

Dr. Lambert Retires from Dist. Health Post

A double shift of personnel of District Health Unit No. 2 was announced last week at West Branch. Included are retirements of Dr. Leslie Lambert of East Tawas and Sanitarian Albert Renwick, along with appointment of Renwick as acting director of the department.

DR. L. A. LAMBERT

Doctor Lambert is due to retire December 31 and Renwick retired on December 17. He is to be replaced in the sanitation work by James Hasty, recently appointed assistant sanitarian.

Doctor Lambert was named to head the health unit in August 1965 following the death of Dr. Earl Hasty, former director. He had previously retired from the practice of medicine but re-entered the field when named to fill Doctor Hasty's vacancy.

"I'm getting along in years and feel that I would like to have a few years to enjoy retirement. I liked it before and am looking forward to retired life again," he stated.

While maintaining his residence at East Tawas, he has commuted regularly to the health unit's main office at West Branch.

Renwick has been unit sanitarian since 1942 and has taken an active part in many of the sanitation changes taking place in the four-county area during that period of time. He is to serve as acting director until a new district health chief is selected.

Hasty, son of the former director, taught school at West Branch prior to joining the health unit. He has had orientation training in sanitation work.

During the interim between the resignation of Doctor Lambert and appointment of a new medical director, there will be no clinics conducted at offices of the department.

There will be a medical doctor assigned to West Branch from the Michigan Department of Health on a regular consultant basis.

The health unit has conducted oral immunization clinics against polio in Iosco, Ogemaw, Oscoda and Alcona Counties. It has also given measles vaccine to all children in the four-county area.

The department has been busy with extensive planning on a sanitation code for the counties. This is expected to be adopted in the near future.

Nunn Chairs Mich. Week Committee

W. D. (Mike) Nunn of East Tawas has returned from a two-day meeting at East Lansing at which the top echelon of the state-wide Michigan Week organization geared up for a big 1968. Nunn is chairman of the state committee in charge of carrying out the theme of Michigan Week.

He reports that the big push for the coming year will be to make Michigan known as the friendliest state in the nation. To this end, the theme, "Michigan—Land of Hospitality," has been adopted for the 15th annual Michigan Week.

Dates of the celebration are May 19-25, but Mr. Nunn came back emphasizing that the promotion campaign is year-around. A strong effort will be made under the direction of Mr. Nunn and State Chairman Win Schuler to get literally everybody to take part in the campaign.

Curve Claims County's 18th Traffic Victim

An Oscoda youth was killed and two others were injured Monday night when their car skidded on a slippery M-171 curve and flipped end over end for 143 feet.

Killed was Samuel R. Ayala, 17, son of SSGT. and Mrs. Paul Ayala, Wurtsmith Air Force Base.

Injured in the crash were the driver, Joseph E. Melvin, 19, son of Sgt. and Mrs. Cleophas Melvin, Wurtsmith Air Force Base, and Douglas Williams, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tunis Williams, Oscoda. Melvin has a broken leg and is in the air base hospital while Williams was treated for minor injuries and released.

Oscoda Township Police said Melvin lost control as the auto went into the curve just south of the Alcona-Iosco line in Oscoda Township at 10:54 p. m.

All three of the youths were home on leave from the United States Army, police said. They were stationed at Fort Knox, Kentucky.

Ayala's death is the 18th traffic fatality on Iosco highways during the past year.

Special Meeting of Tawas A. Board

A special meeting is to be held tonight (Wednesday), 7:30 o'clock, by Tawas Area Board of Education. Items not covered under the December 11 agenda are to be discussed, as well as other business of importance.

JAMES WILKUSKI

Tawas Grad. Aids Development of Weather Satellite

A 1960 graduate of Tawas Area High School was among 15 undergraduate students at the University of Michigan, who designed a complex long-term weather prediction satellite which has drawn interest of NASA and aerospace corporations.

James Wilkuski, 25, senior, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilkuski of East Tawas, took part in the STRATUM project (Stratified Thermosphere Research at the University of Michigan).

The proposed satellite would have a one-year lifetime in a near-polar, circular orbit. It would be particularly valuable in predicting extreme weather conditions.

Designed in 15 weeks as part of a unique student design course in the U of M's department of aerospace engineering, STRATUM will be made known through a report summary indexed by NASA and sent to laboratories around the world.

According to Richard Wallace, project manager and a senior in aerospace engineering, the student will almost certainly be used as the basis for an industrial proposal.

Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Stanford University have similar design courses for graduate students. But the U of M program, which has been in progress for several years, is strictly for undergraduates.

In the design course, students work together as would an industrial team to design and prepare a report on a satellite.

According to Wallace, the proposal is feasible and has been worked out carefully for a launching in 1970.

STRATUM would measure atomic and ionic composition. It would also measure electron density and intensity of airglow phenomena.

The 235-pound satellite would be injected into orbit 295 nautical miles high by a Scout rocket, the smallest rocket used for orbital launchings.

Forty executives, scientists and engineers attended by invitation a presentation on the project by the students which included talks, distribution of a 110-page illustrated report, a slide presentation and viewing of exterior and cutaway models of the satellite.

Wilkuski returned to his studies at the U of M in 1966 after two years of service in the United States Naval Cadet program.

Hold Twining Man for Assault

A 20-year-old Twining man is being held at Iosco County Jail after wounding an Indiana man Friday night at Whittemore following an argument over collection of a $12 debt.

Held in lieu of payment of a $1,500 bond is Joseph Blata. He is charged with assault with a dangerous weapon.

According to state police, Blata shot and wounded Charles Phebus, 29, Michigan City, Indiana, an employee of Lee Builders, a contractor working at the Big Dipper man-made lake south of Whittemore. Blata's father owns an excavation firm which also works at the lake.

Phebus, who was accompanied by one man, stopped at a gasoline service station at the south city limits of Whittemore. Blata, accompanied by four men, pulled in behind Phebus' car. Phebus walked back to Blata's car and an argument ensued. Blata had apparently said a dog to Phebus and wanted $12 in payment.

Investigating officers said that Blata remained in the car. After the exchange of words, Blata brandished a 12-gauge shotgun, shoved it through the car window and pointed it at Phebus. The latter grabbed the weapon and it discharged, the blast grazing him high in the left side.

Officers said that if the blast had been about one inch to the right, the shot could have been fatal. He was treated at Tawas Hospital for a minor injury and released.

Conflicting testimony has been given by eye witnesses in both cars. The case is still under investigation.

Blata waived examination when arraigned in justice court and has been bound over to circuit court.

