

VHF Ham-Fest May Draw 300 Operators

Between 300 and 400 radio enthusiasts are expected for the third annual VHF Ham-Fest to be held at East Tawas October 6-8. Headquarters for the event is the Holland Hotel.

Name 3-Man Committee to Study Wards

A three-man reapportionment committee was appointed Monday night by Mayor James Campbell, with approval of the East Tawas Council.

This committee is to rearrange wards within the city on a population basis as nearly equal as practical, according to state law. Acting on the committee will be Aldermen Earl Hester, Edward Higgins and Robert Bolen.

According to a recent census compiled by Mrs. Nelson Bean, there were 640 persons in the First Ward, 845 in the Second Ward and 942 in the Third Ward.

In other business, the council approved Robert Trudell's Town and Country Subdivision plat at Tawas Lake with the provision that he retains a 33-foot wide street at the east end of Alice Street, if extended.

Building applications approved during the past two weeks included:

Muriel E. Hart, 209 East State, remove garage; Francis Halstead, 317 Sawyer Street, remodel guest house $200; Robert Adams, 512 Tawas Street, porch, $75; Thofiel DeMaet, 1008 Tawas Lake Road, remove house; Claude DeLoach, 512 Locke Street, change windows, $300; Francis Stafford, Rainbow Drive, 14 by 24-foot garage, $1,500.

School Board Handled Five Business Items

Five items of business were handled by Tawas Area Board of Education at a special meeting Monday night.

Discussion on salaries to be paid teachers for extra-curricular activities was referred to another meeting. Assistant Prin. Bill McKintosh and Supt. Reynold Mick are to prepare a list of salaries at flat amounts, rather than to pay teachers on a percentage basis.

Vern Bowling of the firm, Yeo and Yeo Certified Public Accountants, East Tawas, presented an audit report for the year.

Board members inspected a new type of bus body for possible purchase this year.

The board authorized blacktopping one-half of the playground at the East Tawas Elementary Unit. This had been discussed at last week's meeting, with a price of $4,430 for the project.

The board approved hiring of Mrs. Gennette McComb as the fifth grade teacher at Tawas City Elementary Unit.

Community Chest's Annual Drive Oct. 9

Tawas-Whitemore Area Community Chest will kick off its annual fund-raising campaign Monday, October 9, 9:00 a. m., at the Tawas Chamber of Commerce office.

The 20-day drive is calculated to end with a $13,097 "touchdown" goal.

John Skrocki, drive chairman, will explain to the volunteer workers how they can conserve their time and effort for the actual task of contacting each prospect. He realizes that campaign workers are very busy people with full schedules, but who take the time in order that they may give the drive a helping hand.

Each campaign worker will also receive campaign material and a list of prospects to contact.

Chairmen, co-chairmen and volunteer workers for 1967-1968 include:

Whitemore — Stan Osinski, chairman; Ray Kesler and Karl Bowsly, co-chairmen.

Tawas Township — Orville Strauser, chairman.

Grant Township — Mrs. Dale Butzin, Mrs. Onalee Kindall, Mrs. Lawrence Ball, Mrs. Russell Smithwick.

Sherman Township — George Jordan, chairman; Mrs. Lillian radio operator for more than 45 years.

Registration starts Friday, 6:00 to 10:00 p. m., at the Holland Hotel.

Saturday's program is to be centered at the East Tawas Elementary School Unit, where there will be swap and shop, a transmitter hunt at 12 o'clock noon, judo demonstration and movies.

There will be a family-style banquet starting at 8:00 p. m., followed by a "ham-of-the-year" award.

Sunday's program will include a transmitter hunt, auction and technical demonstrations.

For those not so technically minded, there will be tours of Wurtsmith Air Force Base, color tours on the AuSable River and cruises on Tawas Bay.

Buch said that more than 200 door prizes would be given to those attending the event.

Home Saved Through Alert Call to Firemen

Alertness of two East Tawas residents and promptness of the Tawas City Fire Department was credited Friday with saving the summer home of Edward Wilkie, Taylor, at 1657 South Douglas Drive, Tawas City.

Robert Scott and Jack Lake, both of East Tawas, were fishing from a small boat on Saginaw Bay and noticed smoke coming from a house on shore. They beached their boat, turned off a gas line leading to the house, called the fire department and directed trucks to the burning building.

R. J. Benn, son-in-law of Mr. Wilkie, who returned from the Upper Peninsula shortly after the fire was discovered, said Monday that the house can be repaired. Another 10 minutes and it would have been completely lost, he said.

Benn complimented work of firemen and the two alert East Tawas residents who discovered the blaze.

Shrubs Banned at TC Cemetery

At a meeting of the Tawas City Cemetery Board Monday, the board passed a resolution prohibiting planting of shrubs and trees on any cemetery lot effective immediately.

The board also authorized installation of flush curbing at the owners' expense and all specifications are to be followed as outlined by the acting secretary of the board, Martin Welina.

Whitford Operates Leonard Station

Larry Whitford is the new operator of the Leonard Service Station at 616 West Bay Street, East Tawas. He took over operation Monday morning.

Whitford had been head mechanic and later service manager for the Oldsmobile dealership for the past 4 1/2 years.

Community Chest's Annual Drive Oct. 9

Smith and Mrs. Edward Gerard, co-chairmen.

Reno Township — Mrs. James Mielock, chairman; Mrs. Richard Samson, co-chairman.

Tawas City — Mrs. Edward Savage, chairman.

East Tawas — Volunteer workers are still needed in this area. Call Mrs. L. G. McKay Jr., 362-3056.

Skrocki expressed satisfaction over progress to date in the 1967 campaign organization.

"The United Fund Campaign is not just another fund-raising drive," he said. "It is a contribution of almost 45 different drives, joined together to make your community chest dollar stretch as far as possible. It is the single, most important campaign measure in terms of the community's health, welfare and recreation."

The chairman said there is no reason why the campaign should not succeed here, but, in the long run, success or failure depends upon the individual pledges which finally add up small dollars at a time, to that $13,097.

"So please think about it long and hard. Show your care by giving your fair share. A lot of less fortunate people are waiting for you to decide," he stated.

Tawas City Asks State Atty. General's Ruling on Annexation Plans

Discussion continued this week on proposed annexation of that portion of the old fairgrounds property in Tawas City to the City of East Tawas as the site for the new home of Tawas Industries, Incorporated.

And, mentioned in the undercurrent of discussions before councils of Tawas City and East Tawas, was the possible consolidation of the two communities into one city.

Before taking any official action on the proposed property annexation, members of the Tawas City Council voted Monday night to request a delay by the Iosco Board of Supervisors on an annexation petition submitted to that group until such time as an official opinion on legality of the move and proper procedures have been established by the state attorney general.

A letter was to have been written Tuesday to State Atty. Gen. Frank Kelly by Supt. of Public Works Reginald Bulbitz and City Clerk Walter C. Nelson. City Atty. Alf C. Watson is to appear at Lansing October 11.

At Monday night's meeting of the East Tawas Council, that city authorized Mayor James Campbell to act as its official representative in presenting an annexation petition for the property in question to the board of supervisors October 10.

Campbell said following the meeting that East Tawas' action was merely to start the ball rolling at the request of Elmer Werth, president of Tawas Industries, Incorporated, which purchased the property three weeks ago from the City of East Tawas.

The East Tawas mayor said that no action could be taken on the petition until a public hearing, advertised for three successive weeks, was held. He emphasized that such a petition must be initiated by the city and not by the property owner, according to state law.

Appearing before the Tawas City Council Monday night were Paul Chevis, chairman of the city's planning commission, and James Dillon, secretary.

Chevis said that, from the planning commission's point of view, it did not feel qualified to answer any legal questions. The commission had recommended to the city council that it obtain an official ruling as to the legality of annexation from the state attorney general.

Chevis said that instead of getting into a possible hassle over boundaries between the two communities, now might be the time to "get the two towns together and merge into one city. Many people feel the same way," he said.

The planning commission chairman said that some Tawas City residents probably would be angry if the property is annexed to East Tawas and, on the other hand, some East Tawas residents would be angry if the property is not annexed.

"If we are going to stir up a hornets' nest, we might as well do it now," said Chevis, in commenting on merging of the two towns.

Dillon said he felt that the council had taken the proper step in seeking an official ruling. He believed there would be no trouble in solving any possible problem in assessing property comprising the proposed new plant, even if it did fall on present city boundaries. He felt, however, it was an obligation of Tawas City to improve its streets to serve the community's largest industrial employer, regardless if the site was annexed by East Tawas.

No action was taken on any possible counter offer by Tawas City, as one councilman pointed out that water service had been included in the package deal when East Tawas sold the property to Tawas Industries.

The site for Tawas Industries' new plant has not been on the tax rolls since the 1880s. It is included in the former fairgrounds property, which once extended from Washington Street in East Tawas to US-23 in Tawas City. In the early 1890s, part of the original site was made available to the railroad for construction of its shop buildings and yards.

Use of the fairgrounds was discontinued in the 1930s and the property was acquired by the federal government as a nursery. The property was then acquired by the City of East Tawas through a land exchange. The major portion was developed as the Werth Subdivision.

Approximately 10.7 acres of property remained, slightly less than six acres in Tawas City. Zoned industrial, it was sold to Tawas Industries, Incorporated, for $10,000.

Name Building Applications OK'd

Building permits approved by the City of Tawas during the past two weeks included Hugo Wojahn, 514 Maple Street, new siding, $500; Martin W. Mueller, 205 Second Avenue, eight-foot by 32-foot addition, $1,200; James Compo, 112 Hemlock Street, 30 by 25-addition to commercial building, $3,500.

Iosco County Registered its 15th Highway Fatality

Iosco County's highway death toll, already the worst in history, continued to climb as a car-truck collision early Sunday morning claimed the 15th victim.

Receiving fatal injuries at 1:35 o'clock Sunday morning was Mabel D. Bosley, 27, AuGres. She was alone in the car.

The Bosley vehicle, traveling south on US-23, collided with a K. J. Chadwick newspaper delivery truck south of the Tawas City city limits on a curve in front of the Allen Lutes residence.

Premont K. Grimes, 51, West Branch, escaped serious injury in the crash.

Investigating state police officers said that the Bosley vehicle was traveling on the wrong side of the road. Grimes was unable to avoid a collision and the two vehicles met head-on.

Another crash involving an Iosco County man last Thursday resulted in the death of four persons near the intersection of US-23 and M-65, Arenac County.

Harvey Smith, 31, Whittemore, was critically injured and admitted to the intensive care unit of Bay City Mercy Hospital.

Killed in the crash were Thomas Lynch, 63; his wife, Josephine, 59; Mrs. Suzanne Pima, 21, and her son, Robert, one year old, all of Dearborn.

