Continue Discussion on Night Patrolman

Discussion on expanding night patrol of the Tawas City Police Department was again held at Monday night's meeting of the city council.

The council gave its authorization to Police Chief George Westcott to advertise for a part-time patrolman, which could become a full-time position at a later date.

Chief Westcott said that following six burglaries at East Tawas on December 14, he had been on patrol for eight straight nights. On the ninth night, he went home around 11 o'clock and burglars struck at 14 business places.

In asking for a full-time night patrolman, Westcott said he was of the opinion that if there had been a patrol car on duty that night, the burglaries would have been delayed or even prevented.

The police chief said he did not believe he could secure suitable part-time help at night. His present part-time assistants have been unable to work because of their regular employment.

"Let's give it a try, anyway," said Mayor Russell A. Rollin in emphasizing that the police chief had been authorized to advertise for a part-time patrolman.

In other business, Mrs. Mary Byrd, city treasurer, reported on tax collections for the year. A total of $69,023 has been paid in city taxes, which represents 91.7 percent of the total assessment. There has been $45,106 paid in "winter" taxes, county and school, which represents 35 percent of the total assessment of $128,728. A penalty is to be added to taxes collected after February 14.

Discussion was held concerning a rumor to the effect that Tawas City was to prohibit entry of snow machines making a speed run from Lake Michigan to Tawas Bay, arriving here Tuesday. Mayor Rollin said that the rumor was completely unfounded. He stated further that no one had contacted city officials in this matter or had they contacted Police Chief Westcott. (See COUNCIL, page 6.)

Tawas Area to Select Citizen of the Year

Fifth annual search for the outstanding citizen of the Tawas area is now being conducted by the Tawas Chamber of Commerce. The person chosen is to be honored at the chamber's winter banquet January 24 at Tawas Golf and Country Club.

An official ballot is being printed in this week's issue of The Tawas Herald. The ballot, along with a short summary of the nominee's qualifications for selection as citizen of the year, should be returned to the chamber office by January 20.

Any group or individual desiring to nominate a candidate may use the ballot provided and return it with the necessary information. A panel of judges will make the final selection from ballots received. Names of the nominees are to be placed on file in the vault of Peoples State Bank and will not be announced until the night of the banquet.

The candidate may be a man or woman, a resident of the Tawas Area School District. The award is to be for his or her outstanding work or contribution to the welfare of the area for 1969, but such effort is to be outside his everyday occupational duties.

Last year, Joseph Barkman was selected for this honor.

Nominating Petition

I hereby nominate _____ of _____ as the outstanding citizen of the Tawas area for the year 1969. I have enclosed a brief summary listing reasons why I have placed my candidate in nomination.

Signed: _____

(This ballot must be returned to the Tawas Chamber of Commerce office on or before January 20, 1970.)

Urge Parents to Cooperate in Rubella Vaccination Program

Dr. William Jackson, director of District Health Department No. 2, announced today that many persons have been calling the department stating that their children have already "had the measles" or have had the "measles shot" and, therefore, do not need the rubella (German measles) vaccine.

"These parents had a mistaken impression about the value of the newly-discovered rubella vaccine," states Doctor Jackson. "Perhaps they are confusing rubella, the three-day or German measles with the seven-day or hard measles."

When another vaccine which prevented hard or seven-day measles was offered widely several years ago, many children were immunized.

"Unfortunately, parents are confusing this immunization with rubella, an entirely different childhood disease for which vaccine has now become available for the first time this year," said Jackson.

The director also states that the rubella epidemic predicted for 1970, which can cause untold damage to unborn youngsters, will not be prevented unless a majority of youngsters are immunized.

Jackson urges parents to consent to the rubella vaccination of kindergarten through third grade youngsters, even though they feel the youngsters may have already had the disease, for having had the hard measles will not provide immunity against rubella.

"There is no known contradiction to giving the vaccine to a child who has previously had the disease and widespread immunization will allow the children to help protect thousands of expecting mothers against the dangers of giving birth to a defective, handicapped—or dead—child," said the district health director.

The rubella vaccine is now available locally and is to be administered to children, whose parents have consented, to kindergarten through third grade in the schools according to the following schedule:

January 9—Prescott kindergarten; January 12—Prescott elementary, Whitmore elementary and kindergarten, Hale elementary, Glenn elementary; January 20—Cedar Lake elementary, Oscoda elementary, County Line elementary, River Road elementary. January 21—East Tawas elementary, Tawas City elementary, St. Joseph's, Zion Lutheran, Emanuel Lutheran.

28 New Homes Breaks Record for Construction at East Tawas

Capping a phenomenal decade of new construction, East Tawas building applications totaled $523,073 during 1969, according to a report Monday night to the city council by Paul C. Ropert, superintendent of public works.

Of this amount, 28 new homes constructed at East Tawas during the past 12 months had a valuation of $357,000. This construction set another new record during the 10-year period, which has seen 140 new homes constructed at a total valuation of $1,489,992.

In addition, the past year saw building permits issued for seven garages, $7,800; 11 residential additions, $22,200; repairs and alterations, $30,458; 14 tool sheds, $2,200; 22 fences, $5,895; eight commercial additions, $97,500.

A MICHIGAN coast-to-coast speed record held by a snowmobile team from Iosco for the past two years, was shattered Tuesday when the old mark of 15 hours, 22 minutes, 40 seconds, was bettered by a team from Durand in 13 hours, 29 minutes, 20 seconds. Sanctioned by the Michigan Snowmobile Association, a revolving trophy was presented to the captain of the seven-man team, Roy Baker, center, Durand, by James Hardy, operator of the Lost Creek Sky Ranch at Luzerne. Watching the presentation at right is Ted Moe, president of the Iosco Snowdrifters. Arriving at the Tawas

Golf and Country Club at 1:42 p. m. Tuesday were drivers, from left in front of machines, along with their "chasers," Ralph Hodges, Clayton J. Smith, Fred Spohn, Jerry Williams, Russell Frazier and Phil Harding. The old record over the course, which follows the Northern Michigan Hiking and Riding Trail, was held by James Hearl of East Tawas, Hardy, Floyd Schaaf of East Tawas and William Fuerst of Whittemore. Hearl said Tuesday that the local group plans to make another run in the near future in an attempt to regain the crown first won in 1968.—Tawas Herald Photo.

Plans for proposed modernization and expansion of Tawas City's sanitary sewer disposal system are now being studied by the Michigan Department of Health.

