Water Main Breaks Under Tawas River

A ruptured, six-inch water main crossing the Tawas River at the US-23 bridge has resulted in reduced water pressure for Tawas City's southwestern section.

Fortunately, city officials back in 1959 looked ahead to such an emergency. A force main was constructed that year along Ninth Avenue to give the city a full circulating water system.

While water pressure is low for commercial and residential users from the river bridge south to the city limit, without the circulating system that area would be without water.

Early last week, water pressure at the city's stand pipe in back of the city hall dropped dangerously low and emergency deep well pumps were placed into operation to add water to the supply received from the East Tawas filtration plant.

The trouble was soon discovered near the river bridge, where water was bubbling out of the river bed about four feet from the river bank. The river crossing line was isolated by turning a valve, but not shut off completely to insure against seepage of raw water into the system.

After conferring with the city's engineer last Thursday, Reginald Bublitz, superintendent of public works, set the city crew and equipment to work in an attempt to locate the exact location of the rupture. Spicer Engineering suggested that the rupture was in a flexible joint located in the river bank ahead of the crossing. A 12-foot hole was dug four feet from the river bank, but the trouble was not found at this point.

Work was to start Tuesday of this week in constructing an earth-on dam in the river, diverting water away from the break. The river crossing, constructed in 1946 by a contractor, is located six feet under the river bed.

"The problem we are facing is that we do not know what we will find," Bublitz told the city council Monday night. "This problem is entirely new to me and is the biggest headache I have ever had on this job."

One of the problems will be the hazardous working conditions for DPW employees. Once work starts on digging the hole in the river bed to reach the main, sides of the hole must be protected with timbers to prevent collapse.

"We cannot wait until spring to do this job, as the river is at its lowest point right now. It is going to be a cold, dangerous job, but it must be done," said Bublitz.

In checking with residents who worked for the contractor on the original project, Bublitz found that the cast iron pipe had been welded (brazed) together at one point, as well as having a "boot" connection at another point.

It is believed that the break is located at the weld and this could complicate repair of the line. Bublitz said the city crew, with assistance of local contractors with earth moving equipment, would attempt the job. It has been estimated that it would cost the city approximately $10,000 to call in a contractor specializing in this work.

"If our experiment is not successful, we may have to call in someone else," said Bublitz. Work of the city crew would not be lost as, in any event, an earthen dam would have to be constructed to divert river water away from the break.

Timber Cutover Hiked

Iosco Adjusts Property Value

Adjusted real estate valuations, based on a 1968-69 sales study conducted by the county tax equalization department, indicates that the timber cutover classification in Iosco County would be increased by $1,282,830.

In addition, adjustments in the residential classification in seven taxing units indicates an increase of approximately $3,450,320 on the 1970 tax base.

The Iosco County Board of Commissioners adopted the report by Henry Oates, tax equalization director, and notified the state tax commission of the 1970 true cash value bases.

The timber cutover classification, which includes recreational or hunting lands, had an average increase of 12.38 percent in the county. The 1970 base is to be $11,638,000, as compared to $10,355,170 in 1969.

True cash value bases for timber cutover were as follows: Alabaster, $495,000, an increase of 12.60 percent; AuSable, $700,000 an increase of 12.93 percent; Baldwin, $1,455,000, an increase of 6.66 percent; Burleigh, $530,000, 14.81 percent increase; Grant, $980,000, 8.28 percent increase.

Oscoda, $3,017,000, an increase of 17.15 percent; Plainfield, $688,000, an increase of 14.11 percent; Sherman, $520,000, an increase of 13.73 percent; Tawas, $528,000, an increase of 12.02 percent; Wilber, $1,405,000, an increase of 13.10 percent.

Residential classification adjustments on true cash value, based on the study of Oates, included: Al-

County Grants Ambulance Aid

Iosco County Board of Commissioners has granted an additional $5,000 to aid local units of government to finance the cost of three ambulances purchased last summer. This allocation brings the county share to $10,000 in the over-all cost of $22,552 for equipment purchase, maintenance and operation to the end of December.

Appearing before the board were Mayor James Campbell of East Tawas and James P. Mielock, Reno Township supervisor. Campbell stated that accounts receivable for the ambulance service amounted to $4,100 and that $4,400 was still owed on ambulances. Receivables include ambulance service for Medicaid.

While the ambulance service has not been operating long enough to obtain a true picture of costs, Campbell told the board he believed it would about break even. As of January 22, the service had an expense of $3,046.57 and income of $2,708.26 for operation during January.

The service operated by Tawas Hospital had 58 ambulance runs during December and November and 16 runs from January 1 to January 22.

In other business during the February session, the board adopted a resolution asking the state legislature to increase the interest rate on delinquent taxes from one-half of one percent to three-quarters of one percent.

Discussion was held on the possible consolidation of AuSable Township with Range Nine of Oscoda Township. A charter township organization is being considered. Plans are being made to hold a special election in those townships next November.

Cabin Burglaries on Increase in Area

A new series of cabin burglaries is under investigation by state police. A report from the East Tawas post Monday stated that burglaries at Sand Lake, Indian Lake, Point Lookout and Glennie had been discovered over the week-end. Fourteen cabins are involved at present and it is expected that this number will be increased as more areas are checked.

baster, $5,558,000, an increase of 2.83 percent; Baldwin $12,335,000, an increase of 3.09 percent; Burleigh, $442,000, 6.02 percent increase; Grant, $7,423,000, an increase of 12.03 percent; Plainfield, $20,928,000, an increase of 5.87 percent; Tawas, $3,224,000, an increase of 6.25 percent.

While all work has not been completed as yet, Oates said that new construction in the county during 1969 would amount to approximately $5,600,000.

Lions Plan to Donate Park Equipment

East Tawas Lions Club is to purchase a piece of playground equipment for use in a neighborhood park in Tawas City, according to an announcement at Monday night's meeting of the Tawas City Council.

