Safe-Teen Drivers Club Organized at TA School

Twenty-two students of Tawas Area High School are now members of the Safe-Teen Drivers Club, only recently organized here under the sponsorship of the Iosco County Sheriff's Department and insurance agencies of the area.

Richard Stock, driver training instructor at Tawas Area Schools, is advisor to the group.

Before final membership approval was given, the new members had their automobiles safety-checked by Deputy Sheriff Gene Ballinger, who was instrumental in organizing the group here.

Applicants appeared before a review board composed of the four charter members, Ginger Price, Sharon Staebler, Tyler Braddock and James Curry.

Object of the club is to promote better driving among teen-agers and also to recognize those who are good drivers. The organization will hold bi-weekly meetings for receiving new applications, the first of which will be held next week Thursday night.

Members receive a bumper strip identification sign and a membership card. More than 80,000 members are enrolled nationally in the Safe-Teen team. Members are promoters of safe and sane driving among teen-agers.

Representatives from the Saginaw Junior Chamber of Commerce will attend. There will be a discussion of organizational plans and also the showing of a film.

The meeting will be informal and as short as possible.

Forest Fire Rages Out of Control Here

One of the most devastating forest fires in recent North-eastern Michigan history still raged out of control late Wednesday evening. By 5 o'clock the blaze had burned over more than 700 acres of timberland in the Huron National Forest and was still going strong.

An army of firefighters, estimated at nearly 600 persons by the United States Forestry Service, has been battling the blaze since Wednesday morning.

Harold Peterson, former assistant ranger at the Tawas station, who was called out of retirement, said that high winds fanned the blaze out of control eight miles west of Oscoda. The flames jumped the AuSable River at Old Orchard Park.

Among the volunteers are airmen from Wurtsmith Air Force Base, along with citizens of the Tawas and Oscoda, as well as the Oscoda Fire Department, forestry department fire-fighting crews and conservation department teams.

Sgt. Frank Roti, commander of the Michigan State Police Post at East Tawas, said that there had been no reports of any injuries.

Under 30-Year Contract

Tawas City and East Tawas Enter Water Purchase Pact

Final water purchase negotiations between Tawas City and East Tawas were completed last Thursday night at a special meeting of the East Tawas Council and water department.

Mayor Elmer Werth of East Tawas inked in his signature on the legal documents, thus binding the two communities to a 30-year pact in which Tawas City will purchase water from its neighboring community's new water filtration plant, now under construction.

Tawas City Mayor George Tuttle had signed the contract a week ago Tuesday night, subject only to a review of any possible late changes in the wording of the contract.

Said Mayor Tuttle Monday, "The signing of this contract is the approval of three years work by the water board, whose aim was to find an ample supply of pure, soft water at the least cost to the consumer. They are now free to give more time to the extension of our water mains and to the adequate enlargement of our sewage disposal plant."

According to terms of the contract, a joint board is to be established to carry out the terms of the contract. By ordinance, the mayor of each city will appoint three members to the board.

This board would meet at least semi-annually, and at such other times as may be determined. It would audit and approve the annual cost to be assessed and to hear and adjust complaints and differences arising out of matters pertaining to the water supply and the terms and conditions of the contract.

Tawas City is to pay East Tawas for each full fiscal year this agreement is in force a minimum charge of $14,230.98 for the first fiscal year, payable at the rate of $3,557 quarterly; and an amount each fiscal year thereafter equal to the fixed cost of $6,986.87 plus a prorated operating cost.

CENTENNIAL COMMITTEE LOOKING FOR OLD PRINTS

Old-time pictures depicting early days in the county are wanted by the Iosco County Centennial Committee. The pictures would be used by area newspapers and for a possible display during the observance.

E. H. "Bert" Stickney of Oscoda, who was appointed as a committee of one to secure such pictures, said that all prints would be copied and returned to the owners.

"Just telephone me at SE 9-3941 and I will be happy to pick up the pictures," Mr. Stickney stated. "In this way I will be able to get the information which should go along with them."

Home-Sports Show to Open This Friday

Exhibitors will start setting up displays at the new Tawas Area School auditorium Thursday afternoon (today) in preparation for the second annual Tawas Home and Sports Show.

The show, sponsored by the East Tawas Businessmen's Association, is to be held three days, Friday noon through Sunday night, May 10, 11 and 12.

The latest ideas in home construction, furnishing merchandise and equipment for the outdoor enthusiast will be shown.

Jack Davis, who is in charge of the exhibition, said last week that some 20 exhibitors will utilize the 36 booths being set up.