Arenac County Sheriff Russell McCullough said the collision occurred when Smith attempted to pass a third car on the two-lane highway and could not pull back into his own lane in time.

The crash raised the 1967 highway death toll for Arenac County to eight.

Schoolmen Attend Meeting at Mio

Representatives of Tawas Area School attending a data processing meeting Thursday at Mio-AuSable Schools included Supt. Reynold Mick and Harry Crawford, federal coordinator. Iosco Intermediate School District was represented by Supt. Ernest W. Jordan Jr.

Some 84 school board members, superintendents, principals, counselors and teachers heard Dr. Rex Wood and his associates from the Oakland Intermediate School District discuss "What is data processing" and "What are its applications in the public schools and community colleges."

The meeting was sponsored by the North Central Michigan Polaris-Apollo study, which encompasses the 10-county area of Alpena, Alcona, Clare, Crawford, Gladwin, Iosco, Montmorency, Ogemaw, Osceola and Roscommon Counties.

A feasibility study carried out by the Polaris-Apollo study this past year indicates that a regional data processing center in the 10-county area could be effectively utilized by school districts to perform most of its record keeping tasks and permit them to free teachers and other personnel for classroom teaching.

Iosco Sheriff Seeks Warrant Against Two

Iosco Sheriff's Department is seeking warrants charging two men with assaulting a police officer and disorderly.

Deputies Andy Dolak and Dennis Frank were patrolling M-65 north of Hale September 30 when they spotted a car parked on a curve near Wicker Road. They stopped to give assistance.

When officers approached the car, they noted a shotgun and a spotlight on the front seat. At this point, the driver allegedly swung at Dolak and knocked his hat and glasses to the ground. The other man was said to have hindered Frank as he went to Dolak's assistance.

Charles T. Maxwell, Troy, was arraigned in justice court on a conservation violation and paid a fine of $25 and $7.50 court cost.

Maxwell and Richard M. Morrow were released on bond while the sheriff's department seeks a warrant against the former for assaulting a police officer and a charge of disorderly against the latter.

Strike Hits Kroger Stores

Strikes against the Kroger Company and other Detroit area supermarket chains may spread throughout the state this week. The Kroger strike, which started Friday, closed 70 of 80 Detroit area stores. If the entire Kroger chain is shut down in Michigan, more than 4,000 employees and 300 stores would be effected.

Sometime During October Prescott Arranges New Gill Net Hearing

State Rep. George A. Prescott, Tawas City, has announced that a public discussion will be held at Tawas City sometime in October for the benefit of people in the Saginaw Bay area to give them an opportunity to talk about the fisheries problem in Lake Huron.

"This opportunity was denied the people of my district at the session held last Monday night at the Wenonah Hotel," Prescott said. "Over half of those in attendance wanted to talk about Lake Huron, but the testimony was limited only to Lakes Michigan and Superior and the proposed gill net bans for the two lakes."

Prescott said that State Sen. Robert Richardson, Rep. Traxler and himself asked C. Troy Yoder, regional manager for the Michigan Department of Conservation, to schedule a hearing in the area for Lake Huron interests only and that Yoder has verified by telephone that an October date will be announced for the public hearing.

"This will give the people concerned about Lake Huron problems a chance to be heard and is only right and fair," Prescott said.

Pay Hikes Go to East Tawas City Workers

Across-the-board pay increases averaging about five percent were granted Monday night to city employees by the East Tawas Council.

R. E. McElheron, chairman of the finance committee, reported that increases would cost the city an estimated $3,200 per year on the basis of a 40-hour week.

"We find these wages to be equitable with surrounding cities of like population and have reviewed these rates with Mayor James Campbell, the superintendent of public works and chairman of the park commission," said the finance committee's report. Other members are Charles H. Schreck and Richard Moss.

Salary of the elected city clerk is to be increased $60 from the present wage of $960, effective April 1, 1968. No change was made in the city treasurer's salary, who receives $240 per year, plus three percent of the city tax and one percent of the county tax for collection. No change was made in the city assessor's salary of $500 per year.

The city librarian, who had received $190 per month, was given a $10 increase; the city office manager's salary of $310 was raised $15 per month; a five-cent-an-hour increase was granted the office clerk, formerly receiving $1.40 an hour.

Salary of the superintendent of public works was increased $30 per month with a salary now of $620; the city foreman, whose salary was $450 per month, received an increase of $50; the police chief received an annual increase of $500, making his salary now $6,500; salary of the park manager was raised to $8,500, an increase of $280; the assistant park manager is to receive $5,300, an increase of $260; the $400 monthly salary of the city patrolman was boosted $25 per month.

Ten-cent-an-hour wage hikes were granted to other hourly workers. This included mechanic, formerly $2.45 per hour; truck drivers, formerly $2.30 per hour; grader operator, who had received $2.40 per hour; laborers, who had received $2.05 per hour; water plant assistant, formerly $2.55 per hour.

With the 10-cent-an-hour wage increase, the cemetery sexton is to receive $1.90 per hour, the janitor is to receive $2.10 per hour and water meter reader is to receive $1.60 per hour.

The committee recommended that hourly rated personnel be paid six holidays a year, including Memorial Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day, Thanksgiving, New Year's Day and Christmas, provided the holidays fall on a normal Monday through Friday work day.

If a holiday is worked, it is to be considered as overtime, but is not to be considered as an extra day worked in that work week.

Three Handed Prison Terms by Judge Miller

Three men were sentenced to prison terms Friday by Circuit Judge Allan C. Miller.

Rollie T. Halvey was sentenced to one to four years in the state prison, Jackson, on conviction of larceny from a building.

James Pugett received a three to 10-year prison term for breaking and entering.

Clarence W. Parker received a five to 15-year sentence. He had been on a work release program for no account checks and was to repay $1,300. He had repaid only $265 since his release April 3 and was returned to Jackson as an habitual criminal.

Arraignments Friday included Edward C. Dropuljic, grand larceny from Branham Jewelry, East Tawas. A plea of guilty was accepted.

Wayne White was arraigned on a charge of uttering and publishing.

Gould-Dubovsky Wedding Solemnized September 30

In noon rites Saturday, September 30, at St. Joseph Catholic Church, East Tawas, the Rev. Fr. Arthur Mulka officiated at the double ring service uniting Diana Marie Dubovsky and Charles L. Gould in marriage.

Vows Said Sept. 30 at Taylor Church

The marriage of Miss Joanna Sylvia Taraban, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Taraban of Taylor, and SP4 Richard W. Samson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Samson of Whittemore, was solemnized Saturday, September 30, at St. Paschal Catholic Church, Taylor.

The Rev. Fr. Robert Kreucher officiated at the 10 o'clock, double ring ceremony. Mr. McCarthy, organist and vocalist, sang "Ave Maria" and "The Lord is My Shepherd." White carnations graced the altar.

A street length dress fashioned with rose-designed lace and long sleeves was chosen by the bride. An Alencon lace coronet held her shoulder length illusion veil and she carried a semicascade of white roses, white carnations and ivy.

Attending the bride was her sister, Patricia Taraban. She wore a white brocade dress accented with gold thread. Her veil was secured by a double bow. She carried tinted green carnations.

Dale Samson of the United States Navy was best man for his brother, Daniel Taraban and Gene Mettas of Taylor seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Taraban selected a rose beige sheath with beige accessories. Mrs. Samson wore an aqua wool dress with black accessories. White rose corsages adorned their ensembles.

Rehearsal dinner Friday evening and luncheon following the ceremony were served at Colony House, Detroit. An evening reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Sunday afternoon, the newlyweds were honored at an open house at the Samson home. Mrs. Irene Mott and Mrs. James Mielock assisted at the punch bowl.

Following a wedding trip to Canada and New York, the couple will reside at Fort Monmouth, New Jersey, where the bridegroom is stationed with the United States Army.

Hoyt-Clark Vows Said September 30 at Standish

Rexine Mary Oisten Clark of Whittemore and Ronald Lee Hoyt of Twining were married Saturday, September 30, at Standish. Jacques P. Gaele read the afternoon rites.

Attending the couple were Miss Edna Oisten of Whittemore and Mr. Hoyt's nephew, James Southworth of Twining. The new Mrs. Hoyt and her attendant wore light blue suits with white accessories.

Guests from Saginaw, Twining, Whittemore and Turner attended a reception at Turner Fire Hall. The couple will reside at Twining.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Dubovsky of East Tawas. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gould, also of East Tawas.

White gladioli and yellow chrysanthemums decorated the altar for the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Lucille Michaels served as organist.

Escorted to the altar by her uncle, George Dubovsky of East Tawas, the bride wore a peau de soie and imported Alencon lace gown fashioned with floor length skirt and oval neckline. The Empire fitted bodice was complemented with lace medallions, pearls and sequins. Her headpiece was a lace accented mantilla and she carried white chrysanthemums and yellow roses.

Bridal attendants were Miss Debra Dubovsky, sister of the bride, maid of honor, and Mrs. James Lamers of Oscoda. They selected sheath dresses with maize crepe skirts, moss lace bodices, round necklines, short sleeves and Watteau trains. Matching headpieces and veils completed their ensembles and they carried bronze chrysanthemums and yellow roses.

The bridegroom was attended by Robert Albosta, best man, and Raynard Powers, groomsman. Guests were seated by Ronald Doak and James Lamers.

The bride's mother chose a blue linen sheath dress. Mrs. Gould was attired in a rose knit sheath with matching coat. Pink and white flowers made up their corsages.

Following a reception for 125 guests at East Tawas Community Building, the couple left for a trip to New York. Guests were present from Lansing, Bay City, Oscoda, Saginaw, Detroit and the Tawas.

The newlyweds will reside at East Tawas.

Hostesses honoring the bride with pre-nuptial showers were Mrs. Arthur Anschuetz, Mrs. Jacob Montgomery and Mrs. Lamers.

Jane L. Krueger Commended for NMSQT Test

A letter of commendation honoring her for high performance on the 1967 National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (NMSQT) has been awarded to one student at Tawas Area High School, Prin. Billy R. Wilder has announced.

Commended was Jane L. Krueger, senior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Krueger of Wilber Township.

She was among 40,000 students in the United States who scored in the upper two percent of those who will graduate from high school in 1968. The commended students rank just below the 14,000 semifinalists announced in September by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC).

John M. Stalmaker, president of NMSC, said: "Although commended students advance no further in the merit scholarship competition, their outstanding record in a nationwide program deserves public recognition. Their significant academic attainment gives promise of continued success in college."

List Help for Needy College Prospects

After returning from a conference last week at Delta College, Thomas Pinkowski, guidance counselor at Tawas Area High School, said there was no reason in the world why a student with definite financial need, but who helps himself, cannot attend college.

