Red Cross Swim Classes Set for Tawas City Park

Additions to the Red Cross swimming program have caused changes in plans, according to Judge Allan C. Miller, chairman of the local chapter. Tawas City is to have its own swimming program at the city park with Miss Carolyn Evans as instructor.

Children under seven years of age must be accompanied by a parent. Some of the mothers of participating children are being organized to assist Miss Evans.

At 4:00 p. m. Friday, July 8, registration will be held near the band shell. The first classes are to meet Saturday, July 9, at 1:00 p. m.

In East Tawas, registration will be Wednesday, July 6, 3:00 p. m. in the state park. The first classes will meet Friday, July 8, at 1:00 p. m.

During the registration periods, each child will be given a simple form to be signed by both his parents and family doctor. These slips should be returned the first week of classes. This is standard procedure, simply to "OK" the physical condition of participating children.

Those Tawas City children who registered for lessons during June need not register July 8 as their cards will be transferred to the Tawas City file. They should bring their signed slips July 9 for the first lesson. East Tawas children who filled out cards in June need not register.

Four Area Troops Award Winners at Midland Camporee

Four area boy scout troops and one area cub pack were among the award winners at the boy scout exposition held last Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the Midland fair grounds.

More than 1,000 boys camped at the site, making the fair grounds resemble an army post. Neatness was the order of the day as the scouts gave a live demonstration of the camping skills they have acquired.

Jet plane fly-bys from Wurt-smith Air Force Base, arena shows, exhibits of guns, safety, scouting lore, rows of tents and thousands of people all made up the exposition.

Awards were presented to the better scouting units based on quality and thought in both the exhibit booths and outdoor displays.

Blue ribbon proficiency awards were won by 31 units, including one to Troop 59, Oscoda, sponsored by Hope Evangelical Lutheran Church.

Red ribbon standard awards were given to 33 units, including Troop No. 74, Tawas City, sponsored by Jesse C. Hodder Post No. 189, American Legion; Troop No. 96, Whittemore, sponsored by the chamber of commerce, and Pack No. 92, Oscoda, sponsored by Oscoda Methodist Church.

Risk Lives to Save Friend from Drowning in Lake

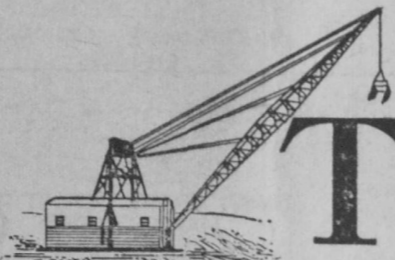

Two young people from Saginaw, who saved the life of a 25-year-old companion while swimming in Sand Lake Sunday, have been recommended for commendation by Michigan State Police.

Rescued was Trent Bonnell, who had become exhausted and panicked while swimming toward a raft in the lake.

Going to his assistance were Donald Hirschman, 23, and Katherine Foss, 21. They pulled Bonnell to the raft where artificial respiration was given by Richard Schroeder of Ypsilanti.

Officers from the East Tawas post, Troopers Carroll Harger and William Brown, were sent to Sand Lake with inhalator equipment after receiving a telephone call

'Biggest Open House Ever' Planned at Wurtsmith AFB

The first global aircraft to arrive at Wurtsmith Air Force Base, Oscoda, for duty with the Strategic Air Command will be put on public display at a reception day open house on the base Friday, July 1.

The planes are the 150-ton, KC-135 jet strato tankers of the 920th air refueling squadron. Their mission is aerial refueling of the B-52 heavy bombers assigned to Wurtsmith AFB as SAC's primary deterrent to atomic attack.

One of the giant strato fortress-es to be assigned to the base later this summer will be on the field for close range viewing during the open house.

The day's program, largest ever planned at Wurtsmith, includes top flight military acts and displays, musical entertainment and the christening of the KC-135, City of Oscoda. Miss Susan Flanders, Oscoda beauty queen, will christen the massive airship with a bottle of Lake Huron water. State and national officials will attend the ceremonies.

The world renowned United States Drum and Bugle Corps from Washington, D. C., heads a list of musical entertainment that includes the two vocal and instrumental groups that played the top supper club and big band circuits before joining the United States Air Force Band. The Four Saints and the Top Hats. Also on hand will be the Second Air Force Band from Barksdale AFB, Louisiana.