The list of exhibitors includes such displays as furniture, building supplies, outdoor motors, etc. Committee in charge of the exhibition includes Berkeley Smith, Don Pringle and Charles Schreck.

Doors will open Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Last year's event, held at the East Tawas Community Building, was well attended. With increased display space at the new auditorium this year, prospects are that the show will draw even larger crowds.

The public is extended an invitation by the committee to attend this event.

USING A TRANSIT, this worker is shown "shooting" an elevation at the site of the new East Tawas water filtration plant, now under construction. The $300,000 project is expected to be completed by next spring. It is located near the foot of the Michigan Waterways Commission dock. The old pumping station is in the background. Other workers are preparing forms.—Tawas Herald Photo.

Fixed cost is the average annual interest cost for the $300,000 bond issue plus the average annual principal payment on the bond issue. This is to remain constant, except that when additions or improvements are made to the filtration plant or intake, involving capital expenditures, the annual fixed cost chargeable to Tawas City would be refigured.

Operating cost is the total cost of supervising, operating and maintaining the East Tawas waterworks filtration plant during any fiscal year. Operating cost chargeable to Tawas City for each fiscal year will be determined by dividing the total operational cost of the filtration plant for that fiscal year by a number which is equal to the combined population of East Tawas and Tawas City according to the latest official census, and by multiplying the per capita cost so obtained by a number which is the population of Tawas City.

Water use charge will be 21 cents per 1,000 gallons of water used annually computed at the end of each fiscal year. The fourth quarter billing of each fiscal year would be adjusted to include the amount by which the annual use charge exceeds the annual minimum charge. If the annual use charge is less than the annual minimum charge, no adjustment is to be made in the fourth quarter billing.

Mayor Tuttle said that the Tawas City water department received $13,800 in revenue last year. However, about $2,000 of this would be saved by the elimination of pumping station expense. City Engineer Clifford Spier is now preparing plans for extension of water mains for the hook-up at the city limits. This project, along with other extensions and house meters, would be about $45,000, to be financed by revenue bonds.

Tawas City has 125 water meters installed in homes and business places. An additional 380 are on hand and are to be installed by Rudolf Witzke.

The $300,000 water filtration plant at East Tawas is scheduled to be completed in May of 1958, although the contractor has until September of next year to complete the job. Tawas City would discontinue use of its wells after tying up with this new system.

Council to Study New Plan for Blacktopping TC Streets

A possible solution to the vexing problem of financing construction of streets in small communities, studied at a recent meeting of the Michigan Municipal League, was explained at the Monday night meeting of the Tawas City Council.

Although official action was delayed until the council receives a complete break-down of the 1957 budget, the plan was turned over to the street committee for further exploration.

Mayor George Tuttle said that as a starter toward financing such a project, the city might be able to borrow 40 percent of the total Act 51 money received here during the past five years.

This amount, approximately $26,555, would require a revenue bond issue to be paid back to the state over a 15-year period.

Mayor Tuttle said that Grayling and Gaylord had used this plan and reported it worked out very favorably. Balance of the total cost of blacktopping was paid a construction concern on a three-year basis.

This balance would be financed on a share-the-cost basis, 60 percent to the property owners and 40 percent to the city.

The first step in the plan would be to request application blanks from the Michigan Finance Commission. If the application was approved, the city would submit plans as drawn by a registered engineer, as is required for any project costing more than $2,000.

"Tawas City has 3 3/4 miles of primary streets. It can blacktop these to handle the bulk of the traffic, the remaining streets could be seal-coated on a share-the-cost-plan," stated Tuttle.

The street committee, composed of Aldermen Clyde Eovil, John N. Brugger and Cecil Cabbie, is to report back to the council on its findings in about a month.

(See COUNCIL, page 10.)

Four building permits were approved as follows:

James Lansky, Lot 8, Brown's Addition, 30 by 60 home, $10,000.

Fletcher's Service, addition to building, wash rack and store room, 32 by 35, cement block construction. Estimated cost, $3,600. Eckstein Construction Company is the contractor.

Arnold Kuerbitz, remodel home, First Avenue and Second Street. Estimated cost $600.

John LeClair, move garage from site of former Sisters of St. Joseph residence, to LeClair residence on Lake Street.

Approval was given for the purchase of 12 new firemen's helmets.

DEATH CAR—Only this pile of scrap remains of the car in which Lawrence C. Manwell, 22, of Hale was killed early Saturday morning. A passenger, Wilbert J. Haigler, 20, is reported in serious condition at Tawas Hospital. The car missed a sharp curve on Long Lake Road.—Tawas Herald Photo.

