Budget Exceeded, but TC Has Balance

Operation of the City of Tawas during fiscal 1970-71 slightly exceeded the budget as established a year ago, but the city's general and street funds still had a balance at the close of business on March 10.

According to a report given to the council Monday night by Mrs. Mary M. Byrd, city treasurer, the city had actual expenditures of $170,759 during the fiscal year, as compared to total actual receipts of $162,678.

Graham Said Competent to Stand Trial

A report from the Center for Forensic Psychiatry, Ann Arbor, expressed the opinion to Isoco Circuit Court that Walter W. Graham was competent to stand trial.

Graham is charged with the Christmas Eve kidnaping and armed robbery of a Wurtsmith Air Force Base officer and his family.

The report stated that Graham was capable of understanding the nature of the proceedings against him, that he was aware of his condition as a defendant and that he was capable of assisting in his defense.

Discuss Middle School

Permanent Construction Favored

Persons attending Monday night's special informational meeting favored permanent construction for classrooms rather than temporary or relocatable rooms. This was the same opinion held by members of Tawas Area Board of Education, which called the meeting.

Held at East Tawas Elementary Unit with about 75 interested residents in attendance, Robert W. Elliott, board president, called for a show of hands concerning permanent vs. temporary—the count in favor of permanent was nearly unanimous.

Elliott promised, also, that the board would seriously consider construction of needed classrooms for the fifth grade, rather than to transfer those classes to the high school building, which was originally considered.

Development of a new middle school concept has been in the talking stage for about two years, according to Supt. Reynold Mick, who presented a fact sheet to those attending and discussed the expansion program being considered by the board of education.

Before discussion ended, however, Elliott emphasized that no action would be taken by the board on the proposed middle school until negotiations are completed with teachers for the 1971-72 school year. This, he said, was necessary in order to determine the amount of operational millage needed. The district's 4½ mills of special operational tax expired with the last tax statement and a new proposition is to be placed before voters in the near future.

With existing valuation and an estimated expenditure of $250,000, plus six percent interest, the proposed construction could be paid off in 15 years with an average yearly levy of .6 (six-tenths) of one mill. This would amount to a total of nine mills at the end of the 15 years.

The new construction would mean an added operational cost of about $30,000 annually.

Development of a middle school by conversion of the Tawas City Elementary Unit for this purpose has a number of advantages, said Mick. The one disadvantage of transporting band pupils to the high school would be outweighed by the fact that the middle school could be centered on needs of pupils in grades six, seven and eight; that it would eliminate any possibility of these grades taking "second place."

In addition, all equipment in the school would be for needs of this group, pupils would have their age groups to pattern action and the resource center (library and audio visual) would reflect needs of this group.

Some parents attending objected to the present plan of utilizing four classrooms at the high school for fifth grade students, stating that these pupils, too, could be influenced by older children.

Other grades presently at the elementary unit would be shifted to the East Tawas Elementary Unit and into classrooms rented from Zion Lutheran School and Immaculate Heart of Mary School.

One of the principal reasons for the proposed middle school is to relieve overcrowding at the high school building. Built in 1957 for 625 pupils, with additions to the junior high wing and shop area, the school has a total capacity of 925 students.

Present enrollment in the building includes 677 in the high school and 383 in junior high for a total enrollment of 1,062 students, or 137 students in excess of capacity.

Enrollment in Tawas Area Schools has changed drastically during the past 10 years. During the early 1960s, classrooms were added to handle expanding lower elementary grades. These pupils are now moving up to junior and senior high school and enrollment in the lower grades has decreased.

Projected enrollment in the high school building next year is estimated at 1,062 students, 20 more than the current year, with 699 in grades nine through 12 and 383 in grades seven through eight.

Increasing enrollment is seen in the high school during the next five years with a projected enrollment of 751 in grades nine through 12 by 1975-76. Enrollment in junior high school is expected to fluctuate considerably as smaller elementary grades move up, but an enrollment of 376 is still expected by 1974-75.

Present overcrowding in the high school is being handled by having 15 eight o'clock classes, saving approximately three rooms and an estimated 90 pupils. Team teaching in American History, United States Government, world history and geography has also meant a saving in classrooms, but it has been recommended that team teaching be discontinued because of the difficulty in segregating large classes into smaller groups for individual study.

In addition, one additional type A classroom is needed, while classes are too large in physical science and biology for good laboratory classes.

Cemetery Bd. Gives Annual Report to City

In its annual report to the city council Monday night, the Tawas City Cemetery Board revealed that receipts for graves amounted to $1,360 during 1970-71.

