Approve Final Sewer Payment

On recommendation of the water board, final payment of $48,889 to T. A. Forsberg Company, Okemos, for construction of sanitary sewers, was authorized Monday night by the city council.

The contractor completed work on the project last month, which saw construction of 9,330 feet of eight to 10-inch sanitary sewer mains, a 120-foot river crossing and 4,430 feet of six and eight-inch service leads.

The project was financed through special assessment district and general obligation bonds. Following an inspection of streets and private property involved in the construction, the city is holding back $1,000 from the contract to pay the cost of minor repair work which had not been completed. Included is $600 to finance the cost of bituminous asphalt paving on Birch Street, which formerly had been sealed.

City Mgr. Reginald Bublitz said that performance bonds by the contractor were to remain in effect for one year.

In other business, the council entered into agreement with Thomas Jacques and his associate, Thomas McAvoy, for preparing city tree maintenance planning. Cost of this work is to be $1,200 over a six-month period.

Jacques, a graduate forester of Tawas City, and his associate were involved in a survey conducted last spring by student foresters from Michigan State University. Information gained during that survey is to be incorporated in the plan to be prepared for the city.

The city manager said that members of the city crew would be

Tawas City May Apply for Planning Grant

Decide Soon on Regional Sewer Plan

Authorization to use the City of Tawas City as the vehicle to make application for a sewage planning grant under a regional concept was taken under advisement Monday night by the city council.

A representative of Edmands Engineering Company told councilmen that Tawas City had received a high priority from the Michigan Department of Natural Resources for a step one planning grant for pollution abatement.

Application for a planning grant had been submitted by East Tawas and Baldwin Township, but Tawas City's application had received the highest priority—rated 80th out of 500 submitted.

A year ago, the above three local units of government, along with Tawas and Alabaster Townships, had authorized Edmands Engineering to make a preliminary study on a planning grant application under a regional concept.

The Bay City engineering firm, working in harmony with Spicer Engineering, East Tawas' consultant, conducted a limited amount of engineering work to determine if a regional concept for waste water treatment is feasible. Planning on this idea dates back to 1972.

Fact sheets have been prepared by the two engineering firms and Tawas City is to make application to the Environmental Protection Agency for a pollution control planning grant, should other local units of government agree. The study would be financed through 80 percent federal-state participation and 20 percent from the local units.

A meeting has been tentatively scheduled for Thursday, August 14, between representatives of the local units and the engineering firms to determine if the units are still interested in proceeding with the regional concept.

The representative from Edmands Engineering expressed the opinion that the local application had excellent chances for approval in September by EPA.

He said that the federal agency may require a complete survey of existing sanitary sewers in Tawas City and East Tawas to determine the amount of ground water infiltration into those systems. He said that construction of combination systems for both sanitary and storm water was acceptable at one time, but an effort is now being made to separate sewers.

He said this may require television monitoring and special equipment would be placed in sewers to determine points of infiltration. In this event, the application would be amended to aid in funding this costly process.

It is expected that a waste water treatment system to serve the entire Tawas area would cost more than two million dollars. If the first application is successful, a second application for aid in actual construction would have excellent possibilities.

Smoke Survey Set Thursday After Delay

A survey using smoke bombs to detect infiltration of storm water into sanitary sewer mains has been rescheduled for Thursday by the Tawas City Department of Public Works.

The program was to have been held last week, but City Mgr. Reginald Bublitz said that special equipment being provided by a contractor was unavailable.

"We are sending letters Wednesday to property owners where inspections will be made the following day," said Bublitz. "We do not want people to become alarmed if smoke enters buildings through the sewer system."

The city manager emphasized that the smoke is non-toxic and is not harmful.

The city must make corrections to eliminate infiltration of storm water into the sanitary sewer system before the state will give its permission to construct a new force main between the Second Avenue lift station and the waste water treatment plant.

East Tawas Asks Signed Complaints on Dog Nuisances

In answer to numerous complaints over barking dogs, along with the screeching of tires on city streets, East Tawas Council Monday night informed a delegation of property owners that legal action would be taken against offenders if proper complaints are signed with the city police department.

Several residents were present and complained over the continual day and night barking of dogs in one neighborhood. A tape recording was played during the meeting to indicate the high noise level.

In addition, several property owners complained about noisy mufflers on motorcycles and the screech of tires on city streets at all hours of the night.

It was reported the city police department had issued seven tickets last week to motor vehicle owners for excessive noise.

A report by Clerk Clyde Soper indicated that three families had moved out of the city to avoid the din of barking dogs and noisy motor vehicles. He expressed the opinion that the animals and vehicles should not be allowed to become a nuisance.

In other business, the city has learned that a bill has been introduced in the state legislature which will eliminate administration of cities under the present Fourth Class City Act. Less than one-half dozen cities, including East Tawas, operate under this act originally adopted in the 1890s. The city clerk was instructed to contact legislators to determine if elimination of the Fourth Class City Act is pending. According to information received locally, the new act would take effect January 1, 1980.

Depending upon action of the legislature, the city may be required to adopt a new home rule charter, similar to the one developed several years ago by the City of Tawas City.

Paul Ropert, superintendent of public works, announced that Spicer Engineering Company would be conducting test borings in the Tawas Lake area this week in preparation for planning sanitary sewer construction for that area. The borings would be conducted at sites planned for lift stations.

Approval was given by the council for transfer of an SDM license owned by Mrs. Vida T. Garlock and Tawas Holland Hotel Company to Donald and Edward Knight at Bay House Restaurant, 821 Bay Street.

The license had been held in escrow and a new license was obtained by owners of the Holland House, which succeeded the previous ownership.