Edward Savage, representing the Lions Club, appeared before the council Monday night and said that the club wished to cooperate in a program similar to one now in effect at East Tawas.

Aldermen John St. James, Frank Ahonen and Reginald Bublitz, superintendent of public works, were appointed as a committee to work with the city park board on selection of a location for the equipment.

In other business, Mrs. Mary Byrd, city treasurer, reported that 92 percent of the city tax had been collected and 53 percent of the county-school tax had been received. She said that collection on the latter was down about two percent from last year.

A letter from the East Tawas Council stated that a request from Tawas City Council in regard to investigation into construction of a new force main between East Tawas filtration plant and the city's pumping station near Schreck Lumber Company was being studied.

The letter from Paul Roper, East Tawas superintendent of public works, stated that importance of such a main to provide water to customers was realized and that the matter had been referred to the board of public works.

Discussion was held on compliance with new state voting regulations which will limit paper ballot precincts to 400 registered electors. Tawas City has a little more than 900 electors and two precincts are presently used.

A report is to be made at the next meeting by City Clerk Walter Nelson, who is to confer with County Clerk Keith Pappas concerning the new law.

It is expected that two additional registration books will be required in order to establish three precincts. Thinking of city council members Monday night was that all three voting precincts could be located at the city hall, which apparently has adequate room for such a change.

One building application was approved during the past week. This was for Alpena Candy Company, change an interior door, $50.

Harris Feeding Large Deer Herd

Bertram C. Harris Sr., Wilber Township, reports that he is feeding a herd of 40 to 60 deer every night. He counted 23 deer at his feeding station one night last week.

He is feeding one bale of hay every night, along with cull beans, oats and corn.

Harris said that it is costly to feed the deer and believed if more feeding was done on government property the deer would stay on public land for the benefit of a greater number of people.

Tawas Team Shatters Snowmobile Record

Despite poor weather conditions, a team of Tawas snowmobilers established a new record last Tuesday and Wednesday on Michigan's coast-to-coast riding and hiking trail.

A team composed of Maynard Abbott, Willard Schaaf, James Klingler, Ike Niles and Ken Schaaf completed the trip from Tawas to Empire in a total elapsed time of 12 hours and six minutes, bettering the record set January 6 by an hour and 23 minutes.

A second team which left Tawas one hour behind the above group experienced mechanical difficulty and did not complete the run.

While most observers felt that mild weather last week would prove to be an obstacle in assault of the old record, team members said that a light rain Wednesday morning actually aided in breaking the record.

"Snow on the course was packed down by the rain and skis of our machines penetrated only about 1 1/2 inches. We were really flying on the last leg from Kalkaska to Empire," stated Willard Schaaf.

Abbott, driver of the lead machine, was quick to point out that prospects for a good run from Kalkaska to Empire did not look promising early Wednesday morning. A sleet storm delayed the departure time almost an hour before the decision was made to run the remaining 96 miles in the rain.

The first team completed the 139-mile run from Tawas to Kalkaska in seven hours, 46 minutes and were maintaining the pace which had been established during previous planning. Abbott said he had his worst moment only minutes after leaving the country club Tuesday morning. "We lost several minutes when I got turned around in my directions on top of Gnate's Hill—almost in my back yard. We had to back track before finding the trail," he stated.

All of the drivers gave a pat on the back to their four chasers for making the new record possible. James Hearl, Arden Charters, Donald Leitz and Ralph Fink were at the appointed check points well ahead of time with gasoline, food and spare parts. The longest pit stop was nine minutes and the shortest was two minutes.

The team had a total of 27 minutes for six pit stops along the route and there was no serious mechanical trouble, outside of a broken spring. Chasers met the splitting snowmobilers at 22 check points along the route.

After experiencing several mechanical failures early in the route, the second team of Floyd Schaaf, Kenneth Rapp, Glen Griffen, Donald Swain, William Rapp and Brian Westcott began to make up for lost time and were actually making better time than the first team after leaving Luzerne. Mechanical trouble was to again plague machines and the team decided to drop out at Kalkaska. Performing excellent service as chasers for the second group were Fred Hasty, William Fuerst, Donald Rakestraw and Steve Masich. Ted Moe was timer for both teams.

Trophies were presented to the winning team Wednesday night at Lost Creek Sky Ranch, Luzerne, by James Hardy, a member of the board of directors of Michigan International Snowmobile Association.

A traveling trophy, which had been held since January 6 by a team from Durand, was returned to the Tawas.

Trophies were also presented to Hearl, Floyd Schaaf, Fuerst and Hardy for establishing the first coast-to-coast record two years ago. It is expected that two teams from the down state area will try to establish a new record in the near future.

"There is one thing for certain—the team which breaks our record will have a good team of chasers and ours was tops," said Abbott.

East Tawas Shelves Vote Machine Talk

East Tawas Council Monday night decided against purchase of election machines as an alternative to compliance with a new state election law.

Effective the day after the April 6 city election, a paper ballot precinct is not allowed to have more than 400 registered electors. In East Tawas' case, this would mean that each of its present three precincts would have to be split.

Discussion had been held on purchasing a voting machine for each of the present three precincts, with one machine as a standby. Each machine can handle up to 600 electors. Cost of such a program would be approximately $8,000, which was deemed prohibitive because of the little use machines would receive during the next two years.

Because of the fact that 1970 has only a state primary in August and a state general election in November which usually does not generate as much interest as the national election, the city will stick with paper ballots and hire an additional election board for each precinct. There are no major elections in 1971, which will give additional time for study of the problem.

City Clerk Fred Lomas reported that he had talked to the state director of elections and that provisions of the new act would be enforced concerning the elector limit in each precinct.

Lomas said that a plan was being studied where the six new precincts at East Tawas would have 275 voters, allowing room for any population growth.

