musolf of Tawas City said Tuesday night that any person who negligently allows a fire to escape in this community is liable for all expenses of the department.

Damage at National Lower Than Estimate After Blaze

Production in National Gypsum Company's calcinator building resumed Monday morning after plant maintenance men worked around the clock Saturday to repair the huge hollow-flite machine damaged in a flash fire Saturday morning.

Plant Manager Charles H. Hill said Tuesday afternoon that damage to equipment was estimated at $12,000, a figure much less than anticipated losses given shortly after the blaze was brought under control.

While inspecting damage to the machine Saturday morning, Mr. Hill said a similar fire on July 20, 1955, had resulted in more than $100,000 damage to the equipment. It was not necessary to dismantle the huge machine after last week's blaze, as was the case in the previous fire.

Mr. Hill praised the quick work of plant employees, who slowed the advance of flames by using a dry powder fire extinguisher and the quick response of the Whittemore Fire Department in averting a major blaze.

The fire was discovered about 7:15 o'clock Saturday morning by the night watchman, shortly after the plant was closed for the week-end. Flames started in the huge machine in the calcinator building and at one time threatened the entire plant.

After turning in an alarm to the Whittemore Fire Department, Board Mill Superintendent Elgin O'Farrell, Board Line Foreman Robert Hinkley and Edward Slavinski and Eugene Bonino slowed down the blaze by hurling cans of the dry powder on the flames.

The Whittemore Fire Department brought the blaze under control in about 20 minutes after its arrival by using high pressure fog nozzles. The East Tawas Fire Department also responded to a call, but assistance was not required as the fire was brought under control before its arrival.

The hollow-flite machine is used to dry ground gypsum into plaster. A tank containing 10,000 gallons of oil heated to a temperature of 500 degrees is located nearby. Mr. Hill said that if flames had reached the oil supply it would have turned the plant into an inferno.

The plant manager stated Tuesday that the maintenance department is making plans to redesign the front end of the machine to eliminate any possible recurrence of the fire. He said that the dry powder extinguisher, in 300-pound shots, would be augmented by high pressure fog spray using water.

OPEN HOUSE AT NEW TAWAS AREA SCHOOL

Parents and citizens are invited to attend open house, sponsored by the Tawas Area P.T.A., at the newly constructed Tawas Area Junior and Senior High School Monday night, March 18, at 8 o'clock.

Starting at the cafeteria-study hall, personal tours will be conducted by Supt. R. E. Mick, Principal Ernest Jordan and teachers. They will point out the qualities and modern advantages of the new school.

Mr. Mick has requested, for greater convenience, that all parking should be to the left side of the building off M-55.

Parents and residents of the area are urged to attend and see first hand one of the finest and most modern schools serving an area this size in Michigan.

Committee of Businessmen To Study Fire Problems

A committee to study fire prevention and protection was appointed at last Thursday's meeting of the Tawas City Businessmen's Association by President Charles McLean.

Named to the committee were Sgt. Frank Roti of the Michigan State Police, Mayor George W. Myles and Milton Barkman.

Guest speaker at the meeting was C. V. Miller, a member of the East Tawas Retail Merchant's Association, who outlined plans for the home and sports show at the Tawas Area School auditorium May 10, 11 and 12.

Mr. Miller said there would be from 40 to 44 spaces available and some exhibits outside the building. Each company will operate by contract to be issued by Jack Davis of Bay City.

Mr. McLean revealed that the businessmen's association is responsible for naming a girl to act in the Iosco County centennial parade as "Miss Columbia."

Whittemore Cards to Play Tonight In Mt. Pleasant Regional Tourney

The Whittemore Cardinals won their third straight district championship at the expense of Arenac Eastern at AuGers Saturday night by the score of 51-37.

Bob Dunham and David Goupil started the Cards on their way with a 6-0 edge before Gene Steward tallied the first Eastern basket. Wally Dewald followed with another field goal to make the score 6-4; Orval Fuerst tallied his first two pointer to make it 8-4 and Eastern started to fall behind.

