

Three-Day Name Change for Tawas

Announce Program for Perchville

Program plans for the 1974 Perchville USA program, to be held February 15-17 in the Tawas, are rapidly falling into place, according to an announcement this week by Tawas Chamber of Commerce.

As a starter, Gov. William G. Milliken is to issue a proclamation changing the name of the Tawas to Perchville during the three-day event.

Crowning of a perch king is to open festival activities during a stag fish fry Friday, February 15, at Lixey's Restaurant, East Tawas. A fish fry for the women is to be held at Coyle's Fish and Chips, Tawas City, and a fish fry-dance for high school students is to be held at the East Tawas Community Building.

The Saturday, February 16, program starts with flag raisings by boy scouts on the ice of Tawas Bay and at the Newman Street athletic field. The cystic fibrosis 50-mile "run for life" begins at 9:05 a. m. from the athletic field. A skydiving exhibition is scheduled at 11:00 a. m. and a blooper baseball game on ice skates is to start at 12 o'clock noon.

Saturday afternoon activities include a second skydiving exhibition at 1:30 o'clock, a polar bear swim and crowning of the polar bear king and queen will take place at 2 o'clock near the Michigan Waterways Commission Dock. A high school snowmobile safari is to start at 3:00 p. m. from the athletic field, to be followed by another skydiving exhibition at 3:30 o'clock and the conclusion of the 50-mile "run for life."

The program Saturday evening includes the annual Perchville banquet starting at 6:30 o'clock at the Holland House. Van Patrick, Detroit sports announcer, will crown the 1974 Perchville queen. This event will mark the 25th anniversary of Patrick's first visit here to crown a winter sports queen. A dance for high school students is slated at the community building.

Rounding out the program on Sunday will be a flag raising on Tawas Bay at 9:00 a. m. Trophies for the 50-mile "run for life" are to be presented at 1:00 p. m., followed by a polar bear swim at 1:30 p. m. A demolition derby is scheduled for 2:30 p. m. and judging of the fish contest is to be held at 3:30 p. m. Drawing for the grand prize is to be held at 4:30 p. m.

SOME YELLOW PERCH of extremely large size are being taken through the ice of Tawas Bay by local anglers. Jack Cuny caught this two-pounder Saturday morning. The fish measured 15 inches in length. His son, Charles, nine years of age, caught one nice perch. Perchville Festival officials are hoping that good fishing conditions will continue for the annual winter sports program in two weeks.—Tawas Herald Photo.

Hospital Radio Net Gets Federal Grant

A $6,400 federal grant to assist in the purchase of an emergency communications system for Tawas Hospital has been approved by the Office of Highway Safety Planning, Michigan State Police.

Donald Miner, assistant director of the hospital, said Monday that a matching grant to participate in the program was being furnished by Tawas Hospital Association.

The communications system, to be owned by Isosco County and leased to the hospital, is to include a regional base station with two-frequency transmitter and four mobile radio units. Three units are to be installed in hospital ambulances and the fourth unit is to be installed in the Bennett Funeral Home ambulance. A portion of the equipment and installation cost is to be paid by Bennett.

Judge Denies New Trial for Jonathan Putnam

An application to file a delayed motion for a new trial entered by Jonathan L. Putnam, presently serving a 30 to 65-year sentence in Southern Michigan Prison, Jackson, was denied January 22 by Isosco Circuit Judge Allan C. Miller.

Putnam had entered a guilty plea to second degree murder on November 6, 1967, in the fatal stabbing of a Plank Road woman.

On November 27, 1967, he was sentenced to a term of 50 years to life imprisonment. Two months later, the sentence was changed to 50 to 65 years and on July 25, 1973, the sentence was again changed to 30 to 65 years imprisonment on order of the state supreme court.

Besides maintaining hospital-to-ambulance radio contact, Miner said the new radio system would allow Tawas Hospital to communicate with other hospitals during a disaster. He said that radio equipment presently utilized by two ambulances and operating on the sheriff's department frequency would be retained.

Miner said that application had been made for federal funds to assist with purchase of a third ambulance for the hospital.

School Buys ReflectORIZED Tape for Kid Safety Plan

As a safety precaution for elementary school-aged children walking along dangerous streets and highways or those waiting to be picked up by buses, Tawas Area School is making arrangements to purchase reflectORIZED tape to be affixed to the outer garments of children.

Supt. Edward J. Barry said Monday night that a source of the reflectORIZED tape had been secured locally and that safety and health money set aside in the school budget would be utilized to purchase several rolls of tape.

Strips of the tape are to be sent home to parents along with a special bulletin containing information as to safe practices for walking along highways and streets during early morning hours.

Following an executive session which excluded visitors and members of the press during deliberations, Tawas Area Board of Education authorized purchase of two new school buses at a cost of $11,824 each.

Receiving the contract to furnish two International bus chassis with automatic transmissions at $6,539 each was Ottawa Equipment Company. The contract for furnishing two bus bodies at a cost of $5,285 each was the Blue Bird Corporation. Other bids opened at the January 15 meeting included Inglis Ford Sales, $6,409.05, Ford bus chassis; McKay Sales Company, $6,879.30, Chevrolet bus chassis; Bus bodies; McFadden Corporation, $5,432; Superior Body, $5,433; Ward Body, $5,257.

Considerable discussion has been held at past meetings of the board of education concerning the extremely high cost of bus maintenance and the high cost of transportation in general.

Following the January 15 meeting, one board of education member is said to have been highly criticized by a bidder for statements attributed to the board member concerning the maintenance cost of various makes of bus chassis. The member had been involved in an extensive study of transportation costs and had driven several different makes of buses during his study before reporting to the board of education.