One of the biggest problems facing the city, however, is the fact that the city hall is not large enough to accommodate the expanded election board.

Utilization of the fire hall is being considered as housing for one or two precincts during the state election. Another alternative, said Lomas, was use of the community building.

Streeter to Head Region in Mich. Week Observance

Duane E. (Bud) Streeter of Oscoda has been named regional director of the 17th annual Michigan Week scheduled May 18-23.

He will be responsible for a six-county region which covers Iosco, Alcona, Alpena, Presque Isle, Montmorency and Oscoda Counties.

Streeter served as Iosco County chairman during the 1969 Michigan Week.

List Plans for New Tawas C. Post Office

Plans for a new main post office at Tawas City were announced this week by Postmaster Gen. Winton M. Blount.

"President Nixon wants the American people to have the best postal service in the world," Mr. Blount said. "New buildings such as this will help us to realize that goal."

"This project is but one facet of the Nixon administration's program to completely modernize the postal service. This building will, in the long run, save money for the American taxpayers because it will enable us to operate more efficiently."

A site for the new building will be sought in an area between Mathews and First Streets, but off US-23. That area was selected for its convenience to the public and for its operational advantages to the postal service.

The site required must contain at least 11,200 square feet. Persons who might be interested in offering such property for the project should contact A. C. Vanden Berg, Real Estate Officer, P. O. Box 24-27, Grand Rapids, Michigan 49501.

Mr. Blount said the decision to have a new building constructed was made only after it was determined that remodeling the present facility or the use of another existing building would not be feasible.

The postmaster general said the building will be constructed under the department's lease construction program, thus keeping it on the local tax rolls.

Plans and specifications for the new building, as well as bidding forms and other pertinent data, will be made available to prospective bidders at an early date, at which time the department will advertise for bids.

The site option will be assigned to the successful bidder, who will purchase the land, construct the building to postal requirements and lease it to the department.

Year-End Reports Given Iosco Board

Year-end reports by various county offices were heard during last week's meeting of Iosco County Board of Commissioners.

According to a report from the county clerk, there were 541 births during 1969, an increase of 37 over the previous year. There were 211 deaths recorded, an increase of five over the previous year. Marriages showed a slight decrease, 212 in 1969 as compared to 218 the previous year.

There were 172 circuit court cases commenced during the past year, a decrease of 18. Circuit court cases disposed of numbered 204, a decrease of three. District court had 3,231 cases started with 2,992 completions.

Passport applications numbered 68, an increase of 19. Concealed weapons licenses amounted to 129, a decrease of 37.

The county treasurer reported that the county general fund ended the year with a deficit of $10,850.21. The county general fund had receipts of $530,050.14. This included $110,475.28 in fees collected, $61,233.56 from state income tax and $355,841.31 from real estate taxes.

Fees collected by the various offices included: Clerk, $9,557, plus district court fees of $29,147; probate judge, $1,679.79; register of deeds, $26,347.35; sheriff, $6,674.85; treasurer, $37,068.53.

Seek Change

Two bills aimed at loosening up Michigan's ambulance laws for the benefit of sparsely populated counties were introduced in the house of representatives.

One of the bills would repeal the present ambulance law of 1968. The second bill would exempt counties with less than 50,000 population from provisions of the licensing law.

3 Exchange Students at Tawas A. School

Three foreign exchange students attending Tawas Area High School have traded the warm climate of South America for the snow and cold weather of Michigan.

Spending the next six months in this community will be Manoel Lima, 17, and Mario Mesquita, 17, both of Brazil, and Ariel Joubanoba, 17, Uruguay.

The boys are taking part in the program called Youth for Understanding Teen-Agers, which has brought numerous exchange students to Tawas Area School since its inception.

During their six-month stay, each boy lives with his new "foster" family, takes an active part in family and community affairs and attends school.

"My first impression of the United States was that the people have been so polite to me and the extreme confidence generated among all the people," said Lima, who is living with Pros. Atty. and Mrs. Kenneth Myles of Tawas City.

He is in his senior year and plans to follow in the footsteps of his father, who is a civil engineer. He has three brothers and three sisters back home in Brazil. His favorite sport is soccer.

Mario, who lives with Mr. and Mrs. Earl B. Davis of Tawas City, is 17 and is in his sophomore year at home. His father is a construction engineer and he plans to enter the diplomatic corps of his country after graduating from college. His favorite sports are tennis and volleyball. He has three sisters and three brothers at home.

Ariel, who is living with Mr. and Mrs. Neal Miller at East Tawas, has one 15-year-old sister at home. His father is a captain in the merchant navy, but presently serves as a river pilot. He presently has the equivalent of one year of college and plans to enter an engineering university in 1971. Like the two other boys, he is interested in sports.

MEMBERS of Grant Township Fire Department are shown here with the township's new fire truck, which arrived last Thursday.

Members are now being trained in use of the equipment by men who attended a special school.—Tawas Herald Photo.

Grant Receives Delivery on Its New $17,795 Fire Truck

Grant Township Fire Department received delivery last Thursday on its new $17,795 fire truck. The equipment was purchased from John Bean Fire Apparatus Company, Tipton, Indiana.

Along with this purchase, five members of the department attended a school in fire fighting at Tipton. Attending were Fire Chief Ronald Ponke, William Clark, James Clark, Ralph Davis and LeRoy Lutz.

The new truck is equipped with a 1,000-gallon water tank, it has a 750-gallon-per-minute two-stage pump, electric rewind high pressure hose reels, public address system and other accessories.

The township fire department was organized only two years ago and Grant voters approved a two-mill tax issue to finance purchase of equipment. Since that time, a new fire hall was constructed with funds from taxes. Firemen purchased a 1,000-gallon tank truck and the township purchased a brush fire truck, capable of carrying 300 gallons of water and a pump. All trucks are radio equipped.

Chief Ponke said last week that the department is now going to purchase boots, raincoats, airpaks and other equipment through various fund raising events.

