

School Adopts Budget; Ask State Fiscal Sanity

Tawas Area Board of Education Monday night adopted a budget presented March 13 as its final request for 1967-1968 operational money to be presented to the county allocation board.

While the budget was by no means final, as there was no provision for probable salary increases to teachers, it did represent the anticipated expenditure and revenue of the school district for the next fiscal year.

Supt. Reynold Mick was authorized to develop a figure which would represent pay increases to teachers, which would then be added to the final budget. Mrs. Helen Paye and Carl Helmer, trustees, were appointed as the board's representatives on contract negotiations which are soon to get under way.

The preliminary budget as presented March 13 called for a total operation expenditure of $799,972. This was $88,077 higher than the amount budgeted for the preceding year.

A recapitulation of the budget indicated that the grand total of expenses, excluding salary increases, would be $103,386 short of total anticipated revenue of $696,585.

However, Superintendent Mick pointed out to board members that a study of preliminary valuation figures for the school district indicated an increase of approximately $1,000,000 in the district's state equalized valuation.

Even so, the school may not receive full benefit of this increase to its tax base, due to the state aid formula introduced two years ago to help low valued school districts.

(Because of corrections Tuesday, this increase would be cut in half.) As a means of expressing its opinion to state officials concerning financial matters of schools, the board adopted a resolution of Secretary Clyde Soper presented last Monday.

In a statement Monday night, Soper said the time has definitely arrived for a "return to sanity in the financial structure of our educational system. At present," he said, "it is essentially a guessing game."

Soper said the district did not know what will be needed for salaries of employees, along with benefits, and would not know until negotiations are completed. "We do not know what the state aid will be and we do not know what local contribution will be needed to qualify for state aid," he said.

Soper said that school boards interested in educating children are sold on such things as smaller classes, better teachers, better equipment and constant improvement in curriculum.

"Those are goals upon which school boards and administrators can work constructively. The problem is that educational improvement usually involves an increase in the budget," said Soper.

He cited the fact that schools were unable to determine costs of such improvements, or even know how much money would be available.

He proposes that salaries and benefits paid to teachers be stabilized on a state-wide basis; to establish state aid and local assessments necessary to qualify for state aid at least two years in advance so that budgets may be based on fact, not fantasy; guide the use of title (federal) funds into needed services instead of encouraging people to dream up projects just for the purpose of spending money.

Copies of Soper's resolution are to be sent to state officials and the State Association of Boards of Education.

LONGNIE J. RYLAND

Hale Soldier Wounded; 1st Isosco Casualty

SP4 Lonnie J. Ryland, 20-year-old Hale soldier, has become Isosco County's first casualty in the Vietnam fighting.

According to a War Department telegram received last Friday by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Ryland, Lonnie was wounded March 30. He was reportedly struck in both legs and left arm by fragments from a land mine.

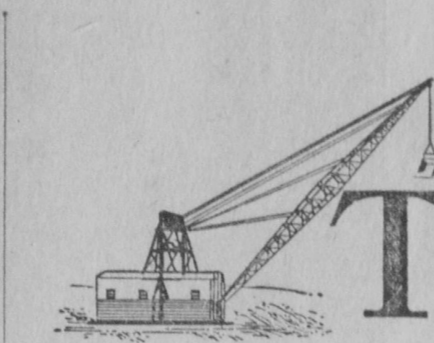

A member of the army's first air cavalry division, Ryland had arrived overseas last December. He entered the army in June 1966 and was stationed at Fort Polk, Louisiana.

As a rifleman, Ryland had participated in "Operation Thayer II" in the Coastal Lowlands and Central Highlands of Vietnam during January. Using air assaults, search and destroy sweeps, the division captured caches of foodstuffs, medical supplies, weapons and ammunition.

War Department notification did not specify the area of Vietnam in which Ryland was wounded, but 274 American servicemen were killed and another 1,320 were wounded in ground fighting last week.

A 1965 graduate of Hale Area High School, Ryland was an outstanding athlete for the Eagles. He was a member of the basketball and baseball squads, quarterbacked the football team and was a member of the Hale independent baseball team.

Isosco Tax Base Increase Now Only $249,949

Isosco County's 1967 report of footings is even less encouraging than last week's preliminary figures indicated.

Henry Oates, tax equalization director, said Tuesday afternoon that the county's state equalized valuation which he will present to the board of supervisors next week would be $90,033,763, an increase of $249,949 over last year, or 41 percent higher.

After footing all assessment rolls of various units in the county, Oates found that real property showed a $2,374,782 increase. Personal property losses, however, amounted to $2,124,833.

The personal property loss included $438,698 in agricultural, $678,495 in utility and approximately $693,000 in industrial. The remainder of the loss was in commercial.

Oscoda's total was not included in last week's report as the board of review had not completed its sessions. Oscoda showed an overall gain of $794,545, including $423,495 in real and $371,050 in personal.

While the above valuation figures are not official until accepted by the board of supervisors, Oates believes they are quite accurate and will show little change next week.

The 41 percent increase on Isosco's tax base would offer only slight financial help to the county's operation. It would appear that there is a serious loss of valuation in Whittemore-Prescott Area School District, while Tawas Area, Oscoda and Hale Area Schools would show slight gains.

Complicated finances for county and township governments, as well as schools, will probably result in an interesting April session of the board of supervisors.

personal. Total valuation of the township now is $16,162,536.

