

48th Annual Legion Convention to be Held in Detroit

The 48th annual convention of The American Legion, Department of Michigan, will be held in Detroit July 14-17. Over 5,000 Legionnaires and members of the auxiliary are expected to attend this state function of the world's largest veterans' organization.

George S. Frederick, state commander of the Legion, says, "We feel certain that this will be one of the largest conventions ever held by The American Legion in Michigan."

The purpose of the convention is to elect new state officers and to conduct meetings of the various committees at which annual reports will be submitted concerning such Legion activities as child welfare, service and rehabilitation of veterans, Americanism and national security.

ELIZABETH R. TAULKER

A Hale resident, Elizabeth R. Taulker, died Sunday, July 3, at Jodenan Rest Home, West Branch. Funeral services were conducted July 6 at Hale Baptist Church with burial in Evergreen Cemetery, Hale.

Mrs. Taulker was born January 12, 1879, at Alba.

Surviving are two brothers, Jess and Earl Shellenbarger, both of Hale; several nieces, and nephews.

NEW BARN—Leonard Robinson, Reno Township, is now in the process of building a new barn at his farm located five miles south of Hale on M-55. Barn construction is something rather scarce in these days of high costs and Robinson is building a 96 by 56 pole-type structure to house cattle, hay and machines. The oak timber being used in construction was cut and sawed into lumber from his own woodlot. Robinson is shown in the top picture with the barn in the background. In the lower picture, he talks with Paul Meiser of Prescott and David Clayton of West Branch, who are assembling rafters.—Tawas Herald Photos.

Fruit Stains

Most fruit and berry stains come out easily if boiling water is poured through the fabric while the stain is still wet.

Do not try this, though, unless you know the fabric can take the boiling water treatment. If you are not sure, sponge immediately with cool water. Then apply a glycerine or soapless shampoo and rinse. Do not use soap. This will set the stain.

If stain remains after the shampoo treatment, use a chlorine or peroxide bleach.

This method works well on most washable fabrics. To check to see whether the bleach will affect the color, test on a seam that does not show.

Keep It Dry

Mildew thrives in hot, humid weather, the kind we are having now in many parts of the country. High moisture causes the mold spores, which are always present in the air, to settle and grow on shoes, clothing, furniture and books.

To prevent mildew, you must remove its cause—the dampness. Because cool air holds less moisture than warm air, air conditioners are helpful. Dehumidifiers are useful wherever moisture is a problem.

You can also fight off dampness by heating the house for a short time. Then, open the doors and windows to let the moist air out. An exhaust fan will help force it out.

To dry the air in closets and other small areas, keep a small electric light burning. The heat from the lamp will be enough to prevent mildew if the space is not too large. Another way to keep a closet dry is with silica gel or activated alumina. These chemicals will absorb the moisture in the air, put them on a shelf or on the floor. The chemicals can be used over and over by drying them in a vented oven at 300 degrees Fahrenheit for several hours.

Hot Weather Sandwich

Looking for sandwich ideas that will carry well in hot weather and still be safe to eat with little or no refrigeration?

Mix equal amounts each of peanut butter and chopped dates with orange juice to blend. This could go especially well on whole wheat, rye or oatmeal bread. For crunchiness, add peanuts.

For hot weather safety, do not add protein food or salad dressing.

Children And Food

Emotional upsets affect not only the quantity of food eaten but also its absorption and use by the body. Since emotional upsets are not unusual during childhood and adolescence, parents should keep calm and be casual about food.

Using a Michigan Heart Association manikin, two life guards take a lesson in the highly efficient life-saving technique of Closed Chest Cardiac Resuscitation (CCCR). The Heart Association, a Michigan United Fund agency, is offering free classes in CCCR to attendants at all the summer camps in Michigan.

CCCR Instruction Can 'Save' Lives of Victims

Because the toll of drownings was almost 300 last year in Michigan, the Michigan Heart Association is again offering free classes in closed chest cardiac resuscitation to counselors, lifeguards and attendants at all the 940 licensed summer camps in the state.

In a letter to camp directors, Dr. Ross V. Taylor, Jackson internist, president of the association, said CCCR is an "approved and tested emergency method of resuscitation... recommended by the medical profession. It combines mouth to mouth breathing with artificial circulation," accomplished by a series of pressures on the chest, sharp enough to squeeze the heart between the chest wall and the backbone.

The technique is recommended in "drowning, electrocution and other heart stoppage due to a heart attack or overdose of drugs," wrote Dr. Taylor.

"Successful rescues are usually accomplished by the first person on the scene," he explained, "because speed in starting CCCR is all-important." The brain can suffer deadly damage if it is deprived of oxygenated blood for longer than four minutes. The technique can defer brain damage until the heart can restart or be restarted at the nearest hospital.

The Michigan Heart Association, a Michigan United Fund Agency, has a team of 180 physicians and 20 non-physicians, volunteers trained to teach CCCR. More than 50,000 persons have attended association classes during the past three years. Last year, 70 camps participated in a special program.

A class takes about two hours and includes a film, lectures and practice on a manikin designed to indicate when CCCR is improperly applied. "It is essential that CCCR be done properly; improperly applied, it is worse than useless," Dr. Taylor said. "This is why the actual practice is so valuable." For more information about the classes, call or write the association's director of professional education, Ralph Lewis, at 342-2100, or 13100 Puritan, Detroit.

What will the others be worth a year from now?

