Mayor's Vote Breaks 3-3 Tie on City Auditor

Mayor George Tuttle cast a tie-breaking vote Monday night when the Tawas City Council was deadlocked in action toward hiring an auditor to examine the city's 1961 books.

Tuttle's vote, coming after the council was evenly divided at a three and three vote, gave the auditing job to the Saginaw firm of Wagar, Lunt and Oehring, which has handled the work for the past several years.

By a majority vote of the council two weeks ago, Robert Colpean of East Tawas, who represents the firm of Yeo and Yeo of Saginaw, was invited to attend last night's meeting.

Although stating that professional ethics of CPAs prevented his firm from competing for the work, Colpean explained that Yeo and Yeo had been in business since 1928, that in addition to the office at East Tawas, it had three other offices, and that Yeo and Yeo was well qualified to handle the city's accounting.

Prior to the vote, minutes of the Tawas City Water Board indicated that it was in favor of retaining the services of Wagar, Lunt and Oehring. This same view was taken by Councilmen Earl Davis, Clyde Evril and William Murray.

Councilman Cecil Cabbie, who was supported by Howard Hutton and Arthur Wegner, felt that Yeo and Yeo should receive consideration for the work, inasmuch as it had a local office and was a well-established firm.

Following the tie vote of the council, City Attorney Jerry Cotter said that the deciding vote was to be cast by the mayor, according to the law.

Tuttle said that inasmuch as the water board was satisfied with the work of Wagar, Lunt and Oehring and that the firm had provided satisfactory work for the city, he saw no reason to change auditors at this time.

In other business, the council allocated $300 as its share of the youth recreation program in the Tawasites this summer.

Deloie (Dewey) Durant, who has been active in the junior baseball program and a member of the East Tawas Recreation Committee, explained that the East Tawas Council and Tawas Area Board of Education had each allocated $300 to the program.

The $900 is to be used to hire an athletic director to coordinate the program.

TC Council Approves Budget of $94,460

A budget of $94,460 for fiscal 1962-63 was approved Monday night by the Tawas City Council. Actual expenditures during the coming year are expected to be approximately $94,030.

Last year, the city set a budget of $97,080 and had expenditures of $92,125.40. However, actual receipts of $99,229.81 were not as high as anticipated and the difference between receipts and expenditures was made up through a cash balance at the start of the year.

The cash balance at the start of fiscal 1961-62 now has been reduced from $7,533 to $4,637.42.

According to Treasurer John Hosbach, receipts during the past year included $30,092.10 from city taxes, $11,833.02 from sales tax, $19,178.82 from the highway fund, $9,068.76 from trunkline maintenance.

The remainder of total receipts was received from liquor taxes, gas tax, traffic fines, liquor fees, equipment rental, intangible tax, sewage plant addition transfers and other smaller items.

Supt. Reginald Bublitz noted that sales tax refunds were lower than the previous year and the city has

Hot Election at East Tawas—

McKenzie Wins Mayor Race; One New Alderman and JP

East Tawas has a new mayor, a new alderman and a new justice of the peace following Monday's annual spring election.

Marked by active campaigning on all sides, some 762 persons went to the polls. Although this was about 90 less than last year's election, it still represented a good cross-section of voters.

Elected to serve as mayor during the coming year was Clarence McKenzie, who upset the incumbent, C. V. Miller, by a 415 to 347 majority.

McKenzie tallied 117 votes in the First Ward, 156 in the Second Ward and 142 in the Third Ward. Miller garnered 82 votes in the First, 128 in the Second and 147 in the Third.

Both men, incidentally, lost in their home wards. Miller is a resident of the Second Ward and McKenzie resides in the Third Ward.

Mrs. Frank Berzhinski won out in the "sticker" campaign to fill the three-year vacancy of justice of the peace. She compiled ward totals of 54, 116 and 103 to beat her nearest opponent, A. J. Goulet, 273 to 181. Goulet had ward totals of 56, 66 and 59.