While preliminary figures indicated an increase at East Tawas and Grant Township, there was an overall loss of $107,429 at East Tawas and a $4,246 loss in Grant.

East Tawas came in with a $43,256 increase in real but had a $150,685 loss in personal. Grant had a $426,633 increase in real and a $422,387 loss in personal.

Over-all gains in the county, besides Oscoda, were shown in Alabaster, $57,733; Baldwin, $431,243; Plainfield, $286,694; Tawas City, $101,347.

Losses, besides Grant and East Tawas, were shown in AuSable, $270,683; Burleigh, $207,849; Reno, $192,895; Sherman, $513,896; Tawas, $6,069; Wilber, $43,528; Whittemore, $34,190.

SHOWN INSPECTING Kokosing Road Monday morning is Supt. Paul Southerland of Hale Area Schools. There were no classes Monday and school probably will remain closed until Thursday while roads in Western Isosco are drying out after the spring thaw.—Tawas Herald Photo.

Western Isosco Schools Closed by Annual Road 'Mud Bath'

Two schools of Isosco County were closed Monday as the result of the annual road "mud bath."

While bright sunshine and a stiff breeze combined to dry out many of the roads, schools were expected to be closed until Wednesday or Thursday.

Affected by the spring thaw and rain last week which turned numerous roads into a quagmire were Hale Area School and Whittemore-Prescott Area School. Others closed in adjoining counties included West Branch, Rose City and Pinconning.

Hale Area School had lost only four days of school this year because of snow conditions, while other schools of the county had been closed more often. Supt.

Paul Southerland had believed last week that the gradual runoff of ground water would not prove serious enough to close school doors.

A heavy rainstorm Friday and Saturday proved this belief to be wrong. Almost impassable by Sunday were Kokosing, County Line, Curtis and Powerline Roads, as well as most connecting sideroads.

The only roads open to through traffic in the Hale area were M-65, Dease Lake Road and Long Lake Road. The Dease Lake Road was constructed last year.

Southerland said that only about one-half of the students could have been picked up by buses Monday morning. A decision had been made the previous day to cancel classes.

There were numerous reports of motorists being stranded in Western Isosco County over the week-end. Sunday was a particularly bad day and Southerland said that many people who had driven to the area to visit cabins and cottages on inland lakes were unable to return to main highways Sunday evening because of mud conditions.

Southerland said that "sink holes" in several roads were treacherous. Automobile traffic of the past two weeks had apparently forced frost downward in the road. The week-end rain then combined with the frost to make roads impassable.

Slip Candidate Spiced Quiet Election Day

Except for a little flurry in Tawas City's First Ward, Monday saw a rather "ho-hum" biennial spring election in Isosco cities.

All incumbent officers were returned around the county in light balloting. A total of 120 votes were cast in Tawas City, 105 at East Tawas and only 46 at Whittemore.

A surprise slip candidate, Edwin J. Cavell Jr., came close to upsetting veteran First Ward supervisor, Clement J. Stephan. A nine-vote margin, 29-20, separated the two men.

Officers returned were: George Tuttle, mayor, 42, 26, 42-110; Ruth Albertson, treasurer, 42, 27, 41-110; Walter C. Nelson, clerk, 42, 26, 43-111.

Votes for ward officers were: John Hosbach, Second Ward supervisor, 27; Clarence Everett, Third Ward supervisor, 42; Clark Tanner, First Ward alderman, 44; Russell A. Rollin Sr., Second Ward alderman, 25; Cecil Cabbie, Third Ward alderman, 42.

There were 105 votes cast at East Tawas. Returned to office were James Campbell, mayor; Fred Lomas, clerk; Mrs. Grace Pelton, treasurer; Richard Moss, First Ward alderman; Earl McElheron, Second Ward alderman; Charles Schreck, Third Ward alderman.

Whittemore had the only contest in the county listed on the ballot. Irum Collins, Democrat, defeated Donald Dahne, Republican, for First Ward constable.

Returned to posts at Whittemore without opposition were Mayor George Binst, Treasurer Mary Wasilewski, Clerk Bert Fortune, Assessor Edward Graham. David Mills was elected First Ward alderman and Dennis Hoffman was named Second Ward alderman.

TA Approves Tenure Status for Teachers

All teachers eligible for tenure next year were accepted by the Tawas Area Board of Education at Monday night's meeting.

Supt. Reynold Mick said Tuesday that three elementary teachers had been accepted for tenure on a provisional basis, depending upon their certification this year. Mick reported Monday night that the school has hired Mr. and Mrs. James Harwood to teach elementary grades next year. Mrs. Harwood is now teaching at Breckenridge and Mr. Harwood is to graduate from Central Michigan University this summer.

The superintendent said that the school has had only one inquiry regarding two English positions which were sent out to placement agencies as vacant on February 28.

At least two new teachers will be required under proposed curriculum changes for next year. Five subjects would be required for high school students and additional teachers would be needed in commercial and shop instruction.

In other business, Mrs. Shirley Brown appeared before the board and requested reinstatement as a bus driver. She had been a substitute driver from September to November 1965. She had injured her knee while driving a bus and her physician had advised that she was again physically able to fulfill duties as a driver. Board action is to be taken at the next meeting.

Specifications are to be received this week on construction of a new vocational education addition and classroom addition at the high school. The board is to advertise for bids on April 21, with a tentative opening date set for the first meeting in May.

A special meeting is to be held April 11 to consider curriculum changes proposed during a recent study. The meeting Monday night had been postponed one week and the next regular meeting will be April 10.