The department has responsibility for protecting all of Grant Township and the western half of Wilber Township (18 sections) as well as cooperating with Plainfield Township in a mutual aid agreement.

The department has a roster of 22 members and is equipped with resuscitator and inhalator.

During the past year, the department had 14 fire runs and eight rescue calls. Practice sessions are held every Monday night.

New MPA Head

New president of Michigan Press Association is Jim Brown, vice president of Panax newspaper group. His grandfather, Vernon J. Brown, was president of MPA in 1933, and his father, Nelson, was a member of the Board of Directors in 1955. All were publishers of the Ingham County News in Mason.

Other officers elected at MPA 103rd annual meeting at Kellogg Center in East Lansing are Blair C. Bedient, Albion Recorder, president-elect; Carl Black, Sanilac County Jeffersonian, vice president; Gratian Gray, Monroe News, treasurer; Elmer E. White, executive secretary.

Frank Angelo, Detroit Free Press, is immediate past president and a member of the Board of Directors. Elected to first terms on the Board are John C. Hewens, Huron County Tribune, and Edward J. Periberg, Arenac County Independent. Dan Ryan, Kalamazoo Gazette, and Melvin Bleich, Romeo Observer, were re-elected to the Board.

The convention was climaxed by the 29th "All Michigan Dinner," co-sponsored by the Michigan Department of Agriculture. The dinner is nationally famous because only food produced in Michigan is served, and no other state can match this versatility.

In addition, the department's women's auxiliary is composed of 50 members. This organization has helped to equip the fire hall with a kitchen. The organization serves as one of the township's primary social organizations. Telephone numbers of the fire department is 469-2222.

Kid's Day A Success

A GALA DAY full of fun, prizes and food was well received by many Tawas youngsters last Sunday as the East Tawas Lions and Leos sponsored free skating races, hot dogs and prizes. Contributions by local merchants helped to defray some of the costs. The warm, sunny day created some minor problems with soft ice and, as a result, Olympic records did not fall. Races in every age group for boys and girls were held, with ribbons for first, second and third places awarded. Hot dogs to the number of 500 were consumed and hot chocolate flowed like water. The ice rink, which has been open every night, is actively used and is one of the best in its history. The Lions recently installed a pair of new flood lights for night skating and hope the public continues to utilize the rink.

Tawas Teams Won Two Games Friday

Tawas Area School won a basketball doubleheader Friday night from visiting Standish-Sterling Central teams. The Braves downed the Panthers, 72-61, and the Junior Braves defeated the Standish-Sterling JV, 59-42.

The victory was sweet for the Braves, gaining revenge for an earlier loss at the hands of the Panthers. The visitors came into the game riding on a five-game winning streak.

After three straight erratic performances, the Braves pulled out all stops in this game by meshing 28 out of 54 field goal attempts for a 52 percent shooting average.

Each team had three players scoring in double figures, but the 22 points piled up by Chuck Petersen and 21 points by Craig Wilkins spelled the difference. Don Mick's 13 points was an added factor in Tawas' scoring punch.

Tawas Area jumped off to an 18-11 first quarter margin and was never headed. The visitors displayed a good zone defense and prevented any serious penetration by the Braves. The big difference between this game and Tawas' loss a week ago to Pinconning was that the Braves were hot on their long shots. Every player in the red and white meshed at least one long shot and that spelled victory.

The Braves edged the Panthers, 14-13, in the second quarter to hold a commanding 32-24 margin at intermission. The Panthers stayed right on the heels of the Braves in the second half with scores of 17-16 in the third quarter and 23-21 in the final.

Templin, who wrecked Tawas in the first meeting at Central, led the Panthers with 19 points. The visitors had a 32 percent shooting average with 24 out of 75 completions.

The preliminary game was typical of so many played by the Junior Braves this season. After a cold first half, the Junior Braves tightened its defense and roared back to take over the lead in the third quarter.

The Little Panthers jumped off to a 16-9 margin in the first quarter and Tawas closed the gap with a 15-11 second quarter margin. The Junior Braves scored 19 points in the third quarter while the visitors scored only five. Tawas put the game away in the final with a 16-10 budge.

Mark Schirmer of Tawas topped both teams with 14 points, followed by Matt Mayer's 13. Other Tawas players in the scoring column were Kasischek, seven; Russell, six; Hackborn, seven; Sarki, Scales and Nichols, four points each.

Hale Area Eagles Won Two Games During Past Week

Hale Area Eagles won a pair of basketball games last week, topping Whittemore-Prescott Cardinals, 82-58, on Tuesday night and then dropped Fairview, 75-64, on Friday night.

The Eagles and Cardinals were evenly matched in the first quarter, with Hale Area holding an 18-16 edge at the end of the first quarter. The Cards faded in the second quarter as Hale Area rang up an 18-10 margin. The winners again connected for 18 points in the third quarter and then meshed 28 in the final as Whittemore-Prescott had 16 points in each of the last two quarters.

Shellenbarger was high scorer of the night with 24 points and Cline followed closely with 20. Griffis topped the Cards with 15 points, followed by 14 for Sztanyo.

A big first quarter saved a victory Friday night for the Eagles. Hale jumped off to a 20-6 margin, but then began to fade as Fairview took an 18-14 margin in the second quarter and came within one point of tying the game in the third quarter with a 23-14 margin. Hale came to life in the final quarter with a 27-17 scoring margin.

Shellenbarger topped the winners with 36 points on 14 field goals and eight foul shots. Greg Wereley ran second in scoring with 14. Ellis and Pfaff topped the losers with 13 points each.

Lions Make Plans for Kid's Day

East Tawas Lions Club held its meeting Tuesday, January 27, at the Buckhorn Inn and had as guests 16 members of the Tawas Area High School Leos Club and five members of the Lions Club. "Kid's Day" plans were finalized. The event is sponsored by the East Tawas Lions Club and will be held at the local skating rink on Newman Street.