Pinkowski and Robert Blood, also a guidance counselor, attended a conference designed to inform counselors of financial assistance available to students pursuing post-secondary education. This conference was sponsored by the Michigan State Department of Education.

In order to avail themselves of financial assistance available, students must write the preliminary scholarship aptitude test to be given October 10, followed by the State of Michigan competitive scholarship test November 11. Financial assistance is available in the form of state and federal grants, scholarships and loans.

District Federated Women Held Two-Day Convention

Members of the Michigan Federation of Women's Clubs were urged Monday to join a crusade to make America again a God-fearing nation and a strong believer in the incentive system of private enterprise.

The speaker was David M. Molthrop, community education consultant to National Small Business Association, Washington, D. C., who addressed the convention banquet held at the Holland Hotel.

Mrs. Neil Stirling, vice president, Clare, was in charge of program arrangements while Mrs. Gary Dutcher, past president of the Tawas Women's League and district treasurer, represented the host club.

"America is too young to die," Molthrop said. He called for a return to the "sound basic principles that have made this nation the world's strongest and the world's most powerful."

IN THE SERVICE—

Gary D. Runyan Assigned to Training Unit

Army Pvt. Gary D. Runyan is assigned to company D, 16th Battalion, fourth brigade, Fort Knox, Kentucky, in the United States Army Training Center, Armor (USATCA).

He will spend the next two months learning the fundamental skills of the soldier in today's modern, action army—firing live ammunition under simulated combat situations, learning protective measures and first aid for chemical, biological and radiological attacks, as well as being schooled in the use of modern arms.

Interspersed with constant emphasis of proper physical conditioning, diet, rest and health habits will be ample opportunity to utilize USATCA's many and varied recreational and religious facilities.

Following the completion of basic training, Private Runyan, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Runyan, Hale, will receive at least an additional eight weeks of either advanced instruction or on-the-job training to qualify him in a specialized military skill.

Duane L. Gruber Serves in Vietnam

PFC Duane L. Gruber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo L. Gruber, Hale, was assigned to the 62nd engineer battalion in Vietnam September 19.

Private Gruber, a radio repairman in the battalion's company C, entered the army in April 1967 and was last stationed at Fort Knox, Kentucky.

Captain Hanna is Dental Officer

Capt. Charles E. Hanna, a native of Pontiac, has recently joined the XXI United States Army Corps' United States Army Garrison, Indiantown Gap, Pennsylvania.

mand from Germany where he completed three years of service as a dental officer with the 122nd medical detachment.

Commissioned as an army reserve officer in November 1963, Captain Hanna began his active military service following graduation from the University of Michigan Dental School in June of 1964. His initial active army assignment was at Fort Sam Houston, Texas. Upon completion of the Medical Field Service School there, he was transferred to duties in Germany.

Since being assigned to Indiantown Gap Military Reservation, Captain Hanna and his family have resided in Hershey. The captain and his wife, the former Marlene Sedgeman of Tawas City, are parents of a three-year-old daughter, Denise. His mother, Mrs. Grace I. Hanna, is a resident of Bay City.

Terry Frank Left Again for Vietnam

Terry Frank, who is serving in the United States Navy, spent the past 30 days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Frank of Tawas City, after spending one year stationed in Vietnam. He left September 27 enroute to Vietnam for another six months. His address is:

Terry Frank

Oscoda Sailor Aboard Carrier

Airman Apprentice Martin R. Engel Jr., United States Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin R. Engel Sr., Oscoda, is in the Mediterranean aboard the attack aircraft carrier, USS Franklin D. Roosevelt.

This is the 17th deployment to the Mediterranean for the carrier during the last 22 years.

The PDR has spent more time on station in the Mediterranean than any other carrier in the navy. Other milestones in the carrier's history include winning three Admiral Flatley Aviation Safety Awards and being the first aircraft carrier to operate jet aircraft (1946).

During this deployment, the carrier will participate in various sixth fleet exercises and joint exercises with other NATO country ships.

Social Studies Association of NEM Held First Meeting

First meeting of the Northeastern Michigan Social Studies Association is scheduled for October 11 at Alpena High School. This is the third year of the organization and Mrs. Gordon Dunham of Tawas Area High School is association president.

The association provides in-service training for social studies teachers and the group comprises teachers from Essexville to Alpena.

A summer program was held with topics including audio visual, pilot television, curriculum study, working with slow or accelerated students, federal programs.

Duane Hayes of Oscoda is secretary-treasurer and Alfred Larson of Standish-Sterling High School is vice president.

Funeral Held for Mrs. Katterman

Funeral services for Mrs. Eva Miller Katterman of Tawas City will be conducted today (Wednesday), 2:00 p. m., at Zion Lutheran Church, Tawas City. The Rev. Ronald R. Farah will officiate and burial will be in the church cemetery. She died Sunday, October 1, at Saginaw General Hospital.

Mrs. Katterman was born December 3, 1910, at Lorain, Ohio, and married Lloyd H. Katterman April 22, 1933. She was a member of Zion Lutheran Church.

Surviving are her husband; two sons, James of Holland and Herbert of Lapeer; three daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Allen of Union City, California, Mrs. Arlene Bronson of Oscoda and Mrs. Shirley Colvin of Tawas City; six grandchildren; four brothers, John and Frank Birkenbach of East Tawas, Adam Birkenbach of National City and Stephan Birkenbach of San Diego, California; five sisters, Mrs. Mary Katterman, Mrs. Sophia Lorenz, Mrs. Lillian Wegner, Mrs. Josephine Blust, all of Tawas City, and Mrs. Theresia Frank of National City.

Law Makers to Lend Help in T. City's Bid for Postal Delivery

Letters from Cong. Elford A. Cederberg and United States Sen. Philip Hart state that they had received requests from the Tawas City Council seeking door-to-door postal delivery in this city.

Read at Monday night's council meeting, letters from the two officials said they had made every effort to place the request in the proper federal department and would report later on progress.

In other business, the council adopted a resolution calling for a public hearing to be held on the request of Joseph Barkman for a zoning change. The council has recommended that the lumber yard property be zoned B-2 commercial at the request of Mr. Barkman.

City Treas. Ruth Albertson reported that 90 percent of the city's taxes had been collected. A total of $50,049 in city tax bills had been mailed and $45,460 had been received as of Monday. There were still nine persons who have not paid personal property taxes as yet.

Police Chief George Westcott reported he had investigated 40 violations during September and 15 complaints. Fines and costs turned into the city amounted to $532.50.

Because of vandalism on the part of a few, the city may prohibit the use of firearms at the city dump. Supt. of Public Works Reginald Bublitz reported that between 50 and 60 bottles had been smashed in the roadway by gunfire. The city crew spent considerable time Monday morning cleaning broken glass from the circular road on the dump property.

Tpr. Brown Wins Promotion; Goes to East Lansing

Tpr. William L. Brown of the Michigan State Police, East Tawas, has been promoted to corporal and assigned to the operations division at East Lansing.

Brown enlisted in the state police April 9, 1956, serving first at Flat Rock before assignment in 1959 to East Tawas. His promotion was effective October 1.

He was born July 29, 1933, at Detroit; graduated from high school at Warren; attended Walsh Institute, Detroit, and Michigan State University, East Lansing, for one year each. He is married and has two sons and a daughter.

Hale Area's 2-Game Streak Ended Friday

Hale Area Eagles' winning streak was stopped at two games Friday night when Rose City came from behind in the final quarter to win, 7-6. The Eagles scored early in the first quarter when Quarterback Elite Shellenbarger went over on a one-yard sweep. The try for extra point was blocked.

This score climaxed a 65-yard drive which saw the Eagles control the ball for 15 plays.

The entire second quarter was played on Hale's half of the field as the Rose City squad pounded the Eagles with their backs to the wall. Hale's defense held off the attack.

The Eagles again found themselves in the third quarter and had a good drive going, only to lose the ball on a major penalty.

The winners scored with eight minutes left in the final quarter when Denstead went over the goal line and then scored the winning PAT.

Hale had one more crack at the victory when the Eagles moved to the Rose City 10, only to lose the ball again on another major penalty.

Charlie Kocher continued his fine running with 106 yards in 23 carries. Mark Brindley had 72 yards in 17 carries. Top defensive player was Lonnie Forshee.

The Eagles meet Atlanta this Saturday afternoon in Hale Area High School's homecoming game. Kickoff time is scheduled for 1:30 p. m.

Braves Finish Second at S-S Harrier Meet

Tawas Area High School's cross-country team finished in the middle of a three-way meet held Wednesday at Pinconning.

Standish-Sterling harriers won the meet with 29 points, followed by Tawas with 42 and Pinconning with 65.

Tawas runners placing were Bill Deckert, third; Bob Lake, fifth, and Terry Stonehouse, seventh.

Next meet for the Braves is October 11 at Carrollton.

Play at Pinconning Friday

TA Braves Outlast Buccaneers, 12-6

Tawas Area Braves jumped off to a two-touchdown first quarter lead Friday night and then had to stave off a determined Carrollton Buccaneer attack to win, 12-6.

The Braves took advantage of two early breaks in the game, but could not capitalize later on scoring opportunities close to their opponent's goal line.

Again leading the Tawas offense was its fine triple threat player, Dale Koepke, who scored one touchdown, passed for one TD, kept the visitors' defense off balance with another great punting exhibition and played a whale of a game on defense by intercepting three passes.

Tawas' defensive unit, led by Jon Schirmer and John Crisenbery, turned in a performance to equal that of a week ago when the Braves downed the West Branch Orioles, 7-6. The hard-charging Tawas line blocked two key Carrollton punts and recovered two fumbles in the backfield.

First touchdown of the game was set up by the Tawas defense when it recovered a fumble on the visitors' seven-yard line. Koepke scored on the second play from scrimmage on a quarterback sneak. Esben Pedersen, who booted the winning PAT last week, was wide on his kick from placement and Tawas held a 6-0 lead.

Later in the quarter, Tawas recovered another fumble. From its own 42, Tawas lost eight yards on the first running play and then took to the air. Koepke threaded a 30-yard pass to Halfback Mark Harris, who scampered for a touchdown, the play covering 69 yards in all. Pedersen had no chance to convert the point after touchdown when the snap from center was high.

The Braves blocked a punt at the end of the first quarter and recovered on Carrollton's 23. Tawas moved nine yards in four plays and was stopped by a good defense.

The visitors closed the scoring gap in the third quarter with aid of three successive penalties against Tawas. Moving from its own 25, Carrollton picked up 45 yards on a face mask tackle and two personal fouls. In five successive running plays, Fullback Dale Taylor finally scored from 12 yards out. The PAT attempt failed.

