

Lawmen Now Armed With Chemical Mace

The long arm of the law here has been stretched even farther—from 15 to 20 feet—with the aid of spray cans.

Police Chiefs Donald Docking of East Tawas and George Westcott of Tawas City announced last week that the two departments had been equipped with a new weapon, "Chemical Mace," replacing the traditional night stick.

The unit, designed to be carried in a quick draw holster, is not lethal, but has been hailed by law officers as "more effective than a club."

It looks like a large can of spray deodorant. It can be aimed accurately at an individual up to 15 feet away. One "poosh" of the spray instantly stuns a lawbreaker. It brings dizziness, tears and a burning sensation to the skin. He is incapacitated for 15 to 20 minutes. Yet there are no harmful after effects, no physical damage.

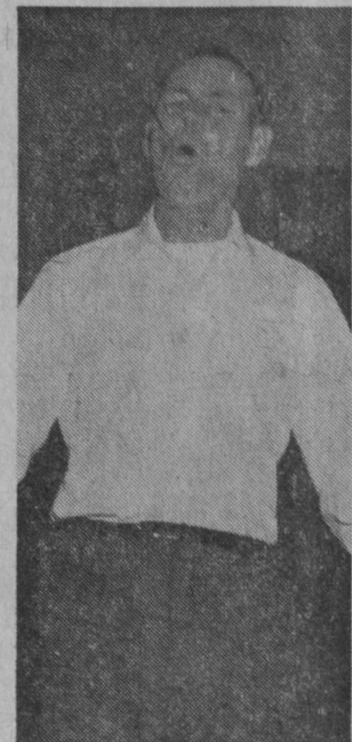

Sale of mace is limited to police and security forces. Police across the country are enthusiastic about the new weapon, the first such added to the law officer's arsenal in many years.

The aerosol device affords better protection for police and is to be used for self-defense by officers, is useful in apprehending a fleeing criminal or in subduing a person who is resisting arrest.

While the new aerosol can mace units are new to the area, one officer, Deputy Sheriff Charles Burke of the Iosco Sheriff's Department, has been equipped with one for about a year.

Burke said the unit had been used only once in subduing an intoxicated prisoner. It proved most effective and it is much less cruel than the concussion that may result when a club or sap must be used to stop a charging or berserk assailant.

Preparations Made for First City Primary

Hiring an official election board for the February 19 primary was authorized Monday night by Tawas City Council.

Clerk Walter C. Nelson was authorized to obtain the necessary board workers at a cost of $18 per day.

Three races are featured in the primary, first in Tawas City history, to select candidates for the spring election in April.

Primary contests on the Republican Ticket are featured for First Ward supervisor, with Ben Brewer and Dr. E. B. Cavell Jr. as candidates; Second Ward supervisor, pitting John Hoshach, incumbent, against Clement Stephan, former First Ward supervisor, whose residence was transferred following reapportionment; Second Ward alderman, with Clyde Eiril, veteran alderman, being opposed by Frank Roti, former police chief.

One race has already been assured for the April election. Daniel Ulrich, incumbent First Ward alderman on the Democratic Ticket, will be opposed by Martin Welna, Republican.

Third Ward officers, Clarence Everitt, supervisor, and Howard Hatton, alderman, are unopposed on the Republican slate, as are other incumbent Republican officers: Russell A. Rollin Sr., mayor; Mrs. Ruth Albertson, treasurer, and Nelson, clerk.

In other business, Reginald Blitz, superintendent of public works, reported that formal application had been made with the federal government for 50 percent participation in acquiring land to expand the city park.

Application was made with the land and water conservation fund for one-half of a project costing approximately $30,350. This was the same fund which helped the Iosco Board of Supervisors acquire property at the mouth of the Ausable River for park purposes.

Cooperating with the city in preparing the application was County Agent Marvin Davenport, along with the extension service staff.

Mayor Rollin reported he had received a telephone call from the Michigan Municipal League regarding a request for information from the Tawas Area Industrial Development Corporation. The IDC had asked to secure information concerning merger of the Tawas.

In a letter to the Michigan Municipal League, Mayor Rollin stated: "We fail to see the connection between the IDC and the business of Tawas City, because we certainly have never had the IDC or any one individual bring to the council of Tawas City any reference to the problem of joining the Tawas.

"However, by the grapevine," said Rollin, "we know that the IDC is well aware of the legal procedure and we know that petitions have circulated in both cities. Due to the intense opposition heard on the street, by many Tawas City residents, the petitions have been withheld and to date have not been presented to the county clerk as required by law."

Industry Hit Twice

Children Admit Setting 2 Fires

Three days of investigation last week disclosed that arson was responsible for a fire which swept through a frame building used for drying sawdust at Tawas Industries, Incorporated, Tawas City.

Three neighborhood children, two eight years old and one five years of age, admitted they set a fire in the building Monday night by dropping lighted toilet tissue at each end of the building.

While police and firemen suspected possible arson Monday night, their belief was confirmed Wednesday night when the fire department returned to the burned out structure to fight a blaze which had started in a tarpaulin.

Police Chief George Westcott, who investigated, said that the children admitted causing both blazes. About 15 children had been questioned before information was narrowed down to the three responsible.

"One eight-year-old gave the younger child a match and told him to 'go out and set off the barn again' Wednesday night," said Westcott.

Iosco Probate Court authorities advised that, because of the ages of the children, there would be no court action. One child is a ward of the state and the other two were turned over to their parents for discipline.

In the meantime, O. S. Rose Builders, Tawas City, has rushed construction of a new building to replace the frame structure destroyed by fire.

By Wednesday night, concrete block walls being constructed within the burned out shell of the old building were well along. The fire that night burned a tarpaulin which covered a hole in the old building.

The building, used to house equipment to dry sawdust filler material for automotive filters, is to be completed this week. Timbers from the old structure were removed Saturday.

Workmen began construction on a new steel sawdust bin late last week and delivery has been received on new drying equipment.

Elmer Werth, president of Tawas Industries, Incorporated, said that the drying operation would resume this week. Production was not curtailed because of a substantial stockpile of sawdust.

CMU History Professor Set as IHS Speaker

Dr. Floyd Daine, professor of history at Central Michigan University, will be featured speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the Iosco Historical Society to be held Thursday, February 8, 8:00 p. m., at the Iosco County Building.

An author of several books dealing with Michigan history, Doctor Daine is a stimulating speaker. Albert H. Buch, historical society president, said that the program should prove most interesting.

Iosco Historical Society was organized in early January and a committee has prepared a constitution and bylaws for the organization.

"An invitation is extended to all Iosco residents interested in the area's history to attend this first meeting," said Buch.

Other speakers are being scheduled for monthly meetings of the group. The board of directors is preparing a program of activities and will enlist interested persons to work on various projects.

Hospital Offers Bankard Service

Tawas Hospital became a member of the Michigan Bankard charge system in December 1967. Patients may now use their Michigan Bankard credit cards to charge hospital bills. Realizing the number of Michigan residents who are enjoying the many conveniences of Michigan Bankard, a hospital deemed it advisable to accommodate the users of this charge plan.

Michigan Bankard is the patient's passport to convenient payment for professional services—it takes over the problems and costs of credit checking, billing, collections and credit losses.

Remind Residents to Dial Correct Fire Number

Residents of Tawas City, Tawas and Alabaster Townships should telephone 362-2328 in case of fire was the reminder this week of the Tawas City Fire Department.

Four different fire numbers are listed in the emergency section of the telephone directory, the last named being the Tawas City department.

Delays resulted on three different occasions last week when the caller dialed the East Tawas number and information was then relayed to Tawas City.

Perch Fishing Improves on Bay

Fishing on Tawas Bay showed a marked improvement over the past week-end, according to reports from several local anglers.

Kenneth Thibault, Tawas City, caught 25 perch Thursday. One fish taken through the ice Saturday measured slightly over 14 inches, while one caught Sunday measured 15 1/2 inches.

Kenneth Frank, Tawas City, pulled in 11 perch Monday which weighed seven pounds. The largest one was 13 inches in length and weighed 1 3/4 pounds.

Wrestling Tourney Saturday at W-P

With probably one of the top small school wrestling programs in Northern Michigan, Whittemore-Prescott Area High School this Saturday plays host to 11 other schools in its first invitational wrestling tournament.

Participating schools sending teams include Alpena, Adrian-Madison, Flint - Beecher, Flint - Atherton, Flint - St. John Vianney, Freeland, Maple Grove St. Michaels, Oscoda Area, Midland-Bullock Creek, Shepherd and Vestaburg.

Preliminaries are to be held at the high school auditorium from 11:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. with finals from 7:00 to 9:00 p. m.

The program is sponsored by the Whittemore-Prescott Area Varsity Club.

Coach Jerry Hoffman said the tournament was a first for the Northeastern Michigan area.

Whittemore-Prescott Area High School has had a wrestling program for the past two years. There are 22 boys enrolled and the school purchased a new $3,000 mat last year.

Members of the team are now introducing wrestling to elementary grades as well as assisting in handling a basketball and girls' tumbling program in the lower grades to help pay expenses of the program.

During the current season, the Cardinal wrestling team has eight wins, three losses and one tie.

Firemen Hope Snow Returns for Carnival

Grant Township Fire Department, sponsoring its first annual winter festival at Sand Lake, hopes to see a change in the weather for this week-end, February 10-11.

The fire department has scheduled two days of snowmobile races, ice skating and sledding. But the big question now is whether or not there will be snow for the outdoor winter events.

Five races are scheduled Saturday at Sand Lake starting at 10:00 a. m., including a sprint race, powder puff sprint, sprint relay, obstacle race and cross country race. Trophies are to be awarded in all divisions.

A 40-mile safari has been scheduled for Sunday, 10:00 a. m.

Three Young Men from Area Compete for Service Schools

Three Iosco young men have received nominations from Cong. Elford A. Cederberg to compete with other nominees of the district for entrance into United States service schools.

Nominated from Iosco were Edward S. Stoll, Oscoda, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Stoll, United States Air Force Academy; Paul J. Beyer III, Tawas City, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Beyer Jr., United States Naval Academy; James E. LaFave, Oscoda, son of James W. LaFave, second group for the naval academy.