As soon as requirements are met by owners of the Bay House Restaurant, the state liquor control commission is to approve the transfer.

It was stated that the federal government was allocating 18-billion-dollars to assist local governments in construction of sewage treatment facilities, in the hope that there would eventually be a zero discharge of effluent into streams.

Primary emphasis is being placed by federal and state governments on regional plans for waste treatment and it is expected that this concept would receive approval more readily than if applications were filed by three different local communities.

Many meetings would be required before such a program gets off the ground locally as community leaders would be involved with public officials. In addition, public hearings would be required to allow citizens to express individual viewpoints and to study alternative plans brought out in engineering. Cost of the preliminary study would be $4,000. A decision is to be made shortly by local units of government to determine if it is desirable to have Tawas City submit the application.

RAIN GEAR was much in evidence for exhibitors and visitors during the annual Tawas Bay Art Show last week-end. One exhibitor came equipped with an umbrella, left, as she prepared to cover her display with plastic. Another exhibitor found a dry spot under her display boards and practiced on

Tawas Bay Art Show Was Success Despite Week-End of Rain Showers

It would not be an art show without rain.

That seemed to be the attitude of exhibitors and officials of the Tawas Bay Art Show last week-end as all pitched in to make the annual event a success, despite the wet weather. It was the second straight year the event had been marred by rain.

The crowd attending the exhibit at the Tawas City Park and Iosco County Building was light Saturday morning due to the steady drizzle but, judging from jammed parking lots in the vicinity of the exhibit area, Saturday afternoon's attendance was one of the largest in history.

A sprinkle of rain throughout Sunday had exhibitors covering and uncovering displays most of the day, but the sun finally made an appearance in the afternoon and the concert by Tawas Area High School Band was presented as scheduled. This new feature in the 1975 program was enjoyed by exhibitors and visitors. At the conclusion of the event Sunday afternoon, Tawas Bay Artists presented awards to the following winners:

Three persons were treated Thursday at Tawas Hospital for minor injuries received in a crash on US-23 at East Tawas.

Investigating East Tawas City Police officers said that a car driven by Carl Garth, 71, Troy, was traveling west on Bay Street and made a left hand turn onto US-23. Garth's car collided with vehicles driven by Ernest P. Eagleton, 27, Pontiac, and Raymond D. Czuj, 31, Dearborn Heights.

The Czuj vehicle swerved across US-23 and smashed into a flagpole at the Michigan State Police Post.

A CONCERT by Tawas Area High School Band featured Sunday afternoon's program of the Tawas Bay Art Show. TODAY'S Meditation

from The World's Most Widely Used Devotional Guide
The Upper Room
(Read John 1:43-51)

Let us lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us. (Hebrews 12:1, RSV)

The lady who came to look at the room which was advertised for rental had difficulty in seeing whether the lighting was adequate. Her apparent blindness puzzled me until I realized she had not removed her dark glasses. The incident set me thinking about other kinds of dark glasses which keep us from seeing the good in our surroundings. There are the dark glasses of doubt, fear and most subtle of all, prejudice. Prejudice causes us to judge before carefully examining a situation. Because of his prejudice against Nazareth, Nathaniel was sure that Jesus could not be the Messiah.

What are some of the causes of prejudice that get in our way? Do we hesitate to invite a stranger to our church if he is poorly dressed, has a foreign accent, is of a different race? If so, let us remove our dark glasses and open our minds and hearts to see persons in their true light—God's light. PRAYER

Father, we thank You for the many lessons in open-mindedness which Your Word affords. Help us to grow more like You in the way we treat all Your children. In the name of Christ. Amen.

Are You Properly Prepared to Retire?

By Bernard E. Nash

Let's assume that someone approached you and said: "I'm going to give you 30,000 hours of free time. How will you use those 30,000 hours?"

That question is not as hypothetical as you might think. It's estimated that the average American will have 30,000 hours of expendable time during his retirement years. How well prepared are you to use those hours in a constructive and self-fulfilling way? Even if you have sufficient income to live your retirement years without financial worries, I don't think you would want to spend all of your time fishing, playing golf, watching television, or sitting on a park bench.

Most middle-aged Americans are so preoccupied with making a living and the urgent affairs of the moment that they give little thought to retirement. But if you live long enough—and the odds are you will—the day will come when retirement is not a dream but a reality. Today, there are some 22 million Americans who are 65 years old or older, slightly more than one tenth of our population. The proportion of older persons in our society is bound to grow; through medical advances, people are living longer and the birth rate has decreased significantly.

Because of technological gains and automation, there are pressures for earlier retirement to make way for younger workers. The combination of longer life and earlier retirement has profound social and economic implications. Will older Americans find rewarding outlets after retirement? Will there be sufficient income for them to live in reasonable comfort and dignity? The outlook in my view, is not a dismal one. It's true that thousands of elderly Americans are feeling the pinch of higher prices and have few opportunities to supplement their income by working full- or part-time, but nevertheless the majority of older Americans have more disposable income than their parents or grandparents ever dreamed of having. They have more options open to them.

How do those of us who are not retired prepare ourselves for our later years? It is never too late to start, but I believe that we should begin making retirement plans 10 to 15 years before retirement. Today, in this country, about 43 million persons are between the ages of 45 and 64. This is the group that should be particularly concerned about retirement planning. Many business firms, factories, banks, churches, insurance companies, civic groups, utility companies, and other organizations now consider pre-retirement planning so essential they are holding special seminars. One seminar of this type has been prepared by AIM—Action for Independent Maturity—a division of the American Association of Retired Persons open to persons between the ages of 50 and 65. This seminar consists of eight two-hour sessions built around specific topics: the challenge of retirement, health and safety, housing and location, legal affairs, attitudes and role adjustments, meaningful use of time, sources and amounts of income, and financial planning.

