TA Borrows Against Allocated Taxes

Opinion Survey Going to Voters

comments from both 'yes' and 'no' voters." This independent opinion survey is only the first step of a many-phased approach to an extremely complex problem. Approximately 100 persons are involved in the effort and responses are needed by Wednesday, July 28, in order to formulate recommendations. Six question areas are covered in the survey as follows: "Too many frills," "Poor administration," "Lack of discipline," "Poor bussing system," "Curriculum," "Taxes too high already." Persons receiving the survey forms are requested to submit a brief explanation listing their opinion on each item checked.

Tawas Area Board of Education Monday night borrowed against its entire operating revenue existing at this time for 1976-77.

Tax anticipation notes totaling $776,000 were sold to Citizens Commercial and Savings Bank of Detroit and Peoples State Bank of East Tawas, which submitted the low interest rate of 4.35 percent among two bids opened.

The above amount represents the 9.25 mills of taxes which all schools received from the county tax allocation board earlier this year. The school district has a state equalized valuation of approximately $84,000,000.

The $776,000 is necessary to finance school operation through December, inasmuch as local taxes will not be collected until that time and the district receives no membership aid from the state effective this year.

In the meantime, voters will go to the polls August 26 in a second attempt to secure additional millage to make up the difference between the above allocated taxes and a total operational budget in excess of $2,000,000.

At a special work session of the board of education held Monday night, Supt. Robert A. Halle and board members pared approximately $30,000 from the budget which was adopted earlier this year. Much of this decrease is through a reduction in total staff members.

The latest cut in the budget came this week with the announcement that Gene Salamony, band director, was leaving the district after accepting a new position. Carl Brien, who had been assistant director, is to take Salamony's position and no assistant band director is to be hired.

There is to be a general shifting of teaching positions in the middle school as a consequence of a lower enrollment in grades six through eight. Elimination of a coaching position and possible dropping of the summer band program, which was to start shortly, are being considered as other economy moves for the 1976-77 school year.

At the organizational meeting of the Citizens Advisory Committee last Thursday night, a subcommittee was named to review the school's 1976-77 operational budget and recommendations are to be made by that committee prior to August 9. The board of education must make its final decision by that date concerning the actual millage proposal to be placed before voters.

Another subcommittee formed to conduct an opinion survey concerning reasons why the previous school millage proposal was defeated completed the first phase of its work Monday night.

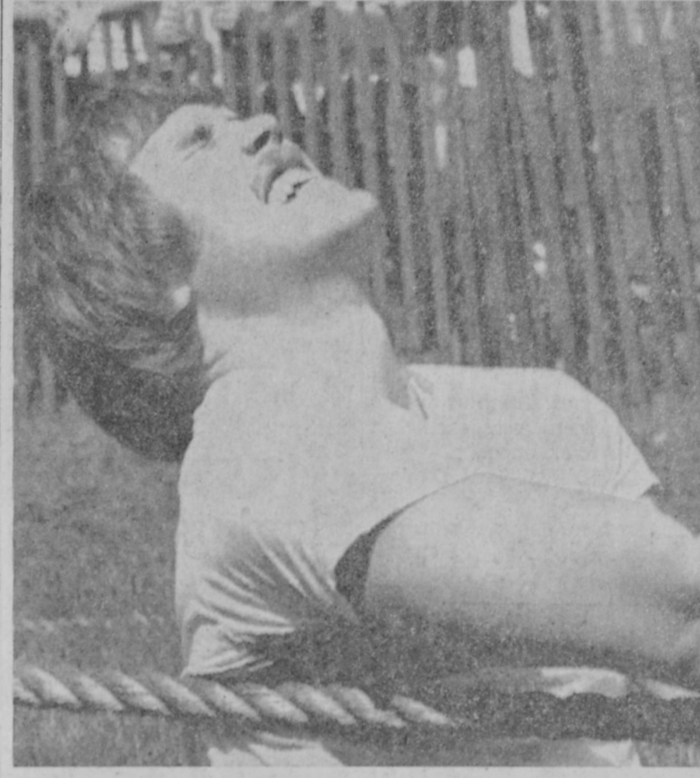

Letters are to be mailed this week to voters asking them to take five minutes of their time to fill out the opinion survey. Those persons receiving the survey are asked not to sign the form.

"As an informed citizen, we value your opinion, whether that opinion allowed you to support or not support the last issue," states the letter. "We also welcome comments you might have heard from others regarding their feelings; in other words, we are soliciting

Council Advised to Follow Special Assessment Steps

A verbal report from the city attorney advised the city council to follow special assessment procedures prescribed by city ordinance rather than to commence work before legal steps are completed.

This was the word at Monday night's meeting of the Tawas City Council in regard to a special assessment district along US-23 from Coho City Marina to Acapulco Beach Cabins.

