

Voters Approve TA School Millage

In a dramatic reversal of two previous stands, the electorate of Tawas Area School District last Thursday approved a 4 1/2-mill operational tax proposal for two years. This reversed the almost unanimous recent state trend of rejecting school operational millages.

With perfect weather conditions, the special election saw the largest turnout at the polls for a school election here since the 19-55 building and site vote. Some 2,324 persons cast their ballots Thursday, as compared to slightly more than 2,800 14 years ago.

The school millage proposal was adopted, 1,287 "yes" to 1,037 "no." The proposal won in all precincts but one and in that precinct the margin was close enough to assure over-all approval.

Winning by 250 votes, the proposal won in Precinct No. One (East Tawas and part of Baldwin Township), 605-404; Precinct No. Two (Tawas City, Wilber Township and part of Baldwin Township) approved the measure, 402-302; the proposal lost in Precinct No. Three (Tawas, Sherman and Grant Townships), 270-204, while Precinct No. Four (Alabaster and Whitney Townships), approved the measure, 76-61.

There were 59 absentee ballots cast in the election. There were 11 spoiled ballots, most of those being cases where the voter used a check mark rather than an X as prescribed by state law.

Iosco County Canvassing Board approved totals as announced Thursday night following inspection of election board figures on Friday.

In a prepared statement released immediately following the election, Tawas Area Board of Education stated:

"This millage proposal has been a community cooperative venture led by Citizens United for Better Education. All those connected with Tawas Area Schools extend our sincere thanks for the effort and money put into this venture by the multitude of workers.

"It is indeed a pleasure to find so many persons who will put so much time and effort into the attempt to improve education in Tawas Area. This type of continued cooperation can insure a better educational program in the future.

"The electorate has expressed itself at the election and now it becomes the duty of its elected representatives, the board of education, to implement the expressed desires of the majority of those voting.

"The board of education will restore those things cut from the program as fast as competent persons can be hired to fill the positions. The board of education further pledges that it will continue its policy of prudent expenditure of money so that students and the community will get the very best education possible."

The additional 4.5 mills will produce an estimated $185,000 annual revenue based upon a district valuation of $41,169,341.

One of the points CUBE emphasized during its pre-election campaign of informing voters was that, according to figures obtained from state educational officials, Tawas Area had the lowest millage of any school district in the state—11.17 mills. Of this, 10.08 was used for operation and 1.09 for debt retirement.

Thursday's election reversed two previous negative votes on operational millage during the past year. The first proposition held in June lost by 53 votes, while a second proposition held in July was defeated by 229 votes. There were only 874 persons voting in the first election and 1,271 persons voted in the second.

RETIRING February 28 with 35 years of federal service is Richard Price, East Tawas postmaster.—Tawas Herald Photo.

'Dick' Price to Retire as ET Postmaster

Many important improvements in the postal service at East Tawas have been witnessed by Richard L. Price, 60, postmaster since March 17, 1949, who retires February 28 with 35 years of federal service to his credit.

Price started as a clerk in the old post office located in the Klenow Building. One of the first improvements which he recalls was on November 11, 1941, when the post office was moved to new quarters in the Federal Building.

During his 32 years with the postal service, Price has seen the mail volume increase from eight to 10 times the amount which was handled in July 1937—his first year on the job.

Born at Chicago, Illinois, Price spent his youth at Boyne City and graduated from high school there. He came to this area in April 1931 as a roddman for the state highway department and worked on construction of US-23 between Augres and Oscoda.

During a change in administration in 1932, most highway employees lost their jobs and Price was one of a number of area residents who worked on the federal government's project of building a road to the lighthouse on Tawas Point. This project was done with a lot of hand labor and picks were used to break up the frozen sand.

On March 5, 1932, he married the former Evelyn Cass of Tawas City. He began his federal service in July 1934 when he entered employment of the United States Forest Service. He was a truck trail locator in Huron National Forest, working out of Mio, Glennie and Luzerne.

He worked until June 1937 building fire lines and joined the postal service a month later. Charles A. Bigelow was postmaster at the time and Joseph Dimmick was clerk.