City Candidates Must File Soon for Primary

Prospective candidates for the February 19 primary election to be held in Tawas City and East Tawas have until January 2 to file nominating petitions.

To be selected at this election are candidates for city offices in the regular spring election, including aldermen, supervisors, mayor, clerk and treasurer.

The three Tawas City aldermen whose terms expire this year filed nominating petitions Monday night. They are Daniel Ulrich, First Ward; Clyde Evril, Second Ward; Howard Hatton, Third Ward.

One vacancy is expected to be filled on the board of supervisors. It was reported Monday that John Hosbach, Second Ward supervisor, does not intend to file for re-election.

Clarence Everett, Third Ward supervisor, and Clement Stephan, former First Ward supervisor and now of the Second Ward, are expected to file petitions. Stephan's change in wards was caused by the recent reappointment of the city. His residence was included in that portion of the First Ward which was added to the Second Ward to make population of wards more uniform.

With Hosbach's retirement and the above change, a new First Ward supervisor will be needed.

Nominating petitions for the above city offices may be obtained at the city hall. Signatures of from three to five registered electors is all that is needed for a candidate to qualify for the primary.

At East Tawas, the terms of Aldermen Earl Hester, Edward Higgins and Robert Bolen are to expire this year, as well as that of the mayor, clerk and treasurer. Nominating petitions may be obtained at the city hall.

Burglars Crack Two Office Safes at Hale

Two Hale business places were hit Friday night or early Saturday morning by burglars and an attempt was made to enter a third building.

Safes were cracked at Hale Lumber Company and Ammond-Restener Oil Company office. Burglars found $312.11 in cash in the lumber company safe while they netted about $70 in the oil company burglary.

Both business places had been hit by burglars about three months ago and only small sums of money were being kept in the safes after that visit. The oil company had replaced the safe door only about a week ago.

Both safes were opened in the same manner as before. Combination of the lumber company's safe was knocked off and the pin was driven through the door which forced open locking lugs. A heavy tool was used to pry open the oil company safe, which is probably now damaged beyond repair.

Entry was made into both buildings by knocking off door knobs and forcing the lock. An attempt was again made to enter Hale Hardware, but this was unsuccessful. During the last burglary, a pry bar was stolen from the hardware and used to open the oil company safe.

The burglary three months ago was the first time in about three years that a safe had been cracked at Hale. On the previous occasion, burglars used an explosive to blow open a safe at the elevator. The burglars could have saved themselves the trouble because the safe door was not locked. They got $10 for their efforts, but were never apprehended.

Area Grows, Long Lake Has New Post Office

Saturday, December 2, the Long Lake post office moved into new quarters. It has occupied space in the J&J Market for many years and required larger quarters to handle its increasing volume of business.

Over a half century, there has been a post office in the village. Many life-long residents of the area have many fascinating stories about the early service and the kind of service available today.

The new building is located east of the Camp Grand Restaurant, Mrs. Delbert (Jackie) Dunham is postmistress. Mrs. Edwin Sharp is the postal clerk.

Upon completion of the building and parking facilities, a formal opening and dedication will be scheduled.

Site Made Available for Sanitary Land Fill

Site of a proposed new sanitary disposal grounds to be operated by Tawas City and East Tawas, along with possible participation of adjoining townships, was inspected last week by Reginald Bublitz, superintendent of public works of Tawas City, and Paul Ropert, superintendent of public works of East Tawas.

The property, located about one mile northwest of the present Tawas City dump on Gallion Road, was recently made available by the United States Forestry Department.

All governmental units of the state operating disposal grounds face compliance with more stringent regulations adopted by the state legislature. The new rules govern operation of a sanitary land fill, prohibit burning and restrict dump locations, to name but a few of the new provisions.

Since adoption of the new law, the state apparently had to relax enforcement to an extent, when it was found that many small governmental units would be forced to abandon operation of dumps because of increased expenses. If such service is not provided, highways and forests would become even more cluttered with garbage and refuse than is the case today.

Locally, it was the thought that dumping grounds should not be scattered throughout the federal forest by the several governmental units. As a result, a committee was formed by the two cities, along with representatives of adjoining townships, to discuss possible establishment of one central disposal ground.

Bublitz said that the proposed 20-acre site could serve adequately for 25 to 30 years. He believed that its operation would comply with state regulations requiring a sanitary land fill.

A buffer zone of trees, comprising a strip of approximately 600 feet, would be provided between Gallion Road and the disposal ground. He and Ropert inspected a proposed site for a main entrance gate. Directional signs would be of a type approved by the forest service.

Because of the operational cost involved, plus conformance with new state law, use of the proposed dump would be under strict regulation and would serve only those units sharing the cost. The present thinking is to have it open on Monday, Wednesday and Saturdays under supervision of an attendant.

Bublitz said that the committee is to contact representatives of adjoining townships to determine interest in the operation.

He said that the biggest problem which had faced the proposed joint operation, that of securing a suitable location, had been solved through cooperation of the forest service.

Historical Group Organizes Tonight

Initial organization of a proposed Iosco Historical Society is to take place tonight (Wednesday), 8 o'clock, at the county building. Officers and a board of trustees are to be named, along with a general discussion as to proposed goals and functions. John H. Weible, Alabaster Township supervisor named temporary chairman of a study committee formed by the board of supervisors, emphasizes that the meeting is open to any interested resident or former resident of the county.

East Tawas Council Authorize IDC Matching Fund

Monday night, East Tawas Council took the first step toward public financing of area industrial development and promotion by adopting a resolution authorizing a special revolving fund.

Representatives of the Tawas Area Industrial Development Corporation were to appear before the Baldwin Township Board Monday night seeking a similar resolution. The IDC had appeared before the recent meeting of Alabaster Township Board and is to attend a future meeting of the Tawas City Council and other township boards of the area.

East Tawas' resolution called for raising an amount equal to one-eighth mill, or approximately $1,000 annually, depending upon participation of other local units.

Mayor James Campbell said that the money would be used for site acquisition and industrial development.

In other business, the council authorized the city to reimburse Police Chief Donald Docking in attorney fees to be incurred in a $50,000 false arrest suit being brought against him and the county sheriff. The city had not been named in a suit filed by Roger Bauer of Detroit.

Joseph Badalucco, city park manager, reported that 153 campers had used facilities during November, resulting in fees of $560 and storage fees of $404. Total campers to date during 1967 amount to 18,986 and receipts for the year amount to $42,283.