The other sticker candidate, E. F. Bailey, received votes of 21, 18 and 33 for a total of 72.

City Clerk Fred B. Lomas said that a number of votes for justice of the peace were voided because of the fact that some voters had failed to make a cross in the square on the stickers.

Two of the three races for aldermen were hot ones, with Ralph Meyers upsetting incumbent First Ward Alderman Floyd Upton, 150-125; James Campbell retains his Second Ward alderman post after defeating Truman Barber Jr., 124-68, while Edward Seifert Jr. edged Claude Nash, 147-138, for the Third Ward alderman's chair.

A review of the results shows that all businessmen who were candidates in this election were defeated, with but one exception. Miller, the unseated mayor, is a jeweler; Barber, unsuccessful candidate for alderman, operates a fuel oil and gasoline bulk sales, and Nash, who was unsuccessful in his bid for alderman, operates a shoe store.

The lone exception to this trend was in the First Ward where Meyers, owner of a sheet metal firm, defeated the incumbent.

Elected to office without opposition were Clerk Lomas and Treasurer Grace Klenow.

Mrs. Berzhinski succeeds her late husband, Frank, as justice of the peace. Her nearest opponent, Goulet, had served several terms as JP.

Campaigning by all candidates started in earnest last week and sound cars plied the streets Saturday and election day.

One advertising gimmick which was to have been used by supporters of McKenzie went for naught. An airplane towing a sign imprinted with the name of McKenzie was to have circled the city last Saturday afternoon. The sign was destroyed on take-off.

Ho-Hum—

No TC Contest; Mayor's Wife Gets One Vote

With no contest listed on the 1962 spring ballot, Tawas City voters avoided the polls Monday. Only 133 votes were cast, with five spoiled ballots.

Mayor George Tuttle was re-elected to another term as mayor. He received 35 votes in the First Ward, 35 votes in the Second Ward and 55 in the Third Ward.

Two write-in "candidates" were in a tie for second place as mayor. Donald Watson received one vote in the First Ward and Mrs. Helen Tuttle, wife of the mayor, received one vote in the Third Ward.

There was one other write-in candidate listed on a Third Ward ballot. Mrs. Florence Nelson, wife of the city clerk, received one vote for her husband's job.

Re-elected without opposition were Clerk Nelson, Treasurer John Hosbach, Aldermen Arthur Wegner, Clyde Evril, Howard Hutton and Supervisors Clement Stephan and Clarence Everett.

Only new city officer is Supervisor Cecil Lamb, who was elected to succeed former Second Ward supervisor, Fred Brabant.

Re-elected at Whittemore without opposition were: George Blust, mayor; Henry Hasty, clerk; Lula Dahne, treasurer; Edward Graham, assessor; Archie Graham and Charles Bailey, aldermen; David Mills and Ray Dorcey, constables, all on the Democratic ticket.

TC Methodists to Dedicate Organ

Sunday, April 8, will be a big day for the First Methodist Church, Tawas City, when it formally dedicates the organ purchased more than two years ago. According to rules of the Methodist Church, no building or equipment may be dedicated until it is paid in full. The congregation has given faithfully over the past two years so that this goal could be reached.

Sunday's dedication ceremony will take place during the regular morning worship at 10:00 a. m.

James Norman, a former resident of Tawas City and an organist for 30 years at Reed City, will present a prelude from 9:30 to 10:00 a. m. and a brief concert following the actual dedication from 10:30 to 11:00 a. m.

The festivities will continue following church school with a fellowship dinner in memorial hall at 12:30 p. m.

The Allen Organ owned by the church has been described by experts as the most nearly approaching a pipe organ in reproduction and sound, according to the Rev. Ralph Edwards, pastor.

The Tawas City model has full pedal board, swell and great manuals and five percussion stages.