Hale Youth Killed in Crash

A 22-year-old Hale youth, Lawrence C. Manwell, was killed early Saturday morning when the car which he was driving missed a curve on Long Lake Road and rolled over. Manwell's death was the first auto fatality in Iosco County for 1957.

Seriously injured in the crash was a passenger, Wilbert J. Haigler, 20, of Flint. Both the victim and the injured youth were taken to Tawas Hospital by Forshee's ambulance, where Coroner E. D. Jacques was notified.

State police and sheriff's department officers, who investigated the scene of the crash, said that the car was traveling north and skidded about 280 feet. The vehicle apparently rolled over several times, ending up on its side. A broken neck and head injuries caused Manwell's death. He died almost instantly. Haigler had fractured vertebrae and other injuries.

Funeral services were held at the Hale Methodist Church Tuesday afternoon. The Rev. R. R. Ter-williger officiated. Burial was in Logan Township Cemetery.

Manwell was born July 11, 1934, at Columbiaville. He resided on Sage Lake Road until going to Flint several months ago where he was employed in the Buick plant.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Manwell of Hale; a sister, Nancy Louise, at home; a brother, James, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lawrence of Sage Lake.

LEGISLATIVE

News Letter

From the Desk of JAMES P. MIELOCK
State House of Representatives

This past week has been a very busy one as we raced against the series of automatic deadlines. On Friday, May 3, we face the deadline of having all house appropriation bills out of the house and over to the senate, and on Friday, May 10, all senate bills which have a chance of passage in this session, must move from house committees to the floor, with only this week and next to report same. Hence there has been a combination of fairly long daily sessions, and a greatly stepped up committee activity as the committees met before and after session each day to report out all meritorious bills. Because most of the appropriation bills and the senate school aid bill, all of which are highly controversial, will not be considered on their final passage until Friday, May 3, it will be impossible to discuss in this letter the action which will be taken on them by the cut off date. It is safe to assume, however, that a determined effort will be made by the opposition to upset the budget with innumerable amendments increasing the various line items.

In the last nine days, 10 different attempts have been made by members of the minority party to discharge various standing committees of the house from the further consideration of specific bills. In each instance, the bill was an administration bill. From the beginning of such a move, it was doomed to failure, and in each one of the 10 instances, the motions were voted down.

Legislative process, as you know, is built around the committee system, and only twice (once in 1910, I believe, and again in 1955) has such a move been successful.

The house passed a bill appropriating $12,100 to the University of Michigan for a research program on cystic fibrosis. This is a comparatively new disease, about which very little is known. It attacks about one in every 600 youngsters in the age bracket of one to 10 years, and invariably it is a fatal disease. One of the main purposes of the program is to inform doctors about the disease so they can recognize the symptoms and correctly classify its victims. Often the disease has not been recognized and has been incorrectly diagnosed as pneumonia because of the similarity of the symptoms in these two diseases.

Another bill to receive favorable consideration by the house was the suggestion award bill. This bill provides for awarding of money, medals, certificates, etc., in recognition for workable suggestions made by an employee to the board in the interest of greater economy and efficiency in state government.

Some suggestions it is contended by proponents may cut down the work load of some person or may be for some device which will make some particular operation easier. The plan is similar to that used by large manufacturing companies, more than half the other states in the union and by the federal government.

The bill has an appropriation of $18,868 for carrying out the purposes of same.

For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of the act, the bill calls for an appropriation of not to exceed $30,000. The appropriation would be made from the Mackinac Straits ferry revolving fund.

Should this bill receive favorable consideration by the senate, and subsequently be signed into law by the governor, the highway commission will be unable to sell or otherwise dispose of any of the ferry boats, docks or other capital expenditure items without the prior approval of the legislature.

In still another bill, the per diem of $10 was increased to $15 for members of the Board of the Veterans' Facility.

Home Demonstration Groups Study Light Arrangements

Home demonstration group members will be planning changes to improve lighting arrangements in their homes. This will come about through remodeling a lamp now in their home, making a new lamp of their own design or converting kerosene lamps to electricity.

First the members will gather some know-how for doing the job, including: What is a really good light for the purpose at hand, what equipment and parts are needed, where can they be obtained.

Next they will decide on the light improvement to be made for their home, choose and assemble the supplies needed, and arrange to attend a construction workshop.

"Good-nights" at the home demonstration achievement program included many nice comments about the evening's program.

Members and committees who made the plans and prepared the exhibits deserve the "bouquets" for the presence of a good number and variety of displays. They also saw to it that other facilities were in readiness for the evening's program. Thank you to everyone who helped.