RICHARD FAIRLESS

Junior High Teacher Wins Scholarship

Richard Fairless, 28, a junior high science teacher at Tawas Area School, has received a National Science Foundation scholarship to study four summers at Idaho State College, Pocatello, Idaho.

Fairless was one of 48 applicants out of 1,000 science teachers from throughout the country who have been accepted and confirmed for the four-year sequential instruction which starts June 12 and runs through August 4.

He is in his fourth year as a member of the Tawas Area School faculty.

High wind and dry weather will soon combine to cause grass and forest fire threats in the area. Residents are reminded that a burning permit is a must for outdoor fires when the ground is not covered with snow. Contact your local fire department, conservation or federal fire officer for a permit.

Two Vacancies on TA Board

Petitions to fill two vacancies on the Tawas Area Board of Education are to be filed by May 12, according to an announcement at Monday night's meeting. The annual school election is to be held June 12.

Board members whose terms expire this year are Leonard Sarki and Clare Heriman. Both men have indicated they would be candidates for re-election to the four-year term.

WAFB Receives Dorm. Money

Cong. Elford A. Cederberg's office announced Tuesday from Washington, D. C., that congress had approved an appropriation of $270,000 for dormitory construction at Wurtsmith Air Force Base, Oscoda.

Started Research Nearly 30 Years Ago—

Parker Seeks State Assistance in Feeding Fish; Suggests Tawas Bay for Pilot Study

Basic research into a fish feeding program originally conducted in Isosco County as long ago as 1938 may again be reopened.

Edward Parker, operator of a

government surplus distributorship in Baldwin Township, said Monday that he has asked the department of conservation to aid in a pilot fish feeding study on Tawas Bay.

"If the department does not want to gamble any money in this program, then I would be willing to finance the entire cost. If it does prove successful, then the state can pay me the 50,000 hours of research I have devoted to this program."

Parker appeared recently before the United States Department of Interior at Washington, D. C., and his proposal for further research on Tawas Bay is being considered this week at Lansing.

As a farmer, backwoods guide and self-termed "wildlife outlaw," Parker noted certain phenomena nearly 30 years ago concerning wildlife growth and survival which convinced him that accepted theories and practices in conservation and food production could be greatly improved.

"It was heresy, to say the least, for one without a college education to tell scientists in charge that methods they had used for 40 years could be improved at least 10 times over. Their judgment was that all my findings had to be false and did not merit investigation, as my theories were impossible," said Parker.

In his work with wild trout, started in 1938 on Guiley Creek, Parker tagged and released hundreds of brooks and rainbows and then rechecked the fish several times during their life span.

He found that trout living under stream conditions, such as Guiley Creek, had only enough food to maintain a fair rate of growth during May and June. That mortality between November and April was usually 80 to 90 percent.

Parker found that trout lost weight during the winter and those surviving were in poor physical condition by March; production of trout per acre of water was a scant 12 or 15 pounds per year, with 25 or 30 pounds for ponds; the addition of hatchery fish to a stream adds nothing to the future production of a stream and takes food away from wild trout.

He also found that rainbow trout migrating to Lake Huron as fingerlings were able to find such abundant food that they grew to five or six pounds in less than two years, while those that stayed in the stream were still less than

Religious Freedom—

Rev. Lindholm Participates in Conference

Shown conferring at the University of Chicago last week on legal briefs to the United States Supreme Court (left to right) are the Rev. William C. Lindholm of East Tawas, who is chairman of the National Committee for Amish Religious Freedom; Dr. Leo Pfeffer of New York City, New York, special counsel on constitutional law, and E. Dexter Galloway, attorney for a Kansas Amishman, who was arrested because his religious principals would not permit him to send his daughter to a public high school, which he considers too "worldly." He sent her instead to an unapproved school in the Amish community.

Dr. Pfeffer has participated in every church-state and religious liberty case before the high court in the last 15 years including the controversial outlawing of prayer and Bible reading in the public schools.

Pastor Lindholm was elected chairman of the national group which includes religious leaders, educators and legal scholars from all parts of the nation. They consider the supreme court decision to be historic in nature.

He said that 10 prominent Catholic, Protestant and Jewish attorneys are helping on the case to preserve Amish religious liberty in the United States. "The beautiful part of it all," Pastor Lindholm said, "they not only agree with me that religious values are the highest that we possess and named first in the Bill of Rights but they are all donating their services."

Pastor Lindholm said that it would be a shame if this religious group who has lived in America for over 200 years, would now be forced to move to another country to find religious freedom.

Set Dates for Annual Canoe Classic Down AuSable River

August 4-6 has been set for the 21st annual International Canoe Classic on the AuSable River, according to East Michigan Tourist Association officials.

The 240-mile race will take on some new features this year, changing from a marathon to a three-day, three-lap race. On August 4, a short sprint race for positioning is on tap starting upstream with the finish in Grayling.

The official race will begin on August 5 with a first lap from Grayling to Mio. The last leg of the canoe classic on the historic river will begin in Mio and finish in Oscoda.

Tourist association officials said this event among the top spectator sporting competitions in Michigan. The race is internationally recognized as one of the toughest canoe races held in North America.

More than $3,000 in prize money and trophies will go to the top professional participants in this international event.