The Cards counted 18 points to Eastern's eight in the first quarter, then played an even 6-6 second period. Eastern narrowed the Cards' lead to seven points in the third quarter but could not catch the slick working Cards, who controlled the backboards and forced Eastern to do their scoring outside a tight zone defense.

The Cards ended the game with a 14-point margin to be on their way to Mt. Pleasant after another regional championship.

Dunham and Fuerst again were the top scorers for the Cards with 16 and 14 points, respectively. McCormick was the only Eastern player to reach double figures with 15 points.

Whittemore drew a bye for this Tuesday night and will play the Morley-Beal City winner Thursday night at 8:45 o'clock in the field house at Mt. Pleasant. If the Cards win this game they will play again Saturday night.

Whittemore earned its chance at the district championship by defeating Alcona, 65-44, Thursday night. The Cards completely dominated the game.

CENTRAL STAR BRINGS TEAM HERE TONIGHT

Tawas basketball fans will have the opportunity to watch one of the state's finest college athletes, Jim Podoley, when his Central Michigan College All Stars tangle with the Tawas All Stars at the new Tawas Area School auditorium Thursday night (tonight). At the same time, proceeds from this game go toward a worthy project.

Podoley, six-foot-two-inch four letterman at CMC, starred in both the Blue-Gray and Senior Bowl games, was all-conference half-back in IAC three times, two times Kansas University's death-lion champion, four times voted as the outstanding track man in IAC and high school all-stater in basketball.

To relay this message to Michigan's children, Auto Club has distributed 11,000 full-size copies of this poster to schools throughout the state.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

The fact that the man of God's creating is not at the mercy of accidents, chance, or discord of any kind will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday. Scriptural readings in the lesson-sermon on "Substance" will include the account of Paul's healing of Eutychus "who fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead" (Acts 20:7-12).

Selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (424-5): "Accidents are unknown to God, or immortal Mind, and we must leave the mortal basis of belief and unite with the one Mind, in order to change the notion of chance to the proper sense of God's unerring direction and thus bring out harmony." The Golden Text is from Ecclesiastes (3:14): "I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor anything taken from it."

WINNER 12TH NATIONAL SAFETY POSTER CONTEST

The first warm days of March will bring droves of children outdoors to play. While flying kites and chasing balls, they are apt to ignore traffic speeding by. Therefore, Automobile Club of Michigan urges parents to remind their children to play away from traffic. If possible, parents should find game areas away from busy thoroughfares. Auto Club also reminds motorists to be extra wary near play areas. To relay this message to Michigan's children, Auto Club has distributed 11,000 full-size copies of this poster to schools throughout the state.

Farm Events

By Marvin Davenport
County Agent

Friday, March 22—Northeastern Michigan Hereford Calf Association meeting at Plainfield Township Hall from 7:00 p. m. until 10:00 p. m.

Thursday, March 23—ABA annual meeting, Michigan State University, East Lansing.

Our new Iosco-Tawas ABA board of directors met last week with 100 percent of all the members present. Charles Timreck, 1957 president, conducted the meeting.

The board approved sending Leonard Robinson of Reno Township and Herman Drenberg of Plainfield Township to East Lansing for the ABA inseminator's course in April. These men will serve Iosco County's west side on and after April 9.

Both Drenberg and Robinson were present to discuss the expanded service of our association. Vice President Warren Britt, Secretary Walter Miller, Directors George Waters, Victor Heriman, Oren Ulman, William Heriman and east side inseminator, Thomas Nelkie, took part in the business session.

About 200 thousand acres that farmers seed to legumes or grasses each year in Michigan are either total or partial failures.

According to Michael Tesar of Michigan State University's farm crops department, this amounts to one-fifth of the one million acres planted each year to forage crops, hay, pasture and silage.

Reasons for this poor take include improper soil pH, or acid level; improper seedbeds; improper seed varieties, and poorly timed seeding.

To offset the poor seedbed, Tesar recommends a newer approach to better seedbeds—band seeding.

This method places a band of seed in the soil directly above a band of fertilizer which results in a shot-in-the-arm effect to the emerging seedlings.

Tests show that with this seeding method the amount of seed needed can be reduced by 20 percent and still give the grower a more vigorous stand which is better able to withstand drouth, insects and competition from weeds and companion crops.