How one lives one's later years is a highly personal matter, and there is no prescription to fit everyone's needs and desires. For some, retirement is satisfying only if they can continue to use work skills acquired in earlier years. Others welcome the opportunity to turn to interests totally unrelated to job skills. Still others seem to have no interest in ever retiring.

Pearl Buck, who was being interviewed on her 80th birthday, said: "I am a far more valuable person today than I was 50 years ago . . . I believe I can honestly say that I have learned more in the last ten years than I learned in any previous decade."

If, at the age of 80, we can echo that spirit, we can truly say we have lived rich and worthwhile lives.

(Mr. Nash is the executive director of the non-profit, non-partisan National Retired Teachers Association and American Association of Retired Persons.)

The plaintiff, who was hospitalized for a considerable length of time, claimed permanent injuries and sustained civil loss because of damage to his motorcycle.

MONUMENT ROAD CONSTRUCTION

Monument Road Construction Starts

An eight-mile stretch on Monument Road cutting through Huron National Forest west of the Tawas was closed to traffic Monday during reconstruction.

Construction on the project began July 20 and completion date is set for November 15.

Closing of the road was announced Friday by the Iosco County Road Commission, in cooperation with the Michigan Department of State Highways and Transportation and the Federal Highway Administration.

Planned improvements of Monument Road and River Road were made possible through the efforts of the road commission in obtaining a $560,000 grant in public lands highway funds.

Monument Road has been closed from the intersection with Kobs Road in Baldwin Township, northwesterly to the intersection with River Road in Oscoda Township.

Motorists are advised to use alternate routes and detours during the reconstruction. River Road is to remain open to traffic during the work.

Editorial—

Why Scuttle NBC?

Rather than see bad feelings between some schools being the major cause of scuttling the Northern B Conference, this newspaper is of the opinion that educators, boards of education and all communities involved should take a new look into the reorganization of the conference. It is still not too late for this action as the NBC has another year of operation remaining before four schools leave the fold.

It is our opinion that everyone involved should put high school athletics back in its proper perspective, be it Tawas Area School District or in any community of the NBC. We are not talking about professional athletics, even though gates are important to finance high school athletic programs, but we are talking about what is intended to be friendly competition among youngsters attending community schools—on the athletic fields and courts, as well as in classrooms for debate and forensics.

Should the NBC fold at the end of the 1975-76 season, it will be a sorry day for high school athletics in North-eastern Michigan as it will be a true indication that we adults are placing the wrong values on athletic competition for our youngsters—the adults who have charge of school affairs will be setting a poor example for tomorrow's adults to follow.

Competition has been a major factor in making the NBC one of the best school affiliations in this region and, despite some hurt feelings and ruffled feathers in the past, the competition has been friendly—as it should be. If all the imagined or real grievances of the past were totaled, most would be found to be among the adults—not the students.

Our suggestion is this: Expand the league into a Northern B-C Conference, with divisions for B and C enrollment competition. Such an arrangement would allow entry of Whittemore-Prescott Area and other schools with no league affiliation, as well as to retain the traditional rivalry between schools where desired. Championship trophies could be awarded in both B and C divisions.

The above solution may seem to be too simplified at this late date, but we believe it to be a logical course of action. A B-C league would solve some of the existing problems and it would mean that one or more schools, which have long been friendly rivals with other NBC schools, would not be cast aside to fend for themselves with an unwanted independent status.

In the meantime, any school which has been accused of displaying unsportsmanlike conduct should re-examine its own program to determine if those charges are true. It is never too late to make amends among friends.

Appeals Board Approves Two Building Variances

Two construction applications which had been denied by this county's building and safety inspection department for nonconformance with the state code were approved Wednesday night by the county building appeals board.

The two appeals were the first submitted to the local board since the county began handling administration of the state building code in April for a number of local units of government.

Variances to the state building code were allowed by the appeals board for Claude McGuire, National City, and Dale Arseneau, Oscoda.

McGuire had submitted an application to the county building and safety inspection department for permission to construct a garage using rough sawn lumber and used lumber (industrial packing crates) in the construction. Francis J. Block, director of the county building and safety inspection department, denied the permit on grounds that the lumber did not meet the state code's provision for grading. The code requires that all lumber be stamped with a grading seal. Block rejected use of the packing crate plywood as it would not meet the state's test for stress in roof construction.

Jack (Ollie) Johnson, chairman of the appeals board, said the board voted to grant the variance from the state's standards to allow McGuire to utilize rough sawn lumber for joists and rafters, as well as allowing use of the five-eighths-inch plywood for roof sheathing. It was stipulated that the building must conform to other provisions of the state building code.

Arseneau had applied for an alteration permit for a multiple family dwelling. The application requested permission to remove one interior stairway to serve the second floor. The building has one exterior stairway.

Block denied closing of the stairway due to nonconformance with the building code, plus the lack of architectural plans for the work.

The appeals board allowed closing of the interior stairway provided the applicant constructs a second exterior stairway to the upstairs. A retired Flint fireman, Johnson said that it was mandatory to have two routes of egress to the ground floor in multiple family housing.

The board ruled that it had no jurisdiction over a provision in the code requiring architectural plans for construction.

Two of the four other members of the appeals board attending the meeting were Wayne Vaughan of East Tawas and Ronald Lamrock of Oscoda, who are both associated in the building trades.