Total burials during the year amounted to 29 and 19 graves were sold. The perpetual care fund amounted to $13,793 and interest on this money amounted to $509.

An addition to the east section was developed which provides 24 graves.

The board is now a member of the Michigan Association of Municipal Cemeteries, which has a membership of more than 130 cities, townships and villages.

Recent legislation requires the name of all cemeteries to appear near the entrance. An attractive sign, combined with floral display, has been designed and will be installed as soon as weather conditions permit.

During the year, the board adopted the name of Memory Gardens for the cemetery.

County Wide Chamber Set for Discussion

A meeting to discuss the feasibility of organizing a county chamber of commerce is to be held Thursday, March 18, 7:30 p. m., at the Tawas Chamber of Commerce office on US-23, Tawas City. Any interested persons are invited to attend.

The above meeting has been arranged by the Isoco County Board of Commissioners, which studied the possibility of such an organization.

County Commissioners 'Fire' Park Planning Consultant

Isoco's "park pot" continued to boil last Wednesday as the Isoco Board of Commissioners directed that the engineering consultant for park planning not be rehired.

In a five to two roll call vote, with one member abstaining, the county commission directed that William Krause's contract as planner for the park commission not be renewed and ordered that he not be hired for any part-time work. Krause was directed to return all plans and papers in his possession to the county park commission within 30 days.

This action followed nearly a day of discussion at a special meeting of the county commission called by Chairman Carlton Merschel.

Krause had recommended that the county proceed with phase two of the building program at AuSable River Park, but the county commission ruled that this phase of the program should be held for future development. Phase one of the park project, costing $160,000 on a 90-10 agreement with the state, includes planning, construction of a boat ramp and lights. The state's share of this program is $144,000 and the county's share is $16,000.

It was the general consensus of the board that action on the second phase of this program recommended by Krause be held in abeyance because of possible costly upkeep of the park. Included in the second phase was construction of a building complex and grounds development.

The first phase of the project will not be completed until the end of the year. Commissioners said that, if the boat ramps bring in enough money to finance upkeep of the park, authority would be given to proceed with the second phase, if funds are still available.

They did not want to burden the county general fund if maintenance funds were not available and the park was not self-supporting.

In answer to a question posed by George Blust, commissioner from Whittemore, Chairman Merschel said that halting the second phase would have no effect on other parks being considered for development.

Voting in favor of not renewing Krause's contract were Jack Allen, Merschel, L. S. Little, Donald LeCureaux and William Weryley. Voting "no" were Blust and Fred B. Lomas. Robert Foster, who serves as park commission chairman, abstained from voting. Clement Stephan, the ninth commissioner, was attending a meeting of the regional library board at the time of the vote.

In addition to this action, the board of commissioners adopted a resolution which calls for all revenues from Old Orchard Park, in excess of operating expenses, to be used for capital improvements at that park until further notice.

The commission instructed the parks and recreation commission to investigate methods of financing improvements at Old Orchard Park and report back its recommendations, giving the cost and proposed method of financing.

Following discussion with Consumers Power Company, which owns Old Orchard Park and leases it to the county, the board of commissioners agreed to make needed sanitary improvements at that facility.

It has been recommended that sanitary facilities be constructed for 100 campsites, electrical service for 200 campsites and water lines for 100 campsites, along with construction of a dumping station.

Continue Investigation

Farmers and Merchants Declared 'Solvent - Safe'

Emphasizing that Farmers and Merchants State Bank of Hale is in a "solvent and safe condition," Richard Parkinson, vice president and cashier, said Monday that investigation was continuing into a shortage of funds through a manipulation of checks by a yet unnamed customer.

In a meeting Monday morning with members of the bank's board of directors, Parkinson and other bank officers said that they were investigating the possibility of a full recovery of the shortage.

"There is absolutely no cause for depositors to be alarmed," stressed

Parkinson. He said that all deposits up to $20,000 were insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

As reported Friday by a Michigan daily newspaper, Farmers and Merchants State Bank, itself, discovered the misuse of checking and reported it March 10 to the Michigan Financial Institutions Bureau. A routine audit of the bank, which had been anticipated since January 1, was commenced Thursday by the financial institutions bureau.

Parkinson said that the shortage occurred in the customer's process of writing one check to cover another and involved another bank. At this point, the exact amount of the shortage is yet to be determined.

The vice president and cashier of the bank, which operates branches at Rose City and Whittemore in addition to its main office at Hale, gave reassurances that "the bank is operating as usual," that the bank's investigation is continuing and that shortage is to be determined by bank examiners as well as being established by the bank, itself.