Mrs. Eleanor Gifford, consumer marketing information agent on the Michigan State University staff in Saginaw County, brought a message encouraging homemakers to become well informed buyers in the marketplace. Our home demonstration members can pick up tips about good buys from Mrs. Gifford from time to time through the television shows on Channel 5.

William Temple brought a number of "souvenirs" for the audience to see. They come from Argentina where he has recently spent several months as one of Michigan's International Farm Youth Exchange students. Bill's slides helped him tell an interesting story of his experience there. He lived in the homes of a number of different families and came to know and understand their way of life. In exchange, the Argentina families came to better understand our way of life here in the United States.

Asparagus is one of the first fresh vegetables found in our own gardens, as well as being in plentiful supply at the marketplace just now. It is prepared by washing thoroughly and cutting off the woody ends. Cooking can be done in three ways.

Stalks are laid in a wide flat-bottom pan with tight fitting cover and cooked with one-half inch of boiling water until just tender. Drain, season, serve.

The stalks in serving size bunches; stand upright in bottom part of a large double boiler. Add one inch boiling water; invert top of double boiler over tips. When just tender. Drain, season, serve.

Cut stalks into one inch pieces, keeping the tips separate. Cook stalks in one-half inch of boiling salted water, using saucepan. When partly cooked, add the tips and complete the cooking until just tender. Drain, season, serve.

Seasoning can be butter, lemon, hot French dressing, Hollandaise sauce, or milk (half-n-half) is fine.

Serve asparagus hot or cold. Salad is good when teamed with hard cooked eggs or sea food. Asparagus makes a main dish, casserole, soup or combines with meat leftovers in cream sauce.

Keep watch when you shop for citrus fruits, there is a new label to help you get better quality fruit. It will tell you the fruit has been treated to reduce mold and stem-end decay. This treatment for citrus fruits reduces losses and helps maintain lower prices. Mrs. Consumer will have fruits that keep fresh in her home a longer time and have higher quality with greater juice content at the same time. Look for the label.

Are the rhubarb leaves peeking through in your garden? The hot-house variety has been available for some time. It takes about two pounds for a generous pie. One pound will make five half-cup servings as sauce. Cooking happens quick and the product is more attractive if a minimum of stirring is done. Add sugar after cooking.

Mrs. Eleanor Gifford has provided us recipes featuring rhubarb with titles like: Pork in the pink, rhubarb fluff, delicious rhubarb pie, pink rhubarb refresher, rhubarb tapioca puddings, igloo surprise, rhubarb refrigerator pie. If you would like to try one of them, please let us know.

April Auto Casualty List Lowered in Michigan

HAROLD MOELLER was the top average bowler in the Tawas City Recreation bowling leagues during the past season. He averaged 183 in the Wednesday night majors.

Provisional figures for April released by the state police show that Michigan is continuing to save lives on its streets and highways, 40 fewer persons having been killed during the month than in the same period a year ago, which in itself also was a lower fatality month.

An even 100 persons were killed in April as compared to 140 in the same month last year, and last year's total was 20 less than in April of 1955.

The downward trend has continued for 13 straight months with the exception of last September, and the total saving in lives under the same period the preceding year now stands at 475, a reduction of 21 percent, or much better than a life a day.

Final figures for March, also just released, show 115 deaths as compared to 132 for March of 1956, a saving of 17, or 13 percent. There were 4,106 persons injured as compared to 4,557, a reduction of 451, or 10 percent, and reported accidents dropped from 17,269 to 14,085, a cut of 3,184, or 18 percent.

For the first four months of this year deaths totaled 435 compared with 574 in the like period of 1956, a reduction of 24 percent.

Estimated mileage traveled for the first two months of the year, the latest figures reported, was 4.6 billion, or five percent higher than in the same period last year. The death rate of 4.6 per 100 million miles was 33 percent under 6.9.

State police warned that while the figures are highly encouraging for the first four months, the worst months are now beginning and the gains already made may be lost.

State Police Arrest 23,364 During March

State police made 23,364 arrests during March, of which 22,000 were for traffic offenses, according to the department's monthly activity report. The figure does not include the arrest of 782 traffic offenders and delinquent and wayward minors.

There were 40,212 property and 4,547 liquor inspections during the period.

The identification bureau at East Lansing headquarters received 9,180 sets of fingerprints. Of this number, 3,859 were non-criminal.

