Iosco Court Awaits New Developments in Case

Iosco County Circuit Court today awaited further developments on lawsuits commenced in two other Michigan counties over charges of fraud in connection with construction of Capehart housing units at two air force bases located in the state.

Three simultaneous lawsuits were filed against J. W. Bateson, Incorporated, by Catsman Company, Incorporated, a Flint subcontractor for Bateson in constructing the housing units.

Besides Iosco County, where Wurtsmith Air Force Base is located, Catsman started lawsuits in Chippewa and Genesee Counties. Circuit court judges in these counties signed restraining orders against Bateson similar to that issued by Iosco Circuit Judge Allan C. Miller.

At a show cause hearing Friday, Judge Allan C. Miller stipulated that a $1,250,000 cash bond be deposited in a Michigan bank by J. W. Bateson before he would allow that firm to remove or sell any of its equipment now located at the Strategic Air Command installation in Iosco County.

However, Judge Miller said that his restraining order against removal of Bateson's records from Michigan would still stand, regardless of whether or not the $1,250,000 was deposited. The money would not draw interest in the bank.

A temporary restraining order had been signed by the judge November 18 after a bill of complaint was filed by attorneys for Catsman.

A hearing similar to that held in Iosco County was to have been conducted Monday in Chippewa County. The Iosco County court probably will have jurisdiction over the lawsuit as Judge Miller was the first to sign the restraining order Friday.

The Flint firm charges J. W. Bateson, J. T. Hubbell, O. A. Fountain and several so-called "dummy" corporations owned by the general contractor, with fraudulently conspiring to obtain subcontracts for the completion of Wurtsmith and Kincheloe Capehart housing contracts.

Catsman's bill of complaint said that Bateson had obtained subcontracts so low as to threaten insolvency and at amounts so low as to result in "unconscionable profits to the defendants, all to the continuing injury of the subcontractor and to the continuing injury of the United States of America."

J. W. Bateson, Incorporated, a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at Dallas, Texas, was awarded a contract with the United States Air Force for constructing 618 housing units at Wurtsmith and 475 units at Kincheloe Air Force Base in Chippewa County.

Attorneys for Catsman said in their bill of complaint that Bateson "commenced a course of fraudulent misrepresentation of fact" to that firm, acting as a subcontractor.

The bill of complaint said that Bateson had been induced into contracts totaling some $1,421,600 at Kincheloe and $1,010,000 at Wurtsmith, with work to be performed within 90 days.

City Eyes More Street Lights

Recommendations on the placement of 10 additional street lights in the city are to be brought before the Tawas City Council at its next meeting. The council's street lighting committee and Supt. Reginald Bublitz are to make the survey.

A survey map of the city was prepared recently by Consumers Power Company and the council has agreed to add 10 more lights. The city spends approximately $5,511 a year on street lighting and cost of the additional lights would be about $400 annually.

At Monday night's meeting, presided over by Alderman Cecil Cabbie in the absence of Mayor George Tuttle, the council authorized the mayor and clerk to sign a note for $3,500 to purchase property from several businessmen. This property includes the easement to the parking lot next to Hatton's Barber Shop.

One building permit was approved during the past week. This was submitted by J. Gordon Huck on behalf of Consumers Power Company, 300 West Lake Street, for installing partitions and additional office space. Estimated cost was $1,200.

STOVE OVERHEATS

Tawas City Fire Department was called to the home of Miss Viola Groff, 628 First Street, late Tuesday afternoon where a fuel oil stove had overheated. There was no damage.

Work Proceeds on Readying Valley

Work continued Sunday on getting Silver Valley winter sports park in Huron National Forest ready for the coming season.

According to President L. G. McKay Jr., sand was removed from the toboggan slides, toilet facilities were improved, rope towers were strung and put into operation for a pre-season check.

At a meeting last Friday night, the Silver Valley Winter Sports Committee set February 4-5 as the dates for the annual carnival week-end.

Possibility of holding a queen's contest in area schools to select a winter sports queen was discussed. While activities were concentrated at the valley last year, it was felt that some activity locally was lacking.

However, the committee em-

Final Census Count Shows Iosco Increase

It's official — Iosco County's population is 16,505, according to the United States Commerce Department's final report.

The census of population was taken earlier this year and the final count was 326 persons higher than the preliminary figure released in May for Iosco County.

East Tawas Firm Wins Bid on City Hall Property

Johnson Auto Supply was high bidder on purchase of the city hall site at East Tawas. At a bid opening Monday night, the East Tawas Council accepted the bid of $12,800, submitted on behalf of the auto supply firm by Carl Thunberg.

This property had been purchased by the city several years ago as a future site for its new city hall. When voters turned down a proposition twice to build a new city hall, the council voted to sell the property.

Work on dismantling the old city hall has been discontinued for the winter. Offices were to be moved to the community building but, because of cost of heating that building and necessary structural changes, the council decided to leave offices where they are.

The old city hall will be torn down next spring and work will start then on construction of a new city hall, to be built without the aid of tax money.

Progress on dismantling the old structure had reached the point of removing the old hoisting tower. The siren has been removed from atop this structure and placed on a platform at the rear of the building.

In other business, one building application was approved. This was submitted by Margaret MacAndrew for repairs.

The council accepted an agreement with the highway department which amends its maintenance contract on US-23.

The city asked for bids on 25 tons of coal to be furnished for the community building.

The cub scouts were given permission to use the community building as a meeting place.

Chief of Police Harry Pelton was authorized to purchase two snow tires for the police car.

Turk-O-Rama Underway

Tickets are now available for entry in the "Turk-O-Rama" contest sponsored by the Tawas City Businessmen's Association. These tickets may be obtained and entered at stores in Tawas City.

Four drawings will be held Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, December 20, 21, 22 and 23.

Three turkeys, plus $25 in cash, are to be given away free on each of the four days.

Merchants may obtain extra tickets, when they run out, by stopping at Herald office.

Rollin Promoted by US Gypsum

Former Tawas Cityman John D. Rollin, 29, has been promoted to superintendent of United States Gypsum Company's board plant at Fort Dodge, Iowa.

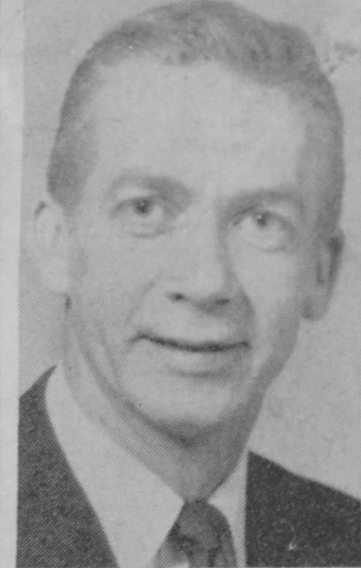

Rollin took over his new position December 1. He and his wife, Ernestine, are now making their home at Fort Dodge.

He has been employed by USG for the past 1 1/2 years. He transferred to his new position from the East Chicago, Indiana, plant where he had been a quality control engineer.

Rollin is a 1946 graduate of Tawas City High School. He was a clerk at the Fox Hardware in Tawas City for several years prior to entering the United States Army in 1951. He saw service in the Korean Conflict.

After separation from the military, he returned here to enter Bay City Junior College. He later studied at the University of Michigan and received a bachelor of science degree in chemical engineering upon his graduation in 1958.