THE CHRISTMAS STORY
ACCORDING TO ST. MATTHEW, CHAPTER 2

NOW WHEN JESUS WAS BORN IN BETHLEHEM OF JUDAEA IN THE DAYS OF HEROD THE KING, BEHOLD, THERE CAME WISE MEN FROM THE EAST TO JERUSALEM, SAYING, WHERE IS HE THAT IS BORN KING OF THE JEWS? FOR WE HAVE SEEN HIS STAR IN THE EAST, AND ARE COME TO WORSHIP HIM. WHEN HEROD THE KING HAD HEARD THESE THINGS, HE WAS TROUBLED, AND ALL JERUSALEM WITH HIM. AND WHEN HE HAD GATHERED ALL THE CHIEF PRIESTS AND SCRIBES OF THE PEOPLE TOGETHER, HE DEMANDED OF THEM WHERE CHRIST SHOULD BE BORN. AND THEY SAID UNTO HIM, IN BETHLEHEM OF JUDAEA: FOR THUS IT IS WRITTEN BY THE PROPHET, AND THOU BETHLEHEM, IN THE LAND OF JUDA, ART NOT THE LEAST AMONG THE PRINCES OF JUDA: FOR OUT OF THEE SHALL COME A GOVERNOR, THAT SHALL RULE MY PEOPLE OF ISRAEL. THEN HEROD, WHEN HE HAD PRIVILEGED THE WISE MEN, ENQUIRED OF THEM DILIGENTLY WHAT TIME THE STAR APPEARED. AND HE SENT THEM TO BETHLEHEM, AND SAID, GO AND SEARCH DILIGENTLY FOR THE YOUNG CHILD; AND WHEN YE HAVE FOUND HIM, BRING ME WORD AGAIN, THAT I MAY COME AND WORSHIP HIM ALSO. WHEN THEY HAD HEARD THE KING, THEY DEPARTED; AND, LO, THE STAR, WHICH THEY SAW IN THE EAST, WENT BEFORE THEM, TIL IT CAME AND STOOD OVER WHERE THE YOUNG CHILD WAS. WHEN THEY SAW THE STAR, THEY REJOICED WITH EXCEEDING GREAT JOY. AND WHEN THEY WERE COME INTO THE HOUSE, THEY SAW THE YOUNG CHILD WITH MARY HIS MOTHER, AND FELL DOWN, AND WORSHIPPED HIM: AND WHEN THEY HAD OPENED THEIR TREASURES, THEY PRESENTED UNTO HIM GIFTS; GOLD, AND FRANKINCENSE, AND MYRRH. AND BEING WARNED OF GOD IN A DREAM THAT THEY SHOULD NOT RETURN TO HEROD, THEY DEPARTED INTO THEIR COUNTRY ANOTHER WAY.

Music at Holiday Season

Music and singing is heard everywhere these days. The Christmas season brings with it a happier than usual spirit abroad. Music and decorations are seen in the streets and stores. The home is brightened by garlands and lights and suffused in an atmosphere of giving.

The sense of gladness and joy penetrates through the crassest commercialism. We respond with a warmth and friendliness that we also notice in others.

"The Christmas spirit" we say. "Why should this 'Christmas spirit' be present for a while and then retire to await another year? Why should it brighten our hearts for a season only? What happens to it after the change of the year? "The Christmas Spirit" had its beginning when the angels appeared to the shepherds with "I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people;" "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace, good will toward men," announcing the birth of Jesus. The fulfillment of this occasion was prophesied by Isaiah when he sang "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light."

Really the Christmas spirit need never leave us. The "great light" is still present and always with us. There might be a tendency for it to come and go if we become preoccupied with the circumstances of Jesus' Nativity. If we heed not the greater meaning of the words spoken to the shepherds and the life and works of the great Master.

The importance of Jesus to the world is surely his everlasting example to all of us. Responding to his appeal to us to accept the Christ into our consciousness and express it in our affairs is the true concept of Christmas.

His words were "I am come a light into the world that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness. . . if ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; and ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free."

Jesus spent his time on earth demonstrating that the power of God "makes free." His statements and proofs of God's love and provision for us must be the very truth to which he refers. These promises are meaningful to us this very day. Why?

Because we, too, can prove what Jesus proved. The truth he mentioned must certainly be the very presence of God who is with us continually and who if we know He is here and we are with Him we become aware of the freedom from most unhappy experiences.

TODAY'S Meditation

from The World's Most Widely Used Devotional Guide

Read Luke 1:46-55

These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you and that your joy might be full. (John 15:11)

Perhaps the sweetest joy a woman can know becomes hers when for the first time she nestles in her arms her first-born baby. How much greater was the joy of Mary, the mother of Jesus, when first she pressed Him to her breast!

What beauty of song must have welled forth again from her heart: "My soul doth magnify the Lord and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior. . . From henceforth all generations shall call me blessed."

Yet Mary's joy was but a tiny part of the infinite joy of God. His joy set the heavenly host praising Him and singing "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."

How wonderful to know it is God's infinite joy that flows through us as we share the glory of Jesus' coming with loved ones and friends—and mankind everywhere!

PRAYER
Our Father, make Thyself so real to us in all our Christmas joy that all persons around may sense Thy Son's presence and come to know and love Him as their Savior and Lord. In His name we ask. Amen.

One of the most popular symbols of the Christmas holidays, candy canes, began with an old superstition during the Middle Ages. Europeans of that period carries glass canes filled with colored candies to distract witches.

Walter Fetting Dead; Was Area Booster

Walter Fetting, 15311 Marlow, Oak Park, died Saturday, December 9, of a coronary attack. He was buried Tuesday, December 12, at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Detroit.

An honorary member of the Tawas Chamber of Commerce, Fetting was known as "Mr. Silver Valley" during the 1950s. A Sand Lake cottage owner, Fetting sponsored Silver Valley bowling teams in the Tawas and at Detroit for many years, in divisions for both men and women. He was a great booster of his "adopted" summer home.

One of his Detroit teams included such top bowling names as Louie Sielaff, Thurman Gibson, Fred Breckle, John Crimmins, Fred Bujack and George Young and competed against Tawas all-star teams on several occasions.

Mr. Fetting was born February 11, 1891. He is survived by his wife, Ruth; two sons, Milan of St. Clair Shores and Verne of Oak Park; three daughters, Mrs. Geraldine Marcos of Oak Park, Mrs. Arlene Salisbury of Dearborn and Mrs. Jeanne Hanson of Taylor.

F. N. Williamson Died December 13

Funeral services for Frank N. Williamson of Tawas City were held Saturday, December 16, at Moffatt Funeral Home, East Tawas. The Rev. William Lindholm officiated and burial was in Veterans Cemetery, East Tawas. He died December 13 at Tawas Hospital.

A World War I veteran of the United States Coast Guard, he was born December 31, 1893. Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Geraldine Leslie of Tawas City, a granddaughter and one brother.