Aerial demonstrations by outstanding acrobatic teams, flyovers by various types of aircraft and a ground display of SAC and Air Defense Command aircraft and weapons are part of the day's program.

Acclaimed as the world's most spectacular drum and bugle corps, the 61-man air force unit has drawn extravagant praise for its artistry and precision in the more than 15 countries in which it has appeared, including a magnificent exhibition last year at the World's Exposition at Brussels.

Air force command personnel attending the recognition day open house will be headed by Lt. Gen. John P. McConnell, Second Air Force commander; Brig. Gen. Harold E. Humfeld, commander of the 40th Air Division, who makes his headquarters at Wurtsmith AFB, and Col. John H. Kunkel Jr., commander of Wurtsmith's SAC unit, the 4026th Strategic Wing. The base will open to the public at 11:00 a. m. Ample free parking is available on the base. Food concessions, featuring fried chicken, will be available throughout the day.

The program which follows will give visitors who expect to be here to join in the big celebration an (See OPEN HOUSE, page 7.)

Two Boys Have Narrow Escape in Lightning Storm

Two Tawas City boys, James and Harry Wojahn, escaped injury Tuesday morning when a bolt of lightning struck the family home on M-55 west of Tawas Area High School.

The boys, ages 12 and 13, were watching the television screen when lightning struck the antenna. The bolt ripped off one corner of the house and the force knocked nearly every window out of the building.

Tawas City Fire Department was called to extinguish a fire which started at the electric power service box. Much damage was done to the interior by water.

George Wojahn, father of James and Harry, had left home a short while before the lightning struck. On his return, he found the two boys in the care of neighbors. His eldest son, George Jr., 15, was not home at the time.

Mr. Wojahn said that the building was probably a complete loss. Much of the furniture was damaged by the blast or from water. Some clothing was saved.

Mr. Wojahn and his three boys plan to move into another house directly behind the one which was hit by lightning.

Tawas City Starts Work on Street Improvements

Tawas City Department of Public Works is in the midst of preparing one mile of streets to receive double-seal coats of asphalt paving. Most of the construction is re-seal work.

Streets under construction include: First Street from the railroad tracks to the bridge; Mathews Street from Fifth to Sixth Avenue; Seventh Avenue from Fourth Street to railroad tracks; Third and Fourth Avenues from Whittemore to First Streets; Harris Avenue and Fifth Avenue are to receive spot re-seal coats.

Other construction during the past week included opening Twelfth Avenue off First Street to the old Dead Creek bed. The curb on the west side of First Street is to be moved back to the sidewalk along the Case Building. This will not be completed until later in the summer.

Only new construction to receive asphalt paving is on Sixth Avenue from Second to First Street. This will be a double-seal.

A storm sewer is to be constructed along Maple Street from Court to German Streets behind Tawas Hospital.

LET'S HAVE A PICNIC

Picnics are old-fashioned, but they are here to stay!

And, what better time to have a picnic than over the Fourth of July holiday, traditional start of the "summer" season in these parts.

To assist in preparing and planning a picnic, several special features are included in this week's issue of The Tawas Herald. Read them, you may find an idea that will make your picnic more enjoyable. At the same time, read the picnic specials offered by area merchants.

POLICE INVESTIGATE REPORT OF CHILD MOLESTATION

Area police are investigating a reported child molestation case which took place last Friday night at the East Tawas dump in Baldwin Township.

According to information received from state police, an unidentified motorist stopped two girls who were walking along US-23, saying he was looking for a baby sitter. The two girls gave the name of a friend as a possible baby sitter.

Police said the man, described in late 30s, went to the home of the girl. Because the man called the girl by name and, thinking he was a neighbor, the father gave his consent for the girl to leave with him.

The girl returned home a short while later and told her parents that the man had taken her to the dump and molested her.

Michigan Sheriffs' Assn. in Last Day of '60 Convention

More than 200 persons registered Sunday for the four-day convention of the Michigan Sheriffs' Association which has its headquarters at the Holland Hotel, East Tawas. Attending are sheriffs, undersheriffs, deputy sheriffs and their wives from nearly every county in the state.

Host for the convention, which concludes today (Wednesday), is Iosco County Sheriff Ivan L. O'Farrell and members of his department. There are two programs for the convention, one for the men and one for the ladies, the latter hosted by Mrs. O'Farrell.