As a result, the board of education apparently chose to limit its discussion on the final purchase to an executive session.

During open discussion on transportation, Supt. Edward J. Barry said that the school had approximately 7,000 gallons of gasoline in storage at a leased bulk plant and less than 1,000 gallons of gasoline stored at the high school. He said this total represented approximately a one-month supply of gasoline as school vehicles require from 1,500 to 2,000 gallons of gasoline each week.

Barry said that the school district had been guaranteed by its gasoline distributor that the school would be supplied with fuel for its vehicles. He said that the supply from this source would be used to operate daily bus runs and that the gasoline in storage would be used for buses making class field trips and for athletic event team transportation. It was emphasized, however, that the stored gasoline would not be utilized for spectator buses. Strict federal rules concerning operation of buses for extra curricular activities are expected shortly.

Barry said that the school had budgeted $18,402 for gasoline, oil and grease this term and, as of December 31, had spent $15,781.75. Budgeted for tires and tubes was $2,000 and the school has already expended $2,128.71. The repair parts category was budgeted $20,000 and $7,986.82 had been expended as of December 31.

In other transportation matters, Sheriff George Westcott appeared before the board and reported he had received a number of calls from parents concerning the danger involved in having children walking along highways during the dark, early morning hours.

The sheriff is to prepare a guideline for elementary teachers to present to students instructing them to walk on the extreme left side of highway shoulders and other safety pointers.

It was reported that bus drivers had met with parents residing in areas of highway danger in an effort to develop safe points for buses to pick up children.

Water Board Was Briefed by City Manager

Members of Tawas City Water Board were briefed Monday night by City Mgr. Reginald Bublitz on progress of proposed special assessment sewer districts in the city and the proposed establishment of joint secondary sewage treatment facilities for Tawas City, East Tawas and adjoining townships.

In other matters, the water board is to recommend to the council that the water board chairman be designated to act as an alternate at meetings of the joint water board in the event that any regular Tawas City member of that board is absent.

The water board established the cost of sewer connection for John McMurray as the price paid by him to a private contractor for boring under US-23. The total cost to McMurray was $3,405.

The water board is to recommend to the city council that the firm of E. C. Deyo be hired to appraise buildings for insurance purposes. This action had been tabled by the council at its last meeting. It was emphasized that the firm would provide a guaranteed appraisal for insurance purposes and such service was not available locally. The water board said it would provide one-half of the total $690 cost for this service.

Authorization was given to the department of public works to purchase a new electronic pipe locator and a new three-inch portable pump.

Ice Plugged Dead Creek

A HERALD HEADLINE last week indicated that further council "discussion may melt sidewalk snow," referring to a controversy over a sidewalk snow removal policy acted upon at the January 21 meeting. Since publication day, the area has been hit by one snowstorm, followed by three days of rain and mild weather—most of the snow has disappeared from the sidewalks. If the council's discussion had anything to do with the mild weather, the department of public works hopes it will "lay off" for a while—a good thing can be overdone. With mild weather over the week-end, a two-foot layer of ice covering Dead Creek fractured under the heavy weight of water running into that natural drain. The creek was clogged with cakes of ice Sunday and caused minor flooding conditions along the creek. A crew from the DPW worked overtime Sunday to free ice jams and then returned Tuesday to free new ice jams. Conditions appeared right Tuesday evening for another snowstorm and discussion over snow removal on sidewalks will probably be continued at next Monday night's meeting.—Tawas Herald Photos.

TA Students Ask Liaison With Board

At the request of student council members, Tawas Area Board of Education is to give consideration to a proposal which would give official recognition to a student acting as a liaison between elected school officials and the student body.

Heading up an official delegation from the student council at Monday night's board of education meeting, Miss Jackie McKinney said that the student council would like to elect a delegate to represent students at each meeting of the board of education.

Miss McKinney said that the student delegate could present ideas to the board of education concerning the students' view toward school policies and could "bring back to the student council" views of the board of education.

She said that a list of qualifications for the student delegate would include age and grade point level. Candidates would petition for the position and an election would be held by the student council.

Robert Elliott, president of the board of education, said that the Michigan Association of School Boards has encouraged such an arrangement with students and believed it would be well to institute such a policy here. He emphasized, however, that there would have to be the understanding that a student council delegate, similar to representatives of the press, would be excluded from executive sessions called by the board of education during contract negotiations with teachers or closed sessions called for "discussion of personalities."

Prin. John Alexander said that several schools in the conference had student delegates to boards of education and that the arrangement had worked out quite satisfactorily.

Appearing with Miss McKinney were Sue Stevenson, Eric Haglund and Peter Sutton.

The board of education is to make a decision at its next regular meeting on February 11.

TA Board Heard Reports, Hired New Librarian for High School

Reports on elementary libraries, a new reading center, science department recommendations, vocational education instruction and hiring of a new high school librarian were heard Monday night by Tawas Area Board of Education.

Mrs. Barbara Cuthbertson, principal at the East Tawas Elementary Unit, reported that the new library in that unit had 2,000 book selections but only 800 were in use. She said that many of the books were not suitable for elementary level children and is asking for donations of books from parents until an additional supply of books is received.

A tour of the new elementary reading center at the East Tawas unit was conducted by Faye Whitford, a teachers' aide at the center.

Individualized instruction is given there daily to 35 to 40 children, based on prescriptions furnished by diagnosticians from Isosco Intermediate School District, which tested the children.

Richard Fairless, science department head, reported on his recommendation concerning materials and equipment needed for science instruction in the high school and middle school.