Orlo (Jack) MacMurray Returns to McKay Sales

Orlo (Jack) MacMurray, former Tawas Cityan, is again affiliated with McKay Sales Company as a salesman.

MacMurray, who was with McKay Sales here from 1947 through 1951, had operated an automobile sales at Gladwin for several years and was later engaged in the insurance business.

He is a graduate of St. Joseph High School.

Junior High Bands in Festival Saturday at W-P Area School

Whittemore-Prescott Area High School will be the scene Saturday of the district solo-ensemble festival for junior high school bands of District Nine.

This year marks the first time that junior high bands in the district will have a festival separate from senior high bands. The latter festival was held two weeks ago at Mt. Pleasant.

A total of 142 events are listed in the festival, which is under supervision of Peter Ekstrom, band director at Whittemore-Prescott High School.

Schools participating include Osceola, Beaverton, Farwell, Clare, Standish-Sterling, Gladwin, Pincanning, Roscommon, Whittemore-Prescott and Tawas Area.

Some 48 junior band students from Tawas Area will participate with a total of 40 events listed, according to Tawas band director, Edward J. Rima.

Judges for the festival will be Rex Hewlett, Mt. Pleasant High School; Stanley Bauman, Elkton-Pigeon-Bay Port High School; Carl Borgeson, Muskegon High School.

Continuance of Blood Bank is Assured by 328 Donors

Continued operation of Iosco County's blood bank was assured last week through the overwhelming support of area blood donors.

A total of 328 pints of blood were donated during the two days the bloodmobile visited the county. Some 130 pints were collected Thursday at the Osceola Community Building, while 198 pints were received Friday at the St. Joseph Social Center, East Tawas.

This total represents the highest number of donors ever received since the blood bank has been in operation," stated Louis Awalt, blood bank chairman. "It was way above our expectations and serves to demonstrate the value placed on the blood bank service by people of the county."

Because of the recent decision of Wurtsmith Air Force Base authorities to drop out of the local blood bank, such cooperation was needed in order to retain Iosco's standing in the American Red Cross sponsored blood bank.

The first visit of the bloodmobile two years ago saw only 125 donors at the East Tawas collection point, representing the entire county with the exception of the Osceola area.

Awalt said particular commendation should be paid to the western part of the county.

"Approximately 25 percent of the total number of donors came from Hale and Whittemore," said Awalt. He commended Perry Sheltenberger, fire chief at Hale, and Arden Charters, chairman at Whittemore, for helping to bring out this fine cooperation.

"There were so many people who helped in this project that it would be impossible to single out any one person for thanks," said

Awalt. "We must point out, however, that support from organizations like the Tawas Kiwanis Club, with its 30 registrations; the United States Coast Guard Station, with 100 percent participation; and the Osceola Teachers Association, went a long way toward assuring that we would meet our goal."

In charge of the local collection center were Awalt and Mrs. George Tuttle. Heading the Osceola collection center were Mrs. Clarence Eoff and Mrs. Robert Richardson.

Many volunteers assisted in the blood collection centers. The list included registered nurses, Gray Ladies and members of the Tawas Women's League at the East Tawas center, while members of the Kiwanis Auxiliary assisted at Osceola. In addition, local physicians devoted their time to the program at both collection centers.

Judge Allan C. Miller, chairman of the local chapter of the American Red Cross, said that the Osceola area's contribution was very much appreciated.

"It was the first time for non-military participation and volunteer workers started from scratch, so to speak," he stated.

The chapter chairman also paid tribute to Awalt, Mrs. Tuttle, Mrs. Harold Grise, blood program secretary, and the entire committee for this successful cooperative effort.

Announce Names of Honor Grads

Honor graduates of the class of 1962 at Osceola Area High School were announced last week by High School Principal Donald Wagner.

A career with the government as an interpreter will be the goal of Miss McKay following her college training. She will enter Arizona State College in the fall.

