'Trick-or-Treat for UNICEF,' Say Kids

Little Spooks and goblins, spacemen and witches will ring the doorbells of Tawas City Saturday night and townfolks will hear the familiar chant, "Trick or Treat for UNICEF."

Sponsored locally by the Tawas City Businessmen's Association and Twentieth Century Club and nationally by the United States Committee for UNICEF, the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund program will be carried out at the same time in some 10,000 other communities.

UNICEF collections will also be made by youngsters in Whittemore and East Tawas.

Each penny collected by the Trick or Treaters wearing the UNICEF black and orange tag Saturday night can mean five glasses of milk for a needy child overseas, or the BCG vaccine to protect him from tuberculosis.

The junior citizens of Tawas City participating in Trick or Treat for UNICEF will meet at their churches at 6:30 p. m. They will canvass the neighborhood in small groups, escorted by young adults who are also volunteering their time.

A party will be held at the Tawas City unit gymnasium starting at 7:45 o'clock. Costume prizes will be awarded and movies will be shown. After the movie all participants will be given treats.

During the time the program is in progress at the gymnasium, it will be possible for the various church groups to count results of the drive and compile it for a combined report of the amount collected.

Mrs. Walter Wiedbrauk, local chairman, pointed out this week that UNICEF is not a give-away program. Governments that request its aid spend an average of more than $2.50 for each $1.00 received in UNICEF supplies.

TUTTLE LOW BIDDER Supt. Reynold Mick of Tawas Area School announced Tuesday that Tuttle Hardware in Tawas City was low bidder on furnishing hand tools for the school shop. Bids were opened by the board of education Monday night.

ONE OF THE BEST catches of perch taken on Tawas Bay was reported last week. Richard Lanski of Tawas City and his two sons, "Dick" Jr. and Randy, along with Frank Lansky and two other fishermen, caught these 300 perch off shore from Tawas Point in one afternoon of fishing.—Tawas Herald Photo.

Motion for New Trial on Lake Level Denied by Judge

At a hearing Tuesday in Iosco County Circuit Court, Judge Herman Dehnke denied a motion for a new trial on the determination of the legal level of Tawas Lake. A motion for a new trial is quite often the preliminary step for an appeal to the supreme court.

The motion for a new trial was asked by Allan C. Miller, attorney for Charles Timreck, Edward Burgeson, David Sims and Ernest J. Zabolcki, abutting property owners on the west side of Tawas Lake.

On October 6, Judge Dehnke signed a decree fixing the normal level of Tawas Lake at 582.5 feet above sea level, after a hearing was held earlier in Iosco County Circuit Court.

An association of property owners on the east side of Tawas Lake had asked for the establishment of a legal level of the lake in order that legal steps might be taken by the county for construction of a dam.

Among his reasons in asking for a new trial, Miller listed the following: 1. That the judgment was against the great weight of evidence, stating that the evidence supported the normal and historic level of 582 feet; that the only testimony to the contrary was of the department of conservation to the effect that a "practical" level would be 582.8 feet.

The motion for a new trial stated that a requisite of 51 percent of abutting owners would not have been secured but for the signatures of Mr. Burgeson and Mr. Timreck, who own large expanses of frontage on the west side of the lake. The motion stated that representations made to owners on the west side indicated that they would not be flooded.

Miller's motion stated that the decree was contrary to law in that it constituted the taking of property for private purposes in violation of state and federal constitutions.

Judge Dehnke found Tuesday that the court had jurisdiction under the present statute to hear the case even though the necessary number of signers in the original petition may have been obtained under some misapprehension. He said once the board of supervisors had acted on the petition it was too late to raise the question of the validity of the signatures.

Judge Dehnke found no reason to change his opinion with respect to the word "normal." He also indicated that condemnation proceedings were a matter separate from the lake level determination.

"I will be happy to cooperate in anything the court can do to expedite preliminary proceedings for an appeal," said the judge.

When he handed down his decision in September, Judge Dehnke left the way open for a possible appeal to the supreme court by the west side owners. He said that there were many laws on the books concerning establishment of the legal level of inland lakes, but indicated that many were conflicting.

