Judge Miller Retiring, but Will Continue Law Career

Circuit Judge Allan C. Miller, 58, who has served Iosco, Alcona and Oscoda Counties for the past 20 years, announced last week that he would retire effective in September.

Interviewed Friday in his chambers in the Iosco County Building, Judge Miller said that state court rules permitted him to retire at the age of 55 and he decided he would not "suffer another winter here" due to an arthritic condition.

Although active in tennis and golf during the summer months, Judge Miller said that practically every step was painful to him during the winter months and he decided to seek a change in climate.

As a result, he applied for, was offered and has accepted a position with the United States Civil Service as an administrative law judge. He has been assigned to the Department of Housing, Education and Welfare at Macon, Georgia.

His wife, Betty, is a native of the Macon area and has relatives living there. Judge Miller said he had mixed feelings about leaving his home town (he was born in Tawas City), but he was looking forward to his new federal position.

"There really is no incentive for me to continue as a circuit judge because of retirement rules adopted by the state affecting wages of the judiciary," said Miller. In addition, he would have taken a $5,000 cut in salary next year when Alcona County is attached to the judicial circuit at Alpena.

Because of his experience in trial work, he was offered positions as an administrative law judge in Florida and Washington, D. C., but chose the assignment in Georgia for a period of at least two years.

"I will be traveling a lot in this new position, but proceedings before a federal administrative law judge are less formal, with more written opinions and I will have a law clerk. I had hoped to get into the field of environment, but that would have required residency in the Washington, D. C., area and we just did not want to live there," said Judge Miller.

"We will be spending our summer vacations in the Tawas. Although we will be selling our home in Tawas City, we will retain our property in Tawas Township."

Born in Tawas City to Sheriff and Mrs. Charles Miller, he graduated from high school at East Tawas and received a juris doctor degree at the University of Michigan. After entering private practice at Detroit, he returned to his home community in 1958 to establish his law practice and served as city attorney.

He was elected judge of the 23rd Judicial Circuit in the spring of 1959 and succeeded the late Herman Dehnke on January 1, 1960.

Highly respected as a trial judge, he has received numerous assignments by the state court administrator, including grand juries in Bay and Saginaw Counties, an environmental protection case involving Birchwood Farms at Harbor Springs, was assigned to hear the Detroit sewer rate case and presided over a case brought by the Wayne County prosecuting attorney versus Wayne County Board of Commissioners, to name a few of his more notable assignments.

A notable case over which he presided recently in the local area saw his ruling in the PBB burial case at Mio. He said his two longest trials, each requiring 30 or more court days, came very early in his judicial career when he heard the Catsman-Bateson case involving housing at Wurtsmith Air Force Base and the National Gypsum Company dock case, both in Iosco County.

He has served as a state officer of the Kiwanis Club and has taken an active part in affairs of his community. The Millers have five grown children, including Allan, an attorney in California; Chris, who owns a shoe store at East Tawas; Van, employed by an architectural firm at Southfield; Clifford, who operates a laundromat at East Tawas; and Elizabeth, who graduates in December from Alma College.

His successor is to be appointed by the governor and would serve until the next general election.

TA School Ends Year in 'Black'

Tawas Area School ended its fiscal year in the black, due mainly to a one percent increase received in state transportation funds.

"During the budgeting process last term, we were leary about projected receipts from the state for transportation and the board did not wish to get in a financial bind if funds were cut back," said Supt. Allan Dighera.

Transportation funds were not by the state and the district received $28,000 more than anticipated. As a result, the year-end balance in the general fund is approximately $20,000. The figure is yet to be confirmed by the auditor.

Following an executive session at Monday night's meeting, the board of education approved a two-year contract with administrators, leaving the 1981-82 salary figure open for negotiation.

Salaries approved included: John Alexander, high school principal, $29,049, 6.99 percent increase; Jerry Youngs, junior high school principal, $26,530, 8.32 percent increase; Herman Rollin, elementary school principal, $26,635, 8.35 percent increase; Charles Reddick, assistant high school principal, $22,152, 8.43 percent increase; Gene Gerber, community school director, $24,270, an increase of 6.54 percent.

Salary of David Westcott, transportation director, was set at $14,028, an increase of eight percent.

NEWLY-ELECTED officers of Tawas Area Board of Education are Susan Rieth, president; James Russo (center), vice president, and Thomas Huck, secretary. Barbara Miller, treasurer, was not present at the reorganizational meeting Monday night. Richard Anderson, elected last month to a four-year term, attended his first meeting as a trustee. The board re-established the second and fourth Mondays as meeting nights and named Peoples State Bank of East Tawas as depository.—Tawas Herald Photo.

Hale Bank's Low Bid is Accepted

Low bid of Farmers and Merchants State Bank of Hale was accepted Monday night by Tawas Area Board of Education to finance purchase of two new diesel school buses which are to be delivered this month.

The Hale bank's interest rate was 6.875 percent over a period of five years with a total cost to the school district of $19,351.57.

Other bids received included Oscoda State Savings Bank, 7.38 percent, and Peoples State Bank of East Tawas, 8.25 percent.

The board of education also let a contract to Bolen Trucking Company, East Tawas, for construction of a 24-foot-wide service drive on the west side of the high school. The drive is to be 330 feet in length. Bolen's bid was $2,018.

Other bids received included Tawas Sand and Gravel, $2,050; John Henry, $3,507.40.

In other business, a letter from Patricia Harvey stated that she would be returning to her high school secretary job after a year's leave of absence.

A presentation was made by a representative of a firm which provides thermostats and other controls for heating systems. The school is to replace obsolete controls in an energy saving step as part of the recent special millage proposal approved by voters.

A letter of resignation was submitted by Rosalie Becker, long-time secretary at the Tawas City Elementary Unit.

Trustee Thomas Huck was appointed acting treasurer to sign documents in the absence of Barbara Miller, who is on vacation.

The board authorized the superintendent to sign a deed and other legal documents for closing the sale of the building trades house on Victoria Lane. Proposed changes to board policy were read by Trustee James Russo, board policy committee chairman. The changes are to be read again at the next meeting before action is taken.

Committee appointments included Russo, Huck and Robert Curry, policy; Huck and Russo, grievance; Miller, Stanley Brockenbrough and Richard Anderson, budget; Miller, scholarship; Russo, Brockenbrough and Anderson, management by objective.

Authorization was given to establish a job description for the proposed hiring of a bus mechanic. The board is of the opinion that a considerable amount of money could be saved through repair of buses in the school's own garage.

East Tawas Garden Club Plans August 14 Show

Plans are under way for the biennial flower show sponsored by the East Tawas Garden Club. The event will be held Thursday, August 14, at the East Tawas Community Building. This year's theme is "The Best From Iosco Gardens." Anyone is welcome to enter flower arrangements in any or all of 11 categories titled after each of Iosco County's townships. Also, any person is invited to display foliage house plants, blooming house plants, cacti, hanging baskets or specimen blooms from the garden. A junior division is open to anyone 16 or under.

All entries will be accepted at the community building between 9:00 and 11:30 a. m. that day. Judges will award ribbons in each category.

The show will be open to the public from 3:00 to 9:00 p. m. For further information, call Marie Hennigar, 362-2763, or Muriel Kelchner, 362-8362.

Five Iosco 4-H Members Head for Month in Japan

Five area 4-H members will be going to Japan for a month through the 4-H Labo International Exchange Program. Kevin Fishel, John Freel, Jana Bellville, Nathan Rohn and Lynette Dobson will fly to Japan July 19, after spending the night at Michigan State University with other 4-H exchange students from all over the state.

The 4-H Labo International Program involves youth living with a host family. Last summer, Freel, Miss Bellville, Rohn and Miss Dobson hosted a Japanese "brother" or "sister."

Only Fishel has not yet met his family in person. All the 4-H Labo families have been corresponding by mail. Freel and his family have known his host mother, Ritsuko Yamakawas, for several years.