Sunday's program started with a president's reception honoring Sheriff and Mrs. Clarence A. Kackmeister of Saginaw County. This event was held at the Barnes Hotel.

Actual registration for the convention started Monday morning at the Holland Hotel. A joint luncheon was held there at noon. Charles C. Kurtzrock, deputy civil defense director for Iosco County, welcomed the visitors. Sheriff Kenneth A. Parks of Lapeer County gave the response.

Business meetings were held during the afternoon. Highlight of the convention came later Monday afternoon when the group toured Wurtsmith Air Force Base, Oscoda. A picnic dinner was held Monday evening at Lost Lake Woods.

Tuesday's program consisted of business sessions. Following the call to order at 9:30 a. m. by Sheriff Kackmeister, those attending the convention heard numerous speakers, including: Sheriff Bernard Grysen, Ottawa County; Howard W. Hoyt, program director, law enforcement training committee, Michigan State University; Joseph L. Wisniewski, chairman, liquor control commission.

Following a luncheon at the Barnes Hotel, various state officials were heard, including Joseph A. Childs, commissioner of the Michigan State Police, and State Representative James P. Mielock of Whittemore, chairman of the marine affairs committee.

A panel was held on search and seizure, with D. Hale Brake as moderator. Members of the panel were Circuit Judge Richard Smith of Bay County, Prosecuting Attorney Paul Harvey of Iosco County, Assistant State Attorney General S. Jerry Cohen.

Tuesday's program was concluded with dinner at the Barnes Hotel, followed by dancing.

Another full day of business activities is on tab for the convention today (Wednesday). To be heard are Sheriff Elwin J. Smith, Eaton County; Gus Harrison, director of corrections; Jack I. Green, manager of public affairs, Associated Petroleum Industries of Michigan; Donald S. Hostetter, agent in charge, Detroit FBI.

Following the noon luncheon at the Holland, a closed meeting for sheriffs, undersheriffs and deputy sheriffs will be held. Among business to be conducted will be election of members to the board of directors.

The convention will conclude tonight with the annual banquet at the Holland Hotel. Principal speaker will be Frank H. Lee, Port Huron, general counsel for the Woman's Benefit Association.

During the convention, wives and guests of association members will be taken on tours of the area. The itinerary planned by Mrs. O'Farrell includes visits to Loud Dam, Lumbermen's Monument and a luncheon and style show at the Holland Hotel.

East Tawas Passes New Parking Lot Ordinance

Through passage of a new ordinance, East Tawas Council took steps to solve a parking problem in city-owned parking lots and on public domain.

The new ordinance, passed at a special meeting of the council last Friday night, sets a two-hour limit on parking lots.

At the same time, the ordinance limited parking on the easement to Tawas Lake which has been blocked by private automobiles in recent weeks.

The council sought immediate action on the ordinance last week after a week-long survey was made at the city parking lot on State Street. Lewis Besancon told the council that in checking the lot several times a day, he found that 85 percent of the cars there were owned by business people or employees of local business places.

Mayor Elmer Werth said that this was the same situation found on two other city lots. "During the summer months, it is particularly important that these lots be kept open for shoppers," said Werth.

In regard to the Tawas Lake easement, Mayor Werth said that the city had been unable to cope with cars which blocked the way to fishermen who wished to use parking facilities at the lake.

In other business transacted at the special meeting, a new radio was purchased for the city police car. This is in line with the recent FCC regulation which requires that all users of the police radio networks switch to narrow band equipment.

Read Romans 8:31-39

If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. (II Corinthians 5:17)

Our baby had just begun to crawl. Upon the floor, she had found a new world amid chair and table legs. Contented at first with the mere wonder of these objects, they later became impediments to her progress as she gained confidence to venture on.

One day a large chair blocked her way. Her struggle to push it aside ended with a bumped head and loud screams of protest. Picking her up, I was surprised when suddenly her sobbing ceased. She was looking down with renewed interest. The chair looked different now that she was above it.

How like that baby we sometimes are! We move about in our little realms, pushing, bumping and crying out against the trials of life. Yet lifted up in our Father's arms of love, we no longer see circumstances as insurmountable obstacles. With new vision, we see all things as useful to our spiritual growth in God's kingdom here upon earth and in His world to come.

HOT! ← → NOT!

ELECTRIC AIR CONDITIONING MAKES THE DIFFERENCE!