Another means of getting 15 percent better stands is with the use of packer wheels towed behind the drill.

Tesar says that these packer wheels pack on top of the seed in seven inch rows and not the spaces between rows. Fewer weeds get started and soils absorb water better than when cultivated.

An all-season, one-shot weed killer in corn, lasting from planting time to harvest, will be tested by me this year in cooperation with interested farmers.

This new weed-killing chemical is called Simazin. This is part of a state-wide program to not only test the season long chemical weed killer, but to show cooperating farmers and their neighbors how the chemical works in actual corn field trials.

There will be about 300 of these tests on farms in about 69 counties throughout the state.

Fields to be tested in Iosco County include: Waldo Curry farm near the Tawasess; Harold and Martin Siegrist farm, near Hale; Warren and Howard Britt farm, near Turner; Lawrence Ball farm, near Sand Lake Corners; Philip Partlo farm, in Reno Township, and Howard Mott farm in Reno Township.

Simazin, which is adapted specifically for corn, is one of many that researchers are working on for season-long weed control.

The aim with Simazin is to provide a long lasting poisonous chemical that kills newly sprouted weeds.

With this long lasting effect on weeds, weeding costs should be materially reduced, and crop yields should be higher due to less competition for plant food and water.

This chemical, though presently experimental, may be available through commercial outlets for grower use by spring of 1958.

Watch these test fields on the cooperating farms to see the effectiveness of this new type season-long, one-shot weed killer.

Michigan Makes Good Start at Saving Lives

Michigan has made an auspicious start in saving lives on the highway this year, although the figures for the first eight days of March, are not so encouraging.

According to State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs, there were 87 fewer traffic deaths up through March 8. In January 125 persons were killed as compared with 164 in the same month last year, a drop of 39. February showed a reduction of 47, with 89 deaths as compared with 136 in the same month of 1956.

For the first eight days of March, however, 28 persons died in traffic, a saving of only one life under 29 in the same period a year ago.

The February death toll of 89 is the first monthly total of less than 100 since April 1952.

The figures for this year are still subject to readjustment as final reports are received.

"The real test will come in the next few months," Childs said. "We have to watch out now for the rise in fatalities that always begins around April."

Although the nation-wide death toll mounted to a new high in 1956, Michigan showed a reduction of 269 under the previous year. Deaths totaled 1,747 as compared with 2,016 in 1955. The goal this year is to cut the 1956 toll by 10 percent, or 174 lives.

Errors often arise when men try to prove that they have been right.

WITH THE IOSCO— 4-H Clubs

By Dorothy Scott
Home Demonstration Agent

Are demonstrations given an important part in your 4-H Club meetings? They can be very helpful in learning about the project being studied when members get together at project meetings. They can be important as part of the program at community 4-H Club meetings. When used at these monthly meetings, demonstrations are an opportunity to show members in other projects what your project is doing.

Who can give a demonstration? Any and every 4-H Club member can do a demonstration, even the beginners. They will choose easy topics which will not take very long to do. Later on, longer demonstrations will be easy.