Funeral Held for Corey E. St. James

Funeral services for Corey Eva St. James, 75, of Whittemore, were held Saturday morning, August 2, from St. James Catholic Church, Whittemore. The Rev. Fr. John B. Tupper said the funeral Mass and burial was at St. James Cemetery.

She was born June 17, 1900, at St. Johns, and died Wednesday morning, July 30, at Flint. Her husband, Noe St. James, preceded her in death in 1968.

Survivors include five sons, Nephthalie and Edward of Flint, Elwood of Whittemore, Charles of Clio and Cleudis of Phoenix, Arizona; four daughters, Sister Mary Bernarde of Monroe, Mrs. Marie Kauer of Hubbard Lake, Mrs. Anna Ellis of Mt. Pleasant and Mrs. Madeline Bill of Durand; 21 grandchildren, and five great grandchildren.

A Rosary service was conducted Friday evening, August 1, at the Jacques and Kobs Funeral Home West Chapel, Tawas City.

Saginaw Bank Low Bidder on School Tax Notes

Michigan National Bank of Saginaw was low bidder for providing $675,000 in tax anticipation notes to operate Tawas Area School until tax collection time in December.

At Wednesday night's special meeting of the board of education, MNB submitted an interest rate of 4.75 percent for purchase of the school's notes.

The only other bid received was from Peoples State Bank of East Tawas. This bid called for an interest rate of 5.25 percent.

John Lippert, president of Peoples State Bank, attended the bid opening and termed the Saginaw firm's interest rate excellent, stating it was the second lowest bid submitted this year in the state.

With receipt August 1 of a $38-

900 state aid payment, David Kennedy, board of education treasurer, said the school's cash crisis was not as critical as previously anticipated.

The school's general fund is expected to have a balance of $13,016.75 on August 8 after payment of a $25,000 payroll. A further projection by Kennedy indicated that the general fund balance would be $3,016.45 on August 22 after paying the second August payroll of $25,000. Receipts during August would include $15,000 collected in delinquent taxes.

Regardless of the improved financial picture, Tawas Area School will still require the $675,000 in tax anticipation notes to cover the cost of operation until receipt of property taxes starting in December.

In other business, Tawas Area Band was given formal approval to begin planning for a campaign to raise funds for a bi-centennial related trip during the next school year.

Gene Salamony, director, said that preliminary discussion had been held with representatives of Tawas Area Band Boosters, but action on planning awaited formal approval of the board of education.

With approval Wednesday night, Salamony said the band booster club would assist in raising funds to finance the band's out-of-state trip. The trip probably would be made during spring vacation of 1976.

Prin. John Alexander announced that the school had received an offer of $29,500 for the building trades house which was constructed last term at East Tawas. This is the only offer received to date by the school and 30 days was given by the board of education to arrange financing.

Herman Rollin, who has served as principal of the Tawas City Elementary Unit, has been named principal of both elementary schools following the recent resignation of Mrs. Barbara Cuthbertson, former principal at East Tawas. Mrs. Cuthbertson is to return to classroom teaching.

The board of education approved the hiring of three teachers: Gary Paekard, fifth grade social studies to replace Mrs. Carl (Lulu) Schaaf, who retired at the end of the last term; Gail Forbig, learning disabilities teacher, a new position which has been required by the state department of education; Belinda Baker, who will teach French in the high school. This contract is to be for one year as the regular instructor was given a one-year leave of absence.

Resignation of David Gadomsky from the middle school staff was accepted.

New Books Listed by I-A Library

The following are new books that can be found in many of the branches of Iosco-Arenac Regional Library:

Leonard DeVries has compiled an interesting browsing book called "The Wonderful World of American Advertisements: 1865-1900." With the ending of the Civil War came cheap paper and new advertising techniques. Women were recognized as important consumers by advertisers. Presented in this book are 50 years of popular advertisements. They provide a first-hand look at the styles and tempo of the time.

"Watchman's Stone" is a new novel by Rona Randall. Elizabeth marries Calum, despite warnings from her own gift of clairvoyance. In her isolated castle, she soon finds brooding forces closing in on her and finds herself caught up in a series of terrifying events. Elizabeth soon begins to wonder who will benefit most from her death.

The "Detroit Lions" by Jerry Green is a good book to get yourself primed for the upcoming football season. Going back into the 1930s, this fully illustrated book covers the history of the Lions. The Lions are shown to be a team of character and characters. Besides showing many of the great games and seasons, many of the great Lions, such as Bobby Layne and Joe Schmidt, are discussed in detail. Also included are the Lions all-time season records, an all-time roster and many of the football records held by the Lions.

Grant Festival Opens Today

Grant Township summer festival, which has been held continuously since the township's centennial observance in 1967, is scheduled to be held from Wednesday (today) through Sunday.

The program is being sponsored by Sand Lake Heights Men's Association with support of various organizations of Grant Township.

Headquarters for most of the activities will be the new community building at Sand Lake. The shell of this 40 by 80-foot concrete block building was started last October and completed in time for the annual Sand Lake winter carnival held in February. Since then, work on the interior has been completed.

This new building is part of the community recreational center which has been developed, including tennis courts, a playground and softball field. Much of the work has been through the voluntary efforts of residents, both year around and seasonal.

Last year, the summer festival raised $5,000 for the community center project and the goal this year is to raise $7,500.

The program opens at 12 o'clock noon today with a flag raising ceremony at the community building. Reed's World of Fun Shows is scheduled to open in the afternoon, there will be a square dance at 7:00 p. m. and crowning of the bi-centennial queen at 8:00 p. m.

Highlight of the program Thursday will be a concert at 7:00 p. m. by Tawas Area High School Band. Major activity on Friday will be a teen dance at 8:00 p. m.

