Program Was Big Success

Tourist Festival Had Weatherman's Help

Perfect weather conditions greeted the seventh annual Michigan Tourist Festival in the Tawas. The entire July 8-13 program enjoyed sunny skies and lived up to its previous billing as the "best in the festival's history."

Highlight of the six-day event was the annual parade Saturday morning, which featured gaily decorated floats, clowns, marching units, equestrian units and old-time vehicles.

Winners in the clown contest following the parade were Leslie Cuthbertson, five years of age, East Tawas, first place; Brian Howell, Tawas City, second place; Greg McCormack, Tawas City, third place.

Saturday afternoon's festivities were highlighted by crowning Miss Karen Stoy, 22, Tawas City, as Michigan Tourist Festival queen. First runner up was Kathy Karcher, 19, Oscoda, and Nancy Schwarz, 17, Flint, second runner up.

Other girls participating in the contest were Madeline Wetherell, National City; Diane Roncone, Oscoda; Norma Bailey, Whittemore; Jacqueline Sidebottom, National City; Nancy Jo Guay, Whittemore. Judging was held at the East Tawas Park following a program presented by Ruth's School of Dance. A crowd of several hundred persons was on hand to watch the crowning.

Saturday's program included Knot Hole and Pony League all-star games at the East Tawas athletic field and a fireworks display at the Michigan Waterways Commission Dock concluded Saturday's program.

Sunday schedule of events drew another large crowd at the Michigan Waterway Commission dock for scuba diving demonstrations and a water show. East Tawas Lions Club held its annual chicken barbecue at the East Tawas Park.

The six-day program featured a sidewalk sale at participating businesses on Friday, a concert

Thursday evening by Tawas Area High School Band at the Tawas City Park, games for children Thursday at the East Tawas athletic field, square dancing Wednesday night at East Tawas and a program Wednesday evening on coho fishing at the East Tawas Community Building.

A carnival sponsored by Tawas Chamber of Commerce at the Bridge Street show grounds, East Tawas, was well attended throughout the festival.

Jack Jacques was general chairman of the festival. Some of his key workers were C. A. Arlington, clown's contest, and Carl Eckman had charge of the parade.

"LOOK FOR WATER about 50 feet deep and you will find the coho." This was the word from Capt. Hank Bradley of Coho City Marina, shown here with a coho which he caught Tuesday morning in Lake Huron east of Tawas Point. Accompanying him on the fishing trip was Mrs. Bradley. The coho "disappeared" several weeks ago in Lake Huron, but Oscoda fishermen turned up catches last week. "You have to go out and find them," said the Tawas City charter boat operator.—Tawas Herald Photo.

Proposed Weir Site is Controversial

Monday night's meeting concerning placement of a proposed coho weir in the Tawas River emphasized several points:

1. Regardless of the location, some adjacent property owners are going to be unhappy.
2. A weir is absolutely necessary in order to remove coho from the river, as the fish die soon after their spawning run.
3. A weir may attract large numbers of persons, which could well be a nuisance to adjoining property owners and provide a traffic-parking problem.
4. A great deal of responsibility will be placed upon local government for providing police protection to minimize trespassing complaints.
5. While the Michigan Department of Natural Resources apparently has expended much effort toward locating the proposed weir closer to the river mouth, such effort should have been taken a year ago rather than two months ago.
6. Time is short for placement of a weir, as the fish are expected in the river within 60 days.

Monday night's meeting was called by the city council following receipt of complaints a week ago by property owners near the proposed weir location at the foot of First Avenue. Department of natural resources representatives attending the meeting were Gary Schicke of Mio, John MacGregor of Roscommon and Donald Bell, area conservation officer.

MacGregor explained that the department now has a 90-day option for purchase of the First Avenue site, which received approval of the conservation commission last Friday. Mechanics for the purchase of this property are now open. The site had been approved by the council about a month ago, although it had indicated it was more favorable to a site on property west of Mathews Street.

Ben Brewer, First Ward supervisor, expressed the opinion that the department had not expended enough effort to secure a location closer to the river mouth. He believed the location of the fish trap in a residential area would be a "disaster," because it would attract large numbers of spectators who would trespass on private property.

MacGregor emphasized that the lands division had spent a considerable amount of time in investigation of weir sites, which was to his satisfaction. He said that four other down river options were either not available or not acceptable. He said that the state, too, was interested in locating the weir closer to the river mouth, but that a site was not available.