All five will be taking gifts for their families, as this is an old tradition. The most popular gifts are stamps and coins. Miss Dobson will be taking a pair of jeans for her host sister. Rohn has an American flag that was flown over the Capitol in Washington, D. C., to present to his family. Miss Bellville is making matching skirts for herself and her host sister. Miss Dobson will be staying in Nagoya City, Miss Bellville in Chibaken, Rohn in Yakusuka and Freel and Fishel will be in Toyota City.

Through the Labo program, 4-H members have a chance to make new friends from different countries and learn about new cultures. The 4-H Labo program attempts to promote international understanding through friendship. Frank Kapp, 4-H extension youth agent, will also be going on the trip.

AN UNUSUAL POSTSCRIPT to the Herald's regular weekly historical feature resulted Monday when three Grand Ledge visitors, here to make rubbings of a tombstone, visited Robert Curtis of Whittemore. They learned of the Herald's feature, "Road Building Family from Iosco," which appears in Section Two, and came to Tawas City. Ann DeBoer and Mary Todd Pollitt are daughters of Leslie Belknap and granddaughters of Howard M. Belknap. Mary Lou Hahn, right, of Glen Burnie, Maryland, is the great granddaughter of Howard M. Belknap. They were directed to the residence of Russell A. Rollin Sr., left, and were given the portrait of their grandfather used to illustrate the story. Earlier in the day they made a pencil rubbing of the tombstone over the grave of Leonard Belknap, a Civil War veteran, who came to Whittemore from New York State. He was the father of Howard Belknap and died in 1885.—Tawas Herald Photo.

Four Persons Injured in Iosco County Crashes

Four persons were injured in separate accidents investigated last week by Iosco County Sheriff's Department.

James J. Lansky II, 23, Tawas City, received minor lacerations to the hands and head Sunday in a Plank Road crash. He told officers another car crossed into his lane and ran him off the road.

Richard J. Pendzia, 31, Garden City, was treated Friday at Tawas Hospital after his motorcycle ran into a ditch on Chain Lakes Road. He said he was rounding a curve when a vehicle pulled out in front of him. Milford K. Gibbs, 57, Warren, was injured when his motorcycle went out of control on Britt Road.

Gary Conden, 25, Tawas City, was treated Saturday at Tawas Hospital for injuries received in a water skiing accident on Sand Lake. He fell forward while being towed by a boat and received a laceration above the left eye when his head struck the tip of a water ski.

Hale Shell Service B&E Still Under Investigation

Investigation continues this week by Iosco County Sheriff's Department into the July 6 burglary at Hale Shell Station in which a safe bolted to the floor was stolen and $150 in rolled currency was taken from a cash register.

Officers said the building is equipped with a burglar alarm, but someone tampered with the wires making it inoperable. Larcenies were reported last week by Robert Jackson, Tawas City, theft of a bicycle; Claude E. Clint, Grant Township, two propane tanks missing; Charles Brindley, Whittemore, theft of two ducks and a bag of grain; Walter Buck of Hale Trailer Park and Louis Gartland of East Tawas, gas line missing from vehicles.

IN THE SERVICE—

Promoted

Cynthia K. Clayton, 1971 graduate of Whittemore-Prescott Area High School, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Blust, Whittemore, has been promoted to airman in the United States Air Force. The rank of airman is the first promotion for enlisted personnel.

The airman is assigned at Offutt Air Force Base, Nebraska. Airman Clayton's husband, Kirby, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Clayton, Prescott.

Assigned

Ann. William R. Pincumbe, son of Phyllis J. Pincumbe, Hale, has been assigned to Lowry Air Force Base, Colorado, after completing air force basic training.

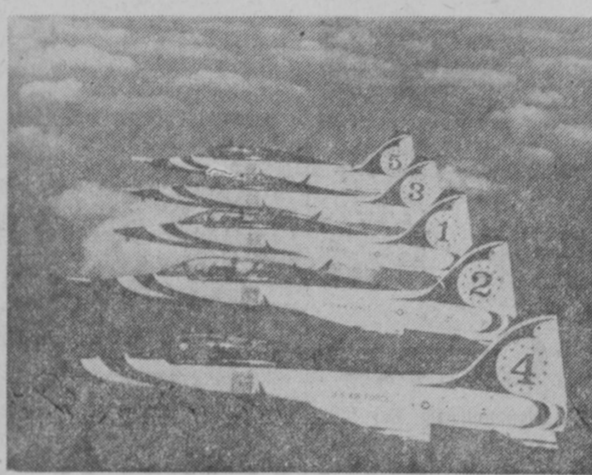

During the six weeks at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas, the airman studied the air force mission, organization and customs and received special training in human relations.

In addition, airmen who complete basic training earn credits toward an associate degree in applied science through the Community College of the Air Force.

The airman will now receive specialized instruction in the missile-electronics field. Airman Pincumbe is a 1979 graduate of Hale Area High School.

NAMED "king and queen" at the Tawas Senior Citizen Drop-in Center at the American Legion Hall, Tawas City, were Mr. and Mrs. Thofiel DeMaet of East Tawas. They will represent the center in competition during the Iosco County Fair at Hale. —Tawas Herald Photo.

THE UNITED STATES AIR FORCE Thunderbirds will highlight this year's open house at Wurtsmith Air Force Base on August 10. While a Thunderbird demonstration is a spectacular sight which some people refer to as "daring, death-defying," the Thunderbirds are quick to point out that not one portion of the aerial display is created specifically as a crowd thriller. Pilots demonstrate maneuvers proven successful in actual combat conditions.

A CONSUMERS POWER COMPANY technician holds a thermoluminescent dosimeter, or TLD, which is used to record the amount of radiation to which a nuclear power plant worker has been exposed. The chemically-treated piece of white teflon is sensitive to energy sources such as radiation. Workers at the utility's Big Rock Point and Palisades nuclear power plants must wear such dosimeters when they are in plant locations subject to radiation exposure. The TLD holder, which clips onto clothing, is shown at the bottom right of the photograph. Special equipment in a Consumers Power laboratory in Jackson analyzes how much radiation each TLD has received.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Subject: Open letter to the taxpayers of Iosco County

It is reasonable to assume that the majority of taxpayers in Iosco County now know that there is an Iosco Medical Care Facility in this county and that this nonprofit medical organization is in dire financial circumstances at this time. Of course, we all realize that the state of the economy at the national, state and county level is critical due to the ever spiraling upward inflationary trend in our country today.

Our president, Mr. Carter, has addressed this problem and the bottom line is that we must all tighten our belts a little tighter and wait out this period until inflation can be brought under control. Agreed, this is perhaps a poor time to ask the taxpayer to dig a little deeper for additional millage when they already feel that taxes are too high.

We must, at the same time realize that certain mandatory functions in our county such as good police and fire protection, water, sewer, electricity and gas all for the health and welfare of the public are indeed necessary. Along those same lines of thought, it follows that we must have an adequate hospital and an extended care facility in the county to insure excellent care for the aged and infirm people here.

Iosco Medical Care Facility is such an extended care medical facility and is owned and operated in and for the taxpayers of Iosco County. This is not a county-owned operation, it is in fact owned by you, the taxpayer! The dedicated and perhaps underpaid, in some instances, employees are in fact working for you and your family members for whom this care becomes necessary. These employees do not enjoy the benefits granted to other county employees, simply because they are not in fact county employees. Trained, efficient and dedicated medical personnel are not easily found in this area possibly in view of the fact that they can and do make much higher wages in the metropolitan areas of our state.

During the 12 years this medical care facility has been in operation, countless hundreds of our taxpayers have enjoyed the benefits of this facility when they were recovering from strokes, serious operations, fractured limbs and other serious illnesses. They were restored to their highest potential through efficient skilled nursing, proper medications, physical therapy and the restorative nursing program all of which become the main thrust of the medical care facility's rehabilitative mission.