Saturday is the big day in the program with a parade scheduled at 10:00 a. m. An auction sale is to follow at 12 o'clock noon, there will be a garden tractor pulling contest at 12:30 p. m., a bow hunters' round at 1:00 p. m., fire department water ball fight at 2:00 p. m. J. and J. and the Imperials Polka Band of Detroit will furnish music for an adult dance at 9:00 p. m.

The traditional pancake and sausage breakfast will open Sunday's program from 7:00 to 10:00 a. m. There will be a log sawing contest at 1:00 p. m. and grand prize drawing at 3:00 p. m.

Local organizations are to sponsor booths for games and contests.

Drop In Centers Operated by Trio Council on Aging

As a new year of federal funding starts, Trio Council on Aging again encourages older residents of Iosco, Ogemaw and Roscommon Counties to participate in programs sponsored under the Older Americans Act as amended in 1965.

There have been some misconceptions concerning the program in the past which Trio Council on Aging hopes to correct.

Nutritional meals served at drop in centers are for all older persons residing in the county, as well as guests who desire to attend. Supportive services including transportation, Outreach and Reassurance, are for all older Americans.

Federal funds received come directly through the Office of Services to the Aging, Lansing, and are locally matched by the county board of commissioners. The actual cost to individuals, other than local tax dollars, is money that those persons have paid for years to the federal government and is now being returned to provide these services.

Programs are established to assist all older persons, no matter what their income may be, and each older person should be able to take advantage of all the services provided.

Meals are at a donation only and all other services are provided free of charge, other than a donation for out-of-county trips with special transportation.

Trio Council on Aging points out that four drop in centers are located in Iosco County and older persons are encouraged to visit those centers, enjoy a cup of coffee and meet center managers.

The Tawas area center is located at the American Legion Hall, 120 West River Street, Tawas City. Manager is Joan Cowan and hours are from 10:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m. daily. Meals are served Monday

The center at Hale is located in the elementary school, 204 West Esmond Road. Evelyn Chene is center manager and hours are from 9:00 a. m. to 3:00 p. m. A noon meal is served Tuesday and Thursday.

Marion Aspin and Bessie Curtis are managers of the center located at the Grant Township Fire Hall, Sand Lake. Hours are from 10:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m. daily and noon meals are served Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

The fourth center is located in the AuSable Township Hall with Ellen Glidden as manager. Center hours are from 10:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m. and meals are served Monday through Friday at 12 o'clock noon.

Activities scheduled during August at the center in Tawas City include quilting, cards and social hours. Activities at Hale include crafts, a blood pressure clinic, checkers, games, macrame, sewing, weaving, movies, decoupage and a pot-luck picnic.

Features of Sand Lake's schedule are euchre, games and social activities, while social activities, cards and a pot-luck luncheon are planned at AuSable-Oscoda.

Tawas Area School Hopes to Retain Class B Conference

Hoping that some class B schools of the Northern B Conference might still be convinced to continue athletic and academic affiliation in the present league, yet not wanting to jeopardize its invitation to join a new league in the event that realignment of the NBC is impossible, Tawas Area Board of Education Wednesday night tabled action on the school's NBC status until the next regular meeting on August 11.

The eight-school Northern B Conference was thrown into a shambles three weeks ago when boards of education of four school districts formally announced they intended to pull out of the affiliation in 1976 and form a new league.

Rumors earlier this year that schools at Pinconning, Gladwin and Standish-Sterling were considering a move to pull out of the NBC and form a new conference proved to be a fact last month. The above three schools were joined by Ogemaw Heights, another NBC member, in joining with Whittemore-Prescott Area School in discussions on forming a new conference.

Invited last May to join the above schools in formation of a new league, officials of Tawas Area School have been reluctant to scuttle a league which has provided outstanding competition since it was first organized in 1962. Adding to the concern of school officials here is the fact that Oscoda Area School has not been invited to join the new conference. Officials of Oscoda Area School apparently have remained silent during past discussions on the proposed scuttling of the NBC, but indicated last week to Dr. Robert A. Halle, Tawas Area School superintendent, that the school desired to remain in the NBC or be included in formation of any new league.

Oscoda Area School has not been invited to join the new conference because of past grievances and bad feelings held by at least two of the NBC schools toward Oscoda. In addition, other schools apparently desire to form a league composed of more equal enrollments, as well as to reduce travel.

James Papenfus, athletic director at Tawas Area School, reported in May that officials of both Carrollton and Essexville Garber stated that, should three schools leave the conference, a five-school league composed of remaining NBC members would not be practical.

Although any new alignment of NBC schools seemed doomed last month with the decision of Ogemaw Heights to leave the league in 1976, Dr. James Jacques, a member of Tawas Area Board of Education, pointed out Wednesday night that Carrollton and Essexville Garber had taken no official action to leave the NBC. He felt that the league could still be salvaged by inviting other schools to join the four remaining schools in a new alignment.

The NBC has been noted for its well balanced athletic teams and competitive spirit since its organization 13 years ago. The opinion was expressed that enrollments of the present eight-member league were not as unequal as believed by some school officials, who have contended they are too small to compete with Oscoda, Carrollton and Essexville Garber. It was stated Wednesday night that any new league which would include much smaller schools would only tend to "water down" competition.

At this point, however, four schools have announced their intentions to drop out of the NBC. Tawas Area could find itself with Oscoda without any league affiliation and operating as an independent. Like Whittemore - Prescott Area School, which has not been affiliated with a league for a number of years, this could be a disaster as transportation costs mount with independent status and the excitement of league competition would reduce gates for athletic events, which would injure financing of sports programs.