Named valedictorian with a 3.89 scholastic average out of a possible four points was Grant Stern. Salutatorian honors went to Sandra Jo McKay, who completed a 3.78 average.

The son of SM-Sgt. and Mrs. James Stern of Wurtsmith Air Force Base, Stern attended Osceola Area Schools since the sixth grade, following a college preparatory curriculum.

Miss McKay is the daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. A. F. McKay, also of Wurtsmith. She entered Osceola Area High School at the start of the junior year.

A member of the National Honor Society, Stern has served as president of the Osceola chapter during his senior year. Other activities include membership in the Key Club, chess club, electronics and pep clubs and the high school band.

During his four years in high school, Stern has carried five academic subjects each semester, graduating with 20 credits, four more than he required. He has majors in science, math, history and English.

A career in the science field, possibly in nuclear physics, is included in Stern's future plans. He has been accepted in both Case Institute of Technology and the Michigan College of Mining and Technology. He has also been recommended for several scholarships, based on his outstanding high school record.

Also pursuing a college preparatory curriculum, Miss McKay will graduate with 18 credits and majors in math, science, English, history and a minor in Latin.

Her high school activities include participation in drama, choir and Future Teachers Club programs and as service activities chairman of the year book. She is also a member of the Na-

Real Estate Valuation Up; TC Personal Property Dips

Tawas City's board of review last week approved a city valuation of $2,232,500, representing a $5,100 increase over last year.

This increase continues the trend of past years, but is considerably less than the increase of $58,400 established in 1961.

While real estate valuations in all three wards were higher than last year, personal property valuations showed slight decreases.

The First Ward saw an increase in real estate valuation from $526,500 in 1961 to $597,200 this year. Personal property dropped from $155,400 in 1961 to $141,200 this year. This gave a total ward valuation of $738,400 in 1962, as compared to $717,900 last year.

Real estate valuation in the Second Ward saw an increase from $419,900 in 1961 to $425,200 this year. Personal property decreased, however, from $70,200 in 1961 to $45,700 in 1962. Total valuation approved by the board of review was $470,900, as compared to $490,100 in 1961.

Continuing the trend in higher real estate valuation, figures for the Third Ward show a 1962 total of $895,600, as compared to $884,200 last year. But, as in the other two wards, personal property valuation dropped from $135,200 in 1961 to $127,600 in 1962. Total of both real and personal properties amounted to $1,023,200, as compared to $1,019,400 last year.

Several appeals were heard from taxpayers in the city asking the lowering of personal property valuation. Adjustments were made by the board of review in some cases.

Acting on the board were Mayor George Tuttle, Clerk Walter Nelson and Supervisors Clement Stephan, Fred Brabant and Clarence Everett.

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands; one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

Household Workers Losing Out in SS Insurance Rights

According to Paul M. Ellifritz, manager of the Bay City Social Security Office, many household workers in this area are losing out on insurance rights that could amount to many thousands of dollars, according to the estimates of the Social Security Administration. Nine out of 10 who work for a living are now protected under the retirement, survivor and disability provision of the social security law. These workers include household workers such as maids, laundresses, baby sitters, etc., who perform household work in or about a private home. However, government records indicate that many who work in jobs of these types are losing the credits they need to qualify for these benefits because proper tax returns are not being filed.

If you work in household employment, be sure you do not lose your rights to future social security benefits. Cash wages of 50 dollars or more paid to you in any three-month period ending March 31, June 30, September 30 and December 31 by one employer must be reported for social security purposes. If you are paid as little as four dollars in every week of a calendar quarter by one employer, your wages would be covered under the law.

The social security tax of 6 1/2 percent must be paid on these wages; 3 1/2 percent to be paid by the employee and the other 3 1/2 percent to be paid by the employer. Wages must be reported by the employer to the Internal Revenue service under the name and number as shown on the worker's social security card.