At its last meeting, Peter A. Popp, who circulated petitions requesting the special assessment sewer district, complained over the length of time required for the project. At the request of the council, the city attorney was asked if the city could obtain a loan on the project and construct the line while the special assessment district is being established.

City Atty. Kenneth Myles advised against such a move. However, the council adopted its second resolution on this project at its last meeting and a public hearing is scheduled for Monday, August 2, and it was stated two weeks ago that work is expected within two months.

In other business Monday night, a report from the cemetery board indicated that an "L" shape piece of property on the southwest side of the existing Emanuel Lutheran Cemetery was sold to Emanuel Lutheran Church at a price of $700. In addition, a 174-foot by 475-foot piece of property north of Emanuel Lutheran Cemetery was offered to the church at a cost of $1,730.

Plans are now being prepared by Edmands Engineering Company for expansion of Memory Gardens Cemetery. Two plans are to be presented with about 1,500 sites in each plan.

A report from the meeting of the planning commission held Thursday night indicated that the commission would consider a recommendation to the city council concerning a zoning change for a parcel of land at the baseball field as the proposed location for the American Legion Hall.

A representative of a Lapeer firm is to inspect the city's tennis court on First Avenue for possible color coat application on the entire playing surface.

Legion to Hear Latest Proposal

The latest proposal on the sale of the American Legion Hall in Tawas City will be acted upon at the regular meeting of Jesse C. Hodder Post No. 189 Thursday night, 7:30 o'clock.

All past and present members of the post are asked to attend and to help decide on the present building and a proposed new building program.

Under consideration for several years has been a proposition from Dr. John D. LeClair to purchase the property and utilize it in expansion of the city's commercial area.

At the present time, the city council is considering a request to utilize a city-owned property on the west side of the baseball field along North Street as a site for a new hall. A change in zoning would be required if the property is utilized for this purpose.

Undercover Agents Aid in Mass Arrest

A cooperative effort between Iosco County Sheriff George Westcott, Pros. Atty. Stephen H. Naegele and undercover agents resulted in the arrest of 14 persons over the week-end on charges of violating the state's controlled substances act.

Undercover agents from several downstate counties made purchases of marijuana and controlled drugs as the sheriff's department focused its investigative efforts at parks and recreational areas of the county.

Arrest sites included the East Tawas City Park, along US-23 in front of the Tawas City Park, Sand Lake, Rollways Campground, Oscoda Township beach and Footesite.

Det. Michael Welch of the sheriff's department said that those arrested were residents of Saginaw, Madison Heights and Swartz Creek and ranged in age from 16 to 25 years.

One person was arrested with controlled substances in his possession with a street value of $400.

Sheriff's Dept. Lists Complaints

Three breakings and enterings and two larcenies were investigated last week by Iosco County Sheriff's Department.

Burglaries were reported Saturday by Harvey Johnson and Charles Hugo, both of whom own cabins on Londo Lake. Fishing equipment valued at $350 was stolen at the Johnson cabin.

The third burglary was reported by Doris Gibson, Kokosing Road, Plainfield Township.

Two larcenies of water skis were reported Sunday at Sand Lake. The skis were owned by Louis J. Moll and Robert C. Thomas.

Community Chest Organizes for Drive

Six new members of Tawas-Whittemore-Hale Community Chest were introduced at Thursday night's meeting of the board of directors held at Tawas Chamber of Commerce office.

New board members include Mrs. Norma Worsham, Thomas Pintkowski, the Rev. Willis Braun, Robert McDonald, Gary Wood and Gawain Teusher. The board numbers 24 members.

Two new officers this year include Richard Pfahl, president, and Clara Bolen, vice president. Continuing in offices held last year are Mrs. Joanne Hantz, secretary, and Charles Palmer, treasurer.

Dates and team assignments were made for interviewing agency participants on August 19.

Ray Kesler of Hale, retired school superintendent, is to be the 1976-77 drive chairman assisted by McDonald, who served as last year's drive chairman.

The campaign has been established for October 4, through October 18.

TC Council Sets Street Inspection

Tawas City Council is to hold a special planning session Thursday evening to make a determination on recommendations from the city manager for street paving work this summer.

Two months ago, the council authorized blacktop work on four streets and are to inspect several streets this week for double sealcoat work. Other heavily used streets are to be inspected for future blacktop work.

In recent years, the city has favored plant mix blacktop over the use of sealcoat as being more economical in the long run, but sealcoat has proven practical in some instances where streets are properly drained.

"I feel that there are streets which could be sealcoated for the reason that they may not be ready for the more expensive blacktop at this time and the sealcoat would provide stabilization and dust control until a later date when blacktop would be considered," stated City Mgr. Reginald Blublitz.

"We know that all streets cannot be blacktopped in one or even five years, but leaving an old deteriorated blacktop or gravel street alone until financing permits blacktop is not in the best interest of persons living on those streets."