Investigate Theft of Canoe at Sand Lake State police are investigating the theft of a 16-foot canoe which was stolen sometime during the past week from the Glen Sheridan cabin at Sand Lake. Sheridan told officers that he discovered the canoe had been stolen when he came up for the week-end. A chain which had been secured to the canoe had been severed from a tree.

East Tawas to Vote on New City Hall Nov. 18 East Tawas voters will receive two ballots at the special election November 18. One ballot will ask voters to authorize the city to issue general obligation bonds in the amount of $85,000 for the construction of a new city hall. The other ballot will ask to raise the debt limit from two to five percent of the city's assessed valuation.

Eligible voters will receive two separate and distinct ballots. Property owners, their husbands or wives, are the only voters eligible to receive a ballot on the bond issue proposition. All registered voters in the city are eligible to vote on the question of raising the debt limit.

At the present time, the two percent debt limit would give the city only $49,333 on its assessed valuation of $2,469,175 for construction of a new city hall.

Passage of the bond issue requires a favorable vote by 60 percent of those who cast a ballot on the proposition. The vote to increase the debt limit requires a majority vote in order to be successful.

In order to go ahead with the new city hall, both ballots must receive a favorable vote. It was pointed out that in case the debt limit failed, it could not be voted on again for two years.

Plans for the new city hall to replace the old structure, built during the lumbering days, has been under consideration for quite some time. A committee of businessmen and civic leaders was named to formulate plans for the new building. The city council decided to put the question before the voters of East Tawas earlier this fall.

OK Water Mains for Huron Gardens Tawas City Water Board authorized the department of public works to obtain engineering for 1,240 feet of water main construction in Huron Gardens subdivision. This main is to be extended as far as existing sewer mains.

Owner Victor Zaharias has constructed 1,240 feet of sewer main on Roberta and Anna Drives. Cost of constructing the sewer main was paid by the owner.

Authorization was given by the water board to purchase enough material at this time to service a new home now under construction. The remainder of the water mains will be constructed next spring.

In other business, the water board recommended that a letter be sent to property owners along the new First Avenue sewer line notifying them that a sewer charge has to be paid before lot connections are made.

Supt. of Public Works Reginald Bulbitz reported that necessary repairs to reinforcing at the top of the elevated tank behind the city hall were completed by Samuel Edwards of Vassar. The tank was drained and completely cleaned on the inside, both the bowl and the bottom of the stand pipe.

A thorough inspection of the tank by Edwards indicated that its condition was satisfactory. He has repaired and maintained the tank since it was constructed in 1936.

Hale Lions Club Tells of Plans for Nov. 8 Shoot

To help raise money for the sight conservation fund, from which eye examinations and glasses are paid, the Hale Lions Club will hold its second annual turkey shoot Sunday, November 8. The range is one mile east at Roy Vinnege's gravel pit and will start at 9:30 a. m. Frozen turkeys, dressed and oven-ready, will be given as prizes.

Recently, the Hale Lions Club paid for three eye examinations and two pairs of glasses for Hale residents.

At its latest meeting, the board authorized the purchase of 20 more eye examinations and glasses if needed. Names of Hale Area students needing eye examinations were secured through an eye test given by the Iosco County Health Department last spring.

US-23 Booster Club to Meet in Tawas Thursday

Members of the US-23 Booster Club will meet Thursday night at Ossi's Restaurant in East Tawas. Dinner will be served at 7 o'clock.

In a letter to members this week, President O. E. Ostrander of East Tawas said that approximately 30,000 strip maps showing the main points of interest along US-23 were distributed to tourist bureaus, automobile clubs, gasoline stations and restaurants, below the Standish area.

Emphasizing the scenic shore route to the Mackinac Bridge, the maps gave tourists the opportunity to study the points of interest far enough ahead of time to decide on seeing these attractions.

"We could sit back now and say, 'Well, the increased travel which the state survey shows on US-23 would come without any effort of the US-23 Booster Club; the five small highway signs and the large highway sign do not influence tourists to travel US-23.' I do not believe that this is the attitude regarding the US-23 Boosters," stated Ostrander. "All business people know that advertising pays off and I definitely believe that the efforts put forth have been responsible for the increase in business along US-23."