The visitors took to the air in the final quarter in an attempt to shake up the Tawas defense. The Buccaneers completed four out of 20 aerials during the night and Koepke turned in two key interceptions in the fourth quarter.

Tawas tried five passes during the night and completed two. Besides Harris' touchdown pass, Dave Lixey snagged another for about 20 yards.

Koepke's five punts during the night of 55, 39, 40, 46 and 36 yards were important factors in the win. The final punt, aimed for the sidelines, hit the goal line flag late in the fourth quarter and the visitors took over with their backs to the wall.

The Braves took over the ball on the final punt of the game and ran out the clock.

Tawas' offensive attack showed some improvement over the West Branch game with a couple of good runs by Harris and Lixey. It is expected to be strengthened this week when Tom Jacques, hard-running fullback from last year's junior varsity, returns to action this week. He had been unable to participate in the first three games because of an injury sustained last summer.

Tawas' line play was handicapped by the loss of John Freel, hard-tackling guard, who sustained a hairline bone fracture in his leg in the first game and probably will not see action for most of the season.

After three successive home games, the Braves take to the road this Friday night when they travel to Pinconning.

After trouncing West Branch junior varsity last week, the Junior Braves fell before Alpena High JV, 46-7. The lone Tawas TD came on a pass from Quarterback Tim Lickfelt to Mike Sventko.

DALE KOEPKE, Tawas Area's triple-threat halfback, is shown here taking off on a jaunt against Carrollton Friday night. Koepke scored one touchdown and passed for one TD.—Herald Photos.

DAVE LIXEY of the Tawas Braves is about to be tackled in this picture after picking up good yardage against the Buccaneers. Tawas will meet Pinconning Friday.

Going To The Dogs

Would you say our supermarkets are going to the dogs? Each year, the nation's supermarkets sell 600 million dollars worth of cat and dog food... and locally, some of Michigan's largest markets offer more than 138 different items for pets from huge bags of dry dog food to fur-lined cat collars and rubber mice. It is a fact that Americans spent more money on pet food than on baby food last year. Pet foods are only one group in the growing list of nonfood items found in our food stores these days... a list of products that takes one-fifth of the money we spend there and often class as "food money." If we subtract the nonfood dollars, we will find we spend less to feed the family than we thought.

Sliding Glass Doors

When Carl Edwards, Michigan State University extension agricultural engineer, discusses building or remodeling homes, he always gets around to discussing glass sliding doors. Here are a few things Mr. Edwards says about them:

Sliding glass doors admit much light into the home and give a feeling of bringing the "outdoors inside." This is fine for the architect to plan, the interior designer to use and the owner to enjoy but the owner has problems to face, too.

The idea of using sliding glass doors started in homes built in the warm climates such as California and Florida. With the adoption of ranch-type houses in the northern states, the sliding glass doors came along with them. They are seen so frequently in new houses that they are naturally associated with the up-to-date look and thereby have established an image of value. Many homeowners who have them enjoy the feeling which is created from the sunshine admitted to a dining or living area.

One of the main problems created by sliding glass doors is heat loss during the cold months. Where the metal frames are exposed to warm air on one side and cold air on the other, considerable heat loss occurs. In some cases, the glass in the doors is welded double-plate with an air space between the two thicknesses of glass. This type of glass has much less heat loss than single plate glass. Heavy draperies can be used to reduce the heat loss and to close visibility through the doors for privacy.

Condensation of moisture on the inside of the glass or door frames, especially near the bottom, is a disagreeable problem to many owners. When humidity inside the house is kept at a comfortable level, ice may form along the bottom of the doors so the doors cannot be opened. The frost or ice continually melts, causing wetting of the door sills and flooring area. Loosening of floor tiles and delamination of plywood under the flooring near the doors are common problems. The condensation at the bottom of the doors wets the draperies causing discoloration and deterioration.

Sliding glass doors are heavy and the hardware that holds them must be strong and durable. Some owners have found worn hardware makes the doors hard to move and in some cases, the doors will not stay closed without locking. The locks on sliding glass doors are usually not as large and sturdy built as the locks on other exterior doors of the home.

Michigan's High Loss Focuses Attention on Fire Prevention Week

Michigan's high fire losses of 297 lives and almost 65 million dollars in property damage in 1966 sharply focus attention for this year's Fire Prevention Week on need for vigilant day to day safety precautions, said Capt. Glenroy M. Walker, chief of the state police fire marshal division.

Fire Prevention Week is October 8-14.

Walker said the home last year again proved to be the most dangerous place for loss of lives by fire. He said 101 of the 163 adult deaths and 115 of the 129 child fatalities resulted from fires occurring in the home.

Michigan analysis showed that careless smoking and clothing catching fire were leading causes of fatal fires for adults. Defective heating units and playing with fire were major causes of child deaths.

The Michigan fire death toll in 1966 was a new high for the state and the damage total ranked second only to the 78 million dollars loss in 1953.

Walker suggested these precautions:

Instruct occupants of dwellings and buildings in fire safety practices. Give special attention to night evacuations.

Do not leave young children at home unattended. Be sure that sitters or others supervising children in the absence of parents know what to do in event of fire.

Keep firemaking devices out of the reach of youngsters.

See that all electrical appliances and equipment are properly maintained and in good repair.

Avoid overloading electrical circuits. Always use fuses properly rated for the circuit because they are fire safety values.

Safely dispose of combustible waste and properly store any flammable material. Be especially careful when handling flammable liquids.

Regularly inspect building heating equipment and structures, giving special attention to the pre-winter heating season check.

EMTA Convention Scheduled Oct. 18 at Bay City

The East Michigan Tourist Association will hold its 57th annual convention Wednesday, October 18, in Bay City.

More than 400 business members, county supervisors and local officials are expected to attend the one-day meeting at the Wenonah Hotel.

Key business items will be the 1968 tourist industry advertising preview and industry development involving conservation, education and legislation.

Fred B. Fletcher of Bay City, association president, will preside at the all-day session.

Forest Chats

TAWAS RANGER DISTRICT Huron-Manistee National Forests By Stuart Bailey, Forester

Soon our district will be bustling with people again. The roads along the AuSable River and in the Maltby hills will be in motion with cars filled with people out to experience the brilliant fall coats of the hardwood trees.

If you take a drive this fall, and I recommend that you do, you will notice that some kinds of trees such as red and sugar maple have brilliant colors and some trees such as the oaks have dull colors. This is only one aspect of the beautiful phenomenon of leaves turning into their varied array of colors.

Let's pretend we are a drop of water and see what causes this autumn phenomenon. Slurp, and we are sucked into the tree through a root hair. Up, up and up we go through a maze of little tubes under the bark. We continue our journey through limbs and twigs until we reach a leaf. In the leaf, we may join hands with other materials to form chlorophyll which gives the leaves their green color. Or we may join different materials to form other pigments such as xanthophyll (orange and yellow colors) or anthocyanin (red color).

Now that we are in the leaf we can see what causes the leaves to turn color. These pigments show up in different parts of the plant such as flowers and fruits. But some are also retained in the leaves. When fall comes around, a thin layer of cells form across the base of the stem of the leaf. These cells stop the flow of materials into the leaf ceasing production of food and pigments.

Gradually, the chlorophyll is used up by the sunlight. As the chlorophyll vanishes, the other pigments begin to appear. The leaf color is determined by the kind and amount of pigment present.

For example, red maples have more of the red pigment, therefore, their leaves are usually the most brilliant of all. Sugar maples and elms and aspens have mostly yellow pigment. And if you look closely at the leaves, you may see splashes of different colors on one leaf. Each splash is a pocket of pigment in the leaf.

What happened to Jack Frost? Let's say he sews the leaf stems shut so that his paint in the leaves will show through. Sort of like unveiling his canvases.

Fires can ruin streams—be careful!

but always "IN" hot water!

The fast-recovery electric water heater is a silent, automatic servant you can banish to whatever location that's most convenient and promptly forget. But when baby needs a bath or daddy needs a shave, you can depend on it for plenty of hot water . . . Johnny on the spot. And when it comes time for dishes and laundry, you can depend on the compact fast-recovery electric water heater to provide all the hot water it takes to make your glassware glisten and your wash smell "clean as all outdoors".

The heavy demand for hot water in today's modern homes is easily met by the fast-recovery electric water heater with its high-speed units that bring water up to "hot" quickly, any time of day or night.

See your nearest electric appliance dealer or Consumers Power Company for a new, fast-recovery electric water heater.

Life Membership Award Presented to Earl Partlo

At the regular meeting of the Whittemore Masonic Lodge, Earl Partlo, a 40-year member, was presented with his life membership award in consideration of his long and distinguished service to the lodge and craft. The presentation was made by Lloyd W. Osborn, worshipful master of the lodge. A large number were present to congratulate Mr. Partlo on his attainment.

A social hour and refreshments were enjoyed following the meeting.

Mexico Slides Shown at Women's Club Meeting

Whittemore Women's Club met at the home of Mrs. Fred Guilmette with 14 members and two guests present. Hostesses were the officers of the club.

Mrs. Idella Wood, president, presided at the meeting. The program was on Mexico. Miss Joann Peters, a 4-H member, who spent a week this summer with other 4-H members in Mexico City, was present and showed slides of places she visited while there and explained each picture. She displayed several items she brought back.

The program chairman, Mrs. Irving Brown, announced the next meeting of the club, October 11, will be at the home of Mrs. A. Aulerich instead of the home of Mrs. Carlsen as stated in the club book. Roll call was a city in Mexico.

Guests were Mrs. Fogarty and Mrs. Cronin, both of Detroit. Pumpkin pie and whipped cream, tea and coffee were served by the hostesses.

ATN3 Al Phelps, United States Navy, son of Mrs. Irene Phelps, is spending a 30-day leave at his home here. He has been on board the USS Tallahatchie Co. AUB2, home ported in Naples, Italy. After his leave, he will go to Memphis, Tennessee, for schooling.

A surprise birthday dinner for Mrs. Maude Munroe Sunday was enjoyed at a family gathering in honor of her 81st birthday anniversary at the home of her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Basil Goupil of Whittemore. Relatives from out-of-town who attended were Mrs. Lois Coshatt and sons, Patrick and James, of Wayne; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gregg and son, Ronald, of Snover; Mrs. Jackie Matthews and four children of Birch Run, and the Clarence Bellville family.

Thirteen members of Whittemore Chapter, OES, attended the AIA Association in Oscoda Thursday evening.

Friends are pleased to know Mrs. Grace Killey has returned home from Mercy Hospital, Bay City, much-improved in health.

The two-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Nichols is a patient in Tolfree Hospital, West Branch.

A number from here attended the graveside services at Greenwood Cemetery, Hale, for Max Gallant Tuesday afternoon.

Oramel O'Farrell of Farmington spent the week-end here. His father returned home with him after a two-week visit there.