Bigelow, Dimmick, Price, Howard Durant, who joined the service in April 1938, and Mrs. L. A. Gardner were on hand to make the big move to the new Federal Building. Also hired at the time was Harley Welch, custodian.

During World War II, Price attended the army's postal school at Fort Lee, Virginia, then served at the New York Port of Embarkation's post office, located in the annex of Grand Central Station.

He returned to East Tawas in 1946 on his discharge from the army. Postmaster Bigelow died in January 1947 and Price was clerk in charge until August, when he was appointed acting postmaster. His appointment as postmaster became effective March 17, 1949.

Home delivery was established at East Tawas in October 1948, followed by establishment of a rural route on May 19, 1956, handled by Lloyd Bowman. In 1963, a second route was established.

Price and his wife, who will retire in April as clerk for the Iosco Selective Service Board, plan to do some traveling starting next fall.

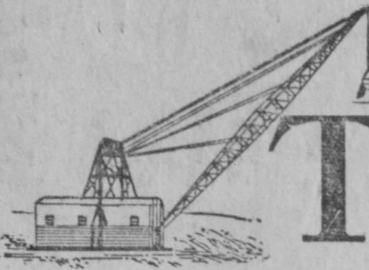

They are the parents of three children, Miss Patricia Price, Saginaw; Mrs. Donald (Virginia) Penman, Baldwin Township; Robert Price, now in the state police academy at East Lansing, "Bob" married the former Kay Kasischeke, whose father is postmaster at Tawas City.

If proposed legislation is enacted, Price's successor may be named differently than the one which has been traditional in the postal service. Pres. Richard Nixon and Postmaster Gen. Winton M. Blount announced February 5 a new policy to remove all postmaster and rural carrier appointments from politics.

The Civil Service Commission will conduct open competition examinations for all new postmaster and rural carrier vacancies. The top qualified person will be named to fill each vacancy.

While it is necessary to change the law in order to meet this proposal, Price said Monday that he believed such a policy would be in the best interest of the postal service.

"It would reward those postal employees with the best qualifications and that is important to the morale of the service," he said.

Would Restore Most School Cuts Next Fall

Restoration of certain programs cut from Tawas Area School's curriculum last fall due to the lack of funds probably will not be reinstated until the new school term next fall.

After approval of the school's millage proposal last week, board of education members and administrators reviewed last fall's program cuts at the board's regular meeting Monday night.

In several instances, teachers with special qualifications had been placed in elementary positions and it was felt that, in these instances, it would be best for the students if the teacher would remain with the present class for the remainder of the school year.

This would mean that elementary physical education, vocal music, remedial reading, a full-time junior high guidance counselor and junior high enrichment courses would not be reinstated until next fall.

The board authorized immediate reinstatement of sixth grade band. Gene Salamony, director, had been handling the sixth hour study hall, the regular period for this instruction. He will now return to instructing sixth graders during this hour and will be replaced in the study hall by Herman Rollin, who was hired in December.

The board also authorized reinstatement of all spring sports and certain educational field trips by elementary grades. The board authorized use of spectator buses (See BOARD, page 3.)

Baby Rats Cause Exciting Day for School Officials

Tawas Area School was over-run with rats Monday—but before the rumor mills begin to churn, the situation is well in hand—not some of the missing rats, mind you, but the student who brought the baby rodents to school for science class has been warned to leave them home in the future.

Administrators said the junior high student thought that her class might like to have a litter of baby rats for classroom study. She gave several of the rats to friends.

It turned out to be an interesting day for administrators, who tried to find the 36 baby rats. Most were found or students turned the rodents into the school office when an announcement was made on the school's public address system. A few were not located and they may have been taken home with students.

Band Members Bring Home 14 'T' Awards

Thirty-seven Tawas Area Band members traveled to Whittemore-Prisco Area High School last Saturday to participate in District IX Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association Solo and Ensemble Festival.

This festival provides an individual student with the opportunity to prepare a musical work to a high level of achievement. Their performance is then rated I to V by an experienced adjudicator.

With 29 entries, Tawas received 14 I, 12 II and three III division ratings. There were 20 solos, 13 of which received I ratings, nine ensembles which received one I, seven II and one III.

