

Tawas Bay Hosting International Sailors

Thirty-two boats are competing this week in the Wayfarer World's Championship being held on Tawas Bay. Racing started Monday and is to continue through Friday, with trophy presentations to be made that night at Tawas Bay Yacht Club, host to the event.

Six different countries are involved in the competition, including Canada, England, Iceland, Denmark, Scotland and the United States. Twelve of the 14 boats entered from the United States are from Michigan, with North Carolina and Washington being the other states represented.

There are nine boats from Canada, five from England, two from Denmark and one each from Iceland and Scotland.

The defending world's champion, John Dohr of England, has elected to compete in the Finn class in the current Olympics being held in Moscow and a new Wayfarer champion is to be crowned at the conclusion of this meet.

England has dominated the championship series since it began in 1974 when the international fleet met in England. Races that year were held in the English Channel. Since then, championships have been hosted by Canada and Denmark.

Richard Socha, administrator and Wayfarer world committee representative, said that the racing schedule for Monday and Tuesday to open the competition would be repeated today (Wednesday) through Friday with one race scheduled this afternoon at 2 o'clock, followed by two races Thursday with 11:00 a. m. and 2:00 p. m. starting guns and a single race Friday at 2:00 p. m.

The Wayfarer is a two-person boat designed for racing or cruising and carries a colorful spinnaker. Designed by Ian Proctor, famous English naval architect, for sailing on open waters of the English Channel, Wayfarers have been known to sail across the North Sea in a gale of force nine velocity.

Jay Gregory of Longview, Washington, official measurer for the international committee, said that Wayfarers are 15 feet, 10 inches in length, with a beam of six feet, one inch.

Jo Jones of Dearborn, official registrar for the international committee, points out that the Wayfarer organization is family oriented. Seventeen of the 32 boats entered involve families, with 12 husband and wife combinations. Linda Sweet, former North American champion, is the lone female skipper and her husband, Patrick, is her crew member. They are from Toronto, Canada. There is one team of brothers, Nick and Geoff Hodson of England, entered.

All participants qualifying for the event scored high in a national regatta and the British have dominated each biennial event. The Wayfarer class was introduced into competition in the United States about 20 years ago.

Serving with Socha on the world committee are Michael Anspach, USWA commodore; Jo-Ann Socha, social chairperson; Richard Rothery, racing chairman.

Tawas Bay, which has hosted several national and North American championships in a variety of boat classes, has a rich history in sailing competition dating back to the 1890s. Ever changing wind and weather conditions here provide challenging decisions by skippers during competition. Wayfarer races are run on a six-leg Olympic course.

Sunday's tune-up race provided an excellent example of those changing conditions. A thunderstorm Saturday night, followed by extremely calm weather, saw a two-hour delay in starting the practice race. The breeze freshened just before the gun and skippers were unprepared to cross the starting mark in unison.

Before racing concludes on Friday, it is expected that the fleet will have clear sailing weather.

Study Expansion of ET Library

Expansion of quarters at the East Tawas City Hall for use by the library is now under consideration, according to discussion at Monday night's council meeting.

Roger Walcott, director of Iosco-Arenac Regional Library, appeared before the council and asked that the city consider steps to enlarge the present library quarters.

The planning commission previously had studied the problem and recommended that a partition be constructed across the rear of the council room to permit library expansion. The additional space would be used for a children's center and storage.

The matter was turned over to the council's lands and buildings committee for a recommendation.

The city has received delivery on its new water tanker for the fire department, but the truck is so large that it will not fit through the door of the fire barn. The city is now seeking bids on a roll-up door to permit entry of the truck.

Authorization was given to the superintendent of public works to utilize money remaining from a sewer project to hire Interstate Pipe Maintenance, Incorporated, for additional work on rehabilitation of storm sewers. The firm has completed its present contract and the council authorized its second progress payment amounting to $27,718.

The city clerk is to report at the next meeting on updated contracts for garbage removal and fire protection for Baldwin Township.

Budget Cuts-More Revenue Aids City

Budget cuts earlier in the year, coupled with an increase in revenue, saw the City of Tawas ending its fiscal year on June 30 with a surplus of $14,000.

City Mgr. Lowell Thomas told councilmen Monday night that the surplus resulted when $10,000 was cut from the budget and $4,000 more revenue was received than originally projected.

He said the balance would be carried forward to start the new year of operation.

The council approved an amendment to the fire contract with Tawas and Alabaster Townships, which authorizes a reimbursement to those townships as the fire department budget was not as high as projected.

First reading was held on a proposed ordinance in regard to special sewer construction fees. Reporting on his meeting with the county board of commissioners concerning discontinuance of financing for the county landfill, Thomas said it would be "a giant step backward" if trash disposal is handled by individual units and not on a county or regional basis.

Thomas said that he and Mayor David Westcott had discussed the possibility of establishing an incinerator at the industrial park which would provide steam and gas as a by-product of burning waste.

Thomas said that establishing landfills by each unit of the county would greatly increase the cost to taxpayers. He urged councilmen to attend a special meeting called by the county

Would Slow Aging Process of Lake

Fifteen years ago this week, the old Iosco Board of Supervisors started property condemnation proceedings to acquire a site for construction of a dam on Tawas Lake. Nothing ever developed from that proposal, but the same problem still exists.

As the result of action at Monday night's meeting of the East Tawas Council, a special meeting is to be held August 13, 7:30 p. m., to discuss the present situation and to develop some plan of action.

Four property owners from the lake area appeared before the council and pointed out that the lake was being choked to such an extent by weeds that a rowboat could not be pushed through the dense growth in some places.

City Clerk Clyde Soper reported that he had started to compile information concerning the problem several weeks ago when complaints were heard from property owners in the Cranberry Pike area.

It was even suggested by one citizen that the city consider introduction of white amur fish into Tawas Lake. The fish is said to feed on weeds, but Soper learned from the Michigan Department of Natural Resources that this "grass carp" creates additional problems by competing with other fish for space and available food. A permit to plant white amur fish is not likely.

Soper said there are several methods available to slow the aging process taking place in the lake through harvesting of weed growth, dredging, control of nutrients entering the water and possibly construction of a dam to maintain the lake level. Proposed construction of a dam on Tawas Lake was a matter of considerable controversy at one time. Although the lake level was established in circuit court, mainly through a property owners committee headed by the late Edward Higgins, one-time city councilman, a dam necessary to maintain that level was never constructed, possibly due to the threat of damage to lakefront property.

"I am even going to check out the rumor that Dow Chemical Company was once interested in utilization of materials from the lake for processing into a 'commercial product,'" said Clerk Soper.

Library May be Dropped from TC Building Plans

Elimination of library quarters in a proposed new building to serve the fire department is under consideration by the Tawas City Council.

No formal action was taken Monday night, but the council directed City Mgr. Lowell Thomas to obtain costs on purchasing two parcels of land near the Fourth Avenue-Mathews Street intersection as the possible location of a new fire hall.

During discussion on the matter Monday night, some councilmen were of the opinion that the present location of the Tawas City branch of Iosco-Arenac Regional Library should remain in the city-owned Adamek house next to the city hall for the time being and that consideration should be given to construct a steel building to house only the fire department.

Mayor David Westcott said he was greatly concerned about adequate housing for the fire department, particularly since the city would soon receive a 5,000-gallon tank truck which is presently stored at East Tawas. The East Tawas Fire Department has received delivery on a new truck and a unit owned by the Michigan Department of Natural Resources is now surplus to its needs.

In order to provide protection for fire trucks, equipment of the department of public works was moved out of the city garage on Fourth Street to permit housing two fire units. The other two trucks remain at the city hall.

A report from the city's architectural consultant said that he had reviewed both the site on Mathews Street and property next to the city hall as proposed locations for the new building. He said that it would be possible to position a 4,500-square-foot building on the Mathews Street site, but the building would have to be placed at an angle and be of an irregular shape. There would be no room for expansion.

The architect said that the only saving to be gained through utilization of prefabricated steel construction would come if the building is of standard design.

It was felt by councilmen that removal of the library from the proposed building, eliminating its 1,200-square feet of space, could solve the problem.

Coun. Robert Pawloski said there was nothing that said a library had to be included in the proposed building and both he and Coun. Florence Upson felt that everything possible should be done to construct the building at a minimum of cost.

Coun. James Lansky reported that he had contacted the librarian and learned that use of the library has greatly increased since it was moved next to the city hall.

Coun. Donald Hayes pointed out that property next to the city hall had been purchased for use by the city and Coun. Hugo Keiser believed that prices should be obtained from the Detroit and Mackinac Railway Company and William Borsch for the Mathews Street site before any further action is taken.

"How far do we have to shove the project to get the people to support a building project using five percent interest money through Farmers Home Administration," asked the city manager. He felt that the exterior of the building should be covered with something other than steel in order to fit into the neighborhood.

The council is considering placing a proposal before voters in November seeking approval of construction. It has been suggested at previous meetings that the project could be financed through current revenue without a special tax levy.