Maj. William Snyder arrived from Germany Saturday evening. He will have a month's furlough before going to Vietnam for a year. His wife, the former Joann Higgins, and three children will reside at Wurtsmith Air Force Base, Oscoda.

Richard Wasilewski and Dennis Grabow are home from the service on a furlough before leaving for Vietnam.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Charters of Midland were callers in town Sunday.

Mrs. Ida Miller and sister, Mrs. Emma Fogarty, spent the week-end in Alpena with their sister.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Heilmann and two children of New York are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Grabow.

David and Dale Kasiechke of Tawas City spent the week-end with their cousin, Rick Fuerst.

Maj. and Mrs. William Snyder spent Monday and Tuesday in Detroit and Birmingham.

Mrs. Ella Higgins visited Mrs. Lizzie Fuerst in Turner Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arden Charters attended an IGA Convention at Boyne Mountain the past week.

Charles Brooks left Wednesday for his winter home in New Port Richey, Florida. His son drove him down and flew back.

Mrs. Irene Phelps, who has been a patient in Tolfree Hospital, West Branch, the past two weeks due to a bad attack of asthma, was able to return home Friday much improved.

LOOKING BACKWARD—

State Rules Equalization was Improper

15 Years Ago—

October 3, 1952—Michigan State Tax Commission Chairman L. M. Nims has ruled that property valuations in Iosco County have been improperly equalized by the board of supervisors for 1952. A petition had been filed with the state by seven supervisors asking a determination. An order was filed establishing the county's equalized valuation at $33,180,874. Assessed valuation of the townships and cities had been $13,956,155.

while the board of supervisors had equalized the county at $14,500,600 last April.

School electors in the Tawas area at Tuesday's election took the first step in the program of improvement and expansion of facilities to meet the rapidly growing needs of that community. A vote of 1,358 "yes" and 396 "no" was cast for district reorganization.

William Mallon, manager of Mackinac Truck Lines, and Gordon Everett, manager of Ottawa Equipment Company, attended the fall conference of the National Truck Leasing System held at St. Louis, Missouri, early this week.

The United States Civil Service Commission announces an open competitive examination to fill the position of postmaster at Whittemore.

Fire Chief Fred Musolf, in a National Fire Prevention Week report, said that fires in Tawas City and Tawas Township cost taxpayers $374 through firemen's payroll during 1951. He urged residents to inspect heating equipment and electrical wiring to prevent a costly fire later when heating equipment is being used to capacity.

After losing to Beaverton, 4-3, at the Hale diamond last week, Hale came from behind at Beaverton to win a double header, giving the Western Iosco team the National Division championship of the Northeastern Michigan League. Coming from behind in the eighth inning with two runs, Hale's Earl Slosser became the member of old as he retired Beaverton in order for two innings. Slosser then turned around to pitch six-hit baseball in the second game and Hale won easily, 15-1.

25 Years Ago—October 2, 1942—Iosco County Republicans have drafted Herbert Hertzler of Alcona County for prosecuting attorney to fill the vacancy on the ticket made by the withdrawal of Graydon Withy of Flint. Hertzler has practiced law at Harrisville since 1932 and served two terms as prosecuting attorney.

"Brave men shall not die because I faltered," will be the motto of Iosco County children during the scrap metal drive which starts next Monday morning. Starting the drive off with the largest gift to date was H. E. Friedman, who donated several tons of iron, steel, rabbit metal, bronze and copper.

Rationing of men's rubber boots and rubber work shoes went into effect Tuesday.

Smoked fish by parcel post is the new selling feature being tried by Henry Brown of Tawas City. He has received several letters from customers in various parts of the country stating that shipments were received in perfect condition. Fish have been shipped to Florida, Pennsylvania, Missouri and other states.

Tawas City Council accepted a bid of $101 from M. W. Jackson of West Branch for the old American LaFrance fire truck.

More than 30 persons signed up for the home nursing and first aid courses at Plainfield Township Hall. Anyone wishing to join these classes may contact Eunice Salisbury, home nursing chairman, or Mrs. Herbert Townsend, first aid chairman.

35 Years Ago—October 7, 1932—During dedication of the new Shore Road at the Hotel Iosco Monday, Gov. Wilbur M. Brucker declared that paving of the road would not stop at the Tawas, but as state finances would permit, the road would be completed to Mackinaw City.

The Rev. W. A. Gregory has been transferred from the Lexington charge to the Tawas City, East Tawas, Wilber and Oscoda Methodist Churches and will hold his first services here on Sunday. Professional Services Program Under Study in Three Counties

The probe continues for the Bay-Arenac-Iosco study group as parents, teachers, school administrators and board of education members discuss possible approaches for a professional services program designed to serve the three counties.

Disabled Children Under 18 Years Eligible Under SS

Dependent unmarried sons and daughters who were disabled before their 18th birthday are potentially eligible to social security benefits regardless of their age. These benefits can start when the parent, upon whom such a child was dependent, begins to receive either retirement or disability benefits. These payments may also begin when the parent dies before reaching retirement age and eligibility to survivors benefits is established.

21st National 4-H Dress Revue

When the 21st national 4-H dress revue is presented at Chicago, Illinois, November 28 in the Grand Ballroom, Conrad Hilton Hotel, 51 of 4-H's top models will be introduced. They will wear clothes they have made and that have passed the close inspection of 4-H clothing specialists. The 1967 revue will be called "Fashion Formulas" and will be one of the main attractions of the National 4-H Club Congress November 28-30.

The talented young women, ages 14 to 19 years, will represent all 50 states and Puerto Rico. Their expenses to the national event will be paid by Simplicity Pattern Company, Incorporated, the dress revue program sponsor since 1947.

more and Prescott school teachers and staff September 25 with Thomas H. Kennedy, program director and consultant, and Dr. Donald J. Barr, project director of the University of Michigan Institute of Social Research, revealed several directions of mutual concern the program could take in the basically rural district.

The need for professional education services in the area, such as health educators for both school and home settings; special education assistance for rapid and slow learners; social workers on a circuit basis; guidance and counseling for elementary school teachers and students, were discussed by the group.

"One of the most interesting and potentially helpful services mentioned was an elementary guidance and counseling program with primary attention focused on the needs of the teacher in coping with a rural classroom," said Kennedy.

"This would be a departure," he added, "from counseling the child most of the time. There also could be conferences on the child's development with counselor and parent."

"The teacher is the core to identification of the child in his elementary school environment," said Doctor Barr, who is an elementary school counseling specialist.

First FHA Meeting at W-P Area School

The first meeting of Whittemore-Prescott Future Homemakers of America was staged September 21. New officers are Sandy Smith, president; Kay Siegrist, vice president; Joane Peters, secretary; Cathy Currie, treasurer; Chris Miller, parliamentarian; Darlene Burkholder, historian; Penny Parkin, pianist; Peggy Zimmerman, song leader; Cindy Erickson, reporter. Plans were made for attending the regional meeting at Tawas Area High School October 14. It was decided that the group would sell chrysanthemums for the homecoming game October 13. Following the business meeting, a pot-luck picnic was enjoyed.

4-H Club Week Through October 7

With the expansion of 4-H into the suburbs and cities, certain projects are ideal for off-the-farm youngsters to pursue. One of them is home improvement.

Any boy or girl between nine and 19 years of age can enroll in 4-H, says the Cooperative Extension Service. Information about joining can be obtained from the Iosco County Extension Office, Federal Building, East Tawas.

Annual awards and educational aids are provided by the program sponsor, The S&H Foundation, Incorporated. In November, national scholarships of $500 each will be awarded for the six most outstanding projects in the 50 states and Puerto Rico. Winners will be announced at the 46th National 4-H Club Congress at Chicago, Illinois, the week following Thanksgiving.

In addition, one 4-H'er from the state will be a home improvement delegate to the congress with all expenses paid by S&H. Through-out the county, as many as four members will receive the 4-H honor medal for having completed a superior project.

"A World of Opportunity—Join 4-H" is the slogan for 4-H Week being observed through October 7.

DAHPNE AND DAISY STAGE A SEW-IN

Strains of sitar music wavered through the room. Cross-legged on the floor sat Daphne and Daisy, practicing the lotus pose. "I'm wearied of pondering life and love," sighed Daisy. "Pause a moment more," whispered Daphne. "A wave of inspiration is breaking over me. I've got it! Let's stage a sew-in."

"You mean like patch the holes in our jeans?" Daisy chirped. "No, I mean creating a whole new back-to-school image, like a chrysalis turning into a butterfly. First we make a pattern decision. Take Simplicity 7284, it's us. This shifty tent has such liberated lines, with a nifty stand-up collar and long, slim raglan sleeves. "A girl can gadabout in a dress like this and drop in anywhere looking well-dressed," said Daisy. "Start out on a Saturday morning shopping spree, stop for a ladylike luncheon and go on to a matinee. Make it a mini with matching bloomers for the lounge-about life. Consider the top to toe look of textured stockings toned to match kicky shoes."

So the sew-in started swinging. All day long, sounds of fabric rustling, pins dropping, scissors snipping and the machine whirring filled the room. Finally by sundown, only the hems were left undone.

"Daisy, stop giggling. Put on your shoes and stand up straight." "What fun!" squealed Daisy, clapping her hands. "You measure me and I'll measure you. Do you know this gimmick? Mark your hem level on the yardstick with a rubber band."

Will Daphne and Daisy make their date at eight dressed like new girls in town? Yes, when a hem hangs by a thread, forget it. There's an instant way of hemming a skirt with "COATS" iron-on seam binding. All you have to do is mark the hemline where you want it to be, pin it in place and press the fold. Center adhesive side of binding over the raw edge and presto it's done, with the point of a dry iron. Old skirts in need of new hems can be made instantly shorter, too.

"Tra la la," sang Daphne and Daisy in unison. "We are delighted over our very first, made-by-you-and-me dresses with absolutely-perfect-instant hems."

So much of pie making becomes routine through practice. Don't let all the instructions make you hesitate. With practice, anyone can whip up a pie easily and nonchalantly. A good standard recipe followed is the trick. We've also added a few pie secrets to make sure you get an excellent product.

Handle dough as little and lightly as possible. Too much handling develops the gluten in the flour and the crust becomes tough.

With pastry blender or two knives, scissors fashion, cut one-half of shortening into flour until like cornmeal—for tenderness. Cut in rest of shortening until like large peas—for flakiness (cut all like peas if extra flakiness is desired). Use light cutting motion—don't mash the fat or overwork it. This can cause the fat to become too soft and the mixture will not take up enough water to make pastry flaky.

Sprinkle water (cold if flaky pastry desired) 1 tablespoon at a time, over different parts of mixture, tossing quickly with fork until particles stick together when pressed gently and form dough that clings to fork. If more water is needed, add ½ teaspoon at a time just enough to gather dough together.