Solos performed included four piano, three bassoons, two flutes, two tuba, two string bass, alto clarinet, xylophone, Bb clarinet, alto clarinet, Eb soprano clarinet, French horn and baritone horn.

Types of ensembles involved were percussion quartet, two clarinet trios, woodwind quintet, corn duet and quartet, and French horn quartet.

Students from Arenac-Eastern, Atlanta, Au Gres-Sims, Clare, Fennell, Geriah-Higgins, Gladwin, Harrison, Houghton Lake, Osceola, Sheppard, Standish, Starling, Whittemore - Prescott, Ogemaw Heights and Tawas Area participated in the festival.

Those receiving a I division rating are invited to participate in the state solo and ensemble festival which will be held March 22 in Lansing.

PLANS for expansion of Tawas Hospital and for a fund drive to raise approximately $800,000 for the hospital were announced during a luncheon held last Friday noon. Area pastors and hospital officials listen to a briefing given by Donald Miner, administrative assistant.—Tawas Herald Photo.

Tawas Hospital to Launch Drive for Expansion Funds

At a noon luncheon Friday, the advisory board of the Tawas Hospital Association announced its kickoff of a fund drive for the $800,000 hospital expansion announced recently.

It is hoped that at least one-half of this amount will be raised through contributions from generous benefactors, possibly some federal aid can be acquired, with the remaining being financed through the hospital's assets.

A personal appeal will be made to businessmen of the area and a plea for individual donations is also encouraged, stated Richard Harris, president of the board of trustees.

"The four-county area has been very fortunate during the last 15 years to have our hospital available. However, our community has outgrown the present facility. Therefore, there is a real need, as most of our citizens know that due to overcrowded conditions and the tremendous progress in medicine during the past 20-25 years, expansion to this community hospital is necessary," said Harris.

Due to changing federal and state regulations in hospital requirements, many updating procedures must be accomplished if the hospital is to remain an accredited, licensed medical facility. This modernization is included in the overall project.

There are several rooms in the present facility which do not have contribution plaques with an individual or organizational name. These plaques can be procured with a $2,500 contribution which is the original contribution made in the original construction. To buy a new room with a name plaque, there is a minimum contribution of $4,000. These can be obtained by an individual, a group of individuals, organizations or a business.

Plans are being made to try to get two or three more physicians in the area, one being a general surgeon. One of the very important areas for expansion and relocation for centralization will be a 24-hour staffed outpatient emergency department.

Some of the larger items for the expansion and updating the present facility are:

1. Sixteen additional medical-surgical beds.
2. Centralize and enlarge the emergency room for more efficient 24-hour outpatient care.
3. Centralize and enlarge the coronary care unit from a two-bed to a four-bed unit.

Every effort will be made to accomplish this project without an increase in patient room charges, reports M. Jerry Norwood, hospital administrator. "Your hospital is endeavoring to give the very finest professional care that can be acquired through constant training classes of personnel management of funds and with a deep, sincere feeling for humanity," he stated.

Norwood said it is realized that for a growing community, progress must be made through the efforts of the citizens of the area and with summer friends, who spend vacations along the beaches of Lake Huron.

"They are just as much a part of our community as we who are fortunate enough to live here the year around," said Norwood. "We are very fortunate that they, too, are interested and willing to help."

Rev. Farah Accepts New Call as Birmingham Youth Pastor

The Rev. Ronald R. Farah, pastor of Zion Lutheran Church, Tawas City, for the past 2 1/2 years, announced at a congregation meeting Sunday evening that he has accepted a new call and would be leaving effective March 1.

He has been named youth pastor of Our Shepherd Lutheran Church, Birmingham.

Pastor Farah, who has been interested in youth activities at local and district levels, said that his new pastordship would be a real challenge. A separate congregation is being organized within the Birmingham congregation to handle the needs of young people.

If this idea proves successful, and he has every reason to believe it will, it will be quite unique in a new field of endeavor. "It is often the case that the regular pastor gets involved administering the church program and serving adults. Oftentimes, the youth become almost a forgotten corps," said Pastor Farah.

His new congregation will be large enough to declare that young people are an important enough to have their own pastor. It will mean that the youth pastor will avoid getting too involved in administrative tasks of the church, other than that involving young people.