Since last summer, the city water and sewer board, along with its engineering consultant, Spicer Engineering Company, Saginaw, has been working on proposed plans which would comply with legislation adopted in recent years requiring secondary treatment of waste and phosphate removal.

Reginald Bublitz, superintendent of public works, told the city council Monday night that Spicer Engineering Company has prepared a set of plans for this project, according to its earlier recommendations to the water and sewer board.

Following approval of plans by the state health department, the next step would be to apply for a federal-state grant under the $335,000,000 program adopted by Michigan voters in 1968, which aids communities in construction of waste treatment and collection systems.

Communities which qualify under the Water Resource Commission's point system for grants for waste treatment may receive 55 percent of the cost of the treatment facility. Of this amount, 50 percent comes from the state bond issue and five percent from the federal government. Originally, the federal share was to be 50 percent, the state's share 25 percent and the local community's share 25 percent. Due to a shortage of federal funds, the state is increasing its share to 50 percent and the local share is increased to 45 percent.

It was emphasized at Monday night's meeting that many communities in Michigan lack waste treatment facilities of any type and this city may not qualify for a grant. If the city does qualify, it would ask for a grant of $96,250, or 55 percent of the total estimated cost of $175,000. The city would have to finance $78,750, plus the cost of additional land which is estimated at $11,250, or a total of $90,000.

Since receiving notification that the Water Resources Commission had adopted a policy that all existing waste discharges be required to provide facilities for the removal of phosphorous compounds in waste by June 1977, plus the fact that it is believed that the commission will require secondary treatment of plant effluents in the near future, the water and sewer board has been working with its engineer to meet this need.

Removal of phosphates is the best means of controlling the undesirable growth of algae and other plants which cause taste and odor problems in the public water supply systems. The reduction of suspended solids and BOD (biochemical oxygen demand) to acceptable levels, require a secondary treatment facility as distinguished from the existing primary treatment plant which provides sedimentation only.

The existing plant consists of two settling and digestion tanks, a chlorine contact tank, sludge drying beds and a small laboratory. The first tank unit was constructed in 1958 to serve a population of 1,250. A second unit was constructed in 1958 to serve a population of 3,000. Total capacity of the two units will serve a population of 4,250.

Three different plans were (See PLANS, page 6.)

Sheriff Warns Snow Machine Operators to Obey Laws-Codes

Snow machine operators are warned that state laws regulating the use and operation of such machines are being enforced by the Iosco Sheriff's Department.

"We have received many complaints of violations during the past several weeks and all members of this department have been directed to take strict measures to enforce state laws," states Sheriff Ivan O'Farrell.

According to the sheriff, complaints have ranged from snow machines operating on public highways to trespassing on private property.

"The law clearly states that snow machines (snowmobiles) are not to be operated on the traveled portion of any street or highway, or within 10 feet of the traveled portion of the roadway, yet there have been many flagrant violations. This is going to come to a halt," said O'Farrell.

Present law permits snow machines to cross public highways, bridges and culverts when such crossing can be made in safety and without interference with vehicular traffic. A snow machine must yield right-of-way to other vehicle traffic when crossing.

Snow machines may be operated on county roads which are not kept open for automobile traffic during winter months, during periods of a police-declared emergency when travel by automobiles is not possible or during special snowmobile events of limited duration, for which proper permits have been issued.

A snow machine must be equipped with at least one headlight, one tail light and adequate brakes. It is illegal to operate a snow machine at a speed which is too fast for conditions, or to operate such a machine while under the influence of alcohol.

It is also illegal to operate a snow machine in an area where such operation may cause damage to growing tree plantings or natural forest reproduction. In addition, a machine must be equipped with a muffler in good working condition to prevent excessive noise and smoke.

Aulerich Heads Road Commission

At the Iosco County Road Commission's regular meeting of December 30, Arthur J. Aulerich succeeded Henry M. Conley as board chairman for 1970. Clarence Curry was elected vice chairman.

Smash Windows

Vandals smashed two windows at Tawas Area High School over the past week-end. John Alexander, principal, told Iosco Sheriff's Department officers that he discovered two three by five-foot windows broken Sunday morning. Beer bottles had been thrown through them.

Meadow Lark Confuses Seasons

Edward Bowlsby of Wilber Township reported seeing a meadow lark in his driveway recently. He said that this was the first time he had seen a meadow lark stay so late into the fall and winter seasons.

Iosco Jail Had 508 Inmates in 1969

Iosco County Jail had a total of 508 inmates during the past 12 months, according to a year-end report from the sheriff's department.

Of this total, 114 persons were held for felonies, 324 for misdemeanors, 31 juveniles, four mental patients, 26 lodgers and 10 persons were held for other counties.

The report indicated that there were 11 traffic deaths in Iosco County during 1969, two suicides and four drownings.

The department issued 738 summons for driving violations and there were 1,877 complaints investigated. Ten prisoners were transported to Southern Michigan Prison, Jackson.

Revenue collected by the department was $13,405, not including $6,328 in drivers licenses and $5,453 in liquor licenses.

TODAYS Meditation

Read Romans 12:14-21

Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God. (Matthew 5:9)
Men and nations are crying out for liberty and security, tranquility and peace.
We also need personal peace. I have found immense peace and joy through music. Recently, I heard a choir sing a setting of Psalm 23. I shall never forget how my soul was calmed as I heard the chorus and organ join in giving joyous utterances to this magnificent psalm of faith.

Jesus spoke of peacemakers as blessed in God's sight. We can believe He had in mind those who work for peace between nations. He had also in mind those who carry the gospel of peace to others. As the love of Christ becomes rooted in the hearts of men, they become reconciled to one another.
The path of peace is long and difficult. For centuries, man has failed miserably to achieve a world free of conflict and hate. Yet, we have faith to believe that with God all things are possible. If we recognize His presence in the affairs of men and ask His aid, He will help us take the steps which lead to peace.

PRAYER

O God, teach us to love others as You have loved us, so we may all be peacemakers. Hear our cry for peace, and help us to be better instruments in creating it. Through Christ. Amen.

Vance D. Proper Now Commander

Vance D. Proper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fay D. Proper of Tawas City, recently was promoted to navy commander in ceremonies held at the Naval War College, Newport, Rhode Island.

The new commander is attending the school of naval command and staff, one of three graduate level, 10-month resident courses at the war college. He is one of 188 specially selected, mid-career commanders and lieutenant commanders and their counterparts in the army, air force, marine corps and coast guard attending the school, which provides advance education in the science of naval warfare and related subjects in order to improve their professional competence for higher command responsibilities.

