

Teaching Methods Keep Abreast of Developments

America's Mariner Two space-ship made a historic rendezvous with Venus Friday, an unbelievable 36 million miles away. During the next few years, such an occurrence will probably become commonplace as man continues his quest into outer space.

While it may be days or weeks before substantial parts of Mariner Two's electronic findings are made public, it will surely add to man's knowledge of Venus and textbooks will be rewritten to disseminate this new information.

In order to keep abreast with recent accomplishments of its space-age physicists, engineers and craftsmen, American schools have had to develop new methods of teaching and textbooks to acquaint the present generation with a fundamental understanding of these new developments.

Such a course was inaugurated this year at Tawas Area High School—the PSSC course on physics.

Completed related work as a "refresher" at Case Tech, Cleveland, Ohio, and Cornell University.

Developed by the Physical Science Study Committee, a group of university and secondary school physics teachers, this new course at Tawas Area High School departs from traditional methods of teaching first year high school physics.

The PSSC course presents physics not as a mere body of facts, but basically as a continuing process by which men seek to understand the nature of the physical world. Besides a new textbook, correlated parts include a laboratory guide and a new set of inexpensive apparatus, a large number of films, standardized tests, a growing series of paperback books by leaders in related fields and a comprehensive teacher's resource book directly related to the course.

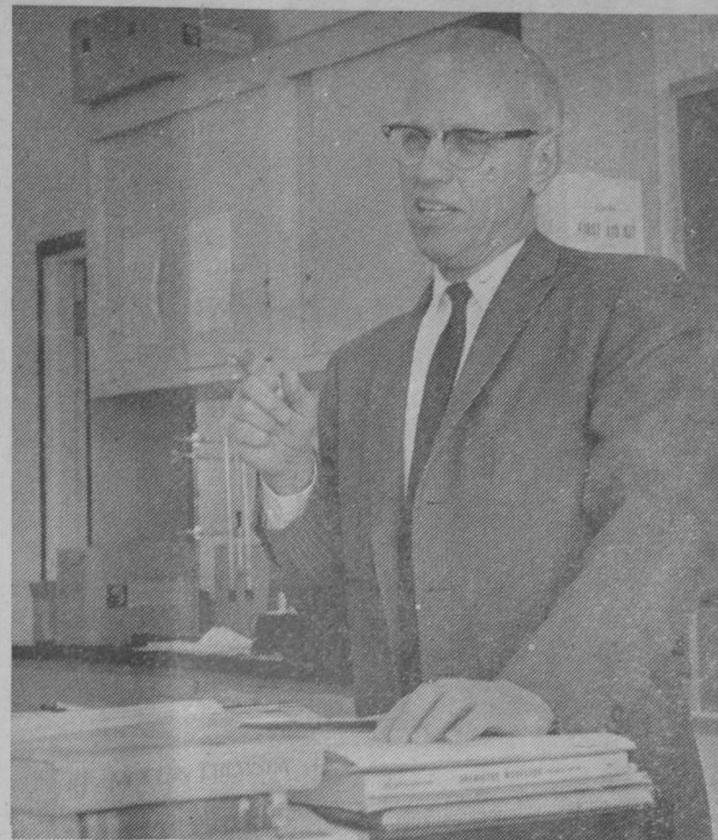

Butterfield said Friday that the PSSC course consists of four closely interconnected parts. Included is a general introduction into the fundamental physical notions of time, space and matter; the study of light; a look at motion from the dynamical point of view and finally it introduces the student to electricity and through it to the physics of the atom.

Later in the year, students will become acquainted with such subjects as energy and motion of charges in electric fields, the magnetic field, electromagnetic induction and electromagnetic waves, exploring the atom, photons and matter waves.

earth's surface, universal gravitation and the solar system momentum and the conservation of momentum, work and kinetic energy, potential energy, heat, molecular motion and the conservation of energy.

Most of the people who study the fundamentals of physics do not go on to become physicists. Some will go on in physics or related work in engineering or in other sciences. Whether they go on or not, students can find in the story of nature, as physicists see it, a good deal that will help them understand the changing world in which we all live.

It is interesting to note that one Tawas Area High School graduate, David Butterfield, 24 (See PSSC, page 10).