"There are all kinds of ideas concerning this type of ministry but, generally speaking, a church will hire an adult or layman to serve the youth and he carries on the program as best as he can. Never before has there been a call to an ordained clergyman to serve the youth and this may have far-reaching implications for the church as a whole," said Pastor Farah.

"I think young people have always tried to find an identity or place in the world. We are going to make them feel a part of the church, let them contribute their ideas and see what happens."

Pastor Farah commented on how much he and his family have enjoyed their stay in this congregation. "It has been easy to become a part of the community and people have made us feel very much at home. In fact, there will be many times when we will say, 'Remember up in Tawas when...'"

"We were starting to feel real settled here and we expect many exciting things will be happening in the near future. But, the pull of this new work is just too much," he stated.

Pastor and Mrs. Farah came here in August 1966. They have three children. He had served three years as pastor of Christ Lutheran Church in Rochester, Minnesota, and Our Savior Lutheran Church, Eyota, Minnesota. He attended Detroit Lutheran High School, then studied at Concordia College, Fort Wayne, Indiana. (See FARAH, page 6.)

TODAY'S Meditation from The World's Most Widely Used Devotional Guide

Read James 5:13-16

It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto thy name, O most High.

Traveling toward the Holy Land, I became ill in Athens, Greece. My fever soared and I was taken to the hospital. Confused and restless in the night, I thought I heard the singing of angels.

Feebly, I crawled out of bed. Through the doorway, I saw a host of nurses and orthodox sisters across the hall. A man had just died and the nurses and nuns, who had ministered to him in his sickness, now filled his room and surrounded the doorway.

Christians are a singing people. The cynic scoffs; the atheist sets his jaw and performs his duty grim-faced and without inspiration.

Dear God, we thank Thee for the joy of salvation we have in Christ Jesus, our Lord—the joy which gives birth to singing.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY Is mine a singing faith?—Richard B. Wilke (Kansas).

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

February 5, 1969

Tawas Herald Tawas City, Michigan Dear Citizens, Thank you for caring enough for us to take the time to vote "Yes," knowing it would cost you more money. We thank you for making a better education possible, by your vote, the CUBE program.

To the Publishers of The Tawas Herald Gentlemen: Realizing that no one can truly speak for anyone but himself, I would like to try to express my personal appreciation for the role The Tawas Herald played in service to our community and our school through the election of February 6.

But that editorial was a banner—a blaze of bugles! It stated the case, it pointed the way and it challenged us all to do something about it.

A group of us got together to meet this challenge. We were helped, put up with, inspired and buoyed on by your continual cooperation and massive effort to make our findings available to the community.

Going back to that initial editorial again, it took a big chunk of intestinal fortitude to come out with it in the face of what appeared to be a pretty hostile environment. It showed that the Herald was ready to sacrifice its position in the community by trying to serve it.

To the Editor: How do you think a community? How do you give about it to be certain you give each one his due with missing a single one?

The recent millage campaign did not satisfy everyone—no controversial issue can. It can be said without fear of contradiction that you are now a better informed electorate.

W-P Cards Drop Two Games to Roscommon

Whittemore - Prescott Cards dropped both games to Roscommon Friday night, the varsity in an 80-79 overtime loss and the JV squad blew a good lead to lose in the last quarter, 54-45.

The Cards lost pretty much knocked them out of the NEM title contention as Harrison continued to roll along, squeezing by Beaverton to keep a tight hold on first place.

The Cards' Mark Stahl collected the first basket, but the Bucks quickly took over the lead and held it until late in the second quarter when the Cards took a one-point edge to lead at halftime, 36-35.

Two fielders each by Ostline and Glover put the Bucks ahead as the first half started. Rick Gay, Randy Gay and Mike Cromwell each contributed a two-pointer to come within one, but it was a couple of minutes before another fielder by Randy Gay tied the score at 48 all.

The lead changed hands with almost every basket until early in the last quarter. Three straight fielders by Rick Gay, then a little later, two by Jeff Fellows, gave the Cards a six-point lead, 66-60. The Bucks came within three again at 69-66, but Stahl and Randy Gay made it 73-66 with three minutes to go.

