

Prospects for Sewage Aid to TC Not Promising

Possibility of qualifying for state antipollution funds approved by Michigan voters in last November's bonding election does not appear to be too encouraging, according to a report Monday night at a special joint meeting of the Tawas City Council and water board.

Clifford Spicer, Saginaw, the city's engineering consultant, told city officials that present regulations appear to require that, in order to qualify for state funds, a project would have to cost in the neighborhood of $600,000.

A preliminary study of Tawas City's needs for phosphate removal and secondary sewage treatment indicates that cost of such additional facilities would be in the neighborhood of $300,000.

Spicer told officials that he was now waiting to see if an amendment to regulations would be passed by the legislature to assist communities with a population less than 5,000 persons.

However, the engineer told councilmen and water board members that they were "on the right track" in deciding to obtain a needs study at the present time. This would speed any application, should a change be made in regulations.

The city ran into a similar obstacle in obtaining assistance for improving sewage facilities 10 years ago. In 1958, Tawas City was at the bottom of the list for obtaining federal assistance funds.

Voters then approved a $130,000 bond issue to finance construction of an addition to the plant without any outside help.

After a contract was let for $111,620 and the facilities were constructed, the city received a $36,420 grant from the federal government to assist in construction.

In other business Monday night, a letter is to be sent to East Tawas asking how plans are progressing for construction of a water main to the booster pumping station to insure an adequate supply of water for Tawas City.

An application from the Alibi Inn for construction of a water main outside of the city limits was tabled for further study.

The department of public works approved an application from Donald Leitz to use the city sewer system for septic tank disposal. Cost of this service is to be adopted at a later date.

A letter is to be sent to property owners on Mathews Street south sewer project asking that sewer connections be made prior to June 1. This special assessment sewer project was constructed to eliminate pollution from septic tanks. About 12 property owners have not made the sewer connection as yet.

Authorization was given to extend a water main on Grove Avenue off Elms Avenue to service new dwellings.

County Plans Garage for Sheriff's Dept.

Iosco Board of Supervisors has authorized the county building authority to take preliminary steps in preparation of finances to construct a garage near the county jail for parking of department vehicles.

Arthur Aulerich, commission chairman, and Bruce Myles, member of the commission, appeared before last Wednesday's meeting and presented a preliminary sketch of the proposed new garage.

The building authority would issue bonds to finance construction. Bonds would be retired through a rental arrangement with the county.

The board of supervisors granted authority to the commission to study possible acquisition of hangars located at the county airport. The hangars are privately owned at present.

Renewed interest was shown in the possible construction of a juvenile detention and diagnostic center near the medical care facility. Last year, the board expressed willingness to cooperate with the state by furnishing property for this facility.

William McCready, probate judge, appeared before the board and explained the need for such a facility in the area. William MacMillan, state department of social services, is to be invited to attend a future meeting of the board of supervisors to explain the program.

In other business, James Colli-son, director of the East Central Michigan Economic Development District, explained operations of that organization.

The county signed an agreement with Thomas Browne, engineer, to provide preliminary engineering for recreational boating facilities at the county-owned Au-Sable River Park. The study would be in the neighborhood of $2,000, of which half would be shared by the Michigan Waterways Commission.

The study would determine economic and physical feasibility of constructing a recreational boating facility. If the study shows such a facility feasible, the county would cooperate with the Michigan Waterways Commission on a 90-10 percent basis for construction.

A representative of the District Department of Public Health appeared before the board and asked that an ordinance passed last year concerning inspection of septic tanks be amended. Inspection of septic tanks would be conducted by the district health department rather than by local agencies. The matter was taken under advisement.

Charles Smith of Oscoda was appointed as the liaison between the county and the North Central Child Guidance Clinic. Smith, former board chairman, had served in this capacity for a number of years.

W. C. Roach, airport manager, appeared before the board and recommended that a new manager be appointed. The matter was turned over to the building and grounds committee for study.

The board adopted a resolution stating that it would assume 41 percent of the cost of operation of District Health No. 2. A move is under way to require higher participation by Iosco in financing this service.

'Don' Long Killed in Snowmobile Accident

M. Donald Long, 43, former Tawas City resident and now of Au-Sable Township, was killed early Saturday in the first fatal snowmobile accident in the history of Iosco County.

