The dog, mascot of the lifeboat station, apparently was struck by a car and its back is now in a plaster cast. X-rays taken by a Wurtsmith Air Force Base veterinarian disclosed that the left pelvis was fractured. Norton said that the whole crew at Tawas Point pitched in to rig up this hammock for the dog .- Tawas Herald Photo.

SAC Moving In---

Progress at WAFB Told by Col. Smith

The time is rapidly approaching when Strategic Air Command aircraft will join those of the Air Defense Command in Michigan skies for the single purpose of the defense of this nation.

Initial ground work toward this goal has been completed and now SAC units are beginning to expand more rapidly at Wurtsmith Air Force Base and three other SAC dispersal bases. Lt. Col. C. Hunter Smith, the first SAC man to be assigned to Wurtsmith, is, at the present time, wearing three hats. In ad dition to carrying out his original assignment as SAC liaison officer to this installation, he is also serving as temporary commander of the 40th Air Division (SAC) which was recently ac tivated at Wurtsmith and CO of the 4026th Strategic Wing. According to Colonel Smith. slow and gradual buildup of SAC personnel will begin early this winter, while the B-52s and KC-135s will probably arrive in the fall of 1960.

THIS TOWN IS MINE

I am everybody. I am everybody who lives in my town.

A town is made of many things but mostly a town is made of people. A town is made by people, mostly by the people who live there.

A town grows and prospers or it declines, because of many things. Sometimes because of things beyond the control of the people who live there. But more often because of the activities of these people-what they do and say about their town.

There are no finer people than the people who live in my town. I believe in them and I believe in my town.

This town is mine. To me it is the greatest town in the world. It deserves and will get the best I can give to make it so. It deserves and will get a good word from me always.

Mrs. Margaret Priebe, of Des Moines, Iowa, chosen Mrs. America of 1960, had to prove her prowess as a good cook to gain her title – along with other qualifications such as looks, personality, and community service. Yeast-bread baking was one of the events which tested her, as she represented her home state of Iowa in the recent contest held in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. When you taste these Hurry-Up Orange Rolls, you'll see why the judges chose her as the nation's No. I homemaker.