The Bucks came back with a charity toss and three fielders to tie it up at 73-73 with two minutes to go. The Cards tried to run out the clock and get the last shot to break the tie. With eight seconds to go, the Cards called time out, then passed the ball in from the side court, but could not get a shot away before time ran out sending the game into overtime.

Roscommon started off the overtime with four quick points and it looked like it was all over, but Coach Fox's boys had not given up yet. Rick Gay hit a 20-foot shot, the Bucks collected a charity toss, Mike Cromwell's two-pointer cut the lead to one point, but Myers connected on a fast break to make it three points with time running out. Rick Gay hit another from the corner and the Cards were only one point back. The Bucks held on until the final whistle to down the Cards in a heart breaker.

Rick Gay led all the scoring with 29 points on 14 fielders and a charity toss. Two other Cards hit double figures, Jeff Fellows with 22 points and Mark Stahl with 10. Dale Myers led the winners with 27. Mike Glover was right behind with 24.

The Card JV lost in the last quarter when the offense fell apart with only 13 points to the Little Bucks' 22. Sholtz led scoring with 24 points for the winners. Chuck Nichols collected 22 for the losing Cards.

Whittemore - Prescott varsity scoring was as follows: Cromwell, 3-2-8; Rick Gay, 14-1-29; Stahl, 4-2-10; Fellows, 8-6-22; Randy Gay, 4-0-8; Tom Cromwell, 1-0-2.

Roscommon: Ostling, 6-2-14; Myers, 12-3-27; Glover, 10-4-24; Sherwood, 5-0-10; Sherwood, 2-1-5.

During the preliminary game, the eighth grade girls defeated the seventh grade, 19-10. Scoring was as follows: Whittemore - Prescott — Britt, 6-1-13; Farro, 2-0-4; Erickson, 2-2-6; Girard, 3-1-7; Blust, 0-1-1. Oscoda — Jocks, 8-5-21; Larkin, 1-0-2; Hollen, 1-1-3; Henry, 1-3-5; Boran, 1-2-4; Sands, 0-1-1; Randles, 0-2-2.

Braves Fall Again; Panthers Win, 66-43

Tawas Area Braves dropped another NBC contest Friday night, this time losing to the Standish-Sterling Panthers, 66-43.

Play in Friday night's tilt was a far cry from the exciting games which have marked competition between these two schools in recent years. Both teams made many mistakes, had poor passing and were unable to hold onto the ball.

The Panthers took control early in the first quarter and were never headed, leading 14-3 at the first whistle. The winners added 14 points in the second quarter, but the Braves closed the gap to some extent with a 16-point total.

The 22-8 point margin put the Panthers far out in front in the third quarter and they stayed there with a 16-11 fourth quarter margin.

Ripelle, classy Panther senior, topped scoring for both teams with 27 points. Dennis Krish paced the Braves with 21 points, but could not buy a field goal in the second half.

Action returned to the home court last night (Tuesday) when the Braves play host to the Oscoda Owls, conference leaders. The Braves travel to Gladwin this Friday night.

Varsity scoring was as follows: Tawas Area — Aikens, 2-2-6; Yanek, 3-0-6; Brown, 0-1-1; Krish, 5-11-21; Baker, 0-2-2; Short, 1-0-2; Mick, 0-1-1.

Standish - Sterling — Ripelle, 11-5-27; Swartz, 1-0-2; Bill Brown, 1-2-4; Bob Brown, 1-1-3; Pestruie, 1-0-2; Martin, 6-2-14; Chaltrow, 1-2-4; Templin, 2-4-8; Gwidala, 1-0-2.

Three Hurt on Snowmobiles

Three different snowmobile accidents on Saturday and Sunday sent area residents to Tawas Hospital for treatment of injuries.

Vicki Look, 14, Tawas Township, was treated Saturday for a fractured leg. She was a passenger on a snowmobile driven by her brother, Robert, 12 years of age. They were operating their machine at the Russel Anschuetz home on M-55. The children pulled around a truck parked in the yard and collided with a vehicle driven by their father. Merlin, who had just pulled into the driveway.