Sanitary Landfill Meeting August 7

A meeting has been scheduled for August 7 between Iosco County Board of Commissioners and representatives of local governmental units to discuss plans for offering sanitary landfill services once the county discontinues funding the current program next year.

Lowell Thomas, city manager of Tawas City, appeared before the commission Wednesday and felt the problem was serious and critical.

The commission announced recently that it would discontinue funding of the current service provided by Multi-County Landfill when the contract expires in 1981. The commission action indicated that federal revenue sharing funds received by the county would have to be used to finance state mandated programs.

During discussion, Com. Carlton Merschel said that the important thing now to consider is how a sanitary landfill can be financed next year. He suggested that the same landfill could be utilized under new financial arrangements involving the local units.

Com. Marian Ulman said that a meeting had been set up to discuss landfill services on a multi-county basis as a solution to the solid waste problem in the region.

In other business, the commissioners authorized increasing the fee of the medical examiner to $30 for each call. Effective January 1, 1981, the fee would be increased to $35. The mileage allowance was increased to 18½ cents per mile effective May 1.

Considerable discussion was held concerning the feasibility of appointing a chief administrative officer for the county, in compliance with the state's uniform budgeting act.

The opinion was expressed that the commission's finance chairman should be appointed as the chief administrative officer and that person be schooled in every phase of the operation in order to accomplish the work.

Chairman John Webb felt that consideration should be given to appointment of a county administrator.

A resolution was tabled urging the equalization department and Oscoda Township to remove Old Orchard Park and Largo Springs from the tax rolls. The property is owned by Consumers Power Company and leased by the county parks and recreation commission for park purposes. The matter is to be considered further during the commission's August session.

Discussion was held on fi-

Dillon-Lamb Marriage Vows Exchanged at UM Church

In 2 o'clock rites Saturday, July 19, at Tawas United Methodist Church, the Rev. Kenneth Tousley officiated at the double ring ceremony uniting Elizabeth Ann Lamb and Vincent R. Dillon in marriage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Lamb of Tawas City. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Harlan Stock of Unionville and the late Vincent V. Dillon.

Lance Luce of Warren, cousin of the bride, was organist and Dianne Knight, vocalist. An oboe solo was presented by Michele Barc.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore an organza gown featuring a high neckline and point d'esprit insert. The bodice was adorned with tiny seed pearls and the bishop sleeves and cuffs were trimmed in Chantilly lace. Matching lace enhanced the skirt flowing to a chapel train. Complementing her attire was an elbow length double tier veil secured by a bandeau cap with re-embroidered lace and seed pearls. Her colonial bouquet was comprised of Stephanotis, white roses and babies breath.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Larry Sippy of Saegertown, Pennsylvania, sister of the bride, with Lynn Krebs of East Tawas, Catherine Moss of Eau Claire, Wisconsin, and Mrs. Richard Reid of Caro, sister of the bridegroom, bridesmaids. Flower girl was Jill Sippy. They were attired in white voile gowns featuring camisole tops with accents of lace and pink satin ribbons. They carried three long-stemmed pink roses and wore sweetheart roses and babies breath in their hair.

Serving as best man was Wayne Dillon of Cass City. Groomsmen were Richard Reid of Caro, Thomas Budzynski of Leonard and David Lamb of South Lyon. Ushers were Ronald Kappen of Cass City and Kris Matt of Unionville.

A reception for 140 guests from Lake Odessa, Gageton, Ypsilanti, Midland, Pinckney, Perrinton, Frankenmuth and Mio followed the ceremony in the fellowship hall.

Mrs. Lamb chose a pink gown with matching sheer jacket trimmed in Venice lace. Mrs. Stock wore a pink gown with floral overblouse.

Following a wedding trip to Canada Creek Lodge, Atlanta, and Rogers City, the couple will reside at 4692 Jacob Road, Cass City.

The bride, a graduate of Northern Michigan University, was honored at showers hosted by Sherry Dillon and Linda Der-finy; Miss Krebs, Miss Moss and Mary Maher, and by DeFord Elementary School teachers, where the former Miss Lamb is employed.

Sand Lake

The children of the late L. P. and Rachel Latham held their annual family reunion Sunday, July 20, at Sand Lake Heights Community Building. There were 66 people in attendance from Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti, Dearborn, Fraser, Sterling Heights, Rochester, Roseville, Warren, Sterling, Clio, Sand Lake Heights and Tawas City.

Mrs. Erma Greenwood has been spending time with her ailing sister in Breckenridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Colin Parks, Saginaw, were guests at the Ray Lenczewski home last week.

At the retirees meeting last week, prize winners were Gordon Roper, Edward McCann, Doris Reeside, Michael Sullivan, Edward McFarland, Dorothy Kohlmann and John Reynolds. Congratulations are in order for the king and queen of the retirees, John and Mabel Massman.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Maska was the scene on Saturday when a group of neighbors and friends gathered for a festive pot-luck outing.

Mrs. Dorothy Herbert, Mr. Clemens, spent a few hours in the area last Thursday visiting old neighbors and friends.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nimchski for a few days last week were her brothers and sisters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Atkins and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Atkins, all of Clio, and her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Myrda, Durand.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Weisenbaugh on Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Mergenthaler, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Whipple, Lake City, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thomas of Hale.

Joan Mascari and her mother-in-law, Louise Mascari, Bloomfield Hills, spent a few days with the former's father, Joseph Topolewski. Also visiting Mr. Topolewski for the week-end were his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Topolewski, Sterling Heights.

Condolences are extended to the Larry Studleys at the death of his mother, Edith L. Studley, Algonac, after a long illness.

Mrs. Virginia Lupi is a patient at Tawas Hospital.

Reports are that Harry Eveland continues to improve at University Hospital, Ann Arbor.

Becker - Lake Vows Said at Grace Lutheran Church

A reception at the Holland House followed the exchange of vows Saturday, July 19, at Grace Lutheran Church, East Tawas, when Linda M. Lake became the bride of Eugene M. Becker. The Rev. Raymond Moelter officiated and Mrs. Charles Nash was organist for the 2 o'clock double ring service.

Parents of the couple are Mr.

and Mrs. Victor Lake and Mrs. Clifford Becker of Tawas City and the late Mr. Becker.

Attendant for the bride was Mrs. Robert Lake of Tawas City. Nelson Terry of Ann Arbor served as best man. Paul Lake of Tawas City and Richard Becker of Whitmore Lake were ushers.

The couple is residing at 1884 Saginaw Street, National City.

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Robarts of Whittemore announce the engagement of their daughter, Sharon Rose, to Larry Dale Kirby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mercer Braun of Trenton, New Jersey.

A 1972 graduate of Whittemore-Prescott Area High School, the bride-elect graduated from Valley Forge Christian College with a ministerial degree. Her fiancé is currently attending Valley Forge after serving four years in the United States Navy.

Plans are being made for an August 16 wedding at East Tawas Assembly of God Church.

Open House Planned for New Tanker

PROVINCIAL HOUSE skilled nursing facility in Tawas City is hosting an open house Sunday, July 27, in honor of its second anniversary. Esther Langhorst, the first resident to move into the facility two years ago, is pictured here with six employees who were on hand the first day the nursing home opened. From left are Wyn Dodway, Carol Frank, Judy Wassman, Jerry Frank, Barbara Savelle and Lee Kaunisto. Employees present for the first day, but not pictured, are Jane Rich and Helen Jacobs. Residents and staff will be participating in the open house, which will feature tours and refreshments from 2:00 to 5:00 p. m. The public is invited to attend. "We hope that people of the community will come and join us," said Ruth Bergh, RN, administrator. "A lot of good things have been happening here in the past two years and I think we have a lot to share with the community."

nancing of a proposed zoning ordinance to control construction near the Iosco County Airport. R. Donald Wortman, planner, submitted a contract he proposed for the work. Peter Lichtfus, township zoning administrator, expressed the opinion that responsibility for special zoning required for the airport was an obligation of the county and that the township should not be expected to share in the $2,600 cost.

Approval was given by the commission to share the cost of zoning preparation with the Michigan Aeronautics Commission.

Permission was given to courthouse custodians to join the United Steelworkers of America.

board of commissioners to discuss the problem of financing.

The city manager said he had no recommendation concerning establishing an ordinance to control demolition of buildings. He said that he had contacted the county's building and safety inspection department and it is felt that the matter can be handled through issuance of permits by providing a time period in which buildings are to be removed.

Coun. Donald Hayes, who had proposed that the city consider adoption of an ordinance to control demolition, felt that control by the county building and safety inspection department would be fine and, if it did not prove feasible, the city could again consider enactment of its own control.

The council approved changing the lot sizes of four parcels owned by Carl Babcock in Elms Garden Subdivision. Lines of four lots are to be changed to make three larger lots. Letters of appreciation were sent to Mrs. Steven Ezo for her contribution of $100 to purchase curtains for the library and to members of the Tawas City Garden Club, who planted flowers on the library grounds.

