Fourth annual Northeastern Michigan Hamfest, sponsored by Iosco Amateur Radio Club, drew between 400 and 500 persons during the three-day meet October 4-

While amateur radio enthusiasts began to arrive Friday, actual program started Saturday morning with registration

The schedule Saturday included a meeting of the Michigan Amateur Radio Society.

Saturday's activities featured a trip on the AuSable River Queen attended by 50 persons, archery and pistol team demonstrations at Wilber Rifle Range. A banquet was held Saturday night at Tawas Golf and Country Club.

Following Sunday morning breakfast at the Barnes Hotel, about 100 persons enjoyed an inspection of facilities at Wurtsmith Air Force Base.

Headquarters for the event was Tawas Area High School, where a seminar was conducted Sunday by Michael VandenBraden, magazine editor. Refreshments were served at the school cafeteria, followed by a forum and a laser beam demonstration by an engineer of Michigan Bell Telephone Company. John Alexander, a member of Tawas Area School faculty, was custodian director for the hamfest and Albert H. Buch was a member of the publicity committee. Ta-was Area High School Keyettes had charge of the snack bar.

Whittemore-Prescott Cardinals were blanked by visiting Beaverton, 25-0, in Northeastern Michigan Conference action Friday night.

Carter Schuhmacher scored three PAGE ONE touchdowns for Beaverton, his first on a five-yard option; the second with a one-vard quarterback sneak and the third in the last period 25 yards off tackle.

Lone conversion was added by Bill Bishler after the opening TD with a place kick. The other score came after Mike Cingano blocked a Cardinal punt and Mike Loar scooped up the ball and took it over the goal.