Blublitz submitted a list of streets based on a priority from the standpoint of observation concerning traffic, dust and existing surface conditions. He believed that the city could handle from $7,500 to $10,000 in this type of street surfacing this year.

Depending on council action, the city would ask for bids on per square yard of double sealcoat work from at least two companies, if available to this area, rather than bids on the total job. In this way, the street work would fit the money available.

Streets to be considered for double sealcoating include: North Street, Harris Avenue to Eighth Avenue; Court Street, First Street to county building; Court Street, First Street to M-55; Eleventh Avenue, Harris Avenue to North Street; Tim Court, Manor Drive to end of road; Cedar Street, Oak Street to city limits; Ninth Avenue, First Street to North Street; cemetery roads; Seventh Avenue, First Street to North Street; Third Avenue, First Street to North Street.

Streets to be considered for future blacktopping include: Oak Street, railroad tracks to Cedar Street; Fourth Avenue, Whittemore Street to Mathews; Manor Drive, First Avenue to Victoria; Sunset Drive, First Avenue to Victoria; Victoria Lane, Sunset to M-55; Maple Street, US-23 to German; North Street, Third Avenue to Eighth Avenue; Bay Drive, US-23 to Townline; First Street, First Avenue to Harris Avenue; Seventh Avenue, Fourth Street to Industrial.

Streets authorized in May for blacktopping include: Fifth Avenue, First Street to M-55, First Avenue, Anna to M-55; Harris Av-

Trenton Man Drowned Off Benson Road in Saginaw Bay

A 31-year-old Trenton man, Bert C. Kangas, an electrician for Ford Motor Company, drowned Saturday afternoon in Saginaw Bay, about 150 yards off shore from Benson Drive, one-half mile north of Turtle Road, Alabaster Township.

The sheriff's department was called to the scene at 2:50 p. m.

The victim had been under the water for about 20 minutes and the body was recovered by a witness on shore, James O. Ude.

John F. Richardson, a companion of the victim, told officers that Kangas swam out to a sand bar about one-quarter mile off shore. Richardson told officers that the last time he saw the victim he was standing on the sandbar in waist deep water.

Dr. Larry S. Kelly, medical examiner, pronounced the victim dead at the scene and ruled the cause as accidental drowning. Kangas is the second drowning victim of the summer in Iosco County.

Tawas Band Director Resigns; Has New Position at East Lansing School

Gene Salamony, band director at Tawas Area High School for the past 12 years, has been appointed band director at East Lansing High School. He left Monday to start work in his new position and will commute between East Lansing and Tawas on week-ends until housing arrangements are made for his family.

"I could have stayed in Tawas and continued to produce good bands, but the professional growth I can obtain through this move is great and it will be a new challenge. The move will also mean that I will be near Michigan State University," said Salamony.

"My 12 years in Tawas have been good to me; it has been a real fine experience," said Salamony.

On January 24 of this year, Salamony was named band director of the year by the Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association. The announcement was made during the 31st annual Midwestern Conference held at the University of Michigan.

A plaque was presented to Salamony by the president of MSBOA during the annual spring concert by Tawas Area Concert Band.

As part of the honor accompanying the title, Salamony conducted the all-state honors band during its annual festival.

Since coming to Tawas, Salamony's bands have consistently received first division ratings at district and state band and orchestra festivals.

He has held the office of treasurer and president for District Nine of the MSBOA, a professional association of more than 1,200 instrumental music teachers in Michigan schools.

He is a graduate of Duquesne University, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, with a bachelor of science degree in music education and master of music education.

Salamony is a member of the Tawas City Volunteer Fire Department and as a hobby, restored an old fire truck.

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands; one nation, under God, indivisible with liberty and justice for all.

(Read I John 4:7-12)
"The fruit of the Spirit is love."

A class of little children was learning to spell. They spelled a number of words such as cat, dog and cow. After each word, they were asked to imitate the sound that the animal makes. When Mary was asked to spell love, she did not stop to spell the word but ran and threw her arms around the teacher's neck and kissed her on the cheek. "We spell love that way at our house," she said. The children laughed, but the teacher said, "That is the most beautiful way."

Aarlie J. Hull in an article, "Love in Deed," describes her struggle to love. She was frustrated because she thought a Christian must always feel genuine love for everyone everywhere. She relied too much on emotion. Then, she came to see that simply doing what Christ's love dictated had changed her whole life. She says, "The realization that Christian love is not always a warm feeling but is more often the performance of a deed has simply revolutionized my Christian life."

The extent of our love for God and one another may be measured by the way we put it into action.