SCHOOL REUNION AT SAND LAKE

of Brighton and Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Black and daughter of Sand Lake Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Strauer recently enjoyed three days at Owosso with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Frank, and at Lansing with the Alfred Marquards, celebrating Mrs. Strauer's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Nelkie Jr. enjoyed a week-end vacation in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Berbeza of Wilmington, Delaware, visited relatives in the area last week while staying with Mr. and Mrs. Orville Strauer. The Strauers also entertained the Ronald Meyers family of Toledo, Ohio; George Siglin of Kawawlin; Meta Nowik of Auburn, and Bruce Krumm and son of Bay City. Saturday, the Strauers attended the 50th anniversary dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rinnert at Port Austin.

David Carswell of Coraopolis, Pennsylvania, vacationed last week at the Floyd Howell residence.

GEORGE BECKLEY DESCENDANTS MET

The George Beckley descendants met for a family reunion Sunday, July 20, at the home of Michael Felske. The eldest present was Mrs. George (Luelia) Beckley and the youngest was Hannah Felske.

Relatives enjoying the day came from East Tawas and Mundelein, Illinois, and greeted the four generation members of Mrs. Beckley, Hannah, Mary Beckley Mahon and Mrs. Felske.

Lorraine K. Siegrist and Lynda R. Provoast were among graduates at Delta College. Lawrence J. Everitt earned a machine tool associate degree at Ferris State College and was among 1,500 students graduating in commencement exercises in May.

Establish Hospital Finance Authority

Establishment of a new hospital finance authority under terms of a 1979 state act was authorized Monday night by the Tawas City Council.

Kenneth J. Myles, on behalf of Tawas Hospital, said that the authority would permit the hospital board to issue tax exempt bonds—at no obligation to the city—"an avenue we need available for future expansion at the hospital," stated Myles.

He said the authority would provide the vehicle by which revenue bonds could be issued. Low interest financing, he said, would actually keep hospital costs down.

Following approval of the authority, Mayor David Westcott named three citizens to act on the board. Appointees approved by the council were Carl Babcock, two years; John Hosbach, three years; Robert Werth, four years.

In other business, City Mgr. Lowell Thomas reported that the bonding firm of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone was in the process of preparing a resolution for authority to issue bonds to finance the $65,340 local share of the bridge reconstruction program later in the fall.

This program, a joint venture using state funds, will see construction of a new bridge at Whittemore Street over the Tawas River and a new bridge on Sixth Avenue over Dead Creek.

It was the consensus of opinion of councilmen that repayment should be over a 15-year period. A portion of the street revenue received from the state is to be used to retire the bonds.

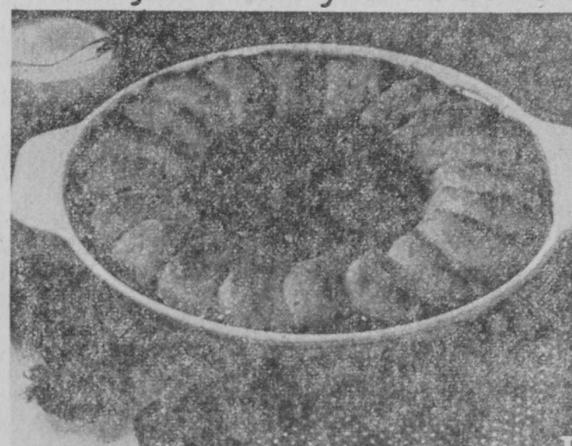

As the lead applicant for federal EDA funds, the council authorized payment of $27,718 in funds received to reimburse East Tawas for work accomplished in the Step I sewer program.

The council approved installation of a second telephone line at the city hall in order to improve service.

Discussion was tabled on a proposal to connect an access road with Mathews Street to serve the post office. The planning commission supported the idea as a means of reducing a safety hazard for traffic on US-23, but the postal service apparently is concerned about the possible loss of parking spaces and congestion for mail trucks at the rear of the building.

Coun. John A. (Joe) Martin also expressed concern that an access road located near the Mathews Street bridge could also be hazardous.

Fruit Cobbler Makes Easy Family Dessert

This family-favorite cobbler is especially easy to make, because the fruit mixture is topped with ready-to-use refrigerated biscuits. Enjoy the dessert year round, with fresh fruits in season or frozen during winter months.

STRAWBERRY RHUBARB DEEP DISH COBBLER

- 3/4 to 1 cup sugar
- 2 tablespoons cornstarch
- 1/8 teaspoon salt
- 1 pint fresh strawberries, sliced in half
- 3 cups sliced fresh rhubarb
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 1 tablespoon margarine or butter
- 1 can (10 biscuits) Pillsbury Refrigerated Buttermilk or Country Style Biscuits
- Cinnamon-sugar mixture

In large saucepan, combine sugar, cornstarch and salt. Stir in strawberries, rhubarb, lemon juice and margarine. Cook over medium heat, stirring frequently until hot, bubbly and slightly thickened. Pour into 2-quart casserole or baking dish.

Heat oven to 400°F. Separate dough into 10 biscuits; cut each in half with scissors. Arrange cut-side-down on hot fruit mixture in circle around edge of casserole. Sprinkle with cinnamon-sugar mixture. Bake at 400°F. for 15 to 20 minutes or until biscuits are golden brown. Serve warm with cream or ice cream. 6 servings.

TIP: Frozen strawberries and rhubarb may be substituted for the fresh fruit.

Township - City Clerks Form New Organization

Members of the Iosco County Association of Township and City Clerks held their first annual meeting July 15 at the McCready cottage on the East Branch of the AuGres River.

Hosted by Rachel Sue McCready, Tawas City clerk, a cookout was enjoyed.

Elected president was Betty Hammond, Alabaster Township clerk; Mrs. McCready, vice president; Clyde Soper, East Tawas clerk, recording secretary.

Formats for publishing the upcoming primary were discussed and it was unanimously agreed that members should write to Lansing representatives objecting to an amendment which would require clerks to mail out applications for absentee ballots to all registered voters over 60 years of age.

It was agreed that this kind of get-together, at least on an annual basis, would help in terms of discussing mutual problems and organizing opposition to unwelcome legislation.

Four Big Days of Fun

Exhibit Assembly Today for Annual Iosco County Fair

Program additions and first use of a new $50,000-plus exhibit hall will feature the 1980 Iosco County Fair which opens today (Wednesday) at Hale.

Exhibits are being assembled this morning in various buildings on the fairgrounds and the Plainfield Township Hall. A giant midway which continues throughout the four days of the fair opens at 1:00 p. m.

One of the main attractions will be the new steel building constructed last fall in connection with the fair board headquarters building. This building will serve as the center for commercial exhibits as well as to house expanded 4-H exhibits.

Richard M. Samson, secretary-manager of the fair, and Gerald Bellen, president of the Iosco County Fair Society, believe that fairgoers are in for a real treat as this building will provide indoor viewing of exhibits despite any possible problems with weather.

This afternoon, judging of open class horses will be held starting at 4 o'clock. There will be a pony pull at 7:00 p. m. and a youth trail class at the same starting time.

Thursday's program starts with a 4-H pancake breakfast at 7:00 a. m., followed by judging of all youth exhibits, except horses, at 9:00 a. m. Beef judging is also to be held in the morning. Judging youth livestock, except horses, is to be held starting at 1:00 p. m. The youth trail class and heavy-horse pull are scheduled to start at 7:00 p. m.

Thursday also marks the opening of three days of harness racing. Superintendent of speed is Robert Ruckle and purses totaling $9,800 are to be awarded winners of 10 different races held Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Pony pulling Wednesday night is under the supervision of John Hill and competition is for Michigan teams only. Prize money and rosettes are to be awarded.

Square dancing by the Harold "Bud" Bannister is superintendent of the heavy-weight horse pulling contest Thursday night. Prize money and rosettes are to be awarded to the first 15 places.

Friday's program starts at 9:00 a. m. with judging youth horses. A 4-H-PFA chicken barbecue is to be held at 4:30 p. m., followed by a mule pull at 7:00 p. m. Bannister is superintendent of this contest. Prize money and rosettes will be awarded to the first 20 places.

Square dancing by the "Flirts and Skirts" will be featured starting at 8:00 p. m. on the tennis court.

Friday is senior citizens day and all persons 60 years and older will be admitted free of charge at the game. A jamboree of retirees' kitchen bands and other senior talent is to be held at the nearby Hale Area Senior Citizen Drop-in Center starting at 2:00 p. m. and crowning of a retiree king and queen is to be held at 4:00 p. m.

Saturday's program starts with another 4-H pancake breakfast at 7:00 p. m., followed by games and contests for all ages starting at 10:00 a. m. The annual parade will start at 12:30 p. m. and participants are to line up at the fairgrounds.

The always exciting youth fat steer sale will be held starting at 1:30 p. m. at the arena. A senior citizens spaghetti dinner is to be held at 3:30 p. m. Exhibits are to be picked up starting at 9:00 p. m. and there will be a fireworks display ending the fair at 10:00 p. m.