He is the son of County Superintendent of Schools and Mrs. Russell A. Rollin.

Tawas Speed Skater Looks to Winter Events

Richard Grebe is one youngster who appreciates Michigan's long winters—a speed skating champion since the age of nine years. "Dick" has already taken to the ice in one recent meet and looks forward to a long season with plenty of competitive action.

A seventh grader at Tawas Area School, the 13-year-old youth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Grebe, who make their home south of Tawas City.

Since 1957, Dick has won 15 trophies for his speed skating prowess. He was the state indoor midget champion in 1958 and won both the state indoor and outdoor midget titles in 1959.

Dick started skating at the age of nine years when his family lived at Midland. At his dad explained it, "I took Dickie down to the rink one afternoon to watch his brother, Bill, perform. The coach of the Midland club asked him if he would like to try on a pair of speed skates—he won a race the first time he was on skates and after that you couldn't keep him off the ice."

The youngster has participated in meets throughout Michigan, as well as in Ontario, New York, Illinois and Minnesota. His trophy case reflects his success in the sport.

When the family moved to its new home here last year, Dick was lost without his skating. There seemed to be plenty of ice in the winter, but there was no skating club—hence no competition.

'Joe' Barkman Adds Old Ledgers to Historical Exhibit

Looking over a vast array of pictures, letters, books, catalogues, newspaper clippings and old fashioned tools, Joseph Barkman cleared a space on the floor of his office the other day to make room for a new addition to his collection.

While workmen were in the process of tearing down the old city hall at East Tawas, Mr. Barkman was on hand to save a few things which he thought would be of interest.

Sorting through cardboard boxes filled with record books, one dusty ledger caught the eye of the Tawas City lumber dealer.

This was a leather-bound criminal docket for the justice of the peace of Baldwin Township. The first entry in this record was 1878.

POST OFFICE HOURS

Postmaster Martin Kasischeke announced today that windows at the Tawas City post office would be open from 8:30 a. m. to 5:00 on Saturday, December 10, and Saturday, December 17. Windows will be open Sunday, December 18, from 8:30 a. m. to 12 o'clock noon.

ANNOUNCE OPENING OF NEW LAUNDRY

Opening of the Blue Dot Coin-op Laundry, located next to King's Palace Market, Tawas City, was announced this week by Clarence King.

King said the new laundry is open from 7:00 a. m. to 11:00 p. m.

His eye spotted another interesting book—this was an invoice ledger for the Village of East Tawas, dated 1888. That one just had to be saved.

By the time he was ready to leave, "Joe" had an armful of old records—including a tax order book for School District No. One, Baldwin Township, dated 1869; a water works ledger, registration book of women electors and assisted voters, all for the City of East Tawas; a registration record for the City of AuSable, and the 1872 ledger of the Baldwin Township school treasurer.

Thanks to the interesting hobby or pastime of Mr. Barkman, a great deal of historical material concerning the early days of the Tawas and Iosco County has been saved from certain oblivion.

For instance, how many people remember the wreck of the steamship Baltimore between East Tawas and Oscoda on May 24, 1901? The old Baldwin Township criminal record tells part of the story.

In the flowing penmanship of Justice of the Peace John W. Tait, it was learned that the bodies of three sailors were washed up on the shore near East Tawas three months later. Tait impeached a jury for the purpose of holding an inquest. Two of the men were not identified. Their bodies were turned over to Undertaker E. L. King.

Besides entries listing such minor offenses as assault and battery, selling liquor on Sunday

Santa Names Days He Will Visit Tawas

Santa Claus is coming to town! According to a spokesman for the Tawas City Businessmen's Association, Santa Claus has scheduled three visits here before Christmas Eve.

His first visit in Tawas City will be Friday, December 16, from 7:30 to 9:00 p. m., when he will establish his headquarters at the community Christmas tree in front of the city hall.

He is scheduled to return Saturday, December 17, from 2:00 to 4:00 p. m. and from 7:30 to 9:00 p. m. He makes his final visit here Friday, December 23, 7:30 to 9:00 p. m.

Santa will have treats for the kiddies and will pick up his mail at a specially prepared drop box located near the community tree.

He also plans to draw the lucky winners in the businessmen's association's "Turk-O-Rama" contest.

At East Tawas, Santa will visit with all of his little friends each Saturday until Christmas, starting December 10.

Santa will have his sack filled with treats and will meet the kiddies in the business section.

City Employees Get Pay Hike; Christmas Birds

A 10-cent-an-hour across the board wage increase was granted to hourly city employees by the Tawas City Council Monday night.

Laborers will receive, effective December 1, $1.70 an hour. Truck drivers' wages have been boosted to $1.90 and the drag line operator will receive $2.10.

In proposing the wage increase, Supt. of Public Works Reginald Bublitz said that 5 1/2 men were employed by the city and work 5 1/2 days a week. There are three truck drivers, one drag line operator and one full-time laborer and one part time laborer.

The council also voted to purchase 14 turkeys as a Christmas gift for hourly and salaried employees. The water board had purchased the turkeys two years in a row.

Community Relations Group Organized at Wurtsmith AFB

More than 40 civic, business and political leaders of the North-eastern Michigan area met with top ranking aides of Wurtsmith Air Force Base Monday night to discuss improvements in community relations between the base and neighboring cities.

Col. John H. Kunkel Jr. told the council that Wurtsmith is building toward a population of 10,000 by July 1961, including 374 officers, 770 non-commissioned officers, 1,345 air-men and 246 civilians.

He said approximately 10 percent of the base strength will be Negro.

The wing commander stressed the importance of finding adequate housing for the more than 1,100 families who would be living off the base.

He also emphasized that the base had just completed $14,671,000 in new construction, with another $18,000,000 now nearing completion and still another $3,771,000 approved and funded for other improvements.

Brig. Gen. Harold E. Humfeld, commander of the 40th Air Division, SAC, is honorary chairman.

The council will meet again sometime next spring to draw up committee assignments, including: Police, health and safety; housing and commercial; public relations; recreation, education and welfare.

Thief Borrows Jack to Steal Tire and Wheel

Theft of a tire and wheel from a Barkman Outfitting Company truck was reported to the Iosco Sheriff's Department last Thursday by Milton Barkman.

Investigating officers said that the wheel had been removed from the truck by using a jack found in the vehicle. It was parked next to the store.

HELP WANTED—ONE BALL CARRIER!

For want of some active support locally, development of Tawas Point as a state park may be some years in the future, or at least it seems that way to this newspaper.

Although the state conservation commission has accepted its purchase from the federal government and the deal may have already been completed, Tawas Point has been called an area for future development by a high official of the conservation department.

While we are probably influenced because Tawas Point is situated in our own locality, this newspaper believes that work should start next year on developing this beautiful park site. Because this area is not too far from down-state metropolitan areas, a point park could relieve pressure on other parks throughout the state.

Its possibilities are endless and the state realizes this. However, it must be taken for granted that proper planning is necessary on such a project and this would take time. That is why we urge some local organization—perhaps the chamber of commerce—to start promoting this project.

Encouragement on its development from a local level may greatly influence the conservation department toward putting Tawas Point high on the priority list for park development.