The reporting of these wages and the payment of the social security tax is not a matter of choice but is a legal requirement. The employer is directly responsible for reporting the wages of the household employee and the payment of the social security tax. The employer who fails to meet this responsibility is liable for any delinquent taxes in addition to any penalty for failure to report on time.

A representative of the Social Security Administration will be in Tawas City at the Iosco County Building Thursday, April 12, 10:30 a. m.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE—

The power of spiritual thoughts to dispel apathy and idleness will be brought out in Christian Science Church services Sunday.

Bible readings in the lesson-lesson entitled "Unreality," will include these verses from Proverbs (6): "How long wilt thou sleep, O sluggard? when wilt thou arise out of thy sleep? Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep: So shall thy poverty come as one that travel-eth, and thy want as an armed man."

A correlative passage to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states (p. 240): "If mortals are not progressive, past failures will be repeated until all wrong work is effaced or rectified. If at present satisfied with wrongdoing, we must learn to loathe it. If at present content with idleness, we must become dissatisfied with it."

Zion Ladies to Make Plans for Easter Breakfast and Dedication Plans for the Easter breakfast and dedication services for the new school will be formulated at the Zion Lutheran Ladies Aid meeting April 5, 7:30 p. m., at the school.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Harold Johnson, Mrs. Tillie Bertch, Mrs. William Wendt Jr. and Mrs. Ralph Terreault.

Read 1 Corinthians 9:19-27

Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. (Matthew 16:24)

One of the ways into which the cross leads us is the way of self-discipline, both physical and spiritual. "It is that discipline," writes Dr. James Reid, "which comes through the denial of bodily instincts and appetites. There can be no fitness either of body or spirit without self-discipline."

There is a young man whom I have known since he was a boy. He developed into a fine athlete and achieved considerable success as a runner. When I talked with him about his fitness for his racing, he told me of the luxuries he avoided and of his abstinence from all kinds of self-indulgence. Severe discipline was his secret of success.

We cannot be faithful witnesses for Christ unless we accept the necessary discipline. Ministers and laymen alike must discipline their minds and souls for the purpose of being at their best in living the Christian way of life.

PRAYER

Thou knowest, O Lord, that we want our body, mind and spirit to be useful instruments in Thy service. Grant us the power of self-mastery. Enable us to discipline ourselves so that we may be fit for Thy service. For Jesus' sake. Amen.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH ANNOUNCES RADIO SERIES

A new radio series designed to highlight the essential vitality of Bible teachings was announced today by the Christian Science Church.

Starting April 8 more than 700 stations will broadcast the weekly 15-minute series called "The Bible Speaks to You." The programs describe how prayer can meet familiar problems confronting people in all walks of life. They feature well-loved selections from the Bible, read against a background of organ music. Informal discussion brings out the practical application of these teachings.

"The Bible Speaks to You" replaces the series, "How Christian Science Heals," which has been on the air every week since September 18, 1953. It is produced by The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts. Will B. Davis, manager of committees on publication, is in charge of the project.

In announcing the release of the new programs, Mr. Davis said: "Mankind needs as never before the healing and comforting message of the Bible. Our programs will show how practical and vigorous the Bible teachings can be in meeting today's problems."

Opening the series this week-end is an introductory program on the subject, "Why Read the Bible?" The commentator will be Ralph E. Wagers, a Christian science teacher, practitioner and editor. The host will be Harry Bacon Clark, who for many years was a CBS newscaster.

Other program topics will include: "Bless Them That Curse You," "Easter and the Bomb," "Overcoming Anxiety," "The Source of Health," "Is More Leisure Time the Answer?," "Don't Label Yourself or Others," "Teenagers, Parents and Temptation," "Your Defense From Contagion," "Does Your Life Have Meaning?," "The Problem Drinker and Religion."

Locally, the series, "The Bible Speaks to You," may be heard over Station WIOS at 9:30 a. m. Sundays.