The Naval War College is the navy's senior level educational institution and one of the oldest colleges of its type in the world. Commander Proper is married to the former Betty Jean Lasky of Bed Axe. He is a 1950 graduate of Arthur Hill High School, Saginaw, and a 1955 graduate of Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo.

Ceremony Marks Flight by Wrights

Thomas S. Wojciechowski, coast guard yeoman third class, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wojciechowski and husband of the former Miss Sue E. Parsons, all of Oscoda, recently participated in ceremonies commemorating the Wright brothers first flight at Kitty Hawk, North Carolina.

Redfield Receives Air Medal

SP4 Norman H. Redfield, United States Army, 101st Airborne Division, son of Gordon Redfield, Tawas City, has been awarded the Air Medal for distinguished achievement while participating in sustained aerial flight in support of ground combat forces in the Republic of Vietnam during the period June 11 through September 1, 1969.

During this time, he actively participated in 25 aerial missions over hostile territory in support of counter-insurgency operations. During all of these missions, he displayed the highest order of air discipline and acted in accordance with the best traditions of the service.

By his determination to accomplish his mission in spite of the hazards inherent in repeated aerial flight over hostile territory, by his outstanding degree of professionalism and devotion to duty, he has brought credit upon himself, the citation stated.

Joseph E. Reinke, Retired D&M Employee, Dead

A retired foreman of the Detroit and Mackinac Railway Company, Joseph E. Reinke Sr., died Sunday, January 4, at Tawas Hospital. He was hospitalized for two days following a heart attack.

Mr. Reinke was born July 20, 1893, in Tawas City. His wife, the former Agnes Fernetto, passed away in October 1958. He is survived by eight children, Mrs. Cecile Daley and Mrs. Agnes Quillet of East Tawas, Mrs. Mary Berry of Oscoda, Mrs. Teresa Clark of Lapeer, Joseph Jr. of Tawas City, Patrick and Donald of East Tawas, John of Detroit and William of Midland; 24 grandchildren; seven great grandchildren; four sisters and three brothers, Mrs. Kate Siger of Detroit, Mrs. Harriet Collins of Tawas City, Mrs. Augusta Toska of East Tawas and Mrs. Helen Liege of Grosse Pointe Farms, Christopher and John of Detroit and William of Midland.

Four Persons Hurt on Snowmobiles

Michigan State Police from East Tawas investigated four accidents involving snow machines over the week-end as well as investigating two personal injury accidents involving automobiles.

Early Saturday morning, Helene R. Lutz, Flint was treated at Tawas Hospital for a fractured wrist. She was a passenger on a sleigh being towed behind a snow machine operated by LeRoy Lutz, 34, National City. Police said the sleigh overturned on the ice of Sand Lake.

Jeffery Engleman, six years old, Olmstead, Ohio, was treated at Tawas Hospital for a cut over his eye Saturday afternoon. He was a passenger on a snow machine being operated by Marvin Engleman, 32. Police said the machine struck a snow bank on private property in AuSable Township and the boy fell from the machine.

Scott Ames, seven years old, Flint, was treated Saturday afternoon at Tawas Hospital for a lacerated forehead. Police said his father had started his machine near Floyd Lake and the boy grabbed the handlebars. The machine went out of control and struck a tree.

Richard A. Wegner, 27, Saginaw, was treated at Tawas Hospital early Sunday morning for a cut upper lip. Police said he was operating his machine at Tawas Golf and Country Club and it hit a fence.

Two Oscoda youths were injured in an automobile crash Wednesday night in AuSable Township, one mile north of AuSable Point Road. Christopher Peterson, 15, Oscoda, driver, and Rodney Burrows, 16, Oscoda, were treated at Tawas Hospital. Police said the car ran off US-23 and slid into some trees.

Meet Thursday to Form League

The final organizational meeting will be held this Thursday in the high school library for anyone who is interested in playing in a men's basketball league. At this time, there are six teams interested in forming a league.

All players, coaches and officials should plan to attend this meeting. The rules and regulations will be finalized and a schedule of games will be drawn up.

Games are tentatively scheduled to be played at the high school gym on Sunday afternoons beginning January 11.

If more information is needed, contact Gene Gerber at 362-2381.

Game Biologists to Meet With MDHA Directors

David Arnold and three other game biologists of the Michigan Department of Natural Resources are to meet January 13 with the board of directors of Michigan Deer Hunters' Association at Oscoda.

According to Willard F. Musolf, MDHA president, the board of directors has a joint meeting with the house and senate conservation committees scheduled for late January to discuss the DNR's antler policy for 1970.

Adult Education Classes Start Jan. 19 at Hale A. Hale Area High School adult education classes will begin Monday, January 19. Classes are listed as follows:

Monday—Knitting, Bishop sewing II, earth science. Tuesday—Music theory, beginning organ (adult and children), women's basketball, English literature. Wednesday—Archery, sculpturing and American government. Thursday—Men's basketball, Bishop sewing I, wood shop. Friday—Modern social dance.

For more information, call Hale Area High School, 728-2861, or Hale Hardware, 728-2333.

A committee of the East Tawas Council is studying possible adoption of an ordinance to control operation of snowmobiles in that community. Last night (Tuesday), Whittemore Council was to discuss an ordinance similar to one enacted last January in Tawas City, which prohibits operation of snowmobiles on city streets.

Debra R. Harwood, 16, East Tawas, received minor injuries Saturday evening when the vehicle she was driving slid off Baldwin Resort Road and struck a tree.

Medical Mixture Hospitalizes Youth at Oscoda. Kenneth Milliron, 18, Oscoda, was still in a coma Tuesday at Wurtsmith Air Force Base Hospital.

Milliron was listed in critical condition December 30 after taking a combination of alcohol, aspirin and a painkiller known as propoxyphene hydrochloride.

The young man was taken to the hospital from a party by friends. Hospital officials said he had suffered a five to 10-minute loss of oxygen to the brain when he arrived at the hospital. Iosco Sheriff's Department and military police are investigating the case.

Snowmobiling Headed in Wrong Direction

Snowmobiling in Michigan is in trouble. At least, it is on a fast track headed in the wrong direction according to Col. Frederick E. Davids, director of Michigan State Police.