Prior to the next regular board of education meeting on August 11, officials of Tawas Area School are to contact Essexville Garber and Carrollton to learn the intentions of those two schools regarding the future status of the NBC. Members of the athletic department are to be present at the next meeting when a final decision is made by Tawas Area School regarding its NBC status.

LOOKING BACKWARD—

Voters Give Majority to McCready

15 Years Ago—
August 3, 1960—William McCready of Tawas City piled up a surprising majority to defeat Paul Harvey, incumbent, for the Republican nomination as county prosecuting attorney in the August primary election.

L. G. McKay Sr. used a hand shovel to turn over the first piece of soil which officially marked the start of construction on the new Tawas City branch office of Peoples State Bank.

Elmer Werth of East Tawas was an alternate delegate from the 10th Congressional District during the five-day Republican convention at Chicago, Illinois. He shook hands with Vice Pres. Richard Nixon during the GOP presidential nominee's visit with the Michigan delegation.

A three-run homer by Orville Revord helped Tawas City gain a 9-8 victory over Hale Sunday.

Ten Tawas City youngsters used their initiative to gain money for the national polio fund. They held a stage show on the front porch of the Herbert Blust residence. Taking part were Robert, Ricky and Patti Ann Bublitz; Tina, Vicki and Cheryl Myles; Linda and James Lansky; Sandra and Vickie Blust.

25 Years Ago—
August 4, 1950—More than 1,000 visitors will inspect National Gypsum Company's National City plant on August 15 during an open house celebrating the company's 25th anniversary.

Representatives of four telephone companies met with Sherman Township officials to discuss the feasibility of extending service into that unassigned area. A survey is to be made soon to determine the desires of the people.

Joseph Bannister has leased the pool room and gasoline station at Hale from Howard Brindley.

The recently enacted draft law has been put into effect. President Truman ordered an expansion of the fighting forces in view of the Korean situation.

35 Years Ago—
August 2, 1940—Iosco County will have an airport if negotiations are successful in securing a suitable site, according to Col. Floyd E. Evans of the Michigan Department of Aeronautics. The airport will be built by the state. The site is to be furnished by the county and a special committee appointed by William Hatton, chairman of the board of supervisors, has taken options on several parcels of land during the past week.

The "Gale," a 21-foot keel boat, will be launched this week-end at the Mallon Boat Works in Tawas City. It was constructed of solid mahogany and its beautiful lines show the fine craftsmanship of the workmen of the local firm. The boat was built at a cost of $1,000.

Life guards have been established at the bathing beaches in the Tawas City Park and the state park at East Tawas through a county wide WPA recreational project.

Detroit and Wayne County are complaining that Wayne County is making too large an investment in out state county roads in the form of license plate fees. Dr. L. Weber, executive director of the Michigan Association of Road Commissioners, has countered with the argument that Wayne motor vehicles make an investment of only $1.62 per year in weight tax for the maintenance and construction of thousands of miles of Michigan county roads. "Since thousands of Detroiters own and rent summer or fall camps throughout the state and make use of local out state roads in pursuit of recreation, Detroit and Wayne County should invest something in rural highways," said Weber.

At the final meeting of the Iosco County Allocation Board, the county's share of the 15 mills of taxes was set at 7.750. The largest allocation to all of 21 school districts was 7.250 mills, while taxes to be received by townships range from one-half mill in Burleigh Township to 2.750 mills in Oscoda Township. Tawas Township does not spread a tax for operational purposes.

File Early to Establish Social Security Eligibility

Question: I will be 65 in December, but since I am planning to work for several more years, I figured there is no point in filing for social security yet. My next-door neighbor says I should go ahead and apply anyway. Is she right?

Answer: Even though you continue to work, you should file an application about three months before you reach 65 to establish your eligibility for social security retirement benefits and medicare. This way, your benefits can start as soon as you stop working. You may be entitled to some payments, depending on the amount of your earnings. You do not have to stop working to have medicare, so your protection can start as soon as you reach 65.

Question: Some time ago, I went to a social security office to apply for supplemental security income on the basis of disability. I just got a letter from a state agency telling me I have to be examined by a doctor. What does the state have to do with it?

Answer: Under the supplemental security income law, the state disability determinations service decides whether an applicant meets the disability requirements. The state agency may ask a doctor or other medical specialist to examine the applicant.

Question: Sometimes when I send in a medicare medical insurance claim, I get a letter asking what a particular bill was for or why I went to the doctor. I thought the bills I send with my claims give all the necessary information,

Proceedings of Iosco County Board of Commissioners

JULY SESSION

July 16, 1975

Pursuant to established schedule, the Iosco County Board of Commissioners was called to order at 9:30 a. m. by Chairman Foster and the roll called.

Present: Foster (District 1), Griffin (District 2), Burdett (District 3), Fox (District 4) and Wereley (District 5).

Absent: None
Chairman Foster reported on having been requested by Edmonds Engineering representatives to accompany them to Chicago for a meeting tomorrow concerning the funding for the new water supply system to serve the Cities of East Tawas and Tawas City and the Township of Baldwin. He then referred to an obligation to attend a labor meeting at 10:30 a. m. and turned the meeting over to Vice-Chairman Burdett.

The communications were thereupon read by the clerk and referred to the proper committees.

At 10:45 a. m., a brief recess was ordered by the chairman.

Upon call to order at 10:50 a. m., Roy Bergstrom, administrator of the Iosco Medical Care Facility, addressed the board in reference to a letter of intent he submitted to the East Central Michigan Comprehensive Health Planning Council on April 23, 1975, seeking approval for proposed expansion of the county facility by 70 units, reporting that a letter he received from the E. C. M. C. H. P. C. indicates that the health facilities committee has recommended that the executive committee of the E. C. M. C. H. P. C. deny the proposal for the reasons: (1) That there was no demonstrated ability to finance the project and (2) that projected costs per bed appear excessive.