EAST TAWAS' CENTENNIAL YEAR ---- 1962

BACK IN THE DAYS before television, motion pictures or radio, the stage was the principal form of entertainment and East Tawas had one of the best for a town of its size at the Opera House. Owned by Milo Eastman, this auditorium was scene of many road shows and home-talent productions. Located on Newman Street between the corner of East State Street and the present-day William Look and Sons garage, its floor was also the site for basketball games. This picture shows the cast of one home-talent production,

DART HAS A NEW LOW PRICE COMPARE IT!

New car sales are booming. It's a great year to get a great deal. But before you buy, check what's going on at your Dodge Dealer.

FORD FAIRLANE	$2079
MERCURY METEOR	$2203
NEW SIZE DODGE DART	$2241
CHEVY BISCAVINE	Price includes heater $2324
FORD GALAXIE	$2378

The comparison, above, is based on manufacturers' suggested retail price of six-cylinder 2-door sedans. Only white wall tires, bumper guards, other optional equipment, state and local taxes (if any) and destination charge extra.

Some new automobiles are just too darn big to drive with any feeling of confidence. There's a couple of feet of useless overhang that doesn't seem to do anything except get in your way.

Then you try loading your family and your goods in a compact and you've got another kind of trouble. Too little room and not enough muscle in the engine department.

What's a man to do? Try out the new size Dodge Dart. It's a totally new kind of Dodge. An automobile without excess overhang and bulky nonsense. It's two feet bigger than America's smallest automobile . . . and two feet shorter than America's longest. Sized right in the middle of the big and little.

You get exceptional maneuverability, parkability without giving up interior room. You get handling that's astoundingly easy and firm. You get the most powerful standard six engine in the business. Or, a standard V8 that develops more horsepower and torque than anything near Dart's size or price. And that's just the half of it.

The body is rustproofed. The brakes adjust themselves. You go 32,000 miles between grease jobs. The Dart 440 has full carpeting, vinyl upholstery (in hardtop models), and a fold-down center armrest up front.

Yes sir, you're going to like what's happened to Dodge. Go see the new size Dodge Dart at your dependable Dodge Dealer.

Vets Neglect to Update GI Insurance Policy Beneficiary

Thousands of veterans are neglecting to keep up to date their listing of a beneficiary for their GI insurance policy proceeds, John S. Gleason Jr., administrator of veterans affairs, said recently.

Because of this failure to keep the VA informed of changes necessary to reflect the births, marriages, deaths or divorces that occur over the years, their insurance proceeds may not be paid to the individual nor in the manner the veteran would wish.

The VA must pay the proceeds of the insurance policy to the beneficiary designated by the veteran himself.

Changes in family status cause designations made years ago to be out of harmony with the veteran's present wishes.

But the administrator points out, the VA has no alternative but to pay the insurance proceeds to the beneficiary on record in the VA files.

Mr. Gleason said that a recent sampling in which the VA asked a group of veterans if they wished to change beneficiary or payment method brought six out of 10 affirmative replies from those returning the questionnaire.

He strongly urged all veterans holding GI policies to make certain that up-to-date beneficiary designations and payment methods are on file with the VA.

Necessary forms for those changes may be obtained from any VA office in person or by mail or may be received by writing directly to the VA insurance office where the veteran's insurance policy records are kept.

Ship's Compasses

Years ago the compass was a pretty crude affair but nevertheless served its purpose. Older compasses were the dry type somewhat similar to the present day pocket type. Ship's compasses were larger and made with a bunch of magnetic needles attached to a card showing compass points and pivoted at the center.

But with the coming of mechanical propulsion, the vibration of the machinery transferred itself to the compass causing somewhat violent reaction to the compass card and effecting its reliability. This condition was eventually corrected by placing the compass card in a sealed bowl filled with a non-freezable liquid like kerosene, alcohol or oil.