Why suffer from the heat for another summer? Now, before the weather gets really hot, is the time to install electric air conditioning. The temperature outside may be 98° in the shade; inside it will be cool and comfortable if you have air conditioning. Comfort is the big feature, but electric air conditioners also contribute to better health, better humidity control, more successful entertaining and more pleasant sleep. Central unit, for the whole house, or room unit, there's an electric air conditioner to fit your needs.

Modern Living begins with full HOUSEPOWER

To operate at peak efficiency, air conditioners and other appliances need full HOUSEPOWER. Electrically speaking, that means enough wiring, outlets, and switches. Summer, winter, spring or fall—full HOUSEPOWER makes your work lighter, your home much brighter.

Michigan July 4th Week-end Traffic Has Grim Record

A grim average of one traffic death every three hours and 13 minutes in the last seven July Fourth holiday observances in Michigan has brought a warning from Michigan State Police to drive with extra care during the coming 78-hour week-end.

"The state police will again operate increased traffic safety patrols with the help of the National Guard, but in the final analysis, it is the responsibility of the motorist to drive so that he will not become involved in an accident or endanger himself or other drivers," said Commissioner Joseph A. Childs.

Pass days for the state police will be canceled and all available personnel used on desk or patrol duty. Patrol shifts will be increased to 10 hours and enforcement intensity from noon Friday, July 1, through midnight Monday, July 4, will be focused on high accident areas with patrol coverage shifting as changing traffic patterns require.

State police will be assisted by 104 guard members as second-men on two-man patrols or on point control. Another 96 members will aid sheriffs and one municipal police department.

The July Fourth period is the second worst holiday of the year for traffic deaths, according to the state police analysis of Michigan accident statistics for the seven years of 1953-59. Christmas leads with one death every two hours and 37 minutes.

The death rate for the combined holiday periods of Memorial Day, July Fourth, Labor Day, Christmas and New Year's in the seven years is one every three hours and 32 minutes. With the exception of the holiday periods, the average has been one every five hours and 17 minutes.

PIE FOR DESSERT

Make room in the picnic basket for a pie dessert. It's as easy to carry as a corked thermos.

Pie as a picnic dessert complements the planner as one who has given much thought to pleasing the picnickers. And, it is a favorite fare for everyone.

The baker not only has your favorite pie, oven fresh, but his recipe never misses.

For the regular fruit or berry filled pies, ask the baker for an extra pie container, place it over the pie like a lid and secure the cover with cellophane tape.

For pies with creamy or meringue tops, here's another handy hint on how to carry it to the picnic without damage. Place four toothpicks in the center of the pie, then wrap waxed paper around it. The toothpicks will form a tent-like cover and the delicious topping will remain intact.

You'll be glad you have the extra "Lifeline" TAILORED PROTECTION provides.

HISTORY OF PICNICS

The ancient Greeks and the French had a word for it—picnic.

It doesn't make any difference in what B. C. or A. D. century, a picnic is a time-and-place word that includes all the connotations of fun and pleasure. The participants haven't changed, just the dress, and, some of the customs.

In the olden days of Greece, the picnic was an out-of-doors lunch with all the picnickers toting their own food. Just why this type of gathering came about is lost in history.

Though it was a community affair, and certainly worthy of source tracing by sociologists, the beginnings have never been factually reported. But what may be clouded by time, has become a great American family pastime.

Honor Cooks
In the evolution of the picnic, a culinary competitive spirit was founded. As the custom spread, the gathering became a food judging contest with local honors bestowed on men and women cooks.

It isn't beyond conjecture to compare European picnics of centuries ago to the type of community gatherings observed in this country on the Fourth of July and at county fairs.

The word meaning "picnic" was first noted in the ancient Greek language; that is, the first syllable "pic." Somehow, the Romans never converted it to their spoken and written language, and it is assumed since the picnic is listed among the Romance languages, the original Greek meaning was retained.

The French, in their adaptation of the outdoor repast, called it a "pique-nique" to which each participant brought a portion of the food, or paid an equivalent contribution toward the cost of the affair.

Champagne Party
As time went on, the French made a change here, a change there, and from these additions came the pique-nique, "a party of champagne." The culinary rivalry was submerged and the elements of gaiety, good companionship and conviviality emerged.