One visit, and all taxpayers are encouraged to visit the facility located at 1201 Harris Avenue, Tawas City, would convince even the most critical visitor that this is indeed a very necessary medical organization. It is dedicated to the principal that any taxpayer unfortunate enough to require this type of care will indeed find the best possible nursing care necessary to hasten their recovery and return them to their homes.

In conclusion, it is hoped that you will give serious consideration to voting yes in the upcoming election in August since you, the taxpayer in Iosco County, deserve an alternative to the private nursing homes in our community.

STATE REP. TOM ALLEY of West Branch and Isco County 4-H member, Wendy Papas of East Tawas, discuss the positive impact the Michigan 4-H youth program has had on the state's young people. Mrs. Papas hosted Alley at a special appreciation dinner for Michigan legislators during 4-H Exploration Days at Michigan State University in June.

Ask Public Comment on 1980 ASC Wheat Program

Harold Cholger, chairman, Isco County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee (ASC), announced Sec. of Agriculture Robert Bergland has asked the public to comment by July 21 on provisions of the 1981 wheat program. The department is seeking comments on the amount of the national program acreage; the reduction from the previous year's harvested acreage required to guarantee established target price protection on the total 1981 planted acreage; whether there should be a set-aside and if so, the extent of the set-aside; if a set-aside is required, whether a limitation should be placed on planted acreage; whether there should be a land diversion program, and if so, the extent of such a diversion and the level of payments.

Elect - BOB BUYSE SHERIFF of Iosco County

25 Years Police Experience

Concerned Citizens of Iosco County:

The above introduction of my political goal has been covered — I would now like to introduce myself as a candidate for sheriff. I have been married to the former Amy Greene for the past 30 years. She was born in Wilber Township of Iosco County, daughter of Fred Greene. We have four children, three of whom are still at home and attend the Tawas Area school system. The fourth is married and has his own family. I have 25 years police experience, retiring after 25 years with the Detroit Police Department. I spent six years in the service of my country in the United States Navy. I have degrees in Police Administration and Law Enforcement. As a police officer in Detroit, I had police car experience, youth counseling, vice and narcotics experience and founded a personal affairs unit within the Detroit Police Department. The unit was primarily a special unit within the department to help officers with drug and alcohol related problems, dealing with officers' domestic problems. I worked in this unit the last six years of my service with the department. I have attended numerous schools, seminars in the United States and Canada for alcohol and drug related problems, and taught classes in the police academy for the above mentioned problems. I received 18 citations and commendations in police work, one chief's medal for meritorious work in the drug field. I am an active member of St. Joseph's Catholic Church in East Tawas, serving on the Board of Education of St. Joseph's Church and a lay minister of the church. Also, a member of the Eagles, Elks, Knights of Columbus, fourth degree (color guard). Am also a team manager in the local Pony League and have been a property owner in Iosco County, Baldwin Township, for the past 15 years.

My Office Goals of Iosco County Sheriff

... too numerous to mention, but a few would be, when elected to have an open door policy under which any citizen in Iosco County would feel free to call or come into my office with any problem, whether it be civil, personal, family or criminal. Anyone doing so can expect an answer to all questions and whenever possible the best solution. No problem will be too small. Better patrol surveillance, curtailing the rise in crime. Better relationship with the citizens of the community and the deputy force, which I feel is low at this time. It is my firm belief that we need a change in the office of Sheriff of Iosco County. If elected I fully intend to carry out all the above and more. Experience and education are needed and must replace habit and out-dated policies. An integral part of my department will be William Hester, a native of East Tawas. He holds an associate degree in Law Enforcement from Alpena Community College. He is an active E. M. T. at St. Joseph Hospital, both credited and state licensed. He is a captain and secretary-treasurer of the East Tawas Volunteer Fire Department. I feel Bill is what the department needs in dealing with training procedures of all the various types of expertise in service training for all deputies. Professional facilities in community not being used to the full use by the sheriff's department at this time. A few are:

1. Using the Department of Mental Health for child abuse, spouse abuse, drug and alcohol abuse programs.
2. Professional help for deputies in their own family lives, dealing with stress, job problems, family problems (divorce rate is very high in police work), college credits brought up to degree status.
3. Senior Citizens program, home base C. B. for reporting pertinent information, death and dying counseling, reporting unusual occurrences in neighborhood by phone.
4. Sub station in western part of county. (Later mentioned in article.)
5. On call crisis center.
6. Closer communication with surrounding law enforcement agencies which is not being done now: State Police, city police (East Tawas, Oscoda, U. S. A. F., D. N. R., Conservation and U. S. Forest Rangers).

Community should be more aware of drugs and alcohol our youths are being ruined with, because the community says, "It is not that bad." How bad does it have to get? How many of our high school students were killed in the latter part of 1979 and the first three months in 1980—you concerned citizens should know. Ask your local sheriff. Some who were killed had a very high alcohol and drug blood level when they died. Auxiliary Sheriff's Patrol replaces deputies from full time work cutting down on the paid overtime. Volunteer patrols to keep law and order at various functions. Some mounted patrols and some foot patrols. (Football, basketball, fairs, art shows, sports events, tournaments, parades, crowd control in parks). All the above mentioned activities using volunteer persons would relieve deputies from overtime and save man hours. With a volunteer patrol of approximately 100 people, the county would save thousands of tax dollars. Youth Service Officer who deals with youth problems would save the county tax money instead of probation people and courts who can only put the offender on probation and no treatment for the youth. From this we get repeaters and it costs more tax dollars. Jail counseling psychological testing for offenders, who if they had counseling in jail there would be a reduction of their returning with more tax dollars saved. Long term prisoners getting physical training, weight lifting, etc., high school and college classes for long term offenders, work details from prisons on a volunteer basis would save tax dollars. Church services, chaplain corp in the sheriff's department. All big departments have them. They are very important in use of counseling and religious needs. Ten chaplains should be rotated for services, one day a week, all denominations. Deputy certification not being held to. May cost the taxpayers hundreds to thousands of dollars in lawsuits. This is due to ignorance in sheriff department policy. I have been in contact with Retired Iosco County Sheriff Ivan O'Farrell, who retired after 24 years of service to the county. I know I have a vote from Iva. I challenge and quote from the budgets for the past eight years. The Iosco County Sheriff's Department is being mismanaged. In effect the sheriff department's budget has increased over 358% in the last eight years, an average of 45% each year. When we talk about budget we are talking about tax dollars, and as concerned taxpayers in Iosco County we should take a closer look at the budget (Sheriff's Department). It is a matter of public record if you wish to see it. I believe it is over budgeted in tax dollars. The board of commissioners is now in arbitration with the Sheriff's Department deputies who are demanding wages that exceed most of your public officials. This is absurd. In larger cities, police officers do much more work and the stress is much greater for pay that your county deputies are asking. County deputies are asking for equal pay scales. . . . MORE TAX DOLLARS that could be cut back. The board of commissioners, the sheriff himself, as management, should be sitting in at the bargaining tables. I do not hear of the Sheriff backing or trying to work with the people who are his superiors. (Board of Commissioners). My feeling is that the county is not properly patrolled. The placing of a sub station somewhere in the western part of the county (Hale) would alleviate many tax dollars, saving money in overtime gas, patrol car wear and tear. This sub station would be manned by the personnel who live in the western part of the county to save many tax dollars. This also would stop the use of patrol vehicles being taken home by deputies and parked at their home for on call purposes. There would be no need for on call purposes if we had a sub station—cutting down on the number of patrol cars needed in the Sheriff's budget. This should cut the patrol car force in half, saving many tax dollars. I feel that a closer relationship with other police agencies in the area and a sub station in the county would enhance a better and much quicker response to emergency calls made by people in Iosco with the rise of a volunteer force of some 100 men. I have received numerous phone calls from concerned citizens who are asking what happened to the police services they received in 1972 and before with one-third of the work force that is being used today. Finally as a candidate for Sheriff of Iosco County for 1981, I feel that the department today with two-thirds more manpower cannot do the job that was done with lesser manpower in 1972. The population has not grown to that great an extent. An article in this paper states that the deputies feel that if they do not get more money (tax dollars) they would have to do away with the road patrol in the county. This is a "cop out" to get more money. Tax dollars again. I feel I can run the Sheriff's Department with much less tax dollars by using some logic and a time for a change in who is running the Sheriff's Department — the labor or the management. It is absurd to see the labor trying to threaten the citizens of Iosco County with cutting jobs and patrols. . . . holding this over our heads for more money. (TAX MONEY.)