Throughout the four days of the fair, exhibit areas are to be open to the public. Included are barns for farm livestock; farm produce, flowers-plants and canning exhibits, along with the youth division, are to be displayed in the township hall; domestic arts, antiques, art, hobbies and handicraft exhibits are to be displayed in the building south of the township hall.

Superintendents besides those named above include: Live-

Drummer Became Early East Tawas MERCHANT

During these days of recession—particularly in Michigan—it is well to recall the experiences of others during similar eras of financial problems.

It should not be expected that recounting experiences of the past will provide the key to unlocking a magic box which will supply needed answers—seldom does one generation pass on to the next any tidbits of wisdom which are relevant to contemporary financial problems—but it does provide some insight as to events which have taken place during the country's history.

William Sempliner, a 93-year-old Bay City merchant when he was interviewed in February 1934, stated without hesitation that the then present recession—known forever to most Americans as the "Great Depression"—"is simply a mole-hill compared to the hard times that ruled the country during and immediately after the Civil War."

The aged Bay City man had been an early-day merchant at East Tawas when the name of Sempliner graced a store front along Newman Street, as well as the name of Wendland, another Bay City mercantile family name of long standing here.

When Sempliner first came to this country from Europe in 1864, as a youth of 24, he was unable to speak the English language. This did not deter his Americanization process one bit for, after living with relatives at Cleveland, Ohio, he was sent out on the road to peddle his wares with a written sales talk prepared by one of his cousins.

Such Hebrew merchants played an important and colorful role in bringing some of life's necessities to such frontiers as Northern Michigan. It is a recorded fact, for instance, that Abraham Barkman, another emigrant from Europe, came to the Tawas area at a very early day with a back pack filled with ribbons. He peddled those colorful bits of cloth to the few pioneer women then living on the shore of Tawas Bay and remained here to establish a family name with a long history of commercial enterprises in this community.

Although the problem of a language barrier must have been tremendous—how would one ever barter over a price, for instance—it was not long before Sempliner could speak English as well as the next person.

When interviewed by The Tawas Herald, Sempliner recalled that in 1864, bolts of cotton cloth sold for 80 cents a yard—at the depth of the depression in 1934, the same bolt of cloth sold for five cents a yard; thread was one-cent a yard and matches sold for 10 cents a box, more than double the 1934 price.

Sempliner even had trouble selling his matches in 1864, for it was not uncommon for men who smoked to use a piece of flint and steel to provide the sparks to light their pipes.

One of Sempliner's first impressions of American politics was gained when he was herded to the polls, together with other bewildered "citizens," to cast illegal ballots for Abraham Lincoln.

"In those days, political machines stopped at nothing to win an election," said Sempliner. More than a century later, citizens are still complaining about rotten politics.

In spite of this unfavorable introduction to America, Sempliner believed Lincoln to have been America's greatest president and was confident in 1934 that "if he were alive today, the present depression would not exist." Despite his confidence held in the martyred president, it is doubtful if even he could have solved the problems of the Great Depression. In 1873, Sempliner visited his home in Austria-Hungary which he had left because of the semi-slavery under which the populace was kept. His visit tended to strengthen his faith in America as an ideal home. He said that Americans who visit and bring back from Europe growing tales of its culture do not see it all.

"Outside the great cities, the poverty and oppression that characterizes everyday existence makes one realize that America has more culture than Europe," he stated.

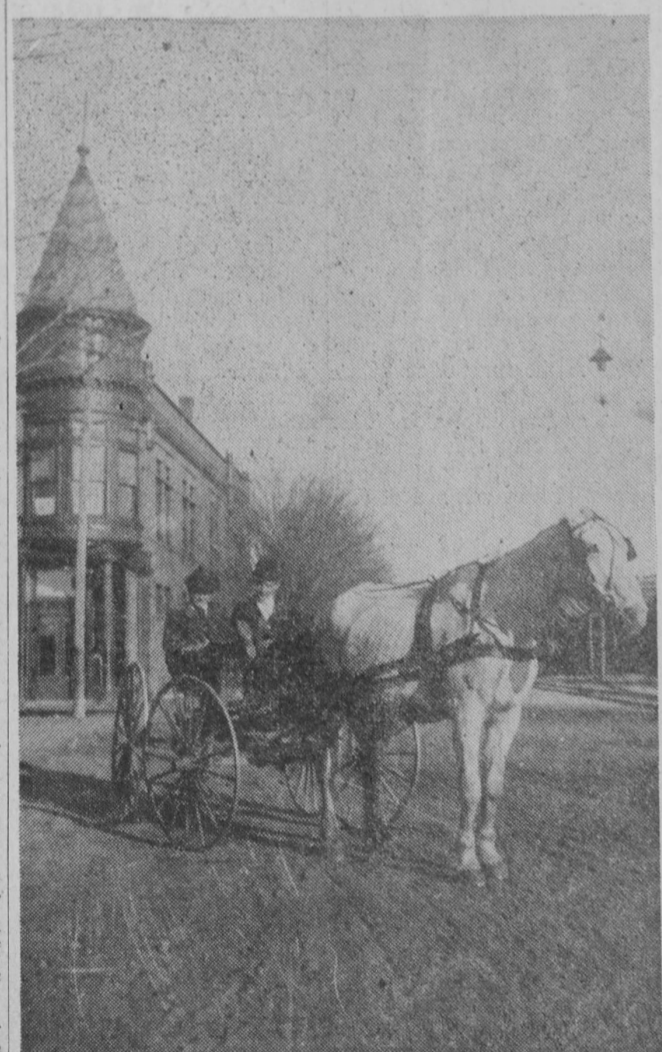

After a period spent in a hoop skirt factory at Lafayette, Indiana, and three years spent on a farm near there, he moved to Bay City. He went on the road again with a team and wagon and traveled up and down the east coast of the Lower Peninsula.

Later, he started into business in East Tawas, where he remained for 42 years. At the end of that time he returned to Bay City and in spite of his 93 years, was active in business in 1934.

The Sempliner name still remains today in the Bay City commercial district and brides-to-be from Tawas visit the Bay City store to make selections for wedding gowns and other needed nuptial items.

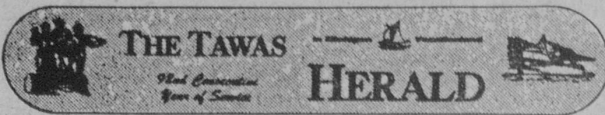

Many races, creeds and cultures have been poured into the melting pot of the new world and transformed into Americans, among whom were men like William Sempliner, who became a part of the fabric which holds America together.

If anything can be learned from the past, it could be said that America needs the confidence toward the future expressed by such men as William Sempliner . . . to meet today's problems. It is worth thinking about.

NEWMAN STREET at East Tawas is pictured here at the time when William Sempliner operated his store there. The firm was in business for 42 years before Sempliner and his son, Joseph, returned to Bay City. Members of the family still operate a wedding apparel and tuxedo shop there and in other Michigan cities.

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands; one nation, under God, indivisible with liberty and justice for all.

An Expensive Controversy

The AuGres Watershed project, which has "died" for want of unanimous support over a period of 35 or more years, seems to again have been shelved through recent action by Arthur H. Cratty, state conservationist. It must be remembered, however, that flood control projects involving the Counties of Arenac, Iosco and Ogemaw have been revived from time to time and there is still the matter of a lawsuit pending in Arenac County.

During the past decade, this project has been in and out of circuit court on a number of occasions and a suit brought by five AuGres farmers relative to a proposed split of costs is still pending. Those farmers, who started the original suit, are now opposed to the cost ratio adopted several years ago in circuit court establishing 91 percent of the local share to be borne by Arenac, six percent by Iosco and three percent by Ogemaw.

This may be a moot point, now that SCS has withdrawn its support of the watershed project, but don't bank on it. In addition, federal funds are no longer as readily available as at one time.

It was once believed that Stanley Quackenbush, deputy state drain commissioner, since retired, had finally succeeded, after many years of prodding, to force Iosco and Ogemaw Counties against their will into accepting his terms for establishment of the watershed project.

That view was generally held when divided Ogemaw County officials, after years of unanimous opposition, approved the project by a split vote at a hearing held at Tawas Area High School. Quackenbush achieved that end with a heavy hand on his chairman's gavel; by then, the proposal had already reached circuit court and a compromise cost ratio had been reached, but actual construction had not been agreed to by the two upstream counties.

In 1973, county officials and drain commissioners of Iosco and Ogemaw were again unanimous in their opposition and voted solidly against accepting a petition for an inter-county drain, overriding the threats of the state official in charge.

As a result of that action, AuGres farmers again went to court, but Judge Joseph Swallow of Alpena denied a motion by the attorney for those farmers to have the six Iosco and Ogemaw officials removed from the augmented drainage board. At the same time, however, the judge ruled on a technicality and found that the 1973 meeting had been held illegally.

Later court action, again brought by the five AuGres farmers, required prior approval before Iosco or Ogemaw Counties could accomplish any road construction which might divert drainage into the AuGres River.

