Kiwanians Hear Need for TA School Millage

Electors of Tawas Area Schools are to be asked to vote August 28 on raising the tax limitation 1½ mills for additional operational funds for the 1967 school year in order that 11 mills will be levied.

If successful, this will mean an increase of one mill over the tax levied in 1966 as 10 mills were levied then for operation.

In a talk Tuesday before Tawas Kiwanis Club, Supl. Reynold Mick said that state aid this year is predicted on levying 10 mills for full participation. If this levy fails, Tawas Area would only be able to levy 9.5 mills and, as a consequence, would collect 95 percent of the eligible state aid, or a loss of $17,000.

"The board of education has budgeted funds this year to cut down the excessive number of pupils per teacher and to allow for more individual attention for children," said Mr. Mick. "It is proposed to have seven teachers added to the staff to utilize new facilities in the high school, as well as to add additional grade teachers."

The added teachers will cost an estimated $50,000. It will be necessary to spend an additional $54,000 to $70,000 for increments and comparable salary increases with other schools.

Added teaching equipment and supplies for the new vocational facilities will be no small increase in budget.

Curriculum improvements will cause added outlays for books. It is estimated that offering five subjects instead of four to students will add $4,000 to the cost for textbooks.

Tawas Area ranked 442nd of the 533 schools according to instructional cost per pupil. Expenses of this instruction was $236.13 per child, or 74 percent of the total school budget. Salaries represented 59.46 percent of the total budget.

Considering all these expenses when 11 mills are levied, we can expect the operating balance to drop from $171,000 on June 30, 1967, to about $65,000 on June 30, 1968. This is about the minimum balance that will allow payment of current bills on time during the first half of the fiscal year," said Mr. Mick.

Failure to pass the millage would cause the balance to be wiped out and cause drastic cutbacks in 1968-1969, or an additional levy in 1968 of about 2.5 mills above the yearly needs.

"An elector has the right and duty to see how expenditures in Tawas Area compare with other sections of the state and, also, to compare tax rates locally with other areas of the state," said Mr. Mick.

The following information, taken from the Michigan State Department of Education statistics for 1965-1966, shows how the local district compared with other sections and with the state averages. Statistics are not available yet for 1966-1967 state averages.

Tawas Area Schools, according to a bulletin from the department of education, spent $400.31 per pupil in the 1965-1966 school year. Of the 533 kindergarten through grade 12 schools, 466 spent more for general operation than Tawas.

The following comparison is made from the list of area schools: Standish-Sterling spent $425.37 per child, ranking 375; Pinconning, $476.47 per child, ranking 195; Gladwin, $464.82 per child, ranking 232; West Branch, $436.44, ranking 330; Whittemore-Preseott Area, $426.78, ranking 369; Oscoda Area, $491.51, 143rd on the list; Alcona, $570.36, 47th in the state; Alpena, $506.58, ranking 112th; Hale Area, $483.99, or 170th in the state; Au Gres-Sims, $480.24, ranking 181st.

"We were the lowest in the area and below the state average of $469.42," said Mr. Mick. "We were in a low expenditure position in 1965-1966—we improved in 1966-1967, but so did all the other schools.

"If we want to give children of Tawas Area quality education, then we must improve our competitive position and this will take more money," said the superintendent.

Even with the 11 mills proposed for this year, Tawas Area will be well below the state average for operation.

Of the 533 schools in Michigan, only 29 levy 11 mills or less and only one has a levy of the amount Tawas Area is allowed by the allocation board—9.5 mills. Of the 29 mentioned, many had successful millage elections since 1966, so the number would be cut down extensively.

Forty schools among the 533 checked in the state have less millage for all school purposes according to 1966-1967 figures.

Tawas Area ranked 442nd of the 533 schools according to instructional cost per pupil. Expenses of this instruction was $236.13 per child, or 74 percent of the total school budget. Salaries represented 59.46 percent of the total budget.

Comparing other schools in the Northern B Conference, Pinconning had an instructional cost of $265.58 per child, with a rank of 381; Standish-Sterling spent $276.30 per child, ranking 326th; Gladwin spent $287.58 per child.

Sawyer-Hall Paddle to AuSable Canoe Win

Veteran paddlers, Ralph Sawyer and Stan Hall, Oscoda, won the 21st annual AuSable River canoe race and $1,200 first place prize money.

The Oscoda team completed the 240-mile, two-day race in 15 hours, 40 minutes, 29 seconds—only six minutes ahead of the father-son team of Irvin "Buz" and Steve Peterson of Coon Rapids, Minnesota.

It was the seventh time for Sawyer to stand in the winners' circle at the end of an AuSable River classic, while Hall, who had placed high in recent races, took top money for the first time.