Westcott-Armstead Vows Repeated at Hale Church

In 7 o'clock rites Saturday, July 12, at First United Methodist Church, Hale, the Rev. Theodore Hastings officiated at the double ring ceremony uniting Julie May Armstead and Paul D. Westcott in marriage. Mrs. Oral Euper was organist and Lisa Thomas, vocalist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orval R. Armstead of Hale. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Westcott of Tawas City.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white gown designed in nylon over tulle with applied lace and seed pearls featuring silhouette neckline and sleeveless bodice. Complementing the gown was a cathedral train and she carried a bouquet of white daisies, yellow rosebuds and babies breath.

Carrie Mousseau was maid of honor with Ann Bain, Jill and Jana Armstead, bridesmaids, and Jonell Armstead, junior bridesmaid. They were attired in mint green gowns with spaghetti straps and matching capelets and carried colonial nosegays.

Serving as best man was Robert Westcott of Tawas City. Groomsmen were Larry Rose of Tawas City, Clifford Miller of East Tawas and Tony Palumbo of Newport News, Virginia. Jason Sestak of Saginaw was ring bearer and ushers were James Lansky of Tawas City and Steven Sestak of Saginaw.

For her daughter's wedding and reception at Plainfield Township Hall for guests from Arizona, Minnesota, Detroit, Flint and Warren, Mrs. Armstead chose a blue gown with lace bodice and matching lace jacket. Mrs. Westcott chose a coral gown. Carnation corsages enhanced their attire.

The bride is a graduate of Hale Area High School and is employed at Inglis Ford, Tawas City.

Players Decide to Incorporate

Board of trustees of Tawas Bay Players met at the present quarters in the McKay building, Tawas City, Wednesday, July 9, at which time the decision to incorporate was made with Robert Eppert, attorney, to proceed with necessary steps.

Tawas City Indies Racked Up 21-1 Win Over AuGres

Tawas City Indies cracked 20 hits Sunday in a 21-1 victory over the visiting AuGres team. Brad Potts, winning pitcher, scattered six hits during the afternoon.

The locals jumped on D. Pestre, starting pitcher for AuGres, for one run in the first inning, added three in the third and then turned the game into a rout by scoring 10 times in the third inning.

Tawas City pushed two more runs across in the fourth inning and added five in the fifth inning. AuGres averted a shut-out in the seventh inning by scoring one run and the game ended at that point under the 10-run rule.

Jerry Gracik, Pat Jordan,

Tom Gracik and Potts were top stickers for the winners with three hits each. The locals had six doubles during the afternoon and belting one each were Pat Jordan, Tom Gracik, Wayne Revord, Bernie Link, Frank Jordan and Kevin Mielock.

Potts struck out eight batters and issued six walks to win with ease.

Jr. Baseball Teams Again Burned Paths

Junior baseball teams again ran wild on the base paths last week and not a pitcher turned in a shutout in either league.

Action July 7 saw the Scouts defeating the Indians, 13-7; Shawn Look was the winning pitcher as the Jets defeated the Dodgers, 19-11; the Cubs downed the Eagles, 5-4, behind the pitching of Steve Rollin, all in the Knothole League.

Pony League results saw the Dodgers winning over the Braves, 7-6, while Dale Wheatley claimed the mound victory as the Yanks downed the Eagles, 5-2.

Knothole League games July 8 saw the Braves beating the Red Sox, 14-1, behind the pitching of Eric Schreiber; it was the Yanks over the Tigers, 12-1, and Bobby Bissonette turned in the win. In the Pony League, Gale Erickson was the winning pitcher as the Hawks trimmed the Twins, 4-3.

Only one game was played Wednesday night and the Pony League Eagles won over the Dodgers.

Thursday night play in the Knothole League had Tony Blust and the Indians winning over the Scouts, 7-1.

Russ Carney was the winning pitcher Friday night as the Hawks won over the Twins, 10-5, in the Pony League.

Lightning Fleet Held SB Regatta

At 11:20 a.m. Friday, the starter's cannon began the 35th three-day Michigan Lightning Regatta on Saginaw Bay. With spinnakers billowing and 46 Lightnings entered—the largest field of registrants since 1945—two seven-leg races were held.

The first day of racing brought Tim VanderMeulan of Gull Lake and his two women crew members in first place, with Tom Jungjohnn from Douglas Lake and Hank Hodgson of Union Lake in runner-up positions.

On Saturday, the Lightning skippers burst to the starting line at 2:05, after patiently waiting at the Bay City Yacht Club for the weather to clear. After working around a major wind shift, the race committee finally set the last leg of the race head to wind and a good last leg was accomplished with Hodgson claiming first place and Midland's Joe Disette in second. Dave Peters of Ann Arbor took third.

On Sunday, the regatta was concluded after a 55-minute postponement waiting for air. Once the seven, one-mile course was set, the east wind remained steady at five to seven knots. Eagerly pushing to the line, 90 percent of the boats went over the starting line before the gun signaled the start. An immediate general recall was issued and once more the sailors started.

With the fleet tacking steadily, VanderMeulan finished the race first at 2:35 and the "pickle" or last boat arrived 20 minutes later.

Tabulation of all points won by each Lightning skipper at the end of each of the five races determined final placement of the regatta. Hodgson won first place, followed by Rick Frank of Pontiac Yacht Club; Clarence Hohlman III, Pontiac Yacht Club; VanderMeulan; Disette; Peters; Paul Miltzer, Grand Blanc; Carl Engles, Kalamazoo; Jungjohnn; George Nickels, Holly.

There were 24 women registered as crew members in the race and women comprised the crews among the first 11 finishing boats.

The regatta was hosted by Pontiac Yacht Club and Bill McKinley of Bay City was general chairman with Glen Smith, Pontiac, serving as race chairman. L. G. (Ladd) McKay of East Tawas was a member of the race committee.

BETH REED HEADS FUND RAISER

Beth Reed has agreed to the chairmanship of the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital Bike-A-Thon in Whittemore to raise funds to support the hospital, according to William J. Kirwen, director of development at the internationally recognized hospital.

St. Jude Children's Research Hospital was founded by the entertainer, Danny Thomas. The institution opened its doors to the public in 1962 to combat catastrophic diseases which affect children. St. Jude's is non-sectarian, nondiscriminatory and completely free of charge to all patients.

At St. Jude, scientists and physicians are working side by side seeking not only better means of treatment but also the cause, cure and prevention of these terrible killers.

All findings and information gained at St. Jude's are shared freely with doctors and hospitals the world over. Through St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, children who have leukemia, Hodgkins disease, sickle cell anemia and other child killing diseases now have a better chance to live.

The funds raised in the Bike-A-Thons this fall will assure the continuation of the life giving work at the hospital.