THIS WAS PART of the Tawas City business district in 1873. The general area today as shown in the picture would be looking west toward the Mathews Street Bridge. The building at left is Minor's Boot Shop and the one next to it is a saloon. The Tawas River is jammed with logs as is the west side of the river bank. About this time, timber was floated down several creeks which emptied into Tawas Lake and then brought down the Tawas River. The railroad had not been constructed at this time. Hale FFA Members Participate in Many Activities

The Hale FFA Chapter members are participating in many activities this spring. In leadership, Bruce Putnam and Adam Koladzieski attended the state convention. At the leadership training camp at Higgins Lake, Richard Frasher, Gay Putnam, Theodore Hilt, Leonard Thayer, Robert Barnum and Lyle Adams were in attendance, coming back with a better understanding of chapter responsibilities. Lyle Adams has the honor of being elected by the camp to the first regional secretary office in the history of this region. Lyle will be working with other elected officers in the region in setting up a regional constitution and programs for next year's camp. The seed sales this year were a fine success. The chapter with the excellent cooperation of the people in the communities, sold $340 in seeds. High salesmen were Adams with $85 and Putnam with $39. The money realized is being applied toward our field sprayer. At the present time the chapter

MARVIN DAVENPORT SAYS--

Bees Are Most Useful of Man's Insect Friends

Bees are one of the most valuable and useful of man's insect friends, but no matter how much regard we may have for the work the bee does, we are often annoyed when it uses one of our homes as a hive. E. C. Martin of Michigan State University entomology department says if you intend to remove bees from a building, the sooner it is done the better.

Martin indicates that it is often best to have the job done by a professional exterminator company, since persistent effort with dangerous poisons is necessary for success. In some cases you can get help from a local beekeeper.

If you do decide to do the job yourself, here are some tips. You often find the nest far from the place where the bees enter. Tap on the wall until you hear the bees buzzing in answer. Then, in the evening, when all the bees are in the nest, drill a hole above the spot and apply poison directly on the nest.

Cyanogas or carbon tetrachloride can be used, but both are very dangerous. Your house should be vacated during their use, and aired afterwards. Carbon tetrachloride is usually the most satisfactory. It is advisable to dust with DDT after this operation to get stragglers.

Another possibility is chlordane dust. This should be at least five percent strength and should be applied several times, at intervals of a few days.

After the bees are killed, the holes should be patched and the nest removed and buried. Paint the area if possible to keep other bees from smelling the old nest and trying to move in.

"How can I control those white grubs in my lawn?" A number of you folks have already asked. Aldrin is used at the rate of one-fourth pound per hundred square feet. Wet down the lawn after treating it. Chlordane or dieldrin can be used in place of aldrin. Follow the manufacturer's directions in making the application.

You can save yourself some money and get better crops from your garden this year if you have the soil tested before applying fertilizer.

If the soil has not been tested, you will not know what it needs and the money and time you spend fertilizing may be wasted, points out James Porter, extension soils specialist at Michigan State University. There is still time to test those portions of your garden not planted to very early vegetables.

A typical recommendation is 20 pounds per 1,000 square feet, broadcast, and a teaspoon per 10 feet of each row at planting time. An analysis of 6-12-12 is most commonly recommended.

If you test, you will know how much of what analysis fertilizer is needed, as well as the lime requirements. Too much of either can actually harm growth.

A good balanced fertilizer will be recommended as a result of the soil test.

You can take your own samples. You need a clean pail, a spade or trowel, and some clean paper bags or pint jars.

Take a sample from each different part of the garden or plot by taking a slice of the soil about plow depth, and put it in the pail. Mix these samples together, and take a bag or jar and the mixture to my office in the Federal Building, East Tawas.

Use enough fertilizer, but not too much.

Calendar:

- Monday, May 13--Soil Conservation District board meeting, Federal Building, East Tawas.
Wednesday, May 15--8:00 p. m. Dairy meeting, Tawas Area High School, Don Murray, Michigan State University dairy specialist, will conduct this session.
Friday, May 17--Hereford Calf Association meeting, Plainfield Township Hall at Hale. 8:00 p. m.

Cadillac

Third Generation at the Wheel!

"Like father, like son", the poets say. And never was it truer than in the case of a great many fine Cadillac families.

For there are, in our land today, a number of families that currently boast as many as three generations at the wheel.

We mention this simply to underscore a great and dramatic truth about Cadillac--that, of course, is its unchanging goodness and quality.

For fifty-five years, the Cadillac name has signified one and the same thing to motorists everywhere--a motor car created at the highest level that automotive science would permit.

Over that time, Cadillac has attracted to the ranks of its owners the finest list of names to be found anywhere on the American motoring scene. And, those who have followed the path to Cadillac in 1957 are enjoying the most abundant blessings of this ceaseless crusade for quality.