At a meeting last year, Arthur Elmers, head of the department's parks division, said that pressure on state parks in the metropolitan area was very heavy and that it was quite possible that funds would be expended there before anything could be done at Tawas Point. This may be a good argument, but it would not hurt to question it.

Some organization should pick up the ball here and start driving ahead. How about it, Tawas and Iosco? This newspaper would appreciate hearing the views of its readers on this subject.

WRONG POLICY?

Editorializing on national issues probably should be left to the large metropolitan newspapers, but we can not help interjecting our two cents worth on the administration policy of bringing home dependents of servicemen.

We agree with one editorial writer who said that the administration was several years too late in worrying about the outflow of gold from this country. Our aid to underdeveloped countries was planned for the years following World War II—the program has grown into a "monster."

If we bring dependents of servicemen home, however, we are hurting one of the best ways of gaining friends and influencing people abroad. An actual fact is that our serviceman is an ambassador of good will. Send his wife and family home and there will be discontent—a man can do a better job with his family near him. Something should be done about the outflow of gold, but why take this measure?

"He will come to Zion as Redeemer." (Isaiah 69:20, RSV.)

From Isaiah to Joel—a span of several centuries—voices of the prophets were raised with one accord in the interest of Israel's deliverance. At first, as the chosen people of God, Israel was to bring the nations to Him. Then, as the experience of the centuries mounted, it became clear that Israel herself was in need of deliverance from the enemies and sins.

Gradually, persistently, the idea and feeling grew that Israel's deliverance would come in the form of a Messiah. He would save His people and raise their hopes as a nation.

Many offices were ascribed to Him by the prophets: Shepherd, King, Man of Peace, Suffering Servant.

None fitted Him so well and came so near to His real office as that of Redeemer. The angel visitor shocked Joseph into rapt attention with the words, "Thou shalt call his name Jesus: for he shall save his people from their sins." Today, if we will listen and heed, He becomes our Saviour.

PRAYER

Our Father, we thank Thee for the coming of Jesus. We are glad He came as a little child, thus teaching us humility and trust. We rejoice that He came as the Saviour, to teach us the way of forgiveness. Help us to accept Him in sincerity. We pray in His name. Amen.

In 1878— Deer Hunting Expedition

Heading for Tawas with 1½ tons of venison.

In 1878, Scribner's Monthly, one of America's leading magazines of that time, commissioned one of its feature writers to accompany a hunting expedition to the wilderness of the west—the AuSable River country in Michigan.

The full text of this story was printed by The Tawas Herald on December 1, 1955, and a condensed version is being re-printed this week because of several requests.

Although the modern-day hunter will note many differences in hunting techniques used in the old days, camp life has not changed much in the past 82 years. However, the big difference is in transportation—instead of the modern-day automobile and modern roads, hunters of long ago set out in horse-drawn wagons and had to splash over treacherous roads.

The author-artist journeyed west to Detroit and then to Bay City where he joined a "party of gentlemen" under the guidance of John Erwin of Cleveland. After a "delightful run up buildings at the old logging camp was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. William Bamfield, the latter of whom had been engaged to cook for the party.

Mr. Bamfield was a "stalwart and extraordinarily powerful blacksmith." One of Consumers Power Company's hydroelectric dams on the AuSable River is named for this Iosco pioneer.

"The first evening in camp, around the council lamp, was spent in discussing the prospects of the morning, in shooting over again all the deer that had been shot upon previous occasions; in comparing the target shooting of the day and in the assignment by the captain of each man to his position on the river.

"Curtis and two of the party were to 'put out the dogs' and the rest were to be stationed at the different runways." This explains the method of hunting. The river for a number of miles was divided into runways or points at which deer, when hard pressed by dogs, would probably take to the water and afford a chance for a shot by the hunter.

When a fresh and promising track was discovered, a dog was let loose upon it and the deer, after running some distance, took to the river in order to elude pursuit.

"A tick filled with straw and laid upon the floor makes an excellent bed and sportsmen's consciences are always good, for they sleep with exceeding soundness," said the author.

Because of the chinks between the logs of the building, "it was cold as charity and I supplemented my blankets with my heavy frieze ulster and went asleep to dream of giant bucks and a rifle that would not go off."

After a breakfast of bacon, fried and boiled potatoes, fried onions and hot, strong coffee, the hunting party set off for the runways.

The author took his stand on the edge of a swamp bordering the river. He was unsuccessful the first day of hunting.

On the second morning, the author-artist shot a "stalwart, thickset noble buck. His legs were short and compact, his fur was dark in its winter hue and his antlers glistened above his head. He bore himself proudly as he stood in the water and turned to listen for the bay of the dogs he had outrun.

"I hesitated a moment, doubtful if I should let him get into the stream and swim down, or shoot at him as he stood. I chose the latter, aimed quietly and confidently and fired. He pitched forward; the current seized him and he floated down with it and past me, dead.

"In eight minutes, by my watch, Mr. M's 'Jack' came to the bank, at the spot where the buck had come in and howled grievously over the lost scent."

When the day arrived for breaking up camp, the party had hung up 23 deer. There were no less than three of which weighed over 225 pounds. "Our dogs were in, rather the worse for wear, but all there, which is something unusual at the end of a hunt in this part of the country.

"The fact is, the natives discourage hunting with dogs, if not, indeed, all hunting in which they themselves do not participate. They place meat which contains strychnine on the deer paths, and also, when occasion offers, shoot the dogs.

"The immunity our party enjoyed had been gained somewhat as an ancient proprietary right, they having hunted there for so many years. Besides, they had in various ways rendered themselves popular with the natives; no visitor ever left the camp hungry—or thirsty. "We brought out our venison safely and in good condition, a ton and a half of it or thereabouts. At Detroit, we went out ways, ending an expedition which had in it, luckily, no mishaps to mar it, but plenty of wholesome recreation to make one's recollection of it wholly pleasant."

"FIVE CENTS' WORTH OF ELECTRICITY, PLEASE"

Sorry, sweetheart . . . but we can't sell electricity that way. And even if we could, five cents' worth is an awful lot of electricity. You'd never fit it into that little basket.

Why, that's enough power to run your Mommy's washing machine for seven hours, or to give your Daddy a shave a day for a year with his electric shaver.

And when you have a home of your own someday, you'll likely find that your electric service is still just about the biggest bargain in your budget.

WORLD'S MOST COMPLETE LINE

Saginaw Bay on a beautiful October evening," the steamer carrying the hunting party docked at East Tawas where it was met by a mighty hunter of the wilderness named Curtis.

The party spent the night at an inn with an enormous landlord, "whose mighty girth shook with unctuous premonitions of an excellent supper. He produced half a deer slain that very day and gave us an earnest of our coming sport in the shape of a vast quantity of broiled venison, all of which we dutifully ate."

Next morning, the hunting party left for the Thompson farm, about 25 miles distant, where they were to spend the night and on the following day were to proceed leisurely to Camp Erwin, six miles further.

Traveling over what is now called Monument Road, at that time much of the old Thompson Trail had a surface of "corduroy." Logs were lain end for end on the road and according to the author, "the jolting we got over this was painful to a degree which is disagreeable to recall. It jarred every bone in one's body and embittered the whole aspect of life."

The road alternated—with a series of "diabolical mud holes," said the author, and the party finally reached a higher plateau of sand, known today as Huron National Forest.