The accident happened shortly after 1:00 a. m., about 15 miles northwest of Oscoda. Long was out riding with a number of other snowmobile fans and he drove his snowmobile over a hill and into a ravine.

Oscoda Township police said he was thrown off the machine and his head struck a tree.

Long was pronounced dead at the scene of a fractured skull. He also had a broken leg and possible internal injuries.

He was an employee of the Detroit and Mackinac Railway Company.

Martin Donald Long was born August 22, 1926, in Tawas Township, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Martin Long.

The deceased attended high school in Tawas City and was a veteran of World War II. He was married December 31, 1946, to Beryl Amo of East Tawas.

Besides his wife, he is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Thomas (Marti) Cadorette; one son, Donald F., at home; one grandson; two brothers, Alton Long of Tawas City and Glenn Long, Portland, Oregon; a foster sister, Mrs. Marcella Dunton, Ypsilanti.

Funeral services were held Monday, March 24, at Moffatt Funeral Home, East Tawas, with the Rev. Ernest Ferguson officiating. Burial was in Tawas City Cemetery.

TA School Bus Contract Goes to McKay Sales

Following a recent meeting between administrators and bus drivers, Tawas Area Board of Education Monday night awarded a contract to McKay Sales Company to purchase three bus chassis.

McKay Sales was second lowest among four firms entering bids at its last meeting. The firm had entered a bid of $4,040 for each chassis to be furnished. Low bid was entered by Inglis Ford Sales, $3,630 each.

It was the opinion of board members that bus purchases should be distributed among various dealers in order to insure service. It was stated that Inglis presently services seven buses while William Look and Sons service nine buses, two of them being spares.

In other business, any major changes in the school budget for 1969-70 are to be considered at the April 7 meeting. It was the recommendation of Leonard Sarki, board president, that complete information be given to the tax allocation board concerning such costs.

One of the major items being discussed is replacement of 93 windows in the East Tawas Elementary Unit. Cost of this project would be approximately $15,000. Miss Clara Bolen, elementary supervisor, was of the opinion that windows should be replaced for safety reasons as well as the fact that old wooden sashes are rapidly deteriorating.

In order to qualify for participation in the federal program to furnish surplus food items to the hot lunch program, the board of education authorized the school to pay for lunches to needy children.

The school receives approximately $8,808 in surplus food annually from federal agencies. About 61 lunches would be paid daily by the school for needy children. Had the action not been taken, the school could have been cut off from government aid for the lunch program in 1969-70.

Plan Welcome Sign for Plant Location

Tawas City Businessmen's Association members voted Thursday to cooperate with the city council in the possible erection of a sign at the city limits welcoming industry to locate here.

One suggestion for the sign was to list the different types of industry located in the area.

The businessmen's association plans to hold programs during the year at weekly luncheons honoring present industries. Representatives of each firm would be invited to present information pertaining to operations.

The Tawas Area Industrial Development Corporation was invited to present a report of its work during the past year during a future meeting of the association.

A check for $100 was presented by Peoples State Bank to assist in promotions sponsored by the businessmen's association.

TWO JET ENGINES which were "lost" March 17 by a giant B-52 bomber from Wurtsmith Air Force Base were recovered last Friday from a wooded area in Reno Township, about one mile south and one-half mile east of the M-65-M-55 intersection. Two residents of the M-65 area saw the engines fall from the plane and reported the information to base authorities. A helicopter crew spotted the engines Thursday during a search mission. Men of the base civil engineering unit and flight maintenance squadron spent Friday removing the engines, which plowed a deep hole into the ground. While the 11,500-pound engine pod dropped on private land and in a heavily wooded area, officers at the scene said the problem would have been much more difficult had it dropped in the nearby AuGres River. Meanwhile, Maj. Robert M. Winn, 38, who is the first pilot to land such a bomber with four engines disabled, received the distinguished flying cross Tuesday for his feat. He had circled the base for about six hours, burning off fuel to insure a safe landing. The plane, with two dummy nuclear warheads, but no live ones aboard, had been headed for the Gulf of Mexico for bombing practice. All of the six crewmen aboard the plane received air medals during Tuesday's ceremony. —Tawas Herald Photo.

TA Teacher Files Grievance Against School

Hearing on a grievance filed by a member of the school faculty will be held April 7 by Tawas Area Board of Education.