With cupped hands, lightly form dough into small ball and allow to stand 5 minutes before rolling.

Divide dough about in half if for two-crust pie. Round up larger part on lightly floured cloth-covered board—the rolling pin covered with stockinette. Flour rubbed into covers keeps dough from sticking—yet is not taken up by dough. Flatten dough ball with hand, roll out not quite ½ inch thick. Roll the dough with short, light strokes, lifting up as you reach edge so dough doesn't become too thin. Roll about a 12 inch circle. Fold pastry in half and scoop under it with a broad spatula to transfer to pie pan. Unfold. Avoid stretching. Trim off edges with scissors. Roll out other part of dough for top crust a little thinner than for bottom crust and large enough to extend one inch beyond edge of pan. Fold extra edge of top pastry under edge of lower pastry. Seal thoroughly by pressing together on edge of pan. Flute edges and bake as recipe directs. For a pie in which filling is piled into the baked shell, make as for 1-crust pie then prick pastry with fork and bake at 475° for 8 minutes. If pastry persists in puffing up, quickly reach in oven, prick again in two places. When cool, pour in filling.

NUT PASTRY: Follow recipe for single crust pastry, adding ½ cup finely chopped walnuts to flour and salt.

CHEESE PASTRY: Follow recipe for single crust pastry, stirring in ¾ cup finely shredded sharp Cheddar cheese before adding water. Good with apple pie.

ORANGE PASTRY: Follow recipe for single crust pastry, using orange juice in place of water in recipe, add ½ teaspoon grated orange rind.

BANANA MALLO PIE

- 1 package vanilla pudding (3 ounces)
- 1½ cups miniature marshmallows
- ½ cup heavy cream, whipped
- 2 bananas, sliced
- 1 9-inch baked pastry shell

Prepare pie filling as directed on package using 1½ cups milk. Cover with waxed paper; chill. Fold in marshmallows and whipped cream. Slice bananas into pastry shell; pour filling over bananas. Chill several hours. Garnish with additional banana slices, if desired.

LEMON-CRANBERRY MERINGUE PIE

- 1 baked 9-inch pastry shell
- 5 tablespoons (½ cup) cornstarch
- ¼ cup flour
- 1½ cups sugar
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 1½ cups boiling water
- 1½ tablespoons margarine
- 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind (1 lemon)
- 7 tablespoons lemon juice (½ cup minus 1 tablespoon), about 2 lemons
- 1 1-pound can jellied cranberry sauce
- 3 egg whites
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 6 tablespoons sugar

Mix cornstarch, flour, sugar, and salt. Add boiling water gradually, stirring constantly to prevent lumping. Place over direct heat. Cook slowly until thickened throughout, stirring constantly. Cook, uncovered, over simmering water, about 10 minutes, until clear and thick. Stir 2 or 3 times. Stir a small amount of the hot mixture into the egg yolks. Combine with the remaining hot mixture. Continue cooking over simmering water, about 5 minutes, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Add margarine, lemon rind, and juice. Blend thoroughly. Cool about 5 minutes. Pour two-thirds of the filling into the pastry shell and spread filling around side up to the fluted edge to prevent cranberry jelly from touching pastry. Spread with three-fourths of the cranberry jelly that has been finely broken with a fork. Top with remaining filling. Make meringue: beat egg whites and salt until frothy. Add sugar gradually, beating constantly until peaks form when beater is withdrawn. Cover filling with meringue. Bake at 350° for 12-15 minutes or until tops of the irregular surface are golden brown. Best served the same day pie is made.

CHOCOLATE POLKA DOT PIE

- 1 envelope unflavored gelatine
- ¼ cup cold water
- ½ cup sugar
- 1 tablespoon cornstarch
- 4 eggs, separated
- 2 cups milk, scalded
- 1 package semi-sweet chocolate morsels (6-ounce package)
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 1 9-inch baked pastry shell

Make and bake 9-inch pastry shell. Soften gelatine in cold water. Combine ½ cup of the sugar and cornstarch. Beat egg yolks slightly; slowly add scalded milk. Stir in sugar mixture. Cook in double boiler, stirring constantly, until mixture coats spoon. To 1 cup custard, add ¼ package semi-sweet chocolate morsels. Stir until chocolate is melted; set aside. To remaining custard add softened gelatine. Stir until gelatine is dissolved; add vanilla. Chill until the consistency of unbeaten egg white. Beat egg whites until stiff; gradually beat in salt and remaining ½ cup sugar. Fold into custard-gelatine mixture. Stir chocolate mixture; turn into pie shell. Pour gelatine mixture over chocolate layer and chill until firm. Scatter remaining morsels of chocolate upside down over pie to resemble polka dots.

APPLE STREUSEL PIE

- 1 unbaked 9-inch pie shell
- ½ cup sugar
- ½ teaspoon cinnamon
- 6 cups sliced pared apples
- ½ cup margarine
- ¼ cup brown sugar
- ½ cup flour

Prepare single crust pastry. Combine sugar, cinnamon. Mix with sliced pared apples. Fill unbaked pie shell. For topping cut margarine into ¼ cup brown sugar and ½ cup flour. Sprinkle over apples. Bake at 425° for 30 minutes, or until apples are tender and topping is browned.

TOFFEE DREAM PIE

- 8 or 9-inch baked pastry shell
- ½ pound miniature marshmallows
- ½ cup milk
- 5 (¾ ounce) chocolate covered toffee bars, crushed
- 1 cup heavy cream, whipped
- 2 tablespoons diced, toasted California walnuts

Prepare 8 or 9-inch pastry shell. Combine miniature marshmallows and milk in top of double boiler. Heat over hot water, stirring occasionally, until marshmallows melt. Remove from heat. Stir in toffee bars until partially melted. Chill until thickened but not set. Beat cream until thick. Fold gently but thoroughly into marshmallow mixture. Spoon into baked pie shell. Chill until firm, at least 3 hours. Garnish with walnuts.

APPLE DUMPLINGS -

6 apples $\frac{1}{2}$ cup sugar
Pastry for two-crust 9-inch pie 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon cinnamon

Roll out pastry a little less than $\frac{1}{8}$ inch thick, and cut into six 7-inch squares. Pare and core a medium-sized, tart, juicy apple for each dumpling. Place an apple on each square of pastry. Fill core cavity with sugar and cinnamon mixture. Overlap, moisten, and seal. Lift carefully, place a little apart in baking dish. Pour hot syrup around dumplings. Bake at 425° for 40-45 minutes until crust is nicely browned and apples are cooked through. Serve warm with the syrup and with cream or whipped cream.

Syrup

1 cup sugar 3 tablespoons margarine
2 cups water $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon cinnamon
Combine ingredients and boil together for 3 minutes.

STEAMED APPLESAUCE PUDDING

3 cups flour 1 cup applesauce
 $\frac{1}{4}$ cup sugar $\frac{1}{4}$ cup light corn syrup
1 $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoons baking powder $\frac{1}{4}$ cup water
1 teaspoon salt $\frac{1}{2}$ cup seedless raisins
 $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon soda $\frac{1}{2}$ cup suet
1 teaspoon cinnamon $\frac{1}{2}$ cup chopped dried apricots
 $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon ginger $\frac{1}{2}$ cup chopped California walnuts
2 eggs, beaten

Sift together flour, sugar, baking powder, salt, soda, cinnamon and ginger. Mix eggs, applesauce, corn syrup, and water. Add to flour mixture and mix thoroughly. Stir in raisins, suet, apricots and walnuts. Pour into greased 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ quart mold. Cover with double layer of waxed paper tied securely over top of mold. Steam. To steam pudding, put 2 quarts of water into a large covered pan with a rack in the bottom. Place covered mold with pudding on rack and cover pan. Use high heat under pan until steam escapes, and then reduce to low. Steaming should be steady but gentle. Steam 2 hours. Unmold. Serve in slices with lemon or apricot sauce or whipped cream. Makes 1 pudding.

APPLE CURRANT LOAF

$\frac{1}{2}$ cup warm water 2 cups dried apples, soaked, drained, chopped
1 teaspoon sugar 3 cups flour
 $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon ginger $\frac{1}{2}$ package currants
2 packages dry yeast 1 cup flour
1 cup warm apple juice 4 tablespoons evaporated milk
 $\frac{1}{2}$ cup honey 4 teaspoons sugar
2 cups flour 2 teaspoons nutmeg
 $\frac{1}{2}$ cup dried skim milk
4 tablespoons soft shortening
1 $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoons salt

(To prepare the dried apples, cover 1 pound with hot water and let stand overnight. Drain off juice and if there should not be enough, add water to make 1 cup. Cut out any hard places in the apple slices and cut into small bits. This is done easily with a pair of shears. Do not sweeten.)

Combine the first 4 ingredients and let stand in a warm place until bubbling nicely. In a large bowl stir together 1 cup apple juice, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup honey, 2 cups flour, and $\frac{1}{2}$ cup skim milk. Add the yeast mixture and beat well. Add 4 tablespoons soft shortening, 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoons salt, 2 cups chopped apples, 3 cups flour, and $\frac{1}{2}$ package currants. Stir the fruit into the flour until well dusted before mixing down into the sponge. Stir until the dough clears the bowl. Spread 1 cup flour on the pastry board, turn out dough and knead well. This will make quite a stiff dough but additional moisture will be released from the fruit during the baking period. Return to the bowl, grease top of dough, cover and let rise until double in bulk. This will take about 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ hours. Turn out, knead well and divide dough into 4 equal portions. Form into loaves, place in greased pans, brush tops with margarine and let rise until light. Again, this will take about twice as long as for straight dough. When ready for oven, brush tops with evaporated milk, sprinkle with sugar and nutmeg, well mixed together. Bake in oven preheated to 350° F. for the first 15 minutes, reduce heat to 325° and continue baking for 40 minutes. Remove from oven and allow loaves to cool for a few minutes with pans turned on their sides, before removing from pans.

FALL DELIGHT

$\frac{1}{4}$ cup margarine $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon cinnamon
1 cup sugar 1 cup flour
1 egg 1 teaspoon soda
 $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon salt 2 cups chopped tart apples
 $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon nutmeg

Combine margarine, sugar and egg, beat until smooth, add sifted ingredients. Mix in the apples. Pour in greased pan (8x8). Bake at 350° F., about 40-45 minutes. Serve warm with the following sauce:

$\frac{1}{2}$ cup margarine $\frac{1}{2}$ cup cream or evaporated milk
 $\frac{1}{2}$ cup sugar
 $\frac{1}{2}$ cup brown sugar

Mix in top of double boiler and heat until well blended.