Another new twist to this year will be the addition of two amateur classes, open class and livery class. The amateur race will be a two-leg race, the first day from Grayling to Stephans Bridge (25 miles). On August 6, amateur racers will paddle from Cooke Dam, some 30 miles, to finish in Oscoda. The top 10 teams in each division will receive trophies.

Specifications for canoe model qualifications have been altered for this year's race to allow professional racers from other states and Canada a better opportunity to gain the championship. Previous winners have all used special stock canoes built primarily for Michigan rivers.

Baby the Baby—THE WHOLE FAMILY TOO
WITH MODERN ELECTRIC HEAT

Healthful, dependable electric heating is clean, quiet, and draft-free—hygienic enough for even the newborn. But that's only part of the electric heat story—there's a type to fit every home, new or old, and to fit the heating need of every room in the house.

5 WAYS YOU CAN HEAT ELECTRICALLY

- Electric heating cables imbedded in ceiling, bathe the entire room in even, overall radiant warmth.
- Wall panel electric heating units give a radiant warmth—are easily installed and space-saving.
- Wall panel electric heating units that have fans for forced circulation of warm air.
- Electric furnace, a compact central heating system, is easily combined with central air conditioning.
- Electric baseboard units take the place of baseboards—are space-saving and attractive. Some heat by radiation, others have fans for warm air circulation.

USDA Gives

Wool Market

Facts for 1967

The United States Department of Agriculture announced today that shorn wool payments for the 1966 marketing year to bring the average wool price up to the previously announced incentive level of 65 cents per pound under the National Wool Act, will amount to 24.8 percent of the dollar returns each producer received from the sale of shorn wool during the period January through December 31, 1966.

This will result in an incentive payment to producers of $24.90 for every $100 received from the sale of shorn wool during the 12-year program.

USDA also announced a payment rate of 52 cents per hundredweight on shorn lambs to compensate for the wool on them. This payment on sales of live lambs that have never been shorn is based on the shorn wool payment and is designed to discourage unusual shearing of lambs before marketing.

The Iosco Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) County Office will begin making payments soon after April 3. Applications for payment had to be filed by January 31. Payments will be made on shorn wool and unshorn lambs marketed from January 11, 1966, through December 31.

Real Property Assessments Up in Arenac

Real property assessments in Arenac County will be increased by approximately $5,886,000, according to tentative figures announced last week.

Net gain in valuation through Gem Survey appraisals, plus new property built during 1966, would amount to about 4.6 million dollars after a $1,277,000 loss on farm personal property is deducted.

Increases as developed through Gem adjustments ranged from a low of four percent in Au Gres Township to a whopping 66 percent in Adams Township.

The new valuation is expected to add approximately $25,000 to the county's revenue. Last year, estimates indicated that the county would run somewhere around $20,000 in the hole in 1966 and 1967.

HOUSING CODE
ORDINANCE NO. 148

March 31, 1967
The City of Tawas City Ordains:

Housing Code
Part I—Administrative
Chapter 1. Title and Scope
Title

Section 101. This ordinance shall be known as the "Housing Code," may be cited as such, and will be referred to herein as "this code."

Purpose
Section 102. The purpose of this ordinance is to protect the health, safety and welfare of the people of the City of Tawas City by enacting a housing code which establishes minimum housing standards, determines the responsibilities of owners and occupants of dwellings; and provides for administration, enforcement and penalties.

Chapter 2. Enforcement
Right of Entry

Section 201. The Inspector responsible for the enforcement of this code shall be appointed by the Mayor, with approval of the Council. Upon presentation of proper credentials, the Inspector or his duly authorized representatives may enter at reasonable times any dwelling, structure or premises in the city for the purpose of determining whether such dwelling, structure or premises complies with the provisions of this Code.

Notice of Violation
Section 202. Whenever the Inspector determines that there exists a violation of any provisions of this Code, he shall give notice of such violation to the person or persons responsible therefor and order compliance. Such notice and order shall:

- (a) Be in writing;
(b) Include a list of violations referring to the sections of the Code violated;
(c) Set a reasonable time, not to exceed ninety (90) days in any event for the performance of any act it requires;
(d) Contain an outline of remedial action which, if taken, will effect compliance with the provisions of this code;
(e) Advise the owner or occupant of the procedure for appeal;
(f) Be served upon the owner or occupant by delivering it to him personally or by leaving the same at his residence, office or place of business with some person of suitable age and discretion who shall be informed of the contents thereof, or by mailing a copy thereof by certified mail to his last known address, or if the person to be served is unknown, by posting said notice in some conspicuous place on the premises.

Duplicate Notice
Section 203. Whenever the owner of a dwelling is notified by the Inspector of a violation for which he is responsible, a copy of the notice shall also be posted on the premises, delivered, or sent by ordinary mail to the occupants of the dwelling; and whenever an occupant is notified by the Inspector of a violation for which he is responsible, a copy of the notice shall also be delivered, or sent by ordinary mail to the owner of the dwelling. Failure to send such duplicate notice, however, shall not affect the validity of any proceedings against the owner or occupant.

Appeals
Section 204. Any person affected by any notice and order which has been issued in connection with the enforcement of this Code may request and shall be granted a hearing on the matter before the Board of Appeals, provided that such person shall file in the Office of the Inspector a written petition requesting such hearing and setting forth the name, address and phone number of the petitioner and a brief statement of the grounds for such hearing. Petition shall be filed within ten (10) days after the day the notice and order is served and shall be accompanied by a fee of ten dollars ($10.00) to cover the City's cost of handling the appeal. Upon receipt of such a petition, the Inspector shall set a time for a hearing before the Board of Appeals and shall give the petitioner written notice thereof.