"Around us was the Michigan forest in all its wonderful variety of growth and richness, and in all its dreary monotony and desolation.

"The great fires that sweep across this region leave hideous scars behind them. One sees for miles and miles the sandy plain covered with the charred trunks of the fallen forest.

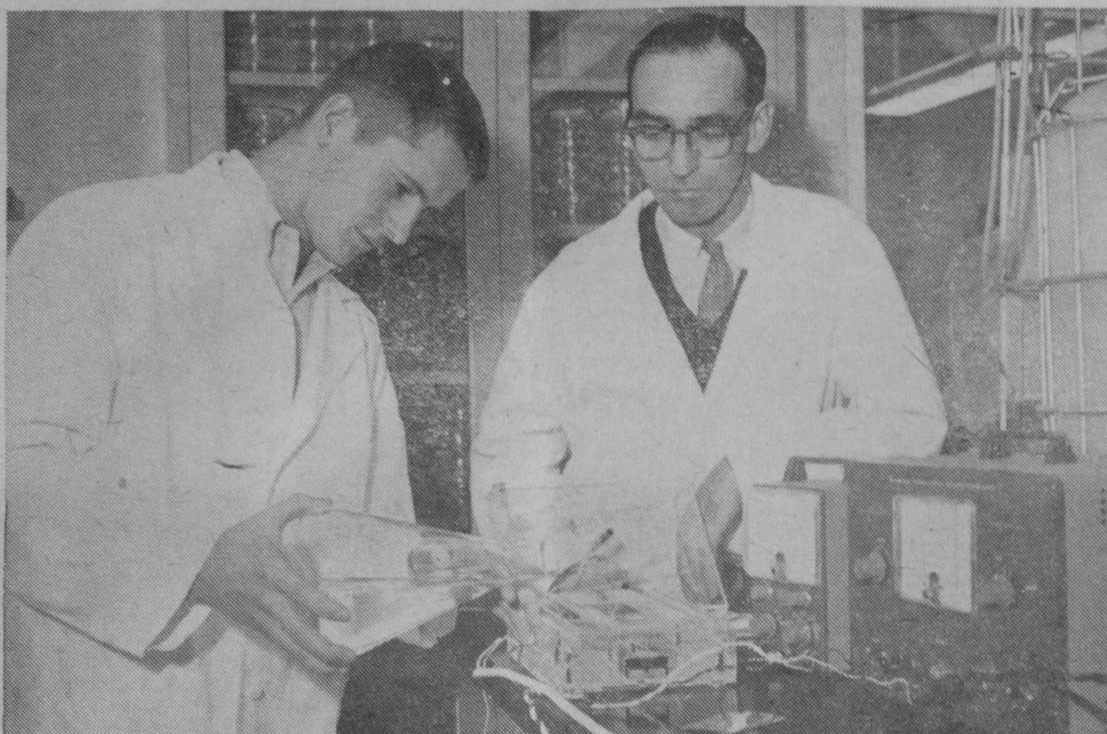

"We came suddenly to the edge of a basin or depression in the plateau over which we had been driving and there, beneath us, lay Thompson's.

"Here in the midst of the wilderness was a prosperous, healthy-looking farm." Thompson owned thousands of acres of timber land and his house was known "far and wide as the best hotel in Michigan."

Located on the South Branch of the AuSable River near High Rollways Camp, foundations of the old three-story hotel and barns may still be seen. The buildings were dismantled by the United States Forestry Department in the 1930s.

After an early breakfast the next morning, the party set out for Camp Erwin. One of the

An alibi or an argument?

Conducting Original Research Work

A Tawas City senior at Michigan State University, East Lansing, is doing the kind of research ordinarily reserved for graduate students.

W. William Laidlaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Laidlaw, Tawas City, is one of approximately 40 MSU undergraduates who are conducting original research under special grants from the National Science Foundation.

Laidlaw is working in the laboratories of Dr. John R. Shaver, MSU zoology professor, who is studying a type of kidney cancer which is prevalent in a certain variety of frog. The research is intended to shed new light on hereditary aspects of cancer.

Laidlaw's job is to develop a test for identifying the protein in the kidney cells. He is using a modern technique called immuno-electrophoresis.

It used to be that when undergraduates worked in laboratories, they washed dishes or did other menial tasks.

Now, National Science Foundation grants make it possible for MSU and other universities to capture the "teachable moment" when the young undergraduate shows early interest in scientific research.

The grants pay equipment and supply costs for the students. Without this aid, colleges and universities would have to continue to reserve use of expensive research facilities for graduate students.

The grants also pay stipends to the student. This is of special importance to the student who must work part time and could not otherwise afford the time demanded by research.

Many Michigan State professors have selected undergraduates to do original research since the NSF program started 18 months ago.

While the grants help the professor accomplish his research, they also give him an additional burden. He must first outline an area of his research which he can assign to an undergraduate with limited schooling and time. After the work is assigned, he must devote a share of his time to assisting and supervising the student.

President's 'Come Home' Order Hits 60% of All Overseas Dependents

Overseas bound air force dependents who receive a reservation for travel before February 1 will not be affected by the recent presidential order to reduce the overseas dependent population. This information was contained in a Headquarters, United States Air Force, message to all major air commands on November 18.

Personnel who are on orders or who have been alerted for overseas without family transportation reservations prior to this date will proceed as planned. Without their families.

Volunteers for overseas who have yet to receive an assignment may withdraw their statement.

Military personnel overseas with dependents will not be allowed to extend their tours.

Their sponsors. This, it is believed, can be accomplished by shortened tours in addition to the normal return by rotation.

Maj. Michael Navarro, 445th executive officer, presents A2c Edwin Wilber with a model of the F-101 Voodoo, part of his award for being selected as the 445th Maintenance Man of the Month at Wurtsmith Air Force Base, Oscoda.

A2c Edwin Wilber Wins 445th FIS Maint Man Award

The 445th Fighter Interceptor Squadron has announced that A2c Edwin Wilber was selected as Maintenance Man of the Month for the month of October at Wurtsmith Air Force Base, Oscoda.

Airman Wilber, who is assigned to armament and electronics, is presently a member of the 445th Standardization Loading Team.

He was cited for having shown outstanding ability in maintaining three different types of aircraft during the past year while working as a member of the periodic maintenance crew. His specialty was trouble shooting complex armament malfunctions.

As a member of the standardization loading team, Airman Wilber established a standard loading procedure which has been adopted by Air Defense Command for loading its F-101B aircraft.

Airman Wilber's abilities have played a large part in earning consistently high ratings for the 445th Standardization Loading Team.

The air force has been told to bring its total of 190,250 overseas dependents down to about 81,600. This represents a reduction of 60 percent and is expected to be accomplished at a rate of 1,120 per month, 40.8 percent of the total monthly rate of reduction of 15,000 for all armed forces.

Aware that the order could precipitate morale problems among its people overseas, the air force advised major air commands that every attempt will be made to maintain equitable overseas tours for unaccompanied personnel and to establish just policies concerning authorization of dependents.

"It is recognized," the message said, "that waivers to the above guidelines will have to be granted for humanitarian considerations, hardships and peculiarities of selected air force units. In such instances, these will be determined on an individual basis with complete justification and submitted to this headquarters for approval."