Ostrander said that three points to be considered at the meeting Thursday night include: 1. Shall the US-23 Booster Club be continued; 2. How will it be financed in the future; 3. Should the present program continue, or should advertising of US-23 be increased.

Returned to Iosco on Bad Check Charge Leonard Wilson, former Tawas City automotive mechanic, was returned to Iosco County last week after being apprehended in Stanley, North Dakota. He faces prosecution here on charges of issuing no-account checks.

Wilson was held by North Dakota authorities after they learned that he was wanted here. He had attempted to sell a camera in Stanley in order to purchase gasoline for a pickup truck which he was driving.

Waiving extradition to Michigan, Wilson was returned here by Sheriff Ivan O'Farrell and Deputy Sheriff Robert Langlois.

Editorials—

Few aspects of our modern world are more disheartening than the fate of the millions of children who still endure the hardships of times normally associated with war or periods of pestilence because the benefits of drugs, foods and technique taken for granted in more developed areas of the world are so slow in reaching them.

Blindness threatens countless youngsters every year in an age where the eye disease they suffer, from trachoma, can easily be cured with aureomycin. Millions of others can be crippled for life for the lack of the single shot of penicillin needed to cure their tropical illness, yaws. Leprosy, once a hopeless scourge, is successfully treated with sulfone, provided this wonder drug is available. BCG vaccine protects against tuberculosis, DDT protects against malaria, and very often elementary knowledge of diet is enough to defeat malnutrition among children—that is, as long as BCG, DDT and basic nutrition information can be obtained.

Over 750 million children—three out of four in the whole world—the best chance to obtain the aid they need is through UNICEF, the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund.

So far, through this organization's participation in more than 300 projects in over 100 countries and territories, more than 100 million children have been protected from TB; the vaccine needed for 100 children costs UNICEF $1. Over 13 million children have been cured of yaws; a shot of penicillin costs UNICEF five cents. Almost four million children have been treated for trachoma; the aureomycin costs UNICEF 20 cents per child. Over 800,000 have been treated for leprosy—the sulfone tablets for three years of treatment cost UNICEF $1.

All those of us who have a sincere desire to help "all the world's children" will have a good opportunity to do so on Halloween. Locally sponsored by the Tawas City Businessmen's Association and the Twentieth Century Club, Trick or Treat for UNICEF will bring Tawas City's children to our doors. They will ring our doorbells and hold out little milk cartons with a black and orange label. Each penny we drop into their containers will provide a needy child with five glasses of milk, or contribute to his fight for a healthy, normal life in some other way.

Let us bear in mind all the good that is being accomplished by UNICEF and when the children's fund trick or treaters come knocking at our doors Saturday, let us help them generously because with just a little from us they can do so much for so many.

Thursday, October 22, the day the court declared the use tax increase unconstitutional, was a black day for Michigan citizens. The 120 million dollars the use tax would have brought in is now lost.

We are not back where we started 10 months ago—we are worse off than ever. We still owe 90 million dollars and we will now go into debt at least another 10 million dollars per month.

The blame for Michigan's financial mess certainly cannot be placed on the supreme court. It belongs right on the shoulders of the legislators, the governor and all politicians in Lansing. The blame also belongs on every voter in the state for putting these party-mad politicians in the state capitol.

There is only one way, as we see it, to avert this economic chaos—the question of changing the state constitution to allow a sales tax increase, or the proposed personal income tax plan, should be put to the voters. If our legislature and state administrators cannot come to agreement on how to raise new taxes let the people have their say... after all, the people of the State of Michigan are the ones who have to foot the bill.

Our only hope now is that we see some new faces in Lansing after the next state election—Democrats, Republicans or what have you—just as long as they put Michigan first, and party politics second.

Zion Church to Participate in Lutheran Open House Week

November 1-5 has been designated as "Lutheran Open House Week" in a Michigan-wide event of the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod. Zion Lutheran Church of Tawas City is one of 13 congregations of the Bay City district participating.