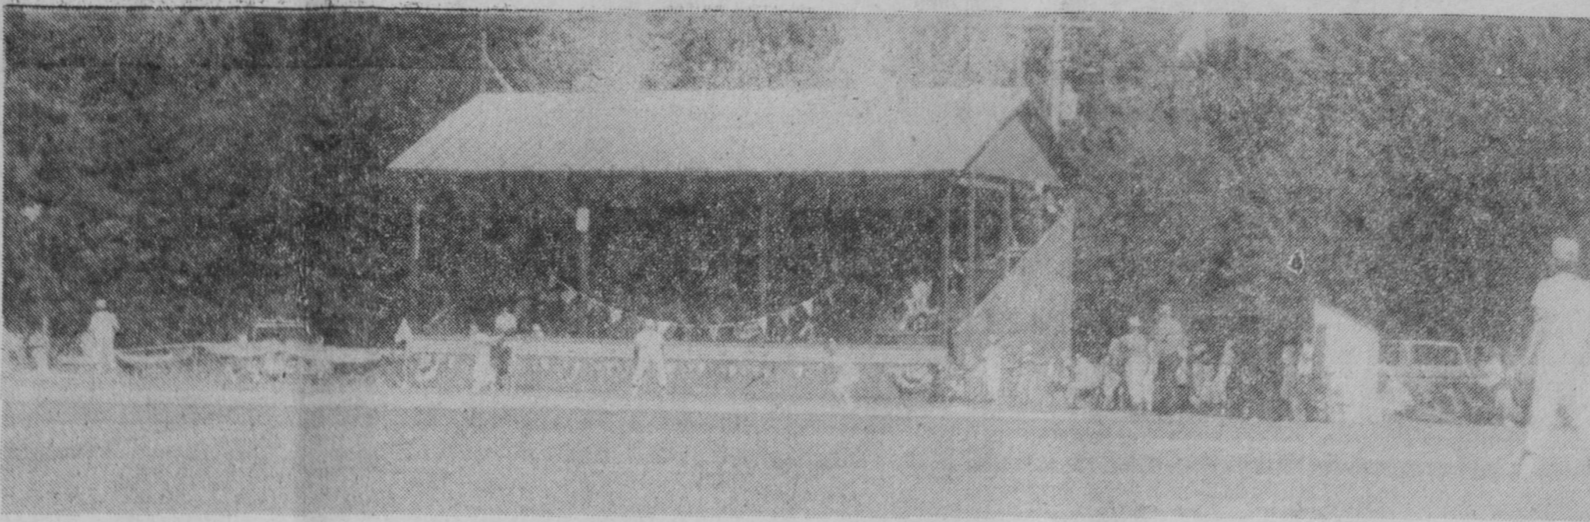

The concern which Mrs. Reed has for the work being performed at St. Jude is greatly appreciated.

Yvonne Dobson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Dobson, Whittemore, was elected to serve as secretary of Michigan Region VII, Future Farmers of America, at the Regional Leadership Training Conference held recently at Central Michigan University, Mt. Pleasant.

Other delegates attending from the Whittemore-Prescott FFA were Wendy Wight, Sheryl Engster, Chris Sievers and Andrea Parent. Two members, Miss Wight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wight, Whittemore, and Joseph Kelpinski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Kelpinski, Prescott, were honored along with 22 others as regional farmers. Miss Wight was chosen as one of four candidates to compete for Star Farmer.

ANNUAL ALL-STAR GAMES of the Tawas junior baseball league were held Saturday at the Newman Street Athletic Field, East Tawas. Like their "big league" counterparts, it was the National Division's day in both leagues. The National Division team defeated the American Division, 13-8, in Knothole League action with Scott Look turning in the mound victory. He was given the game ball by the National League for his excellent performance. Terry DeWysse, Bob Hine and Look each belted two hits during the game. Dale Wheatley was the winning pitcher as the National Division defeated the Americans, 11-5, in Pony League action (above).—Tawas Herald Photo.

WHY DO PEOPLE PAY THEIR BILLS BY TELEPHONE?

BECAUSE IT'S EASY!

And that's what Tel-Check, Mutual Savings' convenient new telephone bill-paying service, is all about... making your life a little easier.

BECAUSE THERE ARE SO MANY ADVANTAGES!

People who pay their bills by Mutual's Tel-Check System have no checks to write—no envelopes to address—no trips to the mail box—no postage to pay, and—no loss of interest as with most checking accounts... and with these inflationary times, you deserve all the help you can get. Mutual will pay you 5 1/2% interest compounded daily on your Tel-Check balance. (Ask your bank if they'll do that!)

BECAUSE IT'S READILY AVAILABLE!

No matter what time you call—day or night—the Mutual Savings Tel-Check System is at work 24 hours a day, seven days a week and never goes on vacation or takes the day off. If you wish to make a payment on a date in the future, just give Tel-Check the date you want the bill paid (up to 30 days from the date you call) and the System will take care of it.

BECAUSE IT'S ACCURATE, SAFE AND SECURE!

Your payment instructions to Tel-Check are replayed to you for verification. Your personal identification number (PIN) assures total security and protects your account from unauthorized use.

BECAUSE IT'S A WAY TO MAINTAIN COMPLETE AND ACCURATE RECORDS!

When you open your Tel-Check account, Mutual provides you with an attractive register for recording your transactions. And each month you receive a detailed statement that shows clearly every transaction you made during the statement period, such as deposits, withdrawals, any service charges and interest paid. These summaries can be very helpful when you prepare your Federal Income Tax return.

BECAUSE IT COSTS SO LITTLE!

As a matter of fact, Tel-Check services can be completely free depending on your account balance and the number of transactions you make each month. You are entitled to one free transaction for each one hundred dollars of your account's lowest balance during the month. For example, your lowest account balance is $600... you can make up to six Tel-Check transactions free of charge. Additional transactions are a low 15¢ each. Of course, deposits, withdrawals and payments on a loan at Mutual Savings, as well as transfers to bank checking accounts are always free.

SO...

- IF you like to save money...
- IF you hate to write checks...
- IF you want to say goodbye to your checkbook...
- IF you think postage costs are too high...
- IF time is important to you...
- IF your bank won't pay your bills for you...
- IF you aren't earning 5 1/2% on your checking account...

IT'S ABOUT TIME (AND MONEY) YOU PUT TEL-CHECK TO WORK!

Takes the hassle out of paying bills.

Tawas Bay Hosts International Sailing Competition July 21-25

Tawas will host international sailing competition July 21-25 when sailors from Scotland, England, Iceland, Denmark, Canada and the United States converge upon the waters of Tawas Bay for the fourth biennial Wayfarer World's Championships.

Tawas Bay Yacht Club, two miles southeast of East Tawas off US-23, will host sailors of the 16-foot, one-design Wayfarer class during the week-long regatta.

The schedule of events will begin with boat measurements on Saturday and Sunday, July 19-20. A practice race and welcome party also are scheduled for Sunday.

The first race is set for 2:00 p. m. Monday, sending the fleet into the seven-race series. Races two and three will be sailed Tuesday, race four on Wednesday, five and six on Thursday and the final event on Friday. Slated starting time for races Tuesday through Friday is 11:00 a. m.

A fleet of 31 boats will be sailing in the championship series. All participants qualified for the event by scoring high in a national regatta. Visiting countries are allowed six entries. As host for the event, the United States is allowed 12 participants.

Tawas Bay is a protected area of Lake Huron that promises Wayfarer sailors excellent conditions and an area of water ideal for setting a six-leg, isosceles right triangle, Olympic course. The bay has been the site of several national and North American championships.

"The situation is quite suitable to the Wayfarer because we will be able to get far enough offshore for unaffected winds and clear sailing," Richard Socha, administrator and Wayfarer international committee representative, explained. "The Wayfarer was designed for sailing on open waters of the ocean."

England has dominated the championship series since its inception in 1974 when the international fleet met in Eggenland. The British have continued to dominate each biennial regatta since, taking first place honors in Canada in 1976 and in Denmark in 1978.

"The English are tough competitors and fine sailors," Socha said. "The first Wayfarer was designed and built in England and the people of the country do not seem to want to lose their class domination."

Responsibilities for organizing the 1980 regatta have been under the direction of a Wayfarer World's Committee and the United States Wayfarer Association (USWA). Serving with Socha on the world committee are Michael Anspach, USWA commodore; Jo-Ann Socha, social chairperson; Richard Rothery, racing chairperson.

Commenting on their goals for the 1980 Wayfarer World's, Socha said, "Our main goal is to provide the sailors with the best possible conditions and competition, as well as warm camaraderie. It is a wonderful experience to sail with people from other countries whom you have never known before or competed against. We want people to enjoy that aspect of the regatta as much as the sailing."