Hearings
Section 205. Hearings shall be commenced within a reasonable time after a petition has been filed. At such hearings the petitioner shall be given an opportunity to be heard and to show cause why such notice and order should be modified or withdrawn. The failure of the petitioner or his representative to appear and state his case at such hearings shall have the same effect as if no petition were filed.

Decisions
Section 206. After a hearing the Board of Appeals shall sustain, modify, or withdraw the notice and order depending upon its findings. If it clearly appears that, by reason of special conditions, undue hardships would result from the strict application of any section of this Code, the Board may permit a variance from the mandatory provisions thereof in such a manner that the public safety shall be secured, substantial justice done and the spirit of the provisions of this Code upheld. All decisions to permit a variance under this section shall be by a majority vote of the total membership of the Board.

Meetings
Section 207. The Board of Appeals shall meet in a fixed place and all meetings shall be open to the public. The Board shall adopt its own rules and procedure and keep a record of its proceedings, showing the action of the Board, and the vote of each member upon each question considered. Such records shall be considered public records.

Orders to Vacate
Section 208. Where a notice of violation and order to comply has been served pursuant to Section 202 and upon reinspection at the end of the time specified for compliance it is found that the violation or violations have not been corrected and if no petition for a hearing before the Board of Appeals is pending, the Inspector may order the dwelling or the parts thereof affected by the continued violations vacated in accordance with the following procedures:

- (a) Dwellings or parts thereof shall be vacated within a reasonable time not to exceed sixty (60) days;
(b) Vacated dwellings shall have all outer doors and windows boarded to prevent entry;
(c) Vacated dwellings shall have posted at each entrance a sign to read "DO NOT ENTER. UNSAFE TO OCCUPY."
(d) Vacated dwellings or parts thereof shall not again be used for human habitation until all violations have been corrected and written determination is obtained from the Inspector indicating that the dwelling complies with this Code;
(e) If a dwelling or part thereof is not vacated within the time specified in the vacation order, the Inspector shall seek a court order in a court of competent jurisdiction for the vacation of such dwelling or part thereof, notwithstanding the fact that such disobedience may also be punishable by fine or imprisonment as hereinafter provided in this Code.

Unauthorized Removal of Notice or Placard
Section 209. No person shall interfere with, obstruct, mutilate, conceal, or tear down any official notice or placard posted by the Inspector unless permission is given by said official to remove said notice.

Penalties
Section 210. Any person who shall violate any provision of this Code shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500.00) or by imprisonment for not more than ninety (90) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Each day's failure to comply with any such provision shall constitute a separate violation.

PART III
MINIMUM HOUSING STANDARDS
CHAPTER 4. MINIMUM STANDARDS FOR BASIC EQUIPMENT AND FACILITIES

Kitchen Sink
Section 401. Every dwelling unit shall contain a kitchen sink in good working condition.

Flush Water Closet and Lavatory
Section 402. Every dwelling unit shall contain a room which affords privacy to the person within such room and which is equipped with a flush water closet and a lavatory basin in good working condition. In existing dwellings the requirements of a lavatory basin shall be waived where a bathtub exists in the same room as the flush water closet at the effective date of this Code.

Bathub or Shower
Section 403. Every dwelling unit shall contain, within a room which affords privacy to a person within said room, a bathtub or shower in good working condition.

Sharing of Toilet and Bath
Section 404. The occupants of not more than two (2) dwelling units may share a single flush water closet, a single lavatory basin and a single bathtub or shower if the habitable area of each of the dwelling units is not more than two hundred and fifty (250) sq. ft.

Water Heating Facilities
Section 405. Every kitchen sink, lavatory basin and bathtub or shower required by this Code shall be properly connected with both hot and cold water lines. The hot water lines shall be connected with supplied water-heating facilities which are properly installed, are maintained in safe and good working condition and are capable of heating water to such a temperature as to permit an adequate amount of water to be drawn at every required kitchen sink, lavatory basin and bathtub or shower at a temperature of not less than one hundred and twenty degrees (120°) F.

Water and Sewerage Facilities
Section 406. All plumbing and fixtures required by this Code shall be properly connected to an approved water system and to an approved sewerage system.

Garbage and Rubbish Disposal
Section 408. Every dwelling unit shall have adequate garbage and rubbish storage containers in which to place the garbage and rubbish produced therein. The containers shall consist of watertight cans, not more than twenty (20) gallons in capacity, equipped with adequate handles or balls. In lieu of a garbage container, a dwelling unit may be equipped with an incinerator provided it is properly vented into the chimney of the building and is capable of reducing garbage to ashes without causing an objectionable odor in the neighborhood; or a garbage disintegrating unit connected with an integral part of the sewerage system of the building and capable of reducing all garbage deposited therein to particles no greater than one-half (1/2) inch in any dimension.

Exitways
Section 409. Every dwelling unit shall have access to one (1) unobstructed exitway leading to a public street or alley. Where there are two (2) or more dwelling units located on the second story of a dwelling or where there are more than two (2) stories in a dwelling, a minimum of two (2) approved exitways serving every occupied story above the first shall be provided. EXCEPTION: A second story may be served by a single interior stairway if such stairway is enclosed by one-hour fire resistant materials. A second story may also be served by a single exterior stairway if such stairway is constructed of incombustible materials or of wood not less than two (2)-inch nominal thickness with solid treads and risers. Such exterior stairway must also be protected from every opening in exterior wall of the dwelling that is within twenty (20) feet of the stairway by approved fireproof or firewindows. This exception shall not apply in cases where the second story exceeds one thousand (1,000) sq. ft., or if the dwelling units are more than fifty (50) feet from the stairway.