This is one of the greatest efforts ever put forth for Christ and His Church by Lutherans and will consist of simultaneous preaching missions and lay visitation projects.

Lutheran Open House Week is not a membership drive. Its official purpose is to "strengthen the Christian Convictions of Lutherans, thus to equip them to do evangelism everyday and to bring the unreached under the influence of the Gospel."

During the weeks preceding open house week, volunteer workers of Zion Lutheran Church have made a church census in the form of a community canvass. Those who have no church affiliation will be personally invited to attend evening services conducted by a guest missionary during the week of November 1-5.

Guest missionary for Zion will be the Rev. Arlen J. Bruns of Trinity Lutheran Church, Great Bend, Kansas. Pastor Bruns will deliver the sermon at all the mission week services. He has had extensive experience in the mission field. At Great Bend, he broadcasts church services over radio station KVGB and also serves a group of deaf people via the sign language. His services at Zion will be three-fold, (1) to preach all the services, (2) to instruct the lay visitors in motive and methods of personal evangelism and (3) to discuss the congregation's evangelism program with the lay leadership on the congregation.

Lutheran evangelism is traditionally and inherently educational. Its immediate goal is not just to "get more members" but rather to attract the unchurched to attend the pastors' classes, in which the non-member can hear and discuss the Christian faith and the Lutheran Church before deciding whether or not to become a member.

REV. ARLEN J. BRUNS

REVIVAL SERVICES BEING HELD AT HALE CHURCH

Guest speakers at Hale Assembly of God Church revival meetings, being held through November 8, are the Rev. George Krish, pastor of East Tawas Assembly of God Church, and the Rev. Roscoe Berthume of Owosso. The services, which began October 25, will be held every evening except Mondays.

Mr. Krish will be the speaker each evening through November 1. In charge of the remaining meetings will be Mr. Berthume. The Rev. Curtis McClain is pastor of the Hale church.

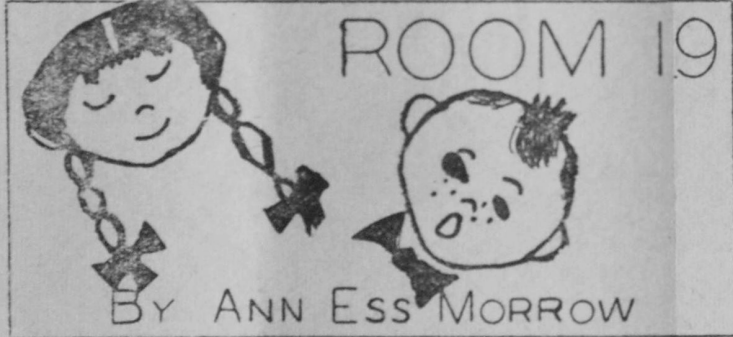

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Prayer's effectiveness in healing sin and sickness will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.

Scriptural readings in the lesson-sermon entitled "Everlasting Punishment" will include this selection from James (5:14,15): "Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord; and the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him."

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include (391:13): "It is error to suffer for aught but your own sins. Christ, or Truth, will destroy all other supposed suffering, and real suffering for your own sins will cease in proportion as the sin ceases."

The Golden Text is from Proverbs (15:29): "The Lord is far from the wicked; but he heareth the prayer of the righteous."

What better place or time than school or now to learn adjusting? The process, though, is often on the painful side, for little boys and girls especially. In kindergarten and in first grade, they often come to know and love their teachers who serve as mothers of the daytime world.

For one whole year of school, this person, symbolizing real security and freedom from the fears of the unusual, dominates the world. And then, like pages of the calendar tossed aside, this period ends and they are promised academic living in a different room and world. Strangely, little folks struggle with tears at times because they pass, while older ones weep because they do not.

But youngsters do become attached to teacher, when she is sweet like butterscotch pie. They see her share enthusiasms, bind up wounds, emotional and otherwise, produce Kleenex, smile, scold and comfort, along with her dispensing of the facts. And youngsters come to know her almost as well as she knows them. They know that when she is cross, she probably will not grant a favor; then when she is in a genial mood, they will hear of an intriguing day when something special happened. And so they are just a bit nostalgic when they leave.