This new meaning tended to encourage smaller gatherings with the exclusion of strangers. More or less, the picnic was an adult function or party held outdoors for weather comfort.

Meanwhile, in the United States, almost with the settling of the first colony, the New World residents indulged in outdoor meetings and communal serving of food. Soon, the spirit of neighborliness evolved from this custom and picnics were organized for barn raisings, parties and other celebrations.

Picnics and Parties
Outdoor eating spread across the country with the settlement of each new territory. There was the barn dance, the harvest ball, patriotic observances, the welcome party and other such functions.

Today, the automobile and the backyard have altered the picnic to a "let's eat outdoors" affair. The picnic trend in America has come to prominence through the natural inclination for family activity. Encouragement for this type of endeavor is advocated by all social and religious agencies.

Abetting the trend are the picnic accessories like portable grills, handy insulated carriers, various dining utensils and other outdoor cooking equipment which have simplified the outing.

The portable grill or the stationary fireplace barbecue, with their charcoal or wood fuel, have equalled the utility of the range. Any meat, fish or fowl that can be prepared for eating outside the house.

Sandwich Picnic
Too, eliminating cooking entirely, there's the sandwich picnic—probably the most popular—that involves no more than a loaf or loaves of bread and sandwich fillings. Hot dogs and hamburgers broiled on the grill are the next favorites.

In word evolution, it's "picnic"—fun eating out-of-doors.

TELEVISION Program Schedule W N E M - Television Channel 5

Table with television program schedules for Saturday, July 2, Sunday, July 3, Monday through Friday, and Wednesday, July 6.

NEW PICNIC IDEA

There's a clever new way to take sandwiches on a picnic. And that's the new! Picnics and sandwiches have been match-mates for so long it's a moot question which came first—the sandwich or the picnic.

At one time going on a picnic meant getting up extra early to slice innumerable loaves of bread, put the spread on the slices, and wrap what seemed like hundreds of sandwiches. The new, smart way of taking sandwiches on a picnic today is not to take them! Take the makings instead—and make the sandwiches at the picnic.

Make Sandwich Fillings Pre-sliced bread and individual rolls, wrapped to remain fresh until used, do away with the need to slice and wrap ahead of time. The sandwich fillings go to the picnic in aluminum foil or light plastic containers, remaining crisp and juicy until the food is served. The side-dishes and beverages travel to the picnic right in the can or bottle, cold and refreshing as the moment you took them out of the refrigerator and placed them in an insulated bag or vacuum jug.

Canned apple sauce is a happy choice for the picnic, whether you're adventuring to verdant woodland spot or surf or lake-lapped beach, or spending a comfortably lazy Sunday in the sun and shade of your own backyard. It provides pleasant zest to sandwiches, cold chicken and grilled hot dogs alike, and travels in its own can or jar without fuss.

Apple Juice is another felicitous picnic choice, light enough to go with everything. Stock the picnic bag with a supply of the individual six-ounce cans, a box of straws and the all-important can-opener. Drink right from the can, with no worries about spilling the juice. Whatever's not used doesn't get opened and goes right home to the refrigerator again. And you can save the thermos for hot coffee that somebody's sure to want at the end of the day.

A sandwich spread that travels to the picnic, which children especially will delight in, is a simple mixture of cream cheese, nuts and canned apple slices. Chop the nuts and canned apples quite fine and blend with the cream cheese. Bring along raisin bread for the sandwiches. A Shrimp-'n'-Apple sandwich is a specialty you can serve all year round at luncheons and bridge parties but it's quick and easy enough to make that it will be a happy addition to your picnic menus. Canned apple sauce, diced shrimp you can buy already cooked in cans or frozen, diced cucumber and slices of sweet pickle, with dressing, make the filling. For the sandwich, bring frankfurter or hamburger rolls and let the company have fun spreading their own.

SHRIMP-'N'-APPLE SANDWICH 1 1/2 cups diced cook shrimp 6 tablespoons diced cucumber 1/2 cup sliced sweet pickle 1 cup canned apple sauce 1/2 cup mayonnaise or salad dressing 8 frankfurter rolls Combine shrimp, cucumber, sweet pickle, apple sauce and mayonnaise or salad dressing. Spread between split rolls. Yields 8.