Whittemore Summer Festival July 19-20

Whittemore's annual summer festival, sponsored by Whittemore Chamber of Commerce with participation by the Lions Club, is to be held Saturday and Sunday, July 19-20.

Saturday's program is to feature a parade at 1:00 p. m. and an auction at 2:30 p. m.

A free dance is to be held at 9:00 p. m.

Sunday's program includes a tug of war at 12 o'clock noon and a ball game at 2:00 p. m.

There will be a refreshment tent, games, food stands and a sledge-the-auto game.

Say US-23 Realignment Plans Stuck

Public hearings on realignment of the US-23 corridor from Standish north to the M-65 intersection are not expected to be held in 1980, according to a report to State Rep. Tom Alley of West Branch.

Samuel F. Cryderman, deputy director of the bureau of transportation planning, said July 1 that a study team met June 12 and that highway design representatives submitted exhibits depicting illustrative alignments for possible relocation of US-23 within the study corridors.

Cryderman said these alignments, in addition to the alternative of upgrading the existing facility or the option of doing nothing, will need to be thoroughly analyzed by the department's social-economic and environmental personnel.

"However, due to current project assignments and limited staff, it will be several weeks before team members can devote full time to the US-23 study project," said Cryderman.

Historical Book Chairman Seeks Material for 500 Pages

Lucina Chirko, new Iosco County historical book committee chairman, reports family histories and other material for publishing in the book have been coming in. However, in order to make the book a success, it is necessary to have enough for at least 500 pages. This includes histories, tributes, memorials, pictures, etc.

After all material is edited, sorted, documented and shipped to the publisher, it will be at least six months before the book is completed and returned for distribution.

Being aware that many are working on their stories and although it was necessary to extend the deadline to July 31, the committee is hoping that all promised material will be in by that time. If not, a further extension of time will be required.

The publishing company has informed the committee that continuous delays create an unfair burden on those who have paid for books and are looking forward to having them by the end of the year, which would be impossible if another extension is made.

For help in compiling a history, contact Mrs. Chirko at 862-4390, to be referred to a committee member in an individual's area.

Entries may be submitted to the Iosco County Museum or mailed to History Project, Box 135, East Tawas 48730.

Road Building Family from Iosco

An Iosco County family distinguished itself as the most influential highway engineers in Michigan during the early part of this century.

H. M. Belknap, civil engineer of Tawas City and Whittemore, built many of the highways in this county and one son, Leon V. Belknap, was builder of Woodward Avenue in 1925. The youngest son, Lyle, was highway engineer at St. Johns.

Fifty-five years ago, Woodward Avenue was said to be the greatest highway of all time, "exceeding all of the great highways of Europe."

"It is a pleasure to the people of Iosco County to know that one of its sons was selected to successfully accomplish this immense undertaking," stated The Tawas Herald on November 6, 1925.

Another son, Leslie H. Belknap, was employed as an engineer with the state highway commission in the first major road building program of the early 1900s.

The 1912-13 legislature made some very progressive changes in the highway laws, increasing state rewards to local government for road construction and doubled the reward to trunk line roads.

All of this came at a time when automobile industry plants were bursting at the seams with a remarkable increase in production. Good Roads Associations were formed throughout the state to promote construction of better highways to take advantage of this modern form of transportation.

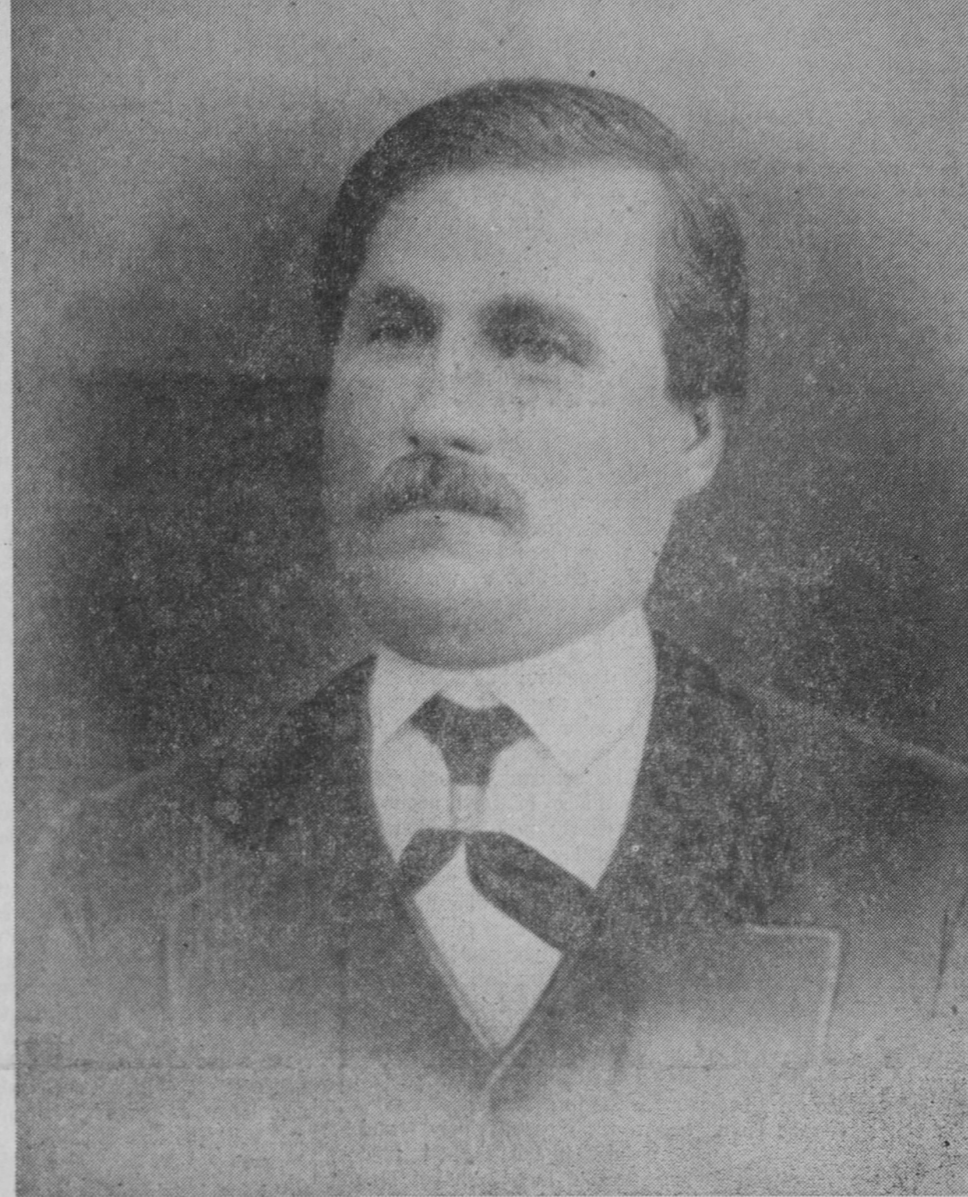

Leslie H. Belknap had charge of engineering for the Huron Shore Trunk Line authorized by the state highway commissioner in 1914. The route entered Iosco on the route directly north of Twining in Arenac County, thence north through Whittemore to the Waters School (now the M-65-M-55 intersection) and east on Hemlock Road to Tawas City. Leaving Tawas City, the route then headed north on Wilber Road to A-Sable-Oscoda where it left the county.

In a comment printed in the March 27, 1914, issue of the Herald, Belknap said, "I consider it the best possible trunk line location in Iosco County. A good road built on this route will directly benefit eight townships and four cities, as well as indirectly benefiting the entire county. And it is to be hoped that Iosco County will take advantage of the large reward paid for building each mile of this road and build this and other main traveled roads, thus putting the county on the map as a 'good roads county'."

Iosco County did take heed of one of its native sons and took advantage of the state money to build this trunk line, which served as the principal north-south route until a new Huron Shore Road (US-23) was constructed in the 1930s.