"In the past several weeks, 10 people have been killed in snowmobile accidents and the winter season has just begun," Davids said. "If this disproportionate fatality rate continues, this motorized sport will gain the reputation of a killer and will attract only the foolhardy and reckless," Davids stated.

Davids' reference to fatalities in the current snow season included five drowning victims who died when their snowmobiles plunged through thin ice. Another five met death in accidents with other vehicles or objects.

Comparing the experience with last season, Davids noted, "We had 573 accidents, 562 people injured and 13 snowmobile deaths during the 1968-69 winter season. So far this winter, the experience is running far ahead."

Law enforcement agencies have been lax in enforcing existing laws governing the motor powered snow buggies, according to Davids. Accident reports are sketchy and slowly processed adding to the lack of information surrounding the problem. And so far as the laws are concerned, Davids believes they are inadequate and should be beefed up.

Striking closer to home, Davids hit at parental responsibility as a contributing cause of some snowmobile abuse. "When a parent will allow a child to operate this sort of machine, unattended and often unskilled, the consequences are tragically predictable," Davids noted.

Mature judgment, responsible operation and a knowledge of the rules can help make snowmobiling a safer sport according to the director. As a guide to registration and use, Davids said a copy of the Michigan Department of State's snowmobile pamphlet is available upon request at each state police post throughout the state.

Greenlee-Smith Marriage Vows Exchanged at IHM Church

Floral arrangements in the Christmas motif decorated the altar of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, Tawas City, for the marriage Saturday, January 3, of Valerie Mae Smith and James Richard Greenlee.

The Rev. Fr. Raymond Pilarski performed the 6:00 p. m. double ring ceremony. Organist was Mrs. Lucille Michaels and vocalist was Mrs. Thomas Cadorette. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the home of the bridegroom for guests from the Tawas, Detroit, Grand Rapids, Bay City, Big Rapids, Ludington, Dearborn and West Virginia.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Abston of Oscoda. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Mildred Greenlee of Tawas City.

Escorted to the altar by her brother, Greg E. Smith of East Tawas, the bride chose a gown of peau de soie with georgette overlay, highlighted with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. Her chapel length train was enhanced with appliques of Venetian lace. A holly headpiece secured her illusion veil. She carried a nosegay of chrysanthemums and roses with red and green velvet streamers.

Wearing a red velvet gown and carrying a nosegay of white roses with green trim was Miss Mary Michaels, maid of honor. Misses Jo Ella Pintkowski and Katherine Greenlee, sister of the bridegroom, bridesmaids, wore green velvet gowns and carried nosegays of red roses and white chrysanthemums.

Joseph P. Malinoski of Grand Rapids was best man with Paul J. Ochmanek of Dearborn and Daniel Preston of Sparta, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, groomsmen. Ushers were Michael and Joseph Greenlee, brothers of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Abston chose a kelly green ensemble with matching accessories and a white corsage. Mrs. Greenlee selected a turquoise dress with a matching headpiece and a yellow and white corsage.

The newlyweds will reside at 409 South Warren, Big Rapids, where Mr. Greenlee attends Ferris State College.

A prenuptial shower was given by the Misses Pintkowski, Greenlee, Michaels and Dawn Wainwright.

Iosco Chapter, OES, Held Regular Meeting

Iosco Chapter No. 71, OES, held its regular meeting Friday evening, January 2, at the Masonic Temple.

Mrs. Carl Bygden, worthy matron, introduced Miss Ruby Evans, past grand Martha; Mrs. William Lyon, past grand Esther, and Mrs. Joseph Hennigar, AIA secretary. During the business meeting, plans were made for several projects to be carried out during the year.

The worthy matron announced that the following members would serve on the board of the W. Mark Sexson Assembly No. 86, Rainbow for Girls: Mr. and Mrs. Clare Herriman, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lichtfusz, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Halstead, Mrs. Bygden, Mrs. Mathew Kienholz, Mrs. Floyd SchAAF, John Alexander and Mrs. Justus Ashmore.

Mrs. Ashmore, mother advisor of the assembly, announced that the assembly would hold installation January 24, 8:00 p. m. The public is invited to attend.

Refreshments were served by the committee, Mr. and Mrs. Lichtfusz and Mrs. Frederick Rhode.

Order of the Arrow Held Installation of Officers at E. Tawas

The Order of the Arrow, national honor camping program of the Boy Scouts of America, held its annual banquet December 30 at the East Tawas Community Building. This was the Tittabawasink Lodge of the Paul Bunyan Council.

Master of ceremonies of the event was Peter Costis, Midland, past lodge chief. He and Donald Thurber, the new lodge chief, gave a joint report with pictures on the National Order of the Arrow convocation held at Bloomington, Indiana, last August.

Guest speaker of the evening was Joseph G. Groszek, scout executive of the Seenic Trails Council, Traverse City. Paul D. Price, district scout executive and professional advisor to the Order of Arrow, introduced Groszek.

Groszek reminded the boys and adults that boys join scouting because of the adventure that lies ahead in camping and hiking and the fun one can have in the outdoors. He challenged the boys not to be satisfied with a good job of getting troops and boys in camp, but to get as close to 100 percent of total participation as possible in summer camp program.

Costs recognized the committee for the arrangements and then presented the chief's distinguished service awards to three people whom he felt best exemplified the true slogan of "In Brotherhood We Serve." They were Thurber, Price and Lee Welch, past secretary of the lodge.

Installation of the new officers was held and conducted by H. Jack Beamish, lay advisor to the lodge and holder of the national distinguished service award. The traditional passing of the chief's headress and his badge of office was held as Costs relinquished his symbols of office to Thurber.

Installed besides Thurber were William Coleman of East Tawas, vice chief; Mark Sandberg, secretary; David Kuhn, vice chief. Absent were Thomas Diment, vice chief from Coleman, and Karl Berge, treasurer.

MAKING PLANS for a winter vacation trip are Mr. and Mrs. Archie Ruckle, who have retired.—Tawas Herald Photo.

Ruckles Retired At Start of New Year

Start of a new year signified retirement for a Tawas City couple. Archie Ruckle retired effective December 31 as manager of the Tawas City branch of Alpena Candy and Cigar Company. His wife, Louise, retired January 2 as a case worker for Iosco County Department of Social Services.

Ruckle has managed the Alpena firm's branch here since April 1936, when it opened in the former Sawyer Building on Mathews Street. Mrs. Ruckle was a school teacher for 13½ years, temporarily retired while raising two sons and then spent 16½ years with the social services department.