At its regular meeting Monday night, the board of education voted unanimously to send official notification to Alfred Tyo, a high school physical science teacher, that he would not be offered tenure in 1969-70 nor be re-employed, according to terms of the state teacher tenure act.

According to school officials, administrators had given Tyo an opportunity to resign his teaching position, effective at the end of the school year, in order to seek employment elsewhere. Tyo came here from another school system at the start of the 1968-69 term.

According to terms of the state teacher tenure act, the school has one year in which to either affirm or deny tenure to such a teacher.

Upon receiving verbal notification from the superintendent and principal that he would not be re-employed, Tyo, on March 17, filed written grievance with the Tawas Area Education Association, which is the legal bargaining agent for teachers. Although not a member of the association, Tyo would be represented by the teachers' group, according to its contract with the school district.

Tyo and TAEA claim that he is being discriminated against for his political activity, plus the fact that a representative of TAEA was not present when verbal notification was given by school administrators, contrary to procedures established by the contract.

While there is a divergence of opinion between the two sides in the labor relations controversy, the board claims that Tyo discussed and brought things into his classroom other than that which pertained to his teaching of physical science—namely, politics. The school claims that political activity in the classroom is contrary to its contract with TAEA.

According to the contract, a teacher may not be disciplined for political activity except where such activity brings discredit to the school or the teachers' association.

Supt. Reynold Mick said that the grievance must be acted upon by the board, or it may be bypassed and go directly to mediation.

"Anyone so desiring has the right to a hearing before the board of education," said the superintendent, who recommended such action be taken.

He stated, also, that there was

Ask April 14 Date W-P School Plans Millage Election

Application has been filed with the county election commission by Whittemore-Prescott Area Schools to hold a millage vote on April 14.

According to the application sent to County Clerk Keith Pappas, the school would ask voters to approve a three-mill proposition for two years.

Official notification had not been received as of Tuesday morning from the Iosco Election Commission concerning suitability of the proposed date, reports Supt. Ray Kesler. Approval had been given by Ogemaw County.

Two mills of special voted operational tax expires this year for the school system. The school is now seeking three mills in order to meet rising costs and to qualify for full state aid.

Whittemore - Prescott Area School District receives a "pegged" allocation of 9½ mills in regular school operating tax, due to the fact that its largest area falls within Ogemaw County. That county voted to peg school millage under the 15-mill limitation several years ago.

If the proposal is successful, the school would receive a total of 12½ mills for operation—9½ mills from the allocation board and the three mills of special voted taxes.

Warren Man Hurt When Car Flipped Over Guard Rail

Michael Masick, 18, Warren, received a fractured collarbone and facial injuries early Sunday morning when his automobile struck and flipped over a guard rail on the approach to the Tawas River bridge in Tawas City.

Investigating city police officers said that Masick was headed east on US-23 and his automobile traveled 1,100 feet on the shoulder before the crash. The man, driving alone, attempted to pull the car back onto the pavement and it spun around, striking the guard rail going backward.

Masick was thrown from the car and into a ditch filled with water. The car upended and hit on its front end, 33 feet from the pavement, before coming to rest on its wheels.

The injured man was taken to Tawas Hospital for treatment.

Prescott Denounces Warning Shot Act

State Rep. George A. Prescott, Tawas City, has denounced a recently introduced bill that would make it a criminal act for law enforcement officers to fire warning shots during hot pursuit of escaping automobiles or to shoot at a fleeing suspect or escaping felon.

"This is just one more anti-law enforcement measure at a time when anticrime legislation is needed as never before," Representative Prescott said.

"This is another in a long line of blatant attempts to handcuff the police instead of the criminals."

Introduced by State Rep. Jackie Vaughn, Detroit, House Bill No. 2519 would make it a misdemeanor for any police officer to fire his firearm, except to save himself or another person from death or severe injury or to stop a person posing an immediate threat to the safety of others.

"This ridiculous measure, as written, would actually make it a criminal act for a peace officer to practice on a target range," Representative Prescott pointed out.

"But even so, this bill is no laughing matter. Any escaping felon is a threat to the safety of others—as is any suspect who feels he has reason to run from a policeman."

"No law-abiding citizen has any need for this legislation, and I cannot see how any elected representative of such citizens could possibly support it," Prescott said.