Each congressional district is entitled to have five young men at one time enrolled in each service school (naval, air and military academies). Nominations for appointment are made as vacancies occur.

To fill each vacancy, a member of congress nominates six candidates. After nominations are made, the boy is on his own, competing with the other five nominees. The academic board makes the final determination as to the best qualified for appointment, taking into consideration the nominee's previous academic record and his performance in college board tests.

Scouts and leaders from the Paul Bunyan Council this week join with others throughout the United States in observing National Boy Scout Week. Theme for 1968 is "Scouting rounds a boy out."

TA School Planning Weekly Adult Classes

Evening classes in adult education are to be offered starting the week of February 12 at Tawas Area High School.

John Alexander, curriculum coordinator, said that instructors have been secured for the following evening classes: Beginning ceramics, Sue Bittell; mathematics, James Garlo; arc welding, Robert Curry; basic sewing techniques, Doris Wetzel; practical electricity, Mr. Curry.

The ceramics class will be limited to 15 students. Fees for this class will be $10 per person and this fee will cover cost of some of the materials used.

A class in speech and language development will be presented by David Featheringill, a speech and hearing therapist with the Iosco Intermediate School District.

This class will present information of value to parents of young children who are in various stages of speech development. Featheringill will discuss various speech problems which can develop in young children and the techniques used in reducing these difficulties.

Alexander said all classes are scheduled to meet in the evenings, once a week, for approximately 10 weeks. Fees for classes are to be determined by the number of persons enrolled. No credit is given for any of the courses.

Judge Miller to Sit on Appeals Bench

Circuit Judge Allan C. Miller, 23rd Judicial Circuit, has been assigned by the Michigan Supreme Court to sit on the state court of appeals during the March term.

Judge Miller has been assigned 15 appeal cases and is to hear the cases at Lansing starting February 29.

This is Judge Miller's second assignment to sit in this court and he is one of 10 circuit judges of Michigan who have assisted the court of appeals since its inception.

Contractor Had Busy Year

Davison and Son Builders, Incorporated, Tawas City, recently completed the Cass City High School and the Tuscola County Jail. During the calendar year 1967, total construction volume amounted to 2.37 million dollars, which includes the Cheboygan County Building and Jail to be completed on or about November 1.

Edward Davison Jr. announces that the payroll for 1967 amounted to approximately $255,000.

Top Students Named by Hale Area Schools

Hale Area School has announced the valedictorian and salutatorian for the class of 1968. Based upon the grade point average for the first seven semesters of high school, Miss Lynn Krantz is the valedictorian and Gary Williams, salutatorian.

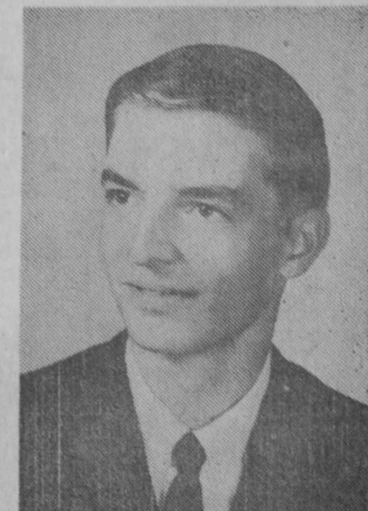

Miss Krantz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Krantz, is currently the editor of the school yearbook, a member of the National Honor Society and worked on the senior play. She qualified on the state competitive scholarship test for a tuition scholarship which she intends to use at Michigan State University where she will be pursuing a medical career.

Williams, who also qualified on the state competitive scholarship test, is currently planning to enter Central Michigan University next fall. There, he intends to study art and become an art teacher. He is a member of the National Honor Society and of the senior play cast. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Williams.

TODAY'S Meditation

from The World's Most Widely Used Devotional Guide

The Upper Room

Read Mark 1:32-39

In the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed. (Mark 1:35)

The Lord Jesus Christ walked tall and never compromised. He spoke straight-forwardly and turned in a full day's work. Jesus was a man's man.

In the first chapter of Mark, we have the record of a Sabbath day in the life of Jesus. He taught in the synagogue at Capernaum and while there He cast a demon out of a man. He went to Simon's home where He healed Simon's mother-in-law, who was ill of fever. After sunset, He was still at work healing those brought to Him. What a day!

True, He was God, but He was also man. How could He stand up under the pace? Our text from Mark's Gospel reveals the answer. Jesus communed with His Father in the early morning hour of devotions. Here He received strength, encouragement, wisdom and guidance.

God's Word supplies these spiritual nutrients. When we memorize, meditate and pray, we store up these spiritual reserves. In the discipline of daily devotions, we find the secret of unseen power, never-failing strength and ever-present peace.

PRAYER

Our Father, we need Thee every ery hour. Strengthen us in our special time of meeting Thee that we may receive love, strength and peace needed today. In the Master's name. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Jesus gave us the ideal example for daily devotions. William P. Swartz Jr. (Virginia).

Play Presented at WSCS Meeting

The February 1 meeting of Tawas City Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service opened with reading of "The Purpose" in unison.

Mrs. Waldo Leslie, president, presided at the meeting and introduced Mrs. J. F. Mark, who presented devotions. She read Romans Chapter 13 and said a prayer for the country's endeavor for peace.

For the program, Mrs. Myron Trafelet, assisted by Mrs. J. A. Mark, Mrs. Edward Goodman, Mrs. Reynold Mick, Mrs. Eric Reed and Mrs. Osborne Sims, presented a play, "Thy Kingdom Come, But Not Now." Mrs. Carl Schaaf played piano accompaniment.

The treasurer announced that the missionary pledge had been paid in full. Mrs. Reed, sunshine chairman, reported that one bouquet and 11 cards had been sent and three calls had been made. Mrs. J. A. Mark reminded members of a visiting missionary who is expected to attend the March 8 joint meeting at the East Tawas Methodist Church. She also gave a review on the self study course which was held at Wilber Methodist Church recently. Attending with Mrs. Mark were Mrs. Byron Mark, Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Goodman and Mrs. John Hutton.

Further plans were discussed for making styrofoam rabbits for Easter and sewing at the church each Thursday afternoon. The group will furnish cake and gelatin for the MYF district rally at the East Tawas Methodist Church February 18. Mrs. Schaaf announced that "Together" magazine subscriptions are due and interested individuals may contact her for renewals or new subscriptions. It was voted to give $200 to the church's capital fund.

Serving on the refreshment committee were Mrs. Donald Deering and Mrs. William McCready, who served meringue cherry tarts and coffee. Mrs. Geraldine Smith received the dime from the cake which was furnished by Mrs. Raymond Biskner.

Plans Set for Parish Card Party

At the February 1 meeting of Immaculate Heart of Mary Altar Society, plans were finalized for a February 14 parish card party. The event will be sponsored by the altar society and will be held at the parish hall.

Letters were read from Mrs. Ernest Jordan and Sister Rose Helene. Mrs. Jordan stressed the need for help in the worthwhile American Red Cross bloodmobile program, which is vital to this area. Sister Rose Helene, formerly of Tawas Hospital, is now doing missionary work at Nasco, Peru. She enclosed snapshots to show the customs, ways and conditions in Peru.

Plans were made to have the parish kneelers repupolstered.

After the business meeting adjourned, a social hour followed. Cookies and coffee were served by Mrs. Walter Schuhmacher and Mrs. Joseph Stepanski.

W-P Cards Won Two Exciting Games Fri.

Whittemore-Prescott Cards won two thrilling games Friday night from Alcona. The varsity won a 58-56 overtime victory while the JV won, 73-72. It has been a long time since the Cards fans have seen a couple of games that could match these for thrills.

The varsity won the rubber game with the Tigers for the year but they had their work cut out for them. After losing to the Tigers by 23 points early in the season, they beat them by one point to win their own Christmas tournament. The Friday night affair was a close one all the way, the lead changed hands seven times and was tied nine times. The Cards started off in front but the Tigers held a four-point lead at the end of the first quarter. The Cards came back to tie it up, then went ahead by six points at half time. Neither team was very good on ing in the overtime period as the Tigers missed several foul shots and the tight Card defense shut the door until the whistle blew giving the Cards a well-earned victory. Pat Haley led the scoring with 23 points for the losers. Mark Stahl led the victorious Cards with 19. Dennis Partlo also hit in double figures with 12 on six fielders.

Coach Earl Bronson's JV squad started off the evening with their high scoring, 73-72, win. The little Cards led most of the way but the Tigers kept coming back to tie it up and then go ahead by a few points. The Tigers held the edge in height but the Cards running game kept paying off.

The Cards held a four-point lead with two minutes to go but the Tigers went ahead again, 72-71, with seconds to go to set the stage for a last second thriller. Jeff Fellows came down the side court with time running out and with most of the Tiger team trying to bottle him up. From 25 feet over in the corner and off balance, he got off a shot a split second before the whistle went off and it fell through the loop for a thrilling 73-72 win. Stephenson led the scoring with 29 points, Fellows led the Cards with 28, Mark Stalyano had 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dunham of Midland spent the week-end with their son, Gordon Dunham, and family of East Tawas.

The Card girls game at Roscommon Wednesday night was postponed until a later date because of bad driving conditions.

Funeral Held for Mrs. Pierce

Funeral services for Mrs. Alice May Pierce of Whittemore were held Monday, February 5, at Whittemore Methodist Church. Burial was in Latter Day Saints Cemetery, Whittemore. She died Friday, February 2, at her home in Burleigh Township.

Born September 10, 1888, she was a member of Whittemore Chapter No. 426, Order of the Eastern Star. She had lived in Burleigh Township for the past 20 years.

WE SALUTE THE 58th ANNIVERSARY OF THE BOY SCOUTS

"I suppose every boy wants to help his country in some way or another. There is a way by which he can do so easily, and that is by becoming a Boy Scout."
BADEN-POWELL

Scouting has become increasingly more important to the future of our country. This is one reason why the Scout movement aims for a high standard of citizenship, character and physical fitness. In the program, there is a strong emphasis on training for citizenship. Every boy must learn respect for the flag, loyalty to country, and an appreciation of our American heritage. We salute the Scouts and the great work they are doing in making better citizens.