The Oscoda team jumped to a 12-minute lead over the Minnesota team on the first leg of the race from Grayling to Mio Saturday. It was a different story Sunday morning when teams left Mio for Oscoda in reverse starting order—the Petersons sped downriver to lead the field over the finish line but were never able to make up Saturday's deficit.

The next three places in the 19-team field went to Robert Gillings, Lansing, and Jack Kent, Atlanta, third place, 15 hours, 52 minutes, 12 seconds; Jack Kolka, Detroit, Jerry Kellogg, Twin Lake, fourth place, 15 hours, 55 minutes; Cecil Lame, Flint, Al Widing, Holly, fifth place.

The amateur division, racing from Cooke Dam to Oscoda, was won by Roland Muhlen and Art Freising, Cincinnati, Ohio, four hours, 24 minutes and 24 seconds. In second place was the team of Steve Tripp, Oscoda, and Tom Bacon, Flint; third place went to Scott Gallagher, Cincinnati, and Odell Mitchell, South Lebanon, Ohio; Jeff Howe and Joe Conrad, Minnesota, won fourth place; Tom Pimpson, Indiana, and Thor Nemas, Ohio, won fifth place.

Bike Riders to Invade Tawas August 19-20

Once again on August 19-20, the Tawas will be "invaded" by Olympic-caliber bike riders competing in the Tour of Lumbermen's Monument Bike Races.

Dating from the first tour, which took place as part of the Michigan Tourist Festival in 1963, this year's race will be the fifth annual running. Previous races have drawn riders from Great Britain, Italy, West Germany, Canada, Maine, Massachusetts, New York and all Midwestern States.

All races are to start and finish at the intersection of Newman and State Streets at East Tawas.

The first race is to be a 32½ mile individual time trial beginning at 10:00 a. m. Saturday, August 19, when each rider will race against the clock—riding to Largo Springs and back.

The second race and most thrilling for spectators is the sprint event when riders attain speeds up to 25 miles per hour. This race starts at 6:30 p. m. Saturday, with riders circling a one-half mile course beginning and ending at the bank corner at East Tawas.

Last and most grueling event of the week-end begins Sunday afternoon, 1 o'clock, when riders compete in the 62½ mile road race. Riders will race 12½ miles in town and then leave for an additional 50 miles, racing out to Lumbermen's Monument via Monument Road, then turn at the monument toward Oscoda, returning to East Tawas by way of Old US-23. The race takes about two hours to run.

Last year's winner, Sigfried Koch, will not be able to compete this year since he is back home in West Germany. However, many top riders, including past winners, are returning for a go at the 1967 championship.

Junior Bike Races Open to Novices

Second annual running of the East Tawas junior Olympic bike races will be held August 19 as part of the fifth annual Tour of Lumbermen's Monument Bike Races. Novice races are to be held starting at 4:30 p. m.

All local riders are eligible to compete for many Olympic-style ribbons and other prizes. Race divisions begin with the tricycle class of boys and girls, five years of age or younger. There will be 11 divisions in all.

Racing or stock bicycles may be used. It is necessary that each rider competing in novice races obtain and fill out the entry blank and waiver before race time in order to compete.

Races are open to boys, girls, men or women. Ribbons or medals are to be awarded to at least the first five places.

Junior Olympic bike races were first held in 1966, when more than 90 riders competed before several hundred spectators. Contestants will race the same one-half mile course used by the Olympic-caliber riders.

Racing will be conducted by a special committee of the Tawas Chamber of Commerce in cooperation with the East Tawas Lions Club. Entry blanks are to be available at Mooney's Ben Franklin, Gould Rexall Drugs and the chamber of commerce office.

Arts - Crafts Festival Proved Huge Success

Seventh annual Tawas Bay Waterfront Arts and Crafts Festival for artists and craftsmen, held Saturday and Sunday at the Tawas City Park and Iosco County Building, was a well organized success. Even the weather cooperated as the more than 2,000 spectators enjoyed open air exhibits under a bright sun.

Sponsored by Tawas Bay Artists and Tawas Chamber of Commerce, the event drew 77 registered artists and craftsmen. Many exhibitors have returned yearly for this show, enjoying the local facilities and hospitality. This is the only outdoor show with adjacent indoor facilities in the state and the only one with hostesses providing free coffee and assistance from guides.

Konrad and Charlotte Suessner, Valparaiso, Indiana, won the popular vote for the favorite exhibit. Other prizes were as follows: Oil painting, Jean Stanwick, Mr. Pleasant; water color, Dorothy Kleinschmidt, Saginaw; acrylics, William C. Saffin Jr., Cincinnati, Ohio; drawings, Janet Fairbanks, Lansing; crafts, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Brown (lapidary craft), Sterling.

Prizes from Jerry's Resort went to Mrs. Martin Fiedler, oil painting; Donald Darr, water color; Mrs. Harold Peterson, oil painting, all of the Tawas. Pictures were selected by Mr. and Mrs. Del Collier.