The new "car of cars", with coachcraft by Fleetwood, is beautiful and luxurious to an unprecedented degree. And its performance and handling ease are a revelation!

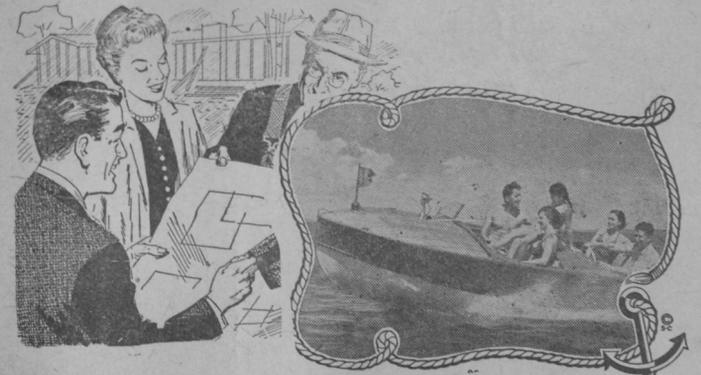

Certainly, the Cadillac car has now become an even wiser investment for an even wider circle of America's motorists.

If you have yet to acquaint yourself with these brilliant Cadillac virtues for 1957, your dealer will be delighted to tell you how easily you can make Cadillac a fine family custom of your own!

Improved Methods of Air Alert Warning in State

The new air raid warning system by which the country can be alerted in eight minutes as compared to 20 minutes under the former plan has been cut in with a test that proved a success.

Under the former system, Michigan received its alert from two different points. The state was divided into eight districts, the first six receiving the alert signal from the 30th Air Defense installation at Belleville, while districts seven and eight in the north received theirs from Truax Field, Madison, Wisconsin.

The new system divides the country into three sections, the western, central and eastern. Michigan is in the eastern section, as are 25 other states. All warnings come from a central point at Colorado Springs, Colorado. Communication to Michigan is by a telephone circuit kept open on a 24-hour basis.

When the warning from Colorado Springs is given to East Lansing headquarters of the state police, this headquarters will then be polled from a headquarters point in the eastern air warning circuit, as will other states in the area, to make certain it has been received.

With a foot control the connection is broken between East Lansing and the eastern station, and the way is clear for the state police to poll all eight districts in the state to determine if they have received the alert. During this period, communications with the central installation at Colorado Springs remain intact, and Michigan is able to monitor any information from that point.

And he put forth his hand, and touched him saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him."

Catholics Plan New Seminary Near Saginaw

A new seminary for educating young men for the Catholic priesthood of the Diocese of Saginaw is being planned here, according to announcement by the Most Rev. Stephen S. Woznicki, bishop of Saginaw.

The building, which will house up to 180 students, will be located on a 52-acre site at the corner of Wieneke and Weiss Roads, two and one-half miles west of Saginaw.

The seminary, when in operation, will give its students the equivalent of a four-year high school course, with an extra year for late entrants. It is planned to have the institution accredited with the University of Michigan and the North Central Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges.

A drive for funds to defray construction costs is being conducted throughout the 16-county diocesan area from May 12 to 31. Cost of the structure is estimated at two million dollars.

The present need of a local seminary arises, Bishop Woznicki declared, from the over-crowded condition of other such schools in Michigan. Saginaw students for the most part have heretofore attended seminaries in the Detroit Archdiocese and the Grand Rapids Diocese from which the Saginaw territory was taken at its founding in 1938.

As rector of the new establishment, Bishop Woznicki has chosen his secretary, the Very Rev. James A. Hickey. Other faculty members, recruited from the diocesan clergy, will be announced later.

A special 20-member building committee is presently at work on preliminary sketches for the building which are being drawn by Joseph C. Goddeyne, architect of Bay City. Construction is expected to begin next spring, with the opening in the fall of 1960.

HYACINTHS BLOOM EARLY AT JACOB MILLER HOME

Normally, hyacinths bloom when the plants are two feet tall. At the Jacob Miller home in Elms Garden Subdivision the flowers bloom as they burst through the ground. "It's a new one on me," Mr. Miller said. "I've never seen anything like it before."

FACTORY WORKERS' PAY

The labor department has reported that average weekly earnings of factory workers in March, after deduction of federal taxes, dropped a little more than 30 cents, to $74.65 for a worker with three dependents, and $67.25 for a single worker. Factory workers buying power also declined, reflecting shorter working hours as well as higher living costs.