A program was presented by Chaplain John McGrory of Wurtsmith Air Force Base about a coffee house operated for the youths of the Oscoda area. At present, East Tawas Lions Club is working on plans to open such a coffee house for the youth of the Tawas area.

TODAYS Meditation
 from The World's Most Widely Used Devotional Guide
The Upper Room

Read Matthew 6:19-24
 The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light. (Matthew 6:22)

In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus speaks about such things as the birds, lilies, pearls cast before swine, gates, grapes, figs and houses. These things He tellingly relates to the spiritual life.

This emphasis is evident also in Jesus' speaking about the eye in its relation to the body. Jesus' intention was not to teach a lesson in physiology. He pointed to something more vital—the relation of a person's spirit to his outlook on life and how he spends his time, energy and talents.

Jesus simply says that if our spirit is diseased—evil, selfish, unsound, bad—we grope in darkness, failing to see the temporal in the perspective of eternity. If our spirit is sound—single, generous, clear—the light of God fills our whole being.

Christ gives us sight and points us toward goals worthy of pursuit. He calls us to express such self-giving love toward our fellowmen as would be identical to the love we have for God, Himself.

PRAYER

O Christ, transform us by Your spirit. Rid our lives of their darkness. Show us the way from prejudice to perfection, from selfishness to service in Your Kingdom. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

If the light that is in us is Christ, how radiant that light—Russell Q. Chilcote (Tennessee).

"Would God that all the Lord's people were prophets, and that the Lord would put his spirit upon them!" These words of Moses in Numbers are part of the lesson-sermon titled "Spirit." The lesson will be read this Sunday in Christian Science churches.

A passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy in the lesson is: "Anciently those apostles who were Jesus' students, as well as Paul who was not one of his students, healed the sick and reformed the sinner by their religiosity. Hence the mistake which allows words, rather than works, to follow such examples!" (p. 343)

MARKING a special anniversary recently were John Dittenbir, top, and Willet V. Hazard, bottom picture, who are two of only a few persons remaining who have received benefits since the inception of social security.

Two Area Men in Exclusive 'Club'

When you are one of only 413 persons out of 200 million in the United States, you have an interesting story to tell. John Dittenbir Sr., Route One, AuGres, and Willet V. Hazard, Route Two, Tawas City, are two of those interesting 413 persons and February 3, 1970, was an important date for both men. That was the 30th anniversary of social security checks for them, two of the few remaining charter members of the "First Social Security Check Club."

Social security checks were first issued for January 1940 and the two area men were among the first persons in the United States to receive monthly benefits.

Dittenbir came to the United States from Russia in 1902 at the age of 28 years. Coming with him were his wife and four children, along with his wife's parents. After immigration processing from Montreal to Port Huron and Detroit, the family set up their new home at Lincoln, Nebraska. Since a brother, Peter Dittenbir, had established a home at AuGres, the family moved to that area in 1911.

Hazard was born at Shelby, Ontario, Canada, February 6, 1874, and came to the United States at the age of 21 years. He helped to clear farm land at Bad Axe, then returned to Canada to work in a button factory. He returned to the United States in 1911 to stay.

Dittenbir farmed for a while and, in 1926, began working at Midland for the Dow Chemical Company. He retired in 1940.

Through his Dow Chemical employment, he earned his credit for social security benefits. Dittenbir is the father of 10 children (some of whom are deceased), 19 grandchildren, 28 great grandchildren and five great-great grandchildren.

Now 95, he still retains a good memory and has a great interest in history. He recalls Pres. Woodrow Wilson's term in office and succeeding presidents since that time. When asked what his first big impression of the United States was, he stated he was impressed with the railroad systems.

Dittenbir had lived on the farm near AuGres since his retirement. He is currently a patient in the Iosco County Medical Care Facility, Tawas City.

After returning to the United States in 1911, Hazard worked in a buggy factory at Pontiac, then worked for the Oakland Motor Car Company. He earned credit for social security by working at the Fisher Body plant at Pontiac.

He has two daughters, three grandchildren and eight grand children. He moved to the Tawas area in May 1969, to live with his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Smith, 245 Northeast Drive, Whitney Township.

Despite his 96 years, Hazard is greatly interested in sport fishing, is a Detroit Tiger fan and enjoys watching sports events on television.

The most surprising thing in his lifetime, he said, is that he never thought he would live to see man land on the moon.

Although social security records are strictly confidential, both men consented to the publication of this story as social security benefits and the new Medicare benefits have been a great help to them.

Social Security
Answers Questions
About Benefits

Question: I lost my wife in an accident in 1960. The social security office stated there were no monthly benefits for our young children. Is this still the case?
Answer: It may not be true. The law changed, permitting payments in February of 1968 possible, if the mother was insured under social security. Check with your nearest social security representative right away.
Question: My wife and I operate a farm. She helps with some of the work. I would like to know, can we split our profit in half and report the amount to each of our social security numbers?
Answer: Generally, the answer is no. The law says that in a community property state all earnings in a trade or business, including farm earnings, must be reported to the husband's social security record.
Question: Do I have to retire completely to receive social security benefits? I am 63.
Answer: Under the present law, a beneficiary is allowed to earn up to $1,680 per year and still draw all of his social security checks. If he earns over that amount, some of his benefits will be withheld.
A social security representative will be at the Isoco County Build-

Marijuana, Friend or Foe?

By William F. Thompson
Iosco County Department of Correction
Probation and Parole Agent

"Don't you agree that marijuana should be legalized?" or "Don't you see that the penalty for possession of marijuana is too severe?"

This is the theme of every question and answer session regarding narcotics that I have been involved in with young people, either in a group or on an individual basis, in the course of my work.