PRAYER

We know, our Father, that others will know we are Your children by our love. Teach us to take on Your likeness more each day. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Absent Voter Procedures Explained by Clerk McCready

In response to several inquiries about absent voter ballots, Rachel S. McCready, Tawas City clerk, has released the following explanation of absent voter procedure:

Any resident who was registered as an elector of the City of Tawas City on or before July 6, but is unable to attend the polls on August 3, for the 1976 General Primary Election, may apply to the Tawas City clerk in person or by mail for absent voter ballots. Forms are available at city hall, but application can be a simple written request for absent voter ballots, signed by the registered elector, showing one of the following statutory grounds:

1. I expect to be absent from the community in which I am registered for the entire time the polls are open on election day.
2. I am physically unable to attend the polls without the assistance of another.
3. I cannot attend the polls because of the tenets of my religion.
4. I have been appointed an election precinct inspector in a precinct other than the precinct where I reside.
5. I am 60 years of age or older.
6. I cannot attend the polls because I am confined to jail awaiting arraignment or trial.

If absent voter wishes ballots to be mailed to him, he should specify the address where he will receive them.

Mrs. McCready will accept applications at her home-office, 304 Whittemore Street, on Saturday, July 31, up to 2:00 p. m.

After marking absent voter ballots, they may be brought to the clerk's office, city hall, or mailed in envelopes provided with the ballots, so as to be received before closing of polls on election day. If delivered personally by the absent voter, it must be before the opening of the polls.

A registered elector may also make the above-described application in person at the city hall on Monday, August 2, before 2:00 p. m. but ballots must be marked in the clerk's office and returned immediately.

A registered elector may also apply prior to 4:00 p. m. on election day if disabled or gone due to sickness or death in the family after deadline for applying for absent voter ballots in the normal fashion.

Mrs. McCready also reminds registered electors of the City of Tawas City, in all three precincts, that the voting place is the Tawas City Elementary School Gymnasium, Eighth Avenue and Second Street. Polls will be open from 7:00 a. m. to 8:00 p. m. on August 3.

UNEMPLOYMENT AND WELFARE—Jobs have to be provided for all local residents. By encouraging industry it would reduce unemployment and our welfare rolls.

SCHOOL FINANCING—Financing schools by property tax must be changed. Schools should be financed by state money with local control remaining in school district.

SMALL BUSINESS AND FARMERS—A program to encourage small business to stay in business and old farms to go back into production. A program for small farmers is a must because we do not want our farming industry to be controlled by large farmers like the oil industry.

Zoning Change OK'd for Apartment House

A change in zoning was approved Thursday night by the Tawas City Council allowing construction of a proposed two-story apartment building for the elderly. Located fronting on North Street between Fourth and Fifth Avenues, the site is directly south of a site proposed for a new nursing home, for which zoning was changed earlier in the week.

Unanimous approval was given by the council to change zoning from RA residential to RC, which allows construction of multiple family dwellings. Construction of the apartment house has been proposed by DeShano Homes, Incorporated, along with Kenneth Myles and Jerry Cotter, owners of the property.

At the same time, the council approved vacating portions of Fourth Avenue to provide parking at the apartment complex. Fourth Avenue is 86 feet in width and 31-foot-wide strips on each side of the roadway were vacated for parking.

Four Hurt In Accidents Last Week

Four persons were injured in accidents last week in Iosco County, according to a report by the sheriff's department.

Joseph W. Sacco, 18, Turner, was treated Friday at Tawas Hospital after he lost control of his vehicle and it rolled over on Turle Road.

Michael J. Glancy, 24, Tawas City, was treated at Tawas Hospital Saturday for injuries which he received in a crash west of Tawas City. Glancy was headed west on Meadow Road and a car driven by Daniel J. Warner, 24, Tawas City, went through a stop street on McCardle Road and struck Glancy's vehicle broadside.

Larry L. Kindell, 16, was treated at Tawas Hospital Saturday after his motorbike crashed on Sand Lake Road. The operator told officers he tried to avoid hitting a deer which ran out in front of him.

Noreen Nickell, National City, a passenger in a car driven by Robert F. Nickell, 39, National City, was treated at Tawas Hospital following a crash Sunday on Sand Lake Road.

The two parking strips are to extend from North Street south to the south property line of the apartment house site. The 24-foot roadway in the center is to be paved by the apartment house developers and is to remain open to the public.

Approval of both the zoning change and street vacation is subject to commencement of the project within 18 months by the developer. The street vacation is also subject to allowance by the zoning board of appeals for angle parking.

A representative of the developer said that a study was now being made to determine the number of units to be constructed, which would total 24 to 48 units. Total estimated cost of the entire project would be $800,000.

The only objection heard from 44 property owners involved in the public hearing concerned drainage of surface water in the Fourth Avenue area. The developer is to absorb the cost of providing a storm sewer on its property and the city council is to determine methods of financing a storm sewer on North Street, for which preliminary plans have been obtained after being considered for a number of years.

The developer would construct sidewalks and pave the two parking lots at no cost to the city.