Robert Lutz Jr., 40, Sterling, lost the little finger on one hand Sunday afternoon when a snowmobile driven by John Chaplin, 39, Sterling, collided with his machine on Monument Road. The men were on their way to Silver Valley and Lutz said that Chaplin was following him.

Mrs. Arden Charters of Whittemore was treated for a bruised head Sunday evening. She was a passenger on a machine driven by her husband. The snowmobile hit a wire and Mrs. Charters was thrown off the machine. She was treated and released.

Junior Braves Won Thriller

Tawas Area Junior Braves won an overtime victory from the Little Panthers of Standish-Sterling Central, 45-43, last Friday night.

The Junior Braves jumped off to a one-point lead in the first quarter and both teams scored nine points in the second quarter.

The Panthers jumped far out in front in the third quarter with a 17-5 margin.

Down 13 points and six minutes to go, the Little Braves suddenly caught fire as Tim Fox meshed three straight one-handers. Chuck Peterson, who was out with an injured ankle in the third, scored 16 points in the first half. He came back in the fourth quarter to score four big points.

Looking Your Best is Theme of Class Set February 19

Youth seems to be the current fashion ideal, but there is no age limit on looking your best. Individuals can appear youthful without looking ridiculous by dressing either too young or too extreme, according to Miss Bernetta Kahabka, clothing specialist with Michigan State University's Cooperative Extension service. She will discuss the age element and other aspects of looking your best at an open class Wednesday, February 19. It will be held at the East Tawas Community Building at 1:30 p. m.

Arrangements for Miss Kahabka's lesson are being handled by Mary Peters, extension home economist in Arenac, Iosco and Ogemaw Counties. The meeting is being sponsored by the Iosco County Family Living Council. The council urges all women in the area with an interest in current styles and making the most effective use of them to attend.

Miss Kahabka believes that women are interested in improving their appearance because how they look affects how they feel about themselves. It also reflects on their family. And a woman's looks tell much about her to strangers without a word being uttered.

But dressing becomingly is more than knowing about colors, line and fabric, and the current fashion styles. It means using these in relation to the individual's body proportions, personal coloring, personality and age, Miss Kahabka believes.

"Take advantage of fashion, if you want to, but take the parts which are best for you," she says. Miss Kahabka will provide questions for women to use in analyzing themselves and ideas on ways to camouflage and accent with dress.

Ronald Stoor has been selected as "teacher of the week" by the Tawas Area Chapter of Future Teachers Club.

Stoor was born and raised at Crystal Falls, a town in the Upper Peninsula compared in size to East Tawas. He received his formal education at Crystal Falls High School and Northern Michigan University.

He completed his student teaching at Ishpeming and served three years in the United States Army.

Algebra I and algebra II are the classes taught by Stoor at Tawas Area School.

He is single and spends his spare time enjoying such hobbies as hunting and tennis.

When asked how he felt about the school, Stoor replied that he likes the attitude of the students and the community.

VA Spikes Rumor on GI Insurance

A false and misleading rumor sweeping the nation is plaguing the Veterans Administration and leading thousands of veterans to write the Veterans Administration requesting dividends on GI insurance based on service in World War II.

Congress has not passed a law giving all World War II veterans a 50 cent per $1,000 dividend on GI policies. The Veterans Administration has not requested veterans to write regarding such a dividend. It is a hoax.

The only dividends that are currently paid are to World War I and World War II veterans who have continued their government life insurance in force. These dividends are paid on an annual basis and are distributed on the anniversary date of the policies.

Mr. Fitzgerald, manager of the Detroit VA office, stated that the VA is attempting to stop what amounts to a baseless but very expensive rumor.

A Tawas Herald classified will get those unwanted items moving—at a profit to you.

Sweetener: Real vs. Artificial

I have heard a few ladies wondering about the safety of using artificial sweeteners and thought you might be interested in an article from the recent "Michigan Diabetes News" and written by the Nutrition Committee, Michigan Diabetes Association.

The article states that only three effects have been reported from the use of artificial sweeteners and all of these are minor. The committee concludes, "It is reasonable to state, therefore, that at present, there are no significant ill-effects shown to occur with the normal or moderate use of cyclamates as an artificial sweetener."