Iceboaters Enjoy Perfect Weather

Tawas Arrow Iceboat Fleet No. 17 enjoyed excellent iceboating on VanEtan Lake over the week-end. Clear, hard December ice and winds of 10 to 30 miles per hour gave iceboats speeds up to 90 miles per hour.

VanEtan and Cedar Lakes are frozen and, with no snow, are in perfect condition for the sport.

Five races were sailed with the following results:

Stuart Jennings, first place, nine points; Don Jennings, second place, 12 points; Don Tripp, third place, 17 points; Gene Miller, fourth place, 19 points; William Cottrill and Marilyn Tripp, tied for fifth place with 26 points each.

Women's Club Met at Curtis Home

Whittemore Women's Club met at the home of Mrs. Robert Curtis Wednesday night for the regular meeting and annual Christmas party. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Fred Guilmette and Mrs. L. Lawe.

Twenty members answered roll call at the business session conducted by Mrs. Idella Wood, president.

Mrs. A. Aulerich had charge of the program. She presented an interesting and impressive religious program in keeping with the Christmas season.

The Curtis home was pretty with holiday decorations. All kinds of Christmas cookies, ice cream, tea and coffee were served.

Meetings of the organization will be recessed until March 6.

An exchange of gifts followed the close of the meeting and Christmas carols were sung by the group.

Mrs. Ethel Adamson and niece, Mrs. Lois Sorenson, of Flint were callers of Mrs. Alma Pake Wednesday. They were here to attend the funeral of Mrs. Adamson's brother, Harry Vance.

Mr. and Mrs. Remus Rigg spent Tuesday in Comins due to the illness of Mrs. Rigg's son, William St. James.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Bowsby were in Bay City last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Loy of Tawas City spent last Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dickey.

Mrs. Ledston Armstead, Mrs. Grace Gardner and son, Wesley Shurt, attended a funeral in Bad Axe Friday.

days the past week. Mrs. Idella Wood, who fell at her home two weeks ago, is able to be around a little on crutches.

Spruce Or Fir?

If you plan to keep a tree for just a few days, the Norway spruce is very well shaped, has good color and is perhaps your best buy. Its one failing is that it sheds its needles rather quickly. Any of the long needle pines such as the balsam fir & Douglas fir, last much longer but are more expensive.

Select the tree that has pyramidal shape, branches that come well down to the base, and with abundant foliage.

Christmas Tournament Next Week at W-P Area

City and Unionville at 8:45 o'clock.

Christmas Gifts Are Meaningful

Gift giving at yuletide dates back to the Roman Saturnalia, when those people presented their friends "strenae" (fruits, pastries, and even jewelry). Also we remember the rich gifts that the Magi, or the Wise Men, brought to the Christ Child in the manger at Bethlehem.

In recent years the custom has caused much discussion here in the United States; for it must be admitted that the exchange of presents can, at times, be a burden instead of a pleasure. We sometimes deplore the fact that Christmas, like other holidays, has become tinged with commercialism.

To offset this phase, we should remember the fine spirit of friendliness that is shown through Christmas messages and gifts.

may Joy be yours

We all wish you a very Merry Christmas

Authorize Receipt Book at City Hall

On recommendation of Mayor Russell A. Rollin, a registration book requiring the signatures of persons desiring to borrow or check out city-owned materials is to be established at the city hall.

Rollin told the council Monday night that the need of such a record was brought to his attention recently when property appraisal cards were transferred from the city's vault to the county building.

He said that while the appraisal cards rightfully belonged in the county building, the council should have been notified of this transfer. The city had hired Gem Survey to conduct a community-

Denies Petition

A petition seeking to vacate a portion of Oak Street at Sand Lake was denied last week by Isoco Circuit Judge Allan C. Miller.

Seeking to vacate the street were Walter W. Lapenes and Donald L. Stephens.

Filing Delay Would Mean Added Tax

Persons buying property have a little more than a week to escape paying double taxes on the purchase, according to Albert H. Buch, Isoco County register of deeds.

Buch said buyers purchasing property prior to January 1 will pay only the federal revenue stamp tax on the purchase if they also record the transfer of ownership prior to that date.

However, if they buy the property prior to January 1 and record it after that date they will pay both the federal revenue stamp tax and the new state revenue

ET City Assessor Offers Assistance With Exemptions

Effective the first week in January, Deloise (Dewey) Durant, city tax assessor, will be at the East Tawas City Hall on Tuesday and Wednesday nights, 7 to 9 o'clock, to assist senior citizens and veterans residing in East Tawas with tax exemption forms.

stamp tax for recording.

The revenue stamp tax is 55 cents per $500 value or fraction thereof and must be paid on every property purchase. (On instruments exempt from the tax, the reason of exemption cannot be stated in the instrument. The exemption affidavit must be filled out and submitted with the instrument.)

At present, the tax is paid to the federal government but individual states are taking over this source of revenue after the first of the year.

Anyone buying and recording the transfer of property ownership both after the first of the year will only pay one tax.

"It is just this possibility of people failing or forgetting to register property ownership transfers enacted before the first of the year that could cause some hard feelings," said Buch.

Buch said that a machine to print state revenue stamps on property instruments is expected to be received later this week. Under the old system, printed federal stamps were affixed to the legal document at the register of deeds office.

As a result of the state taking over the property transfer tax, it will mean that Isoco County will receive an additional $8,000 in revenue next year.

PLAYING an outstanding game in the Tawas Area Braves' 70-57 win over Pinconning was Howard Rollin, 31. Dale Koepke, 25, was high scorer.—Tawas Herald Photo.

Defeated Pinconning Spartans Braves 2-0 at Holiday Break

Tawas Area Braves scored big in the middle quarters of Friday night's NBC action and downed the Pinconning Spartans, 70-57.

Always a tough team for Tawas on home hardwood, the Spartans used a fast-breaking offense to hold the Braves to a 12-12 tie in the first quarter.

Both teams made many mistakes in passing and just could not seem to find the shooting range during the first few minutes of play. Guard Dennis Krish popped two field goals and a foul shot to top the first quarter scoring for Tawas while Krevinghoses had three field goals and two foul shots to pace Piny.

Playing without the service of Paul Beyer, who was out with a lame back, the Braves roared to life in the second quarter with Howard Rollin sparking his mates with aggressive defensive play and some great passing. Dale Koepke, top scorer of the night, meshed six field goals and the Braves were on their way to a 21-13 margin.

The third quarter was nearly a repeat of the second, only it was the dead-end shooting of Krish which topped Tawas' scoring attack. He had five field goals and Tawas wound up with a 25-13 margin.