FROSTY APPLE BITES

2 cups flour 1 teaspoon vanilla
 $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon soda $\frac{1}{2}$ cup evaporated milk
 $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon salt 1 cup California walnuts, chopped
 $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon nutmeg 1 cup pared, chopped apples
 $\frac{1}{4}$ cup margarine $\frac{1}{2}$ cup semi-sweet chocolate morsels
1 cup firmly packed brown sugar
1 unbeaten egg

Sift flour with soda, salt and nutmeg. Cream margarine. Gradually add brown sugar, creaming well. Blend in egg and vanilla; beat well. Add the dry ingredients alternately with milk, beginning and ending with dry ingredients, blending well after each addition. Stir in walnuts, apples and chocolate pieces. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto lightly greased cookie sheets. Bake at 375° for 12-15 minutes. Frost with Cinnamon Glaze while warm. Makes about 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ dozen cookies.

Cinnamon Glaze

2 cups sifted powdered sugar 1 teaspoon cinnamon
3 tablespoons melted margarine 2-3 tablespoons evaporated milk

Combine powdered sugar with margarine and cinnamon. Add evaporated milk until of spreading consistency.

A north wind blew its cold breath down our necks as we crouched low on the crest of the hill. We were hunkered down behind a fence line where we had woven cornstalks and sticks between strands of barbed wire to make a blind.

We watched off in the distance as several black specks materialized over a grove of oak trees. "They're coming our way," my companion said. "Don't move a hair, and let them get in close before you shoot."

The birds pumped up the hill of corn stubble toward us. They were low, fighting the wind that whistled down at them. They were almost within shotgun range when suddenly they swung upwards and rode the wind back toward the oak trees.

"Something spooked them," my hunting pal said, and though I didn't tell him, I knew that the slight movement of my hand toward the trigger of the shotgun had been enough to "goof" our shooting.

It doesn't take much to goof our kind of hunting, because we were after Mr. Corvus brachyrhynchos, that super intelligent professor of the feathered world, otherwise known as the crow.

An hour before, we had toted decoys across the muddy field and hung them in nearby trees. We also placed some of them in the field in front of the blind. The blind was located on a flight line that the crows used to get to a roosting site after feeding forays over farming area.

We wore camouflage gear, complete down to veils that dropped over our faces. The wind was strong and in the right direction to keep the birds low.

It was, in fact, an ideal set up; and if I could remember to keep my itchy trigger finger from moving ahead of time, we would get shooting.

Along with other factors in our favor, we had with us a healthy respect for crow intelligence; and the hunter who does not possess this had better gun for something stupid like pheasants or ducks. Ring-necked or mallards couldn't pass crow college entrance exams. There are crow hunters who contend that crows can count, and if you go into a blind with sight of a flock, it is necessary to run back and forth in two's and three's until the bird becomes mathematically confused. Only when their subtraction and addition becomes muddled, so the theory goes, will they venture within range of the blind.

One aspect of crow mathematics that is never in doubt is its multiplication. Christopher Columbus was the best thing that ever happened to the American crow. Since he pointed the way for the White man, the crow has ridden the shirt tails of civilization to ever greater numbers.

Much to the consternation of farmers and waterfowl biologists, the crow has managed to carve out a larger and larger niche in the American outdoor scheme of things. Natural crow predators have been removed, and modern land use presents a virtual smorgasbord for the ever hungry crow.

The crow diet consists of 70 per cent vegetable matter, and when this vegetable matter is made up of seed that the farmer has just planted, a crop can be nearly destroyed before it has seen the light of day. For this reason, the crow hunter is most often welcomed by the farmer, and the hunt can frequently provide a foundation for friendship that will carry over to other outdoor pursuits.

A survey some years ago revealed that crows destroy one-third of the waterfowl egg production in many areas. The black bandit is the greatest cause of waterfowl decline, next to the loss of wetlands.

These factors combine to give the crow a reputation as black as its feathers, but the bird seems to thrive on its notoriety. It has developed habits that see it surviving in every corner of the country, from wilderness farms to heavily populated suburbias.

The crow likes to nest in a coniferous tree. It builds a rough nest of sticks and twigs 20 to 60 feet up in a tree. From four to six eggs are usually laid. They hatch after 18 days of incubation. The young crows bring with them into the world an appetite that is astounding. The parent birds work from daylight to dark to feed the young; and, understandably, the older birds urge the young to develop flight as soon as possible—within five or six weeks of hatching.

An immature bird requires about half its body weight in food each day to keep it going. An adult crow will fill its crop eight or ten times a day. This filling takes a lot of corn.

Because the crow is so plentiful and because its villainous ways have put it on every possible "Wanted" list, it is becoming the target for more and more hunters. In this day of shrinking hunting opportunity, what better object of a hunt than a smart, tricky flying character like the crow.

There is no one sure way to hunt crows. In addition to the method of intercepting them on their flight lines—to and from roosts, generally—there is the popular combination of decoys and calls. All crow hunting requires careful study of the bird's habits, but decoying and calling demands an even more careful approach. Decoys must be naturally set, and one false squawk on the call will send crows scurrying into the next county. Some crow shooters prefer an electronic call—a small phonograph and amplifier—for this reason.

to get your game.

Carrying a four-leaf clover might improve your shooting luck.

But a box of Remington shotgun shells with "Power Piston" is a lot surer.

"Power Piston" puts up to 10% more knockdown power in every pattern. And that gives you a 10% better chance to get your game.

No mystery. The rounder the shot, the straighter it travels and the harder it hits.

"Power Piston" keeps the shot a lot rounder. Keeps pellets from flattening against the inside of the barrel and against each other.

So more of them fly true. Up to 10% more.

Other people make shotgun shells. But only the Remington people give you the patented luck of "Power Piston".

WILD GAME TAMED

by Betty Curren

Sharing the trophies of the hunt with other folks at the table seems to multiply the pleasure hunters get from a fine day's shooting. Game birds and animals provide a range of flavor delicacy as wide as the variation of the sport in hunting for them. The quality and flavor of game, however, depends to a very large extent on the care they receive after the hunter has bagged them. The simple rules to follow are these: The birds should be drawn soon after they have been shot. The body heat should be allowed to dissipate as quickly as possible. The birds should be kept cool or at cold temperatures until they are to be cooked.

When testing game birds to determine those which are young and tender the stiffness of the bill is usually significant. If pheasants and grouse, for example, can be lifted by the lower jaw and nothing breaks, they are mature birds whose jaws are set. They will not be as tender and will require more cooking than the younger, less developed birds. Young ducks can be determined in the early part of the season by the slight continuation of the stem of the tail feathers which will extend about one-eighth of an inch beyond the fibres, a certain indication of a young bird.

We wouldn't fry a stewing chicken; so don't try to dry roast an old game bird. If you choose the proper method of cooking, the meat is delicious. The following recipes show you the way. You will be proud to serve any of these recipes "under glass" just like the famous San Francisco recipe of "Pheasant Under Glass."

RABBIT PIE

1 rabbit
Water to cover
4 chicken bouillon cubes
1 cup carrots, diced
1 cup celery, diced
1/4 package frozen peas, cooked and drained
3 medium onions sliced
1/2 cup butter
Pastry for 2-crust 9-inch pie

Cut out bloody spots on rabbit. Boil rabbit in water for 15 minutes. Throw this water away. Rinse rabbit thoroughly. Add fresh water, enough to cover meat. Add 4 chicken bouillon cubes. Cook till meat is tender, about one hour. The last half hour add carrots, celery. When meat is tender remove from bones into bite size pieces. Make pie crust. Put into pie crust meat, carrots, celery, peas, and gravy which has been thickened. Put buttered onions on top, add top crust which has been vented to allow steam to escape. Bake 425° for 30-40 minutes. Serve in generous pie slices with extra gravy on top. A deep-dish 9-inch pie plate is preferable.

ROAST WILD DUCK WITH ORANGE SAUCE

1 or 2 ducks
Salt
Celery salt
Pepper
Quartered apples
Onions, chopped
Celery, chopped
2-3 cups beef consomme (canned or made with bouillon cube)

Clean well, draw and for those who do not care for the strong wild flavor either soak in cold water brine (2 tablespoons salt to 1 quart water) overnight or par-boil in salted water with half an onion before roasting. Otherwise—season with salt, celery salt and pepper inside and out. Prepare quartered apples, onions, celery or oranges and fill bird. Skew or sew up and place breast down in 2 inches of beef consomme in a roaster with lid on. Place in 350° oven for 1 1/2 hours or until tender. For last 30 minutes turn breast up to brown. Serve with the following Orange Sauce. Discard dressing inside duck.

Orange Sauce

1/4 cup margarine
3 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 cups consomme
2 tablespoons currant jelly
1 dash cayenne pepper
Grated rind of one orange
1/4 cup strained orange juice
2 figgers sherry or white wine
1 tablespoon kitchen bouquet

For best results prepare in a double boiler. Melt margarine, blend in flour, salt and cayenne. Stir in consomme and kitchen bouquet. Just before serving add orange juice, rind, currant jelly, and wine. If thicker consistency is desired, add corn starch.

QUICK ORANGE RICE

1 1/2 cups - 1 1/2 cups orange juice
1 1/2 cups minute rice
1 1/2 tablespoons butter

Bring orange juice, and butter to a boil. Stir in rice. Cover, remove from the heat, and let stand 8 minutes. Fluff with fork before serving. Yield: 4 servings.

ROAST WILD GOOSE

1 wild goose
Salt
Pepper
1/2 teaspoon garlic powder or 1 clove garlic, crushed
10 slices bacon
1 tablespoon parsley, dried
1/4 teaspoon sage
1/4 teaspoon thyme leaves
1/4 teaspoon basil
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 teaspoon poultry seasoning
2 cups chicken bouillon
1 large onion sliced

Fill bird with dressing (recipe below). Cover bird with bacon slices which have been dipped in seasonings of parsley, sage, thyme leaves, basil, nutmeg and poultry seasoning. Surround bird with chicken stock and onion. Roast 400° for 15 minutes with the lid off; then 350° with lid on about 3 hours depending on age and weight of goose. One half of goose may be cooked in same way and freeze other half until later time.

Dressing

3 cups soft bread crumbs
1/2 teaspoon garlic powder or 1 clove garlic, crushed
1/4 teaspoon sage
1/4 teaspoon thyme leaves
1/4 teaspoon marjoram
1/2 teaspoon poultry seasoning
Salt and pepper to taste
1 cup chopped celery leaves
1 cup chopped onion, fried in 1/4 pound margarine
1/2 cup chicken bouillon

Fry onion in margarine. Combine rest of ingredients and add onion and margarine in pan. Stuff bird. If dressing left over, put in greased bowl and put in oven last 1/2 hour of cooking. Dressing can be basted with liquid surrounding goose.