New Foods Make News

Liquid lemon peel, chunk style instant coffee, salad dressing in individual packets are not dreams, but concrete examples of the here and now in new food products. New food ideas are closely guarded secrets, but it is safe to predict there are many more coming out.

For example, let us go back to the liquid lemon peel. Fragrant, flavorful lemon peel has always been a popular ingredient with good cooks. However, the flavor components are fragile and do not hold up well over periods of time. Now comes liquid lemon peel in an aerosol container, where air cannot get to it to cause loss or deterioration of quality. Each one-ounce container holds the equivalent of 90 fresh lemons. It can be dispensed to taste with just a flick of the finger—and that is an improvement over the old method of skimming the peel off by hand. Usually, more than the lemon got peeled.

Chunk style instant coffee is joining the familiar powdered varieties on grocers' shelves.

Due to improved processing methods that have made instant coffee very easy to dissolve in hot water, processors have decided to experiment by omitting the powdering step. It is also possible to buy ground coffee, pre-measured

Value Showdown:

Match these features against what competition gives you for the same kind of money, and you'll have a better idea why more people are buying Chevrolets again this year.

Built-in "guard rails"
There's a strong steel beam built into every door of every 1969 Caprice, Impala, Bel Air, Biscayne, Kingswood Estate Wagon, Kingswood, Townsman and Brookwood.

We call it a side guard beam, and it looks like one of those guard rails you see along the freeway.

That's what it's there for: To guard you. To strengthen the door and put a more solid wall between you and the outside world.

Not a glamorous feature. But you'll have to admit, worthwhile.

Computer-selected springs
Maybe you'll order your new Chevy equipped to the hilt. Or maybe you'll order it with hardly anything on it.

Either way, you're going to get your full measure of our renowned ride.

Because we go to the trouble of programming each car's equipment load into an electronic computer.

The computer then tells us exactly which springs to use, depending on the car's weight and the way it's distributed.

Chevrolet, the only car in its field with computer-selected springs.

Fenders inside fenders
We could have skipped this. (The other cars in our field do.) But we're as anxious as you are to keep your beautiful new Chevy looking beautiful and new.

So:
Up inside the regular fenders we've placed a second set. They do all the in-fighting. Catch all the splashed-up rain, slush and road salt. Stop the kicked-up stones.

While your "outers" just sit there looking pretty.

Astro Ventilation
The other two cars in our field give you air intakes down by the floor.

So do we.

We also give you two up on the instrument panel.

And all four of them are adjustable so you can regulate the flow of air just the way you like it.

Even with all the windows closed, you'll be comfortable inside. You get air without wind. Without noise.

Astro Ventilation is standard, now, on all the big Chevrolets.

The theft-thwarter
On the steering column there's a lock.

Only Chevrolet has it, in Chevrolet's field.

You turn the key and it locks three things:
Your ignition.
Your steering wheel.
Your shift lever.

When you own a car this tempting, you don't dare take chances.

Biggest standard V8 in our field
Ask any car enthusiast, he'll tell you:
Chevrolet builds great engines. Especially V8s.

And this year there are six great V8s available for the big Chevrolet. Standard: Our 235-hp 327-cubic-inch Turbo-Fire.

Another thing: We've lowered the price of several of our bigger V8s along with our automatic transmissions and power disc brakes. Which makes it possible for you to buy a '69 Chevrolet for even less money than you could last year.

Show up for our Showdown. You can't lose.

Forest Chats

By LOREN WOERPEL, Ranger
Tawas Ranger District
HURON - MANISTEE NATIONAL FOREST

The question on many minds around the county is, "How is the wildlife fairing this winter?" It appears that the answers depends on where you look.

We have made a special effort to check out certain key places on the district these past two weeks and can report that we know as of February 5. Weather conditions can change abruptly and change the picture we are reporting as quickly.

Generally, the two January thaws and the rains helped deer in the areas we observed. After it froze again, they were able to get around on top of the snow and appeared to range freely in cover areas. They did appear to move out of cover areas for short distances, to feed. The thaw reduced

In Cooke swamp, about three square miles of cedar swamp south of Cooke Dam, we found that heavy snows earlier this year had bent over a lot of small cedar, making it available to the deer wintering there. They appear to be ranging through the swamp easily at this time. We have one report of a dog kill near the river and found either dog or coyote tracks in the deer trails on the south side.