CHAPTER 5. MINIMUM STANDARDS FOR LIGHT, VENTILATION AND HEATING.

Windows in Rooms
Section 501. Every habitable room shall have at least one (1) window or skylight facing directly to the outdoors. The minimum total window area measured between eaves for every habitable room shall be ten (10) percent of the floor area of such room. Whenever walls or other portions of structures face a window of any such room and such light-obscuring structures are located less than three (3) feet from the window and extend to a level above that of the ceiling of the room such a window shall not be deemed to face directly to the outdoors and shall not be included as contributing to the required minimum total window area. Whenever the only window in a room is a skylight type window in the top of such room, the total window area of such skylight shall equal at least fifteen (15) percent of the total floor area of such room.

Openable Window Area
Section 502. Every habitable room shall have at least one (1) window or skylight which can be easily opened. The total openable window area shall be equal to at least forty-five (45) percent of the minimum window area size or minimum skylight area size as required in Section 501 of this Code. An approved system of mechanical ventilation or air conditioning may be used in lieu of openable windows. Such systems shall provide not less than four (4) air changes per hour.

Windows in Bathrooms
Section 503. Every bathroom and water closet compartment shall comply with the light and ventilation requirements for habitable rooms contained in Sections 501 and 502 of this Code, except that no window or skylight shall be required in bathrooms or water closet compartments which are equipped with a mechanical ventilating system to the outside air which is capable of completely changing the air in the room every two (2) minutes.

Electrical Service
Section 504. Every habitable room shall contain at least two (2) separate floor or wall-type electric convenience outlets, or one such convenience outlet and one supplied ceiling or wall-type electric light fixture. Every outlet and fixture shall be properly installed, shall be maintained in good and safe working condition, and shall be connected to the source of electric power in a safe manner.

Heating Facilities
Section 505. Every dwelling or dwelling unit shall have heating facilities which are properly installed and vented and maintained in safe operating condition. Portable heating equipment employing a flame and heating equipment using gasoline or kerosene as fuel are prohibited. A kitchen gas stove may be used to heat the kitchen but may not be substituted for the heating facilities required by this section.

Lighting in Public Halls
Section 506. Every public hall and stairway in every multiple dwelling serving five (5) or more dwelling units and in every rooming house or hotel serving ten (10) or more rooming units, shall be adequately lighted at all times. Every public hall and stairway in structures devoted solely to dwelling occupancy and serving less than the above number of dwelling or rooming units may be supplied with conveniently located light switches controlling an adequate lighting system which may be turned on when needed, instead of full time lighting.

Window and Door Screens
Section 507. Every door opening directly from a dwelling unit to outdoor space shall be supplied with a screen door equipped with a self-closing device in good operating condition. Every window used for ventilation shall also be supplied with screen. Screens shall be in place by June 1 of each year and shall not be removed before October 1. Screens will not be required on windows in rooms above the fourth story. All screens shall not be less than number sixteen (16) wire mesh.

Screens on Basement Windows

Minimum Floor Area
Section 601. Every dwelling unit shall contain at least one hundred twenty-five (125) sq. ft. of floor space for the first occupant thereof and at least seventy-five (75) additional square feet of floor space for every additional occupant thereof, the floor space to be calculated on the basis of total habitable room area.

Minimum Floor Area for Sleeping Rooms
Section 602. Every room occupied for sleeping purposes by one (1) occupant shall contain at least seventy (70) sq. ft. of floor space, and every room occupied for sleeping purposes by more than one occupant shall contain at least forty (40) sq. ft. of floor space for each occupant twelve (12) years of age and over and at least thirty-five (35) sq. ft. for each occupant under twelve (12) years of age, the floor space to be calculated on the basis of total habitable room area.

Single Family Owner-Occupied Dwelling Excepted
Section 603. The City Council finds that healthful and sanitary conditions in relation to space generally prevail in single family owner-occupied dwellings. Therefore, the provisions of sections 601 and 602 shall not apply to single family owner-occupied dwellings. For the purpose of this section, a "single family owner-occupied dwelling" shall mean a dwelling containing no more than one (1) dwelling unit in which the owner thereof resides; and a "family" as herein used shall mean a group of persons related by blood or marriage within and including the degree of first cousins.

Room Arrangement
Section 604. No dwelling or dwelling unit containing two (2) or more sleeping rooms shall have such room arrangements that access to a bathroom or water closet compartment intended for use by occupants of more than one (1) sleeping room can be had only by going through another sleeping room; nor shall room arrangements be such that access to a sleeping room can be had by going through another sleeping room or a bathroom or water closet compartment.

Minimum Ceiling Height
Section 605. At least one-half (1/2) of the floor area of every habitable room, bathroom, water closet compartment, and hallway shall have a ceiling height of not less than seven (7) feet. The floor area of that part of any habitable room where the ceiling height is less than five (5) feet shall not be considered as part of the floor area in computing the total floor area of the room for the purpose of determining the maximum permissible occupancy thereof.