Originally, it was said the project had a price tag estimated at $2,787,352, of which nearly $2,000,000 was to be borne by federal funds. That was not the actual cost figure, however, and opponents believed that it would be much higher once bids were obtained.

Numerous revisions were made to the original plans—a couple of "bones" were thrown to upstream counties in the form of recreational ponds for holding back water, later withdrawn from plans—and upstream counties were successful in requiring that a study be made by a private consulting firm, causing further delay to the project. The estimated cost of the project is now $6,000,000, partially caused by recent inflation.

The pendulum swung heavily against the project earlier this year when other Arenac County property owners, who were not being directly benefited, joined Iosco and Ogemaw Counties to oppose the Soil Conservation Service's final plan.

As a result of this opposition, the Arenac County drain commissioner and the Arenac County Board of Commissioners have taken a neutral position concerning the project. This has resulted in a flare of tempers and incriminations between opposing forces, with county officials and even some businessmen caught in the middle.

This corner has no right to comment at length on the moods or concerns of our neighbors and will not do so. We can only sympathize as it is a deplorable situation for all when neighbor is pitted against neighbor.

One of the problems has been that, for years, some people—including state officials—have tried to force this AuGres Watershed project down the throats of others. When victory seemed within easy grasp of one side or the other, the "winners" have delighted in tightening the screws more firmly on those holding an opposing viewpoint. As a result, there are no real winners.

For years, accusing fingers have been pointed upstream saying "you are flooding us out;" fingers have also been pointed downstream saying "you are farming land which was once pasture and too low—clean out the lower end and there will be no trouble."

Having studied the history of the AuGres River valley—from the days when the entire region was denuded of its white pine cover to the time when industrious farmers converted a dense swamp into rich farmland—this corner does not believe that agitation over a flood control project will end at this point.

Fees expended by property owners and counties for hiring of high-priced attorneys to argue for or against this project over the past decade would have gone a long way toward correcting the problem faced by the few property owners to be benefited in the lower valley. If all the money expended in planning and salaries of state officials involved had been directed toward actual construction of the project, several miles of dikes could have been constructed to contain the river in areas where it has insufficient banks.

But that viewpoint is just too simplistic when one realizes that the actual course of action for we Americans has traditionally been to fight out our problems in court—no matter the cost.

Timer, ring the gong for the next round.

(Read Psalm 25:1-10)

"Behold, the eye of the Lord is upon them that fear him, upon them that hope in his mercy." (Psalm 33:18)

One day a small boy asked his mother a series of questions. "Can God see me in my room?" "Can God see me in the closet?" "Can God see me in the middle of the night?" When his mother answered yes to each question, he was silent for a little while. Then, he said, "I don't believe I care much for that."

He was doubtlessly thinking of God as a large eye that sees all the bad we do. But the assurance that God sees us in every circumstance can also be a source of comfort and guidance.

The Eternal sees not only our failures but also everything that is good about our lives—our decent motives, our desire to be better than we are, our confidence in right and truth, our sorrow for our sins and all our impulses of love and concern directed toward others. It must mean, too, that God marks the direction we take, even in the darkest hours of our experience. He seeks to guide us in His wisdom and love.

PRAYER

Eternal God, we know nothing about us is hidden from You. We thank You for Your correcting and encouraging presence. Help us to walk before You in integrity and obedience. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

11-Day Michigan State Fair Opens Gates Aug. 22

It will be one special day after another during the 11-day run of the 1980 Michigan State Fair. This year's fair officially opens its gates to the public at 10:00 a. m. Friday, August 22, and concludes on Labor Day, September 1. A grand opening parade along Detroit's Michigan Avenue will precede the opening day festivities.

Each day of the fair has been given a theme, complete with a bevy of related contests, entertainment and other activities.

Sunday, August 24, for instance, is Clowns Day at the fairgrounds. There will be competitions for the best clown costumes and clown acts as aspiring Emmett Kelleys vie for cash prizes and trophies. This is also one day where it pays to be a buffoon, since all Clowns Day contestants will be admitted free into the fairgrounds before 12:30 p. m. when wearing their costumes and make-up. A run-down of the 1980 Michigan State Fair's special days include Saturday, August 23, Fabulous Fifties Day; Sunday, August 24, Clowns Day; Monday, August 25, Senior Citizens Day; Tuesday, August 26, Agricultural Day; Wednesday, August 27, Queens Day; Thursday, August 28, Governor's Day; Friday, August 29, Service Club Day; Saturday, August 30, Veterans Day; Sunday, August 31, International Day; Monday, September 1, Labor Day.

To obtain a premium book containing special days contest information and applications, write Harold Arnold, Director of Entertainment and Special Events, State Fairgrounds, Detroit 48203, or call (313) 368-1000.

The nation's oldest state fair, Michigan State Fair marks its 131st anniversary this year, is administered by the Michigan Department of Natural Resources.

SCS Withdraws Support of AuGres Watershed Project

A $6,000,000 flood control project on the AuGres River—in the discussion stage for 35 years or more and seemingly approved in 1972 through establishment of an inter-county drainage board—has again been shelved and may die a natural death.

In a letter dated July 15, Arthur H. Cratty, state conservationist, said he had concluded that there "is not adequate support from local units of government for the AuGres River Watershed Project." The project area included the Counties of Arenac, Iosco and Ogemaw.

Cratty said he was terminating Soil Conservation Service assistance on the AuGres Watershed Project due to "the extent of opposition by individual residents, the lack of adequate support from sponsors and the distinct possibility of lengthy legal actions."

He believed that it would be "impossible to develop a plan that is acceptable to the people and that would be approved by the sponsors."

During the past several months, the Soil Conservation Service has been evaluating the feasibility of implementing a plan to control flooding and improve drainage in the lower AuGres River. "The current controversy over the project required such an evaluation," said Cratty.

"We have received numerous letters from residents in the watershed as well as signed petitions. The majority of the individuals are opposed to the project, primarily because of local costs. A good number of individuals favor the project as a means of alleviating the existing flooding problems and poor drainage of agricultural lands."

Cratty's office asked each of the sponsors of the original watershed project application to respond to the following questions:

Real Estate Transfers

(Recorded July 7-11, 1980)

Martin's Addition to Village of Whittetmore.

Kenneth Martin and wife by Attorney-in-Fact to Gregory A. Janick and wife, Lot 14 of Jack's Subdivision.

Walter E. Leslie to N. J. Rowley and wife, Lot 212 of Assessors Plat of Evergreen Glades Subdivision No. 5.

James A. Baker and wife to Stephen VanCamp, Lot 18 of Block 8 of Foote Site Subdivision.

Douglas Humphrey and wife to Stanley Stasik, Lots 1 and 2 of Mertz Addition to East Tawas Subdivision.

Irene E. Peterson to Lyle E. Reinhardt, Parcel in SE 1/4 of Section 26, T21N, R5E.

Carl L. Klaty and wife to Charles T. VanSickle and wife, Parcel in Government Lot 3, Section 7, T24N, R9E.

1. Do you support the project and wish to continue as a sponsor? 2. Do you oppose the project and wish to withdraw your sponsorship? 3. Do you believe the proposed plan can be implemented?

Only two sponsors, the Arenac Soil Conservation District and the Iosco Soil Conservation District wished to continue as sponsors. Those SCS boards stood alone in their respective counties, however, in favoring the project.

Three sponsors opposed the project and withdrew their sponsorship. Included were the Ogemaw Soil Conservation District, the Ogemaw County drain commissioner and Iosco County drain commissioner.

Because of the recent controversy, which has resulted in formation of an organization of Arenac County taxpayers who violently opposed the project, the plan has been met with divided opinions. The Arenac County drain commissioner has not taken a position on the AuGres project and the Arenac County Board of Commissioners has also taken a neutral position.

Artists Make Final Plans for Art Show

Tawas Bay Artists monthly meeting will be held Thursday, July 24, at the Art Gallery, 7:30 p. m., with special emphasis on the 20th Waterfront Arts and Crafts Show arrangements. Registrations are up over 1979. Art show committees are coordinating each phase of the event, which has proved to be one of the area's greatest tourist attractions, drawing several thousand visitors. This year's show is to be staged August 2-3 at the Tawas City Park and Iosco County Building.

A special program has been prepared by Alice Defibaugh, program director, which features Hazel LaVoie, Chippewa name "Sah-Gos-No-Quah." This delightful lady will speak on Indian lore, the traditions of the Chippewa, a subject she is well qualified to talk about.

The public is invited to attend the meeting and enjoy open house.

4-H Exhibition Open to Budding Young Photog.

Budding young Iosco County photographers are eligible to compete in the 1980 4-H photography exhibition and a chance of being selected to participate in the national 4-H photo exhibit to be held during National 4-H Congress in Chicago, Illinois, in November, says Nancy Tamplin, Iosco County 4-H youth program intern. "The purposes of the exhibition program are to give young people a chance to show off their photography skills and to acquaint the general public with the many opportunities young people can take advantage of through the 4-H program," Miss Tamplin says.