The Cadillac car holds its value far beyond any other automobile at or near its price. Let your Cadillac dealer explain today why now, more than ever, it's great... going Cadillac!

There is one simple way to measure the worth of any other luxury car: compare it to the way a Cadillac keeps its value. For Cadillac is the grand champion in this most telling of all motor car tests—and at resale returns a higher percentage of its original cost than any other car built in the land. There are many reasons. The first is Cadillac quality—recognized wherever automobiles are known. Then there is Cadillac beauty and luxury—so advanced that the car retains its desirability long after others have lost their appeal. And there is Cadillac safety, performance, dependability and operating economy. What will your car be worth a year—or even three years—from now? If it's a Cadillac, the answer is predictably pleasant. Get the facts today from your authorized dealer. He's an expert in serving the world's most demanding motorists—and his interest in your complete satisfaction will continue throughout your ownership. Isn't it time you put a Cadillac in your life?

DORNACE BELLVILLE, a Herald correspondent in the Burleigh-Whittemore area, again reminds this newspaper (for the second straight year) that ground moisture content during the summer is not the only factor in development of corn. Maturity of corn, he says, depends a great deal upon the number of growing days—rain or not—and he proved his point by sending this stalk to Tawas via "Pony Express Rider" Philip Johnson. Thus the ankle-high corn July 4, described in last week's article bemoaning the lack of rain, may have been caused by late spring planting. Some farmers could not get on their fields early enough this spring due to heavy rain and poor drainage. Johnson did not say if this was the only stalk of corn this size in Bellville's field, but it was probably growing on some of that good Burleigh Township soil. The current dry spell has been disastrous to other grains. —Tawas Herald Photo.

Boat Registrations Beginning to Increase

Motorboat registrations, sputtering and puffing like a paddle-jumper through the first quarter of the year, have picked up a real head of steam and estimations placed the current registration at about the quarter-million mark.

"This is still a long way from our previous registration of nearly 400,000, but considering that the bulk of registrations did not start until the warm weather began, the recent 'flood' has been gratifying," says Sec. of State James M. Hare.

Flint Jaycees to Enlarge Plantation in Huron Forest

35 Years Ago—

July 17, 1931—Following a plan adopted last year, the Flint Junior Chamber of Commerce again has decided to enlarge its plantation within the Huron National Forest by presenting $340 to the United States Forest Service with which 175 acres are to be planted next fall. Flint schools and the Jackson Jaycees are also contributing funds to plant 125 acres. Crews, tractors and plows are at work planting more than 10,000 acres of idle land. Trees for this planting work will come from the Beal Nursery at East Tawas, now growing more than 7,000,000 trees annually.

A preliminary allocation of the 15-mill tax had been made at the May session and a hearing was held Tuesday with representatives from various townships and school districts present. Commission members include Deuell Pearsall, chairman; Russell H. McKenzie, clerk; Russell A. Rollin, Grace Miller, Edward Burgeson, Albert Davison and Glenn Hughes.

The sudden step which President Roosevelt took in ordering the occupation of Iceland by American naval forces and the plan to thus relieve the British in the handling of that distant adjunct of the occupied Danish kingdom not only clarified the present foreign policy but brought repercussions on both sides of the Atlantic. The British hailed it with obvious delight as "putting teeth" and definiteness into the United States policy of insuring arrival of lend-lease aid and the fullest cooperation short of war. Axis powers have been quoted as vigorously opposing such action. The Germans said the United States now had troops in the war zone and could expect results; the Italians called it a provocative step and the Japanese called it "de facto American entry into the war."

Laurie Frank, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Frank, won the baseball throw in the recent field meet at Camp Callan, California. He was to be entered in another field meet the next day and wrote to his parents, "I'm going to throw that ball to Michigan. If you see it pass by, give me a ring."

Convert your home or business to economical Natural Gas heat today and pay nothing until October 1, 1966.

Convert now to Gas heat and Michigan Consolidated Gas Company will buy your unused oil or coal—even remove your oil tank—all at no cost to you. What's more, whether you convert your present furnace, or even install a new Gas furnace, we'll pay the bill. And all you pay us, between now and next October, is for the Gas you'll use to make this your most comfortable winter ever. Here's how this special limited-time offer works:

1. If you're now heating with oil, we'll buy what's left in your storage tank—at the price you paid for it. What's more, we'll remove your tank from your home or business and even haul it away if you want. All at no cost to you.
2. If you're now heating with coal, we'll take what coal you have on hand, off your hands. And pay you whatever it cost you originally.
3. Whether you convert your present furnace, or even install a new Gas furnace, we'll pay for it and its installation by a Gas Company approved heating contractor, and it won't cost you a penny until next October. You can pay for the unit and its installation on October 1, 1966 with no carrying charge whatsoever.

Or if you prefer, you can make equal monthly payments, including carrying charges on your Gas bill, over a period of up to three years after October 1, 1966. Either way, there are no carrying charges between now and next October, and you need make no payments between now and next October except for the Gas you use. THE BIBLE SPEAKS TO YOU
"Life" is the subject for this week's Sunday services in all Christian Science churches. The Bible lesson-sermon includes the account of Jesus raising Jairus' daughter from the dead (Mark 5).

The Golden Text is from John: "This is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent."
Readings from the denominational textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include this passage: "The way is straight and narrow, which leads to the understanding that God is the only Life. It is a warfare with the flesh, in which we must conquer sin, sickness, and death, either here or hereafter, — certainly before we can reach the goal of Spirit, or life in God."