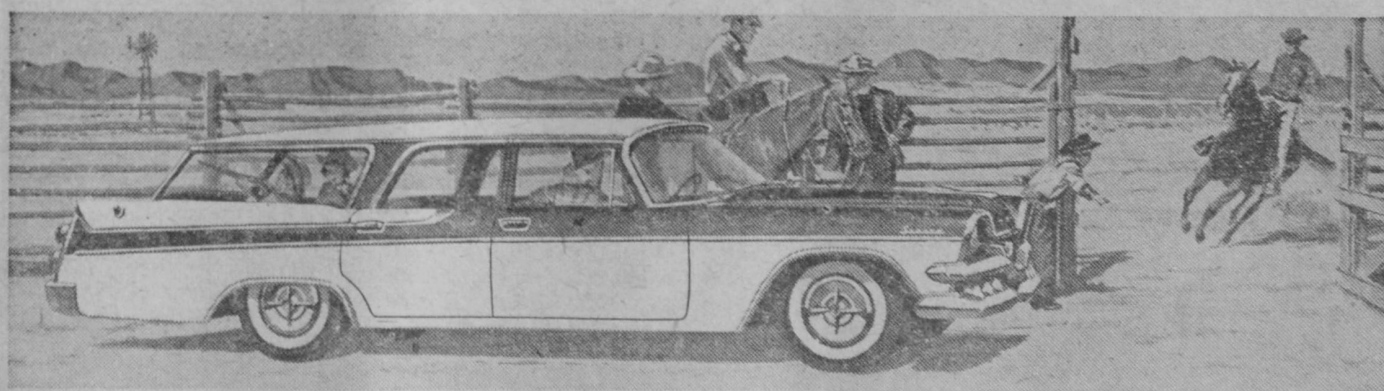

How many demonstrations can be given? Every member is encouraged to do several project meeting demonstrations and at least one for the community club meeting. Members who do one that is especially good should be given an opportunity to present it for other organizations. These might be the P.T.A. home demonstration groups, church women's groups, Farm Bureau or Grange.

Demonstrations given for organizations are a very good way to let parents and other boys and girls know about 4-H Club activities. Demonstrations are good publicity or another way to say it is, they are good news stories about 4-H Clubs.

The information your 4-H Club news reporter sends us is another kind of good publicity of, for and about 4-H Clubs. It is a way for each of us to tell the other about the 4-H Club activities we have in our own community. We were sorry not to hear from any reporter this week. The news reporters send to us is always used in the 4-H news column. May we hear from you in time for next week's news?

LETTERS to the EDITOR

(Editor's Note: This newspaper welcomes brief, to the point "letters to the editor." However, in the future all letters must be signed by the individuals writing them, for obvious reasons.)

March 11, 1957

Tawas Herald, Tawas City, Michigan.

Dear Mr. Thornton:

In your news article, two weeks ago, Mayor Werth made the statement that the citizens committee had been invited by the Iosco Board of Supervisors and East Tawas Council, to meet with William E. Hamlen, engineer for the Michigan Department of Aeronautics, for a discussion on the airport; and the citizens committee failed to attend.

This we would like to clarify, as what Mr. Werth did not know, or failed to mention, was that three committeemen took four hours from their various jobs to meet with Mr. Hamlen that morning, immediately following the invitation for this meeting. Mr. Hamlen failed to make an appearance with the committeemen at that time. The committeemen were then called the same evening, on short notice, and were unable to attend.

Thank you.

Yours truly, The Relocation Committee for the Iosco County Airport.

March 11, 1957

Tawas Herald, Tawas City, Michigan.

Dear Mr. Thornton:

We find in our own county, that some people in the outlying areas do not realize that the airport in question, is and always will be supported by the whole county. They have the impression that the airport in East Tawas is this city's airport. We would, at this time Mr. Thornton, like to inform the populous of the county that although it is located within the city limits of East Tawas, it is the county airport and is supported by their money, as well as ours.

Therefore, we would also like to state that relocation of this airport from our residential area, to a more centrally located spot in the county would enable these industries and persons in the outlying areas to share equally in the progress this airport could bring. Relocation to an area with unlimited expansion would benefit all.

Yours truly, The Relocation Committee, for the Iosco County Airport.

Colvin Home Destroyed by Fire Last Friday

The Laurel Colvin home, 3 1/4 miles southwest of Whittemore, was destroyed by fire Friday noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Colvin had left for Bay City just a few minutes before the fire had broken out. It was noticed by his mother, Mrs. Mable Colvin, who lives a short distance away.

His brother, Darrell, rushed to the nearest phone and called the Whittemore Fire Department. He tried to enter the home but was forced back by heat until the fire department arrived. They held the fire in check while the appliances in the kitchen portion of the home were removed.

The fire department truck ran out of water, having used part of it up previously fighting a grass fire. While they were gone for water the Prescott department arrived on the scene and attempted to save more of the contents but the home was too far gone to do much. The loss was partially covered by insurance.

The people of the community are trying to supply the Colvin family with some of the needed clothing and household furnishings. The Colvins have five boys and one girl ranging in age from five to 15. They are living in the Ott home southwest of the Burleigh Township Hall at the present time.