Interested Iosco County 4-H members are allowed up to 10 entries per person. All photos must be mounted on 11 by 14 inch matte boards and prints may be no larger than eight by 10 inches. Black and white prints, color prints and color slides may be entered. Slides do not have to be mounted or accompanied by a print enlargement but prints must be accompanied by the negatives or transparencies from which the prints were made.

Miss Tamplin says that either a single shot or a photo story—a collection of four to 12 pictures that tell a story—may be entered. All entries must be clearly identified with the photographer's name, address, county, age, years in 4-H, years in the photography project and the month and year the photograph was taken. All photos must have been taken after June 1, 1979.

Judging will take place during the Michigan 4-H livestock expo August 18-21 at Michigan State University, East Lansing. A committee of qualified photographers will review the entries and select four to represent Michigan this fall at the national 4-H photo exhibition sponsored by Eastman Kodak Company.

Entries for the contest must be received at the Iosco County Cooperative Extension Service office by August 13.

For more information about exhibit rules and guidelines or any 4-H programs or activity, contact the 4-H youth program intern, 362-3449.

WHY DO PEOPLE PAY THEIR BILLS BY TELEPHONE?

BECAUSE IT'S EASY!

And that's what Tel-Check, Mutual Savings' convenient new telephone bill-paying service, is all about... making your life a little easier.

BECAUSE THERE ARE SO MANY ADVANTAGES!

People who pay their bills by Mutual's Tel-Check System have no checks to write—no envelopes to address—no trips to the mail box—no postage to pay, and—no loss of interest as with most checking accounts... and with these inflationary times, you deserve all the help you can get. Mutual will pay you 5 1/2% interest compounded daily on your Tel-Check balance. (Ask your bank if they'll do that!)

BECAUSE IT'S READILY AVAILABLE!

No matter what time you call—day or night—the Mutual Savings Tel-Check System is at work 24 hours a day, seven days a week and never goes on vacation or takes the day off. If you wish to make a payment on a date in the future, just give Tel-Check the date you want the bill paid (up to 30 days from the date you call) and the System will take care of it.

BECAUSE IT'S ACCURATE, SAFE AND SECURE!

Your payment instructions to Tel-Check are replayed to you for verification. Your personal identification number (PIN) assures total security and protects your account from unauthorized use.

BECAUSE IT'S A WAY TO MAINTAIN COMPLETE AND ACCURATE RECORDS!

When you open your Tel-Check account, Mutual provides you with an attractive register for recording your transactions. And each month you receive a detailed statement that shows clearly every transaction you made during the statement period, such as deposits, withdrawals, any service charges and interest paid. These summaries can be very helpful when you prepare your Federal Income Tax return.

BECAUSE IT COSTS SO LITTLE!

As a matter of fact, Tel-Check services can be completely free depending on your account balance and the number of transactions you make each month. You are entitled to one free transaction for each one hundred dollars of your account's lowest balance during the month. For example, your lowest account balance is $600... you can make up to six Tel-Check transactions free of charge. Additional transactions are a low 15¢ each. Of course, deposits, withdrawals and payments on a loan at Mutual Savings, as well as transfers to bank checking accounts are always free.

SO...

- IF you like to save money...

Proceedings of the Iosco County Board of Commissioners

JULY SESSION

July 2, 1980

A regular meeting of the Iosco County Board of Commissioners held at the County Building in Tawas City on July 2, 1980, pursuant to published schedule.

Meeting called to order at 2:45 p. m. by Chairman Webb and the roll called.

Present: George (District 2), Merschel (District 3), Ulman (District 4) and Webb (District 5)

Absent: Stech (District 1)

Following a brief review by Chairman Webb of the business before the board, Commissioner Merschel presented and moved adoption of the following resolution, motion being supported by George and carried. Your building and grounds committee recommends that the Iosco County Board of Commissioners include in its minutes a letter to the Midwest Regional Office of the U. S. Economic Development Administration showing this board concurs with the Overall Economic Development Plan (OEDP) developed by East Central Michigan Planning and Development Region (ECMPDR) in order to meet a requirement that will insure our maintaining area designation in the regional plan.

Chairman Webb referred to a request by the County Building custodians for a retroactive pay increase, whereupon Finance Chairman George, after expressing the belief that they were given a pay increase in January and again in June, was assigned to investigate the matter and report.

Commissioner Ulman presented and moved adoption of the following resolution, motion being supported by Merschel and carried.

BE IT RESOLVED, that the attached cooperative reimbursement program agreement between the County of Iosco, State of Michigan, and the Michigan Department of Social Services be approved, and that Chairman John D. Webb, Jr. be authorized to sign said agreement.

Commissioner Merschel presented and moved adoption of the following resolution, motion being supported by George and carried.

Your building and grounds committee recommends that Chairman John D. Webb, Jr. be authorized to sign the amendment, designated as amendment No. 2, to the contract between the Iosco County Cooperative Extension Service and the Michigan Department of Social Services, with authorization to be retroactive to the date of June 20, 1980.

Commissioner Stech arrived and joined the meeting at 3:00 p. m.

The clerk referred briefly to the need of a resolution to authorize a rate of compensation for the clerk-matrons at the county jail, who were converted from CETA employees to county employees effective 10/1/78.

A request by the sheriff's department for a 4-wheel drive vehicle to replace the vehicle presently on lease, which now has in excess of 70,000 miles, was discussed briefly.

Chairman Webb reported in reference to bids that were sought for dry cleaning of sheriff's department uniforms, indicating that four dry cleaning establishments were invited to bid, but that replies were received from only two. He thereupon proceeded to open the replies received, Robbie's Cleaning Centre, of Oscoda, offering no bid, and Art's Cleaners, of Tawas City, submitting an itemized bid covering the various articles of clothing. It was thereupon moved by Stech and supported by George that the bid submitted by Art's Cleaners be accepted for study and recommendation. Motion carried.

In a brief discussion of business to be considered, the clerk referred to the need for an item in the budget for the marine agent activity, indicating that the secretary for the marine agent is being compensated on the county payroll and reimbursement provided by the state, with no funding provided in the county budget. Matter discussed briefly and referred to committee.

Committees were ordered to their respective duties at 3:10 p. m., the official meeting to stand in recess until 3:45 p. m.

Upon call to order at 3:55 p. m., Sheriff George Westcott appeared before the board with Dave Anschuetz, a representative of McIntosh-McKay Chevrolet-Cadillac, to discuss with board members the continuation of a lease, or purchase, of a 4-wheel drive vehicle for the sheriff's department. In discussion of the matter, Anschuetz advised that the vehicle currently on lease, registering in excess of 70,000 miles and needing transmission repair, can be purchased for the sum of $2,900, and a new, more fuel efficient unit can be purchased for $8,000, less a $900.00 factory rebate, for a net price of $7,100; further indicating that the cut-off date on the factory rebate is July 31. Following discussion of the matter, it was proposed that the finance committee be authorized to obtain bids from other dealers and make a decision, so that the county might take advantage of any rebate offers. Commissioner George further proposed that extended warranty provisions be included in any bids sought.

In further discussion, Westcott responded to a query concerning cleaning of the cooks' uniforms, that they have been washing their own uniforms.

In discussion concerning a proposal to place a CETA worker at the county animal shelter, so that the animal control officer might be freed to pursue other duties, Sheriff Westcott responded that such an arrangement would result in problems with both the union and the CETA administration. In further discussion, it was proposed that a CETA worker be hired as an additional county custodian and sent out to the animal control facility to cut grass and maintain the grounds.

County Treasurer Edward Nelkie appeared before the board to report that there are inadequate funds in the child care fund to meet current obligations (about $4,000 short through the end of June), and that he will require at least $15,000 of additional funding to meet state institution obligations for the balance of the year.

Nelkie further requested authorization to close out the juvenile facility improvement fund No. 288 and transfer the funds into the general fund, indicating that the special fund has been inactive for several years.

In review of business, Chairman Webb read a letter received from Friend of the Court Edward Seifert indicating a 30% increase over last year in payments received under the child support incentive program, and referred to a request by the prosecutor for approval to attend his association summer conference, which will require more funds than budgeted.

County Clerk D. Keith Pappas requested a clarification with respect to bar association dues shown in the budget for the prosecuting attorney and the judges, inasmuch as a resolution adopted August 2, 1978, prohibits payment of such expense. In discussion of the matter, it was the consensus of board members that the resolution prohibiting payment should not be rescinded.

Finance Chairman George reported on retroactive raises being sought by the custodians, reporting that they received a 7% pay increase in January and another increase beginning June 1st. In discussion of the matter, it was the consensus that the retroactive pay increase be denied.

Upon motion by Stech, supported by Merschel and prevailing, the minutes of the board of commissioners meeting of June 4, 1980, were approved as drafted and presented by the clerk.

Commissioner Stech presented and moved adoption of the following resolution, motion being supported by Merschel and carried.

Your public safety committee recommends that the bid submitted by Art's Cleaners under date of June 16, 1980, for cleaning of the sheriff's department uniforms be accepted.