Mrs. Herbert Hertzler and Mr. Darr, co-chairmen, extend thanks to C. A. Arlington, Gar Bassett and Bill McIntosh of the chamber of commerce for operating the public address system; to the sheriff's department and city police for directing traffic; Tawas City Department of Public Works, erection of fence; Martin Fieldler and Harold Peterson, who assisted with arrangements for exhibits in the county building; local businessmen for prizes, including Jerry's Resort, Tawas City Businessmen's Association, Peoples State Bank, Keiser's Drug Store, Ziehl's Nursery and the Detroit and Mackinac Railway.

Prizes were awarded both days, 12 door prizes being given Saturday night with Ralph Western officiating. Bassett and James Campbell announced awards on Sunday.

The co-chairmen credit success of this show to experience gained in the previous six shows and the enthusiastic cooperation of Tawas Bay Artists, local business, the public and many summer residents.

Hostesses were Mrs. Joseph Allen, Mrs. Ivan O'Farrell, Mrs. William Lyon, Mrs. Fred Lomas, Mrs. Joseph Pellerito, Mrs. Daniel Ulrich, Martha Pinkerton, Mrs. James Thomas, Mrs. C. Wilkinson, Mrs. Walter Schuhmacher, Mrs. Stuart White.

Registrars were Mrs. Fiedler, Mrs. Peterson, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Gordon Huck, Mrs. B. N. Sargent and Mrs. Leslie Lambert.

TODAY'S Meditation

from The World's Most Widely Used Devotional Guide

The Upper Room

Read Luke 10:25-37

The lawyer, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, "and who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29, RSV) Jesus answered the lawyer's question by telling the story we know as the parable of the good Samaritan. It teaches us that our neighbor is anyone who needs our help. But even more impressive is the fact that the man who showed himself neighbor was a despised Samaritan. He risked his own safety by stopping to aid a man on whom he had pity.

One night in the year 1811, a theater in Richmond, Virginia, burned with a great loss of life. A slave gave a shining example of heroism by rescuing many persons before he himself died in the flames. This man had lived in a different world from the theatergoers; yet when they needed his help, he gave it freely, even at the cost of his own life.

This act of self-sacrificing heroism and the parable of the good Samaritan teach us our duty—to help those in need whenever we can, even at inconvenience or risk to ourselves, since all of us are neighbors.

PRAYER

Father open our eyes that we may see our neighbor's need. Give us merciful hearts and understanding minds to meet that need. In the name of Jesus who went about doing good, and taught us to pray, "Our Father who art in heaven . . . Amen."

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Two and a Half Tons

When a homemaker shops for four, she has carried home tons of groceries a year and put them away. When cooking, she gets them out again to serve the family's three square meals a day. Then, if she is average, she throws away about $200 worth of leftovers during the year. The 2½ tons of groceries include one-half ton of meat (about 100 pounds per person per year plus 100 pounds of bones and fat), three-fourths ton of dairy foods, half a ton of fruits and vegetables and nearly four-fifths ton of miscellaneous foods.

Cleaning Fireplace Stones
This may be a good time of year to scrub the smoke-stained fireplace at home or the cottage. To clean smoke-stained stone fireplaces, the following method is suggested. Add one-half cup of detergent to a quart of hot water to make a soft soap. Stir in one-half pound powdered pumice stone and one-half cup household ammonia. Mix thoroughly. Remove as much smoky deposit as possible with a stiff brush. Then apply the soap mixture and let it remain 15 to 30 minutes. Scrub off and rinse with plenty of warm water, to prevent streaking. Scrub brick fireplaces with strong washing soda and tri-sodium phosphate solution and rinse well.

Cystic Fibrosis Art Benefit Features Bids on Paintings dishes filled with the following: Whole salted peanuts, chopped green pepper and scallions, raisins, coconut, mandarin oranges, chutney, etc.

COFFEE SUPREME

After preparing your favorite iced coffee, to each 12-ounce tumbler, add about three tablespoons of chocolate ice cream. You will be pleased with the delightful mocha taste.

GAY HUE

Fashion trends show us brilliant colors moving onto bright apparel. This progress is exciting, but can give pause when a stain results on one of the man-made fibers. If there is no tag information on the garment, try this: Snip a seam allowance or inconspicuous portion of the stained item and soak in a test solution of one-eighth cup liquid bleach to one quart sudsy water; if the color holds after five minutes, the colors are safe to bleach.

COOL WORK

Outdoor meals can be simple if you have an electric roaster and an outlet near porch or patio. Connect the roaster, then let Dad oven-bake both chicken and potatoes while you toss the salad.

VACATION-TIME

Before leaving on a family trip, prepare for roadside stops and emergencies. Find a convenient place in the car to stash a first aid kit, flashlight, road flares, a few dimes for telephone booths.

FRUIT CUP

Ground cardamom enhances flavors. Add one-fourth teaspoon to the fruit for six servings of fruit cup or compote.

