WEDNESDAY, MAY 22, 1974

THESE PICTURES should make area trout fishermen happy. Last Thursday, the Michigan Department of Natural Resources planted 15,000 rainbow trout at the East Tawas City Park. The trout, averaging eight inches in length and weighing a total of 1,330 pounds, were hatched at the Sturgeon River Rearing Station at Wolverine. James Thompson, DNR employee of Oden, is shown carrying a net full of trout for planting in Tawas Bay. Glenn Saunders of Paris is on the truck. The trout will head for deeper water and will return to Tawas Bay in about two years, hopefully as trophy fish.—Tawas Herald Photos.

There had been a question in the minds of county commissioners two weeks ago if the tax commission would accept the local equalization figure. The county had accepted the state's recommended factors boosting residential property valuations, but had rejected the state's suggested factors for two other categories-commercial and agricultural. The state had not questioned county equalized valuations in timber cutover and industrial categories.

Following its sales study which increased residential property valuations in Iosco by $8,744,918, the district director of the tax commission had recommended that factors be added to commercial and agricultural categories because a partial sales study in those categories had indicated that

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Last Tuesday night, Stan Kenton and his 19-piece orchestra visited the Tawas area. For those in attendance, the evening was an eyeopener. Stan Kenton and jazz are still very much alive. Those who failed to avail themselves of this once - in - a - lifetime opportunity missed a real cultural happening.

People came from Detroit, Lansing, Ithaca, Houghton Lake, Boyne City, Alpena, Interlochen, Bay City and countless areas to attend the concert. Perhaps it was too close for some of our local cit-

With the exception of the summer art show, there have been no major cultural events in the Tawases for the past 10 years. This was our contribution to the musical growth of this area.

The band did not enter this venture to make money. This is quite evident when you consider the ticket price. Even though the gym was packed nearly to capacity, the band lost a great deal of money. Perhaps we would have cut our losses by charging more, but our idea was not to price tickets out of Tawas' reach.

Amazingly enough, we really do not mind. It was our pleasure to offer the community a unique musical experience. If part of the population chose to ignore this opportunity, that is, of course, their prerogative.

Those in attendance shared an evening of musical thrills that was worth all the time, effort, sweat and worry we put into this con-

Veteran Iosco Official Served State, County and Township

Lloyd S. Little, 82, a former state, county and township official, died Wednesday, May 15, at Tawas Hospital. Funeral services were held Saturday, May 18, at Forshee Chapel, Hale, with the Rev. William Wright of Hemlock Road Baptist Church officiating. Burial was in Evergreen Cemetery, Hale.

tery, Hale.

Born February 20, 1892, at Argyle, Little had lived 50 years in the Sand Lake area of Grant Township. During those years, he had been juring those years, he had been in the insurance and real estate business as well as operating a beef cattle ranch at one

He and his wife, Lula, were married March 14, 1912, at Booneville, Missouri.

He was known throughout the Northeastern Michigan region for his role in government, having represented this district in the state legislature for two terms in the 1920s.

Elected to the Iosco County Board of Supervisors in 1950 to represent Grant Township, he served as a supervisor until 1968, when the county commission form of government was adopted in January of 1969. During that time, he served as the county finance chairman for 14 years.

He served two terms as Fourth District president of the Michigan Association of Supervisors and was an active member of the Alpena Mental Health Board of Di-

Little came out of retirement in 1970 to again enter politics, being elected to the nine-man county board of commissioners in 1970. He served two years on the commission and retired from active role in government on January 1,

He was a member of Hale Masonic Lodge No. 518, Free and Accepted Masons. A 32nd degree Mason, he was a member of the Bay City Consistory. Masonic memorial services were held Friday evening at the funeral chapel.

Besides his wife, he is survived by four grandchildren; four great grandchildren; one brother, Frank Little of Alpena; two sisters, Mrs. Edith Seator of Oscoda and Mrs. Eva Yarger of Pontiac.