To answer this, I must rely on that information that has become available to me through experience and personal contact with those addicted to various drugs. Between the years of 1960 and 1963, on a weekly basis, I counseled drug addicts, at the Detroit House of Correction. These people had voluntarily submitted themselves to a 90-day commitment for the purpose of withdrawing from the use of narcotics. Most of them were addicted to heroin and had become involved in criminal activity, in the first place, in an effort to obtain $20 to $30 per day to supply their daily requirement of heroin. Furthermore, these people were on parole, and had often agreed to the voluntary commitment as the lesser of two evils with the alternative likely being, return to the state prison.

Since I was a parole agent, my interviews with these people were frequent and, I believe, quite revealing.

The addicts talked of the difficulties in obtaining sufficient narcotics, the tortures of withdrawal when your supply is cut off or diminished and of their everpresent need to seek out new veins to inject as the used veins slowly collapsed. But, in addition to this, there was one recurrent theme. Tell the young people who have not yet tried it, how I got started. Almost without exception the same story was repeated. "I did not start out intending to be a drug addict. But one day, I was offered marijuana by a school friend. At first, I did not take it, but I kept seeing this friend who always had some. Finally one day, I tried it. It made me slightly sick to my stomach and I did not think I would try it again. But two weeks later, I was back again, giving it another try and enjoying myself slightly. From there, contact with 'pot heads' led to contact with persons who had the 'hard stuff.' Within six months I was 'main lining' heroin."

This or similar stories were repeated again and again, always with use of marijuana being the prelude to addiction to the stronger drug.

Therefore, as I see it, it is pointless to argue about whether or not marijuana is addictive, if its use leads to the situation already described.

No, I do not think marijuana should be legalized, because it is injurious in the devious way that it leads to serious illness.

No, I do not think the penalty is too severe. Marijuana, to date, has been shown to be possibly, a non-addictive drug that frequently leads to the use of addictive drugs. If we are to reduce the penalty what we really are saying is that marijuana is still bad, but just a little bad and not as bad as it used to be. Well, contact with addicts will convince you that this is not true.

The consequences of usage are just as omnipresent and traumatic as ever. And the person who smokes marijuana is playing a kind of roulette. For none of us know which among us is physically and psychologically ripe and ready for easy subjection and addiction to drugs.

HURON-MANISTEE NATIONAL FOREST

Tawas Ranger District
By Stuart Bailey, Forester

"Mother Nature" is handling one of her problems better than man is able. The problem this time is the over population of brer fox.

This fall, many hunters were reporting seeing more fox than usual. I imagine many were becoming concerned about how this would affect their small game population. Common sense would seem to tell us that as the number of fox increased, the number of small animals would decrease.

But if we stop and think about it, that is not common sense. What really happens is that as the number of small animals increase, the number of fox increase. When the small animals decrease, the fox decrease. One of the complicated and interesting points in the study of animal population is what is happening to the fox in Michigan this year. This is when the fox seems about to overrun the country side nature steps in and puts a halt to the population explosion.

This halt is usually in the form of disease. For example, there are many reports coming in of fox being seen with large patches of hair falling out. This is called mange. Also, some appear to be weakened to a point where they can be walked up to and killed with a club. I imagine this is also the result of some disease. However, one must be careful of getting too close to a fox, for another disease, rabies, may be prevalent when fox become overpopulated.

Man has tried to use the bounty system, that is paying a person a fee for every fox he could prove that he killed, to keep down the number of fox, but was not successful. Nature can do it a cheaper way and be more efficient.

This also applies to other animals, such as the rabbit, squirrel and grouse. If there is a place that has enough food and cover for an animal to live through the winter, then nature will fill it. But if there are too many animals for the amount of food and cover available then nature will remove the excess. How can man more effectively control the fox population? By removing more food and cover from the small animals; of course, this will keep down the number of small animals thus controlling the number of fox which feed on them.

The "tallest Lincoln in the world" has shoes 6 feet long. Mrs. Leona Brinkman seems amazed at the size of the statue.
© 1970 RURAL GRAVURE SERVICE, INC.

Near Lincoln Farm

GIANT ON THE ILLINOIS PRAIRIE

by Grover Brinkman

Writers eulogizing Abraham Lincoln never seem to amplify the fact that the Lincolns were farmers. But so they were. Near Charleston, Illinois, on the road leading to Lincoln Log Cabin State Park, is a memorial plaque on the site of the Thomas Lincoln farm. Abe's father built a cabin here in 1837 and farmed the land until his death in 1851. Abe himself often visited his father's homestead, and after 1841 held title to 40 acres of farm land here. The State of Illinois now owns most of the Lincoln farm.

And nearby, at a newly-established Lincoln Memorial Park, the largest statue of Lincoln in the world has been erected and dedicated. It stands in the open prairie, much higher than the native oaks surrounding it, a 62-foot-high giant so lifelike that at a distance one might suppose it could walk off its concrete pedestal.

The new glass and steel edifice weighs 16,000 pounds. Lincoln's shoes are six feet in length. Standing against the giant an ordinary person is a pygmy.

These may look like ordinary chocolate snaps and fudge, but there's a touch of genius in both of these new recipes.

CHOCO-MINT SNAPPERS—Preheat oven to 350°F. Melt 1 pkg. (1 cup) Nestlé's® Semi-Sweet, Mint-Flavored Chocolate Morsels over hot (not boiling) water. Remove from heat. Combine ½ cup shortening, ½ cup sugar, 1 egg in bowl and beat till creamy. Blend in melted chocolate, ¼ cup corn syrup. Sift together 1½ cups sifted flour, 2 teaspoons baking soda, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, ¼ teaspoon salt and stir in gradually. Shape dough into balls using 1 level tablespoon for each. Roll balls of dough in sugar (about ¼ cup). Place 3" apart on ungreased cookie sheets. BAKE at: 350°F. TIME: 15 mins. Let stand a few mins. before removing from pan. Makes 3 dozen 3" cookies.