Finance Chairman George presented and moved adoption of the following resolutions:

Your personnel committee recommends that the county clerk be authorized to continue payment of wages to the sheriff's department clerk-matrons at the present rate, and that all other issues raised by the county clerk relative thereto be referred to the county's labor attorney, Phillip Wood, for his discernment and recommendation. Supported by Ulman and carried.

Your finance committee recommends that the following bills be approved for payment: (1) Travel expenses of up to $138.38 for Emergency Services Coordinator Edgar Cummings, subject to clarification of dates and locations where expenses were incurred for the period 1/1/80 through 3/30/80.

(2) Northern court reporters in the amount of $155.60, to be charged to the sheriff's department arbitration contingency fund.

Supported by Ulman and carried.

The matter of CETA program abuses was raised and discussed at some length, with actual instances of abuse being cited by board members.

The following resolution was presented by Commissioner George, moved for adoption by Stech and supported by Merschel. Motion carried.

Your public safety committee recommends that the finance committee be authorized to secure estimates for, and purchase at a net cost not to exceed $7,100 ($8,000 purchase price less $900 manufacturer's rebate), or lease if more cost effective, a replacement 4-wheel drive vehicle for use by the sheriff's marine patrol, with costs of this purchase or lease to be prorated between the sheriff's marine budget and federal revenue sharing funds.

The business scheduled for the day having been concluded, it was moved by Ulman and supported by Merschel to adjourn until July 16, 1980, 2:00 p. m., or subject to the call of the chair upon 24 hours notice to board members and the news media. Motion carried and meeting adjourned at 5:15 p. m.

Attend the Iosco Fair

THERE IS SOMETHING for everyone at the Iosco County Fair, which opens today at Hale. Visitors have the opportunity to inspect and compare farm produce grown by local "green thumbs," watch exciting horse pulling contests and to view interesting floats in the annual parade, as these pictures show. There is more than this, however, as youngsters compete in many different divisions for blue ribbons, there are commercial exhibits, harness racing, farm animals and last, but not least, a large midway to provide enough excitement to satisfy "kids" of all ages. Plan to attend. —Tawas Herald Photos.

County Fair Plays Host to State Harness Racing Tour

Iosco County Fair plays host to Michigan's summer tour of harness racing this week at the fairgrounds track in Hale.

Standardbred trotters and pacers will compete for an estimated $10,000 in purses during three programs to be held Thursday-Saturday, July 24-26. Post time each day will be 2:00 p. m.

Standardbred harness racing events were first conducted at the Iosco County Fair in 1952.

The track, located on M-65, often receives compliments from Michigan horsemen because of its emphasis on safety rather than speed.

Yet, it is also considered to be highly competitive. It is wide enough so that six horses can score abreast, and it is not unusual to see half that many or more steam across the finish line virtually as a team.

"The races at the Iosco County Fair invariably constitute some of the best harness events we have each summer," says Jack McCracken, president of the Michigan Harness Horsemen's Association.

"It is amazing how sportsmanlike and just plain well the horses and drivers at Iosco perform. Undoubtedly, these qualities serve as reflections of the effort and pride that the Iosco people put into their work.

"There are 40 fairs in Michigan that have harness racing each summer. But, I always make a special effort to try to see the competition at the Iosco County Fair. And I know that many racing fans feel exactly the way I do."

The over-all track record at Iosco was set in 1977 by a horse named Pat's Knight, who paced a mile in 2:07.2. Pat's Knight was driven by Warren McMurray of Whittemore, a frequent competitor at the Iosco County Fair.

The track record for trotting horses was set in 1974 by a horse named Ogemaw Tony. Driven by James Branch of West Branch, Ogemaw Tony trotted a mile in 2:11.4.

The consensus among horsemen is that both records may be broken this year because of an unusually fine group of horses campaigning on the summer tour.

All purses at the Iosco County Fair are provided by the Michigan Department of Agriculture (75 percent) and the Michigan Harness Horsemen's Association (25 percent).

Additional information may be obtained by calling the Iosco County Fair office, (517) 728-3841, or the Michigan Harness Horsemen's Association, (517) 349-2920.

HARNESS RACING is a traditional part of any county fair and the Iosco County Fair, which begins today, has three big days of harness racing on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Because of track conditions, this fair always attracts an outstanding field of horses.—Tawas Herald Photo.

CF Names Chairmen for Drive

The Cystic Fibrosis Foundation is happy to announce the chairmen of the 1980 Breath of Life Campaign in Michigan. Named to serve Iosco communities are Mrs. Frank Lansky, Tawas City; Mrs. William G. Douglas, Oscoda; Mrs. Marguerite Bowers, Hale; Connie Bronson, Whittemore.

September has been designated by the National Health Council as the month for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation to accept contributions door-to-door. The United States Congress has also formally declared September 21-27 as CF Week nation-wide. The chairmen will organize campaigns to raise money for research, education, diagnosis and treatment of Cystic Fibrosis.

Although Cystic Fibrosis is still the leading genetic cause of death among children, the average life expectancy has risen from five to 18 years since 1965. The greatest health problems from CF are caused by increased lung damage from repeated infections and by malnutrition from inadequate digestion of food. With early diagnosis and daily therapy and medications, the quality and length of a child's life is improved.

Gene Riley, state campaign chairman, reports, however, "Though great strides have been made in treating Cystic Fibrosis and in extending life expectancy, it is still estimated that every day five children are born with CF, and every day three people die from CF. We are hoping that this year's Michigan Breath of Life campaign will help change those numbers for the better."

Iosco Cancer Society Held Meeting

Annual board meeting of Iosco County Unit, American Cancer Society, was held Thursday, July 17, at the home of Marjorie Lyon. Attending the session were Marie Hennigar, Erma Wolfin, Mary Byrd, Betty Herrick, William Lyon, Fern Smith and Rautta Raymond, area representative. Discussion centered on ways to have special events to raise money.

Cookbooks are available at Hennigar's Store, Newman Street, East Tawas, or call 362-5875.

Crusade workers with collection envelopes are requested to return them by August 30 or earlier.

Individuals wishing to contribute to the cancer fund may send contributions to American Cancer Society, Box 503, East Tawas 48730.

Class of 1955 Plans Reunion

Tawas Area High School class of 1955 will hold a reunion Saturday evening, August 9, at Bear Track Inn. Cocktail hour is from 6:30 to 7:30 p. m. with dinner to follow.

Reservations may be confirmed by calling Sharon Czajka Chaney at 362-8283, Gary Wood, 362-4435, or Robert Hester, 362-3161, by August 1.

Lions Club Stag Day on August 6

Twenty-first annual Tawas Area Lions Club stag day is to be held Wednesday, August 6, at Tawas Golf and Country Club. The program starts at 7:00 a. m. and is to continue until 6:00 p. m., when a buffet dinner is to be served. There will be contests, prizes and trophies awarded.

Mule Races Saturday at Speedway

The world famous racing mules, will be featured on Saturday, August 2, at the Whittemore Speedway in addition to the regular 8:00 p. m. racing program. Local drivers such as politicians, teachers, radio disc jockeys, police officers or deputy sheriffs, race drivers or local celebrities, will be participating in this hilarious event.

Mules, well-known for their stubbornness and thick skin, will be featured. It will be a thrill to see how many mules will begin the race and how many will make it to the finish line. Some may go to the front of the grandstand and just lay down. No amount of coaxing, pulling the reins or kicking the mule will budge him. If the driver is not careful, he might beat his own mule to the finish line.

Plan to attend this fantastic event when it comes to Whittemore Speedway on August 2.

Major Summer Event

Baby Sitters for Youngsters

Parents Without Partners will provide baby sitters for small youngsters at their regular meetings for the convenience of parents wishing to attend. The evenings begin with a hospitality session from 7:00 to 7:30 p. m., general meeting at 7:30 and speaker or entertainment at 8:30 o'clock.

Plans for the week-end of Friday through Sunday, July 25-27, call for attending the Petoskey Zone Conference. Information may be obtained by calling 362-4493. For those preferring to attend the Saginaw Chapter week-end session, Rose City, call the above number for information.

THE 20th ANNUAL Tawas Bay Waterfront Arts and Crafts Show has 193 entries on the printed program and, by Friday, some 200 persons had registered with Paula Peterson, left, official registrar. That total already amounts to a larger show than last year, according to Joan Blust, right, president of the Tawas Bay Artists, and the limit is 225 entries. This show is one of the highlights of the summer season in the Tawas, attracting large numbers of visitors and buyers from throughout the state.—Tawas Herald Photo.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

In last week's paper, it was discussed at the businessmen's meeting for longer parking hours on Newman Street. I disagree, this two-hour parking is adequate for normal shopping, any others that need longer hours can use the city parking lots. Leave the main streets for quick shoppers. I also notice that there is not one handicap parking space in either of the two towns except a few chain stores.