LEGAL NOTICE

TAWAS TOWNSHIP
Proposed Zoning Ordinance Changes
Notice is hereby given that a public hearing will be held at the Tawas Township Hall on March 4, 1968, beginning at 7:30 p. m., in connection with proposed changes in the Tawas Township Zoning Ordinance. Proposals at hand represent changes in classification from residential to commercial and include the following areas:
Proposal No. 1
Section 24, T22N, R7E—SW 1/4 of SW 1/4
Extend existing commercial zoning in the southwest corner of Section 24 eastward 33 feet, thereby creating a rectangular commercial-zoned area 363 feet east by 330 feet north in said corner of Section 24.
Proposal No. 2
Section 24, T22N, R7E—SE 1/4 of SE 1/4
Extend existing 330-foot square commercially zoned area in the southeast corner of Section 24 westward 296.7 feet, more or less. Such extension would bring about a total commercial classification in the southeast corner of said section comprising a rectangular area north 330 feet by west 626.7 feet, more or less. Extension as above outlined would be subject to a restriction to the effect that no commercial building would be permitted to be erected on the west 60 feet of the extended area.
Any objections to the zoning changes above listed will be heard at the date, time and place indicated. Thereupon, the zoning board will make recommendation for appropriate action by the Township Board.
JOHN J. KATTERMAN
Secretary
Tawas Township Zoning Board 6-1b; 9-1b

Proposed Zoning Ordinance Changes
Notice is hereby given that a public hearing will be held at the Tawas Township Hall on March 4, 1968, beginning at 7:30 p. m., in connection with proposed changes in the Tawas Township Zoning Ordinance. Proposals at hand represent changes in classification from residential to commercial and include the following areas:
Proposal No. 1
Section 24, T22N, R7E—SW 1/4 of SW 1/4
Extend existing commercial zoning in the southwest corner of Section 24 eastward 33 feet, thereby creating a rectangular commercial-zoned area 363 feet east by 330 feet north in said corner of Section 24.
Proposal No. 2
Section 24, T22N, R7E—SE 1/4 of SE 1/4
Extend existing 330-foot square commercially zoned area in the southeast corner of Section 24 westward 296.7 feet, more or less. Such extension would bring about a total commercial classification in the southeast corner of said section comprising a rectangular area north 330 feet by west 626.7 feet, more or less. Extension as above outlined would be subject to a restriction to the effect that no commercial building would be permitted to be erected on the west 60 feet of the extended area.
Any objections to the zoning changes above listed will be heard at the date, time and place indicated. Thereupon, the zoning board will make recommendation for appropriate action by the Township Board.

Secretary
Tawas Township Zoning Board 6-1b; 9-1b

C of C Steams Ahead, Says Pres. Bassett

Tawas Chamber of Commerce is now geared to "full steam ahead," reports Gar Bassett, president.

The 1968 president lists some points to consider about how and why a new image is being built and how this will improve the community for everyone—employer or employee; man, woman or child.

"We are not going to wear a top hat, or pull rabbits out of a hat," said Bassett. "We are building practical plans, working with chamber directors, consultants and many public-spirited citizens. We are in the vital and demanding business of representing our area with wisdom and ability toward the mutual benefit of everyone.

"Much of our success lies in continually striving to encourage public confidence and good will. There is a common bond among us to strengthen our competitive position as a community. We must work hard, keep our perspective and not let adverse comment, most of which is greatly exaggerated, dampen our enthusiasm.

"Some may ask about the chamber's financial status. This, we are proud to report, is no longer a serious matter. The serious matter now is the sincere need for your cooperation. As a chamber is the 'hub' of community activity, it is to our mutual benefit to have your support and ideas.

"Do not let us down and do not

Two Area Men Now in Training

Army Pvts. Jeryl Grant Clements and Gary S. Smith are assigned to company C, 18th battalion, fifth brigade, in the United States Army Training Center, Armor (USATCA), Fort Knox, Kentucky.

They will spend the next two months learning the fundamental skills of the soldier in today's modern, action army—firing live ammunition under simulated combat situations, learning protective measures and first aid for chemical, biological and radiological attacks, as well as being schooled in the use of modern arms.

Interspersed with constant emphasis of proper physical conditioning, diet, rest and health habits, will be ample opportunity to utilize USATCA's many and varied recreational and religious facilities.

Following the completion of basic training, Private Clements, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Clements, and Private Smith, son of Mrs. Geraldine Smith, all of Tawas City, will receive at least an additional eight weeks of either advanced instruction or on-the-job training to qualify them in a specialized military skill. # Braves Post 10th Victory

Again seeming to play just good enough to beat their opponents, Tawas Area Braves rolled to their 10th straight victory Friday night, longest winning streak of any team coached by Bill McIntosh in his 12 years here.

The Braves downed visiting Pinconning Spartans, 66-50, and have only one game slated this week, playing host to Gladwin Friday night.

Tawas faces a big test next week in two games which will decide the NBC championship. The Braves play host to Oscoda February 13 and then travel to Standish-Sterling February 16.

The Braves had one of their coldest first quarters of the year against the Spartans Friday night and slipped into a 12-11 lead at the buzzer. Dennis Krish was top man with three set shots, while Paul Beyer hit two buckets and Dale Koepke had one.

Tawas put the win away in the second quarter outscoring the visitors, 24-10. Beyer was the big man in scoring with four buckets.

Pinconning held a 13-9 scoring edge in the third quarter but Tawas came back with a 21-16 scoring effort in the final. That quarter saw the Braves complete 15 out of 18 shots from the free throw line.

Tawas had three players hitting in double figures, topped by Koepke's 19 points. Beyer played an outstanding game on the backboards and meshed 17 points, followed by 14 points for Krish.

Tawas Junior Varsity turned the tables on the visitors after sustaining a loss to the same team earlier in the season. The Tawas team jumped to a 27-12 lead at the half and turned in a good defensive game.

Lickfelt's 14 points topped Tawas scoring, followed by Libka, seven; Baker, six; Sheldon and Reinke, five points each; Mick and Harsch, four points each; Sventko and Ulman, three points each.

The varsity went against Oscoda Tuesday, January 30, listed eighth in the United Press class B prep poll and turned in a 58-56 victory. Ron Doak paced the Braves with 19 points, as Beyer netted 12 and Krish had 11. Maynard Crowley had 16 for the Owls. The Oscoda JV clipped Tawas, 66-41, in the preliminary contest.

Michigan Consolidated Gas Company, Northern District

On days when the snow piles up to the windows and the temperature drops to zero, mothers groan at the thought of closed schools and children under foot. Not so with the children. They look forward to the few days out of the year when they can legally play hooky.

With a little bit of preplanning, these inevitable catastrophes could be turned into an opportunity to become better acquainted with your family. After all, Mom, what is so important that you cannot take a day or two to get to know the ones you love. Sometimes we do not realize all we have in life until it is not around anymore.

Make a list of games (which require little or no equipment) suitable for a wide range of abilities. Assemble in a box any supplies or equipment that might be needed. A pencil and paper are all you need for the who, what, how, when and where game. Divide a piece of paper into five equal sections and label the sections who, what, how, when and where. Let each person name two characters such as Grandma or Santa Claus to fill in the who column. Fold this column under and fill in the what column in the same manner. Continue this until all columns are filled. Then read the entries straight across the paper. The reading is usually quite funny. For example, Grandma ate breakfast like an elephant at midnight in a tree. Games of a physical nature might be those you played at parties when you were young. Try the bean bag toss for instance.

Another way of enjoying activities together is in learning to work in the kitchen. For instance, take the available time to teach your daughters and sons how to plan a nutritionally good meal; how to set an attractive table; how to garnish foods; how to use your modern gas appliances; how to measure, combine and substitute ingredients.

An easy way to get started on a project like this is to jump in with both feet. Let your children plan and prepare a meal for the family. You often learn more in doing than in hearing and sometimes find a mistake the best teaching aid.

Try the following menu and recipes as a start and branch off on your own. No two children are alike, nor can they all begin at the same place.

QUICK TRICK PIZZA

- 1 package refrigerated crescent dinner rolls
- 1 can (15 1/2 oz.) spaghetti sauce with meat
- 1 package (4 oz.) shredded mozzarella cheese
- Oregano
- 1. Separate rolls; arrange on baking sheet or on bottom of broiler pan. Press to cover pan.
- 2. Bake at 375 degrees Fahrenheit for 10-13 minutes.
- 3. Meanwhile heat sauce on burner-with-a-brain set at 175 degrees Fahrenheit or over low gas flame.
- 4. Top crust with sauce and cheese. Sprinkle with oregano.
- 5. Turn control to broil. Place pizza in broiler three inches from flame and broil about four minutes.

SALAD

One head of lettuce and part of a bottle of dressing.

FUDGE BROWNIES

- 3/4 cup all purpose flour
- 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 2 squares unsweetened chocolate
- 1/3 cup shortening
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 eggs
- 1/2 cup chopped nuts
- 1. Sift flour, measure and sift again with baking powder and salt.
- 2. Melt chocolate and shortening together.
- 3. Add sugar and eggs to chocolate mixture, blend well.
- 4. Stir in dry ingredients and nuts, blend well. Spread in a greased eight-inch square pan and bake at 350 degrees Fahrenheit about 40 minutes. Yields 16 two-inch squares.

Space Team Has Vacancies for Women

Lt. Col. Lawrence E. Stephens, commander of the United States Air Force recruiting activities in Michigan, announced today that the air force has numerous job vacancies for women on the aerospace team.

Colonel Stephens said, "Now, is the time for women to investigate the opportunities for women in the air force. Women who are college graduates are needed to fill officer vacancies created by pilots and navigators being returned to full time flying duty. Vacancies exist in the personnel, scientific, intelligence, administrative and education officer programs, as well as many others."