NO INCREASE—

Recently announced increases in automobile insurance rates in Michigan will not affect policyholders of the Auto-Owners Insurance Company, according to William C. Searl, Auto-Owners executive vice president.

"Auto-Owners has no present plans for rate increases," Mr. Searl stated. "We are constantly in touch with changing conditions through our statistical department, of course, but we believe we are currently able to avoid a sharply rising trend in automobile loss ratios through careful selection of risks. We have cautioned our 1,450 agents in Michigan and other states to apply common sense rules when writing auto insurance. We are enlisting their influence in encouraging strict enforcement of speed limit laws."

"In Michigan," Mr. Searl continued, "our branch claim offices have noted a decrease in accident frequency, although it is still too early to define a solid trend. Michigan is to be commended for its move to place more state police officers on our highways. Their presence there can do much to cut down accidents and personal injuries."

First Athletic Awards Banquet to be Held

The first annual athletic awards banquet is to be held May 15 at 6:30 p. m. in the new Tawas Area High School cafeteria. The banquet, itself, is under the leadership of Mrs. Milton Barkman, president of the Tawas Area P.T.A., and an excellent program is planned.

Speaker for the evening is Morley Fraser, athletic director and head football coach at Albion College. He is well known throughout Michigan as an inspirational speaker.

The awards will be presented for all sports by their respective coaches. Highlights of the evening will be the presentation of the "P-T-A Senior Athletic Award" of the year, by Superintendent Reynold Mick.

The P-T-A cordially invites the public to attend this first big athletic banquet at the new school. The menu will be planned potluck with tickets specifying what foods each person shall bring. The tickets, admission free, are available at the new high school building and the East Tawas building. Wurtsmith to Exchange Fox Insignias in Transfer Wurtsmith's gray fox will have a new replacement before the end of the year—a blue fox.

According to an announcement this week, before the end of the year the 31st Fighter-Interceptor Squadron, one of the nation's top fighter plane outfits, will be leaving for assignment to Ladd Air Force Base in Alaska.

The 31st, commanded by Lt. Col. John M. Patton, will be replaced at this installation by the 18th Fighter-Interceptor Squadron now stationed at Ladd AFB.

The squadron exchange was indicated by air force headquarters in a movement warning order received at Wurtsmith. It is in keeping with an air force policy of rotating personnel between stateside and overseas duty and will enable personnel to be rotated without affecting combat capabilities in either area.

After the move both squadrons will be flying the F-102. The 31st is flying the supersonic interceptor plane now and the 18th, now equipped with F-89 Scorpions, will fly the F-102 when assigned to Wurtsmith.

At Ladd AFB since July 1954, the 18th is popularly called the Blue Fox Squadron. This is in keeping with the squadron insignia picturing a blue fox firing a machine gun as he rides white clouds against a gold background.

The 31st, which also has a fox as its insignia, was reactivated at Wurtsmith June 8, 1956, and along with the 445th FIS makes up the two fighter squadrons now assigned there.

Sign Service Building Slightly Damaged

Tawas City firemen were called to the Champion Sign Service in Tawas City Monday afternoon to fight a blaze which started in a pile of lumber at the rear of the building.

The fire was discovered by a customer of Champion's. After learning that no one was at the shop, the customer noticed smoke billowing from the rear of the building and turned in the alarm at a nearby gasoline station.

Firemen arrived in time to stop the blaze just as it reached a pair of propane gas tanks. A truck was moved from the danger area by a neighbor.

Heat from the fire cracked joints in the concrete block building and broke out several window panes.

The fire department was also called out on a number of grass fires Monday and Tuesday.

Following the dinner, members and guests adjourned to the Legion Hall where Mrs. Harmon gave an enlightening talk. A short business meeting followed with plans being made for the Poppy Day sales.

After the meeting was adjourned, games were played for the enjoyment of all.

Tawas Area Braves Win From Eastern For Fifth in a Row

Tawas Area rang up its fifth straight baseball victory Friday night by dropping Arenac Eastern, 10-3, under the lights on the loser's home field. The win was also the fifth in a row for Larry Frank, star moundsmen of the Braves.

Tawas Area collected a total of 12 hits, led by Frank with three singles four at-bats. Laidlaw and DeLosh added two each to the winning cause.

Frank was outstanding on the mound, even though the game was played in freezing temperature. Arenac scored its three runs in the bottom half of the fifth and were held scoreless for the remaining two innings.

With one out, Herriman started things off in the second inning when he reached first on an error. Frank singled to left sending the runner to third. Laidlaw followed with a single to right scoring Herriman.

In the third Jordan led off with a single, stole second, went to third on a force out and scored on a wild pitch.