PHEASANT

With pheasants, skinning is much the easier way of removing the feathers, but plucking is recommended for birds that are to be roasted. Pheasants are white meat and are well suited to most recipes for chicken.

Baked Pheasant in Sour Cream

Pheasant
Flour
1/4 pound butter
1-2 cups sour cream

Clean and cut up for frying. Wipe thoroughly, dip in flour and brown in butter in a frying pan. Place in roaster, sprinkle with salt and pepper. Put enough sour cream in pan to make its depth 1 inch and add 1/2 pound of butter. Cover and bake at 300° from 1 1/2-2 hours or until pheasant is tender. Make gravy and cover bird with it before serving.

WILD RICE EN CONSOMME

1/2 cup butter
1/4 cup finely chopped onion
1 4-ounce can mushrooms, stems and pieces, drained
1 cup consomme (1 10-ounce can)
1 cup water
1 cup (uncooked) wild rice

Wash wild rice under running water. Drain. In saucepan melt 1/2 cup butter. Add onions and mushroom pieces, drained. Saute. Add wild rice, consomme and water. Cover saucepan and simmer over low flame for 1 hour or until rice is light and fluffy. When done, let it remain covered about 15 minutes.

ROAST PHEASANT

1 pheasant
Salt and pepper
1 bay leaf
1 clove garlic, crushed or 1/2 teaspoon garlic salt
Few celery leaves
One slice of lemon (optional)
4 slices bacon
2 small or 1 large onion, sliced
2 (4 ounce) cans mushrooms, pieces and stems
2 cups chicken broth (chicken bouillon can be used)

Sprinkle pheasant inside and out with salt and pepper. Place bay leaf, garlic, celery leaves, and lemon in cavity. Tie legs together, cover breast and legs with bacon. Place pheasant breast up in baking pan. Arrange onion slices, mushrooms with liquid and chicken broth around pheasant. Roast in preheated 425° oven for 15 minutes with lid off. Then put on lid and roast at 350° until done (about 2 hours). Baste with broth at intervals. Discard dressing in cavity.

GROUSE IN WINE

2 grouse
Water
1 tablespoon marjoram
1 small onion
1/4 cup butter
1 clove garlic, crushed or 1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
1 medium onion, sliced
4 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
2 chicken bouillon cubes
2 cups hot water
1/2 cup red wine

Cover grouse with water. Add marjoram and small onion. Cook until almost tender (about 1 hour). Remove grouse from water, dry off, cut into serving pieces. Brown in 1/4 cup butter, garlic and sliced onion. Combine flour, salt, pepper; slowly stir in bouillon cubes dissolved in hot water. Pour over browned grouse. Cook with lid on until tender. Remove grouse. Stir in wine. Serve at once with wine gravy.

FRIED SQUIRREL

2 squirrels
Water to cover
1 tablespoon marjoram
1 large onion, peeled and halved
1/2 pound butter

Cut out the bloody spots on squirrel. Cover with water and boil 15 minutes. Throw water away. Add fresh water to cover, marjoram and onion. Cook until tender. Remove from water. Cut in serving pieces. Dry off and brown in 1/2 pound butter.

VENISON ROUND STEAK

2 pounds venison round steak
3 large onions, sliced
1/2 pound margarine
1 can beef consomme

Fry onions and steak in margarine. Add beef consomme and cook until tender.

THE WORLD'S CHAMPION MINIATURE WRITER

by Irving Wallace

If James W. Zaharee were writing this piece he could write it in a straight line on a human hair $\frac{1}{4}$ inch long. He has written the 1130 words of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address on a hair $2\frac{1}{4}$ inches long.

Under a powerful microscope his lettering is as clear as a line of type. Zaharee attracted world-wide attention when he wrote Lincoln's Gettysburg Address 18 times, the English alphabet 30 times and his own name 34 times on a 2-cent postage stamp, a total of 20,000 characters.

To fully appreciate miniature writing one should attempt to write their initials on a hair or on a grain of rice. When Zaharee wrote 9,007 letters on a grain of rice for Robert L. Ripley he won recognition as the world's champion miniature writer.

Zaharee was not satisfied. Next he wanted to see how much writing he could put on one side of a rice grain. He started by copying the Declaration of Independence and then found room to add the names of the 13 colonies and the 56 signers, making a total of 7,576 characters.

One time an elderly industrialist asked Zaharee to make him a copy of his will on a grain of rice. After reading the finished work through a powerful microscope, he beamed, "I'll bet this is one document they won't tamper with after I'm gone."

Who induced him to enter such business? A bull! Not the gentle Ferdinand, as one might suppose, but a real tough bull, who got sore when young Jim Zaharee got a teen-age idea of speeding up work on their North Dakota farm by substituting a motorcycle for the pony to round up the herd. When the bull got through with Jim, Jim landed in the hospital. While recovering in the hospital, Zaharee entered some miniature writing contests. He found his skill so proficient, he went on to win one contest after another. After a short stint at a teachers college in Minot, North Dakota, Zaharee transferred to the University of Michigan. During all of his collegiate days he continued his miniature writing contest endeavors.

During the years Zaharee has appeared at all the important state fairs, expositions and even with traveling tent shows, and during this time he has written the names of approximately 250,000 people while they waited for their souvenir grains of rice. The grains of rice are so small that he glues them on cards. It has been estimated that he has written between ten and twelve million characters on tiny grains of rice since the bull tangled with his motorcycle.

To see Zaharee, who has a build of a football player and the hands of a blacksmith, you would never guess he was the world's smallest writer. His best work is $1/2000$ the size of average writing.

James W. Zaharee, world's champion miniature writer, writes name on a tiny grain of rice which has been mounted on a card.

"He who laughs last won't be with the company long," says the Bird Island (Minn.) Union.

During the picnic season, The Jamestown (N.D.) Sun observed that there is always someone to win the thirteenth prize at community get-togethers.

"A mule can't pull while kicking. Neither can you," advises the Stark County News of Toulon, Ill.

A housewife, according to The Tazewell County News of Morton, Ill., is that person who reaches for a chair when the phone rings.

"Prosperity," says The Pioneer-Review of Philip, S. D., "is something we feel, fold and send to Washington."

This one is from The Gladwin (Mich.) County Record:

"Now," said the scoutmaster, "if you stand facing the rising sun, the north is on your left hand, the south is on your right, and what would be behind you?"

"My knapsack, sir," came the reply.

"Teenagers are like airplanes," claims The Britton (S.D.) Journal, "you only hear about the ones that crash."

One way for a husband to have the last word is to apologize, says the Savanna (Ill.) Times-Journal.

The Cavalier (N.D.) Chronicle reports that some men work hard and save money so their sons won't have the problems that made men out of their fathers.

"Where else but in the U.S.A. do people sit down to eat a $6 steak dinner and talk about hard times?" asks the Mason County Democrat of Havana, Ill.

The Lima (Ohio) News tells about the TV weather forecaster who sought a new job because the weather did not agree with him at his former place of employment.

"It takes a lot of practice for a girl to be able to kiss like an amateur," says The Culver (Ind.) Citizen.

The West Bend (Wis.) News tells the one about Junior who was a little terror, the scourge of his home and the neighborhood, so Papa was understandably surprised when Mama suggested they buy him a bicycle.

"Do you think it will improve his behavior?" Papa inquired.

"No," answered Mama grimly, "but it will spread him over a larger area."

Pushbuttons have taken the place of all kinds of cranks except human ones, claims The Democrat Tribune of Mineral Point, Wis.

The Wayne County Press of Fairfield, Ill., says it is never safe to let children help when the time comes to entertain guests. One mother found this out when she asked her small daughter why she did not give Mr. Smith a knife and fork when she set the table?

The child replied: "I didn't think he needed any because Daddy says he eats like a horse."

"The Pioneers who blazed the trails now have descendants who burn up the roads," quotes the Lee's Summit (Mo.) Journal.

This one comes from The Review of Plymouth, Wis.: A sign reading "Ole Oleson's Chinese Laundry" bothered a curious tourist until he went in and asked to talk to the proprietor. On finding him to be a genuine Chinaman, the visitor asked how he had acquired such an unlikely name?

The Oriental's reply was, "When I came to this country I lined up just behind a Norwegian at the immigration window. The registrar asked him his name and he replied, Ole Oleson. When he asked me mine I said, Sam Ting."

BOXER REBELLION

Jake is a great big Boxer dog, weighing over seventy pounds — all of which he uses to guard the household against intruders. Between times he acts as an unprotesting pet for the neighborhood children.

Jake's Boxer ancestry is akin to all bull-dog types. He is full of courage and stamina and very few fleas. Though only two years old, Jake springs from a line of dogs known throughout Europe since the 16th century.

In spite of Jake's outstanding characteristics which put him in a class all by himself, he shares a common phobia with every other hound in the neighborhood.

Jake hates to take a bath.

There is no simple way to overcome this problem, except to give Jake a bath whether he likes it or not. Jake doesn't appreciate the gift.

If Jake would just stand still in one spot he could be washed and simonized right along with the family automobile. But he won't cooperate.

All the admirable qualities which are so outstanding in Jake: courage, aggressiveness, agility, intelligence, fearlessness—Jake uses in his defense against a splatter of water on his hide.

It's a Boxer Rebellion . . .

5. "Aw, c'mon, honey. A lil' ol' teensie bath won't hurt mama's baby!" (The Boxer is an accredited member of society, but he still carries his old qualities of courage, intelligence and aggressiveness when needed. For two cents he'd take off for Tibet right now.)

6. "Don't whine, Jake, be a brave boy now." (Boxers get their name from their stance when starting a fight. If Jake could paw anything but thin air he'd like to slug somebody — anybody — right now.)

7. "WILL you behave, or do I lose my temper!" (A Boxer's gait, although firm, is elastic. The stride is free and roomy. A splendid jumper, he is equipped for great speed—which Jake will exhibit any minute now.)

8. "Oops!" — (Jake's carriage is generally proud and noble, which is more than can be said for his mistress at the moment.)

9. "Something wrong, sis?" (Withal, Jake is devoted to his mistress.)

1. "Whooie! — whose garbage can have you been in, Jake!" (Boxers are clean-limbed animals with very little hide odor—except when they've been exploring the city dump.)

2. "It's the bathtub for you, big boy!" (Boxers are classed as "working dogs" along with the Great Danes, Shepherd dogs, etc. Carrying Jake's 70 pounds within reach of a bath can be classed as "work"—but not by Jake.)

3. "Quit cringing—a little water won't hurt you." (Boxers have a short, square figure and strong limbs. Their movements are alive with energy.)

4. "JAKE—behave yourself!" (Jake is a descendant of the old fighting dogs of the high valleys in Tibet—where nobody ever took a bath.)