When asked about the opportunities for a girl who is not a college graduate, he replied, "The WAF program is available for these young ladies. They work side by side with their enlisted male counterparts in such career fields as medical and dental technicians, communications, supply and accounting and finance to name just a few."

Colonel Stephens continued, "Above all, do not forget the nurse program. Qualified registered nurses are given direct commissions as second or first lieutenants or possibly captain, depending on their education and experience. Nurses are needed at air force hospitals throughout the world to care for the sick and wounded."

Any women interested in becoming a member of the aerospace team and contributing her part to her nation's defense are urged to contact their nearest air force recruiting representative, listed under United States Government in the phone book.

Dr. O. V. Baker New District Health Chief

At a special late January meeting of the board of health for District Health Department No. 2, Dr. Ophelia V. Baker of West Branch was selected to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Dr. Leslie Lambert as of January 1. Doctor Baker will officially assume her duties with the health department beginning March 1. In the meantime, since the clinic program of the health department has been at a standstill, she has consented to reinstate office clinics and some school clinics. The schedule of clinics for February is as follows:

Tuesday, February 13, 9:30 a. m. to 12 o'clock noon, Tawas City office, and 1:30 p. m. to 3:30 p. m., Harrisville office; Wednesday, February 14, 9:30 a. m. to 12:00 noon, West Branch office; Thursday, February 15, 9:30 a. m. to 11:30 a. m., Mio office.

Wednesday, February 21, beginning at the West Branch school at 9:30 a. m., Doctor Baker will carry the clinic program to the fifth and 10th graders at that school as well as the same grades at St. Joseph School, West Branch.

Doctor Baker is beginning these February clinics as an accommodation. The March clinics, which she will carry on in an official capacity as health officer, have not yet been organized. Schools in the Tawas, Hale, Whittemore and Prescott areas will then be covered.

Social Security Amendments Affect Medicare Program

Social security amendments of 1967 made two important changes in medicare which should be of immediate interest to those over age 65, according to Harvey J. Mulder, acting district manager of the Social Security Office, Bay

City. First, there is now a deadline in filing claims under medicare. The immediate deadline is March 31 for persons who have medical bills for July through September 1966. Future deadlines cover physician expenses incurred after September 1966. Any individual who has elected medical insurance and has not filed a claim, should contact the social security office for assistance. Mulder added that as a general rule, it is wise to file promptly for reimbursement under the medical insurance part of medicare.

A second big deadline involves those who are over age 65 and who wish to become entitled under medical insurance. An individual, who previously did not wish medical insurance, now has until March 31 to enroll. Coverage and medical insurance premiums will begin July 1. The March 31 deadline applies only to individuals who are over 65. People becoming 65 who are not drawing monthly payments, should apply for medical insurance in the three months before they become 65. It is not necessary to be retired or to be receiving monthly social security benefits in order to be eligible for medical insurance, but it is required that an application be filed with social security.

Individuals in this area are serviced by the Bay City Social Security District Office located at 1009 North Madison Avenue. For the convenience of the public, the office is open until 6:45 p. m. Monday evenings and until 4:45 Tuesday through Friday.

A social security representative for this area will be at the Isoco County Building, Tawas City, Thursday, February 8, from 10:30 a. m. to 2:00 p. m.

Prescott Expresses Budget Reservations

State Rep. George A. Prescott, Tawas City, this week expressed some reservations on the governor's budget message.
 "I had studied the various department requests," Prescott commented, "and the total was about 1.8 billion dollars. The figures were dismaying to put it mildly."
 Prescott said that the governor's recommendations call for 1.3 billion dollars but he still is concerned greatly about some areas of the budget.
 "The 5.5 million dollar increase for law enforcement which includes a 23 percent hike in the state police budget is a good start. The 51 million dollars to assist local government and the 15 percent increase for mental health also will have my support," he continued.
 "The recommended increase of $20.50 to $29.20 per pupil to aid local schools is not enough. One of the main reasons I voted for a state income tax was my sincere belief that the approximate 17 percent return to local governments would help school districts some. Also, the revenue estimates were 272 million dollars from personal income taxes and 230 million dollars from corporate income taxes and I believe that in this area we could spread state aid more equitably than is done presently."
 Prescott said he would try to get the per pupil amount increased and many of his colleagues feel the same. "We think the whole formula should be revised," he stated.
 Prescott said that the 25.8 million dollar request to maintain the medicaid program is frightening. "For Michigan's entire comprehensive welfare service operation, there will be expended in the fiscal year 1968 nearly one-third of a billion dollars, the actual total being 328.7 million dollars of state and federal funds on the 50 percent matching basis," Prescott commented.
 "In this area, Michigan taxpayers in 1968 are laying out 164.7 billion dollars during a period of unprecedented prosperity. This is the really discouraging item," Prescott said.

Forest Chats

By LOREN WOERPEL
 District Ranger
 Huron-Manistee National Forest
 Tawas Ranger District

In our last two articles, we have discussed the rectangular survey system used in Michigan to identify the boundaries of land descriptions. We also wrote last week about who and how the original and subsequent resurveys were made.

On and in the vicinity of the national forest, you will find several different type of corner markers. Some are more reliable than others. The basic corners that control most property lines and other corners are the United States General Land Office monumented corners. These were established in the 1820s and 1830s. They have been set precisely and accurately according to law and can be relied on as accurate unless there is evidence that they have been moved, which is rare. They are inch and a half metal pipes with a brass plate on top that bear the inscription of the corner location and the initials of the general land office. It also advises that there is a fine and penalty according to law for anyone who defaces or destroys one of these monuments.

Through the years, though, these corner monuments deteriorate through rust and blazed witness trees are cut, burn up or die. In the past several years, forest service surveyors have been locating and preserving many of these corners. A cement cylinder is poured around the pipe and brass cap. New witness trees are marked. You will find that these are trees, either three or four of them located in different directions from the corner, that have red painted blaze marks on them. Also hanging on the trees will be a yellow metal forest service shield with the words, "bearing tree," printed on it. Inscribed on this shield is the compass bearing and the distance to the corner.

If the corner is not in a road bed, a cedar post painted red on top sits next to the corner. This is to help anyone looking for the corner to find it with ease. On this post, we also place a sign for public information. The sign identifies the fact that it is a monumented general land office corner and points out the penalties for defacing or destroying it.

The cost of preserving these corners as we have is considerably cheaper than having to resurvey the section to re-establish it. Re-establishing a destroyed corner by surveying easily could cost a thousand dollars and up. Most corners can be preserved for less than $50 if it is not too difficult to find. These corners are not only important to us but to any person owning land located near one of them. If available and well marked, they represent a considerable cash savings to anyone that needs to have his land surveyed. The more of them that are available, the cheaper a land survey can be.

Besides the general land office re-established section corners and quarter corners, through the years county surveys also have re-established many of the original survey corners. These are often cement markers with iron rod embedded in it, metal pipes with identification caps on them or just pipe or solid rods. To identify these, it is often necessary to do considerable detective work into old notes, both the original 1843 notes and any made by the surveyor who established the corner. Michigan Conservation Department established corners can be identified too by their character. A corner post made of about one-inch pipe was set at the corner then four more pipes were placed in cardinal compass directions from the corner. Usually by standing at the corner pipe with a compass, you can easily locate the four witness pipes. The tops of the pipes are usually painted red.

 In our next and final article on surveying, we will discuss the other lesser corners that are commonly used.

BIG FARM OUT OF A LITTLE ONE

GEORGE WASHINGTON: FARMER-INVENTOR

GRASSROOTS GLEANINGS

Photo #1 — Knee-deep in clover (this happens to be Alfalfa) Glenn Frozene is a proud and happy farmer since investing in the huge irrigation system seen in the background. The self-propelled machine can add an inch of water evenly over 150 acres or more in just over 3 days of continuous operation.

BIG FARM OUT OF A LITTLE ONE

Photo #2—And, here's another source of "miracle production". In this central Wisconsin area, there's almost never enough rain to bring the crops through profitably. Water makes the difference between about 75 and 150 bushels of shelled corn per acre. And, keep in mind, a good share of that extra production is profit.

by E. R. Minser

Certain parts of agricultural America are right now enjoying production boons the likes of which farmers have never seen before. And, it's happening on soils that don't even measure up to high average on anybody's measuring stick.

Corn yields are being doubled or better. Alfalfa tonnages are being at least tripled. Vegetable crops are yielding better and of higher quality than ever before.

The answer — WATER.

There are areas in the northern extremes of the Cornbelt that are out-producing their fellow farmers in "perfect" corn growing areas like Iowa, Illinois and Indiana. These Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota producers have found the proverbial "equalizer" in plain old H<sub>2</sub>O.

In order to find out just how much irrigation can mean to a farmer, we went up into the central Wisconsin community of Stevens Point. We visited at length with Glenn Frozene, a good Wisconsin dairyman who recently invested heavily in a self-propelled irrigation system.

Glenn is one farmer who knows that each dollar invested in fertilizer will return him $4.00 or $5.00 — if he can get water to it. In past years his only limiting element in the entire operation was water.

1967 was to be his year. Son Larry was 18. He wanted to farm.

Some consideration was given to purchasing another farm to solve the problem.

But was that the best solution?

Taxes were high and on the increase, insurance costs run high, initial investment was still another factor — not to mention probably new and biggest equipment for covering more ground.

Glenn doubted that another farm was the answer.

He and his wife, Dorothy, had heard of a self-propelled irrigating system that would take care of 150 acres of any and every crop — automatically.

This sounded more like the answer.

The area has long required irrigation to get any sort of profitable production, but it took lots of costly labor to be continually running to the field to move the pipes to a new location.

Glenn Frozene sat down and did some figuring. He concluded that if he went to narrower rows, planted his corn heavier and fertilized stronger than recommendations, he could more than double his yields — with irrigation.

Today if you go to Glenn Frozene's farm (and you're always welcome), you'll most likely see his irrigation system stretching out for 13 hundred feet delivering 11 hundred gallons of water per minute to his field crops.

An underground "river" gives him all the water he needs to keep the system going around the clock if he elects to keep it on.