Grange Drapes Charter in Memory of Henry W. Snyder

The charter was draped in memory of Henry W. Snyder at the Monday evening meeting of the Whittemore Grange. Mr. Snyder, who passed away recently, had been a member of the Grange since 1951.

Dornace Bellville reported that he will be writing insurance for the Grange Insurance Company of Keene, New Hampshire, as soon as his supplies arrive.

The Grangers voted to donate $5 toward sending a boy to Wolverine Boys' State.

Wilbur Runyan was elected overseer and Celia Runyan, Ceres, during the business session.

A hot beef sandwich supper will precede the business session at the March 18 meeting. The pot-luck supper will be served at 7:00 p. m.

The program opened with the singing of "The Old Oaken Bucket." An article on "The Indians Developed the Art of Making Maple Syrup" was read by Mrs. Celia Runyan. Mrs. Louise Sylvester read "At Sugar Camp" and Mrs. Marguerite Aulerich read "When Early March Seems Middle May."

The poem, "March is the Month of Spring," was read by Mrs. Blanche Cobb. A game of buttoning vests was played with the men's team being the winner.

Mrs. Harold Black called attention to the "Heart of the Home" meetings which will begin April 2 at Hale. Anyone wishing more information on these meetings should contact Mrs. Black immediately.

Grange members will be visiting the homes in Burleigh Township this month canvassing for the Red Cross.

Pot-luck lunch was served at the close of the evening.

Regional Library Has Easter Film Strips

Iosco-Arenac Regional Library's audio-visual department has in its collection five Cathedral filmstrips in color of the Easter story, each of which would make a meaningful addition to church school study, Lenten groups or club programs.

Titles are: "The Last Supper," "Gethsemane," "Arrest and Trial," "Judgment and Crucifixion" and "The Resurrection."

A Cathedral long-playing record with narration and music supplements each film strip to expand and enhance the story. The recordings have two sides, one for children and the other for general use.

Because of the large number of requests for this material it is suggested that booking dates be made early by phoning regional library headquarters, FO 2-2651, in the Iosco County Building, Tawas City.

Speeding automobiles carry you fast, where you want to go, but sometimes they carry you faster where you do not want to go.

FORWARD RAY GUYETTE of the Braves is shown trying a jump shot in last week's game against West Branch. Dick Lanski of Tawas is second from left and No. 44 is Ken Bublitz. The basket was good by Guyette, but the Orioles went on to take a 53-48 decision to win the regional class B trophy. West Branch holds two wins against one loss over the Braves.—Tawas Herald Photo.

LEARNING SHORT CUTS TO A LONGER LIFE—Mrs. Ruth C. Kettunen (seated at the ironing board above) of the Michigan State University Home Management Staff demonstrates one of the many "heart-saving" techniques which she will teach in the Heart of the Home classes being offered free to all Iosco County homemakers by the Michigan Heart Association. Sitting down to iron lessens the strain placed on the heart by reducing the physical effort expended, heart association officials point out. Homemakers attending the classes learn practical ways of making their housekeeping simpler and easier by eliminating wasted energy and unnecessary steps.

in order to conserve the homemaker's time and energy.

"Any homemaker can learn to 'take it easy' while doing her various household tasks," Mrs. Kettunen said, "by merely following the work-simplification techniques, principles, and ideas, taught in the 'Heart of the Home' classes."

Homemakers with an ailment of the heart or blood vessels will be given first listing, although any homemaker in the county can register. Homemakers in this area may register for the free classes by calling or writing Mrs. C. Attwell, Hale, telephone RAndolph 8-2135; Mrs. Merrill Burnside, Whittemore, SKYline 6-2253, or Miss Dorothy Scott, home demonstration agent, Federal Building, East Tawas, telephone FOrEst 2-3751.

Homemakers are urged to register this week in order that they may attend the first class on Tuesday, April 2. No medical advice, diagnosis, treatment or examination is given in the "Heart of the Home" classes.

The Bay-Arenac-Iosco County Medical Society has endorsed the entire program and doctors of medicine are urged to refer their patients to the classes.