Charges Against Jack McKinley are Reduced

Jack McKinley, who has served 2 1/2 years in Jackson Prison on a charge of armed robbery, was returned to Iosco County this week and allowed to enter a guilty plea to a lesser charge of unarmed robbery.

The guilty plea was accepted Monday by Circuit Judge Allan C. Miller, who sentenced McKinley to four to 15 years in prison, with credit for the time already served.

McKinley and his brother, Louis, were found guilty on August 29, 1966, of armed robbery of the manager of the Tawas River Trailer Park. Jack received a nine to 20-year sentence while Louis was sentenced to a term from eight to 20 years.

Louis McKinley has appealed his case to the state supreme court on a contention that he was denied counsel by circuit court on May 10, 1968.

In other court matters Monday, Duane Harvey, 34, Lincoln, was sentenced to 18 months to five years on conviction of unlawfully driving away an automobile.

Richard Daniel Burch, 18, Tawas City, who entered a guilty plea to probation violation, was sentenced to a term of 15 months to 10 years on his original charge of breaking and entering. The court recommended to the state department of corrections that he be transferred to a training school.

This ad might save you about 500 bucks.

It's simply a matter of arithmetic. Say you're about to buy a new water heater. You have two choices. Gas or electric, right? Wrong. Once you read the facts you'll find that Gas is the only choice. And here's why: Gas heats water faster for about 1/3 the cost of electricity. For the sake of argument, say you have two hot water heaters. A 40-gallon Gas heater. And an 80-gallon electric. Well, the truth is, that the 40-gallon Gas heater will produce more hot water than the 80-gallon electric for 1/3 the cost. That alone could save you as much as 50 dollars a year. And in ten years, that's roughly 500 dollars. Like we said; do you really have two choices? Bet you 500 bucks you don't.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS TO YOU

The Golden Text that will be read at services in all Christian Science churches this Sunday is from Psalms: "Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness."

Passages to be read from the denominational textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will include the following: "In the material world, thought has brought to light with great rapidity many useful wonders. With like activity have thought's swift pinions been rising towards the realm of the real, to the spiritual cause of those lower things which give impulse to inquiry."

The subject of the Bible lesson- sermon is "Reality."

Attends Program

The Rev. William C. Lindholm was in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Thursday and Friday. He participated in the program at Temple University, which was sponsored by the National Institute of Mental Health. The subject was "Child Socialization."

TODAY'S Meditation

Read Psalm 27; Ephesians 6:10-20
The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? (Psalm 27:1)

Strange as it may seem, unwavering faith in God's goodness and power can emerge from experiences that some regard as a denial of His love and care.

A skeptic visited a Christian suffering daily pain, the result of wartime cruelty. He said in a puzzled tone of voice, "Why do you continue to believe? Your very condition proves that God in whom you trust lacks power."

The answer was "Out of tribulation can come strength for endurance and vision of future happiness. This is achieved through reliance of God, who enables us to face and triumph over great physical or mental strain."

Like this sufferer, unnumbered followers of Jesus have borne witness to a serenity of mind in the midst of distressing circumstances; a serenity of mind which they call "the peace of God."

But this peace of God is not something which, like some drugs, causes one to bow passively. It is like a flame that burns up reliance on self and at the same time inspires one to hold on in the assurance that the final victory rests not with man but with God.

PRAYER

Help us, O God, to lift our eyes from the swiftly moving scenes about us by which we are so often confused and dismayed. May we see clearly the wisdom and power and love sufficient for all our needs. In Christ's name. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
The antidote for fear is faith.—David Cavers (Ontario)

LETTERS to the EDITOR

Tawas Herald
Tawas City, Michigan
Attention: Editor
Dear Sir:

I am writing you this letter at the request of the officers and membership of Local Union No. 6401, United Steelworkers of America (Tawas Tube Products) regarding your front page coverage of the strike settlement at Tawas Tube Products.

We sincerely believe that credit should be given where credit is due. Keeping this thought in mind I sincerely believe that an abundance of credit should go to the individual members of this local union who maintained a picket line 24 hours a day and suffered economic pressure just to maintain what they had already negotiated in a previous contract settlement. Namely the cost-of-living clause without a ceiling on it and a modest wage settlement.