"The logic of going to self-propelled irrigation and doing a better job with what we have is paying off," said the "System"-atic farmer.

"It used to be that 75 bushel corn was the absolute top yield around here. I have never in all my life seen such good corn and so much of it as I have out there in the field right now. It ought to make better than 150 bushels per acre without any problems," he continued.

Frozene went on to say that corn ensilage tonnage should about triple and, without a doubt, his all important hay tonnage will be three times as great.

"Usually spring rains bring on a good first cutting of alfalfa, but the second cutting, under dryland conditions, is usually questionable. Now, with irrigation, we should always get three cuttings and maybe four," he said.

"It's absolutely fantastic. I can now sow alfalfa in the spring and get a couple of tons per acre that same year," he volunteered with some enthusiasm.

Glenn Frozene hosted the 1966 Wisconsin Farm Progress Show. About 100-thousand farmers came to "the show" and got a glimpse of his pushbutton feeding operation. His dairy operation permits a milking string of 30 cows. In addition, he feeds out some beef.

Three large silos are kept fuller than they ever were before with vastly more haylage and silage being produced. A pushbutton system permits him to mix the ration he selects from his silos and a bulk feed tank.

Yes, Glenn Frozene, Grand Marsh, Wisconsin has found a way to make farming easier and a lot more profitable.

"Even better than that, I've found a way to take the year to year weather variations out of the operation. I can now plant, fertilize and irrigate to get a maximum production every year," he said.

"I get far more mileage out of my land. This is a simple family farm — not a corporation. I sort of think this might be the move that can make the family farm stable and practical again."

Corn population ranges from 20 to 28-thousand plants per acre in 30" rows. Since he can control virtually everything but the sunlight, Frozene is experimenting with going the limit.

A buried electric cable takes the juice to the hard working pump that delivers water through the line of sprinklers that measures a quarter of a mile in length.

The system walks itself around the 160 acres of the farm without any help whatsoever. It takes about three days to make the trip (one revolution) and deposits over 1 inch of water on the entire area.

"Only bad thing — it brings the alfalfa along so fast that it seems like you're making hay all the time. It's so efficient it'll work you to death keeping up with the crop," he said.

On unirrigated land, a 38-day recovery to the next cutting of hay is considered great. He has been getting deep lush growth in early bloom in 33 days.

"I think it's just this simple," said the inspired Wisconsin farmer, "we made a substantial but sound investment in automatic irrigation and made A BIG FARM OUT OF A LITTLE ONE — without buying any more land."

why AMIBEN is today's no.1 soybean herbicide

Because Amiben herbicide has all these qualities that soybean farmers want. • Convenient to use. Liquid concentrate mixes instantly with water to form a true solution. Granules are clean, easy to handle. Controls both broadleaf weeds and grasses—many more species than any other soybean herbicide—(some 51 broadleaf weeds, and 25 grasses including seedling Johnson grass). • Weed control lasts all season long but there is no soil residue, or carryover, at harvest. (You can plant winter grains as soon as you take off your beans.) • Not harmful to soybeans, no adverse effect on soybean seed germination. • Economical—$3.34 per acre banded at the 2 lb. per gallon rate. • No wonder Amiben is used on more acres in leading soybean states than all other soybean herbicides combined. Better call your dealer and get your supply early. You'll never know how high your soybean yields can go until you use Amiben.

CHICKEN ON SUNDAY

by Betty Stern
Farm and Home Food Consultant

Sunday, Monday or any day of the week, today's inexpensive chicken can make a delicious meal. Serve it with a flair for Sunday; try Chicken Crunch for an easy meal during the week.

What a nice company meal chicken can be! With the low prices of today you can buy just breast meat and try Chicken Cordon Bleu for a really new way of serving chicken.

So if you're used to having chicken only on Sunday it's time to change your habits.

If a recipe calls for chicken stock or broth, you can dissolve a chicken bouillon cube or a teaspoon of chicken-flavored paste or crystals in  $\frac{3}{4}$  cup water. For a richer flavor anytime, add one or two bouillon cubes to a stewing chicken. This addition makes delicious gravy.

CHICKEN FRICASSEE

Stewing chicken (about 5 pounds)	1 teaspoon monosodium glutamate
2 stalks celery, chopped	Water
1 onion, chopped	Salt and pepper
1 carrot, diced

Wash a cut-up stewing chicken. Put in heavy pot, add celery, onion, carrot, monosodium glutamate and enough water to almost cover chicken. Cover pot tightly and simmer until chicken is tender, 2 to 3 hours. Skim off excess fat from broth and season with salt and pepper. Chicken pieces may be left "as is" or skinned and cut into bite-sized pieces. Thicken broth to suit your taste with a flour and water paste (not too thick, please!). Serve with New England Dumplings to 4-6.

New England Dumplings

1 egg, well beaten	2 tablespoons margarine, melted
$\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon salt
$\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon nutmeg	60 premium saltine crackers (about), finely rolled (3 cups crumbs)
Few grains pepper
1 cup milk, scalded

Combine egg, salt, nutmeg, and pepper; stir in milk and margarine. Blend in cracker crumbs, using more or less crumbs, so that dough may be formed into small firm balls. Drop into boiling Chicken Fricassee, cover and simmer about 12 minutes. Yields 20 dumplings.

CHICKEN CRUNCH

1 can (10½ ounces) condensed cream of mushroom soup
¾ cup milk
1 tablespoon finely chopped onion
1 tablespoon chopped parsley
2 pounds chicken parts, fresh or frozen (thawed)
1 cup finely crushed herb-seasoned stuffing mix
2 tablespoons melted margarine

Mix ½ cup soup, ¼ cup milk, onion, and parsley. Dip chicken in soup mixture; then roll in stuffing. Place in shallow baking dish. Pour margarine over chicken. Bake at 400°F. for 1 hour. Meanwhile, combine remaining soup and milk. Heat; stir now and then. Serve over chicken. 4 to 6 servings.

VARIATION: Instead of herb-seasoned stuffing, use 1 cup fine dry bread crumbs, ½ teaspoon poultry seasoning, and ½ teaspoon salt.

EASY BAKED CHICKEN

2½ to 3 pounds frying chicken, cut into pieces
Seasoned salt

Preheat oven to 400°F. Sprinkle each chicken section generously with seasoned salt on both sides. Bake in uncovered pan for 1 hour, turning at the end of 30 minutes.

GOLDEN CHICKEN TIMBALES

3 tablespoons margarine
1 tablespoon chopped celery
1½ tablespoons chopped green pepper
1½ tablespoons grated onion
5 premium saltine crackers, coarsely crumbled (½ cup)
1 cup milk
1½ cups cubed chicken
2 eggs, slightly beaten
¼ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon paprika
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

Melt margarine; add celery, green pepper and onions. Stir 1 minute; add cracker crumbs, milk and chicken. Remove from heat; add eggs, salt, paprika and Worcestershire sauce. Pour into 4 individual baking dishes or one quart casserole. Place in pan of hot water. Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) for 30 to 40 minutes. Serve hot. Serves 4.

CHICKEN CRANBERRY 'MUFFIN'

2 cups cooked or canned chicken
1 stalk celery, chopped
1 stack pack premium saltine crackers, finely rolled (approximately 1½ cups crumbs)
10½-ounce can condensed cream of mushroom soup
1 small onion, chopped
1 cup sliced stuffed olives
¼ cup California walnuts, chopped
2 eggs
2 one-pound cans jellied cranberry sauce

Cut chicken into small pieces and add the next 7 ingredients, mixing until well blended. Slice cranberry sauce thinly. Fit slices into bottoms of muffin cups. Lightly grease the sides of the muffin cups and fill with chicken mixture. Bake in a moderate oven (350°F.) for 25 to 30 minutes. Turn out on rack. Serve each 'muffin' on an additional slice of cranberry sauce. Makes 6 to 9 'muffins'.

CHICKEN CONTINENTAL

3 pounds frying chicken pieces
¼ cup seasoned flour
¼ cup margarine
1 can (10½-ounce) condensed cream of chicken soup
2½ tablespoons grated onion
1 tablespoon chopped parsley
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon celery flakes
½ teaspoon thyme
Dash of pepper
1½ cups water
1½ cups packaged enriched pre-cooked rice

Roll chicken in seasoned flour. Saute' in margarine in a skillet until golden brown. Remove chicken from skillet. Combine soup, onion, and seasonings in skillet. Gradually stir in water. Bring to a boil over medium heat, stirring constantly. Pour rice into a shallow 1½-quart casserole. Stir in all except ½ cup soup mixture. Top with chicken and pour reserved soup mixture over chicken. Cover with aluminum foil and bake at 375° about 30 minutes, or until chicken is tender. Sprinkle with paprika and garnish with additional chopped parsley, if desired. Makes about 4 servings.

CRANBERRY FRITTERS WITH CRANBERRY LEMON SAUCE

Cranberry Fritters

1¾ cups sifted flour
2 tablespoons sugar
2 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon ground cinnamon
¼ teaspoon ground nutmeg
2 eggs, beaten
1 cup whole cranberry sauce
Grated rind of 1 lemon
1 tablespoon melted, cooled fat
1 to 2 pounds fat for frying

Sift flour, sugar, baking powder, salt, and spices into medium size mixing bowl. Combine eggs, cranberry sauce, lemon rind, and the 1 tablespoon fat. Stir into dry ingredients, mixing only until smooth. Avoid over-mixing. Meanwhile, heat fat slowly in saucepan. Dip a teaspoon into hot fat, then take up a rounding teaspoon of fritter mixture. Lower into fat. Fritter should slide off spoon readily. Dip teaspoon into hot fat each time before dipping it into fritter mixture. Keep spoon scraped free of dough. Turn each fritter as soon as it comes to the surface. Brown on one side. Turn and brown the other side. Frying time for each fritter is about 3 minutes. Remove from fat with slotted spoon. Drain well over pan, then place on absorbent paper. Serve hot with chicken. Makes about 32 fritters. Allow about 3 fritters per serving. Cranberry-Lemon Sauce is an excellent accompaniment.