Yet, boys and girls must academically move upward. Thus, life becomes a matter of getting along with many others in the world of school. The children move to different room and teacher every hour, in fact. And here is the place adjustment enters in.

The over-all values of the school—like honesty and loyalty to one's flag, to one's better self and striving for the best in life—remain that way. But lesser values change and this is often hard for boys and girls.

Take Mrs. Jones, for instance. In her room, there must be silence deep as Uncle Ezra's well.

Heart that murmurs has no place in there. So now Jane learns the need for utter silence.

She hurries to her next class, where atmosphere is permissive. In this room, boys and girls are taught to work informally, with concept that the busy sounds are indication learning is taking place. So now Jane talks in undertone with the group to whom she is assigned.

In Mrs. James' room, much depends on written work—with special routine to be followed; Mr. Thomas pays no heed to that at all, he judges mostly by participation, by the number of times one's hand is raised.

Miss Collins emphasizes good in life and in a kindly atmosphere dispenses marks that way. Mr. Humphrey feels that these are steely standards—hardly stay exactly at this height regardless of the length of legs and many youngsters fail.

In algebra, they learn to sense the teacher's mood and then act quite in keeping. Most of all, they find it does not do to tell him what the teacher did last year. So they go from one variety of academic climate to another, adjusting in the process, seeking, like a person who remains in front of fire on hearth, to be neither fricasseed nor trapeped in the process.

Actually, this is good though painful, preparing folks for people whom they will meet in life, with standards quite as different as their faces. Sometimes, though, one must be sure that in achieving rounded personality, he does not become a bit balled up.

How glad I am that I, too, through the years, have learned adjustment! The satisfaction in my soul produces real elation.

Thus, filled with joy of living, the security of my adjustment power, the firmness of my footing, I open wide the door. I crash at once on roller skates forgotten there, all my ulcers popping.

Clean ELECTRIC cooking is a sure sign of modern living—kind to all the rooms in your house and better than "help" in the kitchen. The paint on walls and ceiling stays clean, longer; kitchen curtains, too. The ELECTRIC range stays sparkling bright with surface units that clean themselves by burning off any spilled foods and a damp cloth over the rest does a quick, shiny, clean-up job. For a real stay-clean kitchen with a "fresh as a daisy" look, cook the clean, modern way, cook ELECTRICALLY!

TWO TAWAS AREA TACKLERS in white (?) uniforms, John Sass (80) and Ken Herriman (41), converge on Panther Quarterback Ken Hribeck in last Friday night's game. Rain fell throughout the game and the field was turned into a "mud bowl." The Panthers took an 20-0 win over the Braves.—Tawas Herald Photos.

Braves Lose in Mud to Central 20-0

Arenac Central Panthers, showing impressive speed and good ball handling in spite of an October "monsoon" which turned the gridiron into a mud bowl, gained a chance for at least a tie in the NEM Conference championship race by defeating the Tawas Area Braves Friday night, 20-0.

Playing on a rain-swept field at Tawas, the Panthers scored the winning touchdown shortly after taking the opening kickoff in the first quarter. After that, Central's line defended Tawas Area perfectly and the Braves were unable to penetrate into Central territory.

Fumbles figured in the last two scores by the Panthers, Tawas Area losing possession twice deep in their own territory when the slippery ball was fumbled on the snap-back.

That there were only five fumbles during the game was a credit to both teams, under the circumstances. Tawas fumbled three times and recovered one while the Panthers fumbled twice and recovered four times.