A petition to close German Street from River Street to the Tawas River was withdrawn by Kenneth Gentz and Alta Boos, adjacent property owners who had requested the action. Following a discussion, it was felt by the council that a public easement to the river may be needed in the future. The city is to make improvements to a ditch in the unopened street to eliminate a problem of stagnant water.

RECEIVING BIDS

The City of Tawas City will accept Bids to purchase Options the City now holds on property located at 434 Lake Street and 436 Lake Street both in Tawas City. The Bids will be opened at the Council meeting to be held on August 2, 1976 at 7:30 PM. The City reserves the right to accept or reject any or all bids.

We Must Work Together In These Four Critical Areas

ECONOMY
 To reconstruct our economy by creating a climate that rewards productivity and initiative, and providing the opportunity of employment for all people. Today's challenge is to provide business, and especially small business, with a fair and equitable tax structure that will encourage the creation of more jobs in the private sector, and the conservation of our diminishing natural resources. The elimination of unnecessary, bureaucratic red tape and regulations will help our industries stay competitive in our increasingly industrialized world.

ENVIRONMENT
 A forceful positive program must be developed to control pollution, sedimentation, erosion; and encourage the use of solar energy, wind power, and other sources of non-polluting energy.

CITIZEN RESPONSIBILITY
 To renew the moral commitment and individual responsibility that have helped create this great nation. Each of us in this nation, regardless of our role in a community, should conduct ourselves in such a manner that we set examples which our young people and peers will want to follow.

TAXATION
 To contain government spending and taxation, and reduce duplication of services and inefficiency. (See next week).

Plainfield Drops Valuation Appeal

A property valuation appeal submitted to the state tax tribunal by Plainfield Township against the Iosco County Board of Commissioners a little more than a year ago was dropped last week through action by the township board.

In June 1975, Plainfield Township disagreed with the equalization established by the county board of commissioners, which boosted that township's valuation by 16 percent.

Both the county and the township had taken issue with the state tax commission concerning valuation increases in 1975 and filed appeals with the state tax tribunal. The tax tribunal, ruled, however, that it could not act on appeals from local units against the state tax commission.

The township then appealed the county's equalization as "unfair, unjust, inequitable or discriminatory" and a number of hearings were held before the tax tribunal.

SEVENTY-FIVE PERSONS attended Thursday night's organizational meeting of the Tawas Area School Citizens Advisory Committee. Following a preliminary report on finances by Supt. Robert Halle, a general discussion was held on needs of the school district, reasons why the recent millage vote failed and what could be done to assist the board of education. Primary concern of the committee is to see continuation of school operation. James Russo

Jr. was named chairman. A number of subcommittees are being formed to review the school budget and financing, promote adoption of millage and various groups were organized to consider disciplinary problems at school, transportation, elimination of present split sessions and other problem areas. Reports to the district are to be made prior to the millage vote.—Tawas Herald Photo.

CWA-FERA-PWA-WPA had... IMPORTANT ROLES in 1930s

"We Putter Around" and "Pa Works Again" were only two of the jibes which Tawas City children dreamed up in the 1930s to match three-letter federal agencies which always had signs at job sites to designate projects as being publicly funded.

In their innocence, the children did not realize the importance of the Works Progress Administration and Public Works Administration, along with earlier federal agencies of a similar nature. Without them, small communities such as this one could not have afforded sewer and water systems until many years later; more importantly, the federal projects provided employment for countless family bread winners during the peak years of the depression.

It is also to the credit of city officials and local citizens that the opportunity to receive federal matching funds was not allowed to slip by—construction of water and sewer projects in later years would have cost several millions of dollars.

"The dream of many people in Tawas City for years—a water works and sanitary sewer system for the city—may be realized if plans now under way meet with the government's approval under the National Recovery Act," stated The Tawas Herald on September 22, 1933.

City councils of both Tawas City and East Tawas immediately recognized the splendid opportunity to obtain much needed public facilities through federal assistance. Many communities did not take such action and later regretted it.

Funds were provided by the National Recovery Act for use in building civic projects. Thirty percent of the cost of construction was given outright by the federal government to put men on payrolls and the balance was to be in the form of a loan paid within 30 years by the community.

On September 19, 1933, the Tawas City Council unanimously voted to contract with Francis Engineering Company of Saginaw to make a survey of the city and to prepare plans and specifications for a sewer disposal system and water works. The survey with plans and estimates was necessary before federal authorities would act on projects and the requirement for proper engineering proved to be a blessing in disguise.

The Tawas City Improvement Association endorsed the project and it was one of the principal subjects under discussion at a meeting held at the American Legion Hall. A representative number of citizens were present and it was the unanimous opinion that a loan from the federal government to build a sanitary sewer system and water works was a very practical project.