On recommendation of Prin. John Alexander, Pamela Vodry, Big Rapids, a graduate of Central Michigan University with a major in library science, has been hired as the school librarian for the remainder of the term. She succeeds Mrs. Ruth Merschel, who retired from that position at the end of the first semester. Alexander reported that the administration was now preparing a job description for the proposed part-time position of director of vocational education. This person would oversee current state and federal programs in operation, develop new vocational training programs, work with instructors and citizens committees, prepare department budgets and act as a liaison between the school and various county, state and federal agencies. Renumeration for the work would be about $5 an hour.

It was reported that the superintendent and one member of the board of education would meet with the East Tawas City Council on February 4 to discuss a possible exchange of property between the school and the city. At its last meeting, the board of education went on record as in favor of exchanging the school-owned athletic field on Newman Street for the city-owned portion of the old fairgrounds as a possible site for future school expansion.

Two Central Michigan University instructors are to be interviewed Friday as possible candidates for a position as educational consultant to this school district.

Because of the fact that several members of the board of education and the superintendent are to attend the national convention of boards of education and school administrators, the date of the February 25 meeting has been changed to February 18.

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands; one nation, under God, indivisible with liberty and justice for all.

TODAY'S Meditation

from The World's Most Widely Used Devotional Guide

(Read Matthew 14:14-22)

Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them. (Matthew 14:14)

The dividing line of the world is not East-West but North-South. North of the 30th parallel, we see concentrated most of the world's wealth, technology and Christian churches. South of the 30th parallel is "The Third World" of Africa, Asia and Latin America where millions live lives of quiet despair and poverty. North of the parallel the living standard is 16 times higher. Can this gap be closed between the haves and the have-nots?

Our response to a hungry world must be out of compassion, which demands personal involvement.

Two Nobel prize winners recently declared: "We have at our disposal all the necessary technology to banish hunger from the world, but it is not going to happen because we do not know how to change people."

The church is committed to a single proposition that God's power can change people, institutions and governments. Can we help release that changing power in the world and rearrange our personal priorities to help close the gap while there is yet time?

PRAYER

O Lord, forgive me for the sin of indifference, my preoccupation with the unimportant. Make me part of Your answer. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
We need to be delivered from "compassion fatigue."—J. Harry Haines, executive, World Relief, New York.

DEAD CREEK went on a rampage Sunday during the annual January thaw. After several days of rain, water rose to flood stage as broken ice collected near the Sixth Avenue and Detroit and Mackinac Railroad bridges. Residences upstream from the Sixth Avenue bridge were threatened with flooding Sunday morning, but the Tawas City Department of Public Works crew was on the job to dislodge several ice jams and flood stage water was lowered. Colder weather in future weeks will form another new ice shelf in the creek and a repeat performance can be expected in the spring.—Tawas Herald Photo.

Urges Crackdown on Illegal ADC Payments

Speaking before the 23rd Judicial Circuit Bar Association Wednesday night, Circuit Judge Allan C. Miller declared, after several weeks of "modest protestation" to achieve a change, "no longer can it be permitted for a family with a total income in excess of $1,400 per month and substantial assets to abuse the welfare system."

Judge Miller said that aid to dependent children payments had been granted in several cases here where total family income was substantial. He said that such cases border on fraud and at least "represent an extreme lack of communication between departments, court and legal counsel—action is necessary."

The action recommended by Judge Miller and now in force in his circuit is for a series of monthly meetings between representatives of the friend of the court, the department of social services, prosecutor's office, county commissioners and himself to develop closer coordination in court-ordered support payments and ADC programs.

According to Judge Miller, the meetings, aimed at standardizing procedures, came about as a result of an awareness that many mothers were not applying for support, but instead were applying for ADC.

Many times the husband initiated the divorce and the mother, being unrepresented, was not aware that she had to apply for support and failed to do so. The husband's attorney was unlikely to "request an order," said Miller.

The judge said that governmental agencies involved are also concerned with the problem that some women will apply for ADC because it is a far more reliable form of support than the husband.

Lixey Again Heads Iosco Townships

Annual meeting of the 11 townships of Iosco County was held Thursday, January 24, at the Colonial Inn, Hale. Thirty-seven township officers attended.

Business meeting commenced with a welcome from Richter Lixey, president. Dale Butzin motioned to keep the same slate of officers for 1974. This was supported by Merlin Look. Officers are as follows: Lixey, president; Harry Samotis, vice president; Marian Ulman, secretary; Edna Anschuetz, treasurer; LaVerne Koepke, director at large.

Discussion of board of commissioners' lack of interest in township problems may be corrected by a closer liaison between township officials and the commissioners. The quarterly meetings of the Iosco Township Association will be attended by all township officials. The county board of commissioners will also be invited to attend.

20 Attended Oscoda Meeting

Approximately 20 members attended the Thursday evening, January 24, meeting of Iosco County Association for Retarded Citizens at Hope Lutheran Church, Oscoda. The group was formerly called the Iosco Association for Retarded Children and Adults.

Foster Eid, special education director at the Iosco Intermediate School District Office, and Carol McArthur, program director for Northeast Michigan Retardation Services, Incorporated, of Alpena, were present.

A special guest speaker from the activity center of the Alpena district will be present at the Thursday, February 28, meeting. Further information will be announced.

Grabow Won $50,000 in State Lottery

George Grabow, 59, Whittemore, just missed winning the $200,000 super drawing in the Michigan lottery held two weeks ago, but he is not unhappy about it—he won the second prize of $50,000.

Pictured in the Herald as a guaranteed $10,000 winner early in January, Grabow was the 11th person eliminated before the super prize went to a Detroit waitress.