Piny outscored the Braves, 13-12, in the final quarter which found Center Ron Doak and Dale Rieger, who filled Beyer's spot, sitting on the bench with five fouls each. Koepke scored nine points to lead the Braves and meshed five foul shots during the quarter. Three of the charity tosses came on one play when he was fouled in shooting and awarded an extra shot as team co-captain when a technical foul was called against the Piny coach.

The Braves had three men in double figures with Koepke leading the pack with 29 points. Krish had a nifty 17 points while Doak added 11 points. McGillen and Krevinghoses topped Piny with 15 and 13 points, respectively.

Tawas Area Junior Varsity did not fare so well at the Pinconning auditorium as the Little Spartans came up on the long end of a 51-37 score. Pinconning jumped off to a 13-11 first quarter lead and Tawas could muster only two points in the second quarter while Pinconning meshed 10. That was the game as far as Tawas was concerned.

Scoring for Tawas Area were Lickfelt, 13; Sheldon, 12; Baker, six; Look, Sventko and Mick, two points each. Lewis topped the Pinconning JV with nine points.

Action this week found Tawas playing at Gladwin Tuesday night. This ends action until January 5 when the Braves return from holiday vacation to host Standish-Sterling.

Tawas Area Senior Citizens Had Large Attendance at Party

The Christmas party and regular meeting of Tawas Area Senior Citizens Wednesday, December 13, was attended by 110. Decorations of the season graced East Tawas Community Building. Invocation was given by Kirby Milleur, president.

Gladys Klassen, special guest, presented a reading, "Four Fear Nots," which was followed by a Christmas solo with Mrs. Gerrit Meengs, accompanist. Officers elected for the ensuing year are Mr. Milleur, president; Carl Arft, vice president; Mrs.

George Liske, secretary, and Mrs. William Schaaf, treasurer.

A letter of appreciation from the family whom the club has remembered at Christmas was read by Mrs. Harry Sherbine. Gifts for members having November and December birthdays were presented from Mrs. Earle Crown.

Under the direction of Mrs. Meengs, carols were sung by the chorus, assisted by members. At the close of the afternoon, Santa Claus appeared with gifts.

The next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, January 10.

If you are willing to forget what you have done for others and to remember what other people have done for you; to ignore what the world owes you, and to think what you owe the world; to put your rights in the background, and your duties in the middle distance, and your chances to do a little more in the foreground; to close your book of complaints against the universe, and look for a place to sow seeds of happiness — if you are willing to do these things even for a day, then you can keep Christmas.

Believe that the needs and desires of little children are to be considered; and remember the weakness and loneliness of people who are growing old; bear in mind the things that other people have to bear in their hearts. Believe that love is the strongest thing in the world — stronger than hate, stronger than evil and stronger than death. You will be Keeping Christmas.

Christmas COOKIES

Some cookies are for Santa, of course. Others are for holiday nibbling and snacks, the quantity of which is probably without equal.

Some of the special joy of Christmas can be traced to the kitchen! This would not be as festive an occasion without the fragrance of holiday cookies or the happy hustle of getting them ready.

Put some cookies aside for carolers and tree trimmers. Decorate some with ready made icings as well as colorful sugars.

The following is an especially good sugar cookie, for eating and decorating.

4 cups sifted enriched flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 3/4 teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons nutmeg, 1 cup lard, one and 3/4 cups sugar, 2 eggs beaten, 1 teaspoon vanilla and 2 tablespoons milk. Form the dough in a ball and chill 3 to 4 hours. Roll on floured board to 1/8 inch thick. Cut with various shaped cookie cutters, bake on a greased cookie sheet. These are really good — Do shake some plain white sugar over some of them — yummy.

CAROLS AND CAROLING

Caroling was a popular pastime in England, where it is said to have come in common use after the Norman Conquest. Various religious carols composed in other lands were sung, and Englishmen produced some of our most beloved carols, including "Hark, The Herald Angels Sing" and "Joy To The World."

On Christmas eve, country carol singers spent half the night tramping the ice-bound ways and frosty woodlands, now and then striking up their old melodies, which sang of the heavenly birth and earth's substantial comforts and joys with impartial mixture. A fine hearty welcome greeted them at the houses and farmsteads, whose occupants sat up in impatient anticipation.

Kiwanis Collecting Trading Stamps to Aid the Blind

Tawas Kiwanis Club is in the process of collecting trading stamps to aid the Parent-Teachers Association of Michigan School for the Blind, Lansing. Allan Miller, lieutenant governor of Kiwanis International, who has a daughter attending the school, states that the organization cannot function as an ordinary P-T-A group as parents live in all parts of the state. Stamps will be used to purchase needed articles for the children.

Clubs are urged to solicit members to collect stamps which will be picked up by John Hosbach, president, or Kenneth Conn.

OUTDOOR TRIM

Pines, fir and spruce around a house can be safely decorated with lights, and add a Christmas touch to the entire neighborhood. Bulbs of 15 wattage are sufficient for outdoor glow. Hang outdoor sockets downward to prevent water and snow from collecting in them and rubber-jacketed cord should connect the lights.

In Lithuania

Lithuanians cover their Christmas Eve dinner table with layers of straw in memory of the night in Bethlehem. An unconsecrated wafer, symbolizing the love, harmony, and good will of the season, is shared by all the members of the family.

Gordon Fox, assistant superintendent of the Huron National Forest, has been named a member of the government's expedition to Peru to locate growing cinchona trees, the source of quinine.

Iosco County Library awarded certificates to boys and girls of the "Reading Club Army" this week. The club included 28 privates, 34 corporals, 24 sergeants, 51 second lieutenants, 29 first lieutenants, 33 captains, 29 majors, 31 with the rank of lieutenant colonel and 41 colonels. Holding the rank of lieutenant general for reading 12 books or more were Robert Squires, Alabaster; Gerald Putnam and Lee Herriman, Greenwood School; Ruth Nash, Ronald Johnson and Kathleen Bolen, East Tawas; Janet Dorsey, Whittemore; Mildred Smith, National City; Dale McKenzie, Reno School No. 1; Edward Schmidt, John Rescoe and Glenda Schneider, Lower Town Line School.

An original Christmas play for the seventh grade at Tawas City School has been written by Charlotte Minard, Lloyd Hughes, Donald Gingerich and Mildred Brown.