Frank singled with two outs in the fourth inning, as did Laidlaw. Frank scored on a wild pitch.

Jordan and DeLosh both walked to start the fifth. Guyette was safe on an error filling the sacks. Rieger singled to drive in two runs. Herriman singled in one run. Frank singled driving in a run. Laidlaw walked and Lanski doubled driving in the last two Tawas scores.

Top batters for Tawas Area during the spring season are Laidlaw, 469; Jordan, 466; Guyette, 411; Rieger, 454; Frank, 428, and DeLosh, 375. Curry is batting an even .500 percentage with one hit in two times at bat.

Tawas Tennis Team Salvages but One Meeting

Tawas Area tennis teams were able to salvage only one meeting with three area schools during the past week. Last Monday they defeated Alpena reserves, 5-2½, while losing to West Branch Tuesday, 19½-3 and again to the same squad on Friday, 13½-9.

Against Alpena, Featheringill defeated Lutz in singles, 6-4, 6-4. Hill defeated Glennie, 7-5, 6-2.

In doubles Hanna and Herriman won over Collins and French, 6-1, 6-2, while Teepie and Young were defeated by Kuetz and Huyak 3-6, 3-6. Moore and Cabble evened the score in doubles by defeating Cohen and McLarty, 8-6, 11-9.

This was the extent of the squad's winning play, however, as they did an about face against West Branch and were defeated handsly in both meetings.

uled at army, navy or air force bases.

A Scout level "shakedown cruise" will prepare the special jamboree troop for their half month together. The staging area for the "shakedown cruise" will be the Currie Parkway at the old Midland County fairgrounds.

Arriving July 7 fully equipped for jamboree living, the Scouts will camp out Friday night. On Saturday the schedule includes final training sessions.

Electing their own patrol leaders that day, the Scouts will have chosen their junior leaders after becoming acquainted by living together through the last of several such training camps.

At 4:30 Sunday they will rise and enjoy showers through the courtesy of Manager David Russell of Midland Community Center. After they break camp for breakfast and church their chartered bus will take them through Sarnia, Ontario, and Niagara Falls on the first day.

Scheduled to arrive in Washington, D. C. on Monday, the Scouts will spend two days sightseeing with a professional guide.

Thursday they will depart for Valley Forge via Gettysburg, arriving on the 1,500-acre jamboree site Friday. There with 50,000 other jamboree Scouts they will pitch their tents in a cool valley which the council leaders drew last winter.

As always at a national jamboree, competition will be high to make each troop's area distinctively different. Plans have been underway since January to make the Paul Bunyan Council Troop's camp site a landmark visible from almost any place in the Valley Forge park. Details will be announced later.

During jamboree week, the Paul Bunyan Troop will leave the area for a supervised sightseeing trip to Philadelphia's Independence Hall, the Liberty Bell and other places where the nation's early history was enacted.

Breaking camp early Friday July 19, the Scouts will travel on the Turnpike, camping overnight at the Akron Naval Base. Their arrival at Midland is scheduled for late afternoon Saturday, July 20.

The council voted to advertise for bids on a new police car. The council authorized the department of public works to purchase liquid chloride for dust control. Delivery is expected in about 10 days.

WORK STARTED two weeks ago on the new St. Joseph's School at East Tawas, located on the church grounds. Construction of the $80,000 building is by O. S. Rose Builders, Tawas City. Architects are Brisselbout and Stark of Bay City. Workmen are pictured above laying bricks last Friday afternoon. It is planned to have the school ready for occupancy this fall.—Tawas Herald Photo.

Besser

liked to sing got together. The group has grown to a membership of 50, about one-third of whom are Bessermen, with the remainder being recruited from the Alpena community at large.

The size of the chorus is limited by its constitution to 50 and there is a waiting list of several prospective members always on hand. Sponsored originally by Besser Company as a part of its employee recreation program, the chorus, despite its present community membership, is still supported by the company.

The popularity of the chorus is attested to by the many requests for its services. About 15-20 public appearances are made each year, many of them, like the Tawas concert, are repeat performances. The performance here on May 16 will be the fourth consecutive year the men have appeared here.

The concert programs are varied, selected with the idea of pleasing a wide range of musical tastes, including the classics, modern music, popular songs and several comedy-novelty numbers. In addition to the chorus ensembles there are soloists, a pantomimist and a sextet of high school misses known as the Teen Tunesers, whose efforts have been very well received. The program will start here at 8:15 p. m. It is under the combined sponsorship of chapters of the Order of Eastern Star of the Tawas.