The $25 winning ticket that qualified him for the drawing was purchased at the Cat Shack, Whittemore, for the December 28 contest.

Grabow, who had 14 uncashed $25 winning tickets in his wallet a week ago, purchases more than $100 for each weekly drawing. He estimates he has spent more than $3,000 for lottery tickets in the past few months.

Grabow operates beer distributorships at National City and Muskegon.

A PUPPET SHOW featured language arts instruction last week for fifth grade students at Tawas City Elementary Unit. Kenneth Tanner, instructor, said that each of the 128 fifth grade students made his own puppet and then worked with other students in developing story ideas, original scripts and scenery for 25 different plays. Tanner said that use of puppets was only one method being used to teach language arts in an interesting way for students.

List Complaints Handled During Week by Sheriff

Complaints investigated over the week-end by Isoco Sheriff's Department included a controlled substance violation, a breaking and entering, two burglaries and driving off without paying for a purchase.

Arrested Saturday and charged with violation of the controlled substances act was Douglas C. Reid, 20, Tawas City. Officers on patrol stopped a vehicle in Tawas City and detected a strong odor of marijuana. Upon investigation, a metal can containing 71 pills fell out of Reid's pantleg. A warrant was issued by the prosecuting attorney.

A cottage owned by Robert M. Gizowski, 2155 North US-23, was entered between January 13 and January 27. Officers said about $9 in pennies had been stolen from a dresser drawer.

Ronald Ponke, Sand Lake, reported Saturday that three motorcyclists pulled into his filling station and, while he was busy, pumped $2.48 worth of gasoline into their machines. They drove off without paying for the purchase.

Braves Hot At Foul Lines in Win Over Dukes

Tawas Area Braves romped to an 80-50 win Friday night over visiting Essexville Garber as a red-hot Steve Cline pumped in 11 points in the first quarter to give the tribe an early scoring edge.

In an extremely rough game under the baskets, officials whistled 20 fouls against each squad and could have doubled that number. Garber controlled the backboards most of the night, but not their tempers.

The visiting coach set some sort of record for drawing the ire of game officials when he drew a technical foul in the junior varsity game and two technical fouls in the second quarter of the varsity game. This rubbed off on his players as three technical fouls were called against the Dukes.

Fouls did not help the visitors' cause as Tawas was hot from the charity lanes, sinking 20 out of 29 shots. The Dukes made good on 18 out of 24 chances at the foul line.

The Braves had well balanced scoring throughout the night as Cline paced the tribe with 18 points, despite being in foul trouble in the second quarter. Mickey Haglund had a hot hand from outside and from the charity lanes, meshing six field goals and five foul shots for 17 points, while Larry Nichols pumped in seven buckets for 14 points. Eleven members of the Braves reached the scoring column.

The Braves jumped off to an early lead in the game and were in front of the Dukes, 11-2, at the first break in the action with five minutes, 15 seconds remaining in the quarter. Tawas boosted this margin to 24-10 at the first buzzer.

Tawas continued on its merry way during the second quarter as they outscored the visitors, 21-11, and held a 45-21 margin at intermission.

The Braves turned cold when they changed baskets to start the second half, but Garber gained only an 18-12 advantage in that quarter. Tawas outscored the Dukes, 22-11, in the final quarter as both coaches substituted freely.

Tawas won both ends of the doubleheader with Essexville Garber as the Junior Braves beat the Little Dukes, 73-40. Tawas was cold in the first quarter, but still managed to take a 12-8 scoring edge. The Junior Braves then turned in 20-10, 20-12 and 21-10 scoring margins over the visitors.

Brad Potts was again the scoring leader for the Junior Braves, meshing 23 points on nine field goals and five charity tosses. Mike Harvey and Jim Haydon meshed 11 points each. Others reaching the scoring column during the night were Garland and Smith, six points each; Storms and Kaunisto, four points each; Parsons and Gotcher, three points each; Bergeron, two points.

Iosco Register of Deeds Gave Annual Report

A year-end report from Leon Putnam, Iosco County register of deeds, indicated that real estate mortgaged in this county during the past year had a value of $13,544,735.94.

Office statistics indicated that four new subdivision plats were recorded by supervisors, seven plats were recorded by proprietors, there were 3,029 personal property financial statements filed, 41 personal property tax liens filed and 32 tax liens discharged.

The office had total receipts of $47,425.95, of which $18,854.05 represented the transfer tax on property sales. Fees for deeds recorded amounted to $7,563, fees for mortgages amounted to $6,814, fees from the microfilm department amounted to $4,238.65 and plat book sales amounted to $1,700.

Tawas Recorded Another Big Year in House Building

New home construction, a good yardstick for the measurement of local economy, indicates that 1973 was another banner construction year in the Tawas area.

A year-end report by Paul Ropert, superintendent of public works at East Tawas, indicates that permits were issued for construction of 26 new homes with a total valuation of $425,841 during 1973. The total represents an increase of three homes over the preceding year.

Another excellent building year is shown by the report of City Mer. Reginald Bublitz of Tawas City. Here, permits for 12 new homes were issued with a total valuation of $279,000. Although this was two home permits less than the preceding year, total valuation was $38,000 more than the previous year. An inflation factor had some bearing on the increased valuation, but the average home was slightly larger than the previous year.