35 Years Ago— December 23, 1932—Two of the three men sought in connection with a murder and holdup at St. Clair Shores last Tuesday were captured in a cabin on the AuSable River Saturday. The two men were Leslie Mauer and Sam Lieb who, with two other men, were sentenced this week to life terms at Jackson Prison—after an elapse of only eight days from the time of the crime. Assisting Detroit detectives in making the arrest here were Sheriff Charles C. Miller and Cons. Officer Arthur Leitz. Capt. Donald F. Leonard of the Detroit State Police Post and Capt. Joseph Kearney of the Bay City post had charge of the capture. Leitz had been shown a snapshot of a cabin believed to be the hideout of the two fugitives. He recognized it as one located along the AuSable River and led officers to the scene.

Guests at the Hotel Iosco were startled early Sunday by a blast which wrecked the front end of the kitchen range. An outlet to the range's water coil was frozen, which prevented steam from escaping and a tremendous pressure was generated.

Jesse C. Hodder Post, American Legion, has taken possession of the Ward School building which has been leased from the Tawas City Board of Education. The school was discontinued two years ago when it was found that pupils could be taught at the main school building more efficiently and economically.

Due to scarlet fever, the dance at Alabaster has been canceled.

"If ever the time was ripe for a state income tax, it is now," writes a Herald subscriber. "The gasoline tax should be raised to at least six cents on a gallon and proceeds used for declining school funds. School and governmental expenses should be cut to correspond with other earned incomes."

The following eighth graders received buttons for having perfect teeth, following examinations by Doctor Ketek: Betty Holland, Thomas Metcalf, Dorothy Nelson, Madge Bruger, Allan Rouiller, Roy Rouiller, Janet Keiser, Effie Prescott, Marian Lickfelt, Laurie Frank, Dorothy McDonald, William Mallon and Robert Bradley.

Harry Vance of Reno Township Died December 10

A Reno Township resident, Harry Vance, died December 10 at Tolfree Hospital, West Branch, after a brief illness. Funeral services were held Wednesday, December 13, at Forshee Funeral Chapel, Hale. The Rev. Arthur Parkin officiated and burial was in Reno Township Cemetery.

Mr. Vance was born September 12, 1894, in Reno Township.

Among survivors are one sister, Mrs. Ethel Adamson of Flint; five nephews and three nieces, including Noel Hensley of Reno Township and Dola Sherman of Whittemore.

HOLIDAY ROBES... Pretty girls in pretty robes for the holiday season or, a gift that a girl can appreciate. If you're toasting marshmallows, it's fun to toast them in style.

Manger Scenes

The setting up of manger scenes of the Nativity has become a popular custom. The idea started in 1223, at Greccio, Italy. St. Francis of Assisi assembled such a scene with real people and live animals. He wanted to make the story of Christ's birth real to his followers.

This movement spread through Italy and to other lands, especially in Southern Europe, where manger scenes rather than the Christmas trees formed the center of the holiday observance. In the United States each year more churches, clubs, and homes use displays, both indoor and out.

The Moravian family sets up an elaborate Christmas scene - the "Putz" - which pictures not only the Holy Family, but also village scenes showing the life of the people.

CHRISTMAS, FLORIDA

Christmas, Florida, is a town of 250 people near Orlando. As a fort it was completed on Christmas, 1835, and so received its name. Connected with the other states by the United States mail, the post office has been kept busy throughout December remailing cards, letters, and packages.

In one year it handles over 300,000 pieces of mail. Lately a permanent Christmas tree with weatherproof ornaments has been erected.

TIME FOR SURPRISES

Every Christmas season is greeted with joyful surprises. The wonders of a greenhouse never cease. It is a continuing source for gifts. This year you can choose a plant for that someone hard to shop for. Gifts from your greenhouse are gratefully received.

...and much joy we send to you our patrons and friends

SYMBOLS

Before the Christmas era, evergreens were used in traditional ceremonies. Egyptians, celebrating the winter solstice (shortest day of the year) brought green date palms into their homes as a symbol of "life" triumphant over "death". The evergreen bough was used by the Romans in their observance of the feast of the Saturn. The Druids believed that a sprig of evergreen in the house meant eternal life; early Scandinavians paid homage to the fir tree, and the Norsemen saw in evergreens the revival of their sun god, Balder.

Turkey is Choice With Americans

Almost every nation has its own special Christmas dish. Since Americans represent people from all parts of the world, it is not surprising that one finds different holiday menus in the various parts of the country. Two thoroughly American pedigrees, however, are turkey and cranberries. Indians ate wild turkey, cranberries and pumpkin before the first European colonists arrived. The turkey today is a domesticated variety of the native wild turkey.

No Evergreen Trim Found in Finland

The homes and churches of Finland never use evergreens as trim or decoration, because they regard them as symbols of mourning. The homes, at Christmas time, suspend what is called a "heaven" from the living room ceiling. Their "heavens" consist of a cord framework covered with straw and different colors of paper and ribbon. Then it is covered with paper stars and silhouettes cut in various designs. The effect, when reflecting the firelight and the candles glow, is mysterious and fascinating. In the churches candles are used profusely; the altars are banked and the windows are filled with them. Before dawn on Christmas morning, churches beckon approaching visitors with this effect, like brilliant lanterns.

The Gay Nineties Festive Times

During the Gay Nineties, hostesses often announced in the newspapers the hours they would receive guests on New Year's. People arrived in their best finery — men in silk hats, with chamois skin gloves, and ladies in "stiff bombazine with sealskin tippets". Callers left their cards on trays in the reception hall, greeted the host and hostess, then went to the dining room, where tables held such substantial foods as roast beef, turkey, ham, relishes, along with all kinds of fancy pastries. Of course, punch and the traditional eggnog were dispensed in large quantities. After their guests had departed, the host and hostess often made a round of calls on their friends. As a result, the affair became a calling marathon. At times, undesirables managed to crash the parties; also guests who had imbibed too much at different homes sometimes caused hostesses embarrassment.

Popcorn Balls

Make a big batch so there'll be some to eat and some to hang on the tree. First have five quarts of popped corn... then 2 cups sugar, 1 teaspoon vinegar, 1 1/2 cups water, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1/2 teaspoon salt, Candy red dyes, 1/2 cup light corn syrup. Keep popcorn hot and crisp in a slow oven. Combine the five ingredients, cook to hard ball stage (250°). Remove from heat and add vanilla. Slowly pour syrup over hot popped corn, mixing well to coat every kernel. If you wish, stir in some candy red dyes for color. Butter your hands lightly before pressing popcorn mixture into balls.