For several years, Alpena Candy was a two-man business with Ruckle serving as manager-salesman. Others employed during those early years were Harold Cole, Clyde Evril and "Pete" Stone, all of whom are deceased.

The firm moved to its present location in the late 1930s and its business has expanded to a point where it now occupies the entire lower floor of the Case Building, which it purchased last year.

Some of the later-day salesmen working with the firm have been Philip Ross, Louis Pfeiffer and Robert Richter. The latter two are still with the firm and Pfeiffer is the new manager.

"In the old days, we always had a gang of kids around to help carry merchandise in and out of the building, although they were not regular employees," recalled Ruckle. Today, Alpena Candy employs five full time employees and part time seasonal help. Included in the former are Mrs. Leona Long, John Klenow, Ronald Soules, besides Richter and Pfeiffer.

"The job has meant a lot of work and a lot of responsibility over the years," said Ruckle. "At one time, we were working from 7:00 a. m. until 11:00 p. m. The improvement in county roads has meant a great deal to us. I can recall when our truck used to become mired in the road during a spring thaw between Tawas and Hale."

Ruckle was born at Grand Forks, British Columbia, Canada, and came to Whittemore when eight years old to live with his aunt and uncle. When it came time to attend high school, he moved to Tawas City where he attended school and worked part time for Friedman's and the Iosco Hotel.

He later worked in mercantile stores at Port Huron, West Branch, Lincoln, Whittemore and Tawas City.

Mrs. Ruckle, a native of Caro, came to Tawas City to teach English and Latin. Prior to coming here, she taught at Custer near Ludington. She married Mr. Ruckle while a member of the Tawas City High School faculty. Since working in social services, she has served under five different directors including Mrs. Irene Hubbard, Louis Braddock, Charles Anson, Mrs. Ethel Coppler and Edward Burgenson.

As a case worker, she determined eligibility for those receiving cash grants in such categories as old age assistance, aid to the blind, aid to the disabled and aid to dependent children. In recent years, more attention has been given to family service.

Their two sons, both of whom are married, are James, who has a master degree in divinity, is an ordained minister and is teaching special education at Los Angeles, California, and William, who is now working on his master degree at Central Michigan University.

The Ruckles plan to travel this winter, although they have not decided as yet if they will head for California or vacation in Florida.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Sheldon of East Tawas announce the engagement of their daughter, Janet Ruth, to Walter S. Clements, son of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Clements of Tawas City. Both attend Central Michigan University.

Wedding plans are indefinite.

Cederberg's Aide to Resume Visits

The regular visits of Cong. Elford A. Cederberg's district liaison man will be resumed this month. Congressman Cederberg's staff man will be in the Iosco County Building in Tawas City Wednesday, January 14, from 2:00-3:00 p. m.

County residents who wish to bring their problems or opinions to the attention of the congressman can visit with Mr. Nakkula at the above time. The congressman suggests that any papers pertinent to problems with the federal government be brought to the courthouse so that cases can be properly identified.

who has jurisdiction. James Hearl appeared before the council and complete cooperation of the city was given.

Building applications approved during the past three weeks included John Hosbach, 218 Third Avenue, 20 by 24-foot garage and 12 by 16-foot annex, $2,000; W. H. Groff, 119 Mathews Street, new roof, $550.

Funeral January 8 for Mrs. Gaul

Graveside services for Mrs. Herman Gaul of Detroit, the former Martha Look, will be conducted at Emanuel Lutheran Cemetery, Tawas City, Thursday, January 8, 1:00 p. m.

Plans

studied. The first called for construction of an addition with a gravity trickling filter with recirculation for secondary treatment, with chemical precipitation in the sedimentation tank for phosphate removal. Total cost would be $250,000.

The second plan calls for chemicals for phosphate removal to be added to the present plant effluent and the effluent pumped to an aerated lagoon. The lagoon discharge would be returned to the Tawas River after a 32-day detention time. Preliminary estimated cost, not including land, is $175,000.

The final plan considered the feasibility of conveying the waste from Tawas City to the plant of East Tawas for treatment. Spicer, who is also engineer for East Tawas, said in his report that since secondary treatment and phosphate removal is now required, it would be necessary for East Tawas to add these facilities to its plant in the very near future. If the waste of the two cities is combined, the East Tawas plant would have to be expanded to serve an additional 4,250 persons when secondary treatment is added.

Tawas City's share of the capital improvements at the East Tawas plant, based on current costs, would amount to a minimum of $40 per design capita or $170,000, stated the engineering report. The cost of revamping pumping stations and a new force main from Tawas City to East Tawas plant was conservatively estimated at $105,000. The resulting capital cost of combining the systems is $275,000.

The engineer recommended that the second plan, using aerated lagoons, be constructed as the secondary treatment and phosphate removal facility for Tawas City. The comparable cost of providing adequate treatment under the lagoon plan is $166,250, including an estimated $11,250 for land. The report stated that the capital cost alone ruled out combined treatment in the East Tawas plant.

In order to implement such a project, seven steps would be required by the city council upon approval of the report by the Michigan Department of Health.

These steps would include council acceptance of the engineering report, adoption of the project by council resolution, obtain county backing for the project through the board of supervisors, file application with the water resources commission by September 15, 1970.

The next three steps by the council would include authorization to prepare construction plans, obtain necessary legal and financial assistance and award construction contracts by October 1, 1971.

FIRST snowmobile meet of the winter was held last Saturday by the Sand Lake Snow Geers. These pictures were snapped during the club's "poker" meet. Participants drove their machines to different stops along a winding trail near the lake. A playing card was received at each stop and the driver with best "hand" at the end of the 45-minute run was declared the winner.—Tawas Herald Photos.

THE ANNUAL run of cisco during the Christmas holiday saw Loon Lake jammed with fishermen. These fish, similar in appearance to a white fish, come out of deep water of Loon Lake during the last week of December each year and spawn in the shallows. Such fishing requires considerable patient waiting and fishermen in the top photo are laying flat on the ice in order to get a good look at the spawning beds.—Tawas Herald Photos.

Drug Problem Does Exist in Iosco County

By DONALD J. WAGNER
 Oscoda Area High School Principal

Wake up, northland people! We do have a drug problem in our area! It is not a great one yet, but let's not kid ourselves that "drug abuse" is only in the big cities and that we are isolated. As the cities become saturated with drugs and drug pushers, they look for greener pastures for their illicit sales and tremendous profits.