The "Heart of the Home" program is made possible by the Michigan Heart Association through funds received from United Fund Campaigns conducted in many Michigan communities.

Those whose values are based on money alone have lost their sense of values.

Free Housework Classes to Start at Hale April 2

Free "Heart of the Home" classes in work-simplification techniques, to teach Iosco County homemakers to do their daily housework simpler and easier with less strain on their hearts, will be offered in Hale, starting Tuesday, April 2. The series is financed and sponsored by the Michigan Heart Association working in conjunction with the Iosco County Cooperative Extension Service, according to E. A. Irvin, M. D., president of the Michigan Heart Association.

which are a free community service of the Michigan Heart Association, are designed to fill the doctor's prescription of "take it easy" by showing the homemaker how to save as much as 75 percent of her walking, 75 percent of her movements and 60 percent of her reaching. This tremendous saving of time and energy means lessening the strain placed on the heart by reducing the physical effort expended by the homemaker.

Mrs. Ruth C. Kettunen of the Michigan State University Home Management Staff conducts the classes. She emphasized that the classes are designed to benefit any economic level and that it is not necessary to remodel a home

CHET MAHER
Michigan Bell Manager

MANY HOUSEWIVES are taking the "run" out of running their homes. Know how? By putting telephones wherever they need them—in the kitchen, in the bedroom, in the living room, and down in the basement. Well-placed phones save countless steps and lots of time for the home "managers." And, of course, additional telephones bring better service to everyone in the family. The cost? Just a few pennies a day, plus the one-time installation charge. Order your additional phones from our Business Office today.

HOW CAN shut-in boys and girls keep up with their school work? In recent years Michigan Bell's School-to-Home telephone installations have proven to be one successful method. Telephone equipment, using special two-way speaker units, lets the child who must stay home, or even in bed, hear everything that goes on in his regular classroom. He can recite and ask questions just as though he were actually in school. This daily contact with classmates gives the shut-in child a sense of belonging; he is a real part of the class. We'd be glad to tell you more about School-to-Home telephones. Just call our Business Office.

SCIENCE CAN GIVE us great entertainment, as the Bell System's television Science programs show. These programs aim to bring you an understanding of scientific work and its importance to modern life. And, of real importance to our country's future, they are helping to interest young people in scientific careers. The second show in this new series, televised nationally, is the fascinating story of blood. It's called "Hemo the Magnificent" and will be on the CBS-TV network at 9 P.M., March 20.

Reporting on the company's $19,000,000 Great Lakes expansion program, Mr. Baker said work started in 1956 on the development of a huge gypsum deposit in Northern Michigan (Osceola County). The company also acquired plant sites at Waukegan, Illinois, and Lorain, Ohio. The new plants will be supplied by ship with raw gypsum from the new deposit and will manufacture wallboard, lath, sheathing and other gypsum products. "These facilities," he explained, "will be partly in production in the latter part of 1958 and ready for full operation in the first part of 1959."

National Has Record Year in Sales

National Gypsum Company reported last week its sales in 1956 increased $3,640,020 over 1955 to set a new record of $151,859,497.

Chairman Melvin H. Baker said 1956 earnings, "after extraordinary charges," were $14,263,528 compared with a record $15,763,690 in 1955. He said 1956 earnings were equal to $3.61 a common share on 3,828,237 shares including 416,666 shares sold in an offering last June.

"If earnings had been computed on the 3,321,135 shares outstanding a year ago," Mr. Baker said, "the earnings would have been equal to $4.16 a share compared to $4.61 a share for 1955."

Describing 1956 as "a year of great progress," Chairman Baker noted that "five new National Gypsum plants were brought into production, substantial additions were made to our mineral resources, plans were laid for two new gypsum mills on the Great Lakes and a major gypsum deposit was acquired from which to supply the Great Lakes markets."

The National Gypsum chairman reported that "costs of training new production crews, tuning up, and initial start-up expenses, together with high operating costs for break-in periods at the new plants aggregated $2,900,000 equivalent to 36 cents a common share after taxes."

"This rather large expense," he added, "permitted the attainment of satisfactory performance in a relatively short period of time so that we may benefit more fully in the immediate future."