Cranberry-Lemon Sauce

1 can whole or strained cranberry sauce (1 pound can)
¼ cup bottled cranberry juice
Grated rind of 1 lemon
½ teaspoon salt

Blend ingredients in a small saucepan and bring to a boil. Serve hot.

SOUTHERN FRIED CHICKEN

2½ to 3 pounds frying chicken, cut into pieces
Salt and pepper
Water
1 cup flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon pepper
1 egg, slightly beaten
1 cup milk
Cooking oil for frying

Season chicken with salt and pepper. Place in saucepan with water; cover and simmer until tender. Drain on absorbent paper and refrigerate until time to deep fat fry. Sift flour with baking powder, salt, and pepper into mixing bowl. Add beaten egg and milk all at once; mix well. Dip each piece of chicken in batter, then fry in hot fat (355°F.) about 5 minutes on each side or till lightly browned.

CHICKEN CORDON BLEU

4 double chicken breasts
4 ¼-inch slices Swiss cheese
4 thin slices boiled ham
½ cup flour
1 teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
1 egg, slightly beaten with 1 teaspoon water
2 cups cracker crumbs
Margarine
½ cup white wine

Separate the breasts of a chicken and remove bones (one chicken will produce 2 breast pieces). Put each breast between 2 pieces of waxed paper and pound thin with a rolling pin or mallet until twice its original size, taking care not to tear the meat. Have ready ¼-inch thick slices of Swiss cheese and thin slices of ham; the slices of cheese and ham should be slightly smaller than the chicken breast after it has been pounded. For each serving, sandwich a slice of ham and a slice of cheese between 2 pounded chicken breast pieces, and seal edges by pounding together. Dip in seasoned flour, eggs and crumbs. Saute in margarine, about ¼-inch in your frying pan until nicely browned on both sides. When chicken is browned, add white wine to the pan. Cook quickly for 1 minute. Pour pan juices over meat. Each packet (the breast from a whole chicken) makes one generous serving.

CHICKEN SCALLOPINE

2 double chicken breasts
½ cup flour
1 teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
1 egg
1 tablespoon milk
1½ cups fine cracker crumbs

Separate the breasts of a chicken and remove bones (one chicken will produce 2 breast pieces, enough for 2 servings). Put each breast between 2 pieces of waxed paper and pound thin with a rolling pin or mallet until twice its original size, taking care not to tear the meat. Dip each in seasoned flour (flour, salt, pepper), shake off surplus, dip into egg, beaten slightly with milk, then roll in fine cracker crumbs. At this point the breasts may be refrigerated until needed. Just before serving, saute the breasts in margarine, cooking quickly until brown on one side, then turn and brown on the other. This is a good dish to cook and serve in an electric frying pan.

THE WAY TO HIS HEART

by Susan Murphy

Make a really elegant meal for that someone "special" in your life. What better way to his heart on Valentine's Day.

Let the children join you in a formal candlelight dinner. The party atmosphere will be contagious and the whole family will love the one who made it so.

VEAL-SCALLOPINE

4 large onions, chopped	2 cloves garlic, crushed or ¼ teaspoon garlic powder
¼ cup margarine
2 pounds veal (sliced in thin pieces)	2 pinches of rosemary
½ cup flour	1 can condensed consomme
Pepper

Chop onions and saute in a skillet, using 3 tablespoons margarine. Remove onions to a 1½-quart casserole. Dust slices of veal lightly in flour and brown in skillet using rest of margarine, adding as needed. When browned, place veal in casserole. Drain any excess fat in skillet. Add garlic, rosemary and condensed consomme. Bring to boil; loosen brown bits in skillet and pour over veal. Cover and bake in a moderate oven, 350°F. for 1 hour or until veal is tender. Serves 6. NOTE: Veal round steak can be cut for scallopiné very easily with an electric carving knife or ask butcher to do it for you.

PEAS CONTINENTAL

2 tablespoons margarine	Dash of pepper
¼ cup minced onion	¼ teaspoon nutmeg
¼ teaspoon salt	¼ teaspoon dried marjoram
2 packages (10-ounces each) frozen peas, cooked and drained	2 tablespoons sherry wine
1 cup, sliced canned mushrooms

Melt margarine in skillet and cook onions until soft; add remaining ingredients and mix; heat thoroughly. Yield: 6-8 servings.

SWEETHEART CAKE

2½ cups sifted flour	½ cup margarine
¼ teaspoon soda	½ cup molasses
2 teaspoons baking powder	1 teaspoon vanilla
1 teaspoon salt	2 eggs
½ cup sugar	½ cup milk

Sift together all dry ingredients in a mixing bowl. Add margarine, molasses, vanilla, and eggs. Beat 1 minute by hand or electric mixer. Blend in milk and beat 2 minutes by hand or electric mixer. Pour into two, round 8-inch pans. Bake 25 minutes in 375° oven. Decorate with pink and white frosting.

NOTE: If you would like to make a heart-shaped cake but do not have heart pans, divide batter between 2 greased and floured pans—one 8-inch square pan, and one 8-inch round layer pan. Bake as directed in recipe. To make heart-shaped cake, cut the round layer in half, place square layer as a diamond, place each round half against upper sides of diamond. Frost.

Valentine Dinner

Broiled Grapefruit with Brown Sugar and Cherry	Potato Puff
Veal-Scallopine	Peas Continental
Strawberry-Marshmallow Mold	Rapidmix Caraway Rolls
Sweetheart Cake

BROILED GRAPEFRUIT WITH BROWN SUGAR AND CHERRY

Cut grapefruit in half and loosen sections. Brush top with margarine and sprinkle with brown sugar. Place cherry in center. Place 4-inches from broiler unit and broil about 8 minutes or until golden brown. A little rum put on before broiling can make a delicious addition.

TUNNEL OF LOVE CAKE

½ pound (32) marshmallows	1 cup heavy cream, whipped
¼ teaspoon salt	½ teaspoon almond extract
½ cup water	1 10-inch angel food cake
1 6-ounce package (1 cup) semi-sweet chocolate morsels

Combine marshmallows, salt and water in saucepan; place over medium heat until melted, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Stir in semi-sweet chocolate morsels until melted. Chill approximately 10 minutes. Fold in whipped cream and almond extract. Cut a slice about 1 inch thick from the top of the angel food cake. Set aside. Gently hollow out a trench in remaining cake 2 inches wide and 2 inches deep—a grapefruit knife does this job well. Tear cake pieces slightly. Fill trench with half the filling. Place torn cake on top; press down slightly. Top with remaining filling. Replace top of cake. Chill several hours.

NOTE: If desired, sides of cake may be frosted with ½ cup heavy cream whipped with ¼ cup instant sweet milk cocoa powder.

Decorator's hint: The angel food cake, made in a tube pan, lends itself naturally to floral decoration. Assemble your bouquet, wiring it together to keep its shape intact, and set it over the center of the cake, with the stems descending into the hole.

POTATO PUFF

1 envelope (3-ounces) instant mashed potatoes	2 teaspoons salt
2 cups (16 ounces) cottage cheese	2 cups (16 ounces) dairy sour cream
¼ cup chopped green onion or regular onion	3 eggs, separated
1 clove garlic, minced or ½ teaspoon garlic powder	2 tablespoons margarine

Prepare potatoes according to instructions on package. Mix potatoes, pimiento, onion, garlic, salt, cottage cheese, sour cream and well-beaten egg yolks. Gently fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Put mixture into greased 2-quart casserole. Dot with margarine over top. Bake at 350° for about 1 hour. Yield: 8 servings.

RAPIDMIX CARAWAY ROLLS

2 packages active dry yeast	2 cups creamed cottage cheese (16-ounce, small curd)
¼ cup sugar	2 eggs, slightly beaten
2 teaspoons salt	2 tablespoons caraway seed
½ teaspoon soda
4½ cups flour
½ cup water

Margarine for tops

In large mixing bowl, thoroughly mix 2 packages undissolved active dry yeast, ¼ cup sugar, 2 teaspoons salt, ½ teaspoon soda, and 1½ cups flour.

Heat ½ cup water and 2 cups of cottage cheese over low heat until warm.

Gradually add cheese mixture to dry mixture and beat for 2 minutes at medium speed of electric mixer, scraping bowl occasionally.

Add 2 eggs, ½ cup flour and 2 tablespoons caraway seed. Beat at high speed for 2 minutes, scraping bowl occasionally. Stir in additional 2½ cups flour, mixing until dough cleans bowl. (Dough will be soft and slightly sticky).

Let rise in a warm place (85°) 1 hour or until double. Stir dough down; divide among 24 large well-greased muffin cups. Cover and let rise again until double, about 45 minutes. Bake at 350° for 25 minutes or until puffs are golden brown and sound hollow when tapped. Remove from cups by inserting knife around sides of roll and muffin tin; brush with margarine. Yield: About 2 dozen.

STRAWBERRY MARSHMALLOW MOLD

1 3-ounce package strawberry flavored gelatin	1 10-ounce package frozen strawberries
1 cup boiling water	1½ cups miniature marshmallows

Dissolve strawberry gelatin in water. Add strawberries; stir until fruit separates and mixture thickens. Fold in marshmallows. Pour into 1-quart mold; chill until firm. 4-6 servings.

HEAVENLY PEARS

1 pound 13-ounce can pear halves
2 egg yolks
¼ cup sugar
2 tablespoons lemon juice
2 tablespoons plus ¾ cup flour
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon soda
¾ cup sugar honey graham cracker crumbs
½ cup firmly packed brown sugar
½ teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon vanilla extract
½ cup chopped California walnuts
½ cup margarine, melted

Drain pears; reserve 1 cup liquid. In saucepan, combine pear liquid, egg yolks, sugar, 1 tablespoon lemon juice and 2 tablespoons flour; mix well. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until mixture comes to a boil. Boil 1 minute. Pour into greased 2-quart casserole. Arrange pear halves over sauce. Combine remaining ingredients in small mixer bowl. Mix at low speed of mixer until well blended. Sprinkle over pears. Bake at 375° for 30 to 35 minutes. Drop Meringue by spoonfuls around edge of casserole. Bake 5 minutes longer. Serve warm.