Because drug abuse is such a relatively new problem, most of us, who are over 25 years old, are ignorant as to how and which drugs are being misused. Since becoming concerned, I have studied and read everything that I could regarding drugs and narcotics. I am still far from being an authority but each of us must do this in order to intelligently face the problem.

To help you become better informed, our local news media have agreed to present articles by area educators, clergy, law enforcement agencies and medical people. This is the first of these articles. We welcome your comments and questions.

An educated, concerned, alert, community working together can help to alleviate any problem.

Tawas Masons Held Joint Installation

Joint installation of officers for Tawas City Lodge and Baldwin Lodge, F&M, was held December 23 at Tawas Masonic Temple.

Fifty guests attended the event. Vocal selections were presented by Mrs. William Lyons, accompanied by Mrs. Alden Phelps.

Installing officers were Roy Westfall, grand master, Los Angeles, California; Kenneth Blake, East Tawas, grand chaplain; William Lennox, Lincoln, grand secretary; Clare Herriman, Tawas City, grand marshal.

Officers installed were as follows:

Baldwin Lodge: Peter A. Lichtfusz, master; Francis Halstead, senior warden; Edward Poppe, junior warden; Fred Breest, treasurer; D. Arthur Evans, secretary; Robert C. Marx, chaplain; John Shaver, senior deacon; Edward Crocker, junior deacon; Justus Ashmore, steward; Joseph T. Branham, steward; Earl J. Weaver Jr., marshal; Donald Pelton, tiler.

Social Security Continues to Improve Service to Public

In a continuing effort to improve its service to the public, the Bay City office of the Social Security Administration has just introduced "microfiche." John J. Carr, district manager of the Bay City office, explained that the microfiche (micro, Greek, meaning small; fiche, French, meaning card) is a microfilm card approximately four by six inches which contains information pertaining to approximately 600 social security accounts. The records of all social security beneficiaries in Michigan can be stored in a box four by six by 10 inches. By contrast, the records formerly kept by the Bay City office for Bay, Arenac, Gladwin, Iosco, Roscommon, Ogemaw and Oscoda Counties filled 20 file drawers.

In addition to the savings in storage area, Mr. Carr explained that the new system will contain more current information which his staff can use to provide better service to social security beneficiaries who have questions on problems regarding their benefits. "Some of this information was formerly available only through correspondence with other offices and this could result in long delays in providing service to the public, Mr. Carr stated, "which is what we want to avoid."

The Social Security Administration is in the process of converting to the new system throughout the United States. Coupled with the new records system will be expanded use of highspeed teletype equipment to process notices of death, change of address or work.

Mr. Carr emphasized that the new information is strictly confidential, as is all social security information concerning beneficiaries and necessary precautions will be taken to insure their safe-keeping.

Special Short Course Scheduled

Sheep raisers and others interested in sheep will have an opportunity to spend a little longer time studying the latest developments in their industry, by attending a special short course at the extension conference room in the Crawford Building, West Branch. The course will meet from 7:30 to 10:00 p. m. on five consecutive Wednesday evenings beginning January 7.

Graydon Blank, extension sheep specialist at Michigan State University who is heading up the course, says that the 12 hours of instruction which the course provided will allow time to cover many more of the new developments in sheep management than the usual two-hour meeting or tour. Mr. Blank will be assisted by four specialists from the animal husbandry department and veterinary college staff at Michigan State University.

A nominal charge will be made to cover cost of a special reference notebook and refreshments. Further details are available at the Iosco County Cooperative Extension office.

No Immunization Clinic in January

There will be no immunization clinic at the District Health Department No. 2 office in January due to the Rubella (three-day measles) program going on in the schools. The next clinic will be Tuesday, February 3, from 1:30 to 3:30 p. m.

Anyone interested in expectant parents classes may call 362-2701, District Health Department No. 2 office.

Tuberculin skin testing for health cards will be given every Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of each week. Please call to be sure the nurse is available.

1969 - A Year-End Review of Happenings in Iosco County

January 1, 1969—Alvin (Jack) Reed, 47, demanded examination Thursday morning when arraigned in justice court on an open charge of murder. A warrant had been issued the previous week charging Reed with attempted murder, but this was changed upon the death of Mrs. Norma Williamson at Saginaw. He is charged with fatally wounding Mrs. Williamson during a shooting spree at Whittemore on December 17. . . A raging blizzard, first of the season and the worst storm since January 1967, struck the northern half of Michigan's Lower Peninsula. . . Gary K. Mielock, a 1960 graduate of Whittemore-Preseott Area High School, was admitted to the State Bar of Michigan during the ceremony held December 24 at the Iosco County Building.

January 8—Fred B. Lomas, East Tawas, was named Friday as the first chairman of Iosco County's new nine-man board of supervisors. . . A combination of snow and high wind caused Grabow Distributing warehouse to collapse at National City. . . Frank Ahonen took over his new position as Tawas City alderman, succeeding the late Clyde Evrill. . . The Tawas had a banner building year in 1968. . . Kenneth Myles, Iosco County's new prosecuting attorney, took over office effective January 1. . . As one of its first actions Friday, the new Iosco Board of Supervisors disapproved selection of Probate Judge William McCready as county magistrate. His name had been submitted by District Judge J. Richard Ernst.

January 15—Tawas Area High School Band has the distinction of being one of three high school bands in the state which will perform January 18 at the Midwestern Music Conference at Ann Arbor. . . Harry Krueger, chairman of the Iosco Soil Conservation District, states that immediate steps should be taken to secure an early delivery of surplus corn to feed the deer herd as a means of preventing starvation. . . Roy Bergeron, manager of the secretary of state's branch office in Tawas City, reports that there are 519 snowmobiles registered in the county.

January 22—Tawas Hospital announced the completion of plans for an $800,000 expansion to the hospital. . . New microfilming equipment has been installed in the county register of deeds office. . . REMARKABLE MAN OF THE WEST

by Donald Cammack

The term "remarkable" isn't used lightly in the little town of Buffalo, South Dakota. However, Buffalo has a man who by any measure, even the measure of the wide open spaces, must be termed "remarkable".