James Dillon, a member of the city planning commission, said that property on First Avenue was zoned residential and that the planning commission had not been officially consulted on a zoning change.

Alderman Cecil Cable pointed out that two members of the planning commission had attended a meeting between the council and department of natural resources and that no complaint was heard over the proposed First Avenue location.

MacGregor expressed the opinion that this would not be a commercial enterprise as the department was not going to sell fish which were removed from the weir, because of a recent ruling from the Federal Food and Drug Administration. He admitted, however, that this policy could be changed at a later date.

Alderman Howard Hatton expressed the opinion that a coho weir was not a commercial enterprise, but a necessity, inasmuch as dead fish in the river would be a nuisance to the entire community. He believed that a weir would fall in the same category as a power plant or hospital, which is necessary to a community.

Mayor Russell A. Rollin Sr. stated that all land along the Tawas River was private, with the exception of bridges and streets which run to the water. He felt a weir was necessary and that the First Avenue site was the only land which is available. The mayor said he had not foreseen any difficulty in rezoning the property if it was necessary and that he, too, did not consider a weir as a commercial enterprise. He emphasized that the council is the city's governing body, elected by the people. He said that the council would take opinions expressed under advisement, sift them out and come up with a decision. "They are trying to do a job the best they know how," he stated.

In answer to one question, MacGregor stated that on a good Sunday, 2,000 to 7,000 people have visited the weir on the Platte River.

He said, however, that parking was available at that location and the department welcomed visitors there. He emphasized that the weir site on the Tawas River would be completely fenced off and believed that any problem of sight-seers would be minimized.

Russell Carney, who owns property adjacent to the site, said he was not going to "let every Tom, Dick and Harry run over my property."

MacGregor stated that the weir to be installed in the Tawas River would be a temporary affair constructed of pipes. It is to be flown in from Alaska. Once money is received from the legislature, a permanent installation would be made.

The state official said that because of the manner of installing a temporary weir, there would be

Airman Drowned in VanEttan Lake

A 20-year-old airman from Wurtsmith Air Force Base drowned late Sunday afternoon in about 20 feet of water off shore from the airman's beach at VanEttan Lake.

Dead is Raymond E. Delaney, 379th FMS, who jumped from a 14-foot aluminum boat and attempted to swim about 200 yards to shore.

Iosco Sheriff's Department officers said that the victim and two companions, Roosevelt McCullom and James Griffin, had been drifting along in the boat.

Officers said that Delaney apparently had underestimated the distance to shore. His body was recovered by skin divers.

ROBERT GAYLORD

Union Lake Men Buy River Queens from H. Brubaker

Announcement is made this week of the sale of the AuSable River Queens, one of the area's top tourist attractions located at Five Channels and Foote Dams on the AuSable River.

Originated and operated since 1959 by Howard Brubaker of Oscoda, the two paddle wheel boats have been sold to Robert Gaylord, 43, and "Quill" Penrod, 39, both of Union Lake west of Pontiac.

Gaylord, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gaylord live at East Tawas, has been a member of the Pontiac Fire Department for the past 16 years. Penrod has been a data computer salesman since leaving the air force.

The two men have been running the boats with Brubaker since the start of the summer season.

Gaylord said Tuesday morning that he and his family had been passengers on the boats once or twice during the past two years and, when he found the business was for sale, became interested.

The two men are next door neighbors at Union Lake and began negotiations with Brubaker last March, while the latter was vacationing in Florida.

The AuSable River Queens are the only paddle wheel river boats in the northern part of the state and both men had to become acquainted with their operation before receiving watercraft pilot licenses from the waterways commission.

Gaylord said that Brubaker was going to remain with them for the balance of the season, assisting Penrod in operation of River Boat

40 Volunteers Start First Aid Training at Hale

Forty volunteers commenced the first night of first aid training sessions Tuesday at the Plainfield Township Hall. Deputy Sheriff Francis Block has charge of the instruction.

The volunteers, including 15 members of Plainfield Township Fire Department, will help to man the new ambulance to be stationed at Hale. Delivery of the new equipment is expected to be about a week.

Dennis Chrivia, township supervisor, said last week that the basic course in first aid is to be held over a three-week period.

"We are very happy over the response for volunteers and another series of classes may be held in the near future," said Chrivia.