Tawas City Loses to East Tawas, but Game Protested

Sunday's game between cross-town rivals, Tawas City and East Tawas, ended with a 10-5 bulge in favor of the latter, but the game has been protested to NEM League officials by Tawas City over a disputed play in a wierd fourth inning.

Southpaw Herman Rollin, young moundsman for East Tawas, and Jerry Potts for Tawas City hooked up in a good pitchers battle for three innings.

Potts, who was nicked for a hit in each of the first three innings, had to pitch over several fielding errors by his mates but escaped without a run being scored. Then the roof caved in on him in the fourth inning.

Rollin fanned nine Tawas City batters and breezed along with little trouble for seven innings. He had good support from his mates afield, including one fast double play. Although Tawas City batters rapped out 15 hits during the game, poor base running in the early innings helped Rollin's cause.

Both teams were using the "good wood," Manager Clare Herriman of Tawas City being the leading hitter with a triple, double and two singles in four times at bat. His four hits and Cliff Erickson's three singles, accounted for seven of the losers' 15 hits. Jerry Gracik hit a two-run homer in the ninth.

base was too late, loading the bases.

Potts then lost control and walked Herman Rollin to force in the first run. He walked John Erickson to force in the second run. Ken Rollin rapped a line drive into left field for his second hit of the day to score two runs.

Orville Revord then came on to pitch for Tawas City. The protested play came when Pete Bolen hit a ground ball to short. John Erickson collided with Shortstop Cliff Erickson, who was attempting to field the ball. Tawas City claimed interference with the fielder but Umpire Fred Erickson ruled otherwise. Bolen was credited with a single.

EAST TAWAS GARDEN CLUB'S FLOWER SHOW JULY 9

Residents of the Tawas area, children and adults, are urged to enter flowers, plants and arrangements at the 10th annual flower show, sponsored by East Tawas Garden Club. The event is scheduled for Saturday, July 9, at Tawas Area High School.

Programs may be obtained from Mrs. Frank Wilkusi, 107 Locke Street, East Tawas, or Mrs. Lewis Besancon, 606 East Lincoln, East Tawas.

East Tawas batters rapped 10 hits off two Tawas City pitchers, including a blast over the left field fence by J. Bethard with the bases loaded.

The fourth inning saw the departure of Potts from the mound when East Tawas sent 12 batters to the plate. Potts started his own undoing by hitting leadoff man, Bill McIntosh. Playing for one run, Manager Harold Rollin gave J. Bethard the bunt sign. The throw to first base was dropped and both runners were safe. Martin bunted and the play on McIntosh at third Peterson hit a ground ball to short and J. Erickson scored on a play at the plate. L. Bethard singled and Bolen was forced to hold at third, again loading the bases. McIntosh, up for his second time in the inning, was out on an infield fly. J. Bethard then unloaded the bases with a grand slam home run. Martin struck out to end the inning.

East Tawas scored its final run in the fifth inning when Erickson was hit by a pitched ball and stole second base. He scored on Bolen's hit over second base.

WITH EMERY

One of the year's heaviest rainfalls put the area trout streams into a high and muddy condition for the fishermen. There have been several reports of caddis hatches along the AuSable but very few large trout have been taken.

Michigan park users will not be required to have entrance stickers for their vehicles this year as the park sticker bill will not go into effect until August 17.

The conservation commission felt it would only be unfair to charge fees at this late point in the park season. The new park permit law calls for a daily 50 cent sticker fee and the annual $2 sticker for use during a year. No date has been set as to when the sticker requirement would begin in 1961.

This is the time of year when most of the new wildlife begins to appear in the woods and fields. Nature has provided most of the animal wildlife with fairly good means of camouflage and methods of self protection. When a person finds an animal of any type in the woods, it should be left in the woods in its own natural living habitat to survive. Do not feel that the animal's parents have left it to live on its own as they are probably only a few feet away watching.

KING OF PICNICS

Are you picnic prone? Back in 1748 or thereabouts, the word "picnic" was used to describe a fashionable social entertainment at which each person present "contributed a share of the provisions."

Picnics today are still group activities at which everyone presnt partakes of a repast out-of-doors. And there is a reason for most people love picnics.

Picnics really are a lark and the fun can be increased with a bit of foresight. Foresight that allows you to be ready at a moment's notice to pack your basket and "get-away." Here's how it's done.