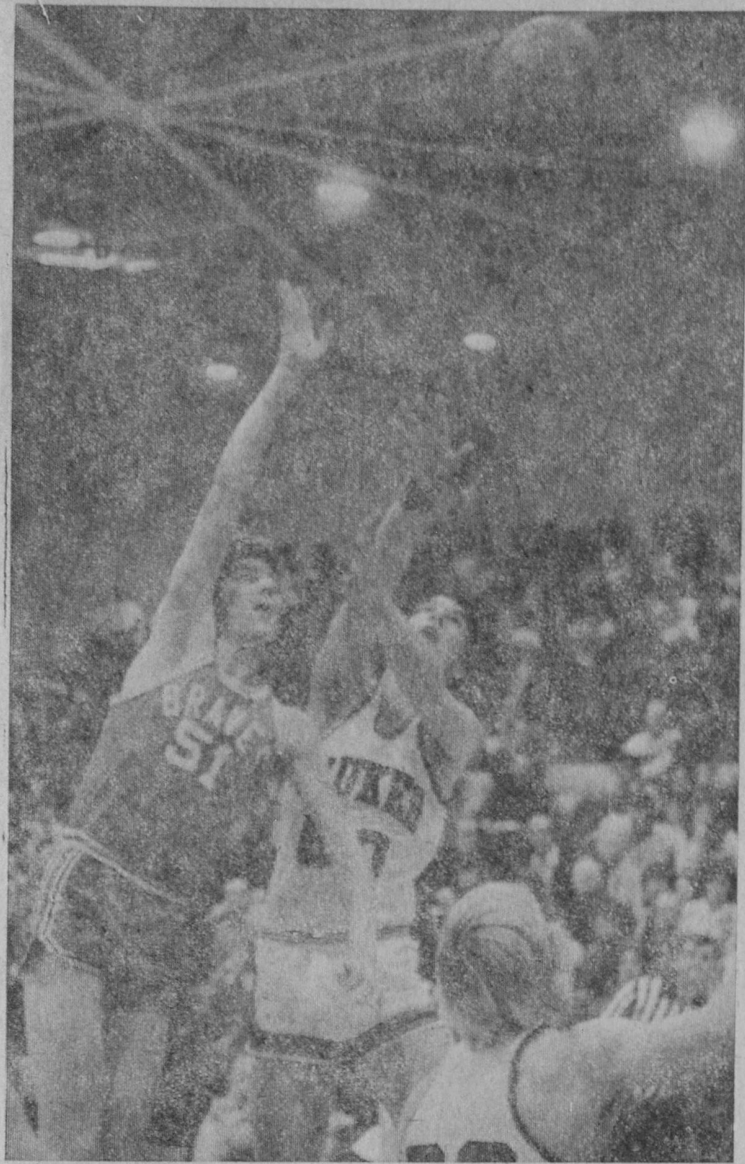

Ropert's report indicated that 10 new garages were constructed at a valuation of $21,276, permits were issued for nine tool sheds with a valuation of $5,882, there were 51 permits for repairs and alterations with a valuation of $70,331 and 11 commercial permits totaling $181,950. Permits for 14 fences at $3,735 gave East Tawas a total construction year of $752,882.

While a comprehensive report is not to be submitted to the Tawas

City Council until February 4, Bublitz said that permits for 38 home alterations totaled $29,500, seven commercial permits totaled $56,000, one industrial addition amounted to $22,000, 14 permits for sheds and garages totaled $35,990 and four certificates of occupancy were issued for changes of business. Total valuation of 76 permits issued in Tawas City amounted to $422,530.

Bublitz said there was a slight drop during the past year in home alterations. During 1972, 45 permits were issued. Tawas City issued 97 permits in 1972 with a total valuation of $510,254, which included $87,700 at Tawas Hospital. East Tawas' home construction for the year was only two permits off from the record 28 home permits set in 1969.

Open House at Oscoda Library

Oscoda branch of Iosco-Arenac Regional Library, located in the Oscoda Township Hall, will hold an open house Thursday, January 31, to celebrate the new library hours. Hours were increased from 26½ to 41 hours of service per week.

The public is invited to drop in between 2:00 and 4:00 p. m. for a cup of coffee and become acquainted with the library.

TC Fire Dept. Answered 35 Calls in 1973

Tawas City Fire Department answered 35 calls in Tawas City, Tawas and Alabaster Townships during 1973.

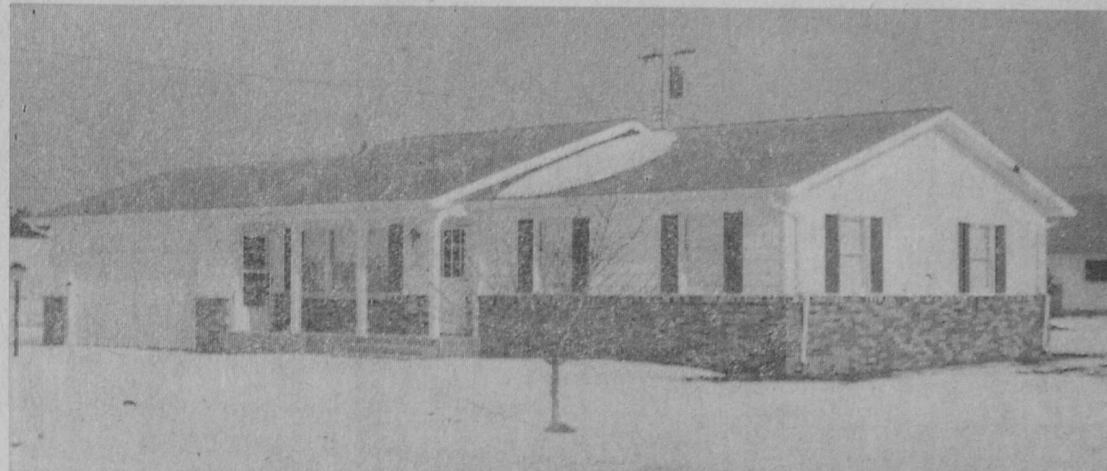

Of Tawas City's 17 fires, four were during January, two in March, two in April, three in May, one in June, one in September, two in October and two in November.