Exempted from the dependent return action are those now in Alaska, Hawaii, the Canal Zone, Marianas, Marshall Islands, Midway Island, Puerto Rico, Samoa and the Virgin Islands. This involves about 148,000 dependents of all services.

A meeting of major air command personnel representatives to discuss ramifications connected with the reduction was conducted in the Pentagon on Tuesday. Topics to be covered include: (1) Lengths of overseas tours; (2) Estimates of numbers of families (sponsor and dependents) whose normal overseas tour could be shortened and the time when these new rotation dates would become effective; (3) Recommendation of authorizations for dependents overseas, by grade and type of assignment of sponsor; (4) Recommendations for controlling movement of dependents overseas once the new ceiling has been achieved.

Concerning the return of dependents now overseas, DOD officials have predicted that few, if any, will be returned without

A life-long resident of Bay City and Tawas City, he was a World War I veteran. Son of the late Hart S. Haire and brother of the late Elmer E. Haire, he was born March 1, 1884, at St. Johns.

Survivors include his wife, Fannie; three sons, Jerome and Thomas of Bay City and Hart of Tawas; a daughter, Mrs. Margaret Batdorff of Prudenville, and 10 grandchildren.

REGIONAL VA OFFICE MOVES TO NEW LOCATION

The Detroit regional office of the Veterans Administration moved to its new location at 210 Gratiot at Library, formerly the East Building of the Crowley-Miller Company, over the December 3-4 week-end, according to Gene A. Robens, manager. This move was the culmination of many months of planning and is necessitated by the plan for demolition of the existing regional office building at 310 East Jefferson to make way for a segment of the city expressway system.

Second WAF Assigned Here

LIEUTENANT STRUTHERS

WAF population at Wurtsmith Air Force Base, Oscoda, doubled last week with the arrival of 1-Lt. Loretta J. Struthers.

Lieutenant Struthers, who was last stationed at Shepherd AFB, Texas, has been assigned to the 4026th Strategic Wing along with the base's pioneer WAF, Capt. Louise Brown of Family Services.

A native of the Detroit area, Lieutenant Struthers will be working in the Intelligence Radar Photo Office.

The lieutenant entered the air force in August 1954 as an enlisted WAF and after completing basic training, she attended the army's medical school at Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

Following completion of this school, she enrolled in, and graduated from, the Officers Candidate School at Lackland AFB, Texas, in 1956.

After receiving her commission, she went to the Air Intelligence School at Shepherd AFB. She then received her first assignment in her present career field at Hickham AFB, Hawaii. She served there for three years before returning to the United States and Shepherd AFB.

She graduated from Detroit's Mackenzie High School and went on to Wayne University for two years where she majored in theater and speech before entering the air force.

When asked to give an opinion of Wurtsmith, the unmarried WAF said, "I love it here. It's good to be on a base that isn't so warm for a change, especially since it's so near my hometown."

Sgt Stoley Retires

GOOD LUCK—SMSgt Raymond Stoley left the air force recently after spending some 20 years in the aircraft maintenance career field. Here he receives his retirement from Lt. Col. Marion C. Morphew, 445th FIS commander.

SMSgt Raymond J. Stoley, Aircraft Maintenance Superintendent for the 445th Fighter Interceptor Squadron at Wurtsmith Air Force Base, Oscoda, retired from the air force recently after completing 20 years service.

In a special retirement ceremony in the office of Lt. Col. Marion C. Morphew, 445th commander, Sergeant Stoley received his certificate of retirement, a letter of appreciation and a model of the F-101 "Voodoo." SMSgt Robert A. S. Brown also presented him with a watch on behalf of all NCO's of the unit.

He was also named as the 445th Maintenance Man of the Month during the retirement ceremony.

The sergeant said that his retirement plans were tentative at this time but he expects to live in the Oscoda area and work in some civil service capacity.

The majority of Stoley's career has been spent in the aircraft maintenance field and prior to his retirement, he worked as NCOIC of the Flight Line Maintenance Section. He entered the air force in September 1940.

to the maintenance officer for the standard of maintenance accomplished on the squadron of F-101's.

His boss, CWO Ruthven D. Straube, said "Sergeant Stoley is one of the most sincere and conscientious NCO's that I have had the pleasure of working with. Through his efforts, the accuracy of reporting the maintenance data collection program has improved from an unimpressive average of 43 percent to 95 percent, which is above the acceptable standards."

US Navy Airman From Oscoda Now Serving in Pacific

Play at Beaverton Friday—

Braves Defeat Roscommon

Although still not claiming to be "pretenders" to the NEM Conference throne, the Tawas Area Braves of Coach Bill McIntosh demonstrated Friday night that his charges can be considered as a threat in league competition after a full-scale rebuilding job.

The young Tawas team, studded with sophomores and juniors, emerged victorious in the season opener here by taking a 56-48 decision over the Roscommon Bucks of Coach Earl Height.

Although Roscommon held a decided height advantage, the two teams were fairly evenly matched in scoring ability.

Tawas Area jumped off to a 13-5 lead in the first quarter and it was this early scoring advantage which meant the game for the McIntoshmen.

The Bucks bounced back to hold a 19-15 scoring edge in the second stanza, but the Braves held a 28-24 lead at intermission.

Anticipating an all-out offensive effort by the Bucks in the second half, the Braves' defense tightened considerably in the third quarter and Tawas took an 18-11 scoring edge.

Again, the Bucks bounced back in the fourth quarter to lead in scoring with a 13-10 margin, but the first and third quarter scoring advantages held by Tawas proved to be the deciding factor.