Final Application Signed for Federal Master Plan Grant

Tawas City Council and planning commission is currently undertaking a complete master plan for the city. Under state law, the planning commission, along with serving as the zoning board, must also develop a master plan for the community.

The master plan will serve as a guide to the development of the community and will be composed of sections covering all aspects of growth, development and redevelopment of the city.

The planning commission and Mayor George Tuttle met last Wednesday night with representatives of Vilican-Leman and Associates, Incorporated, Southfield, which has been retained to assist in development of the master plan. Final papers were signed for receipt of a federal grant from the Urban Renewal Commission.

This project is being financed jointly by the city and federal government. Total cost of the project is $15,699. Tawas City's share is $5,233 and the city council recently authorized borrowing that amount.

The over-all plan, which would require about two years to prepare, will be drawn based on the following major studies:

1. The ultimate population and future rate of growth will be determined.

2. Needs and deficiencies in recreation and park spaces will be determined and possible new sites and improvement of existing facilities to better serve all age groups will be studied.

3. A study of the composition of the community's economic structure and the needs for commercial (business) and industrial activities to promote a sound, balanced tax base for the future will be undertaken. Of particular concern will be the development of industrial districts that will not encroach on residential property.

The business area will also be studied to determine a plan for the improvement and strengthening of the business area.

4. A thorough analysis of traffic and possible ways of providing for better traffic movement will be undertaken in this study. Street changes which will provide for better and safer traffic movement, as well as possible off-street parking, will be given consideration.

5. A plan for public improvements, based on the comprehensive plan and the city's financial ability, with a set of priorities for improvement, will be developed. This plan will be concerned with all aspects of the comprehensive plan as outlined above. Methods of effectuating the plan through capital improvement programming will be developed with the community.

Upon completion of the planning studies, a future land use plan will be prepared. This plan will portray the land use plan with recommendations for guidance of the long range development of the planning area and will reflect as a composite plan all of the previously determined land use proposals.

These major parts of the overall master plan, once studied in detail, will then form the basis for a new and up-to-date zoning ordinance for the city. The zoning ordinance is the tool by which the objectives of the master plan may be realized over the future years.

"The planning commission and city feel it is essential that cities, to continue to thrive and to meet the competition of other areas, must take a serious appraisal of themselves and provide for proper program of community improvement to meet the city's future needs," stated Keiser.

With the analysis and study to be undertaken in Tawas City's master plan, the city hopes to find out what its future potential might be and what improvements will be needed to make Tawas City a prospering community both now and in years to come.

In the near future, the planning commission will distribute a series of questions to residents of Tawas City requesting comments on the city and its future improvement.

"Making a community planning program pay, truly rests with the people and the vigor with which they seek to keep their city a prospering community," stated the planning commission chairman.

Whittemore Merchants Happy With New Lights

Installation of new mercury vapor lamps was completed Monday by Consumers Power Company through two blocks of Whittemore's business district on M-65.

Nine 20,000-lumen light fixtures replace five of the old-type center suspension units which were rated at 6,000 lumens each.

Gordon Huck, manager of the Tawas office of Consumers Power Company, said Monday that Whittemore's new street lights were similar to those installed at Harrisville. Several communities in the area are considering similar lights, including Glennie and Lincoln.

Installation of the new lights includes that part of the Whittemore business district from State Street to Washington Streets, spaced about 110 feet apart on poles alternating from one side of the street to the other.

Of the latest design, the fixtures are 30 feet above street level and lamps cast an elongated pattern.

City officials of Whittemore have expressed pleasure with the new installation and have said that the brighter lights greatly improve the business district.

Oscoda Gets Federal Grant for New School

According to an announcement Thursday received from Washington, D. C., the United States Department of Health, Education and Welfare has reserved $317,817 for construction of a new elementary school at Oscoda.

This money is made available under Public Law 815 which provides school construction assistance to federally-impacted areas.

The announcement here was made through a telegram from United States Senator Philip Hart to Donald Watson, chairman of the Iosco County Democratic Committee.

Supt. Robert Richardson said Tuesday of this week that the federal money would be used to construct a new 14-room unit near the new high school. The building will become a part of that complex.