A spokesman for the bank's board of directors said Monday morning that no further comment could be given until investigation is complete.

Citizens' Banquet Scheduled April 24

Tawas Chamber of Commerce is laying plans for honoring citizens of the area at a banquet to be held Saturday, April 24.

The chamber is digressing this year from the usual format. This year's citizen of the area will be honored for his or her over-all efforts on the part of the area, not for just his achievements of the past year.

This year, too, the citizens will be chosen from three categories—man, woman and student.

If there is a particular individual from any of the three categories whom the reader feels deserves this high honor, write a letter to the Tawas Chamber of Commerce stating reasons, accompanied by an official ballot which will be printed by this newspaper in the near future.

Letters must be in the hands of the chamber of commerce no later than April 10 and candidates will not be eligible after that date.

From these letters, three individuals, one from each category, will be chosen by an impartial committee of persons who are not residents of this area. On April 24, names are to be announced of those persons honored as citizens of the area.

BUSINESS was being conducted as usual Monday morning when this picture was snapped in the main office of Farmers and Merchants State Bank at Hale.—Tawas Herald Photo.

NEW OFFICES for Dr. James E. Jacques and Dr. Larry S. Kelly were completed last week and the move was completed from former adjacent quarters on Wednesday and Thursday. Owned by Hugo J. Keiser and located west of Keiser's Drug Store, the building measures 30 by 57 feet. Formerly known as the Ransom Building, it includes five examining rooms, a private office for each doctor, enlarged business office, waiting room and laboratory. Front of the building has been remodeled with Gallic green sand spray stone paneling. A 60 by 90-foot parking lot adjacent to the building owned by Keiser is located on the former Bay Theatre site. Floyd Lossing was contractor for remodeling of the building. —Tawas Herald Photo.

AuSable River Film Won 'Teddy' Award

Shown Monday night over eight Michigan television stations was "The River That Came Back," the Consumers Power Company documentary film which won the national outdoor "Teddy" Award (named after Theodore Roosevelt) as the best ecology film of 1971.

The film is concerned with the AuSable River, with its tributaries, which is recognized the country over by sportsmen as a river of treasures.

The AuSable, both in the past and in the present, has had its problems, as outlined in the film. When white pine was king, loggers used the river for a highway, giving little thought to erosion or pollution.

As the river slowly deteriorated, a few concerned citizens began to think of conservation and replenishment. Fisheries were developed, reforestation established and the clean-up process was well under way.

But as the river's beauty increased, so did its popularity—and popularity breeds its own set of problems. An influx of tourists created new kinds of pollution and the vicious circle was started all over.

The story of the AuSable should give every Michigander renewed pride and the thousands of persons who will be using the stream as another season approaches should recall the real need for continuing conservation of this stream, which is the central theme of this award-winning movie.

Prescott Reports on State Tax Returns

State Rep. George A. Prescott reported Monday, March 15, estimated per capita distribution to be made to local units of government for the fiscal year April 1, 1971, to March 31, 1972.

"It is nearly time," Prescott said, "for school, county and township budgets to be submitted to county tax allocation boards. The deadline is the organizational meeting of these county boards in early April."

Prescott said the figures furnished him were projected in the governor's February 1971 economic report.

"They are based," Prescott reported, "on the 1970 census figures—$12.06 per person is projected from the sales tax revenue, the estimates predicated on a 16 percent increase in sales and income tax moneys; $4.21 per person is the estimate from income tax receipts and $1.08 per person from intangible tax receipts. These total $17.35 and each local unit can arrive at its estimated revenue from this source by multiplying $17.35 by its new census count. The estimate will prove to be very close."

Board

Total needs of the high school is for 8.6 rooms, which could be gained by moving the junior high to a middle school.

Discussion of permanent vs. temporary construction left little doubt in the minds of those attending that the slightly higher cost of permanent construction would be worthwhile over the years.

Cost of constructing four additional classrooms, plus remodeling existing classrooms at the Tawas City Elementary Unit would be $160,000. This would provide 5,412 square feet of additional floor space.

Using all temporary construction, the estimated cost would be $177,450. The temporary or relocatable classroom would provide 8,800 square feet of floor space, as compared to 7,044 under the other proposition.

One factor in favor of permanent construction is that this type of classroom usually is used for 40 to 60 years, while the temporary construction would be of little value after 20 years.

Prin. John Alexander said that scheduling is now being studied for larger 8 o'clock classes in the high school, as well as in junior high. "We are doing this in order to be able to live in the building next year," said Alexander.