FIRE early Saturday morning at Sand Lake destroyed a restaurant owned by Mr. and Mrs. John Evans. Bears Drop TC Indies for Third Time

Grant Mousseau of the East Tawas Bears stopped the Tawas City Indies Sunday afternoon with a three-hit, 8-1 victory.

The Indies jumped off to a one-run lead in the second inning when back-to-back singles by Dale Koepke and Bob Sieloff, coupled with a balk and a bunt, produced one run.

East Tawas waited until the fifth inning and then erupted with a six-hit attack, including a three-run homer by Ken Blust, to win easily.

Sieloff, losing pitcher for Tawas City, scattered two hits without trouble during the first four innings. East Tawas coupled a hit, an infield out and a fly ball for one run in the seventh, then scored two runs in the eighth on three walks and a single.

Mousseau fanned 15 batters during the game and walked one. Sieloff was nicked for 12 hits, struck out five and walked three.

Action this Sunday closing out the baseball season finds Roscommon at East Tawas and Mio at Tawas City.

AuGres Harbor Bill

A $125,000 appropriation for the AuGres harbor of refuge was included in the public works appropriations bill reported out of committee in congress last week, according to Cong. Elford Cederberg.

It was expected that the matter would come to the floor last week. If approved, the harbor is labeled for a construction start in 1968.

The harbor would consist of a 12-foot deep channel from the river mouth for about 6,000 feet in a southwesterly direction into Saginaw Bay. A 3,500-foot breakwater would be built from the mouth into the bay along the north side of the channel to protect against strong northeast winds.

HOMECOMING MEAL FOR TIRED TRAVELERS

by Betty Stern
Farm & Home Food Consultant

When tired travelers return home, a perfect ending to a perfect vacation for both you and your family is a dinner waiting in the freezer. While you are unpacking let your oven heat your dinner for you. It will be so good to taste home-cooking again.

If you plan to stay at home all summer, you can still enjoy such a luxury on days when you take the children swimming, or decide it's too hot to cook. Cooler days when you do cook and bake are a good time to prepare your lay-away meal. A simple way is to double the amount of food you prepare for dinner, freezing half for a later time.

POPPY SEED FINGER ROLLS

1 cup milk 5½ cups unsifted flour, about
½ cup sugar ¼ cup honey
1 teaspoon salt 2 tablespoons sugar
1 cup margarine 1 tablespoon margarine
½ cup warm water (105°-115° F.) 2 tablespoons poppy seed
2 packages or cakes yeast, active dry or compressed

Scald milk; stir in ½ cup sugar, salt and 1 cup margarine. Cool to lukewarm. Measure warm water into large warm bowl. Sprinkle or crumble in yeast; stir until dissolved. Mix in 3 cups flour; beat until smooth. Add enough additional flour to make a soft dough. Turn out onto lightly floured board. Knead until smooth and elastic, about 8 minutes. Place in greased bowl, turning to grease top. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour. Punch dough down; divide in half. On lightly floured board roll half the dough to an 8 inch square. Cut into 6 strips of equal width. Then cut each strip in half making twelve 4-inch long strips. Place side by side in a greased 8 inch square pan, making 2 rows. Repeat with remaining half of dough. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk about 45 minutes. Combine honey, 2 tablespoons sugar and 1 tablespoon margarine in a saucepan. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until mixture comes to a boil. Brush on dough in pans. Sprinkle with poppy seed. Bake in 350° F. oven for 35 minutes, or until done. To freeze: Wrap in aluminum foil after it cools. To thaw: May be left at room temperature in wrapping or can be placed direct from freezer into 375° oven without removing wrap.

WALNUT CUPCAKES

½ cup shortening 3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon vanilla ½ teaspoon salt
1 cup sugar ¼ cup milk
2 eggs 1 cup chopped California walnuts
1¼ cup flour

Blend shortening and vanilla. Gradually add sugar, creaming until light and fluffy. Add eggs one at a time, beating well after each addition. Sift together flour, baking powder, and salt. Add dry ingredients to shortening mixture alternately with milk. Add walnuts. Pour into greased 3 inch cupcake pans (or instead of greasing, line with fluted paper liners). Bake at 400° for 20-25 minutes.

To freeze: Cool cupcakes thoroughly at room temperature. Wrap in moisture-vapor proof material, using drugstore wrap. Place in cartons in convenient numbers for serving. Label and freeze. To thaw: Remove cupcakes from carton but leave wrapped. Place on cake rack; let stand at room temperature for about 25 minutes. Frosted cupcakes can be stored for 2 months, unfrosted cakes for 3-4 months. Uncooked frostings freeze best.