"So far, all that we have is an outline for the new building and these plans now go to Eberle M. Smith Associates, Incorporated, Detroit architects, for further development," said Richardson.

Need for the new elementary unit was based on an increased number of federally-connected students coming into the air base. Application for the grant was made last April and a student audit was completed a month ago. Oscoda Area School now has a student enrollment of 3,200, of which 2,240 pupils are in the first six grades.

The council, which handles the annual Easter Seal campaign, retains half of the campaign's proceeds for county use. Funds are used for the purchase of equipment which is loaned to anyone in need.

Let Christmas Be Also A Day Of Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving Day is, of course, the traditional day of feasting in the United States and giving thanks for a bountiful harvest. It is the best time to find Americans feasting on native foods.

Since Christmas follows Thanksgiving Day so quickly, many of the foods that have become a part of the Thanksgiving tradition now grace our festive boards during the Christmas holiday.

The menu for the first Thanksgiving probably included deer, turkey, wild geese and ducks, lobsters, eels, clams, oysters and fish; dried gooseberries, strawberries, plums and cherries; white and red wine made from wild grapes; biscuits and bread of English wheat; parched and roasted corn; hoe cakes and ash cakes, and Indian pudding made of corn meal and molasses boiled in a bag.

Traditional

It was an impressive feast and many of these foods are now traditional items to be found on many Christmas tables throughout the country.

The turkey on present-day tables is a domesticated variety of the native wild turkey. Though thoroughly American, the bird acquired a name indicating a foreign origin. This happened because the gobbler was once mistakenly identified with the guinea fowl, a bird imported from Africa.

Growing turkeys today is a big but sometimes exasperating business. Producers report the gobblers are so dull-witted that they will starve with food in front of them, gulp down water until they fall over in a water-logged fit, or stampee themselves silly at a sneeze.

Pumpkin Pie

Pumpkins, nutritious and mineral-rich, generally end up in pumpkin pie. Since pre-Columbian times, Indians have planted pumpkins among corn and rated them high as a food source.

Other native foods include potatoes, corn, lima beans, tomatoes, sweet potatoes, squash and garden peppers.

Today's MEDITATION from The World's Most Widely Used Devotional Guide

The Upper Room - THE UPPER ROOM, NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

Read John 8:12-20

Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world; he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. (John 8:12.)

As farm boys many years ago, my two brothers and I had the responsibility of doing the evening chores after the day's work in the fields. Often it would be long after dark before the livestock were fed and watered.

Sometimes the night would be exceedingly dark before we were through. Mother would then place an old kerosene lamp in a window at the house. After finishing our tasks, we would see that lamp, and have no difficulty in finding our separate ways back to the house.

This is indeed a dark world for many people — people of different races, nations and conditions of life. Where ever we may be and however dark the times, in Christ we can see the light to lead our world into a better day. He is the light of the world. Whoever follows Him does not walk in darkness, but has the true light of life. The decision lies with each of us to turn to Him in faith.

PRAYER

O Lord, our God, we pray for open minds and hearts. Into them let the light of the Holy Spirit shine, that our lives may be filled with the light of Christ. In our Redeemer's name we pray. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY Today, I will turn to Christ and look to Him for light and guidance. A. W. Oliver, Oklahoma.

Scriptural readings will include the account in Matthew of wise men who followed a star to Bethlehem: "And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him; and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following will be read (p. 315): "Jesus' spiritual origin and understanding enabled him to demonstrate the facts of being,—to prove irrefutably how spiritual Truth destroys material error, heals sickness, and overcomes death. The divine conception of Jesus pointed to this truth and presented an illustration of creation."

The lesson-sermon is entitled "Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?"

Needlecraft News by Nancy Baxter

Do clothes make the man? Not completely, of course. We'd all be silly if we allowed ourselves to be swayed only by superficial impressions. But let's not minimize the importance of a man's apparel either. A man's appearance can tell a great deal about him and the amount of respect and pride he has in himself. In the same vein, when he receives clothes as gifts, they usually are an accurate indication of the image others have of him. Take this sweater as a case in point. It tells us one thing for certain. This man must have rated extremely high in someone's eyes if he was presented with such a creation.