Fire causes listed included two car fires, two grass fires, one brush fire, three trash fires, one call each for a faulty furnace and faulty wiring, one mobile home fire and an incinerator fire at Tawas Hospital. Firemen answered one call for an overheated kitchen range. Total loss was estimated at $7,325.

Tawas Township had 11 fires, including four grass fires, one shed fire, a barn fire, one car fire and one house fire. Calls were answered at one house with a burning mattress and one call for a faulty meter. Total loss was estimated at $3,675.

Alabaster Township had seven fires during the year, including four home fires, a shed fire, one grass fire and one trash fire. The house fires included one which only sustained smoke damage. One house fire and the shed fire were caused by arson and arson was suspected in a second house fire. Total loss was estimated at $31,750.

The fire department held 35 practices during the year.

20 Projects Held Over Get City Council Study

Information on 20 different projects to be studied for possible implementation during 1974 was presented to the Tawas City Council at its January 21 meeting. All projects had been discussed during 1973 council meetings, but had been tabled for future consideration.

Ranging from new street construction to hiring an additional city hall secretary, City Mgr. Reginald Bublitz reports that estimated funding necessary to accomplish all would be $1,132,400. With this cost in mind, Bublitz said that only a few could be accomplished during the current year and some newer projects of the council may have preference.

Two of the larger projects are already in the study stage or will be at that point shortly. Now in the preliminary stage before going before the next public hearing are three special assessment sewer districts, costing an estimated $305,000, being proposed to serve the north side of US-23 below the Tawas River bridge. Another project in this category, secondary sewage treatment, is now being studied by engineers in a joint undertaking by East Tawas, Tawas City, Baldwin Township and possibly, Alabaster and Tawas Townships. Should Tawas City consider secondary sewage treatment by itself, the construction cost would be approximately $400,000.

One of the probable projects for 1974 is continuation of the plant mix street blacktop program commenced last year by the city. Authorized for plans and construction and remaining from the 1973 program are five streets with an estimated construction cost of $56,775. Last year, the council authorized use of the major portion of the city's federal revenue sharing money for blacktop work.

Streets up for reconsideration this year include Ninth Avenue, from US-23 to Fourth Street, 2,125 feet, $10,625; Fifth Avenue, from First Street to M-55, 3,300 feet, $14,850; First Avenue, from John Street to M-55, 1,500 feet, $7,200; Harris Avenue, from Eighth Avenue to North Street, 2,050 feet, $9,500; First Street, from First Avenue to Harris Avenue, 3,200 feet, $14,400.

The above streets are subject to sewer and water main construction during the summer of 1974. Other streets which have been given past consideration and are to be again studied for possible work this year include Whittemore Street, from US-23 to Seventh Avenue, 1,675 feet; German Street, from Oak Street to M-55, 1,600 feet; Bay Drive, US-23 to Townline, 2,300 feet; Sixth Avenue, from First Street to Mathews Street, 1,500 feet. Some of the above streets are also subject to sewer and water main construction this summer.

Another project to receive consideration from the council is utilization of the footbridge removed from the old Mathews Street bridge. This metal and wood structure, which was added to the Mathews Street bridge years ago when that street was a state highway, was removed last summer when the new bridge was constructed and is now located at the city garage where it can be easily moved. The council has considered installing this footbridge at either Tenth Avenue or Ninth Avenue over Dead Creek. Cost of building piers for the bridge range from $1,500 to $2,500 and there would be an added cost for timber replacement and installation.

Engineering plans have been received for three different storm sewer proposals. Total cost of this work would be $114,000. Included in the plans are Fourth Avenue between First and North Streets, Oak Street at the Spruce and German Street intersection, Beech Street between the railroad tracks and Spruce Street, German Street from Maple Street to M-55, Court Street from River Street to M-55.

Another project long in the discussion stage has been renovation of the city park dock. Recent information from the Michigan Department of Natural Resources indicates that $15,000 in state money would be available this year to aid in this project, which has a total estimated cost of around $50,000. It is proposed to enclose the present solid fill pier with treated wood piling and cap the walk area with blacktop. The pier, originally constructed in 1940, has shown great deterioration in recent years and large areas are unfit for public use at present because of the safety hazard.

Discussed from time to time through the years by the council has been replacement of or repairs and addition to the existing city hall. The council probably will give consideration to one or the other alternative, as wiring and doors are presently in poor condition and should be replaced. A new electrical lead was installed last fall, which is a start toward a new wiring system. In the past, proposals have been heard on making additions to the building for fire department and library use, along with one alternative which called for turning this building over to the fire department and establishment of a new city hall elsewhere.

A project which probably will receive immediate attention of the council will be purchase of two-way radios for the fire department. Included in the estimated cost of $2,500 would be a base station and two mobile units.

A possible property purchase for relocation of the city garage was discussed last year by the council. Located near the industrial park, the property could be utilized as a site for waste water treatment plant expansion, if needed. Estimated cost is $14,000.

Street lighting improvements, located at the low end of the cost table at $300 but of major importance to the city, will again be considered. Last year, the council authorized replacement of 20 2,500-lumen street lights scattered throughout the city and about 25 of these lights remain. Also to be considered would be replacing US-23 lighting from M-55 to the city limit at East Tawas. Annual cost of this project would be $910.