The instruction is designed to train attendants and drivers for operating the ambulance service. When the course of instruction is completed, the new unit will be stationed at the fire hall.

TODAY'S Meditation

from The World's Most Widely Used Devotional Guide

The Upper Room

Read Matthew 28:16-20 "Lo, I am with you always, to the close of the age." (Matthew 28:20, RSV)

In times of stress, we seek relief. Many turn to God for help, but find little comfort in a vague, far-off, abstract being. We want a personal God to whom we may be directly related.

In Jesus Christ, Christians find God has manifested Himself in a person of flesh and blood. It was He who said, "Lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the world."

These words of Jesus give hope to the world. It would be a drab, monotonous, and despairing world without His nearness. Our Lord is present, knows us by name and speaks to us. We feel His power and experience His grace.

So it is that when stress comes we know that God will be there to meet us, to go with us all the way.

PRAYER
O God, help us to build our daily lives on a spiritual foundation. When stress comes, as it surely will, Thou wilt be there. Help us to keep our faith strong, even in the dark hours of life, because we know Thou art with us always; through Christ, Thy Son. Amen.
THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
In Jesus Christ, we see the ever nearness of God.—Avery Arthur Ferguson, North Carolina.

The subject of the sermon is "Life" and will be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday. The public is welcome.

"Jesus could give his temporal life into his enemies' hands; but when his earth-mission was accomplished, his spiritual life, indestructible and eternal, was found forever the same."* This correlative passage, from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, is also part of the sermon.

The plaque had become marred through the years and became unsuitable for display. Through arrangements by Circuit Judge Allan C. Needlecraft News by Nancy Baxter PATCHWORK IS BIG NEWS. Quilts have been brightening bedrooms for years. Now patchwork is suddenly the ultimate fashion in clothing. Designers are piecing together dresses and separates. Women are even combing antique shops for old quilts to transform into garments. An interesting fact is that bits of worn-out dresses were once incorporated into quilts, both for economy's sake and as a remembrance of loved ones. Sometimes pieces of a special dress, such as wedding gown, were put into a "keepsake" quilt.

A LEGACY IN QUILTS

The old-time quilt patterns all have special names. Flowers were an early source of inspiration for the applique type of patchwork. This "sunflower" quilt is a charming example. A single bed size requires 24 blocks and a double, 30. The blocks are each 17 inches square, with 1-inch strips between.

The beauty of quilting is that, even using the same traditional pattern, no two finished counterpanes will look alike. Quilt-making has become an art, rather than a practical necessity. The quilt makes itself colorfully at home among contemporary furnishings. The "sunflower" quilt you make today will be an heirloom for future generations. WATERMELON MAKES MIGHTY GOOD EATING. It tastes especially delicious at a picnic when you eat a slice with your hands and let the juice drip on the grass. This cool, sweet fruit becomes a summer longing when winter is deep.

SLICED FOR SERVING

This watermelon comes straight from your crochet hook, not off the vine. It is sliced into various sized pieces for your table. The set consists of two round mats, 9 and 11 inches in diameter; two oval mats, 7 1/4 x 12 1/2 inches and 10 x 15 1/2 inches. Make half a dozen of the largest oval size for place mats; the others are for hot serving plates. A napkin holder completes the group. They are made of cotton Knit-Cro-Sheen in real fruit colors.

AL FRESCO APPETIZERS
These slices of watermelon are ever fresh and succulent. All together, the set makes a tempting table spread, summertime or any time. For dining al fresco, the mood is gay. If you are "racking your brain" for a hostess gift or bazaar item, this plate mat and napkin holder set may be the answer. Date, time and place of regular meetings are to remain on the second and fourth Mondays, 8:00 p. m., at the administration building at East Tawas.

In business conducted at the meeting, a resolution was adopted abandoning the Alabaster Township voting precinct. Voters of Alabaster and Whitney Townships will now vote at the city hall in Tawas City.

A report on teachers indicated that all elementary teachers are employed except for one second grade teacher. The school has one applicant for this position. Four applications have been received for English teacher, the only remaining vacancy in the high school.

John Alexander, high school principal, reported that scheduling of classes will be completed by the next meeting. He said that indications are that the school will be about 98 percent occupied for next term. He said that if there is a large influx of high school students, steps may have to be taken toward starting some classes at 8:00 a. m.