HAND KNITTED MEANS HIGH RATED

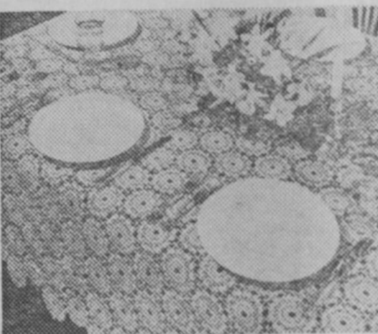

Now we'll disclose one more fact about clothes — and this sweater — that really contributes to our image of this man. When we tell you that it was hand knitted, you'll know that someone's opinion of this recipient must have been an extremely high one indeed.

PERFECT FOR CHRISTMAS

I think these facts and conclusions are particularly pertinent now, since Christmas is just around the corner. It's traditionally the time for giving gifts and we're all caught up in the scramble of trying to match items in the stores with names on our list. Sometimes this is a little frustrating because we want our gifts to express personally the way we really feel about our favorite people.

May we suggest a sure-fire way of bringing your gift as close as possible to the mark? Knit the gift yourself! The fact that you've made it with your very own hands will be the best indication of the high esteem in which the man in your life is held; it'll be custom tailored to his personality; and, it'll be economical as well. For your free copy of instruction leaflet, No. PK 1603, just mail your request and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Editor of this newspaper.

If a poll were taken among women to find out their favorite hobbies, crochet would undoubtedly rank among the top five. It's easy to understand why. Crochet requires no elaborate equipment—only a very modest investment—and it's a most relaxing pastime, besides.

AN AGE-OLD ART

The origins of this time honored art lie deep in the past. Little is known of its beginnings, but it probably started in France as the French word "croche" means hook. Nuns in French convents were probably the first people to use a hook and fine cotton for lace making, and when they crossed the seas to Ireland, they taught the Irish. English ladies admired the fine work turned out by their Northern neighbors and latched onto the new fad with enthusiasm. Probably because of its simplicity and the little equipment needed, the art of crochet spread rapidly throughout the world.

PRESENT POPULARITY

All this, however, doesn't explain why crochet has retained and even increased its popularity in the present day. Modern methods of efficiency have enabled us to do many things simply, inexpensively, and with out elaborate equipment. With so many rivals vying for popularity in the minds of American women, why has Crochet remained on top?

The answer I think, is found in one look at a contemporary crochet design—a design like the one pictured here. It's a tablecloth in delicate geometric motif. Easy to see why this one has captured the fancy of modern day needlecrafters—its clean lines are the ideal complement to even the most contemporary decor. So, you see that it's the timeless quality of crochet, in addition to the simplicity and low cost, that has earned it a high reputation with women throughout the ages.

Why not set this timeless quality to work in your own home? Instructions for this elegant tablecloth are available, free of charge, on Leaflet No. PC-2641. Simply mail a stamped, self-addressed envelope and your request to the Needlework Editor of this newspaper.

A lot of women and girls I know, whether they're working gals or housewives, have what I think is a wonderful habit. They never waste any time! When an idle moment comes, they have, close at hand, some crochet or knitting or other handwork. Even on the bus coming to town, you'll see them working away. And you can bet their hands are never idle when they're watching television or just chatting with neighbors.

BE PREPARED

What are the results of such efficient use of one's time? Well, for one, the busy needleworker is always prepared when an important occasion such as a birthday or holiday occurs. Rather than scramble frantically to the store in search of gifts, she's all set with one of her own. And her gift is probably much more meaningful since it was made by her, with the specific recipient in mind.

RELEASING AND GRATIFYING

Another important result is the relaxation needlecraft affords, and in our increasingly mechanized age, women require forms of diversion that provide restful changes from today's quickening pace. Result Number Three, and most important, is the lasting sense of gratification every needleworker receives from making something with her own hands, for someone who's important in her life.

Take a look at the sweater design we're featuring today. It's a beautiful example of what I've been speaking of. Why not plan ahead and begin to knit it for the man in your life in time to give him for Christmas. The knitting will relax you and you'll feel wonderfully gratified when the job's done. And imagine the expression on his face when he's confronted with this rugged bulky with luxuriant cable designs in boldly contrasting shades.