BARBECUED MEAT BALLS IN FOIL

BARBECUE SAUCE

1 large onion, sliced ½ teaspoon dry mustard
2 tablespoons margarine 1 cup beef stock or 1 bouillon cube dissolved in 1 cup boiling water
1 cup canned tomatoes 1 cup ketchup 1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons brown sugar ¼ teaspoon pepper
3 dashes Tabasco sauce

Brown onion in margarine in heavy sauce pan. Add remaining ingredients; cover; bring to boil. Simmer over low heat about 2½ hours or until sauce is thick. Yield: Approximately 2 cups sauce.

MEAT BALLS

1 pound round steak, ground 1 teaspoon salt
½ pound pork tenderloin, ground ½ teaspoon pepper
3 eggs, beaten 2 tablespoons flour
¼ cup margarine

Combine ground beef, pork, eggs, salt, pepper, flour; toss lightly together. Melt margarine in large fry pan. Shape meat into small balls, ¾ to 1 inch in diameter. Brown, a few at a time, in hot fat; remove each ball as soon as it is browned well. Place each serving (10 meat balls per serving on a double-thick square of aluminum foil. Pour 2 tablespoons Barbecue Sauce over top of meat balls. Bring two edges of aluminum foil together over meat balls; make double fold; make double fold on each end. Bake 30 minutes at 400° F. Yield: 6-7 servings. Meat balls may be prepared ahead of time; packaged in foil; refrigerated or frozen. If frozen, heat in oven at 375° F. until defrosted and warm.

"Modesty," according to The West Bend (Wis.) News, "is when a man hides his light under a bushel, but if somebody doesn't notice pretty soon he begins to pound on the bushel."

It is estimated, The St. James (Minn.) Courier reports, that by 1970, teenagers will be spending up to $30 billion each year. And you and I know where that $30 billion is going to come from, don't we. With that kind of money involved, maybe we should sell the world to the young people and let them pay us an allowance.

The Chronicle-Herald of Macon, Mo., defines fencing as: a lively discussion carried on by two human pincushions with use of exaggerated needles.

We always thought that it was walking the pasture fence with a hammer and a bucket of staples.

In the big cities, there are two kinds of pedestrians, says The Tipton (Iowa) Advertiser. They are the quick and the dead.

The Herald of East Moline, Ill., laments that modern cars and super highways are built for ever increasing speed, but the driver remains the same old model.

It is rather frightening to think that the same model of man who had trouble with one horse, is now allowed to go out on the road with 400 of them.

The Lima (Ohio) News reports the sailor who brought his girl to the minister so they could get married. When the sailor discovered that he only had $2 of the customary $5 fee, he said, "Just marry us as far as the $2 goes."

The Wishek (N.D.) Star says, "The more hot arguments you win, the fewer warm friends you'll have."

The average enemy doesn't know what to do if you suddenly forgive him, advises the Algona (Iowa) Upper Des Moines.

GRASSROOTS GLEANINGS

by Bill Stokes

The following information comes from The Ogden (Iowa) Reporter: "There are now 170 different federal aid programs on the books, financed by more than 400 separate appropriations, and administered by 21 federal departments and agencies aided by 150 Washington bureaus, and more than 400 regional offices empowered to receive applications and disburse funds."

It is now possible to get federal aid for sneezing — or for not sneezing, almost.

The Jamestown (N.D.) Sun tells about the barber college student who did not graduate because he didn't get a high enough mark in public speaking.

The Devils Lake (N.D.) Morning Journal comments that if the law of gravity was submitted to the Supreme Court, there would be a split decision.

A roaring fireplace brings a family closer together, as the family members argue who is going out to get the next log, comments The Sibley (Iowa) Gazette.

The Custer County Chief of Broken Bow, Neb. told this one:

Teacher: How old would a person born in 1797 be today?

Pupil: Man or woman?

JAMAICAN CUISINE

by Pamela Howard

Philosophers have always maintained that you can tell the character of a country by the way its people think. Others feel that the surest way to tell a country's character is to examine the art it produces. Both are probably right, up to a point. But Gourmets have always insisted that the surest way to really know a country and its people is to study their eating habits . . . the food they eat, the way they cook it, and their attitude to foods and eating habits alien to them.

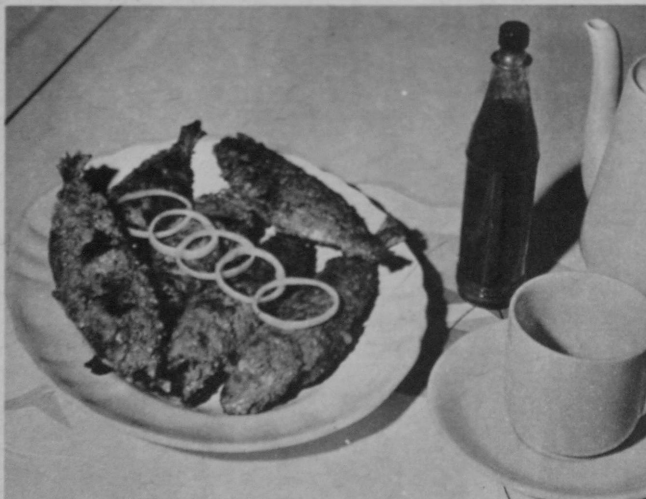

However that may be, the recipes we have chosen, are illustrative of true Jamaica cookery whose ingredients are readily available to our readers. Since fish is very important in the Jamaican diet, we have selected two fish recipes, a snack type dish called Sweet Potato Duckunoo, and a bread called Corn Pone. Jamaican Information Service aided on photos and copy.