Bergstrom further reported in reference to an additional communication from the sub-committee indicating their recommendation for approval of a proposal submitted by Provincial House, Inc., of Lansing, Michigan, a private institution, for construction of a 117-bed long-term care facility in Tawas City on M-55. Continuing, Bergstrom explained that, while there has been no cost to the county to date (a period of 8½ years) for operation of the facility, rising costs due to higher salaries etc. are beginning to outstrip revenues, which will soon result in a cost to the county of approximately $85,000 per year unless the facility is expanded from the present inefficient level of 64-beds to the 100-125 range determined necessary for optimum efficiency; further advising that the state report indicates that the county facility will require 176 additional beds by 1980.

In conclusion, Bergstrom advised that competition from a private nursing home such as that proposed by Provincial House could result in further cost to the county in the future, thereupon requesting a decision from the board with regard to proceeding with the proposed expansion, and urging that legislators and the E. C. M. C. H. P. C. be contacted, and appeal procedures initiated if necessary; and further requesting that a meeting be held on July 23, at 7:30 p. m., with social service board members, board of commissioners committee members and C. P. A. Harold Knight to discuss the matter and determine a course of action with respect to the proposed expansion.

Mr. John D. Prior, recently appointed to the United Steelworkers of America District 29 staff, appeared before the board to introduce himself and meet the board members.

The board recessed for committee work at 11:20 a. m. upon order of the chairman, to stand in recess until 1:30 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION
Upon call to order at 1:30 p. m., the roll was called, all members being present.

The clerk reported to the board on having received a check in the amount of $225.38 from the Myles Insurance Company for payment of damage to one of the sheriff's vehicles, indicating that he endorsed the check over to the sheriff's department.

Area Insurance Agent James Abney and CETA Coordinator John Pelto appeared before the board to discuss life insurance coverage for CETA employees. Abney advised that the CETA employees could be included under the county contract, with a separate billing to be paid by CETA, indicating that the inclusion would probably result in a reduction in the over-all rate, or at least offset a projected increase of $.04 per $1,000 of coverage under the present contract.

In further discussion with Mr.

Pelto, he was questioned by the board in reference to a CETA employee that was released but paid for an additional week, whereupon he explained that the position had been abolished and there was no work for her to do, although she was committed through July 18th.

At 2:00 p. m., committees were ordered to their respective duties, the board to stand in recess until 3:00 p. m.

County Airport Manager Wilbur Roach appeared before the board and requested to meet with the aeronautics committee regarding notification he received from "NEAT" Fixed Base Operator R. G. Schmidt that he will discontinue to provide aviation gas service beyond July 13th. Roach was advised that it was too late to take any action this date, but that the committee will meet with him on Friday, July 18th, and act on the matter at the next regular meeting.

County Road Commission Engineer/Manager James Delahanty appeared before the board to discuss their offer to establish an escrow account, with respect to the resolution being sought from the board to authorize a bond issue to finance their new proposed central garage and office facility, to guarantee payment of principal and interest on the bonds should the road commission be unable to meet the obligation from their weight and gas tax revenues at any time. He indicated that the road commissioners will act on the resolution tomorrow, whereupon a copy will be furnished to the board. In further discussion, a recommendation by County Treasurer Nelkie that the entire escrow amount of approximately $65,000 be deposited in a single bank account to obtain a better interest rate was raised by Commissioner Griffin, whereupon Delahanty advanced the argument that the amount should be divided and deposited in two separate banks due to the $40,000 limitation on insurance by the F. D. I. C.

Commissioner Griffin thereupon presented the following resolution and moved its adoption, motion being supported by Fox and carried.

Honorable Board of Commissioners:

Your finance committee recommends that, contingent upon the Iosco County Road Commission adopting a resolution providing for an escrow as proposed by letter of July 14, 1975, and the inclusion of the escrow provision in the bond resolution, said resolution authorizing the issuance of county motor vehicle highway fund bonds in the aggregate principal amount of $900,000 and pledging the faith and credit of Iosco County be adopted; further, that this resolution in no way negates the assurance previously provided to this board by the road commission, that upon completion of the central garage a standby vehicle will be continuously maintained in the Hale area for snow removal emergencies.

Signed: Donald G. Griffin, William G. Wereley, Jos. W. Fox

RESOLUTION OF BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS OF IOSCO COUNTY AUTHORIZING THE ISSUANCE OF COUNTY MOTOR VEHICLE HIGHWAY FUND BONDS IN THE AGGREGATE PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF $900,000

(on file in the office of the county clerk; not printed here due to its length)

Delahanty entered into further discussion with board members with regard to enforcement of the Soil Erosion and Sedimentation Control Act and the plan adopted by the board, whereupon Chairman Foster advised that the county adopted standards and specifications established by the Soil Conservation District.

Finance Chairman Griffin presented and moved adoption of the following resolutions:

Honorable Board of Commissioners:

Your finance committee recommends that the travel vouchers submitted by Road Commission Members Killey, Conley, and Aulerich, in the amounts of $8.25, $120.90 and $79.93 respectively, be approved for payment from road commission funds.

Signed: D. G. Griffin, William G. Wereley, Joseph W. Fox

Supported by Fox and carried.