Meringue

Beat 2 egg whites at high speed of mixer until soft peaks form. Gradually add ¼ cup sugar and ½ teaspoon cinnamon; continue beating until meringue stands in stiff peaks.

LEMON SPONGE PIE

1 cup sugar
1 cup hot milk
Juice and rind of 1 lemon
3 eggs (separated)
¼ teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon flour
1 tablespoon margarine

Mix sugar with salt and flour. Add the hot milk and egg yolks. Beat thoroughly. Add rind and juice of lemon. Add melted butter. Cool. Beat egg whites until stiff; fold into above mixture. Pour into an unbaked pie shell. Bake at 450° for 8 minutes, then 325° for 25 minutes.

OL' VIRGINNY LEMON TEA CAKE

2 packages active dry yeast
3 cups flour
½ teaspoon salt
1 (4-serving package instant coconut cream pudding mix)
¾ cup water
¼ cup margarine
1 egg
½ cup light corn syrup
2 eggs
1 (4-serving package instant lemon pudding mix)

In large bowl thoroughly mix 2 packages undissolved active dry yeast, 1 cup flour, ½ teaspoon salt, and instant coconut cream pudding mix.

Heat ¾ cup water and ¼ cup margarine in saucepan over low heat until warm. (margarine need not melt)

Add liquid mixture to dry ingredients. Beat 2 minutes at medium speed, scraping bowl occasionally.

Add 1 cup flour or enough to make a thick batter and 1 egg. Beat on high speed for 2 minutes, scraping bowl occasionally. Stir in remaining flour. Cover; let rise in warm place until light and doubled in size, about 1 hour.

Grease bottoms and sides of two 9-inch round layer pans. Combine corn syrup, 2 eggs and dry lemon pudding mix in small mixer bowl. Beat only until well blended, about 30 seconds. Spread yeast dough evenly in pans, pushing dough halfway up sides. Spread half of filling over dough in each pan. Cover; let rise again until light, about 15 minutes. Bake at 350° for 25 to 30 minutes. Serve warm sprinkled with confectioners' sugar.

LEMON GOLD CAKE

2 cups flour
1½ cups sugar
1 tablespoon baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
½ cup cooking (salad) oil
6 eggs, separated
¼ cup cold water
2 teaspoons lemon juice
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
½ teaspoon cream of tartar

Sift the flour, sugar, baking powder and salt together in a bowl. Make a well and add in order, the oil, egg yolk, water, lemon juice and rind. Beat with a spoon until smooth. Add the cream of tartar to the egg whites; beat until very, very stiff. Pour the egg yolk mixture gradually over the whipped whites, carefully folding with a rubber scraper just until blended. Do not stir. Pour into an ungreased 10x4-inch tube pan. Bake at 325° for 70 minutes or until the top springs back when touched. Turn the pan upside down, placing the tube part over the neck of a small funnel or empty soda bottle. When cold, loosen the sides with a spatula; remove the cake from the pan. Frost.

Lemon Fluff Frosting

½ cup margarine
Dash of salt
4 cups sifted confectioners' sugar
3 tablespoons lemon juice
2 teaspoons grated lemon rind

Cream the margarine. Add the salt. Add part of the sugar; cream well. Add the remaining sugar alternately with the lemon juice, creaming until light and fluffy. Add the lemon rind; mix until blended.

LEMONY PRUNE LOAF

1 package Buttercream Lemon Frosting Mix
1¼ cups flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon soda
½ teaspoon salt
2 eggs
½ cup cooking oil
12-ounce can prune cake and pastry filling or note below
½ cup California walnuts, chopped
½ cup sugar honey graham cracker crumbs

Grease and flour bottom and sides of 9x5-inch pan. In large mixing bowl, combine ¼ cups firmly packed dry frosting mix, flour, baking powder, soda, salt, eggs, oil and prune filling. Stir until well blended. Fold in walnuts and graham cracker crumbs. Pour into pan. Bake at 350° for 60 to 70 minutes until top springs back when lightly touched in center. Remove from pan. While warm, frost with Glaze. NOTE: Two (4¼-ounce) jars strained prunes baby food may be substituted for prune filling. Increase flour to 2 cups. Or, simmer 12-ounce package pitted prunes in 1 cup water for 15 minutes. Cool. Mash or puree with blender.

Lemon Glaze

Combine remaining dry frosting mix with about ¼ cup cream; beat until smooth.

LEMON GINGERBREAD SWIRL

¾ cup sugar
1 tablespoon flour
¼ to ½ cup lemon juice
¼ cup water
4 unbeat eggs
½ cup flaked coconut
1½ cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon ginger
¼ teaspoon allspice
½ cup firmly packed brown sugar
½ cup margarine
½ cup light molasses
½ cup boiling water

Combine in top of double boiler sugar, flour, lemon juice, water and 2 eggs. Cook over boiling water, stirring constantly, until thick. Add coconut; cool. Sift flour with soda, cinnamon, salt, ginger and allspice; set aside. Add brown sugar gradually to margarine, creaming well. Blend in 2 eggs; beat well. Add dry ingredients, alternately with molasses, beginning and ending with dry ingredients. Blend thoroughly after each addition. Stir in boiling water. Turn into 9x9-inch pan, well greased and lightly floured on bottom. Pour lemon juice over batter. Cut through batter with knife. Bake at 350° for 35 to 40 minutes. Serve warm with sweetened whipped cream. Makes 9x9-inch cake.

TOUCH OF LEMON

There's nothing like that wonderful "lemony" aroma, flavor and bright gay color. Lemon adds zest to many recipes. Seafood and fish, salads or desserts are but a few dishes which take on new interest and flavor appeal with the addition of a touch of lemon.

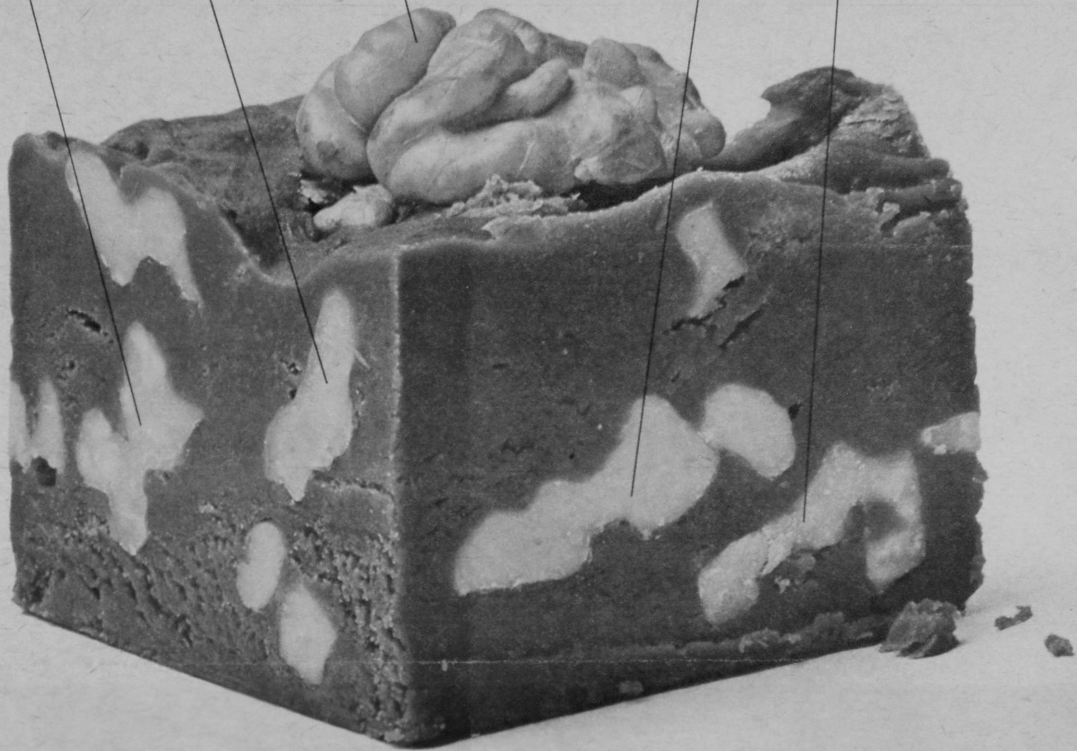

An average lemon should produce approximately ¼ cup juice and 1½ teaspoons grated rind. Lemon juice concentrates vary in strength, so check label for equivalents. Use half as much dried lemon rind when substituting for fresh. A few drops of lemon extract can give you somewhat the same flavor as grated rind or peel.

Raisins are one of mankind's oldest foods and probably the original convenience food. They are ready to use instantly.

The dried fruits of certain varieties of grapes containing 23 to 34 per cent of sugar are called raisins. This sweet mellow fruit is an excellent source of iron and because of its natural sugar content it is a quick energy food.

Vine ripened grapes are sun dried on trays in the vineyard. This concentrates their natural fruit sugar to 70% and makes them dark and handsome. Others are dried indoors under controlled conditions to produce golden raisins.

RAISINS

BEE HIVE RAISIN APPLESAUCE CAKE

1 (15-ounce) package dark seedless raisins
1 cup boiling water
1 cup margarine
1 cup applesauce
2 eggs, well beaten
2 cups sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla (or may use maple, rum, or brandy extract)

4 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons soda
1 teaspoon nutmeg
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon ground cloves

Grind raisins, using medium blade. Add boiling water and margarine. Mix well to melt margarine, stir in applesauce. Blend in eggs, sugar and vanilla. Resift flour with salt, soda and spices into raisin mixture. Mix well. Pour into well greased 13 x 9 x 2-inch pan or two 9-inch round cake pans. Bake at 350° for 50 to 60 minutes or until tests done with a toothpick. Cool and frost.

RAISIN MARMALADE TOWER BREADS

2 packages active dry yeast
3½ cups flour
1 tablespoon sugar
½ teaspoon salt
¾ cup milk
¼ cup water
1 cup seedless raisins, chopped lightly
½ cup margarine

1 egg
½ cup chopped California walnuts
½ cup orange marmalade
1 cup sifted powdered sugar
1 tablespoon orange juice or water
Non perils or mixed decors

In a large mixing bowl thoroughly mix 2 packages undissolved active dry yeast, 1 cup flour, 1 tablespoon sugar and 1½ teaspoons salt.

