Lichtfusz, East Tawas, said Monday that representatives of the Tawas Chamber of Commerce had been invited to Wednesday night's meeting of the club's board of directors to discuss a joint effort seeking the above legislation, along with legislation establishing a definite off-shore boundary at which fishermen may set nets. Complaints have again been heard this year that Tawas Bay was encircled with gill nets.

Plainfield Firemen Plan Annual Picnic

Plainfield Township Fire Department will hold its annual barbecue Sunday, August 9, noon until 5:00 p. m., at Rollways camp grounds north of Hale on M-65.

Chairman of this year's program is Lloyd Spingsteen, who said Monday evening that a firemen's barbecue queen would be selected at the grounds

Fire Chief James Mann said that last year's crowd numbered more than 2,500 persons and the committee has ordered an even larger quantity of beef to serve an anticipated larger attendance.

Chief chef will be James Schroeder, assisted by wives of firemen. Assistant chief is Jack Slosser. Contests for children will include two greased pigs, two greased poles, an egg toss, bag races, penny scramble and a bucket brigade. Door prize to be awarded will be a fiber glass canoe. Proceeds from this annual event finance purchase of special equipment for the volunteer fire department.

CONTRACTOR

Phone FOrest 2-2440 SHE MAY NOT BE AN ANGEL . . . but she'll certainly look like one in this bouncy pinafore. A cloud of pastel checked gingham plus a few skeins of brightly colored six strand embroidery floss for a cross stitched duck equals one very happy little girl!

FOR PARTIES AND PLAY It's a perfect idea for birthday party-going, visiting grandma and, as a matter of fact, is so inexpensive to do, it's even perfect for play! Your junior fashion plate will probably have a name for her gay little duck trim the minute she puts on her new pinafore. It's so simple to do with your favorite pattern -or if you like, start with a ready made untrimmed gingham dress - then, lov-ingly embroider the design. Incidentally, gingham is an ideal background for the cross stitch since it provides a built-in guide for the size of the stitches. EXCLUSIVELY HERS

Here's a thought your be-ruffled angel will be so delighted with your handwork she'll insist that you make all her clothes! And that's a perfectly good idea since it's easy, much less expensive and they'll be exclusively hers. For free directions including diagram, just send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Editor of this newspaper. Ask for Leaflet PE 1667.

CLIMMER...ORIGINAL...COOL...AND TRIM - this is how you can look by adding a snowy white panel to a basic Summer sheath. Both here and in Paris, touches of white are a fashion sensation this year-and besides, it makes you and your summer tan even more dazzling!

AN ORIGINAL DESIGN If you're one of the millions of women who has learned to sew, do a slim sheath or a flattering A-Line dress in a femininely delicate pastel. Crochet your own white lace panel with Mercerized Crochet cotton—simply stitch it on -and you have that lovely light frothy look. It's so easy and fast to do you'll want to try another in ecru to dress up one of last Summer's black dresses now you have a touch of elegance in a black and a pale beige combination.

FLATTERY Not only is this a lovely touch for your dresses, but it's also unbelievably slimming. The long center line makes your waist look inches smaller. You can have free directions for crocheting this dress panel. Just send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Editor of this newspaper and ask for Leaflet PC 2977.

BEAUTIFUL TRAVELLER Our feminine population has not only become busier in the routine of everyday life but there's been a tremendous increase in the number of travellers among women. And here is a perfect travel-companion -a wonderful bright garden of a hat that will take you through the most hectic day without a limp, straggly hair showing! Incidentally, hats that cover the hair made big fashion news this year . . . and this is one of the most flattering you'll find. Amazingly, you can crochet it yourself with just one ball of "Knit-Cro-Sheen" in no time at all.

BOUOUET CHOICE

Take just a little while to make the airy base and then have the most glorious time choosing flowers to simply sew on! Use roses for an elegant look . . . pansies for fun . . . or whatever blossom is YOUR favorite for your own custom-made hat. Instructions are available free of charge. Simply send your request for Leaflet No. PC 2530 and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Editor of this newspaper.

LAW OFFICE PAUL HARVEY 309 N. State Street OSCODA, MICHIGAN

To the Voters of losco County:

A few days ago I filed petitions for the Office of Judge of Probate. This is one of the most important of local offices to be filled. This court administers the estates of deceased persons, the affairs of the mentally ill, and all matters concerning dependent, neglected and delinquent children. It is the widows' and orphans' Court. It is extremely important that the problems of these helpless members of our community should be in the hands of the most able person available.

To the voters of losco County I submit the following qualifications:

- 25 Years in the general practice of the law with extensive experience in all branches of Probate work.
- Graduate of the University of Michigan, A. B. (1936) and
- President, 23rd Judicial Circuit Bar Association.
- Prosecutor of losco County, 1958-1960.
- Parent of a teen-age family; active participant in P-TA and other community activities.
- Many years of active participation in professional organizations, including State Bar of Michigan, American Bar Associa-
- Veteran of four years service, World War II.

Flint Man Injured When Car Crashes Into Truck William B. Fenner, 44, Flint, received minor injuries Saturday night when his car crashed into a US-23 intersection in Alabaster

State police said that Chester L Adams, 60, Alpena, driver of the truck, had installed flares, flashing lanterns and turned on all clearance lights after his truck had become stuck in road repairs. Adams, standing at the rear of the truck, had to dive into the ditch to avoid being hit. Fenner

Tawas Area High School Band is to resume playing after this event until dark when a gigantic fireworks display is touched off at the park.

"Saturday, August 22, will be a lay all kids will long remember. states Leonard Calabrese, co-chair man of the festival. The Deluxe Rides Carnival will hold a chil dren's matinee all afternoon at the carnival grounds. Highlight of the day will be a free, open-air show by Kenny Roberts of Channel Five Television, Bay City. The show is to start at 3 o'clock and some ucky boy or girl will win a live pony complete with new saddle. This exciting prize is being donated by the chamber of commerce and the carnival.

Throughout the afternoon, East Tawas Lions Club will stage its first annual chicken fry at the athletic field on Newman Street. For a nominal fee, one and all can enjoy a good chicken dinner with all the trimmings. At 8:00 p. m., Roberts and his Western Jamboree will put on a hand-clapping and foot-stomping show at Tawas Area High School Admission will be charged. Last year, Kenny and his show attracted more than 5,000 people for the street dance. Most people did not dance, however, but were happy to stand and listen to the good entertainment

During the jamboree this year, a Tawas Lake resort lot will be awarded to some lucky individual. In order to be eligible for the lot, one need only walk into an establishment supporting the festival and fill out a ticket. Nothing need be purchased. Tawas Chamber of Commerce encourages all to attend church on Sunday, August 23. At 2:00 p. m., a sports car gymkhana will be held at the A&P parking lot, East Tawas. This event will be a contest of skill and will provide thrills to all who plan to attend.