Equipment replacement to be considered includes $9,000 for a new dump truck. Also to be considered is a bid from Houghton Disposal Service to add a commercial pickup to the current residential garbage and trash disposal. Fee for this added service would be $5,200.

Another matter to be considered by the council will be the hiring of an additional city hall secretary to improve the administrative load at the city hall.

Other projects to be considered in the 1974 program include tennis courts, $5,000; sidewalk replacement and new construction, $5,000; bridges over Whittemore Street and Sixth Avenue, $60,000; water loan from Farmers Home Administration for water distribution improvements, $74,500.

A project which received council consideration last year and awaits state financial aid is development of a proposed Tawas River mouth marina. A feasibility report completed last fall by the city engineer indicated that the city's share of this project would be approximately $25,000. The city has contacted the Michigan Waterways Commission for possible participation.

Explain Rules for Reporting On Earnings

Question: I started getting monthly social security checks as a student last summer when my mother died. Since I have had some part-time jobs this year, can you tell me when a person getting benefits has to report his earnings to social security?

Answer: If you received at least one social security check and your earnings were over $2,100 in 1973, you must make an annual report of your earnings to social security by April 15, 1974.

Question: When I graduated from school last May, my social security checks stopped. I did not work while I was in school, but I got a job right after graduation and earned nearly $4,000 from June through December of last year. Do I have to file an annual report of these 1973 earnings with social security?

Answer: Yes, even though you did not start work until June, you should report your earnings to social security because you received checks during the first five months of 1973. Since you did not earn over $175 a month from January through May, you are entitled to your checks for those months even though you earned $4,000 for the year. Starting this year, people can earn as much as $200 a month without having any social security benefits withheld for that month.

Question: When I become 62 this year, I want to retire and get social security benefits, but I cannot find any document to prove my date of birth. Now what can I do?

Answer: Get in touch with any social security office and the people there will be glad to help you. Although you may not have a copy of a birth or baptismal certificate, one of these may still be shown on official records. If not, there are other documents, such as a census report, a school report or an insurance policy, that can be used to establish your age.

LOOKING BACKWARD—

Veeck-Wertz Are Featured Valley Guests

15 Years Ago—

January 29, 1959—Bill Veeck, former major-domo of the Cleveland Indians and St. Louis Browns, and Vic Wertz, former star outfielder of the Detroit Tigers, will be among the featured guests at the annual Silver Valley winter sports carnival.

Tr. Robert Steinhurst of East Lansing, a native of Tawas City, is one of only 50 handgun marksmen in the nation who are members of the famed "2800 Club." A member of the No. 1 state police team, Steinhurst fired an aggregate score of 2613 out of a possible 2700 at the Indiana State Police invitational pistol tournament.

Lower food prices in 1959 are predicted by the Kruger Company. Fresh fruit and vegetable prices are expected to average about 15 percent less than the first six months of last year, while meat prices should be down about six percent.

The United States has pledged $3,700,000 toward the relief of 1,000,000 Palestine Arabs.

John D. Webb of Hale retires January 31 after carrying mail on route one for 43 years.

Carolyn Evans of East Tawas left Sunday for New York City, New York, where she attended sessions of the United Nations, along with 60 other members of the Methodist Youth Fellowship in Michigan.

25 Years Ago—

January 28, 1949—Tawas City was listed as one of only three cities in Michigan during 1948 that had provided adequate protection against stream pollution. The Michigan Stream Control Commission made the announcement in an article by Jack VanCovering in the Detroit Free Press.

Van Patrick, sports director of WJR, will crown Miss Gilda Schultz as Silver Valley queen.

Tawas Young Women's League will present a musical revue February 15-16 at the East Tawas Community Building under the direction of Mrs. Madeline Kochenderfer. The cast includes Pat Herman, Peggy Allen, Sophie Barkman, Lee Cecil, Mary Hickman, Olive Barnett, Margaret Smith, Maxine Oulette, May Barkman, Alice Defibaugh, Marion Newcomb, Jean Davis, Donna Martin, Val Ingelish, Alta Christeson, Helen Tuttle, Misha Krumm, Lee Cater, Virginia Coyle, Evelyn Colby, Marie Nash, Lutie O'Loughlin, Dorothy McKay, Emma Whipple, Elouise Dimmick, Louise Elliott.

Dean Acheson has been named secretary of state to succeed Gen. George C. Marshall.

Despite the prevalence of many convictions to the contrary, consumers who lay a dollar down on the counter of a chain store get food that costs an average of 83 cents. This leaves 17 cents to the chain with which it must pay all its incidental expenses and 10 cents of this goes out in wages to employees. According to a study, the average food chain markup before the war was 22½ cents—a third greater than today. The far greater dollar volume per store today is mainly responsible for the lower handling costs per dollar of sales.

35 Years Ago—

February 3, 1939—Marjorie Morley Lickfelt has been appointed manager of the secretary of state's branch office in Iosco. She succeeds Richard Klenow, who had been manager for two years.

Tawas City School voters set their stamp of approval on the proposed auditorium in a hearty manner, the proposition winning by a 221-68 margin.

L. W. Eckstein of Tawas City advertises egg mash at $1.80 per 100 pounds, scratch feed at $1.45 per 100 pounds and dairy feed at $1.20 per 100 pounds.

Jimmy Stevenson, sports and news commentator of WJR, will crown the Silver Valley winter sports queen.