Holiday Pie For Weight Watchers

Every dieter knows that fruit pies are loaded with "sugar and spice and everything nice and fattening." They can scarcely be considered appropriate fare for serious weight watchers. Not that it is, unless some calorie-cutting tactics have been employed in the kitchen. Calorie-conscious cooks are discovering that extra, unnecessary calories can be subtracted from many favorite dishes, simply by substituting low-calorie, even no-calorie ingredients for those that are excessively high in calorie count. Note that the holiday-minded Cranberry-Apple Pie, shown here, has been sweetened the calorie-free way with Sucaryl rather than with sugar. As the result, remarkable calorie savings are accomplished, yet no one can taste the difference.

Cranberry-Apple Pie (Low-Calorie)
2 cups fresh cranberries, 1/2 cup water, 2 tablespoons liquid Sucaryl, 2 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon butter, 3 cups sliced raw apples, 1 9-inch unbaked pie shell.

Preheat oven to 425° F. In saucepan, combine cranberries, water, Sucaryl, tapioca, cinnamon, and salt. Cook over medium heat until mixture thickens and berries begin to pop (about 8 minutes). Blend in butter and apple slices. Pour into unbaked pie shell. Bake 30 minutes, or until apples are tender. Makes 6 servings, each 197 CALORIES; 2 grams protein; 8.5 grams fat; 29.5 grams carbohydrate. (With sugar 341 CALORIES.)

DOMINICAN HOLIDAY

Christmas remains a religious holiday in the Dominican Republic. The Christmas dinner is enjoyed generally after the Christmas Eve midnight mass. Carols are sung in the streets. Through trade and social relations with the United States, Santa Claus is becoming more popular, but the children continue to receive their presents on January 6, when gold, frankincense, and myrrh were traditionally given by the Wise Men.

THE FIRST GIFTS

The first Christmas gifts were those which the Wise men carried to Bethlehem to lay before the Christ Child in the manger. Their gifts given in adoration, were precious items of the day — gold, frankincense, and myrrh. The latter two were gum resins used in medicines and perfumes. But, then as now, it is the spirit of giving rather than the gift itself that makes it most appreciated.

SIDEBORD BREAKFAST

It's an old English custom, breakfast off the sideboard. The informality of serving yourself is perfect for a holiday morning. Buffet breakfasts and brunches are an unusually attractive way to help the home-maker.

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS and a HAPPY NEW YEAR Mr. and Mrs. Clarence King

KING'S MARKET and BLUE DOT • SELF-SERVE LAUNDRY South US-23 Tawas City

NAMING CHRISTMAS

Christmas means both prayerful worship and festive merry-making. The holy meaning of the day is expressed in its name. The Latin name for Christmas translates as the Feast or Birthday of Our Lord. The English Christmas means the Mass of Christ, a meaning which is closely paralleled by the Dutch "Kermis". In Germany it's "Weihnacht", or sacred night.

Christmas Spirit

All of the preparations for Christmas have become traditional. The decorations for the house, the tree, fixing good things to eat, choosing the right gifts and remembering everyone that we should — all of this has become traditional. Christmas day usually is less feverish and more quiet. This is the time when the majority of us face up to the true meaning of Christmas and the spiritual blessings that attend the season.

State Police Announce Special Holiday Traffic Patrol Slated

Special holiday traffic patrols will be operated by the Michigan State Police for the Christmas and New Year week-ends, Col. Fredrick E. Davids, director, reports.

Davids noted that Michigan's traffic toll so far this year is showing a reduction of about 200 deaths compared with the same period in 1966, a decrease of about 10 percent.

In a traffic safety plea to motorists, he added, "Let's extend this improved traffic record right through the end of the year. I'm sure the continued cooperation of drivers and pedestrians can effectively counter the added risks of this season. Above all, drive and walk so that you keep your holiday unspoiled by an accident."

The Christmas patrols will begin at noon Friday, December 22, and continue until midnight Monday, December 25. The New Year week-end patrol hours will be from noon Friday, December 29, until midnight Monday, January 1.

Maximum patrol coverage will be provided by the state police from 3:00 p. m. to at least 9:00 p. m. each day of the holiday periods. Special attention again will be given to the sections of highways having had accident experience.

Last year, there were 30 persons killed in 24 fatal accidents during the Christmas period and 26 deaths were recorded for the New Year week-end.

Christmas Clean Up

Cleaning up after opening Christmas packages can be quite a chore. Before it's time for opening packages, have handy a couple large shopping bags. Find a good size cardboard box. You'll have a place for scraps of paper, a place for ribbons and trim you want to keep, and a carton for throw away boxes.

TWO HALE HUNTERS returned home last week with two large bull moose shot in Canada. Leo Thayer, left, Long Lake, and Roy Clough, Hale, are shown with trophy heads of the two animals. Hunting near Stevens, Ontario, Canada, the men hunted with Ed Trankle and Buster Dean of South Branch. They used snowmobiles to pack the animals out to the nearest road, about 1½ miles from the point where they made the kill. —Tawas Herald Photo.

Letter to the Editor—

More on Sodney's Indian Suit

The recent picture of Sodney in his beautiful deer skin suit stirred up a lot of memories of events that transpired before his death and afterward and during his life as a citizen of Hale.

The history and article about Sodney that was sent with the suit was written by Mrs. Nellie Jennings and was published in the Michigan Historical Magazine. The magazine was available in the Plainfield Township Library which was then housed in the Plainfield Township Hall.

Why was Sodney's suit sold to another state? Sodney died at the beginning of the depression. He had been ill for a long time. There was no money to pay funeral expenses, but the merchants in Hale took up a collection for this and also erected a small marker on his grave.

There were unpaid taxes on Sodney's humble home. The value of the house could not have been more than $500 at that time. Its assessed valuation would have been much less. Taxes over a three-year period could not have been more than $15. Was the suit sold to pay these taxes so the property would not be sold? If so, by what legal process?

Mrs. M. B. Ferry, who was curator of the Michigan Historical Museum in the Capitol at Lansing during the years that Sodney paraded in his suit, told Sodney that the suit was worth a great deal of money possibly hundreds of dollars because of its rarity and historical significance. Sodney gave Mrs. Ferry several valuable artifacts of Indian origin which are still on display in the Michigan Historical Museum.

Mrs. Ferry told Sodney that if the time ever came when the suit would be sold that the Michigan Historical Commission should have the first chance to buy it.

I heard these conversations because Mrs. Ferry was often a guest in our home and Sodney worked for my father. Mrs. Ferry was very interested in the Indian history that Sodney knew and told so well. He was letter perfect in these stories repeating them always in exactly the same way, never changing a syllable. It was thus that an Indian lore was handed down.

From the time I was a small child, I had the privilege of hearing these stories. I first met Sodney when I was five years old on the occasion that he was honored by Governor Warner.