Sixteen years later, Leslie's brother, Leon V. Belknap, was given the high honor of serving as chief engineer for construction of Woodward Avenue.

"Between Pontiac and Detroit there is rapidly being completed a pavement that is very properly called the World's Greatest Highway — Wider Woodward Avenue. It is an undertaking that is immense in preparation, size and the effect it will exert upon the whole great district northward from Detroit that will be served by

HOWARD BELKNAP, a civil engineer and former mayor of Whittemore, surveyed and laid out a number of improved roads in Iosco during the early 1900s. His three sons, Leshe, Leon and Lyle, all followed in his footsteps in the road construction field. Leslie became the deputy state highway commissioner after designing M-10 and authorized construction of an experimental concrete road through his home town of Whittemore; Leon became chief engineer of the Oakland County Road Commission at Pontiac and designed Wider Woodward Avenue; Lyle became a highway engineer at St. Johns. This photograph of the senior Belknap was found in the residence of Russell A. Rollin of Fourth Avenue, Tawas City, where the Belknaps lived after moving here. Identification was made by Robert Curtis of Whittemore, who was a road man in Howard Belknap's survey crew after World War I.

ONE OF THE achievements of Michigan during the 1920's was construction of Wider Woodward Avenue from Eight Mile Road to Pontiac, the first modern divided highway in the country. Its designer was Leon Belknap, who was born at Whittemore and became chief engineer of the Oakland County Road Commission at Pontiac.

and where the Indian had his hunting trail.

"Wider Woodward Avenue is an extension of the main Detroit street of that name. It is a part of the Michigan trunk highway, M-10, and it traverses one of the great residential developments in America, which a generation ago was a stretch of fertile farms. Now, there is scarcely a cultivated farm for many miles.

"All this territory has been seized upon by homeseekers and subdividers and made into a beautiful development, which is rapidly being built up. Such parts of it that had not previously been subdivided have been so treated since the decision to build the highway was reached, because of the general realization of the manner in which so gigantic a highway improvement must develop the adjacent property."

The Herald said that Wider Woodward Avenue was looked upon in engineering and road building circles as an outstanding example of road-making skill and of foresight in traffic planning.

"Unique as it is in highway accomplishments of today, it is the opinion of the builder that a generation will not have passed before it will be copied in other places as the necessary solution to traffic problems on a main avenue into a large center."

Leon Belknap's super highway of 1925 has been overshadowed by the immense state and federal highway construction programs undertaken since World War II, but this Iosco native's contribution to highway engineering was truly significant for his pioneering ideas cleared the way for others to follow.

EDITORIAL

Wake Up, Detroit!

The main headline in last week's daily newspaper reports that automobile industry is pushing for more economic aid from the federal government during these troubled times.

President Carter, who used the power of his office earlier this year to win the Democratic nomination by making economic promises to areas of the country which supported him, made a brief visit to Detroit on the eve of the Republican convention—to make more promises.

While the beleaguered automobile industry is everyone's concern, management and labor leaders should get down to the nitty-gritty and accept one of the major problems which confronts the industry—and one which cannot be solved by mere financial assistance from taxpayers.

There are numerous factors which have led to depressed automobile sales and subsequent layoffs in the industry, one of which is the fact that the American public is tired of buying a product inferior to imports and at an excessive cost. The American public, for years, has pleaded for smaller, more economical cars than the ones designed at Detroit—but the pat answer has been that Americans want luxury in their transportation.

In the late 1950s and early 1960s, a buyer slowdown did result in each manufacturer producing a smaller car—remember Chevrolet's Corvair, the Mercury Comet, Ford Falcon, Dodge Valiant, etc.—but those models were dropped from the lines, after a few years of brisk sales, in favor of larger, more expensive gas guzzlers.

Adding insult to injury to the buying public is the fact that American cars seem to have an automatic destruction factor—they fall or rust apart too soon, sometimes before the last payment is made by the buyer.

Now that may be all right for the automobile worker, who can afford to own several cars, a van truck plaything and expensive boats to trailer about the country, but not to the average wage earner—especially up here in Northern Michigan. In prior years of a booming, false economy, automobile corporations bragged about their quarterly profits and workers rightfully demanded a share of the plum—but it was paid for by the suckers who were buying the luxury cars they really did not want, nor could they afford.

The higher price of gasoline has mandated that Detroit designers change their attitudes by building lighter and more fuel efficient cars, but concessions to practicality have been made begrudgingly and it shows in the finished product. Despite the claims of Detroit, many people are of the opinion that imports offer the best value to the pocketbook—in original purchase price, but also in fuel economy and performance.

In order to turn things around, Detroit is going to have to start listening to the public, rather than ignoring it with sweet talk from the advertising agencies. The sale of imports will continue to climb until those changes are made and no amount of threats by the auto worker's union—with actual intimidation to imported car owners through damage of foreign vehicles in parking lots, etc.—will end the current depressed market.

It may not be the patriotic thing to do to buy an imported automobile, but many people could now care less about the over-paid American automobile worker and the profit-happy corporations. WAKE UP, DETROIT!

LETTERS EDITOR

Editor:

My husband became very ill with cancer and the doctor put him in the hospital. After my husband had been in the hospital about three (3) weeks he wanted to come home, but the doctor said he needed the IV's; without them his skin would crack and bleed and I would regret bringing him home. Then, a couple of weeks later I was told by the hospital board, in writing, that the government couldn't afford to pay any longer for my husband's hospital bill. His doctor said he only had a few days left to live and he would appeal to the board to allow my husband to stay in the hospital.

The request was denied and I was given 24 hours notice to take him out of the hospital. The IV's were removed immediately. The same IV's the doctor said just a short time before were so necessary. I brought him home and while I sat by his bed watching him die in terrible pain, asking for a doctor which I couldn't get, an announcement came over TV that the same government who couldn't afford to let my husband die with some comfort and professional care had just authorized 10 million to process Cubans into this country to pilfer and burn. Ten million for that but not enough for six more days of hospital costs for my husband; a man who was born in this United States, worked all his life and paid his taxes to help keep this country going. Six more days is all it would have cost. He came home on Tuesday and died the following Monday.

I am 81 years old, have had three heart attacks and have emphysema and asthma. If I were younger and in better health, maybe I wouldn't be so bitter and I know it is too late to help my husband now, but maybe this letter will help some others in their time of need and understanding. Surely our laws have to be changed to give aid and comfort to our own citizens who have contributed to the well-being of this country.

Sincerely,
Edna Reinhardt

List Guest Speaker at ET Church

Mickey Jordan of Clarkston, Georgia, will be guest speaker at the East Tawas Assembly Of God Church, located at 311 East Lincoln Street, East Tawas, Friday evening, July 18, 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Jordan, author of "Someday I'll Be Somebody," published by Logos International and endorsed by renowned writers, Catherine Marshall and Rosalind Rinker, relates her amazing journey made from the dusty peanut and cotton fields of Southern Georgia as a sharecropper's daughter to the heights of self-discovery by route of Hollywood, California.

Yearning to escape the harsh poverty and back-breaking labor, she yearned even more to change the smothering mental attitude which said, "You are poor white trash, you are unimportant, you are nobody," but through God's abiding love, the realization of being somebody is quite different from the somebody she first envisioned. Mrs. Jordan has filled many roles in her lifetime from starlet, to housewife, mother, grandmother, business executive with the Christian Broadcasting Network. She has appeared on many national television programs. Her speaking engagements include churches, Women's Aglow Fellowships, Full Gospel Businessmen's Fellowships and Christian Retreats, where she shares God's miracles in her life and how God led her into a healing ministry.

The Rev. Edward J. Fairbanks extends a cordial invitation to the community to attend.

Ramifications of April Census

A review of preliminary head count figures announced for Iosco County last week by the United States Bureau of the Census indicates the final total may be somewhat higher than anticipated. A major determining factor will depend, however, on those residents who spend their winters out of the county.

If those persons did not claim their residency in Iosco County when contacted by the census bureau the first week in April, they were counted in such states as Florida, Arizona and California and those states will be benefited.