When I asked permission from the City of East Tawas to park in front of the theatre in daytime hours, I was told it was a state law to keep this space open. And that I could park in one of the city parking lots. My wife is fortunate to own an electric wheel chair but these batteries do not last long. There are many handicapped people in this area who would like to park close to shopping. I suggested to Mr. Soper to remove the tree in front of Pendleton's and make two handicap spaces there. He said he would wait for my letter in the paper before he took any action on handicap parking.

Kroger has parking spaces but they are off to one side and should be near the entrance. Midway has ample parking for handicap and they were also off to the side, but were immediately moved to the entrance area when I explained that it was too far for the handicap to walk. Now, everyone parks there anyway.

It is a federal law that parking be provided for handicapped persons and is to be enforced by any law agency. To those who are permanently handicapped, a form can be received from the secretary of state office to be filled out by the disabled person and his or her doctor, then sent to Lansing. If approved, the disabled person will receive a registered permit to place in the lower left-hand corner of the windshield. This is the only legal permit accepted by the law enforcing agency—although I do believe the state police should be allowed to issue temporary permits for those recuperating from an illness or injury.

I have seen many people, senior citizens, people with canes, walkers, crutches and wheel chairs, trudging through snow and rain to get somewhere as though they were "castoffs." These people would like to get out and enjoy themselves as much as they are able. Why give them a back seat?

It also gets very disgusting when a "scout" has to enter a building first, to see if the handicapped person can get through. Did you every try pushing a 27-inch wheel chair through a 24-inch rest-room door? Or go up a flight of steps to get a decent meal?

I at least hope the officials will enforce the federal parking law. Here is your letter, Mr. Soper, share it with other communities.

Benefits Paid To Disabled

People in the local area who have a severe physical or mental impairment which they expect will keep them from working for a year or more should ask about disability benefits at any social security office, a social security spokesperson said recently.

Social security can pay benefits to disabled workers under 65, disabled widows and widowers 50 or older, and unmarried persons who were disabled before reaching 22 who continue to be disabled.

There is a waiting period of 5 full months before benefits can be paid to disabled workers, widows, and widowers.

A person can help shorten the time it takes to complete an application if he or she has certain information available. This includes:

- Social security number.
- Date person last worked.
- Date person became sick or injured.
- Kind of illness or injury.
- Date of recovery if recovered.
- Names, addresses, and telephone numbers of doctors, hospitals, or clinics where person was treated.
- VA claim number if available.

• List of jobs person worked at most in the 15 years before disability.

• Names, social security numbers, and dates of birth of dependents.

• Workers' compensation number if available.

• Person's own telephone number.

More information about disability benefits is available at any social security office. The people there will be glad to answer any questions. The address and telephone number of the nearest social security office can be found in the telephone directory.

Q. I have been collecting social security disability benefits for 9 years. In a few months, I'll be 65. Should I file an application for retirement benefits?

A. No. If you are receiving disability checks now, your disability benefits will automatically be changed to retirement benefits when you reach 65. You will get instructions when you reach 65 because your rights and responsibilities will be somewhat different than they are now.

questions and answers

Q. My daughter told me that the premium for my Medicare medical insurance may go up this month. Has it?

A. Yes. The basic medical insurance premium increased from $8.70 to $9.60 a month for the 12-month period starting July 1, 1980. The increase is necessary because medical insurance costs have risen as a result of higher charges for medical services. By law, however, the premium increase cannot be more than the percentage increase in social security cash benefits during the previous year.

Q. I get monthly SSI checks because I'm disabled. A friend has asked me to work part-time doing paperwork for him. The job won't pay much. Do I have to report it to social security?

A. You should notify social security immediately if you take a job while you are still disabled, regardless of how little you earn. You may be eligible for a trial work period to test your ability to work while continuing to receive some SSI payments.

Indies Trounced Meredith, 7-1

Scoring three runs in the opening inning Sunday, Tawas City Independents rolled to a 7-1 victory over Meredith in Northeastern Michigan League action.

The Indies cracked 11 hits during the afternoon, including a two-base blow by Bernie Link to open the seventh inning. Wayne Revord belted a triple in the eighth inning.

Bill King scattered five hits during the game and was nicked for one run in the first inning when he walked two batters and the run scored on a single. He struck out 10 during the game.

Pat Jordan, with three singles, was the leading Tawas batter. He was followed by Jerry Gracik, Revord and Kevin Mielock, each banging a pair of singles.

The Indies play host Sunday to Melita for a double header.

HOW OUR SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT OPERATES UNDER GEORGE WESTCOTT

The following testimony is given freely to the voters of Iosco County. All of the following was experienced first-hand by Mr. and/or Mrs. David H. Baker of Tawas City, on the dates as they are recorded below. We are natives of Michigan and nineteen month residents of Iosco County. We are homeowners and have two children in the Tawas Area School System. Our stake in this community is important to us. We believe the laws should apply equally to all citizens. Items No. 2 through No. 4 pertain to the continued violation of a city ordinance by one family and their friends, while on their property, which has gone on for over the space of a year unresolved. All items regard the violation of the same city ordinance.

1. June 6, 1980, an officer is willing to give a citation on the spot for a violation of a city ordinance witnessed also by the officer, at the request of the citizen-complainant.
2. June 14, 1980, Sgt. R. Westcott says a citation should be issued on the spot to any violator of a city ordinance and for the citizen-complainant to insist on the citation being issued.
3. June 16, 1980, Sheriff George Westcott states that a citizen should not have to insist on a citation being issued for a city ordinance violation but that the investigating officer should issue a citation on the spot when said officer is also a witness to the violation of a city ordinance.
4. July 7, 1980, desk officer in Sheriff's Department says that a citation shall not be issued by the investigating officer at all as "... that isn't the way we do it." Request is made that the Sheriff, George Westcott, be contacted because of his statement of June 16, 1980. Sheriff Westcott agrees with the desk officer by telephone thus nullifying his own statement of June 16, 1980; see item No. 3 above.

Citizens rights under the law are being violated by the lack of enforcement of the law under the present leadership of the Sheriff's Department. Instead, a spirit of favoritism and protectionism coupled with the engendered fear of change prevails in our community. While the Sheriff is sworn to uphold the law impartially, it appears he turns a blind eye to the solving of problems when his friends are involved. There have been other incidents of discrimination in the application of the law in our county. Remember this: No one can see behind the curtain of your voting booth. "We have nothing to fear but fear itself." This document is the only authorized version to be used for public dissemination.

Air Force Recruiting Office at East Tawas

A new full-time air force recruiting office is located at the East Tawas post office to enable the air force to serve the community and surrounding area better. SSGT. Mark A. Holthus is the new air force recruiter and will be available from 9:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. Monday through Friday or, for an appointment, call 517/362-5981.

Sergeant Holthus is a veteran recruiter having spent a year and a half in Mt. Clemens and three months recruiting in Pontiac. Prior to these assignments, Holthus served as an aircraft mechanic at Kincheloe Air Force Base for five years and Castle Air Force Base, California, for 18 months. He is married to the former Kathleen O'Connor of Rochester and they currently reside in Oscoda with their two children, Christopher, age five, and Josua, age two.

Your Social Security Eldercamp for Seniors Takes Place August 4-5

Eldercamp, a camping event for senior citizens, will take place Monday-Friday, August 4-8, with Trio Council on Aging and Oscoda Community Education cosponsoring the program for the second year. The camp will be held at Blue Horizons Educational Center on the banks of the AuSable River, seven miles west of Oscoda. During this week, senior citizens will have exclusive use of the 12-acre campground.

Campers provide their own tent, motor home or camper and food and share in a week-long outdoor living experience with senior citizens from around the area. Various optional activities will take place during the week in which commuters are also welcome to participate. Among the activities will be: Pot-luck dinner, entertainment by Hale Kitchen Band, tour of Wurtsmith Air Force Base, Senior Olympus, old-time movies, charter fishing trip, dancing, basketweaving class, paddlewheel boat trip, swimming, cards, socializing and campfires.

A registration fee for campers is charged per household for the week. There is no registration fee for commuters. Activities are pay as you go. Registration forms are available at senior centers throughout the Trio Council on Aging area and Oscoda School District Senior Centers or by requesting a form from: Beverly Rand, Eldercamp, 305 Fifth Street, Oscoda 48750.

Iosco County District 3 Voters Why We Should KEEP Carlton Merschel working for us on the Board of Commissioners

He has 8 years experience in county government and believes in and is strongly committed to:

1. Sound financial management policies—getting the most for our tax dollars.
2. The Medical Care Facility. This important institution MUST be maintained as an on-going service to our people without fear that it may have to be "abandoned" or otherwise disposed of. This can be done well within our ability.
2. Job and business related programs to provide good industrial and business climate.
4. Senior Citizen Programs. Helping wherever and when ever possible to enrich the retirement years.
5. Protection of property and rights of all citizens. To this end our law enforcement agencies such as sheriff department, courts, etc. must be maintained at a proper and adequate level.
6. Listening to the people and being willing, when necessary, to fight for what he thinks is right.

Re-Elect—CARLTON MERSCHEL, Republican, to the Iosco Board of Commissioners.