LOBSTER LIGUANA

Meat and shells of 2 lobster tails
 ½ cup Soy Sauce
 Dash of Tabasco sauce
 2 tablespoons oil or melted butter
 1 cup cooking sherry

Mix Soy Sauce, Sherry and Tabasco. Cut the lobster meat into pieces, marinate in the mixture for at least 1 hour. Drain and place on a flat baking tin. Brush with oil and grill for 10 minutes, 3 inches from the flame, basting frequently with the marinade. Place the lobster meat in the shells. Baste generously with more of the marinade. Grill for a further 2 or 3 minutes. Serve at once in the shells.

SPANISH SPRATS

1 dozen sprats (or any small fish
 . . . smelt, perch, trout)
 1 cup finely ground peanuts
 Cooking oil

Salt
 Black pepper
 ¼ cup milk

Prepare fish as for ordinary frying. Season with salt and black pepper. Dip them in milk. Roll in ground peanuts, covering them thoroughly. Heat oil in heavy frying pan until smoking. Fry fish quickly, turning once, until they are golden brown. Ground almonds are also very good in this dish. Serves 6.

SWEET POTATO DUCKUNOO

2 lbs. sweet potatoes
 ½ lb. brown sugar
 ¼ lb. flour
 ¼ lb. raisins

3 tsp. grated nutmeg
 1 tsp. vanilla

If you're trying an instant tea for the first time, be sure it's 100% tea.

Here's why: Not all instant teas are 100% tea. Some are half-tea, half-additive. But Nestea is 100% tea. You see, Nestea didn't want to change the pure tea flavor that made tea great in the first place—we just wanted to make it easier for you to make tea at home. And that's what we did. Stir up a frosty glass and see how good it tastes.

Because Nestea is 100% tea, it gives you all the refreshing lift of the best tea bags and loose teas. But—no dripping tea bags, no strainers, no water to heat for iced Nestea. It's instant.

BEST WAY TO RAISE HOGS

This outstanding hog operation is located in the heart of the area that gave birth to Wisconsin's feeder pig industry. Iowa, Illinois, Indiana and Minnesota hog farmers know just about where we mean.

But this operation not only produces feeders by the hundreds—he also feeds them right up to market weight with facilities and ideas that rival those found anywhere.

Perhaps efficiency, sound principles and past experience is the key to the successful hog operation of Ramaco Farms near Manitowoc, Wisconsin by Elroy Waack.

Better than 1800 hogs are finished a year and a herd of 120 purebred Berkshire brood sows is maintained.

"We farrow the year round," says Waack, "except for a six week break starting the middle of November. This gives us a chance to make repairs, clean up and paint up, as well as to take a short vacation.

Along with the hogs, Waack produces some beef and has 160 acres in corn, 80 in oats and 100 in hay. He is assisted year-round by Carl Haese and in the summer by additional part-time help.

"We use some of the feed we produce in our beef operation and sell the rest," explains Waack. "We don't feel we can afford the time to process our own hog feed. It's more profitable for us to use quality controlled bulk commercial feed."

6-Acre Set-Up

Because the operation which consists of two farrowing houses, five brood sow pens and twelve growing and finishing units, is spread out over six acres, Waack feels his method of bulk handling feed is more economical than a completely automated feeding system. The money saved by volume buying bulk feed more than pays for the storage and handling units needed in his setup.

He uses one 20-ton bulk tank for sow ration, a second for growing ration and a third for finishing ration. In addition, he has one 10-ton tank for pre-starter feed and another for a medication free ration for use just before sending pigs to market.

The feed store keeps the bulk tanks full and all Waack has to do is fill his auger wagon or trailer with the proper feed and haul it the short distance to each operation.

"This is the first year we've gone through a complete cycle of feeding, starting with the sows before they've farrowed. We maintain a constant quality. The feed is the same

Now at last this all-new bug trap can give you insect-free, carefree living this year and for years to come. Your first investment is your only cost. Just plug in this amazing new black-lite electron ray bug killer and it goes to work instantly. This new insect trap is one of the most powerful of its kind on the market today. Its black-lite, manufactured by General Electric, attracts scores of insects like a magnet, from grass, gardens, foliage and shrubbery. The high-frequency electric grid kills these pests instantly, in no time at all, the entire area, up to 3/4 of an acre, has been cleared of annoying flies, mosquitoes, moths and other flying insects which have always made life miserable for you.