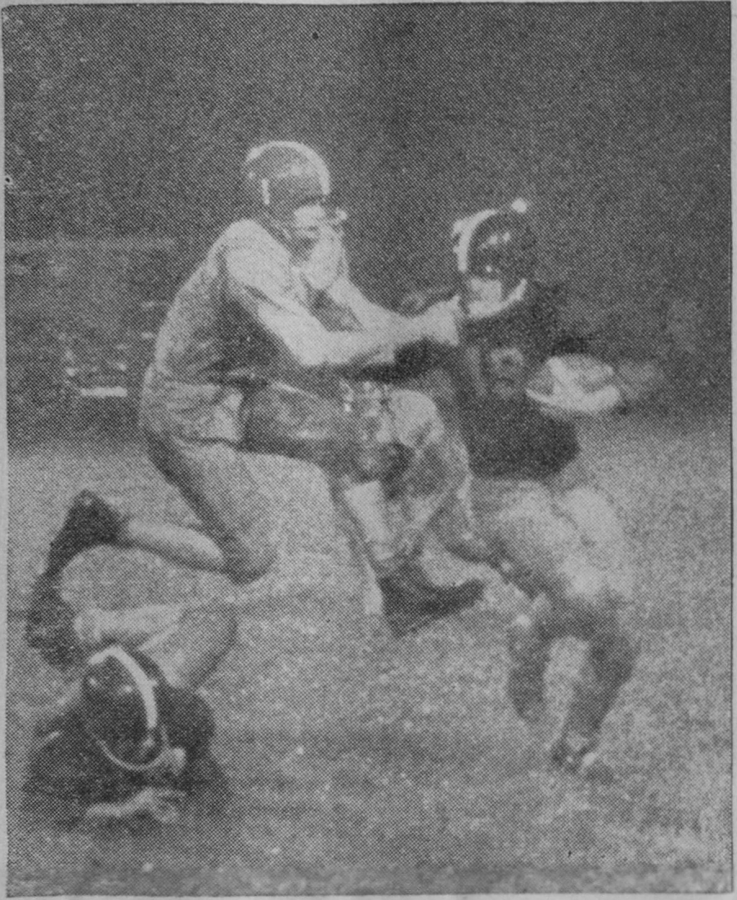

In spite of the weather, several hundred loyal followers from both schools were on hand to watch the game. Halftime program scheduled to honor dads of Tawas Area varsity players was postponed until the Beaverton game.

Arenac Central scored its first TD in eight plays after taking the opening kickoff. Fullback Tom Dowler racked up 13 yards, Halfback Doug Dudley picked up four yards and End John Koin went seven yards before Halfback LaVon Crowl went 20 yards in two plays to score. The extra point attempt was missed.

This was the only score during the first half as the two teams battled for possession of the ball. After taking the kickoff after the Panther touchdown, Tawas Area was unable to move the ball and was forced to punt. Central moved deep into Tawas territory and had possession for 15 plays but lost the ball on downs after a 15-yard penalty.

Tawas took over the ball and started its best drive of the night, but finally lost the ball on downs with the ball resting on the Central 38-yard line.

Just before the half ended, Jim Wilkusi, Tawas Area guard, intercepted a Panther pass and sloshed for 20 yards along the side lines before finally being tackled. The Braves were unable to move the ball, however, and Central took over on fourth down.

The second half started with Standish-Sterling kicking off to the Braves. Tawas fumbled the kickoff deep in its own territory and Ulman punted after the Braves were held to a standstill in three plays. The Panthers had the ball for four plays during the final quarter, gaining five yards and losing five yards.

This Friday night the Braves will meet league-leading Gladwin on the latter's home field. The Flying Gs defeated Houghton Lake last Friday night and could wrap up the league championship with a win over Tawas Area.

Gladwin held its top position in the Northeastern Michigan Conference last Friday night with a squeaker at Houghton Lake, 6-0, while the second place eleven, Arenac Central, was having an easier time downing the Tawas Area Braves, 20-0, and Roscommon in third place was disposing of Beaverton, 20-6. Pinconning entered the win column with a 39-0 tune at home with Arenac Eastern and West Branch was beating Whittemore-Prescott in a non-league affair, 19-7.

With the season drawing to a close, games on tap for this Friday include Pinconning at West Branch, Tawas Area at Gladwin, Roscommon at Arenac Eastern, Houghton Lake at Beaverton and Whittemore-Prescott at Standish with Arenac Central.

Gladwin pushed across a TD in the first period to strengthen their top position and hand Houghton Lake its third defeat of the year.

Although the ground was soggy and the ball was wet, the Flying Gs used a pass, Halfback Don Hale to Halfback Doug Redmen for the lone counter of the contest. The play covered 22 yards to pay dirt and gave the winners their sixth straight, five in conference play, for the year.