Instructions for making this sweater are available free of charge, on Leaflet No. PK-1121. Simply mail a stamped, self-addressed envelope and your request to the Needlework Editor of this newspaper.

'JEEP' GLADIATOR

The Gladiator is the newest of the versatile, powerful, virtually indestructible 'Jeep' vehicles. On the highway, it rides as smoothly as a passenger car. Off the road, it's as sure-footed as only a 'Jeep' vehicle can be.

The Gladiator has the remarkable new 140-hp Tornado-OHC engine. It's the only overhead camshaft engine in any American truck. Its higher torque at lower engine speeds makes light work of heavy loads. And it needs less maintenance, uses less fuel and will last longer than any comparable conventional engine.

It's easy to shift the Gladiator into 4-wheel drive. Just one knob does the job. Push it forward when you need extra traction, pull it back when you don't. Unique signal lights on the dashboard tell you when you're in 2- or 4-wheel drive.

You can have your Gladiator equipped with automatic transmission and independent front suspension. Don't waste time looking for other 4-WD trucks with these features. There aren't any.

It's the only 4-WD truck that can seat three comfortably. And in both step-in height and load height it's comparable to any truck. It's easy to step into, easy to load, yet it has traditional 'Jeep' ground clearance.

Choose the 'Jeep' Gladiator that suits you best...J-200 with 120-inch wheel base and 7-foot box, J-300 with 126-inch wheel base and 8-foot box. Choice of body styles with GVW's from 4000 to 8600 pounds. Step in. Size it up. Try it out at your 'Jeep' Dealer's.

Mail Carriers Suffer Needless Handicaps In Mail Delivery

Due to recent severe winter conditions, the United States Post Office Department's Chicago Region has been experiencing many handicaps in mail delivery most serious being injuries to carriers due to falls caused by icy steps and walks, and by snow over ice or other objects. Carriers have been painfully and seriously injured, trucks have been smashed and patrons have also been injured due to neglect by householders and business places. The Chicago region of the post office department stresses the following: "Carriers are not required to deliver mail at their own personal risk due to hazards for which the householder or property owner are responsible. A heavy snow or a recent icy glaze cannot be avoided, but carriers need not tolerate unshoveled walks or icy steps and walks for prolonged periods after a storm or icy conditions because of negligence by the householder or owner."

Due to the high incidence of injuries, carriers are to report all unshoveled walks and icy steps or walks to their postmaster, who in turn will direct that service be withheld until the unsafe condition is corrected. It is not the department's intention to be arbitrary or tough but the patron does have a responsibility in keeping an open path, free of snow and ice, to their mail box. We will appreciate the cooperation of everyone. It is a foregone conclusion that no one would like to see their mail man or anyone injured due to their negligence. As far as snow removal is concerned, all that is necessary is that a path wide enough to walk through be kept open. Wading through snow on foot, carrying a heavy load of mail all day is hard work and slow and time consuming to the point where the carrier cannot maintain his schedule. Assist your carrier. Keep a path open and free of ice. It will be appreciated and you will be rewarded by getting better service.

SHOP AT HOME
With the approach of Christmas, the retail "buying season" is in full swing. At this time of the year, some folks tend to forget about the "store on the corner" when they undertake their Christmas shopping. Local stores carry a wide variety of items, at competitive prices. Many items found in out-of-town stores may be located here at home, often for less. We never forget the merchants "on the corner" when a charity drive is in progress so this year let's remember them when we do our seasonal shopping. Besides, money spent at home stays at home—where it does the most good.

12-DAY CHRISTMAS
At one time the English celebrated the Twelve Days of Christmas with playful sports—jump in sacks, bobbing for apples, drinking great quantities of hot cider. Today, all that remains of the twelve-day observance, perhaps, is the superstition that all decorations should be removed by Twelfth Night to prevent bad luck in the coming New Year. Carol singing is a favorite custom in Britain and at the midnight services they are sung to herald the birth of Christ. In the same manner as American youngsters, British children hang their stockings from the mantles or on the ends of their beds on Christmas Eve. They also write to Father Christmas (the British Santa) to inform him of their Christmas wishes.