DOUBLE DELIGHT FUDGE—Combine 2½ cups sugar, 1 cup evaporated milk, ¼ cup butter, ¼ tsp. salt in saucepan. Bring to full rolling boil, over moderate heat, stirring constantly. Boil 6 mins. over moderate heat, stirring occasionally. Remove from heat. Stir in 1½ cups miniature marshmallows, ½ cup chopped nuts, 1 tsp. vanilla and stir till marshmallows melt and mixture is well blended. To 2 cups hot mixture, add 1 pkg. (1 cup) Nestlé's® Semi-Sweet Chocolate Morsels; stir till Morsels are melted and mixture is blended. Pour evenly into greased or aluminum foil-lined 8" square pan. To remaining hot mixture, add 1 pkg. (1 cup) Nestlé's® Milk Chocolate Morsels; stir till Morsels are melted and mixture is blended. Spread evenly over Semi-Sweet mixture in pan. Chill till firm (about 4 hours). Cut into squares. Makes about 2½ lbs.

NESTLÉ'S MAKES THE VERY BEST CHOCOLATE

Once Thomas Lincoln owned this farm, now part of an Illinois state park. Abe Lincoln also held title to 40 acres of land here.

The statue was manufactured by a display firm in St. Paul, Minn., and transported by special trailers to Charleston. Designer-sculptor Bob Edgett worked from a small model of Lincoln, to create the giant likeness. Even the posture, the upheld hand, the stance of the giant, are all true to form of the Lincoln who debated his cause throughout Illinois.

Nearby, inside Lincoln Log Cabin State Park, an aged lilac bush still blossoms, although it was planted by the Lincoln family when they lived here more than a century ago. Nearby is old Shiloh cemetery, a beautiful country burial ground, where lie Thomas Lincoln, Abe's father, and Sarah Lincoln, his step-mother. Thomas died in 1851; Sarah lived until 1869, four years after Lincoln's assassination. Once this farm area was called Gooseneat Prairie.

The image of Lincoln grows ever taller in Illinois, especially along the Lincoln Heritage Trail, which meanders across the south-central part of the state, starting in Kentucky, and terminating in the New Salem area. Tourism, the desire of many people today all eager to walk the same trails as did Lincoln and his family, helps the image grow. Charleston, site of one of the historic Lincoln-Douglas debates, now has the world's tallest statue of Abe to memorialize the event.

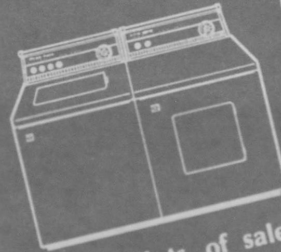

Lincoln, remembered in various forms of life-sized sculpture in all parts of the nation and even abroad, has never before been amplified into a giant—sixty-two feet tall!

This ancient lilac bush, near the site of the Thomas Lincoln cabin, is still hardy and well, although it was planted by the Lincolns well over a century ago.

HONOR TWO GREAT PRESIDENTS

By Betty Stern
Farm & Home Food Consultant

Celebrate the birthdays of Washington and Lincoln with traditional American favorites — as popular today as in the days of our forefathers, but now so easy to make.

Because of the cabin in which he spent his youth, Lincoln, our 16th president, is always associated with logs. It has become traditional to bake a cake or yeast raised bread in the shape of a log, then frost it, to serve on February 12.

Or how about a history lesson on our first president via Cherry Cupcakes and Soda or Graham Cracker Log Cabin? Children would be most receptive to learning about Washington and Lincoln with such a treat in store. Let your foods be the start of an around-the-table historical discussion.

Lincoln Log Cabin

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| 1 cup dessert topping                               | 2 tablespoons grated orange peel       |
| Chopped dates                                       |  |
| 4 (Complete 4 sections) sugar honey graham crackers | 2 complete sugar honey graham crackers |
|   | Gum drops                              |

Whip dessert topping and fold in grated orange peel. Using four graham crackers for base of each log cabin, spread whipped topping mixture between crackers; sprinkle finely chopped dates over each layer and stack. Frost sides with remaining whipped topping and place stacks in refrigerator for an hour or two. When ready to serve, use one cracker for each side of the slanting roof of the cabin. Trim plates with small flags held by large gum drops and a few small colorful gum drops.

No; made with Blue Bonnet Margarine.

Make any recipe with Blue Bonnet, and you make it great. Because Blue Bonnet has the same great taste as the high-price spread. But Blue Bonnet fries better. Browns faster. And when you spread it on bread, Blue Bonnet's closer to the high-price spread than any margarine. It releases its flavor almost instantly—just like the high-price spread.

Everything's better with Blue Bonnet on it (or in it).

Cherry-Go-Round
(Makes 2 coffeecakes)

3½ cups to 4½ unsifted flour
½ cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 package active dry yeast
1 cup milk
¼ cup water
½ cup (1 stick) margarine
1 egg (at room temperature)
1 cup unsifted flour
½ cup chopped California walnuts
½ cup firmly packed light brown sugar
1 can (1-pound) pitted red sour cherries, well drained
Confectioners' sugar frosting

In a large bowl thoroughly mix 1¼ cups flour, sugar, salt and undissolved active dry yeast. Combine milk, water and margarine in a saucepan. Heat over low heat until liquids are warm. (Margarine does not need to melt.) Gradually add to dry ingredients and beat 2 minutes at medium speed of electric mixer, scraping bowl occasionally. Add egg and ¾ cup flour, or enough flour to make a thick batter. Beat at high speed 2 minutes, scraping bowl occasionally. Stir in enough additional flour to make a stiff batter. Cover bowl tightly with aluminum foil. Refrigerate dough at least 2 hours. (Dough may be kept in refrigerator 3 days.) When ready to shape dough, combine ½ cup flour, chopped walnuts and brown sugar. Turn dough out onto lightly floured board and divide in half. Roll ½ of the dough to a 14x7-inch rectangle. Spread with ¾ cup cherries. Sprinkle with ½ the brown sugar mixture. Roll up from long side as for jelly roll. Seal edges. Place sealed edge down in circle on greased baking sheet. Seal ends together firmly. Cut slits ¾ through ring at 1-inch intervals; turn each section on its side. Repeat with remaining dough, cherries and brown sugar mixture. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour. Bake at 375° about 20-25 minutes.

or until done. Remove from baking sheets and cool on wire racks. Frost while warm with confectioners' sugar frosting.