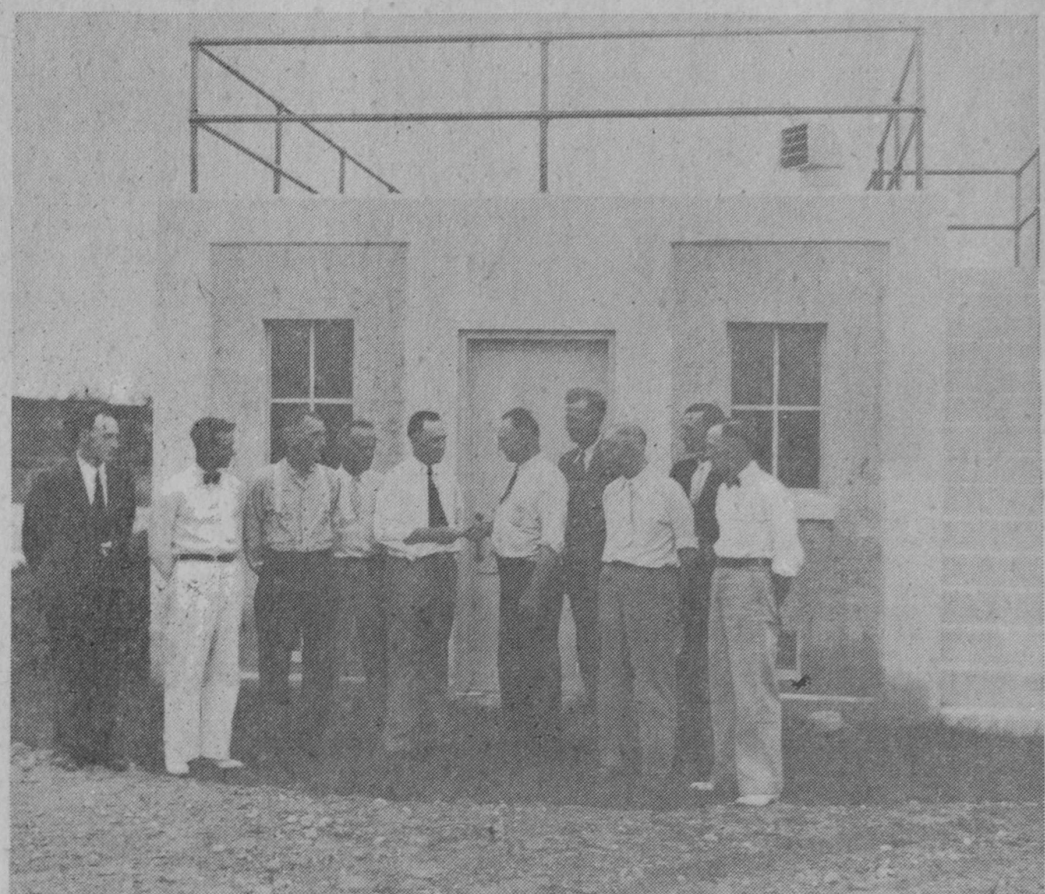

On Wednesday, December 13, 1933, CWA headquarters at Lansing approved the first portion of the greater sewage disposal system. Abram Frank, the only member of the 1933 city council now living, recalls that he and Alderman Harry Rollin presented the $21,000 application at Lansing, receiving assistance from State Rep. Fred C. Holbeck of Long Lake and State Rep. Harold Bellows of Bay City.

"We made the trip to Lansing in Harry's Oakland car," recalls Frank. "It was a long, but worthwhile ride."

"Representatives Holbeck and Bellows, and the two aldermen deserve much credit for the prompt and favorable attention received," commented the Herald.

Work was started the following Monday on the project and a requisition for laborers was made to the Iosco County Relief Commission. The four-month project which was funded required the employment of about 80 men.

In the meantime, voters of East Tawas approved its first CWA project 284-44. With a total cost of $80,000, with 30 percent as an outright grant, the project was to build a complete sewage disposal system.

FORMAL ACCEPTANCE of Tawas City's sewage disposal plant was held July 30, 1935. The event marked the completion of several sanitation projects started in 1933 with Civil Works Administration labor which saw construction of more than three miles of sanitary sewer mains, a pumping station and disposal plant. Later projects saw construction of a sewer addition and a water supply system utilizing Public Works Administration and local funds. Mayor John A. Brugger, right center, accepts the key from George W. Francis of Francis Engineering Company. Members of the city council watch the presentation. The only person in the above photo living today is Abram Frank, far left, who was a member of the city council.

A sewer disposal plant had been contemplated at East Tawas for a number of years as the system then in operation had proven unsatisfactory. Some opposition to the plan was received initially, due to the seemingly high cost, but city officials pointed out that the state park probably would be moved unless improvements were made to the sewer disposal system.

the county's full quota of 295 men would be employed by the following week.

About 225 men were employed immediately on projects. The pay was 50 cents per hour for unskilled labor, with a graduated scale for foremen, semi-skilled and skilled men.