The action is completely automatic. Once you have switched on this electronic insect trap, it continues its silent operation, 100% effective, with no further attention. Compare this with expensive, time-consuming sprays and vile-smelling insecticides; you spray & spray the air only to find, minutes later, you're back to swatting & scratching at the swarms of annoying bugs again. Modern electronic technology has now come up with this new answer to an age-old problem.

FOR ADULTS, CHILDREN, PETS, BIRDS AND PLANTS

Black-lite insect traps were originally developed for commercial use. These were huge traps used at ballparks, racetracks, picnic grounds, etc. They cost $1,000 to $2,000 each; expensive, but they did the job. A number were installed at the N.Y. World's Fair where they proved their amazing effectiveness over a 2-year period. Now a smaller model for home use has been developed, and has proved its effectiveness in over 100,000 homes, hospitals, restaurants, motels, universities, etc. It has been used successfully on farms, shopping centers, golf courses, at swimming pools, and most of all, in homes like yours, inside and outside — on porch, patio & garden areas. You and your loved ones can now enjoy a quiet, restful night's sleep. Your customers or friends can now enjoy the pleasure of outdoor living & dining in comfort, free of the annoyance of flying insects & pests.

Effective both indoors & outdoors. Sprays & chemicals destroy insect effectiveness when used outdoors. Kill-Ray insect killer constantly remains 100% effective both inside your home and outdoors as well. Outside, Kill-Ray has an effective range, in all directions, of up to 30,000 sq. feet. Insects within this huge zone are irresistibly attracted by the black-lite rays, as though by magic. Once they have homed in on the rays, the instant killing power of the electric grid will dispose of them for ever. We wish to quote in part an article from a nationally distributed garden publication with the largest circulation in its field: "We put our trap into operation about mid-July of last year. We were amazed at the effects. We could open our windows, no moths or mosquitoes entered. We could sit out-of-doors & truly enjoy it. Our trap captured from a point to a quart of flying insects every night. Even our neighbors remarked about the decrease in insects, so we knew the effects were far-reaching enough to cover our own property. All night-flying moths and many destructive day flies as well are attracted to light. We kept ours in operation until after freezing weather, a period of 3 months. The decrease in insect damage in just this short time was noticeable. By putting it into use in early spring, we are hopeful of even better results." Recent tests at the University of Kentucky Agriculture Experiment Station, showed experiments since 1962 in other southern states have had very promising results.

Our new 1967 model will give you many years of trouble-free service. There are no moving parts to fail. It is completely silent, and is transformer-operated for maximum safety, featuring solid-state circuitry. This unit, designed for a lifetime of service, consumes only 10 watts and operates for less than 1 CENT PER DAY. Additional black-lite bulbs are available in local stores or shipped from factory for $2. Shaped like a beautiful lantern, it can also be used as an attractive night light. While the Kill-Ray unit weighs only 3 lbs. and is a compact 10" high x 9" dia., its tremendous blitz-like action has the amazing ability to destroy thousands of insects daily, never getting a chance to lay their destructive eggs. In most cases it is their larvae which causes the damage to your plants, trees, clothing, etc.

You no longer need to spend a small fortune for moth-proofing your home. Just figure up how much you spend yearly for insect sprays & moth-proofing products and you will realize what a great bargain our Kill-Ray really is, especially at this pre-season low price. There is no other product in the U.S. today which can offer you this 100% protection at a cost of less than one cent per day. We urge you to give our Kill-Ray a fair 30-day test. Unless it does everything we claim, to your satisfaction, you may return the unit for full purchase price refund and it costs you absolutely nothing!

This insect trap is manufactured by a reliable, well known maker. It is a quality product designed to give many years of trouble-free service. Similar units have been sold for $25 to $35. Take advantage now of our pre-season offer and save $5.00 on one unit and $12.40 on the purchase of 2. This is the first time we have been able to offer our Kill-Ray for sale to the public by mail-order. Our supply is very limited. Orders will be filled on a first-come, first-served basis. We anticipate far more orders than we will be able to fill. Orders for more than 2 units per customer will not be accepted; orders, however, from hospitals will be given first priority. The sooner you start, the more effective the results. Destroy these pests now before they're able to lay their damaging eggs. Order now as this offer may not be repeated.

If it's a good idea and works well, you'll probably find it being used by Manager Elroy Waack. With this custom set-up, he all but eliminates feeder competition that can only work hardships on animals. This way each animal stands in her own private stall — and eats in peace.

Carl Haese, year around employee at Ramaco Farms, walks in front of the functional brood sow confinement setup. Each 40 foot wide pen contains two metal quonset buildings — adequate room for 20 sows per pen.

day in and day out. The practice has paid off already with a 11.9 average farrowed in the first 21 litters."