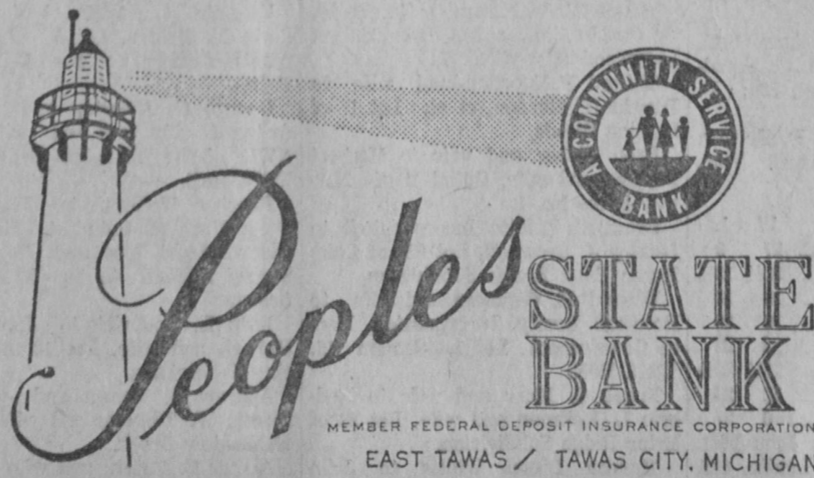

The freshmen class of Tawas City High School held a skating party at Bradley's pond.

Christ Episcopal Church has extended a call to the Rev. Frank Colby of Geneva, Ohio, and it is expected that he will come here in about a month to assume this pastorate.

Poster-Art Contest for 4-H Members

The 4-H program is offering a special 4-H poster-art contest for club members. Posters should, in a creative way, express what 4-H is and does.

Guidelines are as follows:
(1) Posters can be made by any 4-H member, club or group of members;

(2) Posters must be no smaller than 8½ by 11 inches and no larger than 14 by 22 inches;

(3) Posters can be horizontal or vertical with horizontal preferred;
(4) Posters using copyrighted cartoon characters will not be accepted;

(5) Poster themes similar to past years' themes will not be accepted. Do not use: 4-H We Can Make It Happen, 4-H Gets It All Together, A New Day—A New Way, 4-H Bridges The Gap or 4-H Is For Us;

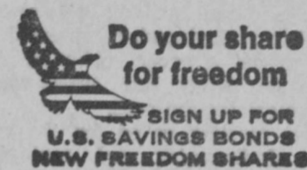

(6) Name, address and age must be clearly written on the back of each poster.

Five winning posters will be selected from the county and then entered in the state competition. State winners will compete in the national poster contest to select the national 4-H theme for 1975.

Anyone wishing to enter the Iosco County poster contest should submit an entry no later than February 15 to the Cooperative Extension Service, Federal Building, East Tawas.

15 Iosco Departments Exceeded 1973 Budget

According to a year-end report by D. Keith Pappas, Iosco County clerk, one-half of the departments or activities included in the county's 1973 budget expended more than had been allocated by the county board of commissioners.

Overages in the $773,391.50 budget ranged from a low of $28.12 for communicable diseases to a high of $10,081.44 for courthouse and grounds.

The 15 departments or activities exceeding budgets are listed as follows in alphabetical order: Cooperative Extension, which was budgeted $8,900 for salaries and $7,000 for department expense, had actual expenditures of $11,830.62 for salaries and $8,644.15 for expense, for a total of $4,574.77 over the budget.

Prosecuting attorney, budgeted for $22,500 for salaries and $7,850 for expenses, had expenditures of $25,683.57 for salaries and $4,717.92 for expenses, or $51.49 over the budget.

Civil defense had a budget of $1,500 for salaries and actual expenditure of $1,869.42, or $369.42 over the budget; jury commission, $700 budgeted for salaries and had expenditure of $935.06, $235.06 over the budget; social security, budgeted $16,000 and actual expenditure was $22,355.98, or $6,355.98 over the budget.

Probate court, salary budget of $19,100 and expenses of $5,000, had actual salary expense of $18,945.51 and department expense of $2,780.29, or $2,374.20 under the budget.

County clerk, had a budget of $27,783 for salaries and $6,550 for expenses, had actual expenditure of $26,965.80 for salaries and $5,236.54 for expenses, or $2,220.66 under the budget.

County engineer, had a budget of $23,000 for salaries and $2,000 for expenses, had actual salary budget of $23,300 and expenses of $3,300 (includes $11,000 supplement), had expenditure of $33,286.08 for salaries and expenses of $30,115.95, or $4,166.08 under the budget.

County auditor, had a budget of $23,000 for salaries and $2,000 for expenses, had actual salary budget of $23,300 and expenses of $3,300 (includes $11,000 supplement), had expenditure of $33,286.08 for salaries and expenses of $30,115.95, or $4,166.08 under the budget.

County treasurer, had a budget of $24,960 for salaries and $6,000 for department expense, had actual expense of $25,407.96 for salaries and $4,904.35 for expense, or $467.69 under the budget.

County sheriff and jail, salary budget of $133,890 and $113,000 for department expense (includes supplement of $61,000), had actual expense of $149,438.76 for salaries and $73,175.62 for department expense, or $24,365.42 under the budget.

The heat that a fireplace log produces depends on the concentration of woody material, resin, water and ash. Therefore, if you know something about the wood you buy or log you cut yourself, you will be able to understand how to mix light and heavy wood to achieve the ideal fire.

A full cord of dry hickory wood weighs about two tons and is approximately equal in heating value to a ton of hard coal or 200 gallons of fuel oil, according to the forest service of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Mix light and heavy wood to achieve the ideal fire. Some of the kinds of wood that will burn longer are dogwood, hickory, beech, hard maple, birch, mulberry, apple and ash. All rate "about 83" heat value.