LINCOLN LOG

4 to 5 cups unsifted flour
¾ cup sugar
1½ teaspoons salt
2 packages active dry yeast
½ cup milk
½ cup water
¼ cup (½ stick) margarine
2 eggs (room temperature)
1 package (8-ounce) cream cheese, softened
1 egg yolk
1 cup California walnuts, chopped

In a large bowl thoroughly mix 1¼ cups flour, ½ cup sugar, salt and undissolved active dry yeast. Combine milk, water and margarine in a saucepan. Heat over low heat until liquids are warm. (Margarine does not need to melt.) Gradually add to dry ingredients and beat 2 minutes at medium speed of electric mixer, scraping bowl occasionally. Add eggs and ½ cup flour or enough flour to make a thick batter. Beat at high speed 2 minutes, scraping bowl occasionally. Stir in enough additional flour to make a soft dough. Turn out onto lightly floured board; knead until smooth and elastic, about 8-10 minutes. Place in greased bowl, turning to grease top. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour. Meanwhile, prepare filling. Cream the cheese with ¼ cup sugar until light and fluffy. Blend in egg yolk. Punch dough down; turn out onto lightly floured board. Divide dough in half. Roll ½ the dough into a 10x14-inch rectangle. Spread with half the cheese filling. Sprinkle with half walnuts. Roll up, as for jelly roll, to form 14-inch roll. Seal edges. Place on greased baking sheet. Cut slits ¾ through log at 1-inch intervals. Repeat with remaining dough and filling. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour. Bake at 350° about 20-25 minutes, or until done. Remove from baking sheets and cool. Frost with your favorite chocolate frosting.

½ cup boiling pineapple juice
½ cup maraschino cherries
½ lemon, seeded and peeled
½ cup sugar
½ cup light cream
2 cups crushed ice or ice cubes

Put cherry juice, cold pineents and continue processing until ice is liquefied and mixture begins to thicken. Pour at once into individual serving dishes or 5-cup mold. Chill mold 15 minutes before unmolding. Garnish with whipped cream and cherries. Yield: 6-8 servings.

(Stir) only until well mixed, about 5 seconds. Yield: 1 serving.

TUNA CONTINENTAL

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 2 packages (10 ounces each) frozen broccoli spears | 2 tablespoons soft margarine                          |
| 2 tablespoons margarine                            | 2 cans (6½ or 7 ounces each) tuna, drained and flaked |
| 2 tablespoons flour                                | ¼ cup chopped California walnuts                      |
| ¼ teaspoon salt                                    | ½ cup grated sharp Cheddar cheese                     |
| ⅛ teaspoon pepper                                  |   |
| 1 cup milk   |   |
| 2 egg yolks  |   |
| 3 tablespoons lemon juice                          |   |

Cook broccoli according to label directions. While broccoli is cooking, melt two tablespoons margarine in saucepan over low heat. Add flour, salt and pepper. Stir until smooth. Slowly add milk. Continue cooking until thickened, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Beat egg yolks. Slowly stir a little hot sauce into egg. Stir into remaining sauce. Add margarine and lemon juice. Mix well. Place broccoli in six individual casseroles or one large one. Top each with tuna. Sprinkle with walnuts. Pour sauce over tuna and broccoli, using about ¼ cup for each small casserole. Sprinkle with grated cheese. Place in broiler about 5 to 6 inches from heat. Broil until sauce is bubbly, about 6 to 10 minutes. Serve at once. Yield: 6 servings.

HIGH HAT TUNA SOUFFLE

|---|--|
| 1 cup unsifted flour                    | 2 cans (7 ounces each) tuna, drained and flaked    |
| 2 tablespoons sugar                     | 1 can (10½ ounces) cream of celery soup, undiluted |
| 1 teaspoon salt                         | ½ cup milk   |
| 1 package active dry yeast              | 2 tablespoons diced pimiento                       |
| ¾ cup milk                              | 2 teaspoons grated onion                           |
| ¼ cup margarine                         |  |
| 2 eggs (at room temperature), separated |  |

In a bowl thoroughly mix ½ cup flour, sugar, salt and undissolved active dry yeast. Combine ¾ cup milk and margarine in a saucepan. Heat over low heat until liquid is warm. (Margarine does not need to melt.) Gradually add to dry ingredients and beat 2 minutes at medium speed of electric mixer, scraping bowl occasionally. Add egg yolks and ½ cup flour. Beat at high speed 2 minutes, scraping bowl occasionally. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 40 minutes. Meanwhile, prepare tuna filling. Combine tuna, soup, ½ cup milk, pimiento and onion. Place in greased 1½ quart casserole. Stir batter down. Beat egg whites until stiff; fold into yeast batter. Pour over tuna mixture. Bake at 375° about 45 to 50 minutes or until souffle tests done. Serve immediately.

The best things in life are real.

The real things in life just can't be beaten. After all, what could be better than the real cakes you bake from scratch? Nothing.

But it does take longer at a time when life's a lot more hurried than it used to be.

That's why Fleischmann's developed the new Rapidmix method. It makes baking the real thing quicker and easier than ever before.

Because you no longer have to dissolve the yeast, worry about water temperature or heat the bowl.

Now you just blend Fleischmann's Yeast with your other dry ingredients, mix—and bake one of the best things in life. A light, tasty cake. The real thing.