Orioles Drop Braves, 51-41

Tawas Area Braves came within 10 points of pulling off one of the biggest upsets of the season last Friday night. But, the McIntoshmen had to settle for a 51-41 defeat at the hands of the West Branch Orioles.

It was one of those "if" nights for Tawas. Had the Braves been a little sharper on their shots, they could have made it rough on Coach John Janisch's Orioles, without a doubt the finest squad in the NBC.

As it was, the Braves outscored the Orioles in the first and last quarters and had the visitors reeling in the first half with good rebounding and passing. However, the Braves completed only 18 of 54 shots from the floor, while West Branch made good on 23 out of 54 shots during the night.

Coach Bill McIntosh surprised Janisch by using a half-court press defense against the speedy Orioles and it almost paid off. Time and again the Braves broke up West Branch's great passing attack, led by Guard J. O. Johnson, but the more experienced Orioles finally settled down to overcome a shaky start.

Tawas had plenty of opportunities to break the game wide open in the first half, but Sophomore Forward Dennis Blata was the only Brave who could hit the hoop with any accuracy. Blata again gave indications of great things to come for Tawas cage teams by leading both squads with 19 points. He was also a leading rebounder in the first half.

Tawas jumped off to an 11-10 lead in the opening quarter when Blata meshed four field goals and a foul shot for nine points, while Forward Chuck Anschuetz contributed two field goals. Scoring for West Branch saw John Ammond complete one field goal and two foul shots, J. O. Johnson hit two field goals and Glenn Johnson added one field goal.

Tawas held that lead until four minutes were gone in the second quarter. West Branch had a well-balanced attack with Larry Forney completing one bucket, Ammond hit two. Wayne Keith completed a field goal and a foul shot, the Johnsons and Brian Delbridge each hit one field goal. For Tawas, Anschuetz flipped in two field goals, while Blata, Herb Humphrey and Mick each had one field goal.

The Branchers held a 25-21 edge at the end of the half and then came on strong in the third quarter to cinch the game. Keith came to life with four field goals and a foul shot to lead the visitors, while J. O. Johnson completed two field goals and Forney, Ammond and G. Johnson each contributed one. Delbridge's control of the backboards spelled the difference for the Orioles' second half surge.

The Braves missed an easy lay-up early in the third quarter which could have made a difference and then tossed the ball away on several occasions in the excitement. Scoring was as follows: Blata meshed two field goals, Mick and Dick Doak each completed one field goal and one foul shot and Humphrey meshed one field goal.

In the final stanza, the Braves cut one point off the visitors' 44-33 third quarter lead but missed several scoring opportunities. West Branch tightened its defense under the bucket forcing Tawas to shoot from the corners or out front. The Braves were slow in reacting on set shots and, when they did shoot, they just could not find the range.

Scoring in that quarter found Blata hooping two field goals. Anschuetz completed one from the floor, Humphrey and Mick each contributed one foul shot. West Branch had its trouble hitting the rim, too. Forney completing a bucket and one foul shot, Ammond and Keith each completing one field goal.

With a record now of one win and one loss in the NBC schedule, Tawas travels to Oscoda this Friday night. Two weeks ago, the Owls defeated Standish-Sterling, last year's NEM Conference winner, and are expected to give West Branch a good tussle. The Braves will have their work cut out for them in this traditional game between rival eastern Iosco County schools.

Cards Win Double Victory Over Alcona

By DORNACE BELLVILLE

Whittemore-Prescott Cards won their second straight double victory Friday as they trounced the visiting Alcona Tigers, 62-41 and 65-40.

The Card varsity had a few anxious moments as the game started when the Tigers took advantage of bad passes to score two straight buckets to take a 4-0 lead. Ray Pagel put the Cards in front with five straight points on two tip-ins and a charity toss.

Weber scored for the Tigers to give them a one-point advantage that Ron Lewis quickly erased with his fielder. The Cards height advantage began to tell as they piled up a 13-7 lead as the first quarter ended.

Although not having anyone to compete with the Pagels on the boards, the Tigers made a game of it through the third quarter, taking advantage of several Card miscues to miss taking the third quarter by only one point, 16-15. With reserves playing most of the fourth quarter, the Cards piled up a 16-9 edge to win easily.