To make sure that each brood sow gets her proper ration of food without going to a complete confinement setup, Waack designed adjoining 20-inch wide individual metal feeding stalls. These stalls are on an 18-foot wide concrete feeding platform which extends across the front of the brood sow pens. The stalls have open fronts to make filling easy and have roofs to protect from snow and rain. The amount of hand fed ration which is delivered to each pen in the morning depends on the stage of gestation of the sows in that pen.

Ideas Galore

Each of the five adjoining 40-foot wide brood sow pens contains two 9 by 12 foot metal buildings set on a 12-inch mound of hard packed ground limestone to keep the house dry. There is plenty of room for the 20 sows to exercise, which is just as important to good litters as diet and dry sleeping areas. The cost of the entire brood sow setup ran about $75 per sow.

"About one week before farrowing, the sows are brought into one of our two 18 stall farrowing houses," says Waack. "Each house has a washing stall. We scrub down and disinfect each sow as it's brought in. The pens are also cleaned up thoroughly between farrowings."

The 4½ by 14 foot stalls are made of white oak which the hogs won't chew. Guard rails prevent sows from crushing babies. They also contain a three foot wide creep area, which is partitioned off at the front of each stall.

These creep areas have thermostatically controlled heating pads below them. Dampness and, to a lesser extent coldness, are the worst enemies of newborn pigs. For the first three days after farrowing a heat lamp is used. Then the heating pads take over. Initially the temperature is set for 100 degrees. Every day it is lowered about a degree and a half until it is no longer needed. In cold weather the minimum setting is 55 degrees. This thermostat control (as compared to a continually burning heat lamp) cuts the electric bill enough to pay for the gas heater, which is set at 55 degrees and reduces dampness throughout the building.

Each stall has its own automatic watering unit. Waack hand feeds twice a day while sows are in the farrowing unit.

Only the little porkers can get in this part of the farrowing stall. Waack looks over part of a litter that looks like they've been eating well for a few weeks.

Neck Shots

"One aspect of hog raising that should receive wider consideration," said Waack, "is the placement of iron shots. I put the shot in the neck about a half-inch from the ear, using a short needle about ¾-inch long. Because the head moves around, you still get good dissemination, yet you avoid the chance of staining and spoiling an expensive cut of meat."

The pigs are weaned at six weeks and moved to one of 13 adjoining finishing pens. Even in winter Waack has had no problem moving either sows or feeders from the heated buildings to the outside.

The finishing pens, which will handle 300 pigs at a time, are designed for hog comfort as well as efficient feed handling and cleaning. Each unit has an 8 by 16 foot house at the rear of an 8 foot wide, 40 foot long concrete runway. These houses are constructed of tongue and grooved boards which extend below the floor to protect against rodents and wind. The front walls which face south are open. Board floors over the concrete in each house also add to hog comfort in cold weather. Drainage is accomplished by a 1¼-inch per foot slope in the floors.

From the houses the runways slope southward and form a "T" at the front of each lot. On one side of the "T" the 1-ton self feeders are located and on the other side the self waterers. These waterers are the recirculating type which allow liquid supplements and medicines to be added. The water is pumped from a central tank to the individual pens.

"Both feeders and waterers are raised on a 4-inch concrete slab," says Waack. "They waste less feed and their water stays cleaner this way."

Light Chores

A concrete driveway runs along the front of the pens to make filling the self feeders and cleaning the pens easier. A minimum amount of care is required with this setup. The only daily work is an inspection of the hogs. The feeders hold a 4 to 7 day supply of ration and it takes little time to fill them. The pens are cleaned weekly, a job that takes less than an hour.

Each of these units, which sends 210 to 225 pound pigs to market in about five months, cost Waack about $900 to have built.

Everything considered, the well planned system Waack has developed has proved to be an economical balance of maximum convenience, health and litter size with minimum labor and investment.

Have you counted the bales you tie?

Farmer Glenn Fritz, of Lennox, South Dakota, is one of many farmers who report tying extra bales of hay per bale of Eastman Baler Twine. That's "Scoops" going along for the ride. He's Eastman's expert on twine. Look for him at farm shows.

With EASTMAN Baler Twine, farmers report tying many extra bales of hay after switching from natural fiber twines. There's no doubt—you always get more than 9,000 feet of uniform twine, bale after bale. And there are no thick or thin sections to break or foul baler knotters. Means every foot of Eastman twine is usable.

Added advantages: ideal for outdoor hay storage; resistant to rot, insects, and weather; tough yet soft and flexible; has outstanding knot strength. Eastman Baler Twine is produced in the U. S. A., always available.

Look for the twine with the FARM JOURNAL Family Test Group Seal on the distinctive yellow-and-black label—EASTMAN Baler Twine. It's the original and best-selling black plastic twine.