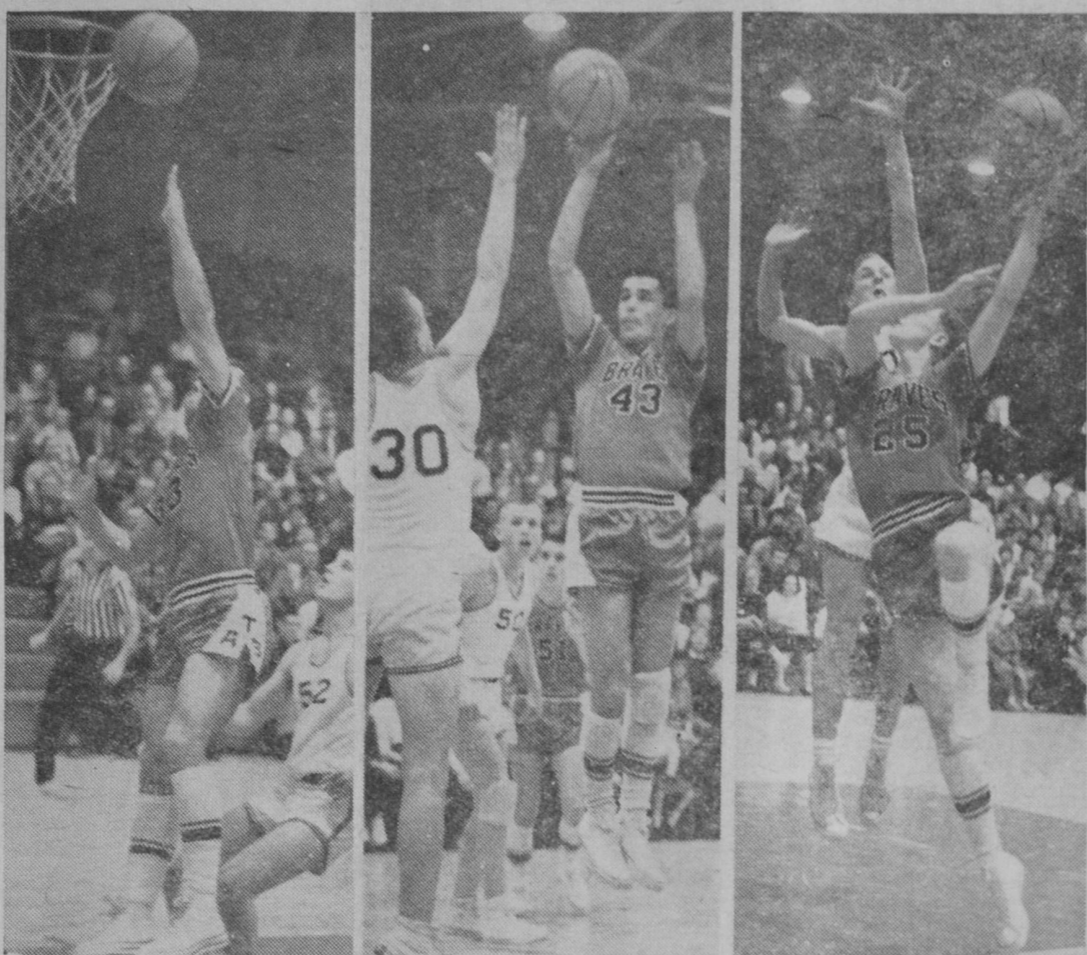

Tawas' cause was helped by accuracy on the free throw line, the Braves making good on 12 out of 21 foul shots. The losers completed six out of 14 charity tosses.

Roscommon, who controlled the backboards in the second quarter, had a total of 26 rebounds during the night. The Braves, with Center Ken Murphy being the only six-footer, were close behind with 22.

As for scoring percentages, Roscommon held a definite edge. With a good passing attack, the Bucks chose to play a deliberate offense and made good on 21 out of 46 shots.

The Braves countered this by throwing caution to the wind and shot 60 times from the floor and let the rebounds fall where they may. As a result, the 22 field goals by Tawas, coupled with the foul line advantage, added up to a win for the Braves.

Tawas Area had a well-balanced scoring attack led by Guard Herman Rollin, who has shown great improvement over last year by being able to hit the buckets while on the move. Rollin had 17 points, followed by Forward Al Moore, only starting senior, who came up with a respectable 12 points.

Key buckets were added by Guard Jim Mick and Forward Don Humphrey, with 10 and eight points.

Center Tim Hysel led the losers with 15 points and John Ogren, who will probably turn out to be the star for the Bucks this season, followed with 12.

In league competition this week, the Braves travel to Beaverton Friday night.

Junior Braves Win Season Opener

In an exciting "photo-finish" Friday night, the Tawas Junior Braves defeated Roscommon's JV, 45-42, but not before the score was knotted three times in the final quarter.

Tawas jumped off to a 9-4 lead in the first quarter and held a 22-17 lead at the half. The speedy Roscommon five came back to slice this lead to 35-33 at the end of the third quarter.

The fourth quarter found Coach Herb Escott's quint edging the visitors by one field goal.

Leading scorers for Tawas were Doak with 18 points, DeWyse meshed 14 and Boldt added 13. Scoring was evenly distributed among the Roscommon players.

Inexperience Hurts; W-P Cards Lose to Lakers

By DORNACE BELLVILLE
The Whittemore - Prescott Cardinals dropped their first game in the NEM to Houghton Lake Friday night, 74-55.

The Lakers almost doubled the score on the Cards in the first quarter with a 25-13 edge. The Cards outscored their hosts in the second and third quarters only to have the Houghton Lake five double its score in the final quarter, 24-12, to win easily.

With only one regular, Rex Gibson, back this year, Coach Ed Dudo faces a tough NEM schedule with one of the most inexperienced squads he has had in some time, but his boys can be counted on to give a good account of themselves as they gain experience.

Gibson of the Cards and L. Carrick of the Lakers led the scoring with 27 points each.

Owls Drop Season Opener To Alpena

Except for one quarter Friday night, the Oscoda Owls of Coach Ben Summers played on fairly even terms with Alpena High School. A 22-5 scoring margin by Alpena in the second quarter proved to be Oscoda's undoing, however, and the northerners rolled to a 64-43 victory.

Outscored by close margins in three quarters, the Owls could not close the gap caused by the second quarter Alpena outburst.

Alpena jumped to a 10-8 lead in the first quarter and were never really threatened after that. Holding a 32-13 lead at the half, Alpena saw its lead trimmed in the third quarter when the Owls held a 15-12 scoring edge.

Fourth quarter scoring leadership went to Alpena, mainly on the sharpshooters of its star forward, Brian Mitchell, who connected for five field goals and a foul shot to boost his scoring total to 22 points for the night.

The winners had four players in double figures. In addition to Mitchell, Marlatt and Pettey each had 13 points while Kurtz added 10.

Oscoda had a well-balanced scoring attack and should give Coach Summers plenty of potential in the upcoming conference schedule. Leading the pack was Forward Bruce Senter, nifty six-footer, who meshed 17 points on seven field goals and three foul shots.

The preliminary game was won by Alpena, 46-41. Schmidt topped the Oscoda cagers with 17 points while Fairchild of the winners led his mates with 17.

Oscoda opens conference play this Friday night when the Owls travel to St. Ignace.

Pfeiffer Misses 300 Game by One Strike

But for a "tap" in the second frame, Louis Pfeiffer of Tawas City would have gained a niche in this area's bowling hall of fame with a 300 game.

Bowling on alleys one and two in the Commercial League last Thursday night, Pfeiffer started with a strike. He spared in the second frame after the six pin wiggled, but would not go down.

Pfeiffer, a salesman for Alpena Candy Company, then rolled 10 consecutive strikes for a 280 game.

His score was the highest posted at Tawas City Recreation in several years. His 190 and 183 games gave him a 653 series for the night.

St. James Gains Recognition in Det. Free Press Grid Poll

Bud St. James, senior tackle of the Tawas Area Braves football team, was named to the first team of the class B all-state football squad, according to selections announced Sunday by the Detroit Free Press.

This is the highest recognition ever given a Tawas Area football player. St. James had been named recently as a member of the NEM all-conference all-star squad.

The 99-man squad was selected by the Free Press all-state board of coaches and is recognized as official by the Michigan High School Coaches Association. The board picked three top teams, drawing players from schools in enrollment classifications, and added two teams each from class B, class C and class D schools.

The Free Press board of six outstanding coaches worked all season to prepare their selections for this annual dream team. After canvassing fellow coaches throughout the state and gathering reports on all top players, the board met for two days in Detroit last week to choose the all-state squads.

Only player in the NEM Conference to receive higher recognition than St. James was Tackle Mike Breault of Gladwin, who was named to the second team of the all-state squad, which included selections from all enrollment classifications.

St. James, son of Mr. and Mrs. John St. James of Tawas City, has been a member of the Braves varsity football squad since a sophomore in high school.

Although he missed much of the 1959 season because of a leg injury, Bud returned to action last fall and gained top recognition for his outstanding play.