Ray Pagel led the scoring for the evening with 19 points on seven and five. Ron Armstead and Roger Partlo each had 14. Somers and Unkovich scored 10 each for the losers.

Coach Larry Woodcock's JV squad turned in another good game showing plenty of promise as they won easily, 65-40, with everyone on the squad getting in the game.

Earl Bronson led the scoring with 14 points for the Little Cards. Gauthier was next with 13 for the Tigers.

The Cards have a breather until January 4 when they play three games in five days, going against Meridian and Arenac Eastern before getting their first real test of the year against Tawas Area on January 8.

HOLIDAY TOPICS FEATURED AT EXTENSION MEETINGS

Crafts that make lovely gifts and decorative ideas for the home were lesson topics for the November and December meetings of the Reno Extension Group.

In November, members met at Mrs. James Mielock's home for a pot-luck lunch and the afternoon was spent making smocked pillows and getting patterns for unique centerpieces and wall plaques.

The December meeting was along the same trend when they met with Mrs. Edward Robinson for an afternoon meeting and Christmas party. Articles were displayed that had been made by the members from things learned at the November meeting and new ideas and patterns were exchanged.

After the meeting was the Christmas gift exchange and lunch.

January meeting topic will be baler twine mats.

FARM BUREAU GROUP ENJOYS FESTIVE SUPPER

Hope Creek Farm Bureau met Saturday evening, December 8, at the Reno Township Hall for the Christmas meeting.

At 7:30, everyone sat down to a turkey and venison supper followed by the business meeting and discussion topic. After adjournment, the remainder of the evening was spent with Christmas gift exchange and visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Robinson and Mrs. Ralph Harris spent Wednesday at Bay City.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sherman have completed the moving of their furniture into their home here.

Robert Roberts had the misfortune to fracture his leg while playing basketball Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Charters of Alpena and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Charters of Foote Site Dam were Sunday callers at the James Charters home.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Klauka of Lapeer spent last Monday with the Walter Redmond family.

Taxpayers Required to Enter Identify Numbers on Returns

R. I. Nixon, Detroit district director of Internal Revenue Service, said that under a recently enacted law, Michigan's taxpayers are required to enter their identifying account numbers on their 1962 income tax returns which are filed in 1963.

For the individual taxpayer, this is his Social Security number or similar number issued for tax reporting purposes if the taxpayer has never had employment under social security coverage. Use of identifying numbers is essential to the electronic processing of returns which is now being installed nationwide by the Internal Revenue Service.

Mr. Nixon stated that during the year of 1962, many Michigan taxpayers were assigned account numbers based on the lack of a number on their 1961 income tax return. However, those taxpayers still needing an account number should apply for an application to the District Director, Internal Revenue Service, Detroit, 31, Michigan; the District Office of the Social Security Administration, or by writing to Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Post Office Box 211, Baltimore, Maryland.

'Miracle Baby' with Birth Defects Is Named March of Dimes Child

Jimmy Boggess' mother, Mrs. Shirley Boggess, reads a fairy tale to the 1963 National March of Dimes Boy, a victim of the birth defect known as open spine. She is a March of Dimes volunteer in her home town of Coy, Ark., because she wishes to encourage research "to learn why some children, like my Jimmy, aren't born perfect."

Five-year-old Jimmy Boggess of Coy, Ark., a "miracle baby" who has survived a constant battle against serious birth defects, has been named the 25th Anniversary March of Dimes Boy for 1963.

Jimmy, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Boggess, was born with a birth defect known as spina bifida, or open spine. He underwent an operation when he was five days old to correct this condition. A few months later, it appeared that he also had hydrocephalus, or water on the brain. However, this condition has apparently arrested itself without need of surgery.

In spite of the fact that he also has defects in both the genito-urinary and digestive systems, Jimmy is a happy, inquisitive child who plays with his pets and his toys as eagerly as any other youngster his age. He walks with the aid of steel braces and wooden crutches. He looks forward to his nationwide tour scheduled for January, which marks the 25th anniversary of The National Foundation-March of Dimes.