In order to consolidate the junior high area, the special education room is to be moved to quarters formerly occupied by an English workshop. The latter class will utilize a portion of the library, which was expanded two years ago.

Another move will see the teacher's conference room being utilized as the guidance counselor's office. The teacher's room will now be located in the west office.

Tawas Bay Hosts 26-Boat Sunfish Regatta

A 26-boat fleet turned out for the second annual Tawas Bay Sunfish Regatta, which was held last week-end in the vicinity of the Michigan Waterways Commission dock.

A variety of wind conditions tested the skill of the fleet, comprised chiefly of Detroit area sailors. Saturday's flag winners were Greg Gorman, Detroit, with two firsts and a third, followed by Bob Gorman of Adrian with three second places, Marilyn Tripp of East Tawas with a fourth, third and first place positions.

Sunday morning saw a drifting match in the fourth race and a real breeze for the final event. Sunday flag winners were Morse, Gorman, first and fifth place; Stettitt of Detroit, sixth place and first for third place honors for the day.

In addition to Marilyn Tripp, who received third place trophy for over-all events, other members of the local fleet scoring were the Howell of Oscoda, 13th; Karla Tripp, East Tawas, 15th; Wally Alstine, VanEtan Lake, 17th;

Van Miller, East Tawas, 23rd place. Trophies were awarded Sunday after the last race with consistency being noted in the standings. Gorman received first place trophy with three firsts, one third and a fifth to nose out Morse by three fourths of a point. Morse received four seconds and a third place.

Marilyn Tripp gained third place trophy as a result of one first, one third, two fourth and one 11th place finish. Fourth place was awarded to Pettitt for one first, three sixths and a seventh place. Debbie Gorman of Farmington, one of the four Gormans entered in the regatta, garnered the fifth place trophy with two thirds, a fifth, an eighth and a ninth place finish.

Race committee for the regatta consisted of Donald Tripp, Clifford Miller, Martha Withers and John Alexander. Registration was conducted by Dean Parkinson. Local fleet members will travel to Devil's Lake next week-end for the regional qualifying events prior to the national meet to be held in September.

14 Games Played in Jr. Baseball

Fourteen games were played last week in the fifth week of summer baseball.

In Monday night Knot Hole League action, the Dusters beat the Yanks, 4-3. Winning pitcher was Bernie Link and the loser was Denny Hughes. The Tigers beat the Dodgers, 5-1. The winning pitcher was Mike Harvey and the loser was Faron Stern. Harvey struck out 13.

Tuesday night action saw the Red Sox beat the Jets, 2-0, in a well pitched game. Each pitcher allowed only one hit. Micky Haglund was the winning pitcher and Randy Scales was the loser. The Indians beat the Eagles, 6-4. The winning pitcher was Dan Kasischke and the loser was Mike Nelson. A big, four-run first inning got the Indians rolling and Elliott allowed only four hits. The Cubs gave the Little Trailers their first loss of the season, 4-3. The winning pitcher was Rick Youngs and the loser was Revord. Youngs was the hitting star, accounting for all their runs. In the first, he hit a three-run homer and in the sixth had a double.

John A. Lynn and Lorraine M. Spica Married Saturday at Tawas City Church

Lorraine May Spica and John Andrew Lynn of Midland exchanged nuptial vows Saturday, July 12, in Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, Tawas City. The Rev. Fr. Raymond Pilarski officiated at the 1 o'clock, double ring ceremony. Yellow and white carnations decorated the altar.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Spica of Tawas City. Mr. and Mrs. John M. Lynn of Plainfield, New Jersey, are parents of the bridegroom.

The bride is a graduate of Tawas Area High School and Alpena Community College. Her husband attended Plainfield High School and Salem College, North Carolina.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Carmen DeCato of Cranford, New Jersey; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Narog of Buffalo, New York.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride appeared in a dotted Swiss gown fashioned with Empire-styled fitted bodice and high neckline. The short sleeves, midriff and hemline of the floor length skirt were graced with Venise lace. Her gown was complemented by a chapel length Watteau train edged with lace. White flowers secured her nylon veil and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, April Spica. Bridesmaids were another sister, Mrs. Dennis Bennington, and Miss Shelly Lynn. They wore aqua blue gowns of sheer dacron over taffeta styled with Empire bodices, round necklines and cap sleeves. A band of lace connected the flowing floor length skirts. Yellow and white carnations made up their bouquets and headpieces.