The Bobcats threatened in the second quarter when they drove to the Gladwin six but the attack faltered on a TD pass, dropped in the end zone. The elements held both elevens to a mud game in the second half.

Roscommon celebrated homecoming on a very muddy gridiron, getting two TDs in the second quarter and one in the final frame to stay with the leaders of the loop.

A recovered Beaverton fumble on the losers 15 by Halfback Tom McBeath set up the first score for the Bucks. Fullback Barry Hubbard crashed two yards to the end zone and McBeath got the counter when he fell on the fullback's fumble. A second recovered fumble put the winners in scoring position again and Hubbard passed to McBeath for the score. The entire play went 59 yards and when Hubbard converted on a run, Roscommon held a 13-0 intermission lead.

After a scoreless third stanza, both outfits scored in the last quarter. Tackle Don Lance recovered a Beaverton fumble to give the Bucks possession and Hubbard went over from the two. Halfback Tom McCutcheon countered the extra point.

Beaverton had its scoring opportunity when Halfback Walt Newman grabbed off a winner's toss on the 30 and went to the two. Halfback Walt Offenbecker dove over for the score.

Pinconning notched its first win in a resounding note, scoring in every quarter while holding hapless Arenac Eastern to no score. The game's initial counter came on an end run of 18 yards by Halfback Dick Marter and Quarterback Mike Flynn notched the extra point for a 7-0 first quarter nod.

Two TD's in the second frame gave the winners a 20-0 lead at halftime. Marter passed to End Darrell Arnold for the six points and repeated for the PAT. Marter got the second score of the quarter on a 17-yard end run but the try for extra point failed. One counter in the third stanza by Marter on a 48-yard run after Calendar: Monday, November 2—Candle making.

Our home economics extension holiday season meeting this year is to feature the making of candles—candles for all occasions. The training meeting for leaders is planned for Monday afternoon, November 2. Everyone can be thinking about suitable articles for molds—waxed cartons from small to quart sizes, glass tumblers, mailing tubes, paper held at the school last Wednesday night. The junior girls served a roast beef dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Slosser went to Mt. Pleasant Saturday where they attended open house at Central Michigan University and the football game between CMU and Illinois. Sandra Harris helped at the Hale pharmacy while Mrs. Slosser was gone. Mrs. Ruth Bowers of Saginaw and Elaine Bowers of Bay City were at the Bowers home here for the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Arlon VanHouten took William Campbell to Sterling Thursday to see Mrs. Campbell, who is a patient at a convalescent home there. She is not very well at the present time. Mrs. Faye Dillon and baby of Whittimore spent Sunday afternoon with her mother, Mrs. Pearl Huber. Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Buck were callers last Wednesday night at the Ralph Graves home. Mrs. Emil Wagner, Mrs. Faye Johnson of Whittimore and Mrs. Fern Streeter were Thursday visitors at Bay City. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Humphrey spent Tuesday at Flint. Mrs. Millie Humphrey accompanied them and will spend some time there. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Slosser went to Bay City Friday where Mrs. Slosser had medical attention. James Mann, who received a severe cut on his hand and arm due to an accident with a chain saw a few days ago, is better.