This type of compass is known as the wet type which has the advantage of a much steadier compass card, the liquid tending to buoy the card and dampen its inclination to vibrate with the roll and turning action of the vessel. Most modern compasses also have a glass hemispherical shaped top which magnifies the compass card for easier reading.

Most ship's compasses except the smaller ones are usually mounted in gimbals, a universal or flexible mounting which maintains the compass in a relatively level position regardless of the roll of the vessel.

And all compasses have a mark known as the lubber line inscribed on the housing. A compass is installed on a boat so that an imaginary line passing through the pivot of the compass and the lubber line is parallel to the center line of the boat. In this way, the lubber line always indicates the compass direction on which the boat is heading.

Today, most boats contain some metals which tend to deflect the compass reading. It is therefore important that the boat owner take steps to minimize this compass error. The electric wiring in many boats can cause this condition. The effect of the electrical fields in this wiring can be practically eliminated by twisting each pair or more of wires. Wherever practical, the compass should be mounted as far away as possible from this wiring, consistent with convenience to read it.

Metal masses in the average boat, particularly those with an in-board engine will also cause deflection of the compass card so the same precaution of mounting the compass away from the metal is important. Care should also be taken to not leave metal objects in the vicinity of the compass.

This compass error induced by permanently installed metal equipment in a boat is called deviation. Because it varies as a boat turns throughout 360 degrees, the good shipper plots a deviation table to correct his compass reading for at least every 15 degrees of heading.

There are several ways of doing this but a most satisfactory way is to tow a small dinghy without any metal aboard. In the dinghy have a good compass and someone to read it. Running slowly and turning in a large circle, the individual in the dinghy calls "mark" on each 15 degrees change of heading. Someone on the towing boat notes his exact compass reading. After the complete 360 degree run has been completed, a chart is made showing the degrees of difference at each reading. These degrees of deviation are noted on the table as "so many degrees" west or "so many degrees" east, as the case may be.

The next article combines a previous story on charts with this one and shows how easy it is to plot and run a course accurately. Know what's going on around you. Read The Tawas Herald, still only $2 a year in Iosco County.

Wilfred Rapp is Appointed East Tawas Fire Chief

Wilfred (Skip) Rapp, Newman Street barber, was appointed East Tawas' fire chief at a meeting of the city council Monday night.

Rapp succeeds Donald Hogaboam, who recently moved to California. Hogaboam held the position several years after taking over from former fire chief, Ray Klinger.

Representing the volunteer fire department at the council meeting was Acting Fire Chief Robert Marx, who recommended Rapp's appointment. Marx was named assistant chief.

In other business, City Superintendent Paul Rupert reported that two building applications had been approved during the past week. One for Robert Botsford, 705 West State Street, re-roof house; H. Wiley, 206 West Lincoln, fence.

The council took final action on approving $300 as its share of hiring a recreational director for the summer months.

Because of the interest in Monday's election, Clerk Fred Lomas reports that action at the council meeting was uneventful. The council waited for election returns, as did many residents of the community.

Past 13 Years Most Active for Register of Deeds Office

Real estate activity in Iosco County during the past 13 years is exactly one-half as much as that transacted during the preceding 90 years, according to a report this week from Albert H. Buch, register of deeds.

During the first 90 years of this county's history, 100 books of 640 pages each were used to record transactions. Since 1949, some 50 books have already been filled, each with 640 pages.

As an example of this activity, Buch said that real estate transactions this year amounted to $518,147.70 in January and $193,202.03 in February.

Land transactions saw $487.30 worth of revenue stamps being affixed to legal documents totaling $443,000 in January while $707.75 in revenue stamps were required for transactions of $683,000 in February.

Chattel mortgages filed with the register of deeds during the first two months of this year were $339,336.86 in January and $639,395.47 in February.

Buch reports that there is still considerable activity in oil leases. The largest number of leases ever recorded on a single day came on March 23 when $600 in recording fees was charged to the C. J. Simpson Oil Company and Humble Oil Company.