He said that in the last half of 1956, "sales felt the effect of a slow-down in residential construction brought about largely by tight money for home mortgages. Moves have since been made to reduce our dependence on home building through greater concentration on sales to commercial, industrial and remodeling markets."

The 416,666 shares of National Gypsum common stock sold to stockholders last June provided funds set aside for the Great Lakes project.

ANOTHER NEW DORMITORY for Wurtsmith airmen was ready for occupancy last week. The 200 man unit, similar to Husted Hall, will be designated building No. 520. The new dormitory was erected by Peterson and Westberg Construction, Cadillac, at a cost of $311,430. It becomes the home of airmen assigned to the 31st FIS, the Wurtsmith squadron equipped with the supersonic F-102A interceptor. Two three-man rooms are separated by a modern shower and bathroom. The dormitories are designed to provide the maximum in modern living comfort for today's airmen. Thus, the name "dormitory" is replacing the old idea of "barracks." Buildings such as Husted Hall and 520 are definitely not barracks. They contain special snack bars, TV rooms and day rooms, a far cry from barracks living of previous years.—Air Force Photo.

LEGISLATIVE

News Letter

From the Desk of JAMES P. MIELOCK
State House of Representatives

A week ago we adopted the revised rules of the house. In retaliation for this action which had been opposed by the minority party, we were treated to a spectacle of obstructionism this past week.

Usually announcements by the clerk of printing and filing of bills is considered read and printed in the journal. It is also usual to consider read and printed in the journal any message from the governor on the signing of bills. It is ordinary practice to consider most of the bills read, leaving only the new matter to be read aloud by the clerk. On general orders the bill is gone through section by section, new material explained, and acted upon. On final passage, it is most unusual to read an entire bill.

This past week the minority party began objecting to having anything considered read, and the clerk had to read all reports and all bills in their entirety. This is a time consuming process and serves no useful purpose, rather it is to impede the orderly procedure and hold up the work of the house. Fortunately, so far the bills on the calendar, which by the way is becoming rather large, have been comparatively short ones.

How long the minority party will continue this dilatory tactic is uncertain, but one thing is sure, this unexcusable and undemocratic method of a minority trying to force its will upon a majority will in the long run react most unfavorably upon the minority when the general public observes how the action is hampering the house in the conduct of its serious business.

May 24 is the goal set for adjournment of this session, and most of the important work of the session remains to be done. Adoption on March 7 of the joint rules of the house and senate, not only sets that adjournment date, but also sets up a series of automatic deadlines for introduction of bills, consideration of bills in committee, consideration and passage of bills in house of origin, consideration of bills originating in the other house and passage of same. There is one important change in the joint rules this year and that is the fact that the deadline dates for introduction of bills makes no exception for either appropriation or tax bills. Previously the members were given additional time in which to get in these bills. This year the shut-off date on the introduction of bills is set under the joint rules for April 7, with no exceptions whatsoever.

The house passed a series of bills (HB 63, 64 and 65) giving $5,000 a year increases in salary to the governor, and other state elected officials comprising the state administrative board. The salary increases are not effective until January 1959 with the exception of the state highway commissioner and the superintendent of public instruction, because of a constitutional prohibition against raising of salaries of elective officials during the term for which they were elected. The superintendent of public instruction and the highway commissioner will be elected on April 1 and begin their terms of office on July 1; consequently they are eligible to reap the benefit of the salary increase when they take office and begin their term July 1.

HB 90 still holds the spotlight as the letters and cards continue to pour in daily by the hundreds. This is a bill which in effect would outlaw the sale of near beer to minors by redefining an alcoholic beverage as one containing any amount of alcoholic liquor. The bill was reported favorably and in the normal course of events will be up for consideration and action in the next few days.

Of particular interest among bills introduced are: (1) to permit branch banks in resort areas during the resort season; (2) require approval of a county through referendum before a new race track could be established; (3) delegates to fall county party conventions to elect officers of the county committee, including the county party chairman, and (4) creation of a state department of health and hospitals which will take over the powers and duties of the state health commissioner, council of health, mental health department, tuberculosis sanatorium commission, and office of hospital survey and construction.