No Birthday Party Without Christmas

Were it not for the observance of Christmas—the greatest of all birthdays—there would probably be no birthday parties throughout the rest of the year. In ancient times, only pagans took part in birthday festivities. Early Christians associated birth with the assumption of original sin and therefore did not look upon the birth date as a time for celebration.

The Pharaohs of Egypt celebrated their own birthdays, and we are told that King Herod did, too. But it was not until the 300's that the birth date of Christ was even noted. In the year 354 the Bishop of Rome declared December 25 to be the anniversary of the birth of Christ and from that date until now, Christians have observed this most wonderful of all birthdays.

Easy to Make Christmas Suggestions

BY NANCY BAXTER

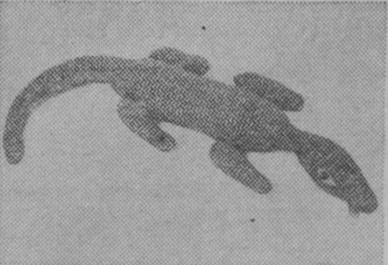

Long on charm is this wobbly baby giraffe, our nomination for the perfect nursery pet. Crochet him of lustrous blue and white crochet cotton, then stuff him to a state of perfect plumpness with cotton batting. The long, long lashes and body spots are made of black floss. Sew them on and—voilà—a truly beautiful beast, yet one docile enough to be cuddled by even the youngest baby in the family.

FUN TO MAKE
This latest needlework design illustrates so well, I think, the joys of this fascinating hobby. For there's an Alice-In-Wonderland quality about almost every woman that enables her to enjoy fashioning a toy almost as much as a child enjoys receiving one. Just let your imagination take free reign—who ever heard of a real, live BLUE AND WHITE giraffe—and you'll discover that this is a needlework project you'll genuinely like. Start to crochet this comical cutie now and you'll be surprised to discover how quickly he can be completed.

PARTY PERFECT
Certainly, there's no better birthday gift for a baby than this completely lovable, completely safe, stuffed toy. To receive free directions, just send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Department of this newspaper. Ask for BABY GIRAFFE, Leaflet No. PC-8191, and directions will be sent promptly.

Needlework's such fun—as witness our design today. This most amusing alligator is just one of the many toys we've fashioned for Christmas giving. We guarantee you'll enjoy this easy and relaxing crochet project, so full of anticipation of holiday joy. And, as for the little one of the family, he'll squeal with delight when he sees this mild-mannered monster beneath the gaily-decorated tree.

SO EASY!
Crochet this adorable alligator of eye-catching metallic thread, working the body, tail and head in one piece. Fashion the legs separately, then sew them in place. Add pseudo-scary felt eyes and claws, and you'll have a beautiful beast indeed. Colorful, unusual, completely safe, this toy is a perfect gift for baby. But baby's not the only member of the clan who'll appreciate this crocheted pet. Our alligator's just zany enough to appeal to the teenage miss of the brood who'll add him, cheerfully, to her collection of stuffed animals.

SUCH FUN!
You'll derive enormous satisfaction from giving needlework gifts like this. For handmade presents have a personal touch that means so very much. Free directions for today's design are yours for just a stamped, self-addressed envelope sent to the Needlework Department of this newspaper. Just ask for CROCHETED ALLIGATOR, Leaflet No. PC-1384.

Mince Meat Ideal With Poultry

Mince meat, which once was the most laborious food to prepare and seemingly defied hasty cooks, today holds a distinctive place as a modern convenience food.

A time-honored food of English origin brought to our shores in early Colonial days, it took not hours, but days to prepare. Today it is one of the most popular instant preparation foods in the American home. Mince meat is instantly ready for use at the flip of the container lid—or, within one minute when purchased in condensed form. Either way, its ingredients are skillfully blended and it remains for the consumer to choose the preferred type.

Borden Company home economists used the ready-to-use mince meat to simplify preparation of Father's Favorite Mince Meat Filling... and simplicity is particularly appealing to male cooks. The man at your house, or his bachelor brother, will be pleased with the compliments they receive when guests taste this gourmet like treat. Watercress, orange halves (plain or broiled) topped with canned spicy red crabapples make an edible and colorful garnish.

Father's Favorite—Mince Meat Filling
(Makes filling for a 6 pound duck)

1/4 cup butter	1/4 teaspoon pepper
1/2 cup chopped onions	3 1/2 cups soft bread crumbs
1/2 cup minced parsley	1 1/2 cups Ready-to-Use Mince
1 small clove garlic, finely minced	Such Mince Meat
3/4 teaspoon salt	1/2 cup orange juice or cranberry juice cocktail

Melt butter in small skillet. Add onions; saute until tender. Add parsley, garlic, salt, pepper and onions to bread crumbs. Add mince meat and fruit juices; mix lightly to combine ingredients. Stuff duck with filling. Roast according to white method.

over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Cobb and daughter, Linda, Joy Dobson, Robert Green and Donald Marlow, all of Flint; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Riddle and children of Montrose; David Powell of Flushing, and James Green of Pontiac.

"Murder Only When Necessary" Say Communists

(Second in a series of five articles by Don Kinsey, Michigan Farm Bureau representative.)

To the Communists, the people of the world have become puppets to be pulled by strings. Most of the strings are words, forged into arguments. The words are reinforced with threats and terrifying events. These events evoke the fear that is needed to give power to the words. A people in fear and confusion is ripe for conquest.

That the Communists will kill, if necessary, is a matter of record. Millions have been "liquidated" in Russia, China and other nations for the crime of disagreement with the Communists.

But Communists recognize, too, that a dead man is useless to them. He can mine no coal; produce no food or garments. Blasted cities can produce no tools or appliances. It is better to capture men and their possessions intact. Then they can serve the Communist state and its commissars.

So bullets and bombs are set below ideas as weapons. Rather—"talk peace" and keep threats alive and active. Talk "co-existence" while fear and suggestive ideas soften the people for moral and mental surrender to Communism.

How The Poison Was Prepared

Since we cannot defend ourselves against this weapon of "brainwashing" without understanding its nature and methods, let us take a close look at the process.

Years ago Soviet Russia mobilized her psychologists to compound a system for psychological conquest. The question—How can a people be crushed in their traditions? How can you get them to surrender their minds, their souls, to a new materialistic and socialistic system?

The question came. It was not too complicated. The basic attitudes, beliefs and actions of a people can be changed—"reconditioned"—in a variety of ways.

You can do it quickly with individuals by using certain drugs, by brain surgery or by hypnosis. These methods will break up existing thought and action systems. The victim is then "wide open" to be retrained by suggestion and pressure.

But you cannot drug, hypnotize or operate on whole nations! Such methods may be used by Communism only with important public characters to get "confessions" with a propaganda value. This was done with Cardinal Mindszenty.

Next week: Emotionally-Charged Suggestion and Making "Bombs" From American Values.

OSMOSE PRESSURE TREATED LUMBER

"You wouldn't have to be repairing your farm buildings all the time, if you built with . . ."