Cellar Space Not Habitable
Section 606. No cellar space shall be used as habitable room or dwelling unit; provided, however, that this section shall not prohibit a recreation room in a cellar as long as it is not used for sleeping purposes. Such room cannot be used in computing the total floor area of the dwelling for the purpose of determining the maximum permissible occupancy thereof.

Basement Dwelling Units
Section 607. No basement space shall be used as a dwelling or rooming unit unless:
(a) The floor and walls are impervious to leakage of underground and surface run-off water.

(b) The total window area in each room is equal to at least ten (10) percent of the floor area of the room as measured between steps and is entirely above the grade of the ground adjoining such window area;
(c) The total openable window area in each room is equal to forty-five (45) percent of the minimum window area, except where there is supplied a mechanical ventilating system to the outside air; capable of completely changing the air in the room every fifteen (15) minutes;
(d) The ceiling height throughout the unit is at least seven (7) feet;
(e) It is separated from heating equipment, incinerators, or other equally hazardous equipment by a standard partition;
(f) Access can be gained to the unit without going through a furnace room;
(g) Two (2) independent means of egress are provided from every basement containing more than one (1) dwelling unit. If rooming units are provided in a basement, two (2) exits shall be provided if ten (10) or more persons occupy such rooming units.

Proceedings of Iosco Board of Supervisors

MARCH SESSION
March 15, 1967

Pursuant to February adjournment, the Iosco County Board of Supervisors was called to order at 9:30 a. m. by Chairman Little, who ordered roll call. The following supervisors were present: Abbott, Blust, Campbell, Everett, Gerard, Hosbach, Jocks, Little, Lixey, McElheron, Moss, Kasischke, Weible, Mielock, Schreck, Smith, Stephan and Webb. Absent: Belson.

Communications were read by the clerk and referred to the proper committees by the chairman. The clerk read a letter from Mr. Robert W. LaVoy dated March 1, 1967, tendering his resignation as a member of the Iosco County Road Commission to become effective at once. It was moved by Mielock and supported by Blust that the resignation be accepted. Carried unanimously.

After discussion concerning the vacancy created by the resignation of Mr. LaVoy, Mr. Mielock moved to delay any decision on an appointment of a replacement until April and to make it a special order of business for the first day of April session at 2:00 p. m. The motion was supported by Campbell and carried on a voice vote.

The regional library treasurer's report for March was submitted by Mr. Gerard to be placed on file with the clerk's office.

Chairman Little introduced Mr. Don Gostrey, representative of the Michigan Office of Economic Expansion, the administering body designated by Governor Romney as the state coordinating agency for EDA programs.

Mr. Gostrey addressed the board concerning the formation of multi-county development districts consisting of contiguous counties of similar economic and social characteristics, with the purpose of grouping together economically depressed and healthy areas in order to foster more successful development programs and economic growth through multi-county cooperation in planning and investment, and to become eligible for EDA assistance. Mr. Gostrey presented a proposed plan for a 14-county development district which included Iosco County for consideration.

Chairman Little referred the program to the planning committee for study, with the possibility of drafting a resolution for participation in a multi-county plan.

Mr. Davenport, cooperative extension agent, reported to the board, advising that he was in receipt of a letter from the United States Department of Commerce, Economic Development Administration, which indicated that the next over-all economic development plan report should be submitted no later than March 31, 1967, and the information the report should contain. He also submitted a formal request for annual reports from cities of East Tawas, Tawas City and Whittemore. On closing, Mr. Davenport distributed copies of the revised OEDP which was prepared by the Iosco County Planning Commission.

Committees were ordered to their respective duties, balance of the board to be at ease subject to the call of the chair.

Upon call to order at 12:00 a. m., the board recessed until 1:30 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

Upon call to order at 1:30 p. m., roll call was ordered by the chairman. The same supervisors were present as at the morning session.

Mr. Everett read the following resolution from the welfare committee:

Honorable Board of Supervisors Gentlemen:

WHEREAS, Act 280 of Public Acts of 1939, as amended, places responsibility for the establishment, extension and operation of county medical care facilities and county infirmaries in the county department of social services, thereby vesting such responsibility in the hands of local governmental officers directly accountable to the citizens of the community concerned, and

Whereas, the electors of Iosco County have recently voted a special assessment to provide funds for the construction of a county medical care facility, now in operation, under the provisions of Act 280 of the Public Acts of 1939, as amended, in the belief and expectation that such facility would be operated by this board, and

Whereas, Senate Bill 54, introduced by Senators Beebe, Bursley, Lockwood and Huber, would transfer responsibility for the establishment, extension and operation of county medical care facilities and county infirmaries as provided by Act 280 of Public Acts of 1939, as amended, to the state department of public health, thereby removing from local government the responsibility for control of such facilities in the best interests of the citizens of the community,

IT IS RESOLVED, that this board hereby records its vigorous opposition to Senate Bill 54 for the reasons above stated and that a notice of this resolution be immediately transmitted to Sen. Robert L. Richardson Jr., Representative George A. Prescott and to those members of the state legislature sponsoring Senate Bill No. 54.

Spring Cleaning Tips . . .

Some of you will be re waxing floors soon. Most homes have at least two types of hard surface floors so you may be choosing at least two kinds of wax from among the many new ones available. All waxes can be used on several types of floors but each wax has special features. The type you choose will depend on the kind of floor, the floor-care equipment available to use, the kind and amount of traffic the floor gets.

There are waxes best used if a polisher or buffer is available, special waxes for white or light floors and waxes for heavy duty traffic and frequent washings with detergent.