He is Carl M. Cornell, a legend in his own time. Born in Michigan in 1881, he came west with his parents in 1889, settling on the wide prairies of North Dakota. His career as a cowboy started in the Teddy Roosevelt country around Medora and Dickinson, North Dakota about the turn of the century. Feeling the call of adventure, Cornell moved south to new country at Haley, N. Dak., a typical frontier town, in about 1900. Here he took a job building sod houses for the new homesteaders moving into the newly opened west. He broke broncs as a sideline, receiving a few dollars a head from the "honyocks" who needed horses in their new life on the prairies. In 1902, the cowboy took a contract carrying the U. S. Mail by team and wagon over a route from Haley, N. Dak. to Harding, S. Dak., a distance of 65 lonely miles with only widely scattered ranches and homesteads along the way. This kept him busy until 1905, when he married and took a homestead near the present site of the town of Buffalo. Here he raised his family.

Harding County, S. Dak. was organized in 1909 and Buffalo became the county seat. Cornell became an official of the county, serving as deputy assessor until 1913 when he became deputy auditor. In 1914-15 he served as county treasurer, and in 1918 he took a contract to build one of the county's first real roads, putting to use his knowledge of the country and his horses. From 1919 to 1933 he served as county highway superintendent. In 1925 he had been licensed as a surveyor, and he works at this profession yet, although supposedly retired. In this capacity he has served the area in encouraging irrigation to ease a chronic feed shortage in the range area.

A spell in the hospital brought the doctor's verdict that Carl must "take it easy".

"Out to pasture?" Not Carl. As he tried to follow the doctor's orders, thoughts of the past began to fill his mind. He began to set them down in verse, something he had never tried seriously before.

Carl Cornell, 83 years of age, started on a new phase of his remarkable career. He set out to publish a book of poetry, covering the span of his life, his memories and impressions, his aspirations and his disappointments and heartbreaks.

Last winter the book was published . . . 132 pages of verse and history covering the birth and development of the prairie west, and the story of its people. His poetry bears the homespun philosophy of a James Whitcomb Riley, the homey humor of an Edgar Guest.

"The Old Homestead Shack"

*Oh what multiple memories come drifting back,
As I gaze at the wreck of the homestead
shack
And think of the toil as we built it there;
As we laid each sod with tender care.
Doors and windows were weather tight
And faced to welcome the bright sunlight.
Bright were our hopes, as the summer
sun,
And, oh, what joy when we had it done.
We plastered the walls with native clay,
And draped the windows with curtains
gay.
For those days 'twas a palace for wife
and me,
Where we dreamed what our future might prove to be.*

*Time brought its changes; we moved away,
And the old sod shack is a wreck today.
No more the flowers by the window stand,
For the dooryard now is pasture land.
And the walls and the roof lay scattered round,
And cattle tramp on the hallowed ground.
The garden, now, is a plot of weeds,
Where we planted and watched the growing seeds.
Here lays the horseshoe we nailed o'er
the door
To bring us good luck forever more.*

*Here's the kiddie's gun of a boy, once small,
Who marched away at his country's call.
Here's the stick-horse—once the joy and pride—
Of one who later had broncs to ride.
Here's the wreck of a dolly, carved so crude,
Whose owner now mothers a goodly brood.
Here a baby's shoe by the doorstep lies,
That brings the tears to these foolish eyes.
The tears we shed should be tears of joy,
For fate has spared us each girl and boy
To grow to man and womanhood,
With their children's children all sweet and good.
We thrill with pride and the heart's warm glow,
As we watch their offspring grow and grow.
And ever the thought runs through the mind,
That fate has, to us, been truly kind.*

Walnuts are more than just the decoration on top of a frosted cake. They add so much fine flavor and appealing texture to all kinds of desserts. They're wonderful topping for sundaes at any time of the year. Sometime try adding toasted chopped walnuts to a combination fruit salad or molded gelatin salad. For an elegant vegetable dish try adding Savory Walnut Crunch to your vegetables. A fruit bowl of apples, pears and grapes served with whole California walnuts to be cracked make a light dessert or evening snack as well as a pretty table centerpiece.

Over 90% of the walnuts grown in the United States come from California. Whenever walnuts are added to recipes, you can tell the difference. Viva La Difference!

WALNUTS MAKE THE DIFF

OPEN FACE APPLE DUMPLINGS

1 cup orange juice
1 tablespoon lemon juice
½ cup water
1 cup sugar
Few grains salt
2 tablespoons margarine

6 medium-size cooking apples
Sweetmeat Filling
Walnut-Cheese Dumpling Shells
California walnut halves
Whipped cream

Measure orange and lemon juices, water, sugar, salt and margarine into a medium size skillet; stir to blend. Bring to a boil and simmer five minutes. Meanwhile, core apples not quite through, leaving just enough apple at bottom to hold in filling. Peel, then stuff each apple with Sweetmeat Filling. Place apples in hot syrup. Cover and simmer, basting frequently, just until tender about 15 to 20 minutes; be careful not to overcook. Turn apples carefully, upside-down, using wide spatula the last five minutes to completely cook top, if necessary. Lift apples from syrup, drain a minute then set upright in Walnut Cheese Dumpling Shells. Boil syrup remaining in pan rapidly a few minutes longer to thicken slightly. Spoon syrup over apples in shells, or, cool and serve separately as a sauce. Top each apple with a walnut half. Serve warm or cold, plain or topped with whipped cream, softened cream cheese or vanilla ice cream. Makes 6 servings.

SWEETMEAT FILLING: Mix together ¼ cup each finely chopped California walnuts and chopped raisins, two tablespoons chopped candied fruit and ¼ teaspoon grated orange rind.

WALNUT CHEESE DUMPLING SHELLS

1 cup sifted flour
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup margarine
¼ cup grated cheddar cheese

¼ cup finely chopped California walnuts
3 tablespoons cold milk or water

Measure flour and salt into a bowl; cut in margarine. Add cheese and walnuts. Add milk or water, mixing until dough holds together. Round up into a ball, turn out on floured board; divide into six equal-size pieces. Roll each piece to a 5-inch circle. Fit over backs of very lightly greased 3x1½-inch muffin pans. Prick surface of dough. Bake at 450° for 10-12 minutes or until crisp and lightly browned. Remove to wire racks to cool.

Made with the high-price spread?

No; made with Blue Bonnet Margarine.

Make any recipe with Blue Bonnet, and you make it great. Because Blue Bonnet has the same great taste as the high-price spread. But Blue Bonnet fries better. Browns faster. And when you spread it on bread, Blue Bonnet's closer to the high-price spread than any margarine. It releases its flavor almost instantly—just like the high-price spread.

Everything's better with Blue Bonnet on it (or in it).