These members unanimously voted to continue the strike on Sunday, March 2, 1969, if a fair and equitable agreement could not be reached on a way of paying their vacation pay for the 1969 vacation year.

Mr. Charles Hayes, president of Local Union No. 6401, had personally extended an invitation to Mr. Edward Lier of the Tawas City Businessmen's Association to attend our meeting on the second which invitation he accepted but then failed to show up or even call that he was unavailable. I was told by his employees when I stopped to see him at his hotel that he had flown to New Mexico that morning with a couple of his buddies.

The end result was that this strike was settled by the determination of the individual members of Local Union No. 6401 who maintained a solid front for over six (6) months, so that they could get a fair settlement so that they could hold their heads in dignity and at least keep what they had already had.

I think the entire community owes this group of courageous individuals a vote of thanks for what they did because if their strike would have been broken then the entire community would have suffered because other industries would no doubt have followed suit in other wage settlements thus depriving the entire Tawas area of decent wages for the families in the Tawas area that live and pay taxes and spend their money in Tawas. I think we must bear in mind the simple fact that if an employee gets paid a decent wage that he has buying power and will pay his taxes and spend his money in Tawas - vs. the company that pays low wages and takes its profits elsewhere and lets their employees barely survive and maybe even have their income supplemented by the state, local and federal governmental agencies (welfare, surplus foods, etc.)

In closing let me say - IF the businessmen's association had anything to do about changing management's position, we say thank you, but in turn let's give credit to those who maintained a picket line for six months to gain a fair and just settlement from their employer. These employees were not asking for "pie in the sky," just enough so they could hold their heads up in dignity and attempt to meet their current economic needs.

Very truly,
George B. Watts,
Staff Representative
United Steelworkers of America

(Editor's note: This newspaper learned during a previous local strike of six months duration that any local assistance toward a settlement was unappreciated, if not unwanted, particularly by out-of-town bargaining agents. The businessmen's association appointed a committee to try to get the two parties together after the strike had entered its 172nd day. Considerable effort toward this end was made by Edward Lier as committee chairman, who met with both management and representatives of the union prior to the final settlement. Apparently, his efforts, too, are unappreciated.)

Mrs. Gallant Died March 20

Mrs. Helen Gallant of National City died Thursday evening, March 20, at the home of her daughter in Saginaw following a brief illness. She was 70 years old. She is survived by her husband, Clyde D.; one son, William D. Gallant of Union Lake; one daughter, Mrs. Wayman (Donna J.) Rossman of Bay City; one daughter-in-law, Mrs. Barbara Gallant of Bay City; eight grandchildren; one great grandchild; one sister, Mrs. Richard Lumsden of Union Lake; one sister-in-law, Mrs. Sarah Sneedor of Chico, California. A son, Max, predeceased her in 1967.

Funeral services were held Sunday, March 23, at the Gephart Funeral Home, Bay City. The Rev. Richard S. Blair officiated. Burial was at Evergreen Cemetery, Hale.

Failure to Report May Lose SS Payments

Everyone who applies for monthly Social Security payments agrees to report certain events which may affect his Social Security. However, because people usually have a lot on their minds at the time they apply, it is easy for them to forget just what should be reported and how. Failure to report these events often results in loss of benefits which otherwise might not happen, according to John Carr, manager of the Bay City Social Security Office.

Mr. Carr cited as an example a man who at the time he applied for retirement benefits indicated he did not expect to earn more than $1,500 in 1967. This was the maximum amount of earnings a person can have in a year and still receive all of his social security for that year. Starting with 1968, the allowable amount has been increased to $1,680 a year. Later the man resumed work, earned over $1,500 in 1967, but failed to report his return to work to his local Social Security office. When it was discovered that he had earned more than the allowable amount, he was requested to go into his Social Security office to furnish a statement of his earnings for the year. Because his actual earnings exceeded the allowable amount, he had to forfeit some months of Social Security. "Unfortunately," Mr. Carr stated, "this man also lost an additional month's benefit as a penalty for failing to report an event affecting his Social Security payments."

"Why take a chance," Mr. Carr emphasized, "When it is so easy to find out?" If you have any doubt about reporting something, contact your Social Security office. The Bay City office is located at 1009 North Madison Avenue. The office is open from 8:45 a. m. until 4:45 p. m. every Monday through Friday and until 6:45 p. m. on Monday evenings. The telephone number is 893-9579.