In addition to sewer projects at Tawas City and East Tawas, men were employed on work at the Alabaster Township Hall, Oscoda Auditorium alteration project, several highway and county school projects. The latter consisted of redecorating, repairing and beautifying grounds of the various rural schools.

By the last week in February, 4,000,000 men and women were at work on Civil Works Administration projects in the country, promoted by the Roosevelt Administration and approved by congress. Iosco County Road Commission had 113 men and 21 trucks at work on four projects.

"Beginning as the work has with little or no precedent to follow, the progress that has been made in such a short time is worthy of note," stated the Herald. During the first two months, $25,844 was paid out for labor on CWA projects in the county.

Tawas City's project started with construction of sewer mains during the winter, even before plans for the complete system, including a disposal plant, received approval later in February.

In spite of extreme cold weather and other adverse conditions, 2,300 feet of tile was installed. The first mains constructed extended west for two blocks on Mathews Street, north two blocks from the Latter Day Saints Church on Fifth Avenue, then west on Second Street past the high school. Another main running east on Second Street met the railroad tracks near the trestle.

Besides cold weather, other difficulties were encountered.

why pay steak prices for tough fatty tails?

Kroger removes the entire tail from all Kroger Porterhouse and T-Bone steaks.

At Kroger, fatty tail is removed before steak is weighed and priced.

Steaks and chops are the same price per pound regardless of thickness. No higher prices for thin-sliced!

Ground meats are the same price per pound regardless of package size. For example, a pound of ground beef costs the same in a one-pound package as in a five-pound package.

Letter to the Editor

In September, you will be asked to vote on the issue of a skill center for Iosco County. The skill center will be run by the Iosco Intermediate School District and will aid in the vocational training of area youths. It is an additional service and no doubt will be of benefit to the children it will reach. As tax paying citizens, you are probably already aware of the value connected with the building of a skill center, as the Intermediate has taken the time to make it known to the public, as it has the other special services it offers to area school children.

What the intermediate school district has not let the public in on is exactly what the Mandatory Special Education Act means, the legal rights of all children from birth to 25 years of age, and what this district does not have in the area of special education.

The Mandatory Special Education Act was passed in October of 1973 and established the right of all handicapped children from 0-25 years of age to equal educational opportunity within Michigan's public schools and made the intermediate school district accountable for the educational rights and well being of all children in that district. Under mandatory, the term "special education" no longer refers to just those children who are, or are suspected of being, severely mentally impaired, trainable mentally impaired or educable mentally impaired. It now covers those children who are, or are suspected of being, emotionally impaired, visually impaired, hearing impaired, physically and otherwise health impaired, severely multiply impaired, learning disabled, speech and language impaired, home bound and/or hospitalized.

At present, special services exist to handle all of the above impairments, except physically and otherwise health impaired and severely multiply impaired, for children ages 6-25. No programs are available for those children ages 0-5. Since the majority of time spent by the supportive staff is spent in the schools, the few preschoolers that are seen are seen on a "catch-as-catch-can" basis, except for the two Head Start programs, which are serviced by the speech and language personnel.

It is an accepted fact that, the earlier an impairment is diagnosed and treated the better the chances of it being helped, thus giving the child a better chance to develop to full potential. In the past, the number of preschoolers in need of a special program have not been sufficient to warrant the intermediate setting up such a program. Within the last year, a number of pre-schoolers needing a specialized program have been brought to the intermediate's attention, a number sufficient to make such a program not only financially possible but, very necessary.

The intermediate has the funds necessary to institute a pre-school program for the 1976-77 school year. Under the law, they are required to do so and yet, nothing is being done! Handicapped preschoolers are being swept under a rug and parents are being pacified and stalled with empty promises.

As tax paying citizens, you are entitled to receive such services. Your child is legally entitled to them and it is the legal responsibility of the school districts, both local and intermediate, to provide them.

Don't let a child be shoved aside

You Are Needed

Your vote is needed to end the hand-me-down control over the office of Iosco County Prosecuting Attorney.

You should decide who becomes our next PROSECUTOR. The office should not belong to the few to do with as they please.

In recent years no prosecutor has finished his term of office to leave it open for contest at election. A new prosecutor would be appointed for you to rubber-stamp at election time.

With the incumbent designation under his name on the ballot and voter apathy the new prosecutor would not likely be opposed.

I need your vote to end this practice and again allow the people to decide who will be their Prosecuting Attorney.

I am seeking the office of Prosecuting Attorney because I believe I can contribute maturity, experience, and understanding.

Jobs

facilities were met. Beds of quicksand at the lower levels of some of the ditches caused cave-ins, necessitating the use of shoring and much extra excavating. At other points, beds of clay were encountered which, when frozen, proved to be but little less resistant than rock. Due to varying conditions, the amount of tile installed per day ranged from only 10 feet to 184 feet.