His picture will be on millions of coin collectors, leaflets and school cards used in every county in the nation. He will also visit with a number of congressmen, senators, governors, mayors, screen stars, TV personalities and stage celebrities.

A winsome, intelligent lad, Jimmy was born in Panama City, Fla., Jan. 20, 1957. His parents, both natives of Arkansas, took him soon after to their home state to be nearer specialists and medical facilities there, so that their son could get the expert medical care he needed to survive.

"Jimmy is a symbol of the 250,000 children born each year in this country with significant birth defects. He is living proof that something can be done for seemingly hopelessly crippled children," said Basil O'Connor, president of The National Foundation-March of Dimes.

Jimmy's mother, Shirley Boggess, who was a model before her marriage, today is a March of Dimes volunteer. One of the satisfactions she finds in this work is the hope it affords that "research will find the reasons why some children are not born perfect, and then will find a way to prevent these tragedies. The March of Dimes helped wipe out polio with the Salk and Sabin vaccines. I am certain that something can be done about birth defects."

"I am going to work as hard as I can to see that Jimmy continues to get the best possible medical care, and that funds are available for research, so that someday other mothers won't suffer the terrible shock that I did."

"Children like Jimmy will benefit most from expansion of the March of Dimes-supported nationwide network of clinical study and treatment centers, which bring the most modern medical care to victims of birth defects, arthritis and polio. Today there are more than 50 of these centers. Our nation could easily use twice that number."

Insurance Dividend Checks Mailed to Michigan Veterans

January insurance dividend payments to some 210,000 Michigan veterans will total more than $13,845,000, Robert M. FitzGerald, manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Detroit, said today.

A combined annual and special dividend to World War II veterans (National Service Life Insurance) will total $13,229,000. World War I veterans (United States Government Life Insurance) will receive $616,000 as their regular annual dividend.

The regular annual dividend payments are usually spread out through the year, being paid on the anniversary date of each policy. Mr. FitzGerald explained. However, the White House announced November 22 that payments will be stepped up so that all will be completed during January. It may be as early as January 15, VA estimates.

In addition, John S. Gleason Jr., administrator of Veterans Affairs, has announced that another special dividend, the second in three years, will be paid about the same time to World War II veterans. This special dividend is paid from a contingency reserve fund which will remain more than ample to meet the needs of the insurance program.

MOST INCREDIBLE TRUE STORY IN U.S. NAVY HISTORY!

NO MAN IS AN ISLAND

In Eastman COLOR

A GOLD COAST PRODUCTION • A UNIVERSAL-INTERNATIONAL RELEASE

SOMETIMES it takes a while to accept a simple fact—like, for example, the fact that Christmas is just around the corner, and that we haven't even begun to wrap that mound of presents yet. That's why it's nice to have the needletwork habit. Then you can put spare moments to use by making your Christmas wrappings as-you-go.

"Making Christmas wrappings?" you ask. What has needletcraft got to do with that?"

Well, it has plenty to do with it—if you'd like to wrap your presents in a truly original, important way. The three items pictured here—a Christmas tree, an angel and a playful monkey—all are products of needletcraft and all are Christmas gift wrapping ideas—the cleverest ones, in fact, that we've come across in a long time.

MAKE YOUR SPARE TIME PRODUCTIVE

These ideas become even more appealing when you discover how easy it is to work them into the busiest schedule. If you're anything like me, you often get the feeling that you want to do something with your hands—something that won't take all your powers of concentration, that you can do casually in your spare time, and that will still turn out productive results. These Christmas gifts wrappings are the perfect answers for that kind of mood.

UNIQUE AND SIMPLE

You'll find them particularly easy to make. The crocheted tree, for example, is the result of a simple graduated series of loose stitches. When completed, it's decorated with little pom poms of metallic knit-crochet. The angel is based on a lotion bottle—literally. A dress, crocheted in shell stitches, and gold metallic wings endow this simple bottle with elegant angelic characteristics. As for the monkey—well, he's the least complicated of all. Strands of yarn are wound and tied together to form the body; the facial features are then cut out of felt.

Instructions for all three are included on the same leaflet—No. PC 9609. For your free copy, just mail your request and a stamped, self addressed envelope to the Needletwork Editor of this newspaper.