Honorable Board of Commissioners:

Whereas, a resolution establishing rules and regulations governing reimbursement for travel expense was adopted by this honorable board on March 6, 1974; and Whereas, amendments were adopted on October 16, 1974, to increase mileage to $.14 per mile, and March 19, 1975, to require receipts for meals and lodging; therefore,

Be it resolved that said resolution be further amended to provide:

that all expense vouchers shall be audited and approved by the board of commissioners, or the finance committee thereof, before payment shall be made.

Signed: D. G. Griffin, William G. Wereley, Joseph W. Fox

Supported by Fox and carried.

Honorable Board of Commissioners:

Your equalization and finance committee recommends that the equalization department be authorized to advertise for bids on tax statements, 28,000 being required.

Signed: D. G. Griffin, William G. Wereley, Joseph W. Fox

Supported by Wereley and carried.

Honorable Board of Commissioners:

Your finance committee recommends that $330 be disbursed to the Glen Staley Post No. 422, American Legion, of Hale, Michigan, for the setting of 22 veterans' grave marker foundations during the period of February 21, 1972 through July 15, 1975; further, that the post be advised that future billings must be submitted on a quarterly basis.

Signed: D. G. Griffin, Joseph W. Fox, William G. Wereley

Supported by Wereley and carried.

Honorable Board of Commissioners:

Your finance committee recommends that the treasurer disburse the $7,500 appropriated for the Trio Council on Aging in the following manner:

Honorable Board of Commissioners:

Your finance committee recommends that the salary, per diem and travel vouchers of the board members be approved for payment as presented.

Signed: D. G. Griffin, Joseph W. Fox, William G. Wereley

Commissioner Fox presented and moved adoption of the following resolution, motion being supported by Wereley and carried.

Honorable Board of Commissioners:

Your building and grounds committee recommends that a ban be imposed to prohibit all hunting on the county airport property and that the airport manager be authorized to post "no hunting" and "no trespassing" signs at appropriate points along the airport boundaries.

Signed: Joseph W. Fox, D. G. Griffin

Commissioner Wereley, reporting for the legislative committee, indicated, with reference to Representative Jondahl's proposed bill for revision of the juvenile code and Probate Judge McCready's letter to the board expressing his vigorous opposition thereto, that there are still some questions in the matter and that he would like it tabled until the next meeting; and with reference to the letter from the Department of Natural Resources listing state-owned mineral lands scheduled to be offered for oil and gas leasing at a public auction sale in Lansing beginning August 18, 1975, proposed that the entire communication be posted on the bulletin board in the lobby of the county building.

Mr. Wereley then presented the following resolution, moving its adoption, motion being supported by Burdett and carried.

Honorable Board of Commissioners:

Your legislative committee recommends that Iosco County concur with the resolution of Manistee County supporting the Michigan Association of Counties in their actions regarding the sale of Consumers Power Company property, and that copies of this endorsement be sent to Congressman Ruppe, Senator Griffin, A. Barry McGuire, executive director of M. A. C., Representative Prescott and Senators Davis and Young.

Signed: William G. Wereley, Mary Jane Burdett

It was moved by Wereley and supported by Griffin that the clerk be instructed to advise Mr. Weldon Johnson, Montmorency County coordinator, of Iosco County's concern in the matter of action taken by the State Tax Commission in its establishment of state equalized valuations, and to further advise him of the board's interest in further information on the proposed class-action law suit. Motion carried.

Continuing, Wereley commented on the appeals that were instituted by Plainfield Township contesting the equalized valuations established both by the county and the state, indicating that he felt that no action is required at this time, further advising that the matters would be reviewed by committee on Friday morning.

Finance Chairman Griffin presented and moved adoption of the following resolution, motion being supported by Fox and carried.

Honorable Board of Commissioners:

Your finance committee recommends that any per diem and travel expense paid by board members for work in the equalization department until the hiring of a new director be charged to the budget of the equalization department.

Signed: D. G. Griffin, William G. Wereley, Joseph W. Fox

Continuing, Griffin, reported on the minutes of the statutory finance committee meetings of July 15 and 16, 1975, thereupon moving acceptance of the report. Motion supported by Wereley and carried.

CETA Coordinator John Pelto reported to the board on sidewalk repair work being performed in Tawas City under a CETA Title I summer youth program administered through the Mid-Michigan Alliance, reporting there to be some controversy between the city and a local contractor over bidding procedures and that he proposes to withdraw the CETA people from the project until the matter is resolved.

Chairman Foster thereupon proposed that the board establish policy and set up some guidelines to assist Mr. Pelto with the Title I program, advising that they will take up the matter at the committee meeting scheduled for Friday.

In further discussion, the following matters were raised by Pelto for consideration by the board:

Asked about tendering payment to James Abney to institute life insurance coverage for CETA employees without delay—advised to submit detailed voucher to the clerk's office for a master check.

Asked if any objection to the use of one of the summer youth program Title I employees as temporary help for the building administration and himself—no objection indicated by the board.

Asked the board's opinion with respect to overtime compensation for CETA employees—recommended by the board that compensatory time off be substituted in lieu of overtime compensation.

In conclusion, Pelto indicated he would present budgets for review by committee on Friday.

Edward Siefert, Iosco friend of the court, reported to the board on a conference he recently attended in Potoskey, commenting on recent legislation under which the State Department of Social Services will remit to the county 25% of all child support being forwarded to the state by the county clerk under order of the circuit court where recipients are drawing A. D. C., indicating the rebate to the county will total approximately $15,000 per year. He further reported on total support monies and fees collected by the clerk's office and requested authorization to hire an investigator at approximately $10,000 per year.

Commissioner Fox, reporting for the building and grounds committee, presented and moved adoption of the following resolution, motion being supported by Griffin and carried.