According to the official review list, Iosco County has a total of 17,811 housing units. On April 1, 8,090 of those units were vacant, which figures out to a 45.4 vacancy rate. Some of those units are summer homes of people who do not declare residency here, but others are owned by actual residents who spend their vacations in warmer climates.

For example, Alabaster Township had the amazing vacancy rate of 63.9 percent, while two component parts of Grant Township were even higher with 90.5 vacancy rates. Parts of other townships reached the 80 percent vacancy rates. On the other hand, Tawas City and East Tawas had vacancy rates of 21 percent, which may be closer to the actual number of residents "wintering" elsewhere.

Some obvious errors have been made in the census and it has been emphasized that the preliminary count is subject to change. The county showed a 9.8 percent increase in population and, despite the fact that some officials seem to be getting bent out of shape when comparing previous estimates with the actual head count, it is doubtful if the final count to be announced later will reflect any major change from the preliminary figure.

As the result of a 26.6 percent loss in head count at Wurtsmith Air Force Base on April 1, coupled with a major increase in Plainfield, Grant and Reno Townships, redistricting of the county board of commissioners under the one-man, one-vote rule is sure to come.

It is interesting to note that only one district—District No. 4, comprising the western half of Baldwin Township, all of Alabaster, Sherman and Burleigh Townships, plus the Cities of Tawas City and Whittemore—is not connected in some way with Oscoda-AuSable Townships because of Wurtsmith Air Force Base. The District No. 5 seat, for example, includes the western half of Oscoda Township with Plainfield, Grant and Reno, while District No. 3 includes part of AuSable Township with Baldwin Township and East Tawas.

That the air base has had an influence on districting of the board of commissioners is evidenced by the fact that in 1970, 6,932 of Oscoda Township's 11,758 residents lived on the base. The figure on April 1 of this year was 5,089 of Oscoda's total population of 11,067 lived on base—a drop of 5.9 percent in the over-all population of the township. It should be noted that Oscoda Township actually showed excellent growth despite the loss of population on base.

That figure for Wurtsmith may or may not stand—Oscoda Township is questioning base officials about it—but there may be a change in the political wind in Iosco. The count is also important to the township and the county in the amount of federal revenue sharing and state reimbursement money to be received, so it can be expected that some extreme pressure will be brought to bear at certain levels.

(Read Matthew 11:25-30)

"Jesus said, 'Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest.'" (Matthew 11:28 RSV)

A sign painter was in police court on a charge of smoking in bed. The fire department claimed that his smoking started a blaze in a hotel room.

Asked if he knew that the law prohibited smoking in bed, he replied, "Yes, I do. I just finished painting 50 signs saying it is against the law to smoke in bed. The signs are to be placed in hotel rooms."

He was fined $25, literally condemned by his own words. Although he had painted the message again and again, the warning apparently never penetrated his mind.

We are often like the sign painter. We read the word of God again and again. What wonderful invitations we find there. What heartening promises. But sometimes they seem to be mere words.

In reality, they are infinitely much more than that, because Jesus Christ, who extends the invitations, also has the power to fulfill every promise He makes.

When we welcome both invitation and promise with our minds and hearts, we are able to receive the blessings God offers.

PRAYER

Dear Lord, make us quick to accept Your invitations and to believe Your promises. Amen.

ORDINANCE NO. 201

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING ORDINANCE NO. 175

THE CITY OF TAWAS CITY ORDAINS:

That Ordinance No. 175 in its entirety is amended to read as follows:

AN ORDINANCE TO PERMIT DIVISION OF A LOT IN A RECORDED PLAT IN ACCORDANCE WITH SECTION 263, ACT 288, PUBLIC ACTS OF 1967, AND THE TAWAS CITY ZONING ORDINANCE.

The division of a lot in a recorded plat may be permitted upon the application in affidavit form addressed to the City Clerk of the City, stating the reasons for the proposed division and the size of the resulting parcels; provided, that no such lot shall be divided into more than four (4) parts, and the resulting lots shall be not less in area than permitted by the Tawas City Zoning Ordinance.

No building permit shall be issued nor any building construction commenced until the division has been approved by the City Council, and if municipal sewer service is not provided, the suitability of the land for building sites has been approved by the District Health Department.

The division of a lot resulting in a smaller area than prescribed herein may be permitted for the purpose of adding to the existing site or sites; provided, further, that the remaining parcel shall be conveyed only to the owner or owners of property immediately adjoining said remaining parcel.

ADOPTED IN ACCORD WITH SECTION 4.9 of the City Charter; to be published in The Tawas Herald, July 16, 1980; effective date, July 17, 1980.

David A. Westcott, Mayor

Rachel Sue McCready, City Clerk

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and complete copy of Ordinance No. 201, duly adopted by the City Council of the City of Tawas City at a Regular Meeting held on July 7, 1980, and that public notice of said meeting was given pursuant to statute. I further certify that Councilman Keiser moved adoption of said ordinance and that Councilman Pawloski supported said motion. I further certify that the following members voted for adoption of said ordinance: Keiser, Lansky, Martin, Pawloski, Upson, Westcott; that no member voted against adoption of said ordinance; and that Councilman Hayes was absent from said meeting. I further certify that said ordinance has been recorded in the Ordinance Book of the City, and that recording has been authenticated by the signatures of the Mayor and City Clerk.

Rachel Sue McCready, City Clerk 29-1b

Three D&M Retirees Honored at Dinner

Three long-time employees of the Detroit and Mackinac Railway, with a combined period of service of 79 years, were honored recently at a retirement party held at the Wabun.

Honored were John Stempky, Cheboygan, 43 years of service; Dolores Sieloff, 21 years, and Milton Unkel, 15 years, both of Tawas City.

Beginning his rail career in 1937, Stempky started as a warehouse clerk at Cheboygan.

World War II kept him off the railroad for four years, but after his return from service he spent a few years at Rogers City until 1950, when he became agent at Cheboygan.

Mrs. Sieloff began her railroad career as switchboard-calculator operator at the general office. In April 1960, her next move was to the purchasing department. In 1964, she became private secretary to a succession of chief operating officials.

In November 1965, Unkel began his railroad career in the stores department. By 1967, he had become stores clerk and became storekeeper in December 1968, which position he continued to hold until retirement.

There were 114 persons in attendance at the retirement party, including family members and co-workers.

Members of the Tawas Youth Recreation organization are invited to attend Saturday night dances at the East Tawas Community Building.

The club meets regularly on the second Saturday of each month at 10:00 a. m. at the Oscoda Township Hall, with the exception of the months of August and December. The August meeting includes a picnic and in December a Christmas party. Both take place in a member's home.

The dues help supply the button books that are donated to the Oscoda Branch of the Iosco-Arenac Regional Library and are available in all libraries of Iosco and Arenac Counties.

White Pine Button Club welcomes anyone interested in button collecting to come and join the group.

Scott Gingerich Places Photo in 4-H Exhibit

Scott Gingerich, Tawas area four-year 4-H member, has had one of his photographs selected for the 4-H traveling photography exhibit. The exhibit is used throughout the year at 4-H Achievement Days, 4-H leader banquets, 4-H Exploration Days, 4-H Leaderettes, mail shows and other state-wide 4-H activities.

Each year, 4-H members may submit slide entries to the state 4-H office. Of the winning entries, four are selected to represent Michigan at the national 4-H photo exhibition in Chicago, Illinois.

Gingerich, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gingerich, snapped his winning photograph of his dog standing by its house.

ONE CALL COULD HAVE KEPT THEM FROM CUTTING OFF HUNDREDS OF TELEPHONES.

They've just cut through an underground telephone cable. And you could too, unless you call before you dig.

A cable can be costly to repair. And it can be costly for those whose telephone service is interrupted.

So don't take unnecessary chances. The next time you're planning any digging, please call before you start.

You can help us ensure uninterrupted telephone service to hundreds of others just by calling the number listed in the front of your telephone directory.