★ LASTS 3 TO 5 TIMES LONGER
★ RESISTS ROT, TERMITES AND FIRE
★ NEEDS NO PAINT, BUT YOU CAN PAINT IT

Keeping farm buildings in repair can be a never-ending job, but smart farmers have discovered a new way to beat that situation. They're building with Osmose treated lumber, the new wonder wood that is scientifically treated to resist all forms of rot, wood-destroying insects and fire. This lumber is an attractive shade of green and YOU NEVER HAVE TO PAINT IT. However, you can paint it smooth, dry surface any color you prefer. Available in all construction sizes. Also . . . ask us about Osmose treated Fence Posts.

For further information, get in touch with a representative of the Social Security Administration, who will be in Tawas City at the Iosco County Building Thursday, December 15, at 10:30 a.m.

Social Security Amendment Gives More Benefits

Social security benefits may now be paid to survivors of workers who died before January 1, 1940, if the worker had at least a year and a half of social security work when he died, say Paul M. Ellifritz, district manager of the Bay City Social Security Administration office.

Before the social security amendments of 1960, no monthly benefits were payable to the survivors of a worker who died before 1940.

Under the new law, if a worker had social security credit for at least a year and a half, benefits may now be payable to his widow (and dependent mother) if age 62 or older, to his dependent father at age 65, and to his disabled children if they became disabled before they reached age 18. This is true even if the family had collected the "lump-sum" at the time the family breadwinner died.

John Webb of Hale acted as installing officer assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lackie, also of Hale. Mrs. Arthur Aulerich was pianist.

Refreshments were enjoyed by the group following the ceremony.

Run, Rabbits, Run

With the din of pheasant and deer seasons silenced for another year, the sound of echoing shots and barking hounds tell Bill's Rabbit's famous ears that hunters have again swung their sights his way. This renewed popularity promises to keep his fluffy tail bobbin' until the season ends March 1. For years, he has been Michigan's leading game animal in the hunters' bag and this season should be no exception. Mail carrier counts from the Conservation Department's summer survey indicate that cottontails have made a 34-percent population jump in southern Michigan since last season. Their numbers appear the same or higher in the northern lower peninsula.

Applications for Submerged Land Gets OK by City

Several applications for purchase of state-owned submerged lands were approved by the Tawas City Council at its meeting Monday night. The applications were prepared by Scott Engineering Company of Alpena.

This is the first step in obtaining submerged lands from the state. Other applications had been approved by the council several weeks ago.

Applications approved were for Harris and Milton Barkman, A. J. Oberla, Dr. John D. LeClair and L. G. McKay.

A long list of applications for Great Lakes submerged lands awaits consideration by the state conservation commission when it meets in Lansing December 9-9.

Spurring the recent wave of applications is a January 1 deadline and a recent state supreme court ruling which established the state's trust title to these lands and their waters as supreme to riparian rights.

The Barkman application was for the purpose of gaining title to filled land behind Barkman Outfitting Company. Dr. LeClair submitted three applications for property on which is located the Kroer Store and parking lot, while the McKay application was for property at the rear of McKay Sales Company.

4026th to Retire—Bomber Wing to be Renumbered

Another chapter will be written in the growing history of the Strategic Air Command at Wurtsmith Air Force Base January 9.

The 4026th Strategic Wing will be officially retired and replaced by the new 379th Strategic Wing, now located at Homestead Air Force Base, Florida. Col. John H. Kunkel Jr., present commander of the 4026th, will fly from Wurtsmith to Homestead January 7 to fly back the colors of the 379th.

The change in numerical designation will be accompanied by programming of the advanced model of the B-52 Stratofortress, the B-52H, for this base.

First of the new planes is scheduled to arrive here next spring.

known to them, Bateson had been contracted by the government to build the housing units at a cost of approximately $2,009,329 for Wurtsmith and $2,552,064 for Kincheloe, "all to be performed, not within 90 days, but within 500 days from preliminary contract closing."

It was stated that the direct and contingent losses to Catesman, as the direct consequence of the conspiracy and knowingly, fraudulent misrepresentation, amounted to approximately $465,737 on the Wurtsmith project and approximately $204,000 on the Kincheloe project. According to the complaint, the full extent of the losses was not yet known.

It was also charged that Bateson is presently indebted to Catesman in the amount of $300,000.

Bateson is presently closing out its contract with the government for construction of the housing units and is ready to move its equipment out of the area.

At Friday's hearing, attorneys for Bateson objected to taking of testimony at that time and relied upon the fact that Catesman's bill of complaint was not specific enough in its charges. Bateson asked for dismissal of the lawsuit.

Judge Miller said that Bateson's main argument was that Catesman had the opportunity to examine the contracts for this construction before signing them.

However, attorneys for Catesman said that this was the largest contract ever undertaken by that sentimentalist to save such documents from the scrap heap, especially if you are doing it for your own pleasure.

Barkman's office is jammed with curios. Who would have saved an old three by five-foot print of Andersonville Prison—now breaking away from its muslin support—Joe did. He rescued the Civil War memento from the scrap heap when the old GAR Hall was being cleaned several years ago.

Stacked along the wall are the old framed portraits of former circuit judges of Iosco County. Standing nearby are canchhooks, peaveys, broad axes and other equipment used during the lumbering days.

Surveying his collection, Mr. Barkman said that he hoped that someday a museum might be established here in order that such items might be properly catalogued and displayed.

"Much of this material would probably be junk to a professional," said Mr. Barkman, "but I get a lot of enjoyment in reading about the old days."

Judging from the number of persons who just stop in to "browse around" at his lumber mill office, many Tawas residents get the same enjoyment.

Bateson also argued that Bateson did not give the necessary amount of managerial assistance it needed.

Bateson claims that the delay in closing the contract with the government is costing them in excess of $500 a day.

Tell of Standards for Public Use of Christmas Trees

Area fire departments pointed out several standards for the installation and use of Christmas trees in school buildings and in places of public assemblage. The standards should be followed to meet with the approval of the state fire marshal.

High on the list was the ruling that trees shall not be set up or used in school buildings earlier than seven days prior to Christmas vacations.

Trees are restricted to an auditorium, multi-purpose room, kindergarten rooms or gymnasium and only one tree may be set up in one location. All trees must be removed from the building within 24 hours after Christmas vacation starts.

Before trees are set up, the trunk must be freshly cut at least one inch above the original cut and placed in a container of clear water at least 72 hours before setting up.

Only tree holder approved is one equipped with container for water. This must be kept filled with water. The tree must be substantially supported.

Only lights bearing the label of the Underwriters' Laboratories may be used. They may be lighted only under constant supervision of an authorized person and under no circumstances shall a student be classed as responsible.

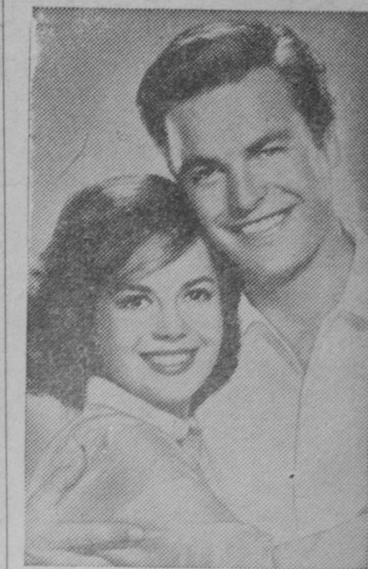

All trees are to be located in a remote area of the room and kept away from all exits, aisles, hallways or corridors. Use of candles, paper or other flammable decorations is prohibited.