Federal funds administered under CWA were provided in four-month segments and Tawas City's project had to shut down on March 31, 1934, due to the lack of money. Clifford Spicer, chief engineer for Francis Engineering Company, inspected the work completed and expressed satisfaction with the progress.

Work resumed on April 11 when 15 men were back on the job, but a new ruling from the federal government provided that only men who could show actual need were to be employed.

On May 28, 1934, Tawas City taxpayers, by a vote of almost three to one, approved a $12,600 bond issue for construction of a sewer disposal plant, intercepting sewers and a pumping station on Second Avenue. The vote in favor of the bond issue was generally conceded to be larger than even its most optimistic advocate had expected.

In thanking voters, Mayor Alfred Boomer said he was happy the vote was so decidedly for the bond issue, because it demonstrated an expression of confidence in the city administration.

Several public meetings had been held prior to the election to acquaint voters with the proposal. "By paying only about 26 percent of the total cost, Tawas City can obtain a sewer system that it might never be able to finance wholly itself," stated George W. Francis of Francis Engineering.

C. L. McLean, a member of the Iosco County Relief Commission, was an impromptu speaker at one meeting and pointed out how the county and city were helped in the matter of relief by the local work. George W. Myles, a member of the county board of supervisors from Tawas City, stated that out of 46 Tawas City men on the relief rolls working on the sewer project, 30 were taxpayers, whose sole support came from the sewer project.

The greater portion of three miles of sewer were installed on the north side of the river, forming the nucleus of a complete sanitation system. Sewer disposal systems in Tawas City and East Tawas were completed in July 1935, just prior to discontinuance of Federal Emergency Relief Administration funds throughout the country. The first connections to the new sewer system were made by Tawas City residents in late June.

On Tuesday, July 30, 1935, Francis Engineering Company formally turned over the keys of the sewage disposal plant and pumping station to Mayor John A. Brugger, who had been elected to office that April following the resignation of Boomer. The ceremony was in the presence of the council and former mayor, the projects having been started and nearly completed during Boomer's administration.

Mayor Brugger and the city council immediately made application for a Works Progress Administration grant to finance 45 percent of a water system project, along with an application for a Public Works Administration project under which 6,710 feet of sewer mains would serve the business district, including a river crossing and connection with the pumping station.

A mass meeting was held during the first week in October of 1935 to explain a proposed $15,000 bond issue on the $59,000 PWA project for construction of a water system. The explanation must have been beneficial as the project was approved on October 8 by an overwhelming majority of voters, 200-12.

Tawas City residents were jubilant as the result of the first test of a 10-inch well near the baseball field produced 240 gallons of water per minute, showing the city had an inexhaustible source of water which could not be contaminated.

Preliminary work was started in September 1937 on the water system. Total cost of the system was $59,000, of which $26,590 came from a grant through the federal government. The balance was financed by general obligation and revenue bond issues and approved by the people.

A second bond issue to extend the original sewer system was passed by voters, 115-11. Total cost of the original sewer system was $99,000, of which the city supplied about $23,500.

The new water system went into operation on Monday, April 26, 1937, and a water board was organized with Martin C. Musolf as chairman and Carl Babcock, secretary.

Other PWA projects in the community saw replacement of wooden water mains at East Tawas, along with WPA funds allocated for operation of branch libraries in the county, construction of the state police post at East Tawas, operation of recreational programs throughout the county and other projects.

The first real test of Tawas City's water system came in August 1937, when the Wilson Grain Company elevator on Lake Street burned to the ground. An ample water supply from the city's new water mains saved the community from great destruction.

Since 1937, several additions have been made to water and sewer systems in the Tawasites. Some federal funds were received for two projects in the 1960s, but the federal government has discontinued funding for extension of mains, as was the case of the original construction in the 1930s.

Times have changed since 1933-34, when emphasis was placed on getting men back to work and much labor was expended through pick and shovel.

New Books Available at I-A Library

Exciting new books now available in the branches and the bookmobile of the Iosco-Arenac Regional Library are:

Prolific writer, John Creasey's new novel is called "A Blast of Trumpets." Patrick Dawlish is taking a long-awaited vacation when he witnesses the near murder of a former policeman. This masterfully plotted thriller has headlong action and a riveting climax. It is one of Creasey's last in his distinguished career.

Glenn Dickey has compiled a new baseball book entitled "The Great No-Hitters." One of baseball's greatest mystical feats is the no-hitter. In all of major league history, there have been only about 200 of them pitched. This is the history of the no-hit game from its very beginning.

"Say Hello To the Hit Man" is a novel by Jay Bennett. Fred Morgan is a serious college student, a loner with few friends and no enemies. His only crime is to have been born the son of a top executive in the hierarchy of organized crime. Now, it appears that the violence that surrounds his father is reaching out for him.