A Social Security representative will be at the Isosco County Building, Tawas City, April 10 and 24 from 8:30 a. m. until 3:00 p. m.

CLOSED ALL-DAY SATURDAY

Regular Office Hours are as follows:

Monday and Tuesday: 8:00 a. m. to 12 Noon; 1:00 p. m. to 5:00 p. m. and 6:00 p. m. to 10:00 p. m.

Wednesday through Friday: 8:00 a. m. to 12 Noon and 1:00 p. m. to 5:00 p. m.

Redmond Receives Army CI Badge

One of the army badges that front-line soldiers wear with special pride is the combat infantryman badge. It was awarded to SP4 James P. Redmond near Pleiku, Vietnam, February 7.

Specialist Redmond, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Redmond, Whittemore, is assigned as a squad leader with the fourth infantry division. The CIB has been awarded since late in World War II for sustained ground contact against an enemy. In honor of its singular meaning, the badge is worn above all other awards and decorations, over the left breast. It is a blue rectangle with a silver rifle mounted on it, superimposed over a curved wreath. Subsequent awards are represented by stars at the top center of the wreath.

New Booklet Appraises Isosco Rec. Potential

A newly-published booklet appraising the potential for development of outdoor recreation enterprises in Isosco County is now available. This 60-page publication rates the potential of 12 kinds of recreational development. It is full of information that will be useful in developing these outdoor money-making enterprises.

The report was compiled and each enterprise evaluated by a committee headed by the United States Soil Conservation Service. Assisting the SCS and the Isosco Soil Conservation District were the United States Forest Service, Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Service, county extension service, state and local agencies, and private citizens interested in outdoor recreation in Isosco County. It was made by using existing studies and the experience of these community leaders.

In addition to the overall objective of providing information useful for effective development of natural resources for outdoor recreation, the booklet will be useful in improving the long-range program of the local soil conservation district, providing information for promoting and publicizing outdoor recreation in the county, help the planning commission and local government to plan ahead for outdoor recreation. This information will be helpful to bankers and other leaders in evaluating financial needs and risks and a help in developing regional and state outdoor recreation plans.

Most businessmen having an interest in outdoor recreation, bankers, realtors and government officials will receive copies for their use. In addition, copies are available to anyone who wants to establish or expand an outdoor recreation enterprise in the county. Copies are available at the soil conservation service and agriculture stabilization offices, Federal Building, East Tawas.

Needlecraft News by Nancy Baxter

THE ROGUEISH BLACK CAT AND HIS KITTENISH COMPANION dot on precious jewels and gems. They adore being covered by finger rings and earrings from wrist to shoulder, by bracelets dangling around their necks and by pins all over. Each has a zipper down its back to provide an opening for hiding more glitter and gold inside.

FELINES OF FELT

These impish cats are cut from felt, using an actual-size pattern. Only a quarter of a yard is needed to make one, plus scraps for the facial features. Their bodies are tiger-striped in contrasting rick rack. Furry hands and feet are made of yarn pompons. The construction is quick and easy to do, stitching all seams by hand.

JEWELRY WATCHCATS

Each cat jewelry case stands about 8 1/2 inches high on a dressing table. Whether a girl collects fabulous fakes or the real things, she will want to have this pair guarding her treasures. The two of them make a clever gift for a girl of any age. It is especially nice to pick felt colors to match someone's bedroom. "BYE BABY BUNTING." When baby goes "bye, bye," tuck him into this lacy bunting. It makes the perfect bundle for a carriage ride or a visit to grandmother's house. The dainty lace texture is knitted of worsted yarn. The garment has a zippered front opening and a hooded cap. The sizing is 6 months or 1 year. Free instructions are available by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to the Needlework Editor of this newspaper along with your request for Leaflet PK 3880.

what's a funny place for a phone?

That depends a lot on your sense of humor. If making tracks across a clean carpet to get to a telephone leaves your wife a little less than happy, then perhaps there's nothing so funny about an extension telephone in the garage or workshop.

Extension telephones make sense. They save time by letting you use a telephone wherever you are.

Call your Michigan Bell Business Office or ask your telephone man. For as little as ninety-five cents a month (plus tax) you can put an extension in any funny old place you'd like.