Plan Ahead

Market ahead for supplies—see that a shelf in your refrigerator is filled with assorted sausage meats such as bologna, salami, cervelat, or whatever suits your taste—and the ever popular skinless frankfurter.

With relishes and condiments ready at hand on your pantry shelf, these meats can be used in preparing crisp salads, tasty casseroles or palate tickling sandwich fillings. Pre-cooked and already prepared they cut down make-ready time when the mood is upon you to "have a picnic."

Picnic Aids

Refrigerator freezer compartments should be used to advantage for pre-storing several menus of "ready in advance" picnic meals. Dishes that have to be warmed can be re-heated and packed in popular insulated food carriers. And with portable ice chests, a variety of palatable foods heretofore never served away from home are fast becoming seasoned travelers—from kitchen to picnic grounds.

Here is a "Fourth of July" salad that is delightful. It will surely win you praises whether you serve it at home or away. Add a platter of assorted cheese, sausage meats and hot garlic buttered French bread which may be heated in foil. A tempting extra—roasting ears of corn.

"Fourth of July Salad"

1/2 pound skinless frankfurters cut bite size
1 cup boiled potatoes, cubed
2 tablespoons chopped green onion tops
1 wedge of crumbled blue cheese
1/2 teaspoon paprika
1 cup mayonnaise
1/2 cup diced celery
1 1/2 tablespoons green peppers chopped
1/2 cup cooked asparagus tips
1 chopped hard-cooked egg
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon black pepper
1/2 cup French dressing
Lettuce leaves
Tomato wedges

Arrange frankfurter slices, potatoes, asparagus tips, peppers, celery, onions, eggs, cheese bits in a shallow bowl. Toss with mayonnaise. Serve on lettuce leaves with a garnish of tomato wedges and French dressing.

Note: Before cutting up frankfurters, let them stand in boiling water for about eight minutes.

Travel Tip: The salad will travel cool and crisp if the frankfurter mixture is packed in a plastic salad container or glass jar. Wrap lettuce in a damp cheese cloth and cover with wax paper, plastic film or aluminum foil. At destination unpack these from the portable cooler, then cut tomato wedges and arrange salad on lettuce leaves.

WHOLE WHEAT BREAD
WINS BEST-OF-SHOW

You women who plan to enter yeast breads at our own county fair this year might want to do a little before-hand practicing by trying out this prize winning recipe. This bread was judged Best-of-Show in yeast-baking classes and given the special gold ribbon and cash award contributed by Standard Brands Incorporated, the makers of Fleischmann's Yeast.

Its baker, Mrs. Hoyt Palmer, won this special award at the Salt Lake County Fair, Utah, in 1959. Whole wheat flour, molasses and honey are its special ingredients.

Many other favorite recipes featuring yeast-raised breads, sweet breads and rolls will undoubtedly show up at our fair, as women compete for this special Best-of-Show Yeast Baking Award.

FAMILY LOAF

1 package or cake Fleischmann's Yeast, active dry or compressed	2 tablespoons molasses
1/2 cup warm, not hot, water (lukewarm for compressed yeast)	1 tablespoon salt

1 tablespoon honey	6 cups whole wheat flour
	3 cups sifted all purpose flour (about)

BASES LOADED TRIPLE WINS FOR BRAVES

A bases loaded triple in the last of the fifth inning was the margin of victory for the Braves Thursday night when they defeated the Yankees, 12-9.

With the game tied at 9-9, Bob Geller drove in three runs for the Braves with his triple and a six-run fifth inning by the Yankees was nullified.

This game was a play off of the June 13 game which was called on account of darkness and had ended in a 6-6 tie.

The winning pitcher was Bob Erickson. Loser was M. Sass.

Art of Fine Yeast Bread Baking to be Iosco Fair Feature

The old fashioned art of fine yeast bread baking will be a prominent feature of this year's Iosco County Fair July 27-30.

There, competition will be keen among local women who pride themselves on their skill in this traditional culinary art—and one big reason is a special best-of-show yeast baking award of $10 offered by Standard Brands Incorporated, makers of Fleischmann's Yeast.

The yeast-raised bread, sweet bread or rolls which wins this award will have to pass the usual rigid testing by the fair's culinary judges. Yeast-raised breads are traditionally judged by a carefully prepared point system which includes checking texture, flavor and aroma, as well as appearance.

This competition, together with the usual yeast bread classes, is open to Iosco and adjoining counties.