Mocha Walnut Torte

3 egg whites
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
25 saltine crackers
(unsalted tops) finely rolled or prepared in Blender
1 cup finely chopped California walnuts
1 tablespoon instant coffee
1 pint heavy cream
2 tablespoons confectioners'
sugar
2 tablespoons cocoa
Chocolate morsels for

Beat egg whites until foamy. Gradually beat in sugar, 2 tablespoons at a time, beating well after each addition. Add vanilla. Beat until soft peaks form. Combine saltine cracker crumbs, walnuts and coffee. Gently fold into meringue mixture. Spoon into a lightly greased and floured 9-inch pie plate. Pull up mixture with back of spoon to form peaks around edge of plate. Spread center evenly. Bake in a pre-heated oven at 350° for 30 minutes. Cool thoroughly on rack. Whip cream until stiff. Reserve ½ cup. Fold confectioners' sugar and cocoa into remainder. Mound in center of shell. Garnish with reserved cream and chocolate morsels. To serve, cut with a sharp knife into 8 servings. Makes 8 (3½-inch) wedges.

Lemon Nut Bread

¾ cup sugar
3 tablespoons soft margarine
2 eggs
2 cups flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup milk
1 cup finely chopped California walnuts
3 tablespoons grated lemon
rind

Cream sugar, margarine and eggs until light. Spoon flour into dry measuring cup. Level off and pour measured flour onto waxed paper. Add baking powder and salt to flour and stir to blend. Add blended dry ingredients to creamed mixture alternately with milk. Mix well. Stir in walnuts and grated lemon rind. Spread in well-greased 9x5x3-inch loaf pan. Let stand for 20 minutes.

Bake at 350° for 55-60 minutes. Remove from pan immediately and cool on rack. Makes 1 loaf.

Molded Fruit Salad

1 package lemon gelatin
1 cup hot water
½ cup creamy cottage
cheese
1 cup heavy cream,
whipped

½ cup coarsely chopped
California walnuts
½ cup maraschino cherries
1 cup crushed pineapple,
well drained

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Chill until partially set. Fold in cottage cheese, whipped cream, walnuts, cherries and pineapple. Pour into a 1 quart refrigerator tray. Chill until firm. Cut in squares to serve. Serves 8.

Chocolate Frappe Pie

NUT MERINGUE SHELL

1 egg white
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ cup sugar
1½ cups California walnuts
(finely chopped or grated in Blender)

Combine egg white and salt and beat till stiff, but not dry. Beat in sugar till stiff, glossy peaks form. Add walnuts and blend well. Press on bottom and sides (not rim) of well greased 9-inch pie pan. Prick well with fork. Bake at 400° for 12 minutes. Chill.

CHOCOLATE FRAPPE FILLING

¼ cup light corn syrup
1 tablespoon water
1 6 ounce package semi-
sweet chocolate morsels
1 tablespoon vanilla
1½ cups heavy cream
¾ cup sweetened condensed milk
Finely chopped California
walnuts

Combine corn syrup and water and bring just to boil over moderate heat, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Add morsels and vanilla and stir in till blended and smooth. Cool. Combine heavy cream, the chocolate mixture and condensed milk in large mixing bowl. Chill thoroughly. Beat till thick and soft peaks form. Pour into prepared shell. Sprinkle finely chopped walnuts over top. Freeze till firm, then wrap in moisture, vapor-proof paper and store in freezer.

Cookie Bon Bons

1 6-ounce package semi-
sweet chocolate morsels
1 cup margarine
½ teaspoon vanilla
1 cup sugar
1¾ cups sifted flour
¾ teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup finely chopped
California walnuts

Melt over hot (not boiling) water the chocolate morsels. Remove from water. Combine margarine and vanilla and beat till creamy. Gradually beat in sugar. Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Blend into mixture. Stir in melted morsels and finely chopped walnuts. Form into 1-inch balls; roll in granulated sugar, sifted confectioners' sugar or ground nuts. Pace on ungreased cookie sheets. Bake at 375° for 10 minutes. Makes 5½ dozen.

Savory Walnut Crumbs for Vegetables

¼ cup margarine
½ cup coarsely chopped
California walnuts
1 cup soft bread crumbs
¼ teaspoon dried dill, rosemary, oregano, or other herb

Melt margarine. Add walnuts and toast lightly a few minutes. Toss with bread crumbs and herbs. Makes enough for six servings. Sprinkle crumbs on top of hot, well drained, cooked vegetables. Or use to top tomato halves. Bake in 350° oven for 20 minutes.

GRASSROOTS GLEANINGS

by Bill Stokes

"Experience is the name everyone gives to his mistakes," says The Sibley (Iowa) Gazette.

The Belvidere (Ill.) Daily Republican says, "The youth who liked to watch the girls go by eventually becomes the man who hates to see his wife go buy."

"If we had our lives to live over, we might make some mistakes sooner," comments the Decorah (Iowa) Public Opinion.

The unhappiest woman in the world, according to The Mason County Democrat of Havana, Ill., is the one with a live secret and a dead telephone.

The Wayne County Press of Fairfield, Ill., says, "Nothing you put into a banana split is as fattening as a spoon."

The Traer Star-Clipper of Traer, Iowa, advises, "Conscience is the inner voice that warns us someone is looking."

The one fellow who always gets his request fulfilled is the fellow who asks for trouble, says the Lancaster Farming of Lititz, Pa.

The Marshall (Minn.) Messenger reports that when a Hindu suitor is accepted by a girl's father the suitor always kisses the roof of her home to show his respect.

Fortunately the custom is not popular in America where fathers are forever raising the roof over new suitors.

The Sunday Review Journal of New Ulm, Minn. says, "Some people have no trouble at all separating the men from the boys. These people are called women."

"About the only thing you can do on a shoestring these days is trip," says The Eclipse-News-Review of Parkersburg, Iowa.

The Review of Plymouth, Wis. tells about the old farmer who was asked about the woman he married through a correspondence club. He replied, "I didn't do as well as I had expected but she didn't either."

"By the time a man finds greener pastures, he's too old to climb over the fence," says The Tell City (Ind.) Thursday News.

Once we talked out our problems over coffee and cigarettes, says the Sturgis (S.D.) Tribune, and now they are the problems.

The Sisseton (S.D.) Courier comments: "Grapevine gossip travels faster when the grapes are sour."

It is not always the coldest girl who gets the mink coat, observes The West Bend (Wis.) News.