North of the river and west of Five Channels dam there is less natural cedar available than in Cooke swamp. The deer there have been able to range farther away from the swamp to find browse in the hardwoods.

Conditions on the north side of Tuttle Marsh appear to favor fairly free ranging away from the jack pine cover. Browse was still left in the cuttings made two years ago just off of Old US-23, though a good deal has been eaten, so far. A small timber sale in jack pine operating two miles south of the black top road on the east side of the forest land is attracting a large group of deer.

We have a report that a small, cedar-post sale in the swamp south and east of Wakefield village is attracting 20 to 30 deer.

Our crew observed a dog attacking a deer northwest of South Branch but was too late to save the deer. While doing timber stand improvement work in aspen stands, they observed a large population feeding in aspen cut by a timber sale operation and in their work area on trees they fell. Apparently, while the deer can now move out of cover into feeding areas without too much trouble, dogs are still faster on the frozen crust and are taking their toll throughout the county.

Ruffed grouse and turkey are probably having more difficulty than deer with the frozen snow. The crust keeps them from using the snow as shelter from cold and predators. We have observed many grouse eating buds in aspen trees last week. This game bird's food supply, too, is limited by the mantle of snow.

The thaw has allowed many of the timber cutters to get back into the woods again and in many of the sales, deer are wintering nearby, so they will be able to use the material felled during the harvest.

Browse habitat projects have been started by volunteers, under the direction of the Isoco Sportsman's Club, on Cooke swamp with the emphasis on increasing openings in the cedar to encourage sprouting of hardwood trees and cedar for winter browse in the future, as well as providing food now in the tops of felled trees. This work is on national forest land and done under a cooperative agreement between the forest service and the club.

More will be reported as the winter progresses.

How Much Did You Make Last Year?

How much did you make last year? Now that January 1 has arrived, a lot of people are being asked that question, and if these people are among the many social security beneficiaries, they are being asked that question by the Social Security Administration.

Any social security beneficiary who has earned over $1,680 in 1968 must make a report of his earnings to SSA before April 15. While this report assures SSA that no more than the correct amount of monthly benefits has been paid, it also serves another purpose. It helps SSA find those beneficiaries who are entitled to more monthly payments than they actually received during the year. For example, a person may have told SSA early in 1968 that he would earn $3,500 during the year and only received $54 in benefits. At the end of the year, however, he may find that he earned only $2,700. If he was eligible for a monthly benefit of $105, the difference in earnings would mean an additional $710 in social security benefits.

Conversely, if a person told SSA early in the year that he would earn only $2,000 in 1968, but found later that he had earned over $3,000 he would receive less in social security payments. Of course, he should notify SSA as soon as he knew he would earn more than $2,000.

All of this stated John Carr, district manager of the Bay City Social Security office, points up the need for the social security beneficiary to keep SSA informed of his work activity. This includes the annual report of earnings as well as significant changes in work activity. If anyone is not sure how his work will affect his social security benefits, he is advised to get in touch with the social security office. The Bay City social security office is located in 1009 North Madison Avenue, Bay City, and the telephone number is 883-9579. Office hours are 8:45 a. m. to 4:45 p. m. Monday through Friday, and until 6:45 p. m. on Monday evenings.

A representative from the Bay City office will be at the Isoco County Building February 13 and 27, 8:30 a. m. to 3:00 p. m.

Now is the time to turn those unwanted items into cash. Sell them quick through a Tawas Herald classified.

Home Builders Association Held Meeting at Center

An organizational meeting of the AuSable Area Home Builders Association was held at Consumers Power Company's service building, East Tawas, February 5. Ivan Forester, past president of the State Board of the National Home Builders Association, presented an informative talk on the benefits to the builders of being members of the association. Seven directors were elected. Sy Gobel was elected president; Al Smith, vice president; Robert O'Neil, secretary-treasurer. The remaining directors are Robert Oates, Ernest Ors, Ray Abbott and Cecil Pinder. The next meeting of the association is scheduled for Monday, February 24. Notices of this meeting will be mailed to all builders and their associates in Isoco and Alcona Counties.