Following an excellent discussion concerning various aspects of construction, curriculum and enrollment projections, Elliott said the board was desirous of meeting wishes of the community and believed that such an open meeting was one way to learn community thinking.

Give Brakes a Chance
Most persons realize that the faster they drive the greater distance it takes to stop. But few drivers know just how much braking distance increases as speed goes up, reports the Automobile Club of Michigan.
Under normal road and weather conditions, at 30 m.p.h., the average braking distance is 45 feet—but at 70 m.p.h. braking distance jumps to 381 feet. So remember, as speed goes up, proportionately increase following distance between your car and the one ahead.

Hoiien, son of John Hoiien of Fowler, California, has received his second award of the United States Air Force Commendation Medal at North American Rockwell Corporation, Los Angeles division. Captain Hoiien distinguished himself by meritorious service as chief of the procurement division, 72nd Combat Support Group, Ramey Air Force Base, Puerto Rico. He is now a student at North American, under an air force education with industry program which prepares career officers for management assignments and positions in scientific and development engineering fields. The captain was commissioned in 1962 upon graduation from officer training school at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas. A 1957 graduate of Fowler High School, the Lambda Chi Alpha member received his bachelor of science degree in business administration in 1962 from Oregon State University, Oregon. The captain's wife, Bettyanne, is the daughter of Mrs. George Hohman of Oscoda.

Alt Promoted to Staff Sergeant

Marvin L. Alt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Alt, Lone Rock, Wisconsin, has been promoted to staff sergeant in the United States Air Force. Sergeant Alt is an aircraft maintenance specialist at McConnell Air Force Base, Kansas, in a unit of the tactical air command. The sergeant is a 1967 graduate of River Valley High School, Spring Green, Wisconsin. His wife, Sandra, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William White of Tawas City.

1Lt. Seymour Received Bronze Star Medal

1Lt. Donald J. Seymour Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Seymour Sr. of Tawas City, recently received the Bronze Star Medal in Vietnam. He was presented the Bronze Star Medal for distinguishing himself through meritorious service in connection with military operations against hostile forces in Vietnam. The medal, adopted in 1943, recognizes outstanding achievement. Lieutenant Seymour received the award while assigned as a platoon leader with Company C, Eighth Engineer Battalion, First Cavalry Division (Airmobile) near Gia Ray. He entered the army in January 1969 and was last stationed near Chu Lai. He received his bachelor of science degree from Central Michigan University, Mt. Pleasant, in 1969. His wife, Judy, resides in Harrison.

Mrs. Janish Chosen as 1971 Seabee Queen

Mrs. Martin Janish (nee Carolyn Groff), wife of UT3 Martin Janish, has been chosen as the 1971 Seabee queen in Kodiak, Alaska. Mrs. Janish is a 22-year-old native of Tawas City and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Groff. She was married in July 1970. Her husband is currently attached to the naval station public works, where he works as a plumber. The queen and her attendants reigned at the 1971 Seabee Ball March 5. Sen. McGovern Set as Speaker

Sen. George S. McGovern, Democratic senator from South Dakota, will be guest speaker at a dinner in Midland Sunday, March 21. The dinner is sponsored by the 10th District Democrats and is under the chairmanship of George Gant of Midland and Gerald J. Parent of Bay City. It will be preceded by a hospitality hour starting at 6:30 p. m. and press conference at 7 o'clock. It is expected that Senator McGovern will attract a capacity crowd of well over 400 to the Country Squire Inn, Midland, since the senator is the only declared candidate to oppose President Nixon in 1972. Senator McGovern has gained national prominence by his outspoken opposition to the administration's handling of the Indo-China war.

Wildlife: Who Needs It?

This question, one of the central ones in the current environmental crusade, is the theme of this year's National Wildlife Week, set for March 21-27. It calls for some thoughtful answers, responses which put our values in their perspective. What, for example, does a lad of 11 care about the mysterious world of a puffed-up, sonorous-sounding bullfrog? What wonderment does a fluffy little Korean pheasant chick hold in the innocent eyes of a youngster? (The ball of feathers being gingerly cupped in the hands of this boy was hatched in a special incubator and will be released to the wild when it grows big enough.) What rapport with nature do people get from seeing a chipmunk rustling and bustling in a northern forest, or from hearing the chattering-on of this striped little creature? What does it mean to have the special togetherness of a protective mother black tern as you carefully prepare to put her swampland home on film? Who, indeed, needs wildlife? Perhaps the most poignant answer can be gleaned from these lines of an anonymous writer: "God grant the day shall never be, When youth upon November's shore, Shall see the mallards come no more." --Mich. Dept. of Natural Resources