Michigan Prepares for Tornado Season

Michigan officials have prepared for the approach of the tornado season by reviewing the system for detecting and tracking violent storms and making plans for an improvement in the means of warning the public of possible danger.

Attending a meeting of the United States Weather Bureau office in East Lansing were representatives of the Michigan State Police, Michigan Office of Civil Defense and the weather bureau. Experience of last year showed that the air defense warning system, which is maintained in constant readiness to alert the state in event of an air raid attack, also was an excellent means to give warnings of violent weather conditions, but there will be an improvement in determining when such conditions exist.

The air warning system, used for the first time last year when tornadoes occurred, is operated by Michigan police and civil defense authorities and is activated upon receipt of a severe weather forecast from the weather bureau. The use of the system in its present form will be continued.

For several years Michigan police and sheriffs also have reported severe weather conditions to the nearest weather bureau office and have investigated reports and tracked tornadoes with patrol cars for this purpose.

In addition, greater use will be made of the civil defense ground observer corps. The corps has been participating to a limited extent in the detection of tornadoes, but hereafter will be activated in the areas affected whenever severe weather forecasts are made.

With ground observer posts located approximately every eight miles, it is felt that the new plans will provide the weather bureau with a fully comprehensive information network.

Monday, March 18—Home Demonstration Groups vice chairmen meet at Federal Building, East Tawas, 7:45 p. m.

Vice chairmen of home demonstration groups will meet to bring the suggestions of their group for next year's program and "pool" them with the ideas from other groups. These suggestions from groups are one of the ways used by home demonstration group members to decide what lessons and workshops will be in their program for the year to come.

The Monday, March 18, meeting will result in a list of topics from which selections are made by the county membership. We call it a ballot. Every member will receive one by mail. She will be asked to "vote" and return her ballot. Results of the vote count become the program for next year.

Nine home demonstration group members who have served as leaders for various lessons recently have volunteered to teach one or more kinds of lesson for a new group. This means new groups can arrange to have lessons which they discover were taught earlier.

Among lessons leaders have offered to teach are these: Textile painting, selection of hard surface floor coverings, aluminum carving, aluminum etching, getting your calories worth, braided rug, selection of curtains and draperies, construction of curtains, construction of draperies, winter bouquets, dress finishes, care of the sewing machine, care and culture of biennials and perennials, cake decorating.

Raw milk may contain germs causing undulant fever, septic sore throat, tuberculosis or other infections. This can be true even though the producer is careful to keep his cows healthy and the milk clean. Pasteurization is the protector that insures safe, fresh milk. If you use a home milk supply, pasteurize it yourself. Directions are available from us.

Some day, when things have gone wrong, as they often do, remember this quote, "Children large or small, few or many, may often tear up a house—but it is seldom they ever break up a home."

Two dates for home demonstration calendars are these: Third Annual Homemakers' Camp at Hardwood Lake, August 7 and 8; Standish District Rally in Clare County, October 16.

Don't you please look for the information about "Heart of the Home" classes to be held in April. It appears in this week's issue of The Tawas Herald. Plan to come yourself and be sure to tell your friends and neighbors about them.

draperies was held at the home of Mrs. Malene Anschuetz. After the meeting Mrs. Anschuetz served a delicious lunch. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. June Sutherland at 7:30 p. m., March 19. This meeting will deal with the bringing of business matters up to date.

Local Motels Listed Among 39 New AAA Appointments

Two Tawas City motels are among 39 new American Automobile Association appointments just announced in Michigan.

The Tawas Motel and Sunset Motel will display an official AAA-approved sign along with more than 600 other motels, hotels and eating places in the state, according to Automobile Club of Michigan touring department manager, Jerry E. Fisher. The new appointments are expected to share in the state's predicted $600,000,000-plus tourist business this year, he said.

"Thirty-four previously recommended accommodations and eating places have just been canceled from the appointment list," Fisher said, "because they did not fulfill AAA standards."

All AAA appointments in Michigan are inspected at least once each year by a staff of trained field reporters from the association's national headquarters in Washington, D. C.