What is that is a question often asked by the three-year-old child. He is beginning to notice things around him and is very curious. Adults take water for granted but water is magic to a preschooler. Just the fact that it comes from a faucet is a thing of wonder. To see snow melt or water become ice or steam is fascinating. He may not understand why this should happen but he is satisfied to know about it. Food interests the three-year-old, especially food that transforms in preparation. He likes to drop a bouillon cube into a cup of hot water, stir it and suddenly find he has soup. He likes to add milk to a cake mix and change it into a paste by stirring. For cake baking, he may want to use his own small pans. A rubber spatula is often easier for a child to handle than a wooden spoon. A child will often eat better if he helps prepare the food. A youngster soon asks, "Why do plants grow?" He enjoys watching plants develop. If seeds are planted for the child to watch, it helps to add a plant with buds and a plant with blossoms. He can see different stages of the plant and the waiting for seeds to grow does not seem so long. The child may enjoy the growth of a sweet potato in water or rye grass in a wet sponge. He soon learns that all living things need food and water. Pre-school children are keenly interested in what animals do and what they eat. If there is not space for an animal at home, perhaps the family could borrow an animal for a day or visit places where animals can be seen. Levers, pulleys, wheels and magnets are fascinating things for the child and he likes to learn how they operate. A magnifying glass is helpful for the child who always asks who, why or how. He will inspect things and compare spots on his hands, pieces of fabric, leaves and flowers to satisfy his curiosity. Choose a vacuum cleaner to suit the surface you want to clean. Home economists at Michigan State University say a tank or canister model works most efficiently on bare or uncarpeted floors. The upright cleaner is more efficient for carpeted floors. This is because the upright cleaner sweeps and sometimes beats as it sweeps, besides sucking the dirt into the dust bag.

Farm Events

By MARVIN DAVENPORT
Iosco Agricultural Agent

Calendar:

Wednesday, October 28—Iosco County Farm Bureau Board of Directors meeting.

Wednesday, November 4—Joint DHIA-ABA program, Reno Township Hall, 8:00 p. m. (Registered Holstein heifer calf offered as a door prize.)

Russia is a land of contrasts. She has her sputniks and luniks. Yet women sweep her city streets with brooms made of tree branches attached to sticks.

This impression comes from Dr. Alexis J. Panshin, head of the forest products department at Michigan State University. Panshin and six other forestry products experts spent a month in Russia this summer as representatives of the United States Department of Agriculture. They looked at forests, forest industries and advanced training in these areas.

Panshin was born and raised in a town of 150,000 population about 250 miles south of Moscow. He did not see that town this summer. But he learned that World War II completely destroyed the town and the Russians have completely rebuilt it. He left his homeland in 1921.

The experts traveled nearly 6,000 miles through European Russia. Like many tourists, they saw Moscow, Leningrad and Kiev but they spent most of their time observing forestry operations in outlying districts.

"The Soviet Union's industries are growing fast," Panshin reports. "They hope to double production of forestry products in the next five to seven years. And they probably will, based on what we saw."

Thousands of dwelling places are springing up in almost every Russian town and city. Eventually, the government hopes to provide six square yards of dwelling space per person. Many new apartment houses are of poor quality—some so poor they may be future slums, according to Panshin.

Softwood lumber plays a big part in the construction boom. Panshin notes several points about the Soviet Union's forest industry:

"The USSR has about three times as many woodland acres as the United States. They do not match American woodlands in variety of trees or quality of raw materials.

Soviet forestry production still trails the United States. For example, she now produces about three million tons of paper and paper products. The United States manufactures 30 million tons.

Siberia has vast unused forests. The Soviet government is starting to tap this source, partly because woodlands in European Russia suffered heavy damage and over-cutting during and soon after World War II.

Panshin found women doing most every kind of job offered in forestry-related factories. Why? First, women from rural Russia have long been used to physical labor. Second, World War II reduced the male population so much that woman-labor is still indispensable.

"Russian colleges stress on-the-job training in technical courses," the educator found. "Most forestry students get two years of practical experience before they even enter college. Some work part time throughout their college careers."

Students do not pay tuition. The government takes care of most room-and-board expenses. And top students get added bonuses.

The forestry delegation saw only two bombed-out buildings in Stalingrad that had not been removed or rebuilt. One was a mill, the other a church. The city left these buildings in ruins to remind it of the horrors of war.

1959 Farm Census Now in Progress

The 1959 census of agriculture, now under way in Iosco County, will bring up to date farm statistics last collected in 1954, when the farm census revealed the following facts:

The value of products sold in 1954 by farm operators was $1,136,604.

The value of all crops sold was $148,494 and included $144,655 for field crops, $1,552 for vegetables, $1,762 for fruits and nuts and $525 for horticultural specialties.

The value of all livestock and livestock products sold was $973,980 and included $508,435 for dairy products, $57,212 for poultry and poultry products and $408,333 for livestock and livestock products.

The value of forest products sold from the county's farms was $14,130.