Shortly afterward, Sodney came to work for my father and helped to clear our farm. He lived in our home for awhile then bought the house on the outskirts of Hale where his grandson, Louis Williams, still lives.

My mother made clothes for Sodney's grandsons when they were small and Sodney and Mrs. Williams being proud always gave baskets in payment.

Sodney supported his little household until his last illness. He always had work and never accepted a cent of charity.

He told us of his early childhood living in the woods with his Indian tribe when very young, then being adopted by a white family. He told about his wife and daughter many times. That is why Mrs. Ferry asked my mother to write his history and that of the suit for the Michigan Historical Magazine.

Sodney told us how his suit was made and what the beadwork meant. When I was eight years old, he had the Ottawa lady, then very old, make me a pair of bead-ed moccasins which I still own. Sodney gave me the Indian name, Chippewaquaz, which means miss of the Chippewas. Later, I was adopted into the tribe and John Silas bestowed the name on me officially.

Sodney's name was Mucka poosh and was misspelled in the copy of the article and is misspelled on his grave stone. The name, "Sodney," means suit but Mucka poosh is a title belonging to Sodney and to him alone. His father's name was John but not John Mucka poosh.

Sodney was strictly honest. He was one of the finest Christian gentlemen I have ever known. He loved white people and taught Louis and Ollie to like and trust white people. He regarded my father as his dearest friend. Shortly before my father's death which was also in 1929, Sodney, his legs swollen with dropsy, walked the mile to our home. He said in his unique abbreviated English, "Fred, we both sick men. We soon die. When I die, I want to be buried next to you. We old friends, we should lie together."

And so it was arranged. Sodney's cemetery lot is next to ours. His grandsons were brought up to love and trust white people but Louis did not know how or why the suit was sold. He wanted to get it back but no one could help him, because his friends could not find out where it was sold or how much was given for it.

Louis came to my mother and confided to her in his despair about the sale of the suit.

He said bitterly, "The white man stole everything from the Indians. Why did they have to have by grandfather's suit?"

Many of us are still asking, "Why was it sold and by what legal authority?"

It may be in this case that "we have sown the wind, and are reaping the whirlwind."

Very truly yours,
Marion L. Jennings

Do Not Cook Turkey Rolls Like The Bird

Cook a whole turkey to an internal temperature of 185 degrees and it will be tender and juicy. Cook a turkey roll to the same temperature and it will be tough and dry.

Recent research by Professor Dawson, Michigan State University food scientist, shows the "ideal" range for cooking turkey rolls in 160 to 165 degrees. As internal cooking temperature increases above this level, the dark meat becomes more tender but it also becomes drier and less palatable. The white meat becomes both drier and tougher.

At an internal temperature of 190 degrees, the white meat becomes tougher than dark meat.

The research shows that the nutritional value of the meat does not change as cooking temperatures are increased, but the meat will not have the flavor. Studies of meat composition showed basically no changes in protein content as cooking temperatures were increased.

Grenadine In Your Punch

You may wonder, as Marion Jaworski did recently, about grenadine, commonly called for in punch recipes.

It is used to flavor drinks and ices and comes from pomegranate juice. The pomegranate is an interesting fruit. It is the size of an orange, six-sided with a tough leathery skin, the color varies from pink to bright red.

To eat a pomegranate raw, break it open, dislodge the kernels—you may need a nut pick—and suck the flesh from the pits. The pomegranate kernels are also used as a garnish for desserts and salads.

Other Punch Ideas

If you are mixing fruit juices for a punch this holiday season and decide to substitute juices, watch that you do not combine pineapple and grape juices. They will produce, not a pretty blue as one might imagine, but a gray color because of enzyme action.

If you cannot find recipes, we have some in the office you may wish to look at, or call about.

To prevent cracking the punch bowl, be sure to place punch in the bowl before adding ice. Otherwise, the coldness of the ice next to the glass, with warmer punch poured in, can ruin your holiday table plans.

Use boiled water to make your ice ring for the punch bowl—flowers or cherries can be added to the water before it freezes.

Holiday Helps

Keep bulbs in every socket of your strings of tree lights. If you have no new bulbs to replace them, leave the burned-out bulbs to prevent metallic icicles causing a short-circuit on the bare metal of the socket. This prevents inquisitive little fingers from coming in contact with that bare metal, too.

Do not fail to collect all the books of instruction, warranties or hang tags, as gifts are opened and wrappings disposed of on Christmas. Remove candle wax from linens by scraping off as much as possible, then placing between clean white blotters or tissues and press with warm iron. Move tissue as it absorbs wax. Or, pour boiling water through the spot. If stain remains, blot with a grease solvent such as dry cleaning fluid.

Christmas Carols From Many Lands

A part of the Christmas celebration in America is the singing of yuletide carols. We hear them from groups of carolers outside our doors, from choir lofts in our churches as well as radio and television. The Christmas season is enriched by favorite carols.

Early settlers from Europe—lands brought us three of our favorite carols. "Away in a Manger" from Germany; "God Rest You Merry Gentlemen" from England and "Cantique de Noel" from France. "Adeste Fideles" belongs to no country, however, it has been translated into 119 different languages and dialects.

"It Came Upon A Midnight Clear" was composed by Edmund H. Sears, an American, in 1849. In 1859 Dr. John Henry Hopkins Jr. composed "We Three Kings of Orient Are". Dr. Hopkins was an American and the writer of "O Little Town Of Bethlehem" in 1868, Phillips Brooks, was an American too.

THE YULE LOG

The yule log is an old and honored Christmas tradition. It has almost vanished from our holiday celebration. The Vikings introduced the yule log to Great Britain. They burned it to honor the God Thor. The custom was adopted by the English as part of the Christmas festivities. The very best log that could be found was brought into the house and placed in their large fireplace. The fire was lit and the servants of the house gathered with their master. The coming of Christmas was celebrated with much singing and celebrating. The custom of those days was to celebrate the holiday season twelve full days and the log burned the entire time. At the end of the twelve days any fragments of the log that remained were carefully collected to be used again the following year to kindle the new Yule log.

Standish Now Using New Water System

Standish cut in its $300,000 water system last week, called one of the outstanding small city water plants in the nation. A completely automatic filter system takes raw water (chlorinated) from the Saginaw-Midland Water System and is able to produce as much as 450,000 gallons per day, almost four times the current daily demand. Cost of the filtration plant was $105,000 and the remainder of the $300,000 was used for constructing supply lines and new mains within the city. The city's water supply had been a constant problem for years. Until six weeks ago, the city had used water pumped from wells but a breakdown caused the city to switch over to the Saginaw-Midland source before the filtration plant was completed.