Combine in saucepan and heat over low heat until liquids are warm. ¾ cup milk, ¼ cup water, 1 cup chopped seedless raisins, and ½ cup margarine. (margarine need not melt)

Add liquid mixture to dry mixture and beat for 2 minutes at medium speed of electric mixer, scraping bowl occasionally.

Add 1 cup flour, 1 egg, walnuts, and marmalade. Beat on high speed for 2 minutes, scraping bowl occasionally.

Stir in additional flour and beat by hand until smooth. Cover bowl and refrigerate at least 2 hours. (or can leave it in refrigerator over night)

Divide dough into 12 equal pieces and shape into balls. Press firmly into well greased 6-ounce juice cans. Cover with dampened cloth and let rise about 1 hour or until doubled in size. Bake at 375° about 25 minutes until browned. Mix powdered sugar and orange juice and spread over warm breads. Sprinkle with mixed decors. Makes 12 individual loaves.

RAISIN NECTAR PARTY MERINGUE

1 cup golden seedless raisins
1 (12-ounce) can pineapple juice
½ cup sugar
2 tablespoons cornstarch

½ teaspoon salt
3 egg yolks
1 tablespoon lemon juice
½ cup whipping cream
Party Meringue Shell

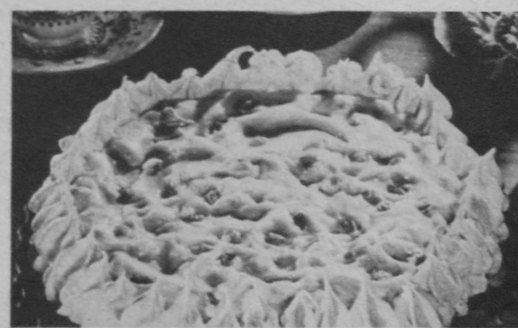

Heat raisins and pineapple juice to boiling. Stir in sugar mixed with cornstarch and salt. Cook stirring until mixture boils and thickens. Take from heat and carefully stir in lightly beaten egg yolks. Cook, stirring, a few minutes longer, until very thick. Remove from heat and blend in lemon juice. Cool. Fold in whipped cream. Turn into cooled meringue shell. Chill several hours. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Party Meringue Shell

3 egg whites
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon cream of tartar

½ teaspoon vinegar
¼ cup sugar

Beat egg whites with salt until foamy. Add cream of tartar and vinegar beating until stiff. Gradually beat in sugar until very stiff and glossy. On double sheet of brown paper draw a 9-inch circle. Spread meringue mixture evenly over circle, then build up high edges with pastry tube or spoon. Bake in very slow oven (225°F.) for 1½ hours. Cool. Carefully remove from paper.

ROCKY ROAD FUDGE SAUCE

½ cup margarine
1 cup half and half or evaporated milk
1 cup sugar
¼ cup cocoa
½ teaspoon salt

2 teaspoons vanilla
½ cup raisins
½ cup miniature marshmallows
¼ cup chopped California walnuts

Melt margarine; blend in half and half, sugar, cocoa and salt. Boil 2 minutes; cool. Add remaining ingredients. Excellent to serve over ice cream or angel food cake. Makes 2 cups.

Washington's experimental many-sided barn, on Dogue Run Farm

GEORGE WASHINGTON

FARMER AND INVENTOR

by John C. Vitale

George Washington was one of the first citizens of the world. Nevertheless, his greatest love was centered around the farm of Mount Vernon, where, between conflicts and governmental duties, he exhibited another side of his nature by inventing and developing several pieces of farm machinery.

Washington's first venture into the world of invention began in March of 1760. At this time, unsatisfied with the types of plows currently in use, he undertook the task of making a better plow. Not surprisingly, his attempt was successful.

Craftsmen were as plentiful as farmed acres at Mount Vernon, consequently, when Washington began his efforts to improve the plow, he found all the required help needed. Beginning his first venture in inventing, he called upon his blacksmith. Together, like two men with a purpose, they traveled to a neighboring field. There, with the smith's help and Washington's thinking, they put together parts of a "two-eyed" plow with other parts of a "duck-bill" plow.

Not being a man to delay anything, Washington put the new type of plow to the test immediately. For two hours, he watched intently as the plow was employed, making minor adjustments as it turned the soil with a new efficiency.

Later that night, according to the practice of the period, he entered the following statement into his journal: "Spent the greater part of the day making a new plow of my own invention, and found that it answered my purpose very well."

Although his first plow was successful, Washington's most important invention, and certainly the one in which he took the greatest pride, was a type of "drill", which he called a "barrel plow".

At the time, at Mount Vernon and elsewhere, all seeds that were sown were scattered by hand, and then covered over with a hoe or with a harrow. This tedious and time-wasting process prompted Washington to improve the old method of sowing.

Basically, Washington's "barrel plow" consisted of a wooden barrel mounted upon a wheeled plow. When the plow moved, the barrel turned. Holes were cut into the barrel and tubes placed into the holes. When in operation, the "barrel plow" deposited the seed into the ground, and a drag, placed behind the drill, covered the seed as the plow moved along.

Writing of his "barrel plow", Washington explained to a friend "that it would not work to good effect in land that is full of stumps, stones, or large clods; but, where the ground is tolerably free from these and in good tilth, I am certain you will find it equal to your most sanguine expectations, for Indian corn, wheat, barley, pease, or any other tolerably round grain, that you may wish to sow or plant in this manner."

Understandably, Washington made use of his new drill type of "barrel plow" wherever possible. Besides sowing seed of many varieties, he even tried planting turnips with it.

In the summer of 1786, in fact, he wrote proudly in his diary of sowing turnips with his plow. "Having fixed a roller to the tail of my drill plow," he wrote with pride, "and a brush between it and the barrel, I sent it to Muddy Hole and sowed turnips in the intervals of corn".

Washington's thinking, and his pronounced talent for creative invention, soon led him into the direction of architecture. In fact, he planned and drew up specifications for all the barns and other farm buildings which were erected on his vast estate.

One of his most outstanding accomplishments as an inventive architect was his 16-sided barn. This many-sided brick structure was once described by one of his neighbors as "the best and most conveniently arranged barn on this side of the Atlantic".

Included in the novel barn was a specially designed threshing floor, containing cracks through which the grain, when trodden out, dropped to a second and perfectly clean surface. Immediately the 16-sided barn became the talk of the country, adding new luster to the already glowing fame of George Washington.

Threshing machines became Washington's next great passion as a farm machinery inventor. In 1797, he employed William Booker, the American inventor who had introduced the threshing machine, to come to Mount Vernon and to set up the machine. But only disappointment followed. The thresher, at the beginning, threshed only some 40 bushels a day. Later its output dropped to 25, and it broke down completely before it had threshed a total of 500 bushels.

The following April, Washington wrote to Booker and stated that the thresher "has by no means answered your expectations or mine".

Although the Booker thresher had failed to come up to Washington's expectations, he did not give up the hope of developing a machine on his own. Corresponding at great length with both English and French agriculturalists, he soon devised a new type of thresher, based on the best points of the Booker machine and the latest European models. This thresher, although not totally perfect, served the needs of Mount Vernon for many seasons.

As a farmer and inventor, Washington's achievements cannot be measured with any degree of certainty, since, as it were, his time was called upon by his country so frequently. However, despite this fact, he did leave his mark, demonstrating to the world and future generations his ability as an inventor.

CONFIDENCE
BRAND NAMES
SATISFACTION

"Your credit is always good when you want to borrow trouble," says the Belvidere (Ill.) Daily Republican.

The O'Brien County Bell of Primghar, Iowa, says that it can remember way back when:

- a baby's sitter was its mother
- drip dry was what we did after swimming
- headshrinkers lived in the jungle
- a pusher was the guy behind you
- and a junkie bought scrap iron.

Misery, according to a young writer in the Mercer County Chronicle of Coldwater, Ohio, is when it starts to snow in the middle of the day and your mother brings your galoshes to school.

The West Bend (Wis.) News quotes the stenographer who says to the new employee: "They not only give you a pension in this office, but you age here more quickly."

"Money may not buy happiness," says the Adair County Free Press of Greenfield, Iowa, "but it sure lets you look for it in a lot more places."

"Even a kick in the pants can be a boost if you're headed in the right direction," says The Times Record of Aledo, Ill.

The Review of Plymouth, Wis., claims that drive-in banks were created so the real owners of the cars could see them once in a while.

According to The Clear Lake (Iowa) Mirror-Reporter, "Forty is a good age. Women are still interested in you, but the Army isn't."

This safety tip comes from the Dwight (Ill.) Star and Herald: Staring dulls a motorist's awareness. Rest the eyes by keeping them in motion; vary the focus to avoid fixed stare on any single object.

In other words, don't stare at a girl in a mini-skirt while driving, unless she is "in motion."

"Frustration," says The Tazewell County News of Morton, Ill., "is a bald-headed guy whose wife makes him mad enough to tear his hair."

This one comes from The Torch of Central Lake, Mich.:

"Just like Hell itself," gasped an American lady as she gazed at Mt. Vesuvius in full eruption.

"Ah, zese American!" exclaimed a Frenchman. "Where have zey not been?"

"Sometimes the fellow who is supposed to be a pillar isn't very well posted," says the Bird Island (Minn.) Union.

One way to cope with a fishy employee, suggests The Mackinaw Valley News of Minier, Ill., is to can him.

The Cannelton Tuesday News of Tell City, Ind., says, "One way to have a wife with a school-girl complexion is to get a new one every few years."

More than 140 million credit cards will be issued or renewed this year, reports the Jamestown (N.D.) Sun. This should give everyone a warm feeling—especially if all the cards are thrown into a heap and burned.

The Tri-County News of Osseo, Wis., asks, "Do you remember when Mother's meals were carefully thought-out instead of carefully thawed-out?"