Kimberly Bennington and Suzanne DeCato were flower girls. Their gowns were styled as the bride's and they carried baskets of yellow and white carnations.

Mr. Lynn chose James N. Jones II of Midland as his best man. Groomsman were David Hardy of Au Gres and Michael Spica, brother of the bride. Rings were carried by Michael DeCato. Usher duties were carried out by the groomsmen.

One hundred guests were greeted at a garden reception at the home of the bride's parents.

For the occasion, Mrs. Spica selected a blue and white brocade, A-line dress. An A-line, aqua blue dress was Mrs. Lynn's choice. Their corsages were yellow carnations.

Start Assembling Exhibits July 23 for 25th Annual Iosco County Fair at Hale

Assembling of exhibits starts Wednesday, July 23, for the 25th annual Iosco County Fair at Hale. The fair is to run through July 26. A special invitation was extended this week by Gerald Bellen, president of the Iosco County Fair Society, to all persons of the area interested in entering exhibits. "We need the support of exhibitors to make this fair a success and there is no better time to exhibit than during this 25th annual fair," said Bellen. Richard Samson, secretary-manager, reminds prospective exhibitors that exhibits are to be assembled from 9:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m. on Wednesday, July 23. Judging of 4-H Club exhibits will be held the same day, 7:00 p. m.

This does not include livestock. Department heads for exhibits include: Livestock, George Erickson; poultry, Perry Shellenbarger; farm produce, John Doolley; home economics, Dorothy Mielock; art, hobbies and handicraft, Fay Ewing; conservation, Lyle Bielby; Adolph Siegrist and Val Samson have charge of the 4-H Club division. Other departments include games and contests, Elwood Ruckel; harness racing, Bruce Goupil. Big City Shows, Incorporated, is giving away, one each day, choice of a bike or a live pony.

EXHIBITS of farm equipment will again be located at the fair grounds next to the Plainfield Township Hall.—Tawas Herald Photo.

Police Crack Down

Three gambling concessions in the Big City Shows carnival held during the Michigan Tourist Festival were closed last week by East Tawas Police Chief Donald Docking. The police chief said that numerous complaints had been received from persons victimized by illegal games.

Weir

no provisions this year for small boat passage. Once a permanent weir is constructed, provisions would be made for boat traffic. He emphasized that the weir would be in operation from September to about November 1 and would then be removed.

Councilmen expressed the opinion that the department had assured them that provisions would be made for boat passage, even though the weir was to be temporary this year. The council also emphasized that a weir would have to be located above the city's boat launching site.

MaeGregor said that the Tawas River had a volume of water which could handle a weir. He said that the AuSable River and Thunder Bay River were high volume streams and could not handle a weir. For this reason, larger numbers of coho were planted in the Tawas River because of the fact that fishing would be limited to the bay. The river is to be closed to all fishing during the spawning run.

Bell said it must be remembered that a weir should be located where it would do the most amount of good, for the largest number of persons concerned. "We must hit a happy medium, the weir will be fenced in and we need the cooperation of you people, too," he said.

Brewer stated that he did not believe that anyone attending the meeting was against constructing a weir, but he did not believe that all other possibilities for location had been exhausted. He urged that steps be taken to secure a one-year lease with the Detroit and Mackinac Railway on its property below Dead Creek, in order to see what the first year of fishing brings.

Alderman Cabbie asked the question: "Did Western Michigan businessmen complain about bringing in large numbers of fishermen?"

MaeGregor stated that the department had considered using condemnation proceedings to secure a site. This has been used only once and that site is on the Platte River. He said that time was short and that condemnation proceedings require a long time to handle in court.

Investigate Hale Window Damage

Iosco Sheriff's Department is investigating the breaking of windows at five different business establishments July 6 at Hale. Officers said that a pellet gun or slingshot was used to break windows at Pearsall's, Humphrey Barber Shop, Brown's Dairy Delight, Farmers and Merchants State Bank and Hale Laundry.

Golden-Agers Held Pot-Luck

Fifteen Golden-Agers of Hale and some Tawas senior citizens spent a day at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge near Gladwin. Sixty-five people gathered to enjoy a pot-luck dinner served at shaded tables set up on the lawn.