Plan to work harder removing old heavy duty wax. Read directions to know if it should be shaken before use.

To avoid a gummy finish, be sure to rinse carefully and dry thoroughly before applying wax. A tiny trace of detergent can leave a streaked, sticky floor, even with the best quality wax product. For this reason, a sponge mop must never be used to apply wax unless it is new.

If applying two coats, apply the second coat only up to about 12 inches from the baseboard, to help prevent a buildup around the edges of the room. Perhaps it will be unnecessary to do two coats under some furniture where there is not much traffic.

Two cautions: Never mix portions of two cans of wax, even identical. Different brands and even the same brand change as improvements are made and formulas may not combine well.

Never pour left-over wax back into a can after you have dipped any wax applicator or cloth into it. The soiled applicator may contaminate the contents of the can and prevent getting the best results with the rest of the wax.

Today's Eggs . . .

This is a good time of year to know that today's strain of laying hen produces from 240 to 260 eggs a year as compared with the barnyard layer of 10 years ago. She did well to produce 150 eggs a year. Today's laying hen retires at about age 18 months.

Have you noticed that you can get more eggs in the frying pan than you used to? That's because they are fresh, high quality with lots of thick white and a high firm yolk. Eggs are especially good by this year and at this season; two eggs provide an inexpensive and nourishing main dish for anyone's dinner.

Good News . . .

Scientists tell us that in the future we can utilize chemicals to inhibit our taste reactions for a period so that sour foods can taste sweet or sweet could taste bland or tasteless. This may help those of us with a sweet tooth and no will power, when wishing we could lose a few pounds.

Social Security Card Not for Identification

Banks, department stores and smaller merchants are losing millions of dollars each year because they accept social security cards as identification in cashing checks and money orders, Robert M. Ball, commissioner of Social Security, warned today.

For years, Ball noted, the two by three-inch card has carried a notation, "Not for identification," and the Social Security Administration in posters and press releases has explicitly pointed out that a social security account number card is issued for the convenience of workers and their employers and helps to identify a worker's social security account for social security purposes only. "The mere possession of the card is obviously not a positive method of identifying an individual, since the card could easily fall in the hands of the wrong persons," the Social Security commissioner said. "We do not consider it such when claims are filed for social security benefits and we certainly do not expect others to do so," he added.

Commissioner Ball said that built-in safeguards in the social security claims process protect the social security trust funds from impostors who might use forged or counterfeit social security cards in attempts to collect social security benefits. He also noted that under federal law (18 U. S. C. 506) a person could receive up to five years imprisonment and up to $5,000 fine for falsifying a social security card. In addition, violations would be subject to prosecution on the charges of cashing forged checks or other fraudulent transaction, using the false cards.

Forest Chats

By STUART BAILEY
Forester

Five million jack pine trees! That is approximately how many jack pine trees there are on the Tawas District that are large enough to produce one pulp stick. This illustrates what Forester Napier was saying that we cannot care for individual trees. We must group trees into units of like characteristics and then treat the whole unit. We call such a unit a stand.

Friday, we received bids on a stand of jack pine that contains 1,900 cords of pulpwood or we could say about 60,000 trees. A year ago, this stand was examined and found to be overmature. The jack pine was about 50 years old. We could tell the trees were past their prime by taking a wood sample from the trunks of the trees. These samples or borings showed that the growth rings were close together which means the trees have stopped growing.

Another indication that the stand was overmature was the number of trees that were beginning to die. With this information, we conclude that the stand should be harvested shortly.

In examining the stand, we also found healthy, growing trees. In the past, the stands were marked so as to leave those young healthy trees. But it was found that after the mature and overmature trees were removed the remaining trees were damaged by wind and snow. This resulted in loss of wood that could have been used.

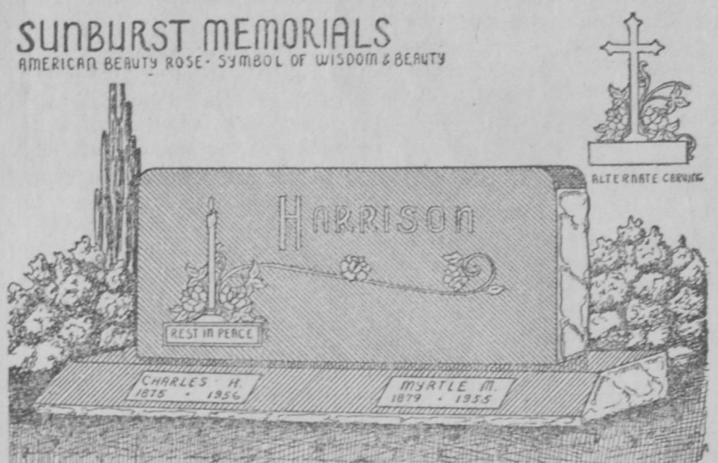

Because of these characteristics of jack pine and the fact that the trees require lots of sunlight to grow, we now harvest all of the merchantable trees, trees that will produce one pulp stick, at the same time. When we decide to remove the whole stand, we must do it so that a new stand is started either by natural reseeding or by planting. Natural reseeding usually occurs when the soil and cones are exposed to full sunlight. The new trees start growing at the same time thus producing a stand of even-aged trees. We then let the stand grow until it will be ready to harvest again.

If the stand does not reseed itself, we must replant the area with red pine trees. We use red pine because over the life span of the stand this species will produce more wood than jack pine.
